TO THE READER.

The cauſes of vndertaking the Worke.

FOraſmuch as diuers learned men haue complained, That the Statutes at large of this flouriſhing Realme of England vnder ſo gratious a King, were worne out of print; That the laſt Impreſſions thereof had many defects and imperfections both in their tranſlation and print; That thoſe ſundry Acts, which are expired, repealed, altered, and worne out of vſe, and the generall Pardons, Subſidies, and Fifteenes, with others concerning priuate Perſons, Places, and Things, and not the whole Common-wealth, doe make the Volume ſo profuſe, as many men (which otherwiſe deſire to know the Lawes in force and vſe) are diſcouraged to haue the ſame, but rather doe read and truſt vnto Abridgements, Collections, and Abſtracts of Statutes, which wanting their Preambles and ſome other parts, doe oftentimes breed errors in the Readers, and perills in legall and iudiciall proceedings. And alſo, becauſe very many diſcreet men haue oftentimes wiſhed and deſired, That the Statutes, which be now in life, force, and generall vſe, might bee ſelected and ſet forth in one Booke by themſelues from the reſidue: to the end that they might with more facility confirme their knowledge, and be better inſtructed therein.

Therefore, being alwayes willing and ready to further ſuch good motions of importance to my power, as well for the common benefit of all men, as to ſatiſfie the requeſt of ſome of my friends, partly by mine owne labour, and partly by the helpe and aſſiſtance of a man that in his life time had moſt diligently employed himſelfe in this method; I haue vndertaken to compoſe this worke accordingly, adorned and bordered with many References to the Common Lawe, and repreſenting a connection of both, by entendment, as the Reader may eaſily diſcerne in peruſing the ſame.

Seuen properties remarkeable.

Now in ſtead of a Preface or Argument of the Book it ſelfe, the contents whereof toucheth our Life, Liberty, Lands, and Goods, to bee ſaued or loſt, the ſcope and intent of theſe ſeuen points following are ſpecially to be obſerued.

Firſt, with as great meanes, care, and induſtrie as poſſibly I could vſe, ſo many of the olde Statutes heretofore printed in the Engliſh tongue, made and publiſhed in the Reignes of the firſt Tenne Kings, (accounting from 9. of H. 3. vnto 1. of R. 3. incluſiue) as bee chiefely in vſe and practice, and which are the foundation of Proceedings both Legall and Iudiciall, haue beene by me truely and ſincerely examined by the Originall Records thereof remaining in the Tower of London, and the reſidue with the Regiſter of Writs, being the moſt ancient Booke of the Law, the old and new Natura Breuium, the Bookes of Entries, the Bookes of Yeares and Termes of the Law, the beſt approued Printed and Written Bookes, and by all ſuch other circumſtances, as might beſt giue probability of trueth vnto the Learned.

By reaſon whereof, the foreſayd defects, imperfections, and emblemiſhments, being reformed in this Edition; as it is a Collection of the moſt vſuall Lawes, gathered from out the Grand Codex of all the Statutes, ſo it may ſerue as a correction to the former impreſſions.

Secondly, To the intent that the Reader may eaſily finde the matter which hee ſeeketh for, Marginall Notes bee ſet vpon euery materiall part of euery of the ſayd Statutes.

Thirdly, At the end of euery Act, or vpon the Margent of euery Statute or ſpeciall branch thereof; Referments be made vpon euery of the ſayd Statutes of ſuch other Statutes as doe explaine or confirme, alter or change, repeale or reuiue, augment or diminiſh, or by any meanes relate vnto the ſame.

Fourthly, To the end that it may readily be found, what Writ is to be vſed vpon any Statute; Quotations are cited of ſuch Statutes, as doe giue any life or eſſence vnto any Originall or Iudiciall Writ, mentioned in the Regiſter or in the Old or New Natura Breuium.

Fifthly, That a Preſident of any Caſe vpon the Statutes might bee had, as occaſion may ſerue, and that it may appeare which of our Legall proceedings do receiue their life from the Statutes, Annotations bee impoſed vpon thoſe Statutes, which are the ground and foundation of any Count, Declaration, Barre, Replication, or other Legall or Iudiciall proceedings, collected out of the Bookes of Entries of Sir Edward Coke Knight, late Chiefe Iuſtice of the Pleas before his Maieſty to be holden, and of Iuſtice Raſtall.

Sixthly, That Students may the ſooner apprehend the ſenſe and meaning of euery Statute, as they haue beene from age to age expounded and reſolued by the learned Iudges and reuerend Sages of the Law; Booke authorities are expreſſed of all ſuch Caſes as haue beene in queſtion and adiudged in any of the Kings Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, vpon any part or point of any Statute,

And ſeuenthly, Leſt the Reader ſhould bee ignorant of thoſe Eſtabliſhments, which do concerne priuate Perſons, Places, or Things, and not the whole Commonwealth; or vnmindfull of the Acts which haue beene in effect, and now are to bee read Chronically, as matters done and paſſed, but not as Lawes now to bee obſerued: The effect and meaning of all ſuch priuate ſtatutes, together with thoſe Ordinances of this Realme which were in force, but ſince haue been repealed, altered, expired, or worne out of vſe, are here epitomized and abbridged; Noted and marked at their ende with ſeuerall Characters, thus, Pr. Rep. Exp. Alt. Ob.

The Title. For which cauſes this Booke thus compacted, is ſtiled, A Collection of ſundry Statutes frequent in vſe, with notes in the Margent, and References to the Booke Caſes, and Bookes of Entries, and Regiſters, where they bee treated of more at large, containing alſo an Abbridgement of the reſidue of the Statutes of this Realme; whereunto bee added other materiall Statutes, which before this time

Additions. haue not beene printed in Engliſh, viz. Ordinatio pro Statu Hybernia, made at Nottingham anno decimo ſeptimo Edwardi primi, and anno Domini 1288. pagina 92. Ordinatio Forreſta, made at Weſtminſter anno triceſimo quarto Edwardi primi, and anno Domini 1306. pagina 93. Statutum de Aſportatis Religioſorum, made at Weſtminſter anno triceſimo quinto Edwardi primi, and anno Domini 1307. pagina 94. Statutum, ne Rectores proſternant Arbores in Cœmiterio, made anno triceſimo quinto Edwardi primi, pagina 96. Statutum de terris Templariorum, made anno decimo ſeptimo Edwardi ſecundi, and anno Domini 1323. pagina 111. An Act declaring what Suits ſhall bee diſcuſſed before the Conſtable and Marſhall of England, made anno octauo Richardi ſecundi, Cap. 5. pagina 218. And a Preamble to an Act made anno primo Richardi tertij Cap. 6. perpetualizing the Statute made decimo ſeptimo Edwardi quarti concerning the Court of Piepoulders. pagina 386.

Kalender. And where time and leaſure will not permit the full reading of any Statute, An exact Kalender or Table is annexed to this worke, declaring in Alphabeticall titles, the effect of the moſt materiall Branches of thoſe Acts in force, and relating to the Collection precedent, wherein they be at large ſet downe & expreſſed.

Digeſt. After which Kalender, enſueth a Digeſt of the ſeueral Seßions of Parliament holden from the beginning of Magna Charta vntill this preſent time, according to the order of thoſe Statutes which are printed in Engliſh and mentioned in this Book: and alſo a Catalogue of certaine Ordinances which, amongſt other old Statutes in Magna Charta, are extant in the Latin & French language, but not as yet tranſlated & printed in Engliſh, as in their fit places more fully may appeare.

To the Reader.

Summarily, to ſpeake ſomewhat concerning the Statutes themſelues; You may vnderſtand, that the Kings Records, our printed Bookes and Manuſcripts, do make mention of two hundred fifty and foure Seſsions of Parliament, holden ſithence King William the Conqueror, beginning with the Statutes of Magna Charta, made anno nono of King Henry the third, and ending, anno ſeptimo Regis Iacobi: Of which, from anno primo Henrici ſeptimi, vntill anno ſeptimo Iacobi, there haue beene 56. Seſsions of Parliament, the Statutes wherein made, were all publiſhed in the Engliſh tongue. And beginning againe with anno nono Henrici tertij, and ending with anno primo Richardi tertij, all the other Seſsions of Parliament were publiſhed in the Latin or French tongues: whereof the Records, our printed Books and Manuſcripts, doe make mention.

Note that ſince Mr. Pulton firſt publiſhed this worke, there hath beene 4. other Seſsions of Parliament, viz. 18. & 21. Iacobi, & 1. & 3. Caroli, as appeares hereafter in the Catalogue of the publiſhed Statutes.

To conclude, Conſidering that our Lawes doe farre ſurpaſſe the Conſtitutions, not onely of the Romane Emperors, bnt alſo of all other Nations, and that the knowledge of the Lawes, Cuſtomes, and Statutes of this Realme, is a meane to direct euery Subiect, the better how to gouerne himſelfe without offending of the Law, and the better to keepe, ſaue, and defend his heritage and poſſeſsions in tranquility; and teacheth all people how to eſchue the many perillous miſchiefes and detriments which may happen by occaſion of the Breaches, Penalties, and Forfeitures incurred for not obſeruing the Law; and further, becauſe euery perſon ought to take notice of the Statutes of this Realme, I doe exhort euery one to read and meditate this worke, which as it hath beene painfully laboured by me, ſo I wiſh it may bee diligently ſtudyed by you, to the high pleaſure of Almighty God, the profit and quiet of the Common-wealth, and the increaſe of the glory of our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord the King, whom God preſerue long to reigne proſperouſly ouer vs.

Exhortation.

Thus, briefely haue you the Summe of this worke, my labours, and good-will, deſiring that it may be fauourably accepted by you, and my ſelfe eſteemed Amicus Curiæ & Reipublicæ. Now, if peraduenture amongſt ſuch a multitude of Notes and Caſes of moment, you finde in ſome points a miſtaking or error, then I beſeech you of curteſie louingly to pardon and amend the ſame, & to conſider, that he was a man that did it, Cuius proprium eſt errare: but euer did endeauour to auoid the imputation of Bellnino more in Errore perſeuerare.

Peroration.

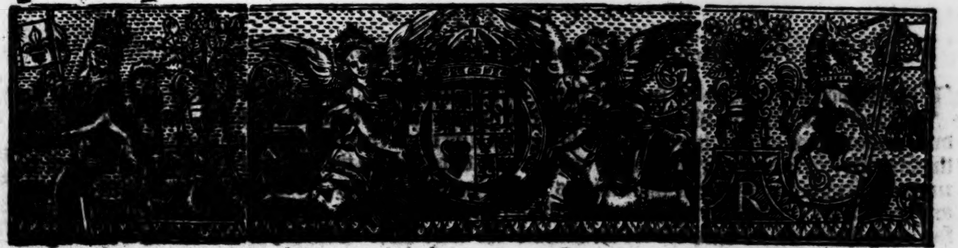
The PRINTERS to the READER.

THe laudable pains which M. Pulton hath taken in compoſing this volume, deſerues high commendation of all, but eſpecially of thoſe that haue occaſion to vſe it, being indeede by moſt men eſteemed (as it well deſerues) the apteſt & beſt way of preſenting the Statutes to publique vſe; for here you ſhall finde nothing wanting, nothing ſuperfluous: Howbeit this worthy labour of his hath ſuffered much detraction by reaſon of certain faults, and miſtakes in the former Edition. For in many places ſome things were quite omitted; in others ſometimes the Latin, ſometimes the French not rightly rendred. Againe, ſome Statutes which were in force, were ſayd to be repealed; others againe, which were repealed, were ſet downe to be in force, &c. Whereupon, leſt a worke of ſo great paines and vſe ſhould haue periſhed for want of Care, care is taken, that it might be faithfully examined and corrected from the beginning to the end. For, thoſe doubts that offered themſelues in the text, are examined by the Parliament Rolls; others, that concerned the repealing, expiring, or altering, &c. of any Statute, are reſolued by the opinions of ſome of the beſt learned Lawyers in the Kingdome: Likewiſe, the Statutes publiſhed in the former Edition, which are repealed, expired, or any way altered by the late Statutes of 21. Iac. 1. Car. or 3. Car. are ſet downe to be altered accordingly: Againe, 18. Iac. together with the ſame late Statutes of 21. Iac. 1. Car. and 3. Car. are in this Edition added to the other former Statutes, and are likewiſe adorned with marginall Notes, & Quotations, & in euery other reſpect fitted according to M. Pultons method: Laſtly, becauſe the Table annexed to the end of this Booke ought to expreſſe the moſt materiall branches of thoſe Statutes, that are now in vſe and practice, the ſame Table is ordered accordingly; for the ſubſtance of thoſe Statutes that are now expired, or repealed by the late Statutes of 21. Iac. 1. Car. and 3. Car. is taken out, and the effect of the ſame late Statutes is inſerted: In ſuch ſort, that (now wee well hope) no man ſhall haue any iuſt occaſion to except againſt this worke, but contrariwiſe, that euery one hereafter may cheerefully vſe it, and with confidence relie vpon it.



The Great Charter made in the ninth yeare of King HENRY the third, and confirmed by King EDWARD the first, in the fiue and twentieth yeare of his Reigne.

EDWARD by the grace of God, King of England, Lord of Ireland, and Duke of Guyan, to all Arch-biſhops, Biſhops, &c. We haue ſeene the Great Charter of the Lord HENRY, ſometime King of England Our Father, of the Liberties of England in theſe words.

HENRY by the Grace of God, King of England, Lord of Ireland, Duke of Normandie, and Guyan, and Earle of Anjou. To all Arch-biſhops, Biſhops, Abbots, Priors, Earles, Barons, Sheriffes, Prouoſts, Officers, and to all Bailiffes, and other our faithfull ſubiects, which ſhall ſee this preſent Charter, greeting. Know yee that Wee vnto the honour of Almightie God, and for the ſaluation of the ſoules of our Progenitors and Succeſſors Kings of England, to the aduancement of holy Church, and amendment of Our Realme, of Our meere and free will haue giuen and granted to all Arch-biſhops, Biſhops, Abbots, Priors, Earles, Barons, and to all free men of this Our Realme, theſe Liberties following, to bee kept in our Kingdome of England for euer.

HENRIE by the Grace of God, King of England, Lord of Ireland, Duke of Normandy and of Guyan, &c. as in the beginning of the great Charter.

CAP. I.

Certaine grounds ſhall be diſafforeſted.

Which Woods are to be diſafforeſted

First, We will that all Foreſts, which King Henry our Grandfather afforeſted, ſhall be viewed by good and lawfull men. And if he haue made Foreſt of any other Wood more than of his owne demeane, whereby the owner of the Wood hath been hurt, forthwith it ſhall be diſafforeſted. And if he haue made Foreſt of his owne Wood, then it ſhall remaine Foreſt. Sauing the common of herbage, and of other things in the ſame Foreſt to them, which before were accuſtomed to haue the ſame.

CAP. II.

Who are bound the Summons of the Foreſt.

Strangers.

Men that dwell out of the Foreſt from henceforth ſhall not come before the Iuſticers of our Foreſt by common Summons, vnleſſe they be impleaded there, or be ſureties for ſome other that were attached for the Foreſt.

CAP. III.

Certaine Woods made Foreſt ſhall be diſafforeſted.

Woods.

All Woods which haue béen made Foreſt by King Richard our vncle, or by King Iohn our Father, vntill our firſt Coronation, ſhall be forthwith diſafforeſted, vnleſſe it be our demeane Wood.

CAP. IIII.

No Purpreſture, Waſte, or Aſſert ſhall be made in Foreſts.

Purpreſtures, Waſtes, and Aſſerts made in Foreſts.

All Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Abbots, Priors, Earles, Barons, Knights, and other our Freeholders which haue their Woods in Foreſts, ſhall haue their Woods as they had them, at the firſt Coronation of King Henry our Grandfather, ſo that they ſhall be quit for euer of all Purpreſtures, Waſtes, and Aſſerts, made in thoſe Woods after that time vntill the beginning of the ſecond yeare of our Coronation: and thoſe that from henceforth doe make Purpreſture without our licence, or Waſte, or Aſſert in the ſame, ſhall anſwer vnto vs for the ſame Waſtes, Purpreſtures and Aſſerts.

CAP. V.

When Rangers ſhall make their range in the Foreſt.

Rangers.

Our Rangers ſhall goe through the Foreſt to make range, as it hath béene accuſtomed at the time of the firſt Coronation of King Henry our Grandfather, and none otherwiſe.

CAP. VI.

Lawing of Dogges in Foreſts.

This enquiry or view for Lawing of Dogges within our Foreſt ſhall be made from henceforth, when the range is made, that is to ſay, from thrée yeare to thrée yeare, and then it ſhall be done by the view and teſtimonie of lawfull men, and not otherwiſe. And ſuch lawing ſhall be done by the aſſiſe commonly vſed, that is to ſay, that thrée clawes of the forefoote ſhall be cut off by the ſkinne. But from henceforth ſuch lawing of Dogges ſhall not be, but in places where it hath béene accuſtomed from the time of the firſt Coronation of the foreſaid King Henry our Grandfather.

Lawing of Dogges.

CAP. VII.

In what onely caſes gathering ſhall be in Foreſts.

NO Foſter or Bedill from henceforth ſhall make Scotall, or gather Garbe, or Otes, or any Corne, Lambe or Pigge, nor ſhall make any gathering, but by the ſight and vpon the oath of the twelue Rangers, when they ſhall make their range. So many Foreſters ſhall be aſſigned to the kéeping of the Foreſts, as reaſonably ſhall ſéeme ſufficient for the kéeping of the ſame. Stat. 25 Ed. 3. 7.

No Extortion ſhall be made by Foreſters.

CAP. VIII.

When Swanimotes ſhall be kept, and who ſhall repaire to them.

NO Swanimote from henceforth ſhall be kept within this our Realme but thrice in the yéere, viz. in the beginning of fiftéene daies afore Michaelmas, when that our Geſt-takers or Walkers of our woods come together to take ageſtment in our demeans woods, and about the feaſt of ſaint Martin, when that our Geſt-takers ſhall receiue our pawnage. And to theſe two ſwanimotes ſhall come together, our Foſters, Verders, Geſt-takers, and none other by diſtreſſe. And the third ſwanimote ſhall be kept in the beginning of fiftéene dayes before the Feaſt of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt, when that our Geſt-takers doe méete to hunt our Déere. And at this ſwanimote ſhall méete our Foſters, Verders, and none other by diſtreſſe. Moreouer euery forty daies through the yéere, our Foſters and Verders ſhall méete to ſée the attachments of the Foreſt, as well for gréenehue, as for hunting, by the preſentment of the ſame Foſters, and before them attached. And the ſaid ſwanimotes ſhall not be kept but within the Counties, in which they haue vſed to be kept.

How many Swanimotes ſhal be holden, and when.

CAP. IX.

Who may take Agiſtment and Pawnage in Foreſts.

EVery Fréeman may ageſt his owne Wood within our Foreſt at his pleaſure, and ſhall take his pawnage. Alſo we doe grant, that euery Fréeman may driue his ſwine fréely without impediment through our demeane Woods, for to ageſt them in their owne Woods, or elſe where they will. And if the ſwine of any Fréeman lye one night within our Foreſt, there ſhall be no occaſion taken thereof, whereby he may loſe any of his owne.

Ageſtment. Pawnage.

CAP. X.

The puniſhment for killing the Kings Deere.

NO man from hence forth ſhall loſe either life or member for killing of our Déere: but if any man be taken, and conuict for taking of our Veneſon, he ſhall make a grieuous fine, if he haue any thing whereof: And if he haue nothing to loſe, he ſhall be impriſoned a yeare & a day. CAP. XI.

A Noble man may kill a Deere in the Foreſt.

WHatſoeuer Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Earle, or Baron, comming to Vs at our commandement, and paſſing by our Foreſt, it ſhall be lawfull for him to take and kill one or two of our Deer, by view of our Foreſter, if he be preſent, or elſe he ſhall cauſe one to blow an horne for him, that he ſeeme not to ſteale our Deere. And likewiſe they ſhall do returning from vs, as it is aforeſaid.

Noblemen may hunt in the Kings Foreſt.

CAP. XII.

How a Freeman may vſe his land in the Foreſt.

EVery Freeman from henceforth without danger ſhall make in his own Wood, or in his land which he hath within the Foreſt, a Mill, a Spring, a Poole, a Marſhpit, a Dike, or Earable ground, without incloſing that Earable ground, ſo that it be not to the annoyance of any of his neighbours.

Appointments in a Foreſt.

CAP. XIII.

How a Freeman may vſe his land in the Foreſt.

EVery Freeman ſhall haue within his own Woods, ayries of Haukes, Sparrow-haukes, Faulcons, Eagles, and Herons, and ſhall haue alſo the Hony that is found within his Woods.

Hawkes, Herons, Hony.

CAP.

Cap. XIIII.

Who may take Chimage or Toll in a Foreſt, for what cauſe, and how much.

What chimage is, and who may take it.

Toll.

NO Foſter from henceforth, which is not Foſter in fée, paying to vs ferme for his Bayliwike, ſhall take any Chiminage or Toll within his Bayliwike, But a Foſter in fée paying vs ferme for his Bayliwike, ſhall take Chiminage, that is to ſay, for carriage by cart the halfe yeare two pence, and for another halfe yeare two pence, for an Horſe that beareth loades, euery halfe yeare an halfe peny, and by another halfe yeare halfe a pence. And but of thoſe only that come as Merchants through his Bayliwike by licence to buy Buſhes, Timber, Barke, Cole, and to ſell it againe at their pleaſure. But for none other carriage by cart chiminage ſhall be taken. Nor chiminage ſhall not be taken but in ſuch places only where it hath béene vſed to be. Thoſe which beare vpon their backes Bruſhment, Barke, or Cole to ſell, though it be their liuing, ſhall pay no chiminage to our Foreſters, except they take it within our demeſne Woods.

Cap. XV.

Binicia pars for the eldeſt ſiſter.

HENRY by the Grace of God, King of England, Lord of Ireland, Duke of Guyan and Normandie, Earle of Aniou, To his truſty and welbeloued Gerard ſonne of Maurice Iuſticer of Ireland, Greeting. Whereas certaine Knights of the parties of Ireland, lately comming to vs, haue informed vs, that when any Land doth diſcent vnto ſiſters within our Dominion of Ireland, our Iuſtices errand in thoſe parties are in doubt whether the yonger ſiſters ought to hold of the eldeſt ſiſter, and do homage vnto her for their portions, or of the chiefe Lord, and doe homage vnto him. And foraſmuch as the ſaid Knights haue requeſted to be certified, how it hath béen vſed heretofore within our Realme of England in like caſe: at their inſtance we doe you to wit, that ſuch a Law and Cuſtome is in England in this caſe, that if any holding of vs in Chiefe, happen to die, hauing daughters to his heires, our anceſtors and we after the death of the father, haue alwaies had and receiued homage of all ſuch daughters, and euery of them in this caſe doe hold of vs in chiefe. And if they happened to be within age, we haue alway had the Ward and marriage of euery of them. And if he be tenant vnto another Lord, and not to vs (the ſiſters being within age) the Lord ſhall haue the Ward and marriage of them all, and the eldeſt onely ſhall doe homage for her ſelfe and all her ſiſters. And when the other ſiſters come to full age, they ſhall doe their ſeruice to the Lords of the Fée by the hands of the eldeſt ſiſter: yet ſhall not the eldeſt by this occaſion exact of her yonger ſiſters homage, ward, or any other ſubiection, for they be all ſiſters, and in manner as one heire to one inheritance, and if the eldeſt ſhould haue homage of the other ſiſters, and demand Wardſhip, then the inheritance ſhould be diuided, ſo that the eldeſt ſiſter ſhould be ſeignioreſſe and tenant of inheritance (ſimul & ſemel) that is to ſay, heire of her owne part, and ſeignioreſſe to her ſiſters, which could not ſtand well together in this caſe, for the eldeſt can demand no more than her ſiſters, but the chiefe meaſe by reaſon of her ancienty. Moreouer, if the elder ſiſter ſhould take homage of the yonger, ſhe ſhould be as a ſeignioreſſe to them all, and ſhould haue the Ward of them and their heires, which ſhould be none other but to caſt the Lambe to the Wolfe to be deuoured. And therfore we command you that you cauſe the foreſaid Cuſtomes that be vſed within our Realme of England in this caſe, to be proclaimed throughout our Dominion of Ireland, and to be ſtraitly kept and obſerued. Statutes made at Merton 23. Ianuarij. Anno 20.
H.3. & Anno Dom. 1235.

IT was prouided in the Court of our Lord the King, holden at Merton on Wedneſday, the morrow after the Feaſt of Saint Vincent, the twentieth yeare of the Reigne of King HENRIE the Sonne of King IOHN, before WILLIAM Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and other his Biſhops and Suffragans, and before the greater part of the Earles and Barons of England, there being aſſembled for the Coronation of the ſaid King, and Alianor the Queene, about which they were all called: where it was treated for the Common wealth of the Realme vpon the Articles vnder written. Thus it was prouided and granted as well of the foreſaid Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Earles and Barons, as of the King himſelfe and others.

The Statute de Anno Biſſextili made at VVeſtminſter, Anno 21.H.3. and Anno Dom.1236.

The day of the Leape yeare, and the day before ſhall be holden for one day.

THe King vnto his Iuſtices of the Bench, greeting. Know ye, That where within our Realme of England, it was doubted of the yeare and day that were wont to be aſſigned vnto ſicke perſons being impleaded, when and from what day of the yeare going before vnto another day of the yeare following, the yeare and day in a Leape yeare ought to be taken and reckoned how long it was.

We therefore willing that a conformitie be obſerued in this behalfe euery where within our Realme, and to auoyde all danger from ſuch as be in plea, haue prouided, and by the counſaile of our faithfull ſubiects, haue ordayned, that to take away from henceforth all doubt and ambiguitie that might ariſe hereupon, the day increaſing in the Leape yeare ſhall be accounted for one yeare, ſo that becauſe of that day none ſhall be preiudiced that is impleaded, but it ſhall be taken and reckoned of the ſame moneth wherein it groweth, and that day, and the day next going before, ſhall be accounted for one day. And therefore we doe command you, that from henceforth you doe cauſe this to be publiſhed afore you, and be obſerued. Witneſſe my ſelfe at Weſtminſter, &c.

The prices of Bread and Ale, ſhall be according to the prices of Corne.

THe King to all to whom theſe Preſents ſhall come, greeting. We haue ſeene certaine Ordinances of the Aſſiſe of Bread and Ale, and of the making of Money and Meaſures, made in the times of our Progenitors, ſometimes Kings of England, in theſe words: When a quarter of Wheat is ſold for xii.d. then waſtell bread of a farthing ſhall weigh vi.li.& xvi.s. But Bread Cocket of a farthing of the ſame Corne and bultell, ſhall weigh more than waſtell by ii.s. and Cocket bread made of Corne of lower price, ſhall weigh more than waſtell by v.s. Bread made into a Simnell, ſhall weigh ii.s. leſſe than waſtell. Bread made of the whole wheat ſhall weigh a cocket and an halfe, that is to ſay, the Cocket, that ſhall weigh more than a waſtell by v.s. Bread of Treet ſhall weigh ii.waſtels. And bread of common Corne ſhall weigh two cockets. When a quarter of wheat is ſold for xviii.d. then waſtell bread of a farthing white and well baked, ſhall weigh iiii.li.x.s.viii.d. when for ii.s.iii.li.viii.s.

When a quarter of Wheat is ſold for iii.s. or iii.s.iiii.d. and Barley for xx.d. or ii.s. and a quarter of Otes for xvi.d. then Brewers in Cities ought and may well afford to ſell two gallons of Beere or Ale for a peny, and out of Cities to ſell three gallons for a peny. And when in a Towne three gallons is ſold for a peny, out of a towne they ought and may ſell foure. And this Aſſiſe ought to be holden throughout all England. The aſſiſe of Bread (as it is contained in a writing of the Marſhalſey of our Lord the King deliuered vnto them) may be holden according to the price of wheat, that is to ſay, as well waſtell, as other bread of the better, ſecond or third ſort, ſhall be weighed as is aforeſaid by the middle price of wheat, and the aſſiſe or weight of bread ſhall not be changed but by ſixe pence increaſing or decreaſing in the ſale of a quarter.

The content of the Buſhel being the 8 part of a quarter.

By the conſent of the whole Realme of England, the meaſure of our Lord the King was made, That is to ſay, that an Engliſh peny called a ſterling round and without any clipping ſhall weigh xxxii. wheat cornes in the middes of the eare, and xx.d. doe make an ounce, and xii. ounces one pound, and eight pound doe make a gallon of wine, and eight gallons of wine doe make a London Buſhell, which is the eight part of a Quarter. Foraſmuch as in our Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the firſt yeare of our Reigne, We haue granted that all good Statutes and Ordinances made in the times of our Progenitors aforeſaid, and not reuoked, ſhall be ſtill held, we haue cauſed, at the requeſt of the Bakers of our Towne of Couentrie, that the Ordinances aforeſaid by tenor of theſe preſents, ſhall be exemplified. A Sheriffe which receiueth the Kings debt, ſhall acquite the debter.
St.3.Ed.1.19.

Statutum de Scaccario, made Anno 51.Hen.3. and anno Domini 1266.

When the Kings Fermors, Sherifes and Bailifes ſhall mak their accompts and paiments. Who ſhalbe Eſcheators in ſeuerall Shires.

When the K. Bailiffes and Officers ſhall accompt.

THe King commandeth, that all manner of Bailifes, Sherifes, and other Officers, as well the Iuſtices of Cheſter, and other Bailifes of theſe Counties, as other that be receiuors of Wards, of Eſcheats, and other Bailiwikes, ſhall be anſwerable in the Eſchequer, and there ſhall make account to the Treaſurer, and Barons of the ſame place. And that all Sherifes, Fermors, Bailifes of Franchiſes, and other that ought to come to the profer in the Eſchequer the Munday after the Feaſt of S. Michael and the Munday after the Vtas of Eaſter, for to pay their Ferms, Rents, and Iſſues, belonging to the King, ſhall bring at the foreſaid termes, the foreſaid Fermes, Rents, and Iſſues due wholly into the Eſchequer, as before is mentioned. And if they make default, their bodies ſhall remaine without departing from thence vntill they haue paid or made agréement, And he that will not come at the termes aforeſaid, ſhall be amerced after the cuſtome of the Eſchequer, and the Sherifes and Bailifes at the ſame termes ſhall bring and pay ſuch money as they haue receiued of the ſummons of the Eſchequer, and other the Kings debts, and ſhall be prepared and ready to make ful accompt of the things aforeſaid.

Bailiffes of Franchiſes accompt.

And that all Bailifes of Franchiſes, which ought to leuie the Kings debts, and be anſwerable to the Sherifes thereof at their commaundement, ſhall come and accompt ſufficiently according to the extreats of the Summons of the Eſchequer: and ſuch as doe not their, bodies ſhall remaine in ward of the Sherifes: and for default in them, the Sherife ſhall cauſe the debts to bée leuied by their owne Bailifes, where they haue power as they haue vſed to doe in time paſſed. And if the Bailifes doe not come in at the day that the Sherife ſhall giue them knowledge, the Sherife ſhall enter into the ſame Franchiſes, and leuie the debts with his owne hand.

Concerning Iuſtices of Cheſter, and ſhailifes thereof, the King willeth, that they or ſome of them ſhall come at the profer of Saint Michael euery yeare when they ought to giue account vnto the King, and at the profer of the vtas of Eaſter they ſhall come likewiſe, and bring in that which they owe to the King for that terme, and the Juſtices of Cheſter ſhall haue day to accompt from yeare to yeare in Quindena Paſche. And the Bailifes thereof the Munday of Eaſter vtas. And that all Sherifes of England, except the Sherifes of Weſtmerland, Lancaſter, Worceſter, Rutland, and Cornwall, ſhall from henceforth keepe all ſuch Wards and Eſchetes, that are not in other fees, as belong to the King, which be within their Shires, and of the iſſues thereof they ſhall be anſwearable in the Eſchequer at the termes aforeſaid. And at their turnes that they make in their Shires, they ſhall finde office of other things which the Kings Eſcheators haue not vſed to find of that which belongeth vnto the King once or twice in the yeare to as little grieuance of the people as they can. And the Sherifes ſhall ſeiſe the eſchetes that fall to remaine vnto the King in Fee, and ſhall certifie the King of them without delay.

Three Surueyors.

Wards and eſchetes let to ferme.

And the King ſhall aſſigne three able perſons that ſhall goe throughout the Realme, to ſuruey and finde the wardes and eſchetes aforeſaid, from yeare to years when they ſhall thinke requiſite. And the Sherifes by their counſell ſhall approue and let to ferme, or otherwiſe, ſuch wards and eſchetes as they ſhall thinke moſt for the Kings aduantage.

Sheriffes Eſcheators in other Shires.

Touching the fiue Shires before named, the King will, That the Sherife of Cumberland ſhall execute the Office of Eſcheator in the Shires of Weſtmerland, and Lancaſter. And the Sherife of Nottingham in Rutland. And the Sherife of Glouceſter in Worceſter. And the Sherife of Deuonſhire in Cornewall, and ſhall ſafely keepe the King his Wards and Eſchetes in the ſame Shires, & ſhall be anſwerable in the Eſchequer for the Iſſues of them as well as for their owne Shires. And the three able perſons aforeſaid ſhall ſuruey and extend ſuch Wards and Eſcheats as well there as in other places,, and thoſe ſhall be approued by their counſell. And when the Sheriffes doe accompt for their Counties, they ſhall accompt for ſuch Wards and Eſcheats. And in like manner ſhall the Juſtices of Cheſter doe, and their Bailiffes alſo euery one for his Bailiwike. And the ſaid three able perſons ſhall keepe the Kings demeanes, and ſhall approue them as they ſhall thinke beſt for the Kings aduantage, and ſhall be anſwerable for the Iſſues: And they ſhall haue power to let forth ſmall Mannors and Demeanes to folke of the ſame places, or to other according to their diſcretion, and ſhall let them to ferme from year to yeare, as they ſhall thinke moſt to the Kings profit. And the Fermors ſhall be chargeable for their Fermes vnto the principal approuers, and they vnto the Eſchequer the Munday next after the Aſcention from yeare to yeare.

Collectors of the cuſtome of wooll.

And the principall Collectors of the cuſtome of Woolles, at the two termes before mentioned, ſhall pay all ſuch money as they haue receiued of the ſaid Cuſtome, and ſhall make accompt from yeare to yeare clearly of all parcels receiued in any of the Ports or other places of the Realme, ſo that they ſhall anſwere for euery Ship where it was charged, and how much it carried, and whoſe the Wools were, and for euery other charge in the Ship, whereof cuſtome is due, and for the whole receipt.

The accompt of the Keeper of the Kings wardrop.

The Kings debt ſhall firſt be heard.

And the Warden of the Kings Wardrope ſhall make accompt yearly in the Eſchequer in the Feaſt of Saint Margaret, And the Treaſurer and Barons ſhall be charged by oath, that they ſhall not attend to heare the pleas or matters of other men, whiles they haue to doe with the Kings buſineſſe, if it be not a matter that concerneth the Kings owne debt. And when a Sheriffe or Bailiffe hath begun his accompt, none other ſhall be receiued to accompt, vntill hee that was firſt appointed hath clearly accompted, and his money receiued. And that the Conſtable, Marſhall, Chamberlaine, and other that are of Fee in the Eſchequer, from henceforth ſhall preſent vnto the King ſuch as they haue put in their places to doe their Offices, which muſt be of good fame, and ſufficent, for whoſe acts themſelues will anſwer.

Deputie officers in the Eſchequer.

And the King commandeth the Treaſurer, and Barons of the Eſchequer vpon their allegiance, and by the oath that they haue made to him, that they ſhall not aſſigne any in their roomes, but ſuch as this Act meaneth of, and that the Eſchequer be not charged with moe perſons than is neceſſary. And that none of them that be ſworne to the King, ſhall put in his Roome any other Clerke or lay perſon, except he be ſworne without ſpeciall Licence of the Treaſurer, and if any bee, he ſhall be forthwith remoued from his Office, And none other ſhall be receiued in his ſtead without the Kings Licence. And if any that is receiued without the Treaſurers licence doe treſpaſſe after, puniſhment ſhall be done as well to the aſſignor, as to him that is aſſigned. according to the treſpaſſe. And if both be vnſufficient, their Superior ſhall be puniſhed, whether he bee Officer of Fee, or other. And the Treaſurer ſhall put no other in his roome, vntil he hath commandement from the King. And if he that keepeth the roome of an other by licence of the Treaſurer doeth any thing that he ought not to doe, he ſhall be puniſhed according to the treſpaſſe, if he haue whereof, and if he haue not, he that put him in Office, ſhal be charged for his treſpaſſe, and if he that put him in Office bee not ſufficient, his Superiour, ſhall be charged, whether he be of Fee or otherwiſe.

And they of the Woolſtaple ſhall make oath, that if any of them may perceiue that an other doth commit any default, offence, or other thing diſhoneſt in the Office of the Woolſtaple, or that he hath done before, that they ſhall certifie it to the Treaſurer, or to the Barons, or to ſome of them, or to the King himſelfe if néed require. And that about the Feaſt of Saint Margaret, before that the Eſchequer be cloſed, they ſhall cauſe a ſearch to be made, whether any Sherife or Bailife, that ought to haue accompted the ſame yeare, haue not, and thereupon a remembrance in a roll ſhall be made by it ſelfe. And if it be a Sherife, his accompt ſhall be firſt heard after Michaelmas, before that any other be receiued to accompt. And if he be a Bailife, he ſhall be ſũmoned or diſtrained to come at a certaine day for to accompt, ſo that no accompt ſhall be ſuffered to ſléepe. And foraſmuch as Sherifes, Conſtables, and other, obtaine many times outragious allowances, by pretence of the Kings workes, and other things done and prouided by his commandement: It is prouided, that all Surueiors of the Kings workes ſhall be choſen by the oath of twelue men, and of ſuch as will and may attend beſt to that office, and that they bée ſufficient to anſwere the King, if néed bée, and ſhall ſweare, that they bare lawfull witneſſe. And if the Treaſurer or Barons of the Eſchequer haue any ſuſpition of ſale, allowances of charges, or other things, the truth muſt be inquired, and he that is attainted, ſhall anſwere to the King for as much as the allowance amounteth vnto, and ſhall be impriſoned one yeare and forty daies and ſhall be puniſhed at the Kings pleaſure. And the Surueyors ſhall be puniſhed for their conſent. And likewiſe hée, that vpon the account did conceale and kéepe ſecret ſuch things, whereof he ought to haue charged himſelfe, ſhall be puniſhed in likewiſe as he that admitted ſuch falſe allowances.

Officers in the woolſtaple ſhall be preſented.

The Kings officers that ought to accompt.

Surueyors of the Kings workes.

And that all the Juſticers, commiſſioners, and other ſhall from henceforth deliuer into the Eſchequer at the Feaſt of Saint Michael from yeare to yeare, the extreats of fines and amerciaments made and taxed before them, and of all things wherefore the extreats are wont to be deliuered there. And they of the Eſchequer ſhall make extreats of the ſummons through all Shires, ſauing that the extreats in Eire of all pleas ſhall be deliuered immediately after the Eire made.

Eſtreits of fines and amerciaments ſhall be deliuered in the Eſchequer.

A Statute of the Pillorie and tumbrell, and of the Aſſiſe of Bread and Ale, made Anno 51.

H. 3. and Ann. Dom. 1266.

IF a Baker or a Brewer be conuict, becauſe he hath not obſerued the Aſſiſe of Bread and Ale, the firſt, ſecond, and third time he ſhall be amerced according to his offence, if it be not ouer grieuous, but if the offence be grieuous and often, and will not be corrected, then he ſhall ſuffer puniſhment of the body, that is to wit a Baker to the Pillory, and a Brewer to the Tumbrell, or ſome other correction. Firſt, ſixe lawfull men ſhall be ſworne truly to gather all meaſures of the towne, that is to wit, buſhels. halfe and quarter buſhels, gallons, pottels and quarts, as well of tauernes as of other places. Meaſures and weights, that is to wit, pounds, halfe pounds, and other little weights, wherewith bread of the towne or of the Court is wayed, that is to ſay, one loafe of euery ſort of bread, And vpon the meaſures, buſhell, weight, and alſo vpon euery loafe the name of the owner diſtinctly written. And likewiſe they ſhall gather the meaſures of milles. After which thing done, twelue lawfull men ſhall ſweare to make true anſwere to all ſuch things as ſhall be demanded of them in the Kings behalfe vpon articles here following, and ſuch things as be ſecret, they ſhall vtter ſecretly, and anſwere priuatly. And the Bailife ſhall be commanded to bring in al the Bakers and Brewers with their meaſures, and all things vnderwritten. First they ſhall inquire the price of wheate, that is to wit, how a quarter of the beſt wheate was ſold the laſt market day, and how the ſecond wheate, and how the third: and how a quarter of Barley and Oates. After, how the Bakers bread in the Court doth agrée, that is to wit, waſtel and other bread after wheat of the beſt or of the ſecond. or of the third price. Alſo vpon how much increaſe or decreaſe in the price of wheat a Baker ought to change the aſſiſe and weight of his bread. Alſo how much the waſtel of a farthing ought to weigh, and all other maner of bread after the price of a quarter of wheat that they preſent. Alſo for default in the weight of the bread a Baker ought to be amerced, or to be iudged vnto the pillory, according to the law and cuſtome of the Court. Alſo if any Steward or Bailife for any bribe doth releaſe puniſhment of the pillory and tumbrell, being already iudged, or to be iudged of right.

Alſo if there be any that ſell by one meaſure, and buy by another. Alſo if any doe vſe falſe ells, waights or meaſures. And if any Butcher doe ſell contagious fleſh, or that died of the murren. Alſo they ſhall enquire of Cookes that ſeethe fleſh or fiſh with bread or water, or any otherwiſe that is not wholeſome for mans body, or after that they haue kept it ſo long that it loſeth his naturall wholeſomeneſſe, and then ſeeth it againe and ſell it, or if any doe buy fleſh of Iewes, & then ſell it to Chriſtians. And alſo Foreſtallers, that buy any thing afore the due and accuſtomed houre, againſt the good ſtate and weale of the towne and market, or that paſſe out of the towne to meet ſuch things as come to the market, being out of the towne, to the intent that they may ſell the ſame in the towne more deare vnto regrators, that vtter it more deare than they would that brought it in caſe they had come to the towne or market. When a quarter of Barley is ſold for two ſhillings, then foure quarts of Ale ſhal be ſold for a peny, whẽ for two ſhilling ſix pence, then ſeuen quarts of Ale ſhall be ſold for two pence, when for three ſhillings, then three quarts for one peny, when for three ſhillings ſixe pence, then fiue quarts for two pence, when it is ſold for foure ſhillings, then two quarts at one peny. And ſo from henceforth the prices ſhall increaſe and decreaſe after the rate of ſixe pence.

Foreſtallers.

Ale ſhall be ſold according to the price of Barley.

¶ Statutes made at Marleborough alias Marlebridge

18.*Nouemb.An.52.Hen.3.& An.Dom.*1267.

IN the yeare of grace, One thouſand two hundred ſixty ſeuen, the two and fiftieth yeare of the raigne of King HENRY, ſon of King IOHN, in the Vtas of Saint Martine, the ſaid King our Lord prouiding for the better eſtate of this Realme of England, and for the more ſpeedy miniſtration of Iuſtice, as belongeth to the office of a King, the more diſcreet men of the Realme being called together, as well of the higher as of the lower eſtate: It was prouided, agreed, and ordained, that whereas the Realme of England of late had bin diſquieted with manifold troubles and diſſentions: for reformation whereof Statutes and Lawes be right neceſſary, whereby the peace and tranquility of the people muſt be obſerued: wherein the King intending to deuiſe conuenient remedy, hath made theſe Acts, Ordinances and Statutes vnder written, which he willeth to bee obſerued for euer, firmely and inuiolably of all his ſubiects, as well high as lowe.

CAP. I.

The penalty for taking a diſtreſſe wrongfully.

WHereas at the time of a Commotion late ſtirred vp within this Realme, & alſo ſithence many great men, and diuers other refuſing to be iuſtified by the King and his Court, like as they ought and were wont in the time of the Kings noble progenitors, and alſo in his time, but tooke great reuenges and diſtreſſes of their neighbours, and of other, vntill they had amends and fines at their owne pleaſure. And further, ſome of them would not be iuſtified by the Kings Officers, nor would ſuffer them to make deliuery of ſuch diſtreſſes as they had taken of their owne anthority: It is prouided, agreed and granted, That all perſons as well of high as of low eſtate, ſhall receiue Iuſtice in the Kings Court. And none from henceforth ſhall take any ſuch reuenge or diſtreſſe of his owne authoritie without award of our Court, though he haue damage or iniury, whereby he would haue amends of his neighbour either higher or lower. And vpon the foreſaid article it is prouided and granted, that if any from henceforth take ſuch reuenges of his owne authority, without award of the Kings Court, (as before is ſaid) and be conuict thereof, he ſhall be puniſhed by fine, and that according to the treſpaſſe. And likewiſe if one neighbour take a diſtreſſe of another without award of the Kings Court, whereby he hath damage, he ſhall be puniſhed in the ſame wiſe, and that after the quantity of the treſpaſſe. And neuertheleſſe ſufficient and full amends ſhall be made to them that haue ſuſtained loſſe by ſuch diſtreſſes.

And if he come in, or enter with the good will, or againſt the will of the Lord or his Bayliffe, hee ſhall cauſe no doore, locke, nor window, nor nothing that is ſhut to be opened or broken by himſelfe nor any other, nor no maner of victuall nor other thing ſhall take by colour of buying nor otherwiſe, And that none ſhall threſh corne, nor take corne, nor any maner of victuall, nor other goods of a Prelate, man of religion, nor any other Clerke, or lay perſon by colour of buying or otherwiſe againſt the will and licence of him, to whom the thing belongeth, or of the Keeper, be it within Market Towne or without. And that none ſhall take Horſes, Oxen, Ploughes, Carts, Ships, nor Barges, to make carriage without the aſſent of him to whom ſuch things belong. And if he doe it by the aſſent of the party, then incontinent he ſhall pay according to the couenant made betweene them. And they that offend againſt theſe Acts, and thereof bee attainted, ſhall be committed to the Kings priſon, and after ſhall make fine, and be puniſhed according to the quantitie and manner of the treſpaſſe: and after as the King in his Court ſhall thinke conuenient. And it is to be knowne, that if they, to whom ſuch treſpaſſe was done, will ſue for damages, they ſhall be thereto receiued, and the ſame ſhall be a warded and reſtored to the double. And they that haue done the treſpaſſe, ſhall be likewiſe puniſhed in the manner aboue ſaid. And if none will ſue, the King ſhall haue the ſuite, as for a thing committed againſt his commandement, and againſt his Peace. And the King ſhall make inquirie from yeare to yeare, what perſons doe ſuch treſpaſſes, after as he ſhall thinke neceſſary and conuenient. And they that be indicted by ſuch inqueſts, ſhall be attached and conſtrained by that great diſtreſſe, to come at a certaine day containing the ſpace of a moneth into the Kings Court, or where it ſhall pleaſe the King. And if they come not at that day, they ſhall be diſtrained againe of new by the ſame diſtreſſe, for to come at another day, containing the ſpace of ſixe weekes at the leaſt, and if they come not then, they ſhall be iudged as attained, & ſhall yeeld double damages (at the Kings ſuit) to ſuch as haue taken hurt or damage, and ſhall make grieuous fine after the maner of the treſpaſſe. And the King forbiddeth and cōmandeth, that none from hence forth doe hurt, damage, or grieuance to any religious man or perſon of the Church, or any other, becauſe they haue denied meat or lodging vnto them, or becauſe that any complaineth in the Kings Court that he hath beene grieued in any of the things aboue mentioned. And if any doe, and hereof be attainted, he ſhall incurre the paine aforeſaid. And it is further prouided, that the points aforeſaid ſhall as well bind our Counſellors, Iuſticers of Foreſts, and other our Iuſtices, as any other perſons, and that the foreſaid points be maintained, obſerued, and kept. Likewiſe the King forbiddeth vpon grieuous forfeitures, that no Prelate, Abbot, man of religion, or Bailiffe of any of them, or of other, receiue any man contrarie to the forme aforeſaid. And that none ſhall ſend to the houſe or manor of a man of religion, or of any other perſon, his men, horſe, or dogges, to ſoiourne: nor none ſhall them receiue, and he that doth (ſeeing the King hath commanded the contrarie) ſhall be grieuouſly puniſhed: yet it is further prouided, that the Sherife from henceforth ſhall not lodge with any perſon, with any moe the nfiue or ſixe horſes. And that they ſhall not grieue religious men, nor other by often comming or lodging, neither at their houſes, nor their mannors, Stat.9. E.2.11.

The remedie where a Gardian maketh a feoffement of his Wards Land, Suite by Prochein Amy.

The remedy where a gardian maketh a feoffement of his Wards Land. V.N.B.fo.106.

IF a Gardian or Chiefe Lord infeoffe any man of Land that is the inheritance of a child within age, and in his Ward, to the diſheritance of the Heire: It is prouided, that the Heire ſhall forthwith haue his recouery by Aſſiſe of Nouell diſſeiſin againſt his Gardian, and againſt the Tenant. And the ſeiſin ſhall be deliuered by the Juſtices (if it be recouered) to the next friend of the Heire (to whom the inheritance can not deſcend) for to improue to the vſe of the heire, and to anſwer for his iſſues vnto the heire, when he ſhall come vnto his full age, and the Gardian during his life ſhall loſe the Cuſtody of the thing recouered, and all the inheritance that he holdeth by reaſon of the heire. And if another Gardian then the chiefe Lord doe it, hée ſhall loſe the Wardſhip of all together, and be grieuouſly puniſhed by the King. And if the Infant be carried away or diſturbed, by the Gardian, or by the Feoffée, or by other, by reaſon whereof he cannot ſue his Aſſiſe, then may one of his next friends (that will) ſue for him, which ſhall be thereto admitted.

The Tenants plea in a Writ of Dower. At what times Aſſiſes ſhall be taken.

The plea in dower Vnde nihil habet.

IN a Writ of Dower called (Vnde nihil habet) the Writ ſhal not abate by the exception of the Tenant, becauſe ſhe hath receiued her dower of another man before her Writ purchaſed, vnleſſe he can ſhew, that ſhe hath receiued part of her dower of himſelfe, and in the ſame Towne before the Writ purchaſed. And foraſmuch as the King hath ordeined theſe things vnto the honour of God and holy Church, and for the Common wealth, and for the remedy of ſuch as be grieued, he would not that at any other time it ſhould turne in preiudice of himſelfe, or of his Crowne, but that ſuch right as appertaines to him ſhould be ſaued in all points: And foraſmuch as it is great charitie to doe right vnto all men at all times (when néede ſhall be) by the aſſent of all the Prelates it was prouided, that Aſſiſes of nouell diſſeiſin, Mortdaunceſtor, and Darreine preſentment, ſhould be taken in Aduent, Septuageſima, and Lent: euen as well as enqueſts may be taken, and that at the ſpeciall requeſt of the King, made vnto the Biſhops.

¶ A Statute intituled, Extenta Manerij, made Anno 4. Ed. 1. & Anno Dom. 1276. Expreſsing a Sur-uey of the Buildings, Lands, Commons, Parkes Woods, Tenants, &c.

The buildings.

First, it is to bee inquired of the Caſtels, and alſo of other Buildings, compaſſed about with ditches, what the Walles, Buildings, Timber, Stone, Lead, and other manner of couering is worth, and how they may be prized according to the very value of the ſame walles and building. And for how much the buildings without the ditch may bee prized, and what they bee worth with the Gardens, Curtilages, Doue-houſes, and all other Iſſues of the Court by the yeare.

The demeſnes.

It is to be inquired alſo, how many fields are of the Demeſnes, and how many acres of land are in euery field, and what euery acre is worth by the yeare, and how many acres of meadow are of the Demeſnes, and how many bee in a field, and how much euery acre by it ſelfe is worth by the yeare to be let. Alſo how many acres of paſture there be, and for what beaſts or cattell the ſame paſture is moſt neceſſarie, and how many it will find, and of what manner, and what the paſture of euery beaſt is worth to be let by the yeare.

The forraine paſture.

Alſo it is to be inquired of forraine paſture, that is Common, how many and what beaſts and cattel the Lord may haue in the ſame, and how much the paſture of euery beaſt is worth by the yeare to be let.

The parkes and demeſne woods.

Alſo it is to be inquired of Parkes, and demeane Woods, which the Lord may aſſert and improue at his pleaſure, and how many acres they containe, and how much the veſture of an acre is worth, and how much the land is worth after the Wood is felled, and how many acres it containeth, and how much euery acre is worth by yeare.

Forraine woods.

Alſo it is to bee inquired of forraine Woods, where other men haue Common, and how much the Lord may improue to himſelfe of the ſame Woods, and how many acres, and for how much the veſture of euery acre may be valued at, and how much the ground is worth yearely after that the Wood is felled, and how many acres it containeth, and what euery acre is worth by the yeare. And it is to be inquired, whether the Lord may giue or ſell any thing of the reſidue of the foreſaid Woods, and what ſuch gifts and ſales are worth by the yeare.

Pawnage. herbage.

Alſo it is to be inquired of pawnage, herbage of the Towne, Hony, and all other profits of Forreſts, Woods, Riuers, Mores, Mariſhes, Heathes, Turbary and waſt, and how much it is worth by the yeare.

Milles, fiſhings.

Alſo of Milles, Fiſhings, Seuerall and Common, what they be worth by the yeare.

Freeholders.

Alſo it is to be inquired of Freeholders, the which dwell without as well as within, that is to ſay, how many Freeholders there be, and what manner lands and tenements, and what fees they hold, and by what ſeruices, whether it be by Socage, or Knights Seruice, or otherwiſe, and what they are worth, and pay yearely of Rent of Aſſiſe, and who hold by Charter, and who not, and who by old tenure, and who by new feoffement. Alſo it is to be inquired of the ſaid free Tenants, which doe follow the Court of the Countie, and which not, and what, and how much falleth to the Lord after the death of ſuch free Tenants.

Coke li. 4. fo. 21.

Cuſtomary tenants.

It is to bee inquired alſo of cuſtomary Tenants, that is to wit, how many there bee, and how much land euery of them holdeth, what workes and cuſtomes he doth, and what the workes and cuſtomes of euery Tenant be worth yearely, and how much rent of Aſſiſe he paid yearely beſides the workes and cuſtomes, and which of them may be taxed at the will of the Lord and which not.

Cotages, and Curtilages.

It is alſo to be inquired of Cotages, that is to ſay, what Cotages, and Curtelages they hold, and by what Seruice, and how much they doe pay by the yeare for all their Cotages and Curtilages.

Perquiſites of Courts.

It is alſo to be inquired of Pleas and perquiſites of the Counties of the Courts of the Forreſts, with lawing of dogges, and how much they be worth by the yeare in all iſſues.

Patronages.

It is alſo to be inquired of Churches, that belong to the Lords gift, how many there be, and what, and where, and how much euery Church is worth by the yeare after, the true eſtimation of the ſame.

Liberties, cuſtomes, and ſeruices.

It is alſo to be inquired, what bee the value of Herriots, Faires, Markets, Eſcheates, Cuſtomes, Seruices, and forraine workes and cuſtomes, and what the Pleas and perquiſites of Courts, fines, and reliefes, and all other caſualties, are worth by the yeare, that may fall in any of theſe things.

A Statute De Officio Coronatoris, made Anno 3. or 4. Ed. 1. and Anno Domini 1276.

Of what things a Coroner ſhall inquire.

Of what things a Coroner ſhall inquire.

Murder.

Inquirie of the Offendors.

A man found ſlaine.

The murderer found culpable.

A Coroner of our Lord the King ought to inquire of theſe things, If hée be certified by the Kings Bailiffes, or other honeſt men of the Countrey. Firſt, hée ſhall goe to the places where any bée ſlaine, or ſodainly dead, or wounded, or where houſes are broken, or where treaſure is ſaid to be found, and ſhall forthwith command foure or fiue of the next townes or fiue or ſixe to appeare before him in ſuch a place, and when they are come thither, the Coroner vpon the oathe of them ſhall inquire in this manner: That is to wit, if it be of a man ſlaine, firſt it is to be inquired, where he was ſlaine, whether it were in any houſe, field, bed, tauerne, or company, and who were there. Likewiſe it is to be inquired, who were culpable, either of the act, or of the force, and who were preſent, either men or women, and of what age ſoeuer they be (if they can ſpeake or haue any diſcretion) and how many ſoeuer be found culpable by inquiſition in any of the meanes aforeſaid they ſhall be taken and deliuered to the Sheriffe, and ſhall be committed to the Gaole: and ſuch as be founden, and be not culpable, ſhall be attached vntill the comming of the Iuſtices, and their names ſhall be written in the Coroners Rolles. If it fortune any ſuch man be ſlaine, which is found in the fields, or in the woods, firſt it is to be inquired whether he were ſlaine in the ſame place or not. And if he were brought and laid there, they ſhall doe ſo much as they can, to follow their ſteps that brought the body thither, whether he were brought vpon a Horſe, or in a Cart. It ſhall be inquired alſo, if the dead perſon were knowne, or elſe a ſtranger, and where he laid the night before. And if any be found culpable of the murder, the Coroners ſhall immediately goe vnto his houſe, and ſhall inquire what goods he hath, and what corne he hath in his graunge: and if he be a frée man, they ſhall inquire how much land he hath, and what it is worth yearely, and further what corne he hath vpon the ground. And when they haue thus inquired vpon euery thing, they ſhall cauſe all the land, corne, and goods to be valued, in like manner as if they ſhould be ſold incontinently, & therupon they ſhall be deliuered to the whole townſhip, which ſhall be anſwerable before the Iuſtices for all. And likewiſe of his fréehold how much it is worth yearely ouer and aboue the ſeruice due to the Lords of the fée, and the land ſhall remaine in the Kings hands, vntill the Lords of the Fée haue made fine for it. And immediatly vpon theſe things being inquired, the bodies of ſuch perſons being dead or ſlaine ſhall be buried.

In like manner it is to be inquired of them that be drowned or ſuddenly dead, and after, ſuch bodies are to be ſéene whether they were ſo drowned or ſlaine, or ſtrangled by the ſigne of a cord tied ſtrait about their neckes, or about any of their members, or vpon any other hurt found vpon their bodies, whereupon they ſhall procéed in the forme aboueſaid: and if they were not ſlaine, then ought the Coroner to attach the finders and all other in the company. A Coroner alſo ought to inquire of treaſure that is found, who were the finders, and likewiſe who is ſuſpected thereof, and that may be well perceiued where one liueth riotouſly hanting tauernes, and hath done ſo of long time, hereupon hee may be attached for this ſuſpition by foure or ſix or mo pledges, if he may be found. Further if any be appealed of Rape, he muſt be attached, if the appeale be freſh, and they muſt ſée apparant ſigne of truth by effuſion of blood, or an open cry made, and ſuch ſhall be attached by foure or ſix pledges, if they may be found. If the appeale were without crie, or without any manifeſt ſigne or token, two pledges ſhall be ſufficient: Vpon appeale of wounds, and ſuch like, ſpecially if the wounds be mortall, the parties appealed ſhall be taken immediatly, and kept vntill it be knowne perfectly, whether he that is hurt ſhall recouer or not. And if he die, the defendant ſhall be kept: and if he recouer health, they ſhall be attached by foure or ſixe pledges, after as the wound is great or ſmall. If it be for a maime, he ſhall find no leſſe then foure pledges, if it be for a ſmall wound, two pledges ſhall ſuffice. Alſo all wounds ought to bée viewed the length, bredth, and déepneſſe, and with what weapons, and in what part of the body the wound or hurt is, and how many be culpable, and how many wounds there be, and who gaue the wound, all which things muſt be inrolled in the Roll of the Coroners. Moreouer, if any be appealed of any act done, as principall, they that be appealed of the force ſhall be attached alſo, and ſurely kept in Ward, vntill the principalls be attainted or deliuered, Concerning horſes, boats, carts, &c. whereby any are ſlaine, that properly are called Deodands, they ſhall be valued and deliuered vnto the townes as before is ſaid. Concerning wrecke of the Sea, whereſoeuer it be found, if any lay hands on it he ſhall be attached by ſufficent pledges, and the price of the wrecke ſhall be valued and deliuered to the townes. If any be ſuſpected of the death of any man being in danger of life, he ſhall be taken and impriſoned as before is ſaid. In like manner Hue ſhall bée leuied for all murders, burglaries, & for men ſlaine, or in perill to be ſlaine, as otherwhere is vſed in England, and all ſhall follow the hue and ſteps, as néere as can be. And he that doth not, and is conuict thereupon, ſhall be attached to be afore the Iuſtices of the gaole, &c. St.3. H.7.1.

To all Parliaments and Treatiſes euery man ſhall come without Force and Armes.

Euery man ſhal come to the Parliament peaceably.

THe King to the Juſtices of his Bench ſendeth greeting. Whereas of late before certain perſons deputed to treat vpon ſundry debates had betwéene vs and certaine great men of our Realme, amongſt other things it was accorded, That in our next Parliament after, prouiſion ſhall be made by vs and the commõ aſſẽt of the Prelates, Earles, & Barons, That in all Parliaments, Treaties, and other Aſſemblies, which ſhould be made in the Realme of England for euer, that euery man ſhall come without all Force and Armour well and peaceably, to the honour of vs, and of the peace of vs and our Realme. And now in our next Parliament at Weſtminſter after the ſaid Treatiſe, the Prelates, Earles, Barons, and the comminalty of our Realme, there aſſembled, to take aduice of this buſineſſe, haue ſaid, That to vs it belongeth, and our part is, through our Royall Seignorie, ſtraitly to defend Force of Armour, and all other Force againſt our Peace, at all times when it ſhall pleaſe vs, and to puniſh them which ſhall doe contrary, according to the Lawes and Vſages of our Realme. And hereunto they are bound to aide vs as their Soueraigne Lord at all ſeaſons when néed ſhall bée. A Statute of Mortmaine, made 14. Nouembris, Anno 7. Ed. 1. & Anno Domini 1279.

Who ſhall take the forfeiture of Lands giuen in Mortmaine.

St. 9. H. 3. 36.

No Land ſhall be aliened in Mortmaine, vpon paine of the forfeiture thereof.

Who ſhall take the benefit of the forfeiture.

WHere of late it was prouided, that religious men ſhould not enter into the fées of any without licence and will of the chiefe Lords of whom ſuch fées bee holden immediately: And notwithſtanding ſuch religious men haue entred as well into their owne fées, as in the fées of other men, appropriating and buying them, and ſometime receiuing them of the gift of others, whereby the ſeruices that are due of ſuch fées, and which at the beginning were prouided for defence of the Realme, are wrongfully withdrawne, and the chiefe Lords doe léeſe their Eſcheats of the ſame, We therefore to the profit of our Realme intending to prouide conuenient remedy, by the aduice of our Prelates, Earles, Barons, and other our ſubiects, being of our Counſell haue prouided, made, and ordained, That no perſon, religious or other, whatſoeuer he be, that will buy or ſell any Lands or Tenements, or vnder the colour of Gift or Leaſe, or that will receiue by reaſon of any other title, whatſoeuer it bee, Lands or Tenements, or by any other Craft or Engine will preſume to appropre to himſelfe, vnder paine of forfeiture of the ſame, whereby ſuch Lands or Tenements may any wiſe come into Mortmaine. Wee haue prouided alſo, That if any perſon, religious or other, doe preſume either by Craft or Engine to offend againſt this Statute, it ſhall bee lawfull to vs and other chiefe Lords of the Fée immediate to enter in the Land ſo aliened, within a yeare from the time of the alienation, and to hold it in fée, and as Inheritance. And if the chiefe Lord immediate be negligent, and will not enter into ſuch Fée within the yeare, then it ſhall be lawfull to the next chiefe Lord immediate of the ſame Fée, to enter in the ſame Land within halfe a yeare next following, and to hold it as before is ſaid. and ſo euery Lord immediate may enter into ſuch Land, if the next Lord be negligent in entring into the ſame Fée, as is aforeſaid. And if all the chiefe Lords of ſuch Fées being of ful age, within the foure Seas, and out of priſon, be negligent or ſlacke in this behalfe, we immediately after the year accompliſhed frõ the time that ſuch Purchaſes, Gifts or appropriatiõs, hap to be made, ſhall take ſuch lands and tenements into our hand, and ſhall infeoffe other therein by certaine ſeruices to be done to vs for the defence of our Realme, ſauing to the chiefe Lords of the ſame Fées, their Wards and Eſcheates and other ſeruices thereunto due and accuſtomed. A Statute made 2. Maij, Anno 9. Ed. 1. & Anno Dom. 1281. A Correction of the twelfth Chapter of the Statute of Glouceſter, touching calling Forreines of Warrantie in London.

IT is prouided alſo, That if one being impleaded in the Citie of London, do vouch a Forreine to warrantie, the Maior and the Bailifes ſhall adiourne the parties before the Iuſtices of the Bench at a certaine day, and ſhall ſend their Record thither. And the Iuſtices ſhall cauſe the warrantor to be ſummoned before them, and ſhall trie the Warranty. And the Maior and the Bailifes in the meane time ſhall ſurceaſe in the matter that dependeth afore them by Writ, vntill ſuch time as the warrantie be determined before the Iuſtices of the Bench. And when the matter ſhall be determined, commandement ſhall be giuen to the Vouchée, to depart into the City, and to anſwere to the firſt Plea. And the Demandant at his Suit, ſhall haue a Writ from the Iuſtices of the Bench, vnto the Maior and Bailifes, that they ſhall procéed in the Plea. And if the Demandant recouer, the Tenant ſhall come to the Iuſtices of the Bench, and haue a Writ to the Maior and Bailifes, that in caſe the Tenant haue loſt his land, they ſhall cauſe it to be extended, and returne the ſame Extent vnto the Bench at a certaine day, And after, it ſhall be commanded to the Sherife of the Shire, where the Warrant was ſummoned, that he ſhall cauſe him to haue of the lands of the Warrantor to like value. And if it fortune that the Tenant make default at the day that is aſſigned him in the Bench, then ſhall there goe forth a Writ from the Iuſtices of the Bench to the Maior and Bailifes, to ſeiſe the land demanded, into the Kings hands by a Petie Cape, and to ſummon the Tenant, that he be at the Hoiſtings at a certaine day, whereat the Iuſtices ſhall be aduiſed to giue iudgement vpon the ſame default, if he cannot ſaue it: and in caſe he can ſaue it, then the Iuſtices ſhall be certified thereof by their Record, and by the ſame Record they ſhall plead the warrantie. Raſt. pla. fo. 240. 354. &c. Coke pla. fo. 176.

The manner of proceeding, whē Forraines be vouched to warrantie in London.

It is to be remembred, that this Article, in forme afore mentioned, was ſigned vnder the Great Seale of King Edward, ſonne of King Edward, in the ninth yeare of his Raigne, and ſent vnto the Iuſtices of the Bench after the maner of a Writ Patent, with a certaine Writ cloſed, dated by the Kings hand at Weſtminſter, the ſecond day of May, the yeare afore mentioned, that they ſhould doe and execute all and euery thing contained in the Article aforeſaid, albeit that the ſame doe not accord with the Statute of Glouceſter in all things.

A new Stat. of the Exchequer, called the Stat. of Rutland, made 14 Maij, An. 10. Ed. 1. & An. Dom. 1282.

Touching the recouery of the Kings Debts.

THe King to his Treaſurer and Barons of the Exchequer, and to his Chamberlaines, gréeting. To the intent that prouiſion may be had for the indempnitie of vs and our people, in certaine things touching vs and our people aforeſaid, in our ſaid Court of Exchequer: Wée will and prouide, That from henceforth the Bodies of Shires ſhall not be written in ſeuerall Rolles, but ſhall be written in a certaine annuall Roll by themſelues, and ſhall be read euery yeare vpon the Accompts of Sherifes, that is to wit, of ſeuerall Counties, that it may be knowen, if ought may accrue vnto vs by any meane. The remanents of the fermes of the ſame Shires ſhall be written by later Dates in the Annuall Rolles, and the Sherifes ſhall be charged therewith: in which Remanents, the Liueries and Almes aſſigned ſhall be allowed, and other allowances (if Sherifes haue had any) of the Iſſues of their Bailiwickes by our Writs. And becauſe of the ſuggeſtion of our Bailifes, our Writs are made of diuers allowances, vnto our grieuous damage: We will and prouide, That of ſuch manner allowances ſo to be made, from henceforth view ſhall be made in our Exchequer, and the ſame view being faithfully made, the ſame Treaſurer and Barons ſhall certifie our Chancellor of the due allowances ſo to be made, and that Writs of allowances ſhall be made according to the ſame certificate. Moreouer, there ſhall be written in the ſame Annuall Rolles the fermes of the Sherifes, the profits of Counties, the fermes of Serieanties and Aſſerts, the Ferms of Cities, Boroughs, Townes, and other Fermes, whereof there is anſwere made yearely in the Exchequer. And in them alſo ſhall bée written all Debts determined, all groſſe Debts, whereof there is hope that ſomewhat ſhall be payd, and all other Debts that ſéeme to be cleare. But when it is come vnto accompt to the Title of new Duties, nothing ſhall be written in the Annuall Roll, but thoſe Debts, whereof there is hope of payment, and whereof the Sherife is anſwerable, and Debts found in the Originalls.

The Bodies of Shires.

Annuall Rolles.

A Rolle of deſperate Debts.

Of dead Fermes, and Debts deſperate, whereof there is no hope, one Roll ſhall be made, and ſhall be intituled Comitatus, and read euery yeare vpon the Accompt of Sherifes, and the Debts whereof the Sherifes are anſwerable, ſhall be written in the Annuall Roll, and there ſhall be acquited.

Tailes for Debts.

Moreouer, we will and prouide, That it ſhall bée proclaimed in euery County, That all they that haue Tailes of the Exchequer, for the Debts of themſelues, or their Aunceſtors, hitherto payd there, and not yet allowed, which yet doe come in the Summons of the Exchequer, they doe deliuer to their Sherifes ſuch Tailes, to be allowed at the Exchequer vpon their Accompts. And the Sherifes ſhall make to them (of whom they ſhall ſo receiue Tailes) their Writings, witneſſing the Receit of thoſe Tailes, the Summe, and occaſion of the Debts.

Two Knights.

Two faithfull Knights, deputed thereunto, ſhall be preſent at the receit of the Tailes aforeſaid, betwéene whom and the ſaid Sherifes, Indentures ſhall be made of ſuch Receits, with the Seales of them both interchangeably.

The foreſaid Knights deputed thereunto, ſhall ſend the parts of their Indentures, at the terme appointed, vnto the Exchequer, in forme aforeſaid, to the end, that by the view and witneſſe of them, the ſaid Tailes ſo receiued by the Sherifes, may be ſhewed, and be allowed vpon their accompts.

Hauing Tailes and not deliuering them.

Moreouer, it ſhall be proclaimed, That except thoſe that haue ſuch Tailes, doe deliuer them to the Sherifes, and Knights, as afore is ſaid, that then they ſhall be diſtrained for the whole Debt, and that the foreſaid Tailes ſhall be reputed for vnpaied.

Moreouer the debts, which yet are to come in the ſummons of the Exchequer, whereof the debtors doe proffer Tailes againſt diuers Sherifes, ſhall be defalked and acquited.

Commiſſions to enquire of the Kings Debts.

Moreouer we prouide, that certaine perſons aſſigned thereunto on our behalfe ſhall bée ſent into euery Shire, which ſhall haue full power to enquire of ſuch manner debts, and alſo to call afore them ſolemnely, as well the Sehirffes as their heires and aſſignes, and the tenants of their lands in caſe they be dead that haue receiued the debts, and alſo if néed bée to procéed to the taking of ſuch manner inqueſts, whether the parties (againſt whom the foreſaid Tailes were ſhewed) doe come or not. So that the Sheriffe doe returne a reaſonable ſummons made to them therefore, and ſo the truth being inquired and diſcuſſed in preſence of the parties (if they will be there) the inquiſitors ſhall make rolles of them that ſhall be conuict afore them, ſo that the foreſaid debts being confeſſed and inrolled, the Tailes of the ſame ſhall be forthwith broken. And the Sherifes ſhall haue in their cuſtodie the tranſcripts of the ſame Rolles, vnder the Seales of the Inquiſitor, and ſhall ſurceaſe in making Diſtreſſes for the Debts contained in the ſame, vntill they ſhall haue otherwiſe in commandement from vs therefore. And the foreſaid Inquiſitors ſhall ſend vnto the Exchequer the foreſaid Rolles, vnder their Seales, that it may be examined there, by a ſearch to be made therefore, what Debts be paied in the whole, and what are paied in part, and what Debts there be, whereof the Debtors be not acquited, according as ſhall be conuenient to be done.

Tailes of Diuidends.

Moreouer, we will and prouide, that the Chamberlaines from henceforth ſhall not make to the Sheriffes or any of their Bailifes, tailes of diuidendis, vnleſſe they firſt receiue of them writings concerning the particular ſummes of the actions of debts, and the names of them that paid them, vnto the which particulars he may part the names of ſuch maner diuidendis, which being ſo receiued vnder their Seales, it ſhall not bée lawfull to number them into other particulars.

The Sherife returneth, that the Debtor is not found, or hath nothing.

Moreouer, we prouide, that all debts, whereunto the Sheriffes make returne, that the debtors haue nothing in their Bailiwickes, ne had not at ſuch time as they were charged with the ſame debts, or that the debtors be not found, that the ſame debts ſhall be extreated in Rolles, and the ſame Rolles to be deliuered vnto faithfull and circumſpect men, which ſhall make inquirie thereof after ſuch forme as ſhall be prouided by the Treaſurer and Barons.

No ſuit ſhall bee proſecuted in the Exchequer, vnleſſe it concerne the King, or his Officers there. Regiſt. fo. 187.

But for ſo much as certaine Pleas were heretofore holden in the Eſchequer, which did not concerne vs, nor our miniſters of the Exchequer, whereby as well our Pleas, as the Cauſes of our People are vnduly prorogued, and letted: We will and ordaine, That no Plea ſhall be holden or pleaded in the Exchequer aforeſaid, vnleſſe it doe ſpecially concerne vs and our miniſters aforeſaid. And therefore we command, that ye cauſe the premiſſes to be diſtinctly and openly read afore you, and to enroll it, cauſing the ſame to be ſtraitly obſerued in our Cout of Exchequer aforeſaid. In witneſſe of which, &c. Geuen at Rutland, the fouretéenth day of the Moneth of May, in the tenth yeare of our Reigne.

The Statute of Acton Burnel, made Anno 13. Ed. 1.

& Anno 1285. Ordaining the Statute Merchant for recouerie of Debts.

FOr as much as Merchants, which heretofore haue lent their goods to diuers perſons, be greatly impoueriſhed, becauſe there is no ſpeedy Law prouided for them, to haue recouery of their Debts at the day of payment aſſigned, And by reaſon hereof, many Merchants haue withdrawne to come into this Realme with their Merchandiſes, to the damage as well of the Merchants, as of the whole Realme: The King for himſelfe, and by his Councell, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, That the Merchant which will be ſure of his Debt, ſhall cauſe his Debtor to come before the Maior of London, or of Yorke, or Briſtow, or before the Maior and a Clerke (which the King ſhall appoint for the ſame) for to knowledge the Debt and the day of payment, and the Recogniſance ſhall be entred into a Roll with the hand of the ſaid Clerke, which ſhall bee knowne. Moreouer, the ſaid Clerke ſhall make with his owne hand a Bill Obligatorie, whereunto the Seale of the Debtor ſhall be put, with the Kings Seale, that ſhall be prouided for the ſame purpoſe: the which Seale ſhall remaine in the keeping of the Maior and Clerke aforeſaid. And if the Debtor doe not pay at the day to him limitted, the Creditor may come before the ſaid Maior and Clerke with his Bill Obligatorie: and if it be found by the Roll and by the Bill, that the Debt was knowledged, and that the day of payment is expired, the Maior ſhall incontinent cauſe the moueables of the Debtor to be ſold, as farre as the Debt doth amount, by the prayſing of honeſt men, as Chattels and Burgages deuiſable, vntill the whole ſumme of the Debt and the Money without delay ſhall be paied to the Creditor. And if the Maior can find no buyer, he ſhall cauſe the moueables to be deliuered to the Creditor at a reaſonable price, as much as doth amount to the ſumme of the Debt, in allowance of his Debt. And the Kings Seale ſhall be put vnto the ſale and deliuerance of the Burgages deuiſable, for a perpetuall witneſſe. And if the Debtor haue no moueables within the iuriſdiction of the Maior, whereupon the Debt may be leuied, but hath ſome otherwhere within the Realme, then ſhall the Maior ſend the Recogniſance, made before him and the Clerke aforeſaid, vnto the Chancellor, vnder the Kings Seale. And the Chancellor ſhall direct a Writ vnto the Sherife, in whoſe Bailiwicke the moueabls of the Debtor be, and the Sherife ſhall cauſe him to agree with his Creditor, in ſuch forme as the Maior ſhould haue done in caſe that the moueables of the Debtor had beene within his power. And let them that ſhall praiſe the moueable goods to be deliuered vnto the Creditor, take good heed, that they doe ſet a reaſonable price vpon them, for if they do ſet an ouer high price for fauour borne to the Debtor, and to the damage of the Creditor, then ſhall the thing ſo praiſed be deliuered vnto themſelues at ſuch price as they haue limitted, and they ſhall be forthwith anſwerable vnto the Creditor for his Debt. And if the Debtor will ſay, that his moueable goods were deliuered or ſold for leſſe then they were worth, yet ſhall he haue no remedy thereby. For when the Maior or the Sherife hath ſold the moueable goods lawfully to him that offered moſt, hee may account it his owne folly, that he did not ſell his owne moueable goods himſelfe before the day of his ſuit (when he might and would not) and haue leuied the money with his owne hands. And if the Debtor haue no moueables, whereupon the debt may be leuied: then ſhall his body be taken, where it may be found, and kept in Priſon, vntill that he hath made agreement, or his friends for him. And if he haue not wherewith he may ſuſtaine himſelfe in priſon, the Creditor ſhall finde him bread and water, to the end that he die not in priſon for default of ſuſtenance, the which coſts the debtor ſhall recompence him with his debt, before that he be let out of priſon. And if the Creditor be a Merchant ſtranger, he ſhall remaine at the coſts of the Debtor for ſo long time as he tarrieth about the ſuit of his Debt, and vntill the moueable goods of the Debtor be ſold or deliuered vnto him. And if the Creditor doe not take the Debtor alone for the ſuretie of his payment, by reaſon whereof, Pledges or Mainpernors be founden, then thoſe Pledges or Mainpernors ſhall come before the Maior and Clerke aboueſaid, and ſhall bind themſelues by Writings and Recogniſances, as afore is ſaid of the Debtor, And in like manner, if the Debt be not paid at the day limitted, ſuch Execution ſhall be awarded againſt the Pledges or Mainpernors, as before is ſaid of the Debtor.

WHereas of late our Lord the King, in the Quinzime of S. IOHN BAPTIST, the ſixt yeare of his reigne, calling together the Prelates, Earles, Barons, and his Councell at Glouceſter, and conſidering that diuers of this Realme were diſherited, by reaſon, that in many caſes, where remedie ſhould haue beene had, there was none prouided by him nor his predeceſſors, ordained certaine Statutes right neceſſary and profitable for his Realme, wherby the people of England and Ireland, being ſubiects vnto his power, haue obtained more ſpeedy iuſtice in their oppreſſions, then they had before, and certaine caſes (wherein the Law failed) did remaine vndetermined, and ſome remained to be enacted, that were for the reformation of the oppreſſions of the people: Our Lord the King in his Parliament, after the feaſt of Eaſter, holden the thirteenth yeare of his raigne at Weſtminſter, cauſed many oppreſſions of the people, and defaults of the Lawes, for the accompliſhment of the ſaid Statutes, of Glouceſter, to be rehearſed, and thereupon did prouide certaine Acts, as it ſhall appeare here following.

And the cauſe ſhall be put in the Writ, becauſe ſuch a man diſtrained in his Fée for Seruices and Cuſtomes to him due. Neither is this Act preiudiciall to the Law commonly vſed, which did not permit that any Plea ſhall be moued before iuſtices at the ſuit of the defendant: For though it appeare at the firſt ſhew that the Tenant is plaintiffe, and the Lord defendant, Neuertheleſſe hauing reſpect to that, that the Lord hath diſtrained and ſueth for Seruices and Cuſtomes being behind, he appeareth in déed to be rather actor or plaintiffe then defendant. And to the intent the Iuſtices may know vpon what freſh ſeiſin the Lords may auow the diſtreſſe reaſonable vpon their Tenants: From henceforth it is agréed and enacted, that a reaſonable diſtreſſe may bée auowed vpon the ſeiſin of any anceſtor or predeceſſor ſince the time that a writ of nouel diſſeiſin, hath run. And if any take pledges otherwiſe, he ſhall anſwer for the price of the beaſts, and the Lord that diſtraineth, ſhall haue his recouery by Writ that he ſhall reſtore vnto him ſo many beaſts or cattell: And if the Bailife be not able to reſtore, his ſuperiour ſhall reſtore. IN caſe when a man doth loſe by default the land which was the right of his wife, it was verie hard, that the wife after the death of her husband had none other recouerie but by a Writ of Right: wherefore our Lord the King hath ordained that a woman after the death of her husband ſhall recouer by a Writ of Entre, (whereto ſhe could not diſagree during his life) which ſhall be pleaded in forme aforeſaid. If the tenant doe except againſt the demand of the wife, that he entred by iudgement, and it be found that his entre was by default, whereto the tenant of neceſſity muſt make anſwer if it be demanded of him, then he ſhall be compelled to make further anſwer, and to ſhew his right according to the forme of the Writ that he purchaſed before againſt the husband and the wife. And if he can verifie, that he hath or had right in the land demanded, the woman ſhall gaine nothing by her Writ, which thing if he cannot ſhew, the woman ſhall recouer the land in demand, This being obſerued, that if the husband abſent himſelfe, and will not defend his wiues right, or againſt his wiues conſent will render the land, if the wife doe come before iudgement, ready to anſwer the demandant, and to defend her right, the wife ſhall be admitted. Likewiſe if tenant in dower, tenant by the law of the land, or otherwiſe for terme of life or by gift, whereas the reuerſion is reſerued, doe make default, or will giue vp: the heires and they, to whom the reuerſion belongeth ſhall be admitted to their anſwer if they come before iudgement. And if vpon ſuch default or ſurrender, iudgement hap to be giuen: then the heires, or they vnto whom the reuerſion belongeth, after the death of ſuch tenants, ſhall haue their recouery by a Writ of Entre, in which like proces ſhal be obſerued, as is aforeſaid in caſe where the husband loſeth his wiues land by default. IN caſe where the husband being impleaded for land, giueth vp the land demanded vnto his aduerſarie by couin: after the death of the husband, the Iuſtices doe award the wife her dower, if it be demanded by writ. But in caſe where the husband loſeth the Land in demand by default, if the wife after the death of her husband, demandeth her dower, it hath beene proued that ſome Iuſtices haue awarded vnto the woman her dower notwithſtanding the default, which her husband made, other Iuſtices being of the contrary opinion, and iudging otherwiſe: To the intent that from henceforth ſuch ambiguitie ſhall be taken away, it is thus ordained in certaine, That in both caſes the woman demanding her Dower, ſhall bee heard. And if it be alleaged againſt her, that her husband loſt the land, whereof the dower is demanded by iudgement, whereby ſhe ought not to haue dower, and then it be inquired by what iudgement, and it be found that it was by default, whereunto the tenant muſt anſwer: then it behoueth the tenant to anſwere further, and to ſhew that he had right, and hath in the foreſaid land according to the forme of the Writ, that the tenant before purchaſed againſt the husband: And if he can ſhew that the husband of ſuch wife had no right in the lands, nor any other but he that holdeth them, the tenant ſhall goe quit, and the wife ſhall recouer nothing of her dower, which thing if he cannot ſhew, the wife ſhall recouer her dower. And ſo in theſe caſes, and in certaine other following, that is to ſay, whē the wife being endowed loſeth her dower by default, and tenants in fee marriage, by the law of England, or for terme of life, or in fee taile, diuers Actions doe concurre for ſuch tenants, when they muſt demand their land loſt by default: And when it is come to that point, that the tenant muſt be compelled to ſhew his right, they cannot make anſwer without them, to whom the reuerſion of right belongeth: therefore it is granted vnto them to vouch to warrantie, as if they were tenants, if they haue a warrantie: And when the Warrantor hath warranted, the plea ſhall paſſe betweene him that is ſeiſed & the Warrantor, according to the tenor of the Writ that the tenant purchaſed before, and by which he recouered by default: and ſo from many Actions at length they ſhall reſort to one Iudgement, which is this, That the demandants ſhall recouer their demand, or the tenants ſhall goe quit. the action of ſuch a tenant, which is compelled to ſhew his right, be moued by a Writ of Right, though that the great Aſſiſe or Battiale cannot be ioyned by the words accuſtomed, yet it ſhall bee ioyned by words conuenient: for when the tenant, in that he ſheweth his right, which belongeth to him by the Writ that he before purchaſed, in ſtead of a demaundant, the warrantor may well defend the right of the tenant, which is accounted in place of the demandant, as before is ſaid, and offer to defend the ſeiſin of his aunceſtors, by the body of his freeman, or put himſelfe in the great Aſſiſe, and pray recogniſance to be made, whether he hath more right to the land in demand, or elſe the partie before named: or otherwiſe the great Aſſiſe may bee ioyned thus: Talis defendit ius, &c. and ſo the warrantor may defend the right, and knowledge the ſeiſin of his aunceſtor, and put himſelfe in the great Aſſiſe, &c. and pary recogniſance to be made, whether he hath more right in the foreſaid land, as in that whereof he infeoffed ſuch a man, or that ſuch a one releaſed and quite claimed, &c. or elſe the foreſaid partie, &c. And where ſometime it chanceth that a woman not hauing right to demand dower, the heire being within age, doth purchaſe a Writ of Dower againſt a Gardian, and the Gardian endoweth the woman by fauour, or make the default, or by colluſion defendeth the plea ſo faintly, whereby the woman is awarded her dower in preiudice of the heire: It is prouided that the heire, when he commeth to full age, ſhall haue an action to demaund the ſeiſin of his aunceſtor againſt ſuch a woman, like as hee ſhould haue againſt any other deforcor. Yet ſo, that the woman ſhall haue her exception ſaued againſt the demandant, to ſhew that ſhe had right to her dower, which if ſhe can ſhew, ſhe ſhall goe quit and retaine her dower, and the heire ſhall grieuouſly amerced, according to the diſcretion of the Iuſtices: And if not, the heire ſhall recouer his demand, &c. In like manner the woman ſhall be aided, if the heire or any other doe implead her for her dower, if ſhe loſe her dower by default, in which caſe the default ſhall not be ſo preiudiciall to her, but that ſhe ſhall recouer her dower, if ſhe haue right thereto, and ſhe ſhall haue this Writ:

CAP. V.

Remedies to redreſſe vſurpations of Aduowſons of Churches, &c.

WHeras of Aduowſons of Churches there be but three originall writs, that is to ſay, one Writ of Kright & two of Poſſeſſion, which be Darraine preſentment, and Quare Impedit, and hitherto it hath beene vſed in the Realme, that when any hauing no right to preſent, had preſented to any Church whoſe Clerke was admitted: he that was very Patron could not recouer his Aduowſon, but onely by a Writ of Right, which ſhould be tried by battaile or by great aſſiſe, whereby heires within age, by fraud, of elſe by negligence of their Wardiens, and heires both of great and meane eſtate, by negligence, or fraud of tenants by the courteſie, women tenants in dower, or otherwiſe, for terme of life, or for yeares, or in fee taile, were many times diſherited of their Aduowſons, or at leaſt (which was the better for them) were driuen to their Writ of Right, in which caſe hithereto they were vtterly diſherited: It is prouided, that ſuch preſentments ſhall not be ſo preiudiciall to the right heires, or to them vnto whom ſuch Aduowſons ought to reuert after the death of any perſons: For as often as any, hauing no right doth preſent, during the time that ſuch heires are in ward, or during the eſtates of tenants in dower, by the curteſie, or otherwiſe for terme of life, or of yeares, or in taile, at the next auoidance when the heire is come to full age, or when after the death of the tenants before named, the aduowſon ſhall reuert vnto the heire being full age, he ſhall haue ſuch Action and Recouerie by Writ of Aduowſon poſſeſſorie, as the laſt aunceſtor of ſuch an heire ſhould haue had at the laſt auoidance, Churches of religious perſons.

Neither ſhall this act be ſo largely vnderſtanden, that ſuch perſons, for whoſe remedy this Statute was ordained, ſhall haue the recouerie aforeſaid, ſurmiſing that Gardians of heyres, Tenants in taile, by the curteſie, Tenants in dower, for terme of life or for yeares, or husbands, faintly haue defended pleas moued by them or againſt them: becauſe the Judgements giuen in the Kings Courts ſhall not be adnulled by this Statute, the Judgement ſhall ſtand in his force, vntill it be reuerſed in the Court of the King as erronious, if error be found, or by Aſſiſe of Darrain preſentment, or by Enqueſt by a Writ of Quare impedit, if it be paſſed, or be adnulled by Attaint or Certificatiō, which ſhall be freely granted. And frō henceforth one forme of pleading ſhall be obſerued among Juſtices in Writs of Darrain preſentment, and Quare impedit, in this reſpect, if the defendant alledgeth plenarty of the Church of his owne Preſentation, the plea ſhall not faile by reaſon of the plenarty: ſo that the Writ be purchaſed within ſixe months, though he cannot recouer his Preſentation, within the ſixe months. And ſomtimes where an agreement is made betweene many, claiming one Aduowſon, and inrolled before the Juſtices in the Roll, or by Fine in this forme, That one ſhall preſent the firſt time, and at the next auoydance an other, and the third time another, and ſo of many in caſe there be many. And when one hath preſented, and had his preſentation, which he ought to haue according to the forme of their agreement and fine, and at the next auoidance he to whom the ſecond preſentation belongeth, is diſturbed by any that was party to the ſaid fine, or by ſome other in his ſtead: It is prouided, That from henceforth they that be ſo diſturbed, ſhall haue no deed to ſue a Quare impedit, but ſhall reſort to the Roll or Fine. And if the ſaid concord or agreement be found in the Roll or Fine, then the Sheriffe ſhall be commanded, that he giue knowledge vnto the diſturber, that he be ready at ſome ſhort day containing the ſpace of fifteene daies, or three weekes (as the place happeneth to be neere or farre) for to ſhew he can alledge any thing, wherefore the partie that is diſturbed, ought not to preſent. And if he come not, or peraduenture doth come, and can alledge nothing to barre the party of his preſentation by reaſon of any deed made or written ſince the fine was made or inrolled, he ſhall recouer his preſentation with his damages. And where it chanceth that after the death of the anceſtor of him that preſented his Clerk vnto a Church, the ſame Aduowſon is aſſigned in dower to any woman, or to tenant by the curteſie, which do preſent, and after the death of ſuch tenants, the very heire is diſturbed to preſent when the Church is void: It is prouided, That frō henceforth it ſhall be in the electiō of the party diſturbed, whether he will ſue a Writ of Quare impedit, or of Darrain preſentment, the ſame ſhall be obſerued in Aduowſons demiſed for terme of life, or yeares, or in fee taile.

CAP. VI.

The penalty if a tenant impleaded voucheth, and the vouchee denieth his warrantie.

WHen any demandeth land againſt another, and the partie that is impleaded, voucheth to warrantie, and the warrantor denieth his warrantie, and the plea hangeth long betweene the tenant and the warrantor: And at length, when it is tried, that the vouchee is bound to warrantie, by the law and cuſtome of the Realme hitherto vſed, there was none other puniſhment aſſigned for the vouchee, that denieth his warrantie, but only that he ſhould warrantiſe, & ſhould be amerced, becauſe he did not warrant before, which was preiudiciall vnto the demaundant, becauſe he ſuffered oftentimes great delaies by colluſion betweene the tenant and the warrantor. Wherefore our Lord the King hath ordained, That like as the tenant ſhould leeſe the land being in demaund, in caſe where he vouched, and the vouchee could diſcharge himſelfe of the warrantie, in the ſame wiſe ſhall the warrantor leeſe, in caſe where he denieth his warrantie, and it be tried againſt him that he is bounden to warrantie. And if an inqueſt be depending betweene the tenant and the warrantor, and the demaundant will require a Writ to cauſe the Iurie to come, it ſhall be graunted him. Raſt.pla.fo.352.614.&c.

In what caſe a Secunda ſuperoneratione paſturæ ſhall be awarded.

WHereas by a plea moued vpon a Writ of Admeaſurement of paſture, the Paſture was ſometime admeaſured before the Iuſtices, ſometime before the Sheriffe in the Countie, and it chaunced many times, after ſuch admeaſurement made, the Paſture to be ouer charged againe by him that firſt did it, with moe beaſts then he ought to keepe, whereupon no remedy hath been yet prouided: It is ordained, that vpon the ſecond ouer-charge, the plaintiffe ſhall haue remedy in this maner: If the admeaſurement were before the Iuſtices, the plaintiffe ſhall haue a Writ iudiciall, that the Sheriffe in preſence of the parties being ſummoned (if they will come) ſhall inquire vpon the ſecond ouer-charge: which if it be found, it ſhall be returned before the Iuſtices, vnder the ſeales of the Sheriffe, and the ſeales of the Iurors: And the Iuſtices ſhall award the plaintiffe damages, and ſhall put in the extreats the value of the beaſts, which were put into the paſture after ſuch admeaſurement more then he ought, and ſhall deliuer the extreats vnto the Barons of the Eſchequer, whereof they ſhall anſwere vnto the King. If ſuch admeaſurement were made in the Countie, then at the requeſt of the plaintife, a Writ ſhall goe out of the Chauncery, that the Sheriffe ſhal inquire of ſuch ouercharge, and of the beaſts put in the paſture aboue the due number, or for the value of them, and he ſhall anſwere to the King at the Eſchequer. And leaſt the Sheriffe might defraud the King in this caſe, it is agreed, That all ſuch Writs De ſecunda ſuperoneratione, that paſſe out of the Chauncery, ſhall be inrolled, and at the yeares end the tranſcripts ſhall be ſent into the Eſchequer, vnder the Chancelors Seale, that the Treaſurer and Barons of the Eſchequer may ſee, how the Sheriffe doth anſwere of the iſſues of ſuch Writs. CAP. IX.

In what caſe the Writ of Meaſne is to be purſued.

WHen chiefe Lords diſtraine in their fee for cuſtomes and ſeruices to them due, & there is a meane, which ought to acquit the tenant, ſithence it lieth not in the mouth of the tenant, after that he hath repleuied the Diſtreſſe, to denie the demaund of the chiefe Lord, which audweth in the Kings Court, that the diſtreſſe is lawfully taken vpon his tenant, which is vpon the Meane, and many haue been heretofore ſore grieued by ſuch diſtreſſes, in ſo much as the meane (notwithſtanding that he hath whereby he may be diſtrained) doth make long delaies, before he will come into the Court to anſwer for his tenant vnto the Writ of Meane, and further the caſe was moſt hard when the Meane had nothing: In caſe alſo when the tenant was ready to doe his ſeruices and cuſtomes vnto his Lord, and the chiefe Lord would refuſe to take ſuch ſeruices and cuſtomes by the hands of any other then of his next tenant, and ſo ſuch tenants in demeane loſt ſomewhiles the profits of their lands for a time, and ſomewhiles for their whole time and hitherto no remedie hath been prouided in this caſe: A remedie is prouided and ordained hereafter in this forme, that ſo ſoone as ſuch tenant in demeane (hauing a meane betweene him and the chiefe Lord) is diſtrained, incontinent the tenant ſhall purchaſe his Writ of Meane. And if the mean hauing land in the ſame County, abſent himſelfe vntill the great diſtreſſe, the plaintiffe ſhall haue ſuch day giuen him in his Writ of Great diſtreſſe, afore the comming whereof two Counties may be holden, and the Sheriffe ſhall be commaunded to diſtraine the Meane by the great diſtreſſe, like as it is contained in the Writ, and neuertheleſſe the Sheriffe in two full Counties ſhall cauſe to be proclaimed ſolemnly that the Meane doe come at a day contained in the Writ, to anſwere his tenant, at which day if he come, the plea ſhall paſſe betweene them after the common vſage. And if he doe not come, then ſuch Meſne ſhall loſe the ſeruices of his tenant, and from henceforth, the tenant ſhall not anſwer him in any thing; but the ſame Meane being excluded, he ſhall anſwer vnto the chiefe Lord for ſuch ſeruices and cuſtomes, as before he ought to haue done to the ſame Meane. Neither ſhall the chiefe Lord haue power to diſtraine, ſo long as the aforeſaid tenant doth offer him the ſeruices and cuſtomes due. And if the chiefe Lord exact more then the Meane ought to doe, the tenant in ſuch caſe ſhall haue ſuch exceptions as the Meane ſhould, And if the Meane haue nothing within the Kings Dominion, the tenant ſhall neuertheleſſe purchaſe his Writ of Meane, to the Sheriffe of the ſame Shire wherein he is diſtrained. And if the Sheriffe returne, that he hath nothing, whereby he may be ſummoned; then ſhall the tenant ſue his Writ of Attachment. And if the Sheriffe returne, that he hath nothing to be attached by, he ſhall neuertheleſſe ſue his Writ of Great diſtreſſe, and Proclamation ſhall be made in forme aboueſaid. And if the Meane haue no land in the Shire, where the diſtreſſe is taken, but hath land in ſome other Shire, then a Writ originall ſhall iſſue to ſummon the Meane, vnto the Sheriffe of the ſame Shire (where the diſtreſſe is taken) & when it is returned by the Sheriffe, that he hath nothing in his Shire, a Writ iudiciall ſhall iſſue to ſummon the Meane, vnto the Sheriffe of the ſame Shire, in which it ſhall be teſtified that he hath land, and ſuit ſhall be made in the ſame Shire, vntill they haue paſſed vnto the great diſtreſſe and Proclamation as aboue is ſaid, where the Meane hath land in the ſame Shire in which the diſtreſſe is taken. And neuertheleſſe ſuit ſhall be made in the ſame Shire, where he hath nothing, as aboue is ſaid of the Meane that hath nothing, vntill the Proces come to the great diſtreſſe and Proclamation, and ſo after Proclamation made in both counties, the Meane ſhall be foreiudged of his fee and ſeruice. And where it happeneth ſometimes, that the tenant in demeane is infeoffed to hold by leſſe ſeruice, then the Meane ought to doe vnto the chiefe Lord, when after ſuch Proclamation the tenant hath atturned to the chiefe Lord, and the Meane being excluded, the tenant muſt of neceſſity anſwere vnto the chiefe Lord, for all ſuch ſeruices and cuſtomes as the Meane was wont to doe to him. And after that the Meane is come into the Court, and hath confeſſed, that he ought to acquit his tenant, or be compelled by iudgement to acquit, if after ſuch confeſſion or iudgement it is complained, that the Meane doth not acquit his tenãt, then ſhall iſſue a Writ iudiciall, that the Sheriffe ſhall diſtraine the Meane to acquit the tenant, and to be at a certaine day before the Iuſticers, for to ſhew why he hath not acquited him before, and when they haue proceeded vnto the great diſtreſſe, the plaintiffe ſhall be heard. And if the plaintife can proue that he hath not acquited him, he ſhall yeeld damages, and by award of the Court the tenant ſhall goe quite from the Meane, and ſhall atturne vnto the chiefe Lord. And if he come not at the firſt diſtreſſe, a Writ ſhall goe forth to diſtraine him againe, and proclamation ſhall be made, and as ſoone as it is returned they ſhall proceed in iudgement as afore is ſaid. And it is to be vnderſtanden, that by this Statute tenants are not excluded, but they ſhall haue a warranty of the meanes & their heires, if they be impleaded of their lãds, as they haue had before, nor the tenants ſhall be excluded, but that they may ſue againſt their meanes, as they vſed heretofore, if they ſee that their proceſſe may be more auaileable by the old cuſtome, then by this ſtatute. And it is to wit, that by this ſtatute no remedy is prouided to any meanes, but onely in caſe where there is but one onely meane betweene the Lord that diſtraineth, and the tenant, and in caſe where that meane is of full age, and in caſe where the tenant may attourne vnto the chiefe Lord without preiudice of any other then of the meane, which is ſpoken for women, tenants in dower, and tenants by the courteſie, or otherwiſe for terme of life, or in fee taile, vnto whom for certaine cauſes remedy is not yet prouided, but (God willing) there ſhall be at another time. At what time Writs ſhall be deliuered for ſuits depending before Iuſtices in Eyre.
Any perſon may make a generall Atturney.

WHereas in the circuit of Juſtices, it was proclaimed that all ſuch as would deliuer writs ſhould deliuer them within a certaine time, after which no Writ ſhould be receiued: many truſting vpon the ſame, and tarrying vntill the ſaid time, and no Writ ſerued vpon them, departed by licence of the ſaid Juſtices, after whoſe departure their aduerſaries perceiuing their abſence, deliuered their Writs in ware, which ſometime by fraud, and ſometimes for rewards be receiued of the Sheriffe, and they that thought to haue departed quiet, loſe their lands. For the remedie of ſuch fraud, from henceforth the King hath ordained, that the Juſtices in their circuits ſhall appoint a time of fifteene daies, or a month, or a time more or leſſe (after as the Countie ſhall happen to be more or leſſe) within which time it ſhall be openly proclaimed, that al ſuch as will deliuer their Writs, ſhall deliuer them before the ſame time. And when the time commeth the Sheriffe ſhall certifie the chiefe Juſtice in Eyre, how many Writs he hath, and what, and that no Writ be receiued after the ſame time: and if it be receiued, the proceſſe iſſuing thereupon ſhall be of none effect, but only that a Writ abated, any time during the circuit may be amended. Alſo Writs of dower of men that dyed within the ſummons of the circuit, aſſiſes of Darrain preſentment, Quare impedit, of Churches vacant, within the foreſaid ſummons, ſhall be receiued at any time before the departure of the Juſtices. Cap. XI.

The Maſters remedy againſt their Seruants and other Accomptants.

Coke Inſt. 89. a. 295. a.

COncerning Seruants, Bailiffes, Chamberlaines, and all manner of Receiuers, which are bound to yeeld accompt: It is agreed and ordained, that when the Maſters of ſuch ſeruants doe aſſigne Auditors to take their accompt, and they be found in arrerages vpon the accompt, their bodies ſhal be areſted by the teſtimonie of the Auditors of the ſame accompt, & ſhal be ſent or deliuered vnto the next Gaole of the Kings in thoſe parts, and ſhall be receiued of the Sheriffe or Gaolor, and impriſoned in iron vnder ſafe cuſtody, and ſhall remaine in the ſame priſon at their owne coſt vntill they haue ſatisfied their Maſter fully of the arrerages. Neuertheleſſe if any perſon being ſo committed to priſon, do complain that the Auditors of his accompt haue grieued him vniuſtly, charging him with receipts that he hath not receiued, or not allowing him expences or reaſōable diſburſemēts, & can find friends that will vndertake to bring him before the Barōs of the Eſchequer, he ſhall be deliuered vnto them. And the Sheriffe (in whoſe priſon he is kept) ſhall giue knowledge vnto his Maſter, that he appeare before the Barons of the Eſchequer at a certaine day with the Rolles and Tailes, by which he made his accompt, and in the preſence of the Barons or the Auditors, that they ſhall aſſigne him, the accompt ſhall be rehearſed, & iuſtice ſhall be done to the parties, ſo that if he be found in arrerages, he ſhall be committed to the Fleet as aboue is ſaid. And if he flee and will not giue accompt willingly, as is contained elſewhere in other Statutes, he ſhall be diſtrained to come before the Juſtices to make his accompt, if he haue whereof to be diſtrained, and when he commeth to the Court, Auditors ſhall be aſſigned to take his accompt, before whom if he be found in arrerages, and cannot pay the arrerages forthwith, he ſhall be committed to the Goale to be kept in manner aforeſaid. And if he flee, and it be returned by the Sheriffe that he cannot be found, Exigents ſhall goe againſt him from County to County, vntill he be outlawed, and ſuch priſoner ſhall not be repleuiſable. And let the Sheriffe or Keeper of ſuch Goale take heed, if it be within a Franchiſe or without, that he doe not ſuffer him to goe out of priſon by the common Writ call Replegiare, or by other meanes without aſſent of his Maſter. And if he do, and thereof be conuict, he ſhall be anſwerable to his Maſter of the damages done to him by ſuch his ſeruant according as it may be found by the Countrie, and ſhall haue his recouerie by Writ of Debt. And if the keeper of the Goale haue not wherewith he may be iuſtified or not able to pay, his ſuperior that committed the cuſtody of the Goale vnto him ſhall be anſwerable by the ſame Writ. foreſts, chaſes, Warrens, Pates, and other Bailiwickes, and offices in fee, from henceforth an Aſſiſe of Nouel diſſeiſin ſhall lie. And in all things afore rehearſed according to the cuſtomed manner, the Writ ſhall be De libero tenemento. And as before times it hath lien and holden place in common of paſture, ſo ſhall it from henceforth hold place in cōmon of Turfeland, Fiſhing, & ſuch like commons, which any man hath appendant to freehold, or without freehold by ſpeciall deed, at the leaſt for terme of life. In caſe alſo when any holding for terme of yeares, or in ward, alieneth the ſame in fee, and by ſuch alienation the Freehold is transferred to the feoffee, the remedie ſhall be by a writ of Nouel diſſeiſin, & as well the feoffors as the feoffee ſhall be had for diſſeiſors, ſo that during the life of any of thē the ſaid writ ſhal hold place. And if by the death of the parties remedie happen to faile, by that writ, then remedie ſhall be obtained by a Writ of Entre. And albeit that aboue mention is made of ſome caſes wherein a Writ of nouel diſſeiſin held no place before, let no man thinke therefore that this Writ lieth not now where it hath lien before. And though ſome haue doubted whether a remedie be had by this Writ in caſe where one feedeth in the ſeuerall of another, let it be had for certaine, that a good & a ſure remedie is giuen in that caſe by the ſaid writ. And let them which be named Diſſeiſors beware from henceforth that they alleadge not falſe Exceptions, whereby the taking of the Aſſiſe may be deferred, ſaying that another time an Aſſiſe of the ſame land paſſed betweene the ſame parties, or ſaying and lying that a Writ of more high nature hangeth betweene the ſame parties for the ſame Land, and vpon theſe and like matters doe vouch Rolles or Records to warranty, to the end that by the ſame vouching they may take away the veſture, and receiue the rents and other profits, to the great damage of the plaintiffe. And where before none other paine was limited againſt him that falſely had alleaged ſuch vntrue Exceptions, but onely that after ſuch falſe ſurmiſes diſproued, the Aſſiſe ſhould paſſe: Our Lord the King, to whom ſuch falſe Exceptions bee odious, hath ordained, that if any being named diſſeiſor doe perſonally alleadge the Exception at the day to him giuen (if he faile of the warrantie that he hath vouched) he ſhall be adiudged for a diſſeiſor without taking of the Aſſiſe, and ſhall reſtore the damages before enquired of, or to be inquired after to the double, and ſhall neuertheleſſe haue a yeares impriſonment for his falſhood. And if that Exception be alleaged by a Bailiffe, the taking of the Aſſiſe ſhall not be delayed therefore, nor the iudgement vpon the reſtitution of the lands and damages. Yet neuertheleſſe, that if the Maſter of ſuch a Bailiffe that was abſent, come after before the ſame Iuſtices that tooke the Aſſiſe, & offer to proue by Record or Rolls, that another time an Aſſiſe paſſed betweene the ſame parties of the ſame land, or that the plaintife at another time did withdraw his ſuit in a like writ, or that a Plea hangeth by a writ of more high nature: a Writ of Venire facias ſhall be granted vnto him to cauſe the ſame Record to be brought, and when hee hath the ſame, and the Iuſtices doe perceiue that the Record ſo ſhewed by him would haue beene ſo auaileable before the iudgement, that the plaintiffe by force of the ſame ſhould haue beene barred of his Action: the Iuſtices ſhall preſently cauſe the partie to be warned that firſt recouered, that he appeare at a certaine day, at the which the defendant ſhall haue againe his ſeiſin and damages (if he before payed any after the firſt iudgement giuen) which ſhall be reſtored him to the double, as before is ſaid, and alſo he that firſt recouered ſhall be puniſhed by impriſonment according to the diſcretiō of the Iuſtices. In the ſame maner, if the defendant againſt whom the Aſſiſe paſſed in his abſence, ſhew any deedes or releaſes, vpon the making whereof, the Iury were not examined, nor could be examined, becauſe there was no mention made of them in pleading, and by probabilitie might be ignorant of the making of thoſe writings, The Iuſtices vpon the ſight of thoſe writings ſhall cauſe the partie to be warned that recouered, that he appeare at a certaine day, and ſhall cauſe the Iurors of the ſame Aſſiſe to come. And if he ſhall verifie thoſe writings to be true by the verdict of the Iurors, or by inrolment, he that purchaſed the Aſſiſe contrary to his owne deed ſhall bee puniſhed by the paine aforeſaid. And the Sheriffs from henceforth ſhall not take an Oxe of the diſſeiſee, but of the diſſeiſor onely, and if there be many diſſeiſors named in one Writ, yet ſhall he be contented with one Oxe: nor ſhall receiue any Oxe but of v.s. price, or the value.

Oftentimes alſo pleas be delayed by reaſon that the Sheriffe returneth that he hath commanded the Bailiffes of ſome libertie, which did nothing therein, and nameth liberties that neuer had the returne of Writs, wherevpon our Lord the King hath ordained, that the Treaſurer of the Eſchequer ſhall deliuer to the Juſtices in a roll all the liberties in all Shires that haue returne of Writs. And if the Sheriffe anſwer that he hath made returne to a Bailiffe of another libertie, then is contained in the ſaid roll, the Sheriffe ſhall be forthwith puniſhed as a diſheritor of our Lord the King and his Crowne. And if peraduenture he returne that he hath deliuered the Writ to a Bailiffe of ſome libertie, that indeed hath returne, the Sheriffe ſhall be commaunded, that he will not ſpare for the foreſaid libertie; but ſhall execute the Kings precept: and that he doe the Bailiffes to wit, to whom he returned the Writ, that they be ready at a day contained in the Writ, to anſwere why they did not execute the Kings precept. And if they come at the day and acquit themſelues, that no returne was made to them, the Sheriffe ſhall be forthwith condemned to the Lord of the ſame libertie, and likewiſe to the party greeued by the delay for to render damages. And if the Bailiffes come not in at the day, or doe come and doe not acquit themſelues in maner aforeſaid in euery iudiciall Writ, ſo long as the plea hangeth, the Sheriffe ſhall be commanded that he ſhall not ſpare the liberty, &c. Many times alſo Sheriffes make falſe returnes as touching theſe articles, Quod de exitibus, &c. returning ſometime and lying, that there be no iſſues, ſome time that there are ſmal iſſues, when they may returne great, and ſometime do make mentiõ of no iſſues: wherefore it is ordained and agreed, that if the plaintiffe demaund hearing of the Sheriffes returne, it ſhall be granted him: And if he offer to auerre, that the Sheriffe might haue returned greater iſſues vnto the King, he ſhall haue a Writ iudiciall vnto the Juſtices aſſigned to take Aſſiſes, that they ſhall inquire in preſence of the Sheriffe (if he will be there) of what & how great iſſues the Sheriffe might haue made returne from the day of the Writ purchaſed vnto the day contained in the Writ. And when the inqueſt is returned, if he haue not afore anſwered for the whole, he ſhall be charged with ouerplus by eſtreats deliuered at the Eſchequer, and neuertheleſſe ſhall be grieuouſly amerced for the concealment. And let the Sheriffe know, that rents, corne in the graunge, and all moueables (except horſe, harneis, and houſhold ſtuffe) be contained within the name of Iſſues. And the King hath commaunded, that Sheriffes ſhall be puniſhed by the Juſtices once or twice (if need be) for ſuch falſe returnes. And if they offend the third time, none ſhall haue to doe therewith but the King. They make alſo many times falſe anſweres, returning that they could not execute the Kings precept, for the reſiſtance of ſome great man: wherefore let the Sheriffes beware from henceforth, for ſuch maner of anſweres redound much to the diſhonour of the King. And as ſoone as his Bailiffes doe teſtifie that they foũd ſuch reſiſtãce, forthwith al things ſet a part (taking with him the power of the Shire) he ſhal go in proper perſon to do execution: and if he find his Vnder Bailiffes falſe, he ſhall puniſh them by impriſonment, ſo that other by their example may be reformed. And if he doe find them true he ſhall puniſh the reſiſters by impriſonment, from whence they ſhall not be deliuered without the Kings ſpeciall commandement. And if percaſe the Sheriffe when he commeth doe find reſiſtance, he ſhall certifie to the Court the names of the reſiſters, aydors, conſentors, commanders, and fauourers, and by a Writ iudiciall they ſhall be attached by their bodies to appeare at the Kings Court: and if they be conuict of ſuch reſiſtance, they ſhall be puniſhed at the Kings pleaſure: neyther ſhall any officer of the Kings meddle in aſſigning the puniſhment, for our Lord the King hath reſerued it ſpecially to himſelf, becauſe that reſiſters, haue been reputed diſturbers of his Peace, and of his Realme. The ſeuerall fees of Marſhalls, Chamberlaines, Porters of Iuſtices in Eyre, &c.

The ſeuerall fees of Marſhals, Chamberlaines, &c. which haue the office in fee.

Concerning the Kings Marſhals of Fee, Chamberlaines, Porters in the Circuit of Iuſtices and Sergeants, bearing vierge before Iuſtices at Weſtminſter, which haue the ſame Office in Fee, and that aske more by reaſon of their Fee, then they haue vſed to aske, wherupon many doe complaine on them, that haue knowne and ſeene the order of the Court of long time. Our Lord the King hath cauſed to be inquired by an Inqueſt what the ſaid Officers of Fee haue vſed to haue in times paſſed, and hath ordained and commanded, that a Marſhall of Fee, which of new asketh a palfray of Earles, Barons, and other holding by a part of a barony when they haue done homage, and neuertheleſſe another palfray when they are made Knights, and of ſome that ought not to giue any, aske a palfray: It is in like manner ordained, that the ſaid Marſhall of euery Earle and Baron holding by an entire baronie, ſhall be contented with one palfray, or with the price of it, ſuch as he hath vſed to haue of old: ſo that if he tooke a palfray, or the price of one, at the doing of his homage, in forme aforeſaid, he ſhall take nothing when he is made Knight: and if he tooke nothing at the doing of his homage, when he is made Knight he ſhall take. Of Abbots and Priors, holding an whole baronie, when they doe homage or fealty for their baronies, he ſhall take one palfray, or the price, as afore is ſaid, and this ſhall alſo be obſerued amongſt Archbiſhops, and Biſhops of ſuch as hold but a part of a baronie, whether they be religious or ſecular, he ſhall take according to the portion of the part of the baronie that they hold. Of religious men, that hold in free Almes and not by a baronie, nor part of a baronie, the Marſhall from henceforth ſhall demand nothing. And our Lord the King hath granted, that by this Statute a Marſhall of Fee ſhall not be barred hereafter to demand more, if he can ſhew that he hath right vnto more. The Kings Chamberlaines from henceforth ſhall haue of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Abbots, Priors, and other perſons Spirituall, of Earles and Barons holding an entire baronie, a reaſonable Fine, when they doe their homage or fealty. And if they hold by a part of a barony, they ſhall take a reaſonable Fine, according to the portion to them belonging. Other Abbots, Priors, and other perſons Spirituall and Temporall, that hold no entire baronie, nor part of a barony ſhall not be diſtrained to make Fine, as it is ſaid by them that hold by a barony, or part of a barony: but the Chamberlaine ſhall be contented with his vpper garment, or with the price thereof, which is done in fauour of perſons religious more then of lay perſons, for it is more conuenient, that religious men ſhould Fine for their vpper garment, then to be ſtripped.

belongeth to the Kings Court, which if they do, firſt they ſhall yeeld damages to the party greeued, and be greeuouſly puniſhed vnto the King, The King alſo prohibiteth to the keepers of ſuch priuiledges, that from henceforth they grant no citations at the inſtance of Hoſpitalers, Templers, or other perſons priuiledged, before it be expreſſed vpon what matter the citation ought to be made. And if the keepers do ſee that a citation is required vpon any matter, the knowledge whereof belongeth to the Kings Court, the keepers ſhall neither make nor knowledge the citation. And if the keepers do otherwiſe, they ſhall yeeld damages to the party greeued, and neuertheleſſe ſhall be greeuouſly puniſhed by the King. And foraſmuch as ſuch perſons priuiledged, depute keepers, ſuperiors, chantors, ſextens, which be religious men, and which haue nothing to ſatiſfie the parties greeued, nor the King, which be more bold to offend the Kings dignity then their ſuperiors, to whom puniſhment may be aſſigned by their temporalities. Let the Prelats of ſuch obedients therefore beware from henceforth, that they do not ſuffer their obedients to vſurpe any iuriſdiction in preiudice of the King and his Crowne: and if they doe, their ſuperiors ſhall be charged for their fact, as much as if they had been conuict vpon their proper Act.

The fees of Porters bearing verges before the Iuſtices: And of Chirographers, Clerkes &c.

The fees of porters carying verges before the Iuſtices.

Concerning Porters, bearing vierge before Iuſtices of the Bench in the Circuit: It is prouided that of euery Aſſiſe and Iury, that they keep, they ſhall take x.d. only, and for the Bils nothing. Of ſuch as recouer their demands by default, confeſſion, or otherwiſe by iudgement without Aſſiſe and Iury they ſhall take nothing. Of ſuch as goe without day by default of the demaundant or plaintiffe, they ſhall take nothing. And if any recouer his demand againſt many by one Writ, and by Recogniſance of Aſſiſe or Iury they ſhall be content with iiij.d. And likewiſe of thoſe which be named in one Writ by Recogniſance of Aſſiſe or Iury, they ſhall be content with iiij.d. Of ſuch as doe homage in the Bench, they ſhall be content with their vpper garment. Of great Aſſiſes, Attaints, Iuries, and battell waged, they ſhall take xij.d. only. Of ſuch as be called before Iuſtices to ſue or to defẽd their pleas, they ſhall take nothing for their comming in or forth. At the pleas of the Crowne for euery doſen xij.d. only ſhall be taken. Of euery priſoner deliuered iiij.d. ſhall be taken. Of euery one whoſe peace is proclaimed xij.d. only ſhall be taken. Of the finders of men ſlaine and others of a Towne attached, iiij.d. of Tithing men nothing ſhall be taken. Of Chirographers for making of a Chirographe, it is ordained, that they ſhall be contented with iiij.ʒ. Of Clerks writing Writs originall and iudiciall, It is ordained that for one Writ they ſhall take but j.d. And the King chargeth all his Iuſtices vpon their faith and oath that they owe him, that if ſuch maner of officers offend in any article againſt this Statute, & Cõplaint come to them therof, they ſhal execute on thẽ reaſonable puniſhment: And if they offẽd the ſecond time they ſhall award greater puniſhmẽt, that they may be duly corrected: And if they offend the third time, and be thereupon conuicted if they be officers of the fee (they ſhall leeſe their fee, and if they be other, they ſhall auoid the Kings Court, and ſhall not be receiued againe without the ſpeciall grace and licence of the King himſelfe.

WHere as in a Statute made at Merton, it was graunted that Lords of Waſts, Woods, and Paſtures might approue the ſaid waſts, woods and paſtures, notwithſtanding the contradiction of their Tenants, ſo that the Tenants had ſufficient paſture to their Tenements with frée egreſſe and regreſſe to the ſame. And for as much as no mention was made betwéen neighbours and neighbours, many Lords of Waſts, Woods and Paſtures haue béene hindered heretofore by the contradiction of neighbours hauing ſufficient paſture. And becauſe forrain tenants haue no more right to Commō in the waſts, woods, or paſtures of any Lord thē the Lords owne Tenants: It is ordained, that the Statute of Merton, prouided betwéene the Lord and his tenants, from henceforth, ſhall hold place betwéen Lords of Waſts, Woods, and Paſtures, and their neighbours, ſauing ſufficient paſture to their tenants and neighbours, ſo that the Lords of ſuch waſts, woods, and paſtures may make approuement of the reſidue: and this ſhall be obſerued for ſuch as claime paſture as apportenant to their tenement. But if any doe claime common by ſpeciall Feoffement or grant for a certaine number of beaſts, or otherwiſe which he ought to haue of common right, whereas couenant barreth the Law, he ſhall haue ſuch recouery as he ought to haue had by forme of the grant made vnto him. By occaſion of a Windmill, ſhéepcote, deyrie, inlarging of a Court neceſſary, or courtilage, from henceforth no man ſhall bée grieued by aſſiſe of nouel diſſeiſin, for common of paſture. And where ſometime it chanceth that one hauing right to approue, doth then leuy a dike or an hedge, and ſome by night or at an other ſeaſon, when they ſuppoſe not to be eſpied, do ouerthrow the hedge or dike, & it cannot be knowne by verdict of the Aſſiſe or Iury, who did ouerthrow the hedge or dike, and men of the Townes néere, will not indite ſuch as be guilty of the fact: the townes néere adioyning ſhall be diſtrained to leuy the hedge or dike at their owne coſt, and to yéeld damages. And where one hauing no right to common, vſurpeth common what time an heire is within age, or a woman is couert, or whileſt the paſture is in the hands of tenants in dower, by the curteſie or otherwiſe for terme of life, or yeares, or in fée taile, and haue long time vſed the paſture, many hold opinion, that ſuch paſtures ought to be ſaid to belong to the fréehold, and that the poſſeſſor ought to haue action by a writ of nouel diſſeiſin, if he be deforced of ſuch paſture: but from henceforth this muſt be holden that ſuch as haue entred within the time that an Aſſiſe of Mortdanceſtor hath lyen, if they had no common before, ſhall haue no recouery by a Writ of nouel diſſeiſin, if they be deforced.

Cap. IIII.

At what times the gates of great Townes ſhall be ſhut. And when the night Watch ſhall beginne and end.

AND for the more ſurety of the Countrey, the King hath commanded that in great Townes being walled, the Gates ſhall be cloſed from the Sun ſetting vntill the Sunne riſing, and that no man doe lodge in Suburbes, nor in any place out of the Towne, from nine of the clocke vntill day, without his Hoſt will anſwer for him: and the Bailiffes of Townes euery weeke, or at the leaſt euery fifteenth day, ſhall make inquiry of all perſons being lodged in the Suburbes, or in forraine places of the Townes. And if they doe find any that haue lodged or receiued any Strangers or ſuſpitious perſon, againſt the peace, the Bailiffes ſhall doe right therein. And the King commandeth, that from henceforth all Townes be kept as it hath beene vſed in times paſſed, that is to wit, from the day of Aſcenſion vnto the day of Saint Michael in euery Citie ſixe men ſhall keepe at euery gate, in euery Borough twelue men, euery Towne ſixe or foure according to the number of inhabitants of the Towne, and ſhall watch the Towne continually all night from the Sunne ſetting vnto the Sunne riſing. And if any ſtranger doe paſſe by them, he ſhall be arreſted vntill morning. And if no ſuſpition be found, he ſhall goe quit, and if they find cauſe of ſuſpition, they ſhall forthwith deliuer him to the Sheriffe, and the Sheriffe may receiue him without damage, and ſhall keepe him ſafely, vntill he be acquited in due manner. And if they will not obay the arreſt, they ſhall leuy huy and cry vpon them, and ſuch as keepe the Towne, ſhall follow with huy and cry with all the Towne, and the Townes neere, and ſo huy and cry ſhall be made from Towne to Towne, vntill that they be taken and deliuered to the Sheriffe: as before is ſaid: and for the arreſtments of ſuch ſtrangers none ſhall be puniſhed.

The Statute of Merchants made at VVeſtminſter

13. Ed. 1. & Anno Dom. 1258.

Cap. I.

The forme of knowledging a Statute Merchant The Creditors remedie if his debt be not paid. The Kings Seales ſhall be ſent to keepers of Faires. Taking of a Recogniſance.

FOr aſmuch as Merchants, which heretofore haue lent their goods to diuers perſons, be fallen in pouertie, becauſe there is no ſpeedy remedie prouided, whereby they may ſhortly recouer their debt at the day of payment: And for this cauſe many Merchants doe refraine to come into the Realme with their merchandiſe, to the damage of Merchants, and of all the Realme: The King and his counſell at his Parliament holden at Acton Burnel, after the feaſt of Saint Michael, the eleuenth yeare of his raigne, hath ordained theſe eſtabliſhments thereupon for the remedy of ſuch Merchants: which ordinances and eſtabliſhments, the King cõmandeth that they ſhall be firmely kept and obſerued throughout his Realme, whereby Merchants may haue remedy, and leſſe trouble and buſineſſe to recouer their debts, then they haue had heretofore. But foraſmuch as Merchants after complained vnto the King, that Sheriffes miſinterpreted his Statutes, and ſometime by malice and falſe interpretation delaied the execution of the Statute, to the great damage of Merchants: The King at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter after Eaſter, the thirteenth yeare of his raigne, cauſed the ſaid Statute made at Acton Burnel, to be rehearſed. And for the declaration of certaine Articles in the Statute aforeſaid, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that a Merchant who will be ſure of his debt, ſhall cauſe his debtor to come before the Maior of London, or before ſome chiefe Wardein of a City, or of another good town, where the King ſhall appoint, and before the Maſter and chiefe Wardein, or other ſufficient men choſen and ſworne thereto, when the Maior or chiefe Wardein cannot attend, and before one of the Clerkes that the King ſhall thereto aſſigne, when both cannot attend, he ſhall knowledge the debt, and the day of paiment: And the Recogniſance ſhall be enrolled by one of the Clerkes hands being knowne, and the Roll ſhall be double, whereof one part ſhall remaine with the Maior, or chiefe Wardein, and the other with the Clerkes that thereto ſhall be firſt named: And further, one of the ſaid Clerkes with his owne hand ſhall write an obligation, to which writing the Seale of the debtor ſhall be put with the Kings Seale, prouided for the ſame intent: which Seale ſhall be of two pieces, whereof the greater piece ſhall remaine in the cuſtody of the Maior or the chiefe Wardein, and the other piece in the keeping of the foreſaid Clerke. And if the debtor doe not pay at the day limited vnto him, then ſhall the Merchant come to the Maior and Clerke with his obligation: And if it be found by the roll or writing, that the debt was knowledged, and the day of payment expired, the Maior or chiefe Wardein, ſhall cauſe the body of the debtor to be taken (if he be lay) whenſoeuer he hapneth to come in their power, and ſhall commit him to the priſon of the Towne, if there be any, & he ſhall remaine there at his owne coſts, vntill he hath agreed for the debt. And it is commanded that the Keeper of the towne Priſon, ſhall retaine him vpon the deliuery of the Mayor or Warden. And if the Keeper wil not receiue him, he ſhall be anſwerable for the debt, if he haue whereof, and if he haue not whereof, he he that committed the Priſoner to his keeping ſhall anſwer. And if the debtor cannot bee found in the power of the Maior or chiefe Warden, then ſhall the Maior or chiefe Warden ſend into the Chancery vnder the Kings Seale, the recogniſance of the debt: and the Chancellor ſhall direct a Writ vnto the ſherife, in whoſe ſhire the debtor ſhall be found for to take his body (if he be Laie) and ſafely to keepe him in Priſon, vntill he hath agreed for the debt. And within a quarter of a yeare after that he is taken, his chattels and lands ſhall be deliuered him, ſo that by his owne he may leuie and pay the debt. And it ſhall be lawfull vnto him, during the ſame quarter, to ſell his lands and tenements for the diſcharge of his debts, and his ſale ſhall be good and effectuall. And if he doe not agree within the quarter, next after the quarter expired, all the lands and goods of the debtor ſhall be deliuered vnto the Merchant by a reaſonable extent, to hold them vntill ſuch time as the debt is wholly leuied. And neuertheleſſe the body ſhall remaine in Priſon, as before is ſaid. And the Merchant ſhall finde him bread and water, and the Merchant ſhall haue ſuch ſeaſon in the lands and tenements deliuered vnto him or his aſſignee that he may maintaine a writ of Nouel diſſeiſin, if he be put out, and rediſſeiſin alſo, as of freehold, to hold to him and his aſſignes vntill the debt be paid. And as ſoone as the debt is leuied, the body of the debtor ſhall be deliuered with his lands. And in ſuch writs as the Chancellor doth award, mention ſhall be made, that the Sheriffe ſhall certifie the Iuſtices of the one Bench or of the other, how he hath performed the Kings commandement at a certaine day, at which day the Merchant ſhall ſue before the Iuſtices, if agreement be not made: And if the Sheriffes doe not returne the writ, or doe returne that the writ came too late, or that he hath directed it to the Bailifes of ſome Franchiſe, the Iuſtices ſhall doe as it is contained in the latter Statute of Weſtminſter. And if in caſe the Sherife returne, that the debtor cannot be found, or that he is Clerke, the Merchant ſhall haue writs to all the Sheriffes, where he ſhall haue land, and that they ſhall deliuer vnto him all the goods and lands of the debtor by a reaſonable extent, to hold vnto him and his aſſignes in the forme aforeſaid: and at the leaſt he ſhall haue a writ to what Sheriffe he will, to take his body (if he be Lay) and to retaine it in manner aforeſaid. And let the keeper of the Priſon take heede, that he muſt anſwer for the body, or for the debt. And after that the debtors lands be deliuered to the Merchant, the debtor may lawfully ſell his land, ſo that the Merchant haue no damage of the approuements: And the Merchants ſhall alwaies be allowed for their damages, and all coſts, labors, ſuits, delaies, and expences reaſonable. And if the debtor find ſureties, which doe acknowledge themſelues to be principall debtors after the day paſſed, the ſureties ſhall be ordered in all things as is ſaid of the principall debtor as to the arreſt of body, deliuery of lands, and other things. And when the lands of the debtors be deliuered vnto the Merchant, he ſhall haue ſeiſin of all the lands that were in the hand of the debtor, the day of the recogniſance made, in whoſe hands ſoeuer that they come after, either by feoffement or otherwiſe. And after the debt paid, the debtors lands, and the iſſues of lands of debtors by feoffement ſhall returne againe, aſwell to the feoffee, as the other lands vnto the debtors. And if the debtor or his ſureties die, that Merchant ſhall haue no authoritie to take the body of his heire, but he ſhall haue his lands as before is ſaid, if he be of age, or when he ſhall be of full age vntill he hath leuied of the lands the amountment, and value of the debt. And a ſeale ſhall be prouided, that ſhall ſerue for Faires, and the ſame ſhall be ſent vnto euery Faire vnder the Kings ſeale by a Clerke ſworne or by the keeper of the Faire. And of the comminaltie of the Merchants of the Citie of London, two Merchants ſhall be choſen, that ſhall ſweare, and the Seale ſhall be opened before them, and the one piece ſhall be deliuered vnto the foreſaid Merchants, and the other ſhall remaine with the Clerke. And before them or one of the Merchants (if both cannot attend) the Recogniſances ſhall be taken, as before is ſaid, And before that any recogniſance be inrolled, the paine of the Statute ſhall be openly read before the debtor, ſo that after he cannot ſay that any did put another penalty then that whereto he bound himſelfe: And to maintaine the coſts of the ſaid Clerke, the King ſhall take of euery pound a penny, in euery Towne, where the Seale is, except Faires where he ſhall take one peny halfe peny, of the pound. This ordinance and Act the King willeth to be obſerued from henceforth throughout his Realme of England and Ireland, amongſt the which people they that will, may make ſuch Recogniſances (except Iewes, to whom this ordinance ſhall not extend:) And by this Statute a Writ of debt ſhall not be abated, and the Chancellor, Iuſtices of either Bench, and Iuſtices errants, ſhall not be eſtopped to take recogniſances of debts before thẽ knowledged and made, but the execution of recogniſances made before them, ſhall not be done in the forme aforeſaid, but by the law and manner before vſed, and otherwiſe prouided in other Statutes.

Another new Statute of Quo warranto, made the ſame yeare, to that effect.

Coke li.9.fo.23.&c.

COncerning the Writ that is called Quo warranto, our Lord the King at the Feaſt of Pentecoſt, in the eighteenth yeare of his raigne hath eſtabliſhed, that all thoſe which claime to haue quiet poſſeſſion of any Franchiſe, before the time of King Richard, without interruption, and can ſhew the ſame by a lawfull enqueſt, ſhall well enioy their poſſeſſion. And in caſe that ſuch poſſeſſion be demanded for cauſe reaſonable, our Lord the King ſhall confirme it by title. And thoſe that haue old Charters of Franchiſe, ſhall haue the ſame Charters adiudged according to the tenour and forme of them, and thoſe that haue loſt their Liberties ſith Eaſter laſt paſſed by the foreſaid Writ, according to the courſe of pleading in the ſame Writ heretofore vſed, ſhall haue reſtitution of their Franchiſe loſt, And from henceforth they ſhall haue according to the nature of this preſent conſtitution. The manner of leuying of Fines: what things be requiſite to make them good, and who are bound by them.

to him, What ſaith Sir R. and ſhall name one of the parties: Then when they be agreed of the ſumme of money, that muſt be giuen to the King, then the Juſtice ſhall ſay, Crie the peace. And after the Pleador ſhall ſay: In ſo much as peace is licenced, thus vnto you, W. S. and A. his wife, that here be, doe knowledge the mannor of B. with the appurtenants, contained in the Writ, to bee the right of our Lord the King: which he hath of their gift. To haue and to hold to him and his heires, of the ſaid W. and A. and the heires of A. as in Demeanes, Rents, Seigniories, Courts, Pleas, Purchaſes, Wards, Marriages, Reliefes, Eſcheates, Milles, Aduouſons of Churches, and all other Franchiſes and free Cuſtomes to the ſaid manor belonging, paying yearely to R. and his heires as chiefe Lords of the Fee, the ſeruices and cuſtomes due for all ſeruices. And it is to be noted, that the order of the Law, will not ſuffer a finall accord to be leuied in the Kings Court without a Writ originall, and that muſt be at the leaſt before foure Juſtices in the Bench, or in Eire, and not otherwiſe, and in preſence of the parties named in the Writ, which muſt be of full age, of good memory, and out of priſon. And if a woman couert be one of the parties, then they muſt be firſt examined by foure of the ſaid Juſtices. And if ſhe doth not aſſent thereunto, the fine ſhall not be leuied. And the cauſe wherefore ſuch ſolemnitie ought to be done in a fine, is, becauſe a fine is ſo high a barre, of ſo great force, and of ſo ſtrong nature in himſelfe, that it concludeth not onely ſuch as be parties, and priuies thereto and their heires, but all other people of the world, being of full age, out of priſon, of good memorie, and within the foure Seas, the day of the fine leuied, if they make not their claime of their action within a yeare and a day by the countrey. The Statute of Vouchers, made Anno 20. of Edw. the firſt, and Anno Domini 1292.

In a plea of Land the Tenant voucheth, and the Demandant counterpleadeth.

Vouched.

WHereas the Tenant impleaded in a Plea of land heretofore had vouched to warrantie, and thereupon the demandant would auerre, that neither he that is vouched, nor any of his Anceſtors (ſince the time that the Anceſtor of the Demandant was ſeiſed) was in poſſeſſion of the ſaid lands, neither in Demeane, nor in Seruice, if the partie vouched were preſent, and would warrantiſe the land freely vnto the Tenant, ſuch auerrement of the Demandant, hath not beene vſed to be admitted, vnleſſe the partie vouched had beene abſent, and that by reaſon of a certaine Statute of the Kings lately made amongſt other Statutes of Weſtminſter, the firſt.

Stat.3.Ed.1.39.

In plea of land the tenant voucheth one preſent, and the demandant counterpleadeth the voucher.

Wherefore our Lord the King, conſidering the fraud, deceit, and malice, and alſo his owne damage and diſheriſon of his crowne, that in the ſaid caſe hath many times happened in this Court, and daily doth, whereas ſome holding of the King in chiefe by a whole Baronie, in a Plea hanging before the Juſtices of the Bench vpon their demand doe vouch particularly baſe perſons vnknowen and ſtrangers (which they will bring forth) and of whom neither they nor their Anceſtors had euer any thing in the lands that they warranted, nor in any other lands or tenements within this Realme, neither in Demeane, nor in Seruice, as hath beene teſtified by diuers of the Kings faithfull Subiects, ſo that by ſuch cautell, fraud, and malice, the ſame Tenants holding by an entire Baronie, doe defraud the King of the amerciament that they ſhould incurre, if the Demandant ſhould recouer againſt them.

And likewiſe when ſuch baſe perſons haue warranted, that is to wit, euery one for his portion that he ought to warrant, hee may defend himſelfe by the body of his ſeruant procured and hired by them that hold Baronies, and ſo vpon one Writ and one Demand, there were two or three wagers of battaile, the which was a hard and perilous example for poore men in time comming that ſhall be demandants againſt great and rich men, which will defend themſelues by the malice aforeſaid: And the Demandant cannot haue his auerment againſt ſuch Warrantors, when they be vouched in forme aforeſaid, becauſe they be preſent, and will warrantiſe freely: By his Common Counſell hath ordained, and from henceforth, that is to ſay, from the Feaſt of Saint Hillarie, the twentieth yeare of his raigne, he hath commanded to bee obſerued, that when the Tenant doth vouch any to warrantie, and the Demandant will auerre in forme before rehearſed, his auerment ſhall be admitted, whether the partie vouched be abſent, or preſent, without any reſpect had vnto his abſence or preſence. A Statute of Waſt, made Anno 20. Ed. 1. & Anno Dom. 1292.

Tenant for life committeth waſt, he in the Reuerſion brought an Action of waſt, and dieth before Iudgement, his heire brought an Action for the ſame waſt.

William Butler, which is within age, and in Ward of our Lord the King, hath ſhewed vnto his Highneſſe, that where Gawin Butler his brother (whoſe heire he is) had impleaded one Walter de Hapeton, by the Kings Writ for Waſt and deſtruction made by him the ſaid Walter, in certaine his lands and tenements which the ſame Walter held for terme of his life; of the inheritance of the foreſaid Gawin in Wimme and Thirke. And the aforeſaid Gawin before he had obtained iudgement died. After whoſe death the foreſaid William by like Writ impleded the foreſaid Walter, for the waſt and deſtruction made by him of long time. The ſame Walter before Gilbert Thornton, and his companions aſſigned to heare the Kings Pleas, came in and ſaid that he ought not to anſwere to the ſame William for the waſt and deſtruction made in the time of another, before the right of the ſaid inheritance deſcended vnto him, and thereupon demaunded iudgement. And for as much as certaine Iuſtices did not agrée in giuing of the ſaid iudgement: becauſe it ſéemeth to ſome that it ſhould not be agréeable to the Law, that any perſon ſhould obtaine aduantage and recompence by the foreſaid Writ, which is a Writ of Treſpaſſe done to a perſon certaine, but only the ſame perſon to whom and in whoſe time the treſpas was done. Other Iuſtices with the more part of the Kings Counſell, were in the contrary opinion, alledging by diuers reaſons that the ſaid William ought to be heard and anſwered vnto, & all other whatſoeuer they be, in like caſes or in like treſpaſſes. And becauſe like matters haue remained not amended; and treſpaſſes vnpuniſhed which was inconuenient.

Wherefore our Lord the King in his full Parliament holden the day after the Feaſt of the Purification, in the twentieth yeare of his raigne, by a generall Counſell hath ordained, and from henceforth hath commanded to be ſtraightly obſerued, that euery heire (in whoſe ward ſoeuer he be, and as well within age, as of full age) ſhall haue his recouery by a Writ of Waſt in the foreſaid caſe, and alſo in other where the ſame Writ ought to hold place: and it ſhall hold place as well for waſt and deſtruction made in lands and tenements of his owne inheritance, and as well in the times of his anceſtors, as at any other time that the Fée and inheritance deſcended vnto him, and ſhalbe anſwered vnto therefore. And that he ſhall recouer the tenements waſted, and damages, as it is ordained in the ſecond Statute of Weſtminſter, of damages to be recouered in a Writ of Waſt, if the tenant be conuict of waſt. And it is commanded by the King himſelfe vnto the ſame Gilbert Thornton and his companions, that they doe procéed in the foreſaid matter, and in other like from henceforth, and iudgement ſhalbe giuen according as the matter is found. And likewiſe it is commanded vnto the Iuſtices, that they ſhall cauſe all the foreſaid things to be ſtraightly obſerued before them from henceforth. Regiſt. fol. 73.

Tenant for life committeth waſt, and he in the reuerſion bringeth an action of waſt, & dieth before iudgement, & his heire bringeth an action of the ſame waſt, and recouereth.

Wherefore our Lord the King, for to withſtand all ſuch malice in the forſaide caſe, and intending to prouide a remedie therein, in his full Parliament, and by his common counſell, hath ordained, and from henceforth commandeth ſtraitly to be obſerued: that is to wit, from the Munday next after the Feaſt of the Purification of the Virgin, the twentieth yeare of his raigne, that when any before iudgement in the foreſaid caſe commeth in by a collaterall title, and deſireth to be receiued: before

Cap. I.

A Confirmation of the great Charter, and the Charter of the Foreſt.

EDward by the grace of God, King of England,Lord of Ireland,and Duke of Guian, To all thoſe that theſe preſent Letters ſhall heare or ſee, greeting. Know yee that we to the honour of God, and of holy Church, and to the profit of our realme, haue granted for vs and our heires, that the Charter of Liberties,and the Charter of the Foreſt, which were made by common aſſent of all the realme,in the time of K. Henry our father,ſhall be kept in euery point without breach. And we will that the ſame Charters ſhall be ſent vnder our Seale, as well to our Iuſtices of the Foreſt, as to others, and to all Sheriffes of Shires, and to all our other officers,& to all our Cities throughout the realme, together with our Writs,in the which it ſhall be contained that they cauſe the foreſaid Charters to be publiſhed,and to declare to the people,that we haue confirmed them in all points, and that our Iuſtices,Sheriffes,Maiors,and other Miniſters,,which vnder vs haue the Lawes of our Land to guide,ſhall allow the ſame Charters pleaded before them in iudgement in all their points, that is to wit, the great Charter as the Common Law, and the Charter of the Foreſt for the wealth of our Realme.

A confirmation of the great Charter,and the Charter of the Foreſt.

The great Charter the Common Law.

Cap. II.

Iudgements giuen againſt the ſaid Charters, ſhall be void.

ANd we will that if any iudgement be giuen from henceforth contrary to the points of the Charters aforeſaid by the Iuſtices , or by any other our Miniſters that hold Plea before them againſt the points of the Charters,it ſhall be vndone and holden for nought.

Iudgements giuen againſt the great Charter, ſhall be void.

Cap. III.

The ſaid Charters ſhall be read in Cathedrall Churches twice in the yeare.

The Charters ſent to Cathedrall Churches.

AND we will that the ſame Charters ſhall be ſent vnder our Seale, to Cathedrall Churches throughout our Realme, there to remaine, & ſhall be read before the people two times by the yeare.

Cap. IIII.

Excommunication ſhall be pronounced againſt the breakers of the ſaid Charters.

The Biſhops excommunication againſt the breakers of the Charters.

AND that all Archbiſhops and Biſhops, ſhall pronounce the ſentence of Excommunication againſt all thoſe that by word, deed, or counſell, do contrary to the foreſaid Charters, or that in any point breake or vndoe them. And that the ſaid curſes be twice a yeare denounced and publiſhed by the Prelates aforeſaid. And if the ſame Prelates or any of them, be remiſſe in the denunciation of the ſaid ſentences, the Archbiſhops of Canterbury and Yorke for the times being, ſhall compell and diſtraine them to the execution of their duties in forme aforeſaid.

Cap. V.

Aides, taskes, and prices graunted to the King, ſhall not be taken for a cuſtome.

Aids and tasks granted to the King, ſhall not be taken for a cuſtome.

AND for ſo much as diuers people of our Realm are in feare, that the aides and taſkes which they haue giuen to vs before time towards our warres, and other buſineſſe, of their owne graunt and good will (howſoeuer they were made) might turne to a bondage to them and their heires, becauſe they might be at another time found in the Rolles; and likewiſe for the prices taken throughout the Realme by our Miniſters: We haue granted for vs and our heires that we ſhall not draw ſuch aides, taſkes, nor prices into a cuſtome, for any thing that hath beene done heretofore, be it by Roll, or any other preſident that may be founden.

Cap. VI.

The King or his heires will take no Aides or prices but by the conſent of the Realme, and for the common profit thereof.

The King will take no aids &c. but by the common conſent of the realme, and for the profit thereof.

MOreouer we haue granted for vs and our heires, as well to Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Abbots, Priors, and other folke of holy Church, as alſo to Earles, Barons, and to all the communaltie of the land, that for no buſineſſe from henceforth we ſhall take ſuch manner of aides, taſkes, nor prices, but by the common aſſent of the Realme, and for the common profit thereof; Sauing the ancient Aydes and prices due and accuſtomed.

Cap. VII.

A Releaſe of Toll taken by the King for Wooll: And a graunt that he will not take the like without common conſent and good will.

A releaſe of toll of wooll.

AND for ſo much as the more part of the comminaltie of the Realme find themſelues ſore greeued with the maletent of wools, that is to wit, a toll of forty ſhillings for euery ſacke of Wooll: & haue made petition to vs for to releaſe the ſame: We at their requeſt haue clearly releaſed it, and haue granted for vs and our heires that we ſhall not take ſuch things without their common aſſent and good will. And let the Sheriffes beware vnder paine of great forfeiture, that from henceforth they doe make tailes of all ſuch mony as they or their officers haue receiued by our commandement. And that they doe not returne any where, the names of any mainpernors, iurors, or any other except ſuch mainpernors, iurors or others, according to the tenour of our writs being directed to the Sheriffes for the ſame cauſe, be lawfully and manifeſtly impanelled thereupon. And they ſhall not returne the names of any fréemen as pledges, without that they will plainly conſent and agrée to the ſame. And hereupon we haue enacted, that at due time certaine euery yeare, one Baron, and one Clerk of our ſaid Eſchequer ſhall be ſent through euery ſhire of England, to inroll the names of all ſuch as haue paied that yeares debts exacted on them by gréene ware. And the ſame baron and clerke ſhall view all ſuch tailes and inroll them, and ſhall heare and determine complaints made againſt Sheriffes and their Clerks and Bailiffes that haue done contrary to the premiſſes, and the offendors ſhall be grieuouſly puniſhed.

A Sheriffe ſhall execute his warrant in leuying of iſſues, and no more.

And if one of them be a clerk, then one of the moſt diſcréet Knights of the ſhire, being aſſociate to him that is a lay man, by our writ ſhall deliuer the gaoles of the Shires, as wel within liberties as without, of all manner of priſoners after the forme of the gaole deliueries of thoſe Shires, before times vſed. And the ſame Juſtices ſhall inquire then, if Sheriffes or any other haue let out by pleuin priſoners not pleuiable, or haue offended in any thing contrary to the forme of the foreſaid ſtatute lately made at Weſtminſter: and whom they ſhall find guilty they ſhall chaſten and puniſh in all things according to the forme of the ſtatute aforeſaid. It is to be knowen, that the King ordained at Weſtminſter the firſt day of Aprill, the ſeauen and twentieth yeare of his raigne, that ſuch as would purchaſe a new Parke, and men of Religion, that would amortiſe lands or tenements, ſhould haue Writs out of the Chancery to enquire vpon the points accuſtomed in all things: and that Enqueſts of lands or tenements that be worth yearely more then xx.s. that is to wit, by Extent, be returned into the Eſchequer, and there to make fine for the amortiſements, or for the Parke hauing, if the Enqueſts doe paſſe for him that purchaſed them, and after it ſhall be certified vnto the Chauncellor or his deputie, that he do his duty therein.

And touching Enqueſts impanelled for the amortizing Lands, or Tenements, which doe not amount by yeare aboue twentie ſhillings by Extent, and of twentie ſhillings in Annuall value, the King willeth, That thoſe ſhall be returned to the Chancellor, or his Deputie, that he take a reaſonable Fine therefore, according to the quantitie of the thing, and after to deliuer it.

Purchaſe of lands holden in chiefe.

In like maner they ſhall doe, that will purchaſe Lands or Tenements, holden of the King in chiefe.

Purchaſing of Protections. Making generall Atturneyes.

Alſo, people dwelling beyond the Sea, that haue Lands or Rents in England, if they will purchaſe Letters of Protection, or will make generall Attorneyes, they ſhall be ſent vnto the Exchequer, and there ſhall make their Fines, and from thence ſhall be ſent vnto the Chancellor, or his Deputie, for that which he ought to doe therein.

Purchaſing of Liberties.

The Statute of Wards and Reliefe, made An. 28. Ed. 1.

& Anno Domini 1300.

Who ſhall be in ward, and pay reliefe, and who not. How many Writs there be to recouer Wards.

IT is to wit, that where any reliefe is giuen, there Wardſhips is incident, and contrariwiſe. And ſuch as hold by Serieantie, to goe with the King in his Hoaſt, there ward and reliefe are incident. And ſuch as hold by Pettie Serieantie, as to beare Shield or Speare in the Kings Hoaſt, or to beare or to carrie there, is neither ward, nor reliefe. Alſo a free Sokeman ſhall not giue ward, nor reliefe, but he ſhall double his Rent after the death of his Aunceſtor, according as hee hath vſed to pay to his Lord, and ſhall not be vnmeaſurably grieued. Now ſomewhat is to be ſaid of the nature of hauing Wards. There be two manner of Writs to haue Wards, one is, where Lands be holden in Knights ſeruice, the other is, where Lands be holden in Socage. The Ward of Land that is holden in Knights ſeruice, belongeth to the chiefe Lord, and the Marriage, which ought to be without diſparagement, as the great Charter limiteth, vntill he commeth to the age of one and twentie yeares. The Ward of an heire that holdeth in Socage, if the Land or Inheritance deſcend of his mothers ſide, then it belongteth to the next friend of the fathers ſide, and contrariwiſe. And a Writ to recouer Ward, may be brought in three manners: One is, when a man demandeth Ward of the Land and of the Heire, and that is in caſe, when a man holdeth Land of another by Knights ſeruice, and the Tenant dieth, then may the chiefe Lord (if he be deforced) demand the Ward of his land and heire, and ſhall haue both ward and marriage. Another manner is, when a man is infeoffed of a yard of land by one man, and by another of a plough land, the ſecond Lord may not bring a writ of Ward to recouer either the land or the heire, for the ward belongeth to him, of whom he was firſt infeoffed. The third manner is, where a man hath land in his hands by reaſon of a Ward, and hath not the Heire, then he may bring a Writ to Demand the Heire, and not the land. Stat. 52. H.3.7. Stat. 13. Articuli ſuper Chartas, made at VVeſtminſter

Anno 28. Ed. 1. & Anno Domini 1300.

FOr as much as the Articles of the great Charter of Liberties, and of the Charter of the Foreſt, the which, King HENRY, father of the King that now is, granted to his people for the Weale of his Realme, haue not bin heretofore obſerued ne kept, becauſe there was no puniſhment executed vpon them which offended againſt the points of the Charters before mentioned: Our Lord the King hath againe granted, renewed, & confirmed them, and at the requeſt of his Prelates, Earles, and Barons aſſembled in his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the eight and twentieth yeare of his Raigne, hath ordained, enacted, and eſtabliſhed certaine Articles againſt all them that offend contrary to the Points of the ſaid Charters, or any part of them, or that in any wiſe tranſgreſſe them, in the forme that enſueth.

CAP. I.

A confirmation of the great Charter, and the Charter of the Foreſt.

THat is to ſay, That from henceforth the great Charter of the Liberties of England granted to all the Comminaltie of the Realme, and the Charter of the Foreſt, in like maner granted, ſhall be obſerued, kept, and maintained in euery point, in as ample wiſe as the King hath granted, renewed, and confirmed them by his Charter. And that the Charters be deliuered to euery Sherife of England, vnder the Kings Seale, to be read foure times in the yeare before the people in the full Countie, that is to wit, the next Countie day after the Feaſt of Saint Michael, and the next Countie day after Chriſtmas, and at the next Countie after Eaſter, and at the next Countie after the Feaſt of Saint Iohn. And for theſe two Charters to be firmely obſerued in euery Point and Article (where before no remedie was at the Common Law) there ſhall be choſen in euery Shire Court by the Comminaltie of the ſame Shire, three ſubſtantiall Men, Knights, or other lawfull, wiſe, and well diſpoſed perſons, which ſhall be Iuſtices ſworne and aſſigned by the Kings Letters Patents vnder the great Seale, to heare and determine (without any other Writ, but onely their Commiſſion) ſuch Plaints as ſhall be made vpon all thoſe that commit or offend againſt any Point contained in the foreſaid Charters, in the Shires where they be aſſigned, as well within Franchiſes, as without: And as well for the Kings Officers out of their places, as for other: And to heare the Plaints from day to day without any delay, and to determine them, without allowing the Delayes which be allowed by the Common Law. And the ſame Knights ſhall haue power to puniſh all ſuch as ſhall be attainted of any Treſpaſſe done, contrarie to any Point of the foreſaid Charters (where no Remedie was before by the Common Law) as before is ſaid, by Impriſonment, or by Ranſome, or by Amerciament, according to the Treſpaſſe. Neuertheleſſe, the King, nor none of thoſe that made this Ordinance, intend, that by vertue hereof, any of the foreſaid Knights ſhall hold any Plea, by the power which ſhall be giuen them in ſuch caſe, where there hath beene remedy prouided in times paſſed after the courſe of the common Law by Writ, nor alſo that any preiudice ſhould be done to the common Law, nor to the Charters aforeſaid in any point. And the King willeth that if all three be not preſent, or cannot at all times attend to doe their office in forme aforeſaid, that two of them ſhall doe it. And it is ordained that the Kings Sheriffes and Bailiffes ſhall be attendant to doe the commandements of the foreſaid Iuſtices as farre forth as appertaineth vnto their offices. And beſides theſe things granted vpon the Articles of the Charters aforeſaid, The King of his ſpeciall grace, for redreſſe of the grieuances that his people hath ſuſtained by reaſon of his warres, and for the amendment of their eſtate, and to the entent that they may be the more readie to doe him ſeruice, and the more willing to aſſiſt and aide him in time of neede, hath granted certaine Articles, the which he ſuppoſeth ſhall not onely be obſerued of his liege people, but alſo ſhall be as much profitable or more, then the Articles heretofore granted.

CAP. II.

None ſhall take Prices, but the Kings Puruayors, And their Deputies.

Secondarily, for as much as there is a great grieuance in this Realme, and damage without meaſure, for that the King and the miniſters of his houſe, as well Aliens as Denizens, doe make great prices where they paſſe through the Realme, and take the goods as well of Clerkes as of Lay people, without paying therefore any thing, or elſe much leſſe then the value.

It is ordained, That from henceforth none doe take any ſuch prices within the Realme, but onely the Kings Takers, and the Puruayors for his houſe, and that the Kings Takers and Puruaiors of his houſe ſhall take nothing, but onely for his houſe. And touching ſuch things as they ſhall take in the Countrey, of Meat and Drinke, and ſuch other meane things, neceſſarie for the houſe, they ſhall pay or make agreement with them of whom the things ſhall bee taken.

No Puruaiors ſhall take any prices but the Kings, and they onely for his houſe.

And that all the Kings Takers, Puruaiors, or Catours from henceforth ſhall haue their Warrant with them, vnder the Kings great or pettie Seale, declaring their Authoritie, and the things whereof they haue power to make Price, or Puruaiance: The which Warrant they ſhall ſhew vnto them whoſe Goods they take, before that they take any thing.

Puruaiors ſhall haue their warrant, & ſhew it
Stat.36.Ed.3.2.

And that thoſe Takers, Puruaiors, or Catours for the King, ſhall take no more then is needfull and meet to be vſed for the King, his houſhold, and his children.

Puruaiors ſhall take no more then is needfull.

And that they ſhall not take any thing for them that bee in Wages, nor for any other.

And that they ſhall make full anſwer in the Kings houſe, and in the Wardrobe, for all things taken by them, without making their Larges any other where, or Liueries of ſuch things as they haue taken for the King.

And if any Taker for the Kings houſe, by reaſon of his Warrant, make any price or Liuerie, otherwiſe then before is mentioned, vpon complaint made to the Steward and to the Treaſurer of the Kings houſe, the truth ſhall be enquired. And if he be attainted thereof, he ſhall forthwith make agreement with the partie, and ſhall be put out of the Kings ſeruice for euer, and ſhall remaine in priſon at the Kings pleaſure.

And if any make price without Warrant, and carrie it away againſt the will of the Owner, he ſhall immediately be arreſted by the Towne where the price was made, and ſhall be committed to the next Gaole, and if he be attainted thereupon, it ſhall be done to him as vnto a Felon, if the quantitie of the goods doe ſo require.

Taking without warrant, Felonie.

And concerning Prices made in Fayres, and good Townes, and in Ports, for the Kings great Wardrobe, the Takers ſhall haue their common Warrant vnder the great Seale.

Puruaiances made for the Kings Wardrobe.

And for the things that they ſhall take, it ſhall bee teſtified vnder the Seale of the Keeper of the Wardrobe, and of thoſe things that they haue taken, the number of the things, the quantitie, and the value, ſhall be ſpecified in a Diuidend, made betweene the Takers and the Keepers of Faires, Maiors or chiefe Bailifes of Townes and Ports, by the view of Merchants, whoſe Goods ſhall be ſo taken, and they ſhall not be ſuffered to take any more then is contained in their Diuidend, And the ſaid Diuidend ſhall be carried into the Wardrobe, vnder the Seale of the Warden, Maior, or chiefe Bailife aforeſaid, and there ſhall remaine, vntill the Accompt of the Keeper of the Kings Wardrobe. And if it be found, that any hath taken otherwiſe then hee ought to doe, vpon his Accompt he ſhall be puniſhed by the Keepers of the Kings Wardrobe after his deſert: and if any make ſuch Prices without Warrant, and be attainted thereupon, he ſhall incurre the ſame paine, as they which take Prices for the Kings houſe without Warrant, as before is ſaid.

Neuertheleſſe, the King and his Councell doe not intend, by reaſon of this Eſtatute, to diminiſh the Kings Right, for the ancient Prices due and accuſtomed, as of Wines, and other Goods, But that his Right ſhall be ſaued vnto him whole, in all points.

The Kings prerogatiue reſerued.

CОncerning the authoritie of Stewards and Marſhalls, and of ſuch pleas as they may hold, and in what maner, It is ordained, that from henceforth they ſhall not hold plea of fréehold, neither of debt, nor of couenant, nor of any contract made betwéene the Kings people, but only of treſpaſſe done within the houſe, and of other treſpaſſes done within the Verge, and of contracts and couenants that one of the houſe ſhall haue made with another of the ſame houſe, & in the ſame houſe, and none other where. And they ſhall plead no plea of treſpaſſe, other then that which ſhall be attached by them before the King depart from the Verge where the treſpaſſe ſhall be committed: and ſhall plead them ſpéedily from day to day, ſo that they may be pleaded and determined before that the King depart out of the limits of the ſame Verge where the treſpaſſe was done. And if it ſo be that they cannot be determined within the limits of the ſame Verge, then ſhall the ſame pleas ceaſe before the Steward, and the plaintiffes ſhall haue recourſe to the common law. And from henceforth the Steward ſhall not take conyſance of debts nor of other things, but of people of the ſame houſe, nor ſhall hold none other plea by Obligation made at the diſtreſſe of the Steward and of the Marſhals. And if the Steward or Marſhals doe any thing contrarie to this ordinance, it ſhall be holden as void. And for as much as heretofore many felonies committed within the Verge haue béene vnpuniſhed, because the Coroners of the Country haue not béene authoriſed to enquire of ſuch manner of felonies done within the Verge, but the Coroner of the Kings houſe, which neuer continueth in one place, by reaſon whereof, there can be no triall made in due manner, nor the felonies put in Exigent, nor outlawed, nor any thing preſented in the circuit, the which hath béene to the great damage of the King, and nothing to the good preſeruation of his Peace. It is ordained that from henceforth in caſes of the death of men, whereof the Coroners office is to make view and enqueſt, it ſhall be commanded to the Coroner of the Countrey, that he with the Coroner of the Kings houſe ſhall doe as belongeth to his office, and enroll it. And that thing that cannot be determined before the Steward, where the felons cannot bée attached, or for other like cauſe, ſhall be remitted to the Common law. So that Exigends, outlawries, and preſentments ſhall be made thereupon in Eyre by the Coroner of the Countrey, as well as of other felonies done out of the Verge: neuertheleſſe they ſhall not omit by reaſon hereof to make attachments freſhly vpon the felonies done. AT the Parliament of our Lord the King, at Lincolne in the vtas of S. A new Statute of Quo warranto made at Glouceſter.

Anno 30.Ed.1.& Anno Domini 1301.

Claiming and vſing of Liberties, and cauſes to ſeiſe them into the Kings hands. Complaint of Officers.

The yeare of our Lord M.CC.LXX.VIII. the ſixth yeare of the raign of King Edward at Glouceſter, in the month of Auguſt, the King himſelfe prouiding for the wealth of his Realme, and the more full miniſtration of Iuſtice, as to the office of a King belongeth (the more diſcreet men of the Realme, as well of high as of low degree, being called thither) It is prouided and ordained, That whereas the Realme of England in diuers caſes, as well vpon liberties as otherwiſe, wherein the Law failed, to auoid the grieuous damages and innumerable diſheriſons that the default of Law did bring in, had need of diuers helpes of new Lawes and certaine new Prouiſions, Theſe Prouiſions, Statutes and Ordinances vnder written, ſhall from henceforth be ſtraightly and inuiolably obſerued of all the Inhabitants of his Realme: And whereas Prelates, Earles, Barons, and other of our Realme that claime to haue diuers liberties, which to examine and iudge, the King had prefixed a day to ſuch Prelates, Earles, Barons, and other: It is prouided and likewiſe agreed, that the ſaid Prelates, Earles, Barons, and other, ſhall vſe ſuch maner of liberties, after the forme of the Writ here following.

A writ to the Sheriffe to permit all men to enioy thoſe liberties which they had before.

This clauſe of liberties that beginneth in this wiſe, Præcipimus tibi quod publice proclamari facias &c. is put in the Writ of Common ſummõs of the Iuſtices in Eyre, and ſhall haue a premonition by the ſpace of forty daies, as the commõ ſummons hath, So that if any party, that claimeth to haue a liberty, be before the King, it ſhall not be in default before any Iuſtices in their Circuits: for the King of his ſpeciall grace hath granted, that he will ſaue that party harmeleſſe, as concerning that ordinance. And if the ſame partie be impleaded vpon ſuch maner of liberties before one or two of the foreſaid Iuſtices, the ſame Iuſtices before whom the partie is impleaded, ſhall ſaue him harmeleſſe before the other Iuſtices, And ſo ſhall the King alſo before him when it ſhall appear by the Iuſtices that ſo it was in plea before them as is aforeſaid. And if the foreſaid party be afore the King, ſo that he cãnot be the ſame day afore the ſaid Iuſtices in their Circuits, the King ſhal ſaue that party harmleſſe before the foreſaid Iuſtices in their Circuits for the day, whereas he was before the King. And if he doe not come in at the ſame day, then thoſe liberties ſhall be taken into the Kings hands in name of diſtreſſe, by the Sheriffe of the place, ſo that they ſhall not vſe them vntill they come to anſwere before the Iuſtices. And when they doe come in by diſtreſſe, their liberties ſhall be repleuiſhed (if they demaund them) in the which repleuins they ſhall anſwere immediatly after the forme of the Writ aforeſaid: And if percaſe they will challenge and ſay that they are not bounden to anſwere thereunto without an originall Writ, then if it may appeare by any meane, that they haue vſurped or occupyed any liberties vpon the King or his Predeceſſors, of their owne head or preſumption, they ſhall be commanded to anſwer incontinent without Writ. And moreouer they ſhall haue ſuch iudgement as the Court of our Lord the King will award. And if they will ſay further, that their anceſtors dyed ſeiſed thereof, they ſhall be heard: And the truth ſhall be inquired incontinent, and according to that, Iudgement ſhall be giuen. OF Inqueſts to be taken before any of the Iuſtices, and wherein our Lord the King is party howſoeuer it be: It is agreed and ordained by the King and all his Counſell, That from henceforth, notwithſtanding it be alleadged by them that ſue for the King, that the Iurors of thoſe Inqueſts, or ſome of them be not indifferent for the King, yet ſuch Inqueſts ſhall not remaine vntaken for that cauſe, but if they that ſue for the King, will challenge any of thoſe Iurors they ſhall aſſigne of their challenge a cauſe certaine, and the truth of the ſame challenge ſhall be inquired of according to the cuſtome of the Court, and let it be recouered to the takers of the ſame Inquiſitions, as it ſhall be found if the challenges be true or not after the diſcretion of the Iuſtices.

This Ordinance precedent, and the Ordinance following of the Foreſt, were made in the Parliament at Weſtminſter, the Sunday next before the Feaſt of S. Mathew the Apoſtle, the three and thirtieth yeare of the raigne of King Edward ſonne of King Henry.

Ordinatio Foreſtæ, made 33. Edw. 1.
& Anno Domini 1305.

They whoſe Woods are diſaforeſted ſhall not haue common or other eaſement in the Foreſt.

WHereas certaine people that be put out of the Foreſt for the purliew, and by the great men haue made requeſt to our Lord the King at this Parliament that they might be acquitted of their charge, and of things that the Foreſters demand of them, as they were wont to be: Our Lord the King anſwered, Firſt that where he had granted purliew, that he was pleaſed that it ſhould ſtand, in like maner as it was granted, albeit that the thing was ſued and demanded in an euill point. Neuertheleſſe he willeth and intendeth, that all his demean Lands whereſoeuer they be, that haue been of the Crowne, being returned by way of eſcheate or otherwiſe, ſhal haue Eſtate of Free chaſe and Free warren, and in ſuch maner ſhal be ſaued and kept to his vſe for all maner of eſcheates, and for al maner of things that pleaſeth him. And in right of them that haue lands and tenements diſafforeſted for the ſaid purliew, and ſuch as demand to haue cõmon within the bounds of Foreſts, The intent and will of our Lord the King is, that from henceforth (where purliew is) they may claime to be quit of charge of the Foreſts. And whereas the Kings beaſts cannot haue their haunt and repaire vpon the Foreſt ground as they had ſo long as they were within the Foreſts, that ſuch folke ſhall not haue common, nor other eaſement within the bounds of the woods, nor of the lands, the which remaine in Foreſt: but if any of them that be diſafforeſted by the purliew, would rather be within the Foreſt as they were before, then to be out of the Foreſt, as they be now. It pleaſeth the King very well, that they ſhall be receiued thereunto, ſo that they may remaine in their ancient eſtate, and ſhall haue common and other eaſement as well as they had before. Whereupon our Lord the King willeth and commandeth, that his Iuſtices of the Foreſt on this ſide Trent and beyond Trent, in like manner ſhall keepe and hold, and cauſe to be kept and holden ſtraitly the foreſaid points within their Liberties in the forme aboue mentioned.

They whoſe Woods are diſforeſted ſhal not haue common within the Foreſt.

They which will returne their woods into the Foreſt, ſhall haue common as they had before.

Anno 34. Ed. 1. & Ann. Dom. 1306.

Iointenancie pleaded in abatement of a Writ, &c.

Stat. 13. Ed. 1. 25.

THe King vnto all, to whom theſe &c. Greeting. It is no new thing that among diuers eſtabliſhments of Lawes, which we haue ordained in our owne time vpon the great and heinous miſchiefes, that happen in Writs of Nouel diſſeiſin, chiefely aboue other, we haue deuiſed more ſpeedy remedy, in thoſe Writs, then was before. And foraſmuch as it chanceth many times in aſſiſes of Nouel diſſeiſin, that the Tenant doth except againſt the Plaintiffe, that he holdeth the Tenements in demaund iointly with his wife, not named in the Writ, and ſometime with a Stranger not named in the Writ, and ſheweth forth a Deed teſtifying the ſame, and demandeth Iudgement of the Writ. It is agreed and ordained, that if the Plaintiffe will offer to auerre by Aſſiſe, that the day of his Writ purchaſed he that alledged the exception was ſole Tenant, ſo that neither his wife, nor any other had any thing in the ſaid Lands, then the Iuſtices, before whom the Aſſiſe is arraigned, ſhall retaine the ſame Deed ſafely in their keeping, (vntill the Aſſiſe be tried betweene them thereupon) as that which is in a ſort denied. And they ſhall let the partie abſent to vnderſtand by their Writ vnder their teſtimony, and alſo to the Iointenant that is preſent, of whom the Deed maketh mention, that he be preſent at a certaine day with the other Tenant, to anſwere vnto the partie Plaintiffe as well vpon the exception alledged, as of the Lands demanded and put in view, if it ſeeme expedient for him, at which day if both that are named Tenants doe come in, and doe iuſtifie the ſame feoffement, they ſhall anſwere and maintaine the exception alledged by one of them, and further ſhall anſwere vnto the aſſiſe as though the originall Writ had been purchaſed againſt both of them iointly. And if it be proued by aſſiſe, that the exception was alledged maliciouſly to delay the plaintiffe of his right, ſo that they held not the ſame land iointly the day of the Writ purchaſed, then albeit the ſame aſſiſe doe paſſe for the Tenants, and againſt the plaintiffe, yet they that alledge the exception ſhal be puniſhed by one yeares impriſonment, whence they ſhall not be deliuered without a grieuous fine. And let the Iuſtices be well aduiſed, that from henceforth they doe not allow an exception alledged by the Bailiffes of any ſuch Tenants: And if he that alledgeth the exception abſent himſelfe at his day, and the other that is named Iointenant doe appeare, although he that doth appeare doth diſauow the ſame Deed, and ſay that he hath nothing in the foreſaid tenements, neuertheleſſe the aſſiſe ſhall paſſe againſt the tenant that is abſẽt by his default. And if it be foũd by aſſiſe, that they were not iointly enfeoffed the day of the Writ purchaſed, and likewiſe that the tenant againſt whom the Writ was purchaſed, or another named in the Writ did diſſeiſe the plaintiffe, then hauing regard to the exception that was falſly and maliciouſly alledged to the hurt of the party, and to the diſſeiſin that they made: the party plaintiffe ſhall recouer his ſeiſin and double damages, and they that alledge the falſe exception ſhall haue the puniſhment aforeſaid. But if neither of the tenants doe come at the day, then vpon their default the Aſſiſe ſhall paſſe againſt them. And if it be found thereby that the ſame exception was lawfully and truly alledged, and that they which alledged it were iointly ſeiſed before the plaintiffe purchaſed his Writ againſt them, the aſſiſe ſhall paſſe no further, but the writ ſhall be abated. The ſame ſhall be obſerued, if both or one only doe appeare, if it be found by aſſiſe, that the exception aforeſaid was truly alledged, as before is ſaid. In the ſame order it is eſtabliſhed and agreed that in aſſiſes of Mortdanceſtor, and Iuris vtrum, at the firſt day that the parties appeare in court, if the Tenant alledge the foreſaid exception againſt the demandant, ſhewing a deed thereupon, and the demandant will offer to auerre by the Aſſiſe or Iury, that at the day of his writ purchaſed, he that alledged the exception was ſole tenant, from thence the ſame proceſſe and manner of proceeding ſhall be vſed in Aſſiſes of Mortdanceſtor, and writs of Iuris vtrum, as before is ordained in aſſiſes of nouel diſſeiſin, and like puniſhment ſhall be inflicted vpon the offendors, and thoſe that be conuict. In other writs whereby tenements are demanded ſuch proceſſe ſhall be made, that if at the firſt day, that the parties appeare in court, the tenant doth alledge the foreſaid exception of a ioint feoffement, and the demandant will offer to auerre by the Countrey that the day of the writ purchaſed, he that alledged the exception was ſole tenant, then the ſame proceſſe and manner of proceeding, ſhall be obſerued betwixt the parties vntill a Iury haue paſſed between them thereupon. And if it be found by the Iury, that the ſame exception was truly alledged, then the writ of the demandant ſhall abate: And if it be founden by the Iury, that the ſame exception was falſly alledged, and to the hinderance of the party, then the demandant ſhall recouer his ſeiſin of the tenements in demand, and the tenant ſhall be puniſhed by the paine aboue limited in Aſſiſes of Nouel diſſeiſin, as to the impriſonment, and as to the damages according to the diſcretion of the Iuſtices. And we will and grant, that this ſtatute ſhall take his effect the morrow after the feaſt of S. Peter ad vincula, next comming. Foraſmuch alſo as pleas in Court ſpirituall heretofore had many times vnmeet delaies, for that our writ that is called Indicauit, was many times brought before the Iudges of ſuch matters when they were begun: and thereupon our chiefe Iuſtices could not proceed lawfully, nor in due maner to award a writ of Conſultation vpon ſuch manner of proceſſe: It is agreed that ſuch a writ of Indicauit, ſhall not be granted from henceforth to any before the matter hanging in the Spirituall Court betweene the parties be recorded, and that our Chancellor ſhall be certified thereof by the ſight and inſpection of the lybell. In witneſſe of which thing we haue cauſed theſe our Letters to be Patent. How offences done in the Foreſt ſhall be preſented.

Preſentment of offences done in the Foreſts.

V.N.B. fo. 41.

FIrſt, we haue ordained for our ſelues and our heirs, that all treſpaſſes hereafter to be done in our Foreſts of Greene Hugh, and of Hunting: the foreſters within whoſe Bailiwicks ſuch treſpaſſes ſhall happen to be committed, ſhall preſent the ſame at the next Swanimote, before the Foſters, Verdors, Regardors, Agiſtors, and other miniſters of the ſame foreſt: and vpon ſuch preſentations there before the Foſters, Verdors, and all other miniſters aforeſaid: by the oath aſwell of Knights as of other lawfull and honeſt men of the neereſt parts where the treſpaſſe ſo preſented ſhall be done not ſuſpected, the truth of the matter ſhall be lawfully inquired of, and the truth ſo enquired of, the ſame preſentations by the common accord and aſſent of all the miniſters aforeſaid, ſhall be ſolemnely confirmed and ſealed with their Seales. And if an Inditement be in any other manner, it ſhall be adiudged void.

Cap. II.

An Officer dying or being abſent another ſhall be put in his place.

An officer dying or being abſent.

AND if it happen any of the ſaid Foreſters, Regarders, or other miniſters of the ſame Foreſts to die, or by ſickneſſe or other meanes to be hindered, whereby he cannot be preſent at the ſame Swanimote, preſently the Iuſtice of the ſame foreſt, or his Lieutenant ſhall put another in his place : ſo that the Inditement may be made by all in forme aforeſaid. And that the Officers which are to be placed, ſhall be put in as heretofore it hath béene vſed to be : Except the verderors who ſhall be ordained by election and by our writ.

Cap. III.

No Foreſter ſhall be put in any Aſſiſes or Iuries.

No Foreſter ſhall be put in a Iury.

AND we will that none of the foreſaid miniſters ſhall hereafter be put in any Aſſiſes, Iuries, or Enqueſts to be taken without the foreſt. Regiſt.fo.183. Fitz.N.B.fo.

Cap. IIII.

The puniſhment of Officers ſurcharging the Foreſt.

Surcharge of the Foreſt by officers.

AND if there be any ſurcharge found of the foreſters, or by ſuch other as take vpon them to be Officers of the Foreſt, ſuch ſurchargers ſhall be remoued and impriſoned according to the diſcretion of the Iuſtice of the Foreſt, or his Lieutenant : And they by whom they were placed ſhall be alſo puniſhed at our pleaſure. And at euery Swanimote inquiſition ſhall be made of ſurchargers, of Foreſters, and other miniſters of the Foreſt, and of their oppreſſions done to our people, and reformation and puniſhment ſhall be done, as it is ordained before.

Cap. V.

Cap. I.

The cauſes of Erection of Abbies. Impoſitions ſet be Priors Aliens.

OF late it came to the knowledge of our Lord the King, by the grieuous complaint of the honourable perſons, Lords, and other noble men of his Realme, That whereas Monaſteries, Priories, and other Religious houſes were founded to the honour and glory of God, and the aduancement of the holy Church, by the King and his progenitors, and by the ſaid Noble men, and their Anceſtors, and a very great portion of Lands and tenements haue béene giuen by them to the ſaid Monaſteries, Priories and houſes, and the religious men ſeruing God in them, To the intent that Clerkes and Lay men might be admitted in ſuch Monaſteries, Priories and religious houſes, according to their ſufficient abilitie, and that ſicke and feeble men might be maintained, hoſpitalitie, almes giuing, and other charitable deeds might be done, and that in them prayers might be ſaid for the ſoules of the ſaid Founders and their heires: The Abbots, Priors, and Gouernors of the ſaid houſes, and certaine Aliens their ſuperiours, As the Abbots, and Priors of Ciſtercienſes, and Promonſtratenſes, and of the orders of S. Auguſtine, and S. Benet, and many more of another Religion and order, haue at their owne pleaſures, ſet diuers vnwonted, heauy, and importable tallages, payments, and impoſitions vpon euery of the ſaid Monaſteries, and houſes in ſubiection vnto them in England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales, without the priuitie of our Lord the King and his Nobilitie, contrary to the Lawes and Cuſtomes of the ſaid Realme. And thereby the number of Religious perſons, and other ſeruants in the ſaid houſes and religious places being oppreſſed by ſuch Tallages, paiments, and impoſitions, The ſeruice of God is diminiſhed, Almes be not giuen to the poore, the ſicke and feeble, the healths of the liuing, and the ſoules of the dead be miſerably defrauded, Hoſpitalitie, almes giuing, and other godly deeds doe ceaſe. And ſo that which in times paſt was charitably giuen to godly vſes, and to the increaſe of the ſeruice of God, is now conuerted to an euill end. By permiſſion whereof there groweth great ſcandall to the people, and infinite loſſes and diſheritances are like to enſue to the Founders of the ſaid houſes, and their heires, vnleſſe ſpeedy and ſufficent remedy bee prouided to redreſſe ſo many and grieuous detriments.

The cauſe of foundation of religious houſes.

Coke li 11.fo.73.

Impoſitions ſet by certaine religious houſes vpon their inferiours.

Wherefore our foreſaid Lord the King, conſidering that it would be very preiudiciall to him and his people, if he ſhould any longer ſuffer ſo great loſſes and iniuries to be winked at, and therefore being willing to maintaine and defend the Monaſteries, Priories, and other Religious houſes erected in his Kingdome, and in all lands ſubiect to his Dominion, and from henceforth to prouide ſufficient remedy to reforme ſuch oppreſſions as he is bound: By the Counſell of his Earles, Barons, great men, and other Nobles of his kingdome in his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the three and thirtieth yeare of his Reigne hath ordained and enacted.

CAP. II.

Religious perſons ſhall ſend nothing to their Superiours beyond the ſea.

That no Abbot, Prior, Warden, or any other Religious perſon, of whatſoeuer condition, ſtate or Religion he be, being vnder the power or iuriſdiction of others, ſhall by himſelfe, or by Merchants, or others, ſecretly or openly, by any deuiſe or meanes, carry or ſend, or by any meanes cauſe to be ſent any taxe impoſed by the Abbots, Priors, Maſters, or Wardens of religious houſes their Superiours, or aſſeſſed amongſt themſelues, out of his Kingdome and his dominion, vnder the name of a Rent, Tallage, or any kinde of impoſition, or otherwiſe by the way of exchange, mutuall ſale, or other contract howſoeuer it may bee tearmed. Neither ſhall depart into any other Countrey for viſitation or vpon any other colour, by that meanes to carry the goods of their Monaſteries and houſes out of the Kingdome and dominion aforeſaid. And if any will preſume to offend this preſent Statute, he ſhall be grieuouſly puniſhed according to the quality of his offence, and according to his contempt of the Kings prohibition.

Religious perſons ſhall ſend nothing to their ſuperiors beyond ſea.

CAP. III.

No impoſitions ſhall be taxed by Priors Aliens.

Moreouer, our foreſaid Lord the King doth inhibite all and ſingular Abbots, Priors, Maſters and Gouernours of religious houſes and places being Aliens, to whoſe authoritie, ſubiection, and obedience, the houſes of the ſame orders in his Kingdome and Dominion be ſubiect, that they doe not at any time hereafter impoſe, or by any meanes aſſeſſe any Tallages, payments, charges, or other burdens whatſoeuer, vpon the Monaſteries, Priories, or other religious houſes in ſubiection vnto them (as is aforeſaid) and that vpon paine of all that they haue, or may forfeit.

And further, our Lord the King hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, That the Abbots of the Orders of Ciſtercienſes, and Promonſtratenſes, and other religious Orders, whoſe Seale hath heretofore beene vſed to remaine onely in the cuſtody of the Abbot, and not of the Couent, ſhall hereafter haue a common Seale, and that ſhall remaine in the cuſtody of the Prior of the Monaſtery or houſe, and foure of the moſt worthy and diſcreet men of the Couent of the

And if it fortune hereafter, that Writings of Obligations, Donations, Purchaſes, Sales, Alienations, or of any other Contracts to be ſealed with any other Seale then ſuch a common Seale kept as is aforeſaid, they ſhall be adiudged voyd, and of no force in Law. But it is not the meaning of our Lord the King to exclude the Abbots, Priors, and the other Religious Aliens by the Ordinances and Statutes aforeſaid from executing their Office of Viſitation in his Kingdome and Dominion. But they may viſit at their pleaſures, by themſelues or others, the Monaſteries and other places in his Kingdom and Dominion in ſubiection vnto them, according to the dutie of their Office, in thoſe things onely that belong to regular obſeruation, and the diſcipline of their Order.

Abbots aliens may viſit their inferiours in England.

Prouided, that they which ſhall execute this Office of Viſitation, ſhall carrie, or cauſe to bée carried out of his kingdome and dominion, none of the goods or things of ſuch Monaſteries, Priories and houſes, ſauing onely their reaſonable and competent charges.

Our Lord the King, after full conference and debate had with his Earles, Barons, Nobles, and other great men of his kingdome touching the premiſſes, by their whole conſent and agreement hath ordained, and enacted that the Ordinances and Statutes aforeſaid, vnder the manner, forme, and conditions aforeſaid, from the firſt day of May next enſuing, ſhall be inuiolably obſerued for euer, and the offendors of them ſhall be puniſhed as is aforeſaid. BEcauſe wée doe vnderſtand, that controuerſies doe oft times grow betwéene Parſons of Churches and their Pariſhioners, touching Trées growing in the Churchyard, both of them pretending that they doe belong vnto themſelues: Wée haue thought it good rather to decide this Controuerſie by writing then by Statute, For as much as a Churchyard that is dedicated, is the ſoile of a Church, and whatſoeuer is planted, belongeth to the ſoile, it muſt néedes follow, that thoſe Trées which be growing in the Churchyard, are to bée reckoned amongſt the goods of the Church, the which Lay men haue no authoritie to diſpoſe: But as the holy Scripture doth teſtifie the charge of them is committed onely to Prieſts to be diſpoſed of.

A Statute for Knights, made Anno 1. Regis Edw.2. and Anno Dom: 1307.

Cauſes to excuſe a man from vndertaking of Knighthood.

7.H.6.fo.15. Fitz.Auerment.37

OUR Lord the King hath granted, That all ſuch as ought to be Knights, and be not, & haue béen diſtrained to take vpon them the Order of a Knight within the Feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord, ſhall haue reſpite to take the foreſaid Armes of a Knight, vntill the vtas of Saint Hillarie, without occaſion, and after that, they ſhall be diſtrained, except they make ſome other meane. Alſo he hath graunted that if any will complaine in the Chancerie, becauſe he was diſtrained, &c. and hath not twentie pound yearely in Fée, or for terme of life, & will proue that by the Countrey, then it ſhall be written vnto the more diſcréet and ſage Knights of the Shire to take the ſaid Inquiſition, and if it be tried ſo by the ſame Inqueſt, he ſhall haue remedie, and the diſtreſſe ſhall ceaſe.

Cauſes to excuſe a man for vndertaking of Knighthood.

Alſo if any be impleaded for all his land, or for part of the ſame, ſo that the reſidue be not ſufficient to the value of twentie pound, and can proue the ſame, then the diſtreſſe ſhall ceaſe, vntill the ſame plea be determined. Alſo if any of thē be bounden in certaine debts ſtalled in the Eſchequer at a certaine ſumme to be receiued yearely, out of his lands, ſo that the reſidue of his lands doth not amount to the yearely value of twentie pounds beſides the ſame ſumme, the diſtreſſe ſhall ceaſe, vntill the foreſaid debt be clearely payed. And none ſhall be diſtrained to take vpon him the Order of a Knight before that he come vnto the age of one and twentie yeares.

None ſhalbe forced to be Knight before he be xxi. yeares of age.

Alſo none by reaſon of any land that he holdeth in Mannors, which be in auncient Demeane of the Crowne as a Sokeman, and which lands muſt alſo giue tallage when the Kings Demeanes are taſked, ſhall be diſtrained to take vpon him the Order of a Knight. Alſo of them that hold their lands in Socage, of other Mannors then of the Mannors of the Crowne, doing no forrain Seruice, the Rolles of the Chancery ſhall be ſearched for the times of the Kings Predeceſſors, and it ſhall be done as it hath béene vſed to be done.

A Sokeman.

In like maner ſhall be done of Clerkes being within holy Orders, holding Lay fée, which ſhould be Knights if they were lay. Alſo none ſhall be diſtrained for his Burgage lands, although they doe amount to the value of twentie pound yearely or more.

THe King to all to whom &c. ſendeth greeting. Vnderſtād ye, that wheras of late in times of our progenitors ſometimes Kings of Englād, in diuers their Parliaments, & likewiſe after that we had vndertakē the gouernance of the realm, in our Parliaments many articles containing diuers grieuances (cōmitted againſt the Church of England, the Prelats & Clergy) were propoūded by the prelats & Clerks of our realm, & further great inſtance was made that couenīēt remedy might be prouided therin. And of late in our Parliamēt holden at Lincoln the ninth yeare of our raign, we cauſed the articles vnderwrittē with certain anſwers made to ſome of them heretofore to be rehearſed before our Counſell, & made certaine anſwers to be corrected, & to the reſidue of the articles vnder writtē anſwers were made by us & our Counſell, of which ſaid articles with the anſwers of the ſame, the tenors here enſue.

Cap. I.

No prohibition ſhalbe granted where tithes be demanded, but where money for them.

No prohibition ſhalbe granted, but where mony for them.

FIrſt, whereas lay men do purchaſe prohibitions generally, vpō tithes, obuentions, oblations, mortuaries, redemption of penance, violent laying hands on Clerks or conuerts, and in caſes of defamation, in which caſes, ſpirituall penance ought to be enioyned. The King doth anſwere to this article, that in tithes, oblations, obuentions, mortuaries, (when they are propounded vnder theſe names) the Kings prohibition ſhall hold no place, although for the long withholding of the ſame, the money may be eſtéemed at a ſumme certaine. But if a Clerke or a religious man doe ſell his tithes being gathered in his barne, or other where, to any man for money, if the money be demaunded before a ſpirituall Judge, the Kings prohibition ſhall lie, for by the ſale the ſpirituall goods are made temporall, and the tithes turned into cattels. ALſo Barons of the Kings Eſchequer claiming by their priuiledge, that they ought to make anſwere to no complainant out of the ſame place, extend the ſame priuiledge vnto Clerkes abiding there, called to Orders, or vnto reſidence, and inhibit Ordinaries that by no meanes, or for any cauſe (ſo long as they be in the Eſchequer, or in the Kings ſeruice) they ſhall not call thē to iudgement. The anſwere. It pleaſeth our Lord the King, that ſuch Clerkes as attend in his ſeruice, if they offend, ſhall be correct by their Ordinaries, like as other, but ſo long as they are occupied about the Eſchequer, they ſhall not be bounden to keep reſidence in their Churches. This is added of new by the Kings Councell. The King and his anceſtors ſince time out of mind haue vſed that Clerkes which are imployed in his ſeruice, during ſuch time as they are in ſeruice ſhall not be compelled to keepe reſidence at their benefices. And ſuch things as be thought neceſſary for the King and the Common Wealth, ought not to be preiudiciall to the liberty of the Church.

ALſo the Kings Officers as Sheriffes and others doe enter into ſpirituall Fees to take diſtreſſes, and ſometime they take the perſons beaſts in the Kings high way, where they haue nothing but their Glebe land. The anſwere. The Kings pleaſure is, that from henceforth ſuch diſtreſſes ſhall neither be taken in the Kings high way, nor in the fees wherewith Churches in times paſt haue beene indowed, neuertheles he willeth diſtreſſes to be taken in poſſeſſions of the Church newly purchaſed by Eccleſiaſticall perſons. They that abiure the realme, ſhalbe in peace, ſo long as they be in the Church or high way.

ALſo where ſome that flee vnto the Church to abiure the realme according to the cuſtome of the land, and lay men or their enemies do purſue them, and pluck them from the Kings high way, and they are hanged or headed, and whileſt they be in the Church, are kept in the Churchyard with armed men, and ſometime in the Church ſo ſtraitly, that they cannot depart from the hallowed ground to emptie their belly, and cannot be ſuffered to haue neceſſaries brought vnto them for their liuing. The anſwere. They that abiure the Realme, ſo long as they be in the common way ſhall be in the Kings peace, nor ought to be diſturbed of any man, and when they be in the Church, their keepers ought not to abide in the Churchyard, except neceſſity or perill of eſcape doe require ſo. And ſo long as they be in the Church, they ſhall not be compelled to flee away, but they ſhall haue neceſſaries for their liuing, and may goe forth to emptie their belly. Religious houſes ſhall not be charged by compulſion, with corrodies, penſions, reſort, or taking of their horſes or carts.

ALſo it is deſired, That our Lord the King, and the great men of the Realme doe not charge Religious houſes and ſpirituall perſons for Corrodies, Penſions, or ſoiourning in religious houſes, and other places of the Church, or with taking vp horſe or carts, whereby ſuch houſes are impoueriſhed, and Gods ſeruice diminiſhed, and by reaſon of ſuch charges, Prieſts and other Miniſters of the Church deputed vnto diuine Seruice, are oftentimes compelled to depart from the places aforeſaid. The anſwere. The Kings pleaſure is, that vpon the contents in their petition from henceforth they ſhall not be vnduely charged. And if the contrary be done by great men or other, they ſhall haue remedy after the forme of the Statutes made in the time of Edward father to the King that now is. And like remedy ſhall be done for corrodies and penſions exacted by compulſion, whereof no mention is made in the ſaid Statutes, Raſt.pla.373.

And ſo the Kings Writ that went out for to take them is denied. The anſwere. It was neuer yet denied, nor ſhall be hereafter.

A Clerke excommunicate may be taken out of the pariſh where he dwelleth.

CAP. XIII.

The examination of a Parſon preſented to a Benefice, belongeth to a ſpirituall Iudge.

ALſo it is deſired, that ſpirituall perſons, whom our Lord the King doth preſent vnto Benefices of the Church (if the Biſhop will not admit them either for lack of learning, or for other cauſe reaſonable) may not incurre the examination of lay perſons in the caſes aforeſaid as it is now attempted contrary to the Decrées canonicall, but that they may ſue vnto a Spirituall Iudge for remedy as right ſhall require. The anſwere. A Clerke fléeing to the Church for felony to obtaine the priuiledge of the Church, if he affirme himſelfe to be a Clerke, he ſhall not be compelled to abiure the Realme, but yéelding himſelfe to the Law of the Realme, ſhall inioy the priuiledge of the Church according to the laudable cuſtome of the Realme heretofore vſed. CAP. XVI.

The priuiledge of the Church being demaunded by the Ordinarie, ſhall not be denied to a Clerke that hath confeſſed Felonie.

ALſo notwithſtanding that a confeſſion made before him that is not Lawfull Iudge thereof, is not ſufficient whereon Proceſſe may bée awarded or ſentence giuen, yet ſome Temporall Iudges (though they haue béene inſtantly deſired thereto) doe not deliuer to their Ordinaries according to the premiſſes ſuch Clerks as confeſſe before them their heinous offences, as theft, robbery & murder, but admit their accuſation which commonly they call an appeale, albeit to this reſpect they be not of their court, nor can be iudged or condemned before them vpon their owne confeſſion, without breaking of the Churches priuiledge. The anſwere. The priuiledge of the Church being demaunded in due forme by the Ordinary, ſhall not be denied vnto the appealour as to a clerke: We deſiring to prouide for the ſtate of holy Church of England, and for the tranquilitie and quiet of the Prelates and Clergie aforeſaid, as far forth as we may lawfully doe to the honour of God and emendation of the Church prelates, and clergy of the ſame: Ratifying, confirming, and approuing all and euery of the articles aforeſaid with all and euery of the anſwers made and contained in the ſame, doe grant and command them to be kept firmly, and obſerued for euer, willing and granting for vs and our heires, that the foreſaid Prelates and Clergie and their ſucceſſors ſhall vſe, execute, and practiſe for euer the iuriſdiction of the Church in the premiſſes, after the tenour of the anſwers aforeſaid, without quarrell, inquieting, or vexation of our heires, or any of our officers whatſoeuer they be. And that no Sheriffe nor hundreder ſhal leaſe his office to any other in ferm, or otherwiſe. And that the execution of Writs that come to the Sheriffes, ſhall be done by the hundreders ſworne and knowne in the full County, and not by other, if it be not the open default or notorious diſturbance of the hundreders: and then execution ſhall be done by other perſons meet and ſworne, ſo that the people may know to whom to ſue ſuch executiōs: ſauing alwaies the returnes of writs to thē that haue them, or ought to haue them.

If they will not knowledge the ſeruices vnto their Lords as before is ſaid, and likewiſe the arrerages, then the arrerages by iudgement of the Court ſhall be doubled, and they ſhall giue to the Sheriffe for the wrongfull withholding (if they be worth ſo much) C.s. without any difficulty. And if they doe not come in after due ſummons in the hoyſtings, then the ſame fees ſhall be deliuered vnto the plaintiffes in the full hoyſtings, to be holden in their owne hands for one yeare and a day, within which time if the tenants doe come vnto thẽ and do offer to ſatisfie them of the arrerages double, and to the Sheriffe for his amerciament, as before is ſaid: then they ſhall haue their tenements againe. But if not after one yeare and a day accompliſhed, ſuch tenements ſhall remaine vnto the Lords of thoſe fees by iudgemẽt of the court in their demeane for euer. And then ſuch lands ſhall be called forſchoke, becauſe ſuch tenements ſhall remaine for euer in demeane to the Lords of the fees for default of the ſeruice. The L. Chancelor and chiefe Iuſtices may admit atturnies

THe King vnto the Iuſtices of his bench greeting. Whereas of late we haue ordained that all ſuch fines as are to be leuied in our Court, be lawfully leuied, which we will in no wiſe to be infringed, or to be adnulled of their whole power: we haue ſent vnto you our minde in writing firmely to be obſerued: that is to wit, that as well the parties demandant or plaintiffe, as the tenants or defendants that will yeeld or knowledge their right of lands or tenements vnto other in pleas of warrantia Chartæ, couenant, and other whereupon fines are to be leuied afore you, before ſuch fines doe paſſe, the parties ſhall appeare perſonally, ſo that their age, idiocy, or any other default (if any be) may be iudged and diſcerned by you. Prouided notwithſtanding, that if any perſon be by age, or impotence decrepit, or by caſualtie ſo oppreſſed and withholden, that by no meane he is able to come before you in our Court, then in ſuch caſe we will that two or one of you by aſſent of the reſidue of the bench, ſhall goe vnto the party ſo diſeaſed, and ſhall receiue his cogniſance vpon that plea and forme of plea that he hath in our Court, whereupon the ſame fine ought to be leuied. And if there goe but one, he ſhall take with him an Abbot, a Prior, or a Knight, a man of good fame and credit, and ſhall certifie you thereof by the record, ſo that all things incident to the ſame fine being examined by him or them, the ſame fines, according to our former ordinance may be lawfully leuied: and we will not that any of our Barons of the Exchequer or our Iuſtices, ſhall admit any atturneyes but onely in pleas that paſſe afore them in the benches and in places where they be aſſigned by vs. And the ſame power of admitting atturneies, we prohibite and deny to the Clerkes and ſeruants of the ſaid Barons and Iuſtices. And doe ordaine that if any atturneies be admitted hereafter by any of the perſons aforeſaid, their admiſſion ſhall be of none effect. Reſerued alway to the Chancellor for the time being his authoritie in admitting atturneies, according to whoſe diſcretion they ſhall be admitted, and to thoſe our chiefe Iuſtices as heretofore hath beene obſerued in the admiſſion of atturneyes, we will alſo that this our ordinance ſhall take effect and begin at the vtas of the Trinity next enſuing. Giuen at our Parliament at Carleill, the xv. yeare of our reigne.

The puniſhment of a Butcher ſelling vnholſome fleſh.

The puniſhmẽt of a Butcher ſelling vnholſome meat.

A Butcher that ſelleth Swines fleſh mezled, or fleſh dead of the morin, or that buyeth fleſh, of Iewes, and ſelleth the ſame vnto Chriſtians, after he ſhall be conuict thereof, for the firſt time he ſhall be grieuouſly amerced, the ſecond time he ſhall ſuffer iudgement of the Pillory, and the third time he ſhall be impriſoned and make fine. And the fourth time he ſhall forſweare the towne. And in this maner ſhall it be done of all that offend in like caſe.

Cap. VIII.

Buſhels, Galons, and Elles ſhall be ſigned with the Kings Seale, and he that buyeth or ſelleth with other ſhall be amerced.

The ſealing of Buſhels, Galons and Elles.

Buying or ſelling by vnſealed meaſures.

The Standard of Buſhels, Galons, and Elles ſhall be ſigned with an Iron ſeale of our Lord the King, and ſafe kept vnder the paine of an hundred pound. And no meaſure ſhall be in any Towne, vnleſſe it doe agrée with the Kings meaſure, and marked with the ſeale of the Shire Towne. If any doe ſell or buy by meaſures vnſealed and not examined by the Mayor or Bayliffes, he ſhall be grieuouſly amerced. And all the meaſures of euery towne, both great and ſmall ſhall be viewed and examined twice in the yeare. If any be conuict for a double meaſure, that is to wit, a greater for to buy with, and a ſmall to ſell with, he ſhall be impriſoned for his falſhood, and ſhall be grieuouſly puniſhed. Stat.7.H.7.4. Stat.11.H.7.4. Stat.12.H.7.5.

Cap. IX.

The Buſhell, Standard, and Elles ſhall be kept by Maiors, Bailiffes, &c. No graine ſhall be ſold by the heape or cantell, but Oates, Malt, and Meale.

Who ſhall haue the keeping of meaſures.

The Standard Buſhels, and Elles ſhall be in the cuſtodie of the Maior and Bailiffes, and of ſixe lawfull perſons of the ſame towne being ſworne, before whom all meaſures ſhall be ſealed: no maner of graine ſhall be ſold by the heape or cantell, except it be Oats, Malt & Meale.

Cap. X.

No Foreſtaller ſhall be ſuffered to dwell in any Towne.

Who is a foreſtaller, and his puniſhment. Stat.5.Ed.6.14.

But ſpecially be it commaunded on the behalfe of our Lord the King, that no Foreſtaller be ſuffered to dwell in any town which is an open oppreſſor of poore people & of all the Comminaltie, minaltie, and an enemie of the whole Shire and Countrey, which for greedineſſe of his priuate gaine, doth preuent others in buying grain, Fiſh, Herring, or any other thing to be ſold comming by land or water, oppreſſing the poore and deceiuing the rich, which carrieth alway ſuch things, intending to ſell them more deare. The which come to Merchants ſtrangers that bring Merchandiſe, offering them to buy, and informing them that their goods might be dearer ſold then they intended to ſell, and an whole Towne or a Countrey is deceiued by ſuch craft and ſubtiltie. He that is conuict thereof, the firſt time ſhall be amerced, and ſhall loſe the thing ſo bought, and that according to the cuſtome and ordinance of the towne: he that is conuict the ſecond time ſhall haue iudgement of the Pillorie. At the third time he ſhall be impriſoned and make fine: the fourth time he ſhall abiure the Towne. And this iudgement ſhall be giuen vpon all maner of foreſtallers, and likewiſe vpon them that haue giuen them counſell, help, or fauour.

Satutum de terris Templariorum, made Anno 17. Edw. 2. & Anno Domini 1323.

Coke li. 11. fo. 29.

FOr that the militarie order of Templers ceaſing and being diſſolued, the Lands and Tenements, in demeaſnes, fees, and ſeruices of the Brethren of the ſame Order which they held in their Fraternitie in the Realme of England in the time of the ſame ceaſing and diſſolution of the foreſaid Order, which were holden of our Lord the King, and diuers other Lords in this Kingdome, were ſeiſed into the hands of our Soueraigne Lord the King, and of diuers other Lords of the fees of them, who challenged the ſame lands for the conſideration aforeſaid, that the ſame lands ought to reuert to them as their Eſcheats. Whereupon after in a Parliament of the moſt noble Prince King Edward ſonne of King Edward, ſummoned and aſſembled at Weſtminſter, three weekes after the day of the Purification of the bleſſed Virgin Mary, in the ſeuenteenth yeare of the raigne of the ſame King, great conference was had before the King himſelfe, in the preſence of the Prelates, Earles, Barons, Nobles, & great men of the Realme, and others there preſent, whether the foreſaid Lords of the fees, or others which held thoſe Lands that were the foreſaid Templers, as is aforeſaid, might retaine them by the law of the Realme, and with ſafe conſcience. Whereupon the greater part of the Kings Counſell, as well the Iuſtices as other lay perſons being aſſembled together: The ſaid Iuſtices affirmed preciſely, that our Lord the King, and other Lords of the fees aforeſaid might well and lawfully by the Laws of the Realme retaine the foreſaid Lands as their Eſcheats, in regard of the ceaſing and diſſolution of the Order aforeſaid.

Whether the Order of Templers being diſſolued, the Lords of the fees might enioy their lands.

2 But becauſe the Lands and Tenements aforeſaid were giuen to the Brethren of the ſaid Order for the defence of Chriſtians, and the holy Land, againſt Pagans and Sarazens, and other enemies of Chriſt and Chriſtians, and the Vniuerſall holy Church: it ſeemed good to our Lord the King, the Noble men, and others aſſembled in the ſame Parliament, for the health of their ſoules and diſcharge of their conſciences, That whereas the ſaid Militarie Order of Templers were originally inſtituted for the defence of Chriſtians and the vniuerſall holy Church, ſubuerſion of the enemies of Chriſt and Chriſtians, and canoniſed to the augmentation of the honour of God, and liberall almeſ-giuing, That the foreſaid Lands and Tenements in Demeaſnes, Lordſhips, Seruices, Liberties, Cuſtomes, and all other things pertaining thereunto, and by any thing depending thereupon, according to the willes of the giuers, ſhall be aſſigned and deliuered to other men of moſt holy Religion, to the intent the fruits, reuenues, and profits of the ſame Lands, Tenements, and other things may be conuerted and charitably diſpoſed to godly vſes. And thereupon in the ſame Parliament it is agreed, ordained, and eſtabliſhed for Law to continue for euer, That neither our Lord the King, nor any other Lords of the fees aforeſaid, or any other perſon, hath Title or right to retaine the foreſaid Lands and Tenements with the appurtenances or any part thereof, in regard of Eſcheat, or by any other meanes, or hereafter to challenge the ſame Lands in reſpect of the ceaſing or diſſolution of the foreſaid Militarie Order of Templers, whereof the Brethren of the ſame Order were ſeiſed in their Demeſnes as of fee at the time of the ceaſing and diſſolution aforeſaid: Notwithſtanding that the foreſaid Lands and Tenements after the ſaid ceaſing and diſſolution came to the hands of diuers perſons by diſcent of inheritance, gift, or purchaſe, or by any other meanes. And notwithſtanding any Law or Cuſtome of the Realme of England, whereby this Law, Ordinance and Statute touching the Aſſignement and conueyance of the foreſaid Lands and Tenements might be hindered, impugned, or counterpleaded.

The chiefe Lords ſhall not haue Templers lands by Eſcheat.

3 Seeing the Order of the Brethren of the Hoſpitall of Saint Iohn of Hieruſalem was likewiſe ordained, inſtituted, and canoniſed, for the defence of Chriſtians and the holy Church. It is agreed & enacted in the ſaid Parliament by our foreſaid Lord the King, the Prelats, Earles, Barons, and other great men of the Realme there being, That inſomuch as the foreſaid Order of the Templers is ceaſed and diſſolued, and the foreſaid Order of the Hoſpitall is prouided, inſtituted, and canonized, for the defence of Chriſtians, as is aforeſaid, That all the Lands, Tenements, Lordſhips, Fees, Churches, Aduowſons of Churches and liberties, with all things to them belonging, which were the ſaid Templers at the time of their ceaſing and diſſolution, ſhall be aſſigned and deliuered to the foreſaid Order of the Hoſpitall, and to the Prior and Brethren of the ſame Hoſpitall, to remaine to them and their ſucceſſors for euer. Wherefore our ſaid Lord the King, by the mutuall aſſent of the Earles, Barons, and Noble men aforeſaid, of his Regall authoritie in the ſame Parliament, hath aſſigned and determined to deliuer all the foreſaid Lands, Tenements, Lordſhips, Fees, Churches, Aduowſons, and Liberties with their appurtenances to the foreſaid Order of the Hoſpitall, and to the ſaid Prior and Brethren of the ſaid Order, To haue and hold to the ſame Prior and his Brethren and Succeſſors for euer of our Lord the King, and other Lords of the Fees aforeſaid by the ſame ſeruices, by which the Brethren of the Military Order of Templers held the ſame, at the time of their ceaſing and diſſolution: As in relieuing of the poore, in hoſpitalities, in celebrating diuine Seruice, defence of the holy Land, and in all other offices and ſeruices before time due, by whatſoeuer names they be called. So alwaies, that the godly and worthy will of the foreſaid giuers be obſerued, performed, and alwaies religiouſly executed, as is aforeſaid, Sauing to euery perſon his action, if he had any, the time of the ceaſing and diſſolution aforeſaid, againſt the ſame Templers in the foreſaid Lands and Tenements, Rents, Seruices, Cuſtomes, Penſions, Corrodies, Liberties, celebrating of Maſſes, Almes, and other things whatſoeuer, and libertie to proſecute his right againſt the ſaid Prior and Brethren of the Hoſpitall aforeſaid and their Brethren and their ſucceſſors, according to the law and cuſtome of the Realme, as he might haue had againſt the foreſaid Templers, if the Order aforeſaid had not been diſſolued: And if it fortune that the ſaid Prior and Brethren of the Hoſpitall aforeſaid, or their Succeſſors ſhall be put out of the foreſaid Lands and Tenements, or of any parcell thereof, after they ſhall be ſeiſed of the ſame, they ſhall haue power to recouer their owne according to the Law of the Realme.

All the Templers lands giuen to the Prior of the Hoſpitall of S. John of Hieruſalem. Coke li. 11. fo. 21.

And to the intent that the aſſignement before ſpecified may be publiſhed and made knowne to all men to whom it behoueth: It is ordained and agreed in the ſame Parliament, that it ſhall be openly proclaimed in euery County of this Kingdome, that all and euery perſon holding the Lands and Tenements aforeſaid, and all others to whom it doth appertaine, ſhall be at Weſtminſter one month after Eaſter day next if they will, to heare the concord, prouiſion, and aſſignement aforeſaid, in forme aforeſaid.

How he ſhall be vſed which is taken in the Foreſt for any offence of Vert or Veniſon. Stat. 3. Ed. 1. 20. Stat. 9. H. 3. 10. & 16.

ITem, whereas diuers people be diſherited, ranſomed, and vndone, by the chiefe keepers of the Foreſts on this ſide Trent and beyond, and by other miniſters, againſt the forme of the great Charter of the Foreſt, and againſt the declaration made by King Edward, ſonne of King Henry in forme following, that is to ſay: We will and grant for vs and our heires, that for any treſpaſſe done in our Foreſt of Vert and Veniſon: that the Foreſters in whoſe Bailiwike ſuch treſpas ſhall be committed, ſhall preſent the ſame treſpaſſes, at the next Swanimot before the Foreſters, Verders, Regarders, and Agiſters, and other miniſters of the ſame Foreſt. And vpon ſuch preſentment made before the ſaid Foreſters, Verders, Regarders, and Agiſters, and other miniſters aforeſaid, as well by the oathes of Knights, as by other diſcreet and lawfull men, and not ſuſpitious, of the parties adioyning or nere, where ſuch offences ſhall be ſo preſented, and where the truth may beſt and moſt fully be inquired: and the truth perfectly knowne, then ſuch preſentments by the common aſſent and conſent of all the ſaid miniſters ſhall be ſolemnly written, and with their ſeales enſealed. And if any indictment be in any other maner made, the ſame ſhall be void. And therefore becauſe the chiefe Wardens of the Foreſts haue not obſerued the ſame hitherto: It is agreed & ordained, that from henceforth no man ſhall be takē nor impriſoned for Vert nor Veniſon, vnleſſe he be taken with the maner, or elſe indicted after the forme before ſpecified. And then the chiefe Warden of the Foreſt ſhall let him to mainpriſe, till the eyre of the Foreſt, without any thing taking for his deliuerance. And if the ſaid Warden will not ſo doe, he ſhall haue a Writ out of the Chancery, which hath been in old time ordained for ſuch perſons endicted, to be at mainpriſe till the eyre. And if ſuch Warden after he hath receiued the Writ, doe not incontinently deliuer ſuch perſons endicted to mainpriſe, without taking any thing: then the plaintiffe ſhall haue a Writ out of the Chancery to the Sheriffe, to attach the ſaid Warden, to be before the King at a certaine day to anſwere, wherefore he hath not replevied him that is ſo taken. And the Sheriffe (the Verdours being called to him) ſhall deliuer him that is ſo taken by good mainpriſe, in the preſence of the Verdors, and ſhall deliuer the names of the mainpernors to the ſame Verdors, to anſwere in the eyre before the Juſtices. And if the chief Warden be thereof attainted, the plaintiffes ſhall haue their treble damages awarded them, and the ſaid Warden ſhall be committed to priſon, and ranſomed at the Kings will. And from henceforth it ſhall be written to them as to the chiefe Wardens of the Foreſt, becauſe they may not be Juſtices, nor haue any record but in the eyre. Dated at Weſtminſter, the ſeuenth day of March in the firſt yeare of the raigne of the ſaid King Edward that now is.

Indictments in the Sheriffes Turne ſhall be by Roll indented.

Indictments in Sheriffes turns ſhall be by roll indented.

ITem, the king commandeth that the Sheriffes and Bailiffes of Franchiſes, and all other that doe take indictments in their Turnes, or elſewhere, where indictments ought to be made, ſhall take ſuch indictment by roll indented, whereof the one part ſhall remaine with the indictors, and the other part with him that taketh the enqueſt. So that the indictments ſhall not be embezilled as they haue béene in times paſt. And ſo that one of the enqueſt may ſhew the one part of the Indenture to the Iuſtices, when they come to make deliuerance. Stat.13.Ed.1.13.

The

Statutes made at Northampton tribus ſeptimanis Paſchæ, Anno 2. Ed. 3. & Anno Domini 1328.

OVr Lord King EDVVARD the third after the Conqueſt, at his Parliament holden at Northampton at the three weekes of Eaſter in the ſecond yeare of his raigne, deſiring that the peace of his land, & his lawes & Statutes ordained and vſed before time may be kept and maintained in all points, to the honour of God and of holy Church, and to the common profit of the people, by aſſent of the Prelates, Earles, Barons and other great men, and all the Communaltie ſummoned to the ſame Parliament: hath ordained and eſtabliſhed in the ſaid Parliament theſe things vnder written in forme following.

CAP. I.

A confirmation of the great Charter, and the Charter of the Foreſt.

FIrſt, that the great Charter, and the Charter of the Foreſt be obſerued in all points.

CAP. II.

In what caſes onely pardon of felonie ſhall be granted. Who ſhall be Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, &c.

ITem, whereas offendors haue béene greatly encouraged, becauſe the Charters of pardon haue béene ſo eaſily granted in times paſt of manſlaughters, robberies, felonies, and other treſpaſſes againſt the Peace: It is ordained and enacted, that ſuch Charters ſhall not be granted, but onely where the King may doe it by his oath, that is to ſay, where a man ſlayeth another in his owne defence, or by miſfortune. And alſo they haue bin encouraged, becauſe that the Iuſt. of gaole deliuery, and of Oyer and Terminer, haue béene procured by great men, againſt the forme of the Statute made in the xxvij. yeare of the raigne of King Edward Grandfather to our Lord the King that now is, wherein is contained, that Iuſtices aſſigned to take Aſſiſes, if they be lay men, ſhall make deliuerance, and if the one be a Clerke and the other a lay man: that the lay Iudge with another of the Countrey aſſociate to him, ſhall deliuer the Gaoles: wherefore it is enacted, That ſuch Iuſtices ſhall not be made againſt the forme of the ſaid Statute, And that the aſſiſes, attaints, and certifications be taken before the Iuſtices commonly aſſigned, which be good men and lawfull, hauing knowledge of the law, and none other, after the forme of another Statute made in the time of the ſaid King Edward the firſt. And that the Oyers and Terminers ſhall not be granted, but before Iuſtices of the one Bench or the other, or the Iuſtices errants, and that for great hurt or horrible treſpaſſes, and of the Kings ſpeciall grace, after the forme of the ſtatute thereof ordained in time of the ſaid grandfather, and none otherwiſe. ITem, it is enacted that the Articles contained in a Statute made in the time of King Edward, grandfather to our Lord the King that now is, in the xxviij. yeare of his raigne, touching ſuch takings, be kept and maintained in al points. The forme of which article enſueth in theſe words. Firſt of all becauſe one great griefe is in this Realme, whereof riſeth infinite harmes, that is to ſay: The King and his miniſters of his retinue, as well aliens as denizens, do make their prices throughout the Realme, and take the goods both of Clerks & Lay people, without paying therefore, or elſe leſſe then the true value: It is ordained, that from henceforth none ſhall take any price throughout the Realme, but onely the Kings takers and purueyors for his houſe, and they ſhall nothing take but onely for the ſame houſe. And of the prices which they make in the Countrey for meat or drinke, or other neceſſaries for the Kings houſe, they ſhall pay in hand, or elſe agree with them from whom ſuch things ſhall be taken. And that all the Kings takers, purueyors and buyers, from henceforth haue their warrant with them, vnder the great ſeale or ſmall ſeale, containing their power and the things whereof they ſhall make their price & purueyance, which warrant they ſhall ſhew to them of whom they make their prices, before they take any thing. And that thoſe takers, purueyors and buyers, ſhall take no more then ſhall be needfull for the King and his houſe & his children. And that they take nothing for ſuch as be at wages, nor none other, and that they ſhall anſwere in the Kings houſe, and in the Wardrobe fully of all their prices, & in no other place to make their larges or deliuerie of things taken for the King. And if any taker of the Kings houſe by warrant, hath made any price or liuerie, otherwiſe then is aforeſaid, the truth ſhalbe enquired by complaint made to the Steward or Treaſurer of the kings houſe, and if any be thereof attainted, amends ſhall be incontinently made to the party plaintiffe, and he to be baniſhed the Kings ſeruice for euer, and to remaine in priſon at the Kings pleaſure. And if any make price without warrant, & carry it away againſt his will from whom the goods be taken, he ſhall be arreſted incontinently by the Towneſhip where the price was made, and brought to the next Gaole. ITem, becauſe there be more Tauerns in the Realme then were wont to be, ſelling as well corrupt Wines as holſome, and haue ſold the galon at ſuch price as they themſelues would, becauſe there was no puniſhment ordained for them, as hath béene for them that haue ſold Bread and Ale, to the great hurt of the people: It is accorded that a cry ſhall be made, that none be ſo hardie to ſell Wines but at a reaſonable price, regarding the price that is at the Ports from whence the Wines came, and the expences, as in cariage of the ſame from the ſaid Ports to the places where they be ſold. And that aſſay ſhall be made of ſuch Wines two times euery yeare, once at Eaſter, and another time at Michaelmas, and more often if néed be, by the Lords of the Townes and their Bailiffes, and alſo by the Maior and Bailiffes of the ſame Townes. And all the Wines that ſhall be found corrupt, ſhall be powred out, and the veſſells broken. And the Chancellor and Treaſurer, Iuſtices of the one Bench and the other, and Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, ſhall haue power to enquire vpon the Maiors, Bailiffes and miniſters of Townes, if they doe not according to this Statute. And beſides that to puniſh as reaſon ſhall require.

Corrupt wines ſhall be poured out, & the veſſels broken.

Cap. II.

Things purueyed for the Kings houſe ſhall be prayſed, and tailes made thereof. Of what people Enqueſts in the Marſhals Court ſhall be taken. Redreſſing of Error there.

ITem, where in the Statute made at Weſtminſter, at the Parliament there ſummoned after the Feaſt of S. Katherine, in the fourth yeare of the raigne of the King that now is, amongſt other things there enacted, it is contained vpon the grieuances which the Purueyors for the Kings houſe, the Queenes, and of their children, did to the people in outragious meaſures of Corne, and voluntary taking of Hey, Litter, and other things prouided by the ſaid Purueyors, that the takers and Purueyors of Corne for the ſaid houſes, ſhould take them by meaſure ſtriken according as hath beene vſed through the Realme. And that all the Corne, Hey, Litter, Beſtaile and all other vitailes and things, to be taken for the ſame houſes, ſhould be praiſed at the true value by the Conſtables and other good people of Townes, where ſuch priſes be, and that the prayſors be not enforced by threats and dures, to aſſeſſe any other priſe then their Oath will. And in the ſame Statute is one article rehearſed, which was made in the time of K. Edward, grandfather to the King that now is, where certain paines be limited againſt thoſe that late made purueyance for the ſaid houſes, which paines not regarded, the ſaid purueyors haue not let to make outragious and vnlawfull priſes againſt the tenure of the ſaid Statutes. To the honor and profit of our ſaid Lord the King, and for the peace and quietneſſe of his people, and to refraine and puniſh the enormities of thoſe that haue committed ſuch outrages, to the Kings, the Queenes, & their childrens great ſlander: It is accorded and enacted, that the taking & purueyance for the ſaid houſes ſhall be made by the Conſtables and foure diſcreet men of the Townes, where ſhalbe ſuch priſes and purueyances, thereto ſworne, and without menace, as in the ſaid Statutes is contained. And that alſo betwixt the purueyors & them, whoſe goods ſhall be taken in the preſence of the Conſtables & praiſors, tailes ſhall be made and ſealed with the purueyors ſeales of the things ſo taken. By which tailes ſatisfaction ſhall be made to them from whom ſuch goods be taken. And if any taker or purueyor for the ſaid houſes, do take in any other maner, he ſhall be incontinently arreſted by the towne where ſuch taking was made, & brought to the next gaole. And if he be thereof attainted, it ſhalbe done of him as of a theefe, if the quantitie of the goods of the ſame require. And from henceforth it ſhall be contained in the commiſſions of ſuch takers & purueyors, be they vnder the ſmall ſeale or the great, the forme & the paine contained in this ſtatute. And that in euery caſe where enqueſts be to be taken before the ſteward & the marſhall of the K. houſe: that enqueſts be taken by men of the country thereabout, & not by men of the K. houſe, except it be of contracts, couenants or treſpaſſes made by men of the K. houſe of the one part and of the other, & that in the ſame houſe, according to another ſtatute thereof made in the time of the ſaid Ed. the grandfather. And in caſe where any will complain of error made in the time of the ſaid K. before the ſaid Steward and Marſhall, the plaintiffe ſhall haue a writ to remoue the record and the proces before the King in his place, and there the error ſhal be redreſſed. And likewiſe ſhal it be done in euery other caſe where any man will complaine him of error done before the ſame Steward & Marſhall of the Kings houſe. Regiſt. fol. 17. Raſt. pla. fol. 278.

Sheriffe,Vnderſheriffes.

ITem,it is accorded and enacted,that no Sheriffe,Vndereſcheator,Bailiffe of Franchiſes,Wapentakes,Hundreds nor Tithings,ſhall from henceforth be, except he haue Lands ſufficient in the ſame Countie,whereof to anſwere the King and his people, if any will complaine. Stat.4. Ed.3.9. Regiſt.fo.177.

CAP. V.

The penaltie if any doe ſell ware at a Faire after it is ended.

2.E 3.15.

The penaltie if any do ſell ware in a faire after the ſame is ended.

ITem, where it is contained in the Statute made at Northampton,in the ij. yeare of the raign of the King that now is,that the Lords which haue Faires by Charters or otherwiſe, ſhal hold them during the time that they ought to doe,and no longer, vpon paine to ſeiſe ſuch Faires into the Kings hands : And that euery Lord at the beginning of his Faire do cry & proclaime therein how long the Faire ſhall endure. And in the ſame Statute is no certaine puniſhment ordained againſt the Merchants if they ſell after the time: It is accorded that the ſaid Merchants after the ſaid time, ſhall cloſe their bouthes and ſtalles without putting any maner of ware or merchandiſe to ſell there. And if it be found that any Merchant from henceforth ſell any ware or merchandiſe at the ſaid Faires,after the ſaid time,ſuch Merchant ſhall forfeit to our Lord the King the double value of that which is ſold. And euery man that will ſue for our Lord the King ſhall be receiued and alſo haue the fourth part of that which ſhall be loſt at his ſuit. Stat.2.Ed.3.15.

And this Statute ſhall hold place as well of enqueſts taken in times paſt,as to be taken in time to come. Regiſt.fol.122. V.N.B.fol.48.112.

CAP. VIII.

The Marſhalles of the Kings Bench ſhall not baile felons,

The Marſhals of the K. Bench ſhall not baile any committed to their charge. Fitz.N.B.f.251.I.

ITem, becauſe that perſons indited of felonies,robberies and theft, in times paſt haue remoued the ſame inditement before the King,and there yéelded themſelues,and by the Marſhals of the Kings Bench haue béene incontinently let to baile,and after haue done many euill déeds, and lyen in a wait to flea and euill entreat their enditors: And alſo perſons appealed of felonie,after the Exigend awarded, haue yéelded themſelues before the King, and haue béene let to baile by the ſaid Marſhalles : It is accorded and eſtabliſhed, That ſuch enditées and appellées ſhall be ſafely and ſurely kept in priſon , as belongeth to them according to the charge which the ſaid Marſhalles ſhall haue of the Iuſtices. And if any Marſhall do otherwiſe, at the complaint of euery man that will complaine, the Iuſtices ſhall doe him right during the termes. And in the end of the termes, vpon their riſing the ſaid Marſhalles ſhall chooſe before the ſaid Iuſtices,before they depart the places,in what Towne they will kéepe ſuch priſoners at their perill. And in the ſame Towns they ſhall allow to them houſes to kéepe ſuch priſoners at their owne coſts and charges, and there they ſhall kéepe them in priſon, and ſhall not ſuffer them to goe wandring abroad, neither by baile nor without baile. And if any ſuch priſoner be found wandring out of priſon by baile or without baile, and that be found at the Kings ſuit, or at the ſuit of the partie, the Marſhals which ſhall be found thereof guiltie, ſhall haue halfe a yeares impriſonment, and be ranſomed at the Kings will. And the Juſtices ſhall thereof make enquirie when they ſée time. And as to the Marſhals, it ſhall be done within the Vierge that which reaſon will. And in caſe that the Marſhals ſuffer by their aſſent ſuch priſoners to eſcape, they ſhall be at the law, as before this time they haue béene. And the King entendeth not by this Statute to loſe the eſcape, where he ought to haue the ſame.

Suſpected perſons ſhall be arreſted and kept vntill they be deliuered by the Juſtices.

ITem, whereas in the Statute made at Wincheſter, in the time of King Edward grandfather to the King that now is, it is contained, that if any Stranger paſſe by the Countrey in the night of whom any hath ſuſpection, he ſhall be preſently arreſted & deliuered to the Sheriffe, and remaine in Ward till he be duely deliuered. And becauſe there hath béen diuers manſlaughters, felonies, and robberies done in times paſt, by people that be called Roberdeſmen, Waſtors, and Drawlatches: It is accorded that if any man haue any euill ſuſpection of ſuch, be it by day or by night, they ſhall be incontinently arreſted by the Conſtables of the Townes. And if they be arreſted within Franchiſes, they ſhall be deliuered to the Bailiffes of the Franchiſe, and if in gildable, they ſhall be deliuered to the Sheriffes, and kept in priſon till the comming downe of the Juſtices aſſigned to deliuer the Gaole, and in the meane time the Sheriffes or Bailiffes of the Franchiſes, ſhall inquire of ſuch arreſts, and at the comming of the Juſtices, returne their enqueſts before them, with that which they haue found, and the cauſe of the takings with the bodies, and the Juſtices ſhall procéed to the deliuerance of ſuch perſons arreſted according to the Law. And in caſe that the Sheriffes or Bailiffes of the Franchiſes haue not enquired of ſuch arreſts, they ſhall be amerced, and neuertheleſſe the Juſtices ſhall make enquiry and further procéed to the deliuerance as before is ſaid.

Statutes made at Yorke Craſtino Aſcenſionis, Anno 9. Ed. 3. & An. Dom. 1335.

Whereas before this time in many Parliaments, and now at this preſent Parliament ſummoned at Yorke, on the morrow after the Aſcenſion, in the ninth yeare of the raigne of King Edward the third, after the Conqueſt, It was ſhewed to our ſaid Lord the King, by the Knights of the Shires, Citizens of the Cities, and Burgeſſes of the Boroughes which come for the Commons of the ſaid Shires, Cities, and Boroughes, that in diuers Cities, Boroughes, and other places of his Realme, great dures and grieuous dammage haue béen done to him and his people, by ſome people of Cities, Boroughes, Portes of the Sea, and other places of the ſaid Realme, which in long time paſt haue not ſuffered, nor yet will ſuffer Merchant Strangers, nor other which doe carry and bring in by Sea or Land, Wines, Auoir de pois, and other liuings and victualles, with diuers other things to be ſold, neceſſary and profitable for the King, his Prelates, Barons, and other Noble men, and the Commons of this Realme, to ſell, or deliuer ſuch Wines, Liuings, Victuals, nor other things to any other thē to themſelues, of the Cities, Boroughes, Ports of the Sea, or other places where ſuch Wines, Liuings, Victuals and other things to be ſold, ſhall be brought or carried, by reaſon whereof, ſuch ſtuffe aforeſaid is ſold to the King and to his people, in the hands of the ſaid Citizens, Burgeſſes, and other people Denizens, more deare then they ſhould be, if ſuch Merchants Strangers, and others which bring ſuch things into the Realme, might fréely ſell them to whom they would, to the great dammage of our Lord the King, and of his Prelates, Earles, Barons, and other Nobles of this Realme, and grieuous oppreſſion of his Commons: whereupon the ſaid Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes for them and the Commons, deſired our ſaid Lord the King, in his ſaid Parliament by their petition, that for the profit and commoditie of his Prelates, Earles, Barons, and other Nobles of this Realme, it may pleaſe him without further delay, vpon the ſaid gréeuances and outrage to prouide remedie.

Cap.

Cap. I.

Merchants Strangers may buy and ſell within this Realme without diſturbance.

OUr Lord the King, deſiring the profit of his people by the aſſent of his Prelates, Earles, Barons, and other Nobles of his Realme, ſummoned at his Parliament, and by the aduiſe of his Counſell being there, vpon the ſaid things diſcloſed to him and found true, to the great hurt of the ſaid Prelates, Earles, and Barons and other Nobles of his Realme, and oppreſſion of his Commons, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that all Merchants Strangers and Denizens, and all other and euery of them, of what eſtate or condition ſoeuer they be that will buy or ſell Corne, Wines, auer de pois, Fleſh, Fiſh, and all other liuings and victualls, Wools, Clothes, Wares, Merchandizes, and all other things vendible, from whenceſoeuer they come by Foreines, or Denizens, at what place ſoeuer it be, Citie, Borough, Towne, Port of the Sea, Faire, Market, or elſe where within the Realme, within Franchiſe, or without, may freely without interruption ſell them to what perſons it ſhall pleaſe them, aſwell to Foreines as Denizens. Except alwaies the enemies of our Lord the King, and of his Realme. And if happely any diſturbance be done to any Merchant Stranger or Denizen, or any other for the ſale of ſuch things in any Citie, Borough, Towne, Port of the Sea, or other place which hath Franchiſe, and the Maiors, & Bailiffes, or other which haue the rule of ſuch Franchiſe, being required by the ſaid Merchants, or other, thereof to prouide remedy, and doe not, and be thereof attainted, the Franchiſe ſhall be ſeiſed into the Kings hands. And neuertheleſſe he and the other which hath done this diſturbance againſt this Statute ſhall yeeld and reſtore to the ſaid Merchant his double damages, which he hath thereby ſuſtained. And if ſuch diſturbance or interruption be done to ſuch Merchants. or to other in ſuch Townes or places where no Franchiſe is: And the Lord if he be preſent, or his Bailiffe, Conſtable, or other Ruler of the ſaid Townes and places, in the abſence of the Lords, being therein required to doe right, and doth not, and thereof be attainted, they ſhall yeeld to the party plaintiffe his double damages as afore is ſaid. And the diſturbers in the one caſe and the other, as well within Franchiſes as without, if they be attainted, ſhall haue one yeares impriſonment, and neuertheleſſe be ranſomed at the Kings will. Alſo it is ordained and eſtabliſhed, that no Alien or Denizen vpon the ſame paine ſhall not be troubled, but that he may freely buy ſuch things aforeſaid, in the ſaid places and cary them where it pleaſeth him, to his owne vſe, or to the profit of the King, or of the great men, or the Commons of the Realme. Sauing that ſuch Merchants Aliens ſhall cary no Wine out of the ſame Realme, as is contained in their Charter. And it is enacted and eſtabliſhed that the things aforeſaid ſhall be obſerued, performed, and kept in euery Citie, Borough, Towne, Port of the Sea, and other places within the Realme, notwithſtanding Charters of Franchiſe granted to them to the contrary, nor vſage, nor cuſtome, nor iudgement giuen vpon their Charters, Vſages, or Cuſtomes that they can alledge. Which Charters, Vſages, and Cuſtomes (if any be) our Lord the King, and the Prelates, Earles, Barons, Great men, and the Commons aforeſaid hold them of no force, as things granted, vſed, or accuſtomed, to the damage of the King, and his Prelates, Earles, Barons, and Great men of his Realme, and of the oppreſſion to the Commons. Saued alway to the King and to other, the Cuſtome due of the ſaid Merchandizes. It is alſo ordained and prouided, that the Chancellor, Treaſorer, and the Iuſtices aſſigned to hold the Kings Pleas, in places where they come, ſhall enquire of ſuch diſturbances and grieuances, and the ſame ſhall puniſh according as is before ordained. And neuertheleſſe the King ſhall aſſigne by Commiſſion of his great Seale certaine perſons, where and when it ſhall pleaſe him, to enquire of ſuch diſturbances and grieuances, and the ſame to puniſh as afore is ſaid. Cap. II.

No man ſhall loſe land becauſe of Non pleuin.

ITem, at the requeſt of the Commons aforeſaid made to our Lord the King at the ſaid Parliament: our Lord the King for the eaſe of his people, by the aſſent of the Lords, Earles, Barons and other great men, and the commons aforeſaid, hath put out Non pleuin of Land, which hath beene accuſtomed in the time of his Progenitors, and his owne time, and the paine alſo that was wont to enſue, in caſe the land was not plenied in due time: Alſo it is enacted that none ſhall loſe his land from henceforth becauſe of Non pleuin. And that this ſtatute hold place as well in pleas yet hanging wherein no iudgement is giuen, as in time to come.

No man ſhall loſe his Land becauſe of Non pleuin.

Cap. III.

In a Writ of debt againſt diuers Executors, they ſhall not fourch by Eſſoine.

and other great men, and the Commons aforeſaid, that in a Writ of debt brought againſt diuers Executors, the ſame executors, nor any of them ſhall haue but one Eſſoine before appearance, that is to ſay, at the ſummons or attachment, nor after appearance they ſhall haue but one Eſſoine, as the Teſtator ſhould haue had, ſo that they cannot fourch by Eſſoin neither before appearance, nor after appearance. And becauſe all the Executors doe preſent the perſon of the Teſtator as one perſon: It is alſo enacted that though the Sheriffe do anſwer at the ſummons, that ſome of them haue nothing whereby he may be ſummoned, yet there ſhall an attachment be awarded vpon him. And if the Sheriffe anſwere, that he hath nothing whereby he may be attached, the great diſtres ſhall be awarded, ſo that at the great diſtreſſe returned vpon them, hée or they that doe firſt appeare in the Court ſhall anſwer to the plaintiffe. And although ſome of them hath appeared in the Court, and make default at the day, that the great diſtreſſe is returned vpon the other: yet neuertheleſſe he or they ſhall be put to anſwer, that firſt appeared, at the great diſtreſſe returned. And in caſe the iudgement paſſe for the plaintiffe, he ſhall haue his iudgement and execution againſt them that haue pleaded, according to the Law heretofore vſed, and againſt all other named in the Writ, of the goods of the Teſtator, as well as if they had all pleaded. And it is to be vnderſtood, that if any in ſuch caſe, will ſue according to the Law that hath béene vſed heretofore, he may fréely doe it notwithſtanding this Statute.

In an action of debt brought againſt diuers executors he which firſt appeareth ſhall anſwere.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter, Anno 10.Ed.3.& Anno Dom.1336.

BEcauſe our Lord the King, Edward the third, after the Conqueſt (which Soueraignely deſireth the maintenance of his peace, and ſafeguard of his people) hath perceiued at the cōplaint of the Prelates, Earles, Barons, & alſo at the ſhewing of the Knights of the Shires, and his cōmons by their petition put in his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the Munday next after Lent, in the tenth yeare of his raigne, diuers oppreſſions and grieuances done to his ſaid people, and namely, by Murderers, Robbers, Theeues, Rauiſhers of women, and other felons: Coueting to obuent the malice of ſuch felons, and to ſee a conuenable remedy, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed by the aſſent of the ſaid Prelates, Earles, Barons, and other Nobles of this Realme, and at the requeſt of the ſaid Knights, and Commons, for the quietneſſe and peace of his people, that the Articles vnderneath written, be kept and maintained in all points.

Cap. I.

A Confirmation of former Statutes.

Former Statutes confirmed.

FIrſt it is accorded and eſtabliſhed that the great Charter, and the Charter of the Foreſt, and alſo the Statutes made in the time of the Kings Progenitors, and alſo in his owne time, be kept, holden, and firmely maintained, as well by the great men, as by the ſmall, and the rich men as the poore.

Cap. II.

Pardons ſhall not be granted contrary to the Statute of 2.Ed.3.2.

Pardons ſhall not be granted againſt the ſtat. of 2.Ed.3.2.

ITem, Whereas Murderers, Robbers, and other felons be greatly encouraged to offend, by reaſon that Charters of Pardon of manſlaughter, robberie, felonies, and other treſpaſſes againſt the Peace, haue béene ſo lightly granted before this time: It is accorded and eſtabliſhed by our Lord the King, by the aſſent of his Prelates, Earles, Barons, and at the requeſt of the ſaid Knights and Commons, that no ſuch Charters from henceforth ſhall be granted by our Lord the King, againſt the forme of a Statute late made at Northampton, the ſecond yeare of his Raigne. Stat.14.E.3.15.

Cap. III.

He that hath a Pardon of Felony ſhall finde ſureties of his good abearing.

He that hath a Pardon of felony ſhall finde ſureties of his good abearing.

AND as to Charters granted in times paſt: It is accorded and eſtabliſhed, by our Lord the King, by the ſame aſſent, and at the requeſt aforeſaid, that all ſuch which haue Charters, ſhall come before the Sheriffes, and Coroners of the Counties, where the felonies bée done betwéene this and the Feaſt of the Natiuitie of Saint Iohn next comming, and euery of them ſhall finde before the ſaid Sheriffes and Coroners of the Counties where the felonies be done, ſixe good and ſufficient Mainpernours, for whom the ſaid Sheriffes and Coroners, will anſwere, that they from henceforth ſhall beare themſelues well and lawfully. And the Mainpriſes ſhall be ſealed with their Seales, and returned in the Chancery at the fiftéenth of the ſaid feaſt of Saint Iohn. And they that will aide themſelues by ſuch Charters, and haue not found mainpriſe, as aboue is ſaid, or after the mainpriſe found, beare themſelues otherwiſe againſt the peace then they ought, their Charters ſhall be holden for none. And in caſe that our Lord the King grant any ſuch Charters in time to come, that within thrée moneths after the making of the ſame, they that ſhall haue the ſaid Charters, ſhall come and finde before the Sheriffes and Coroners of the Counties where the felonies be done, ſuch like mainpriſe, and alſo as before is ſaid of their good bearing. And the ſaid mainpriſes ſhall be ſealed and returned into the Chancerie within thrée Wéekes after the end of the ſaid thrée Moneths. And if they that ſhall haue ſuch Charters will in time to come aide themſelues thereby and haue not found ſuch mainpriſes, or after ſuch mainpriſe found, doe beare them otherwiſe againſt the Peace then they ought, their Charters ſhall be holden for none, as is aforeſaid. Statutes of Purueyors made at Weſtminſter, Anno 10. Ed.3.&.An.Dom.1336.

THeſe be the Articles accorded in the Parliament of our Lord King EDVVARD the third after the Conqueſt, holden at Weſtminſter, the Munday next after the halfe of Lent, in the tenth yeare of his reigne, by our ſaid Lord the King, with the aſſent of the Prelates, Earles, Barons, and alſo at the requeſt of the Knights of the Shires, and the Commons by their petitions put in the ſaid Parliament.

Cap. I.

Things puruaied for the Kings houſe ſhall be praiſed, and Tailes made thereof.

FIrſt, it is accorded, that, to repreſſe the malice of the Puruaiors of the Kings, Quéenes, and their childrens houſes, and other iniuries by them done to the ſaid people, by their outragious taking

takings for the ſame houſes, and otherwiſe then is contained in an article of a Statute made at Weſtminſter, in the fift yeare of the Kings raigne that now is, in forme that enſueth, it ſhall be from henceforth publiſhed, holden, & kept in all parts, as in the ſecond Chapter of the ſaid Statute is more fully contained, and alſo as in the Statute made at Weſtminſter, at the Parliament ſummoned there after the Feaſt of S. Katherine, in the fourth yeare of the Kings raigne that now is, amongſt other things there accorded & eſtabliſhed, it is cõtained: viz. That vpõ grieuances which the Puruaiors of the Kings, Queenes, and their childrens houſes did to the people, in outragious meaſure of Corne, and alſo in wilfull taking of Hay, Litter, &c. prouided by the ſame puruaiors, it be eſtabliſhed, that the ſaid puruaiors and takers of corne for the ſaid houſe of the King, & Q. ſhall take the ſame by meaſure ſtriked, according as is vſed throughout the realme. And that all the corne, hay, litter, and beſtaile, and all other vitaile and things whatſoeuer they be, to be taken for the ſame houſes, ſhall be preiſed at the true value by the Conſtables and other good people of the townes, where ſuch takings ſhall be made, without that by menace or dures the preiſors ſhall be driuen to ſet other price then their oath will. And whereas in the ſame Statute an article was rehearſed, which was made in the time of King Edward of good memory, grandfather to the King that now is, where certaine paines be contained againſt thoſe, which doe vnduely make puruaiãce for ſuch houſes, for which paines the puruaiors of the ſaid houſes haue not let to make outragious and vndue taking, againſt the tenure of the ſaid ſtatute: To the honour & profit of our ſaid Lord the King, & for the quietnes & tranquility of his people, & for to refraine, and alſo to puniſh the miſdemeanor of them that haue made ſuch outrages, in ſlander of the King, the Queene his companion, and their children: It is accorded and eſtabliſhed, that the takings and puruaiances ſhall be made for the ſaid houſes, by appreiſment made by the Conſtables, and foure diſcreet men of the townes, where ſuch takings and puruaiances ſhall be made, ſworne, and without menace, as in the ſaid ſtatute is contained. And that betwixt the puruaiors, & thoſe whoſe goods ſhall be taken in the preſence of the Conſtables, and praiſors, tailies ſhall be made, ſealed with the ſeales of the takers of the things ſo taken, by which tailies contentation ſhall be made to them of whom the thing ſhall be ſo taken. And if any puruaior or taker for the ſaid houſes doe otherwiſe, he ſhall be incontinently arreſted by the towne, where the taking ſhall be made, and brought to the next gaole, and if he be thereof attainted, be it done there to him as to a theefe, if the quantitie of the goods the ſame require. And from henceforth be it contained in the Commiſſions of ſuch takers and puruaiors, be they vnder the great ſeale or the ſmall, the forme and the paine contained in this ſtatute, Stat. 25. Ed. 3. 1. Stat. 36. Ed. 3. 2. St. 2. & 3. P. & M. 6.

St. 5. Ed. 3. 2.
St. 4. Ed. 3. 3.

Corne ſhall be taken by meaſure ſtriked.

Things taken for the Kings houſe ſhall bee praiſed at the very value.
St. 28. Ed. 1. 2.

Puruaiances ſhall be made by conſtables & 4. ſworne men of the towne.

Tallies betweene puruaiors and the owners.

Felony committed by a puruaior.

CAP. II.

Of what people enqueſts in the Marſhalls Court of the Kings houſe ſhall be taken.

Coke li. 10. fo. 69.

ITem, in euery caſe where Inqueſts be to be taken before the Steward or Marſhal of the Kings houſe, the ſame enqueſts ſhall be taken by the people of the Country thereabout, and not by people of the Kings houſe, except it be of the contracts, couenants, or treſpaſſes made by people of the ſame houſe, of the one part and of the other, according to another ſtatute thereof made, in the time of the ſame King the grandfather. St. 28. Ed. 1. 3 St. 5 E 3 2.

Of what people enqueſts ſhall be taken in the Marſhals court.

CAP. III.

Error in the Marſhals Court, ſhall be reuerſed in the Kings Bench.

ITem, in caſe where a man will complaine of errors, made before the ſaid Steward & Marſhall, the plaintife ſhall haue a Writ, to make the Record and the Proceſſe to come before the King in his place, and there the errour ſhall be redreſſed, and ſo it ſhall be done in euery caſe, where a man will complaine of error made before the ſaid Steward and Marſhall of the Kings houſe. St. 5. Ed. 3. 2. Regiſt. fo. 17. Raſt. pla. fo. 278.

Error in the Marſhals Court ſhall be reuerſed in the Kings Bench.

CAP. IIII.

The Sheriffe ſhall make puruaiance for the Kings horſes.

ITem, it is accorded, that for the great grieuances that the Keepers of the Kings great horſes haue done to the people, as our Lord the King hath perceiued by the ſhewing of the ſaid Commons, that puruaiances from henceforth to be made for the ſaid horſes, as long as they doe ſoiourne in any parties, ſhall be made by the Sheriffes of the Counties, where the ſaid horſes ought to ſoiourne, and not by other. And that the Commiſſions made afore this time to ſuch keepers, ſhall be from henceforth of none effect, and vtterly repealed. And that the puruaiances to bee made by the ſaid Sheriffs in this caſe, ſhall be deliuered to the ſaid Keepers by Indentures, Stat. 14. Ed. 3. 19.

Puruaiance for the K. great horſes ſhall be made by the Sheriffes.

CAP. V.

Certaine perſons ſhall be appointed to heare the offences of the keepers of the Kings horſes.

ITem, it is accorded, that certaine people ſhal be aſſigned to heare and determine all the offenſes done by the ſaid keepers, as well at the ſuit of the King, as of the partie. But this is holden for no ſtatute, as appeareth by the roll.

Cap. V.

Clothworkers may come into the Kings dominions, and haue ſufficient liberties.

Clothworkers of ſtrange lands, ſhall haue the Kings protection.

ITem, it is accorded, that all the Clothworkers of ſtrange lands, of whatſoeuer Countrey they be which will come into England, Ireland, Wales, and Scotland, within the Kings power, ſhall come ſafely and ſurely, and ſhall be in the Kings protection and ſafe conduct, to dwell in the ſame lands chooſing where they will. And to the intent the ſaid Clothworkers ſhall haue the greater will to come & dwell here: Our Soueraigne Lord the King will grant them Franchiſes as many and ſuch as may ſuffice them.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter, Anno 14. Ed. 3. & Anno 1. of his raigne of France, & Anno Domi. 1340.

TO the honour of God, and of holy Church, by the aſſent of the Prelates, Earles, Barons, and other aſſembled at the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the Wedneſday next after mid-Lent, in the 14. yeare of the raign of our Lord King Edward the third of England, and the firſt yeare of his raign of France, the King for the peace and quietnes of his people, as well great as ſmall, doth grant and eſtabliſh the things vnder written, which hee will to be holden, and kept in all points perpetually to endure.

Cap. I.

A Confirmation of Liberties.

Franchiſes.

FIrſt, that holy Church haue her liberties in quietneſſe, without interruption or diſturbance, and that the great Charter, and the Charter of the Foreſt be holden in all points. And that the Citie of London and all other Cities and Boroughs of the Realme of England, haue all their franchiſes and cuſtomes, which they haue reaſonably had and vſed in times paſt.

Cap. II.

The King in reſpect of his warres in Scotland, France, and Gaſcoine, and the great coſts & aids of his people, doth pardon them ſeuerall offences. And alſo of aid to make his ſonne Knight, & to marry his daughter all his time. Exp.

Cap. III.

The Kings pardon to his people of diuers debts, accompts, arrerages &c. due vntill the tenth yeare of his raigne. Exp.

Cap. IIII.

Preſentment of Engleſchire ſhall be clearely extirpate.

Preſentment of Engleſchyre ſhall be clearely extirpate.

ITem becauſe many miſchiefes haue happened in diuers Countries of England, which had no knowledge of preſentment of Engleſchyre, whereby the commons of the Counties were often amerced before the Iuſtices in Eire, to the great miſchiefe of the people: It is aſſented, that from henceforth no Iuſtice errant, ſhall put in any article, oppoſition, preſentment of Engleſchyre, againſt the commons of the Counties, nor againſt any of them, but that Engleſchyre, and preſentment of the ſame, be wholly out and void for euer. So that no perſon by this cauſe bée from henceforth impeached.

Cap.

Cap. V.

Delaies of Iudgement in other Courts ſhall be redreſſed in Parliament.

Item, becauſe diuers miſchiefes haue happened, for that in diuers places, as well in the Chancery, as in the Kings Bench, the common Bench, and in the Eſchequer before the Iuſtices aſſigned, and other Iuſtices to heare and determine deputed, the iudgments haue bin delayed, ſometime by difficulty, & ſometime by diuers opinions of the Iudges, & ſometime for ſome other cauſe: It is aſſented, eſtabliſhed, and accorded, that from henceforth at euery parliament ſhall be choſen a Prelate, two Earles, and two Barons, which ſhall haue commiſſion and power of the King, to heare by petition deliuered to them, the complaints of al thoſe that wil complain them of ſuch delaies or grieuances done to them, & they ſhall haue power to cauſe to come before thẽ at Weſtminſter, or elſe, where the places of any of them ſhall be, the tenor of Records & proceſſes of ſuch iudgements ſo delayed, & to cauſe the ſame Iuſtices to come before them, which ſhall be then preſent to heare their cauſe and reaſons of ſuch delaies. Which cauſe and reaſon ſo heard, by good aduice of themſelues, the Chancellor, Treaſurer, the Iuſtices of the one Bench and of the other, and other of the Kings Counſell, as many, and ſuch as they ſhall thinke conuenient, ſhall proceed to take a good accord, and make a good iudgement. And according to the ſame accord ſo taken, the tenor of the ſaid record, together with the iudgement which ſhall be accorded, ſhall be remaunded before the Iuſtices, before whom the plea did depend. And that they haſtily go to giue iudgment, according to the ſame record. And in caſe it ſeemeth to them, that the difficulty be ſo great, that it may not well be determined, without aſſent of the Parliament, that the ſaid tenor or tenors ſhal be brought by the ſaid Prelats, Earles, and Barons vnto the next Parliament, & there ſhall be a finall accord taken what iudgement ought to be giuen in this caſe. And according to this accord, it ſhall be commaunded to the Iudges, before whom the plea did depend, that they ſhall proceed to giue iudgement without delay. And to begin to do remedy vpon this ordinance: It is aſſented, that a commiſſion and a power ſhall be granted to the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, the Earles of Arundel and Huntington, the Lord of Wake, and the Lord Ralfe Baſſet, to endure till the next Parliament. And though the miniſters haue made an oath before this time, yet neuertheleſſe to remember them of the ſame oath: It is aſſented, that as well the Chancellor, Treaſurer, Keeper of the Priuie ſeale, the Iuſtices of the one Bench & of the other, the Chancellor, Barons of the Eſchequer, as the Iuſtices aſſigned, and all they that doe meddle in the ſaid places vnder them, by the aduiſe of the ſame Archbiſhop, Earles, and Barons, ſhall make an oath well & lawfully to ſerue the King and his people. And by the aduice of the ſaid Prelates, Earles and Barons, be it ordained to encreaſe the number of the miniſters when need ſhall be, and them to diminiſh in the ſame maner. And ſo frõ time to time when officers ſhall be newly put in the ſaid offices, they ſhall be ſworne in the ſame maner. St.27.El.8. Regiſt.fo.17. Raſt.pla.fo.284.

Hundreds and Wapentakes let to ferme. St.4.Ed.3.15. Regiſt.fo.178.

ITem, whereas many miſchiefes be happened through the realme, for that the Sheriffes haue let the Hundreds & Wapentakes to an higher ferme, then they yéeld to the King, & the fermors doe let the ſame to other at more higher and greater ſummes, in ſuch maner that by the high letting and enhanſing of the fermes, and by the great number of Bailiffes errants, out riders, and other whom the Sheriffes, Bailiffes, and Hundreders doe put in, the people be in diuers maners charged and grieued: It is aſſented and accorded, that from henceforth all the Wapentakes and Hundreds which be ſeuered from the Counties, ſhall be reioined to the ſame counties, as before this time hath béene ſtabliſhed by another ſtatute. And that the Sheriffes hold the ſame in their owne hands, and put in ſuch Bailiffes and Hundreders, hauing lands within the Bailiwicks and Hundreds for whom they will anſwere. And if they will let any Hundreds, Bailiwicks or Wapentakes to ferme, they ſhall let the ſame at the ancient ferme without any thing encreaſing. And that the King and his people be ſerued by ſuch Bailiffes and Hundreders and their Vnderbailiffes, in auoiding for euer the outriders, and other which in diuers counties before time haue notoriouſly grieued the people. And that no Bailiffe errant be but in the Counties, where Bailiffes errants haue béene in times paſt, in the time of the Kings grandfather that now is. ITem, becauſe of the temporalties being in our hands or in the hands of our Anceſtors by reaſon of Archbiſhopricks,Biſhopricks,or other Prelacies voide,& alſo becauſe of other Lands, tenements,fées & aduouſons being in our hands & in the hands of our Anceſtors, by nonage of heires, it hath béene vſed before this time, the exception of plenartie ſhould hold no place againſt vs, nor againſt any of our Anceſtors,no more in caſe where ſuch preſentments ſhould be deuolute to vs in anothers right, then if they had béene in our owne right,or in the right of our Crowne,whereby many perſons and Prebendaries were put out of their Churches, Prebends and Benefices, which they had long time holden, to their great miſchiefe and impoueriſhment : We will and grant for vs, and for our heires, to void ſuch miſchiefes, that from henceforth,we nor our heires ſhall not make collation, or preſentment to any Church,Prebend, Chappell,or other Benefice, by the occaſion of ſuch auoidances of Prelacies, or of the Lands of Infants within age, or of others come or to come into our hands, or in the hands of our heires, if we or our heires doe not make our collations or preſentments within thrée yeares after that ſuch Benefices doe ſo indéed become voide. And that of ſuch Churches and other Benefices, of which Clerkes be in poſſeſſion,and haue had poſſeſſion by a yeare before the making of this Statute,we nor our heires ſhall haue none action nor reaſon to preſent to ſuch Benefices ſo full. And we will not that any man be holden to anſwer to any writ of Quare impedit taken in our name in ſuch caſe,if the collation or preſentment be not made within thrée yeares after the voidance as afore is ſaid. And of ſuch voidances taken in the time of our Anceſtors, no collation nor preſentment ſhall be from henceforth made by vs nor by our heires, but to take any action of ſuch voydances wée will be wholly and quietly forecloſed.

The King ſhall not preſent in anothers right but within 3. yeares after the auoydance. Rep.25.Ed.3.2.

Cap. III.

No Biſhops temporalties ſhall be ſeiſed without good cauſe.

ITem,we will and grant for vs and for our heires,that from henceforth we nor our heires ſhall not take, nor cauſe to be taken into our hands the temporalties of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Abbots, Priors,or other people of holy Church of what eſtate or condition they be, without a true & iuſt cauſe, according to the Law of the Land, and iudgement thereupon giuen. kept the ſaid voidances,without doing waſte or deſtruction in the Manors, Warrens,Parkes, Ponds or Woods. And that they ſell no vnderwood, nor hunt in the Parkes or Warrens, nor fiſh in Ponds, nor free fiſhings, nor ſhall racke nor take fines of the tenants free nor bound: but ſhall keepe and ſaue as much as pertaineth to the ſaid voidances without doing harme or any manner of oppreſſion. And if the Deane and Chapter of Churches Cathedrall, Priors,Subpriors, Prioreſſes,Subprioreſſes,and couents of Prelacies, Abbies, or Priories, whoſe voydance pertaineth to vs and our heires, will render to vs and our heires the value of the ſaid voydance, as other will reaſonably yeeld, then the Chancellor and Treaſurer ſhall haue power to let the ſaid Deane and Chapter,Prior or Subprior,Prioreſſe or Subprioreſſe, and Couent, the ſaid voydances by good and ſufficient ſurety, ſo that they ſhall haue the ſame before all other, yeelding to vs the value of them,according as ſhall be found by remembrances of the Eſchequer or by enqueſt to be taken vpon the ſame if need be,without making fine. And in caſe they will not accord to yeeld to the value, nor finde ſuch ſurety, then the Chancellor and Treaſurer ſhall cauſe to be ordained the good preſeruation of ſuch voidances, by Eſcheators or other ſufficient keepers, to anſwere the King of that to him pertaineth reaſonably, without doing waſte or deſtruction,or other thing which may turne in diſheriſon of the Churches, whereof ſuch voidances ſhall happen.

The Deane & Chapter may take them in farme if they will.

Cap. V.

Who ſhall demiſe Biſhops temporalties during the time of vacation.

Who ſhall let to farme the Temporalties of Biſhops to the Kings vſe.

Item, wholly to ſhew the affection and good will, which we haue, that that pertaineth to God and to holy Church be ſafely kept without waſte or deſtruction, or impeachment to be made thereof by vs or our Miniſters, We will and by theſe preſent letters doe grant full power to our ſaid Chancellor and Treaſurer,which taking to them other of our Counſell,ſuch as to them ſhal ſeeme beſt to be taken, by good information of remembrances of the Eſchequer, and other informations as to them ſhall ſeeme beſt,ſhall let the vacations of Archbiſhoprickes,Biſhopricks, Abbacies, Priories,and other houſes,whoſe voidances pertaineth to vs, to the Deane and Chapter, Prior or Subprior, Prioreſſe or Subprioreſſe and Couent,to yeeld a certaine of euery voydance by the yeare, quarter or moneth, during the vacations, according as to them ſhall ſeeme beſt,without making any fine. So that no Eſchetor nor other Miniſter in the time of vacations ſhall haue cauſe to enter,or meddle to doe any thing,which ſhall be in preiudice of the Churches, whereof ſuch voidances ſhall happen. Sauing to vs and to our heires the Knights fees, aduouſons of Churches, Eſcheates, Wards, Marriages, relieues and ſeruices of the ſaid fees. In witneſſe whereof we haue made theſe our Letters Patents, dated at Weſtminſter the xvj. of Aprill the xiiij.yeare of our Reigne of England, and the firſt of France.

Anno 14.Edw.3.& An.D.1340. By a Statute it was ordained that the Realme of England and the people thereof ſhall not be ſubiect to the King or Kingdome of France.

Edward by the grace of God King of England and France, and Lord of Ireland, to all thoſe which theſe Letters ſhall heare or ſee, greeting. Know yee that whereas ſome people doe thinke, that by the reaſon that the Realme of France is deuolued to vs as right heire of the ſame,and for as much as we be King of France,our Realme of England ſhould be put in ſubiection of the King and of the Realme of France in time to come: we hauing regard to the eſtate of our Realme of England, and namely, that it neuer was, nor ought to be in ſubiection nor in the obeiſance of the Kings of France, which for the time haue beene, nor of the Realme of France. And willing to prouide for the ſurety and defence of the Realme of England,and of our liege people of the ſame: will and grant and ſtabliſh for vs and for our heires and ſucceſſors,by aſſent of Prelates, Earles,Barons, and Commons of our Realme of England, in this our preſent Parliament ſummoned at Weſtminſter,the Wedneſday next after the Sunday in Middle Lent, the xiiij.yeare of our ſaid Reigne of our Realme of England, and the firſt of France,that by the cauſe or colour of that that we be King of France, and that the ſaid Realme to vs pertaineth, as afore is ſaid, or that we cauſe vs to be named King of France in our ſtile, or that wee haue changed our Seale or our Armes, nor for the commandements, which we haue made, or from henceforth ſhall make as King of France,our ſaid Realme of England, nor the people of the ſame, of what eſtate or condition they be, ſhall not in any time to come be put in ſubiection nor in obeyſance of vs nor of our heires, nor ſucceſſors as Kings of France, as afore is ſaid, nor be ſubiect nor obedient, but ſhall be free and quite of all manner ſubiection and obeyſance aforeſaid, as they were wont to be in the time of our progenitors Kings of England for euer. In witneſſe of which things, &c, Dated at Weſtminſter,&c.the xiiij. yeere of our raigne of England and the firſt of France.

The Realme of England and the people thereof ſhall not be ſubiect or obedient to the King or Kingdom of France.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter Anno 15. Ed.3. An.D.1341.

OVr Lord King Edward the third after the Conqueſt, at his Parliament holdē at Weſtminſter at the fifteenth of Eaſter, deſiring that the peace of the Land, and the Lawes and Statutes before this time ordained, be maintained and kept in all points, to the honour of God and of holy Church, and the common profit of his people, by aſſent of the Prelates, Earles, Barons, and other great men, and of all the Commonaltie of the Realme of England ſummoned to the ſaid Parliament hath ordained & ſtabliſhed in the ſame Parliament the Articles vnderwritten, which he will and grant for him & his heires, that they be firmely kept and holden for euer.

Cap. VI.

Miniſters of the Church ſhall not anſwere before the Kings Iuſtices, for things done touching the iuriſdiction of the Church. Rep. 15. Edw. 3.

By another Statute made alſo, Anno 15. Edw. 3. The laſt mentioned Statute of Anno. 15. Edw. 3. was repealed becauſe it was made without the Kings conſent.

EDward by the grace of God, &c. to the Sheriffe of Lincolne greeting. Whereas at our Parliament ſummoned at Weſtminſter in the fifteenth of Eaſter laſt paſt, certaine Articles expreſly contrary to the Lawes & cuſtomes of our Realme of England, and to our prerogatiues and rights royall were pretended to be granted by vs by the maner of a Statute, we conſidering how that by the bond of our oath, we be tied to the obſeruance and defence of ſuch Lawes, Cuſtomes, Rights, and prerogatiues, and prouidently willing to reuoke ſuch things to their owne ſtate, which be ſo improuidently done, vpon conference, and treatiſe thereupon had with the Earles, Barons and other wiſe men of our ſaid Realme, and becauſe we neuer conſented to the making of the Statute, but as then it behoued vs, we diſſimuled in the premiſſes by proteſtations of reuocation of the ſaid Statute, if indeed it ſhould proceed, to eſchew the dangers which by the denying of the ſame we feared to come, for as much as the ſaid Parliament otherwiſe had beene without diſpatching any thing in diſcord diſſolued, and ſo our earneſt buſineſſe had likely beene ruinated, which God prohibite. And the ſaid pretenſed Statute we promiſed then to be ſealed. It ſeemed to the ſaid Earles, Barons, and other wiſe men, that ſithence the Statute did not of our freewill proceede, the ſame be voide, and ought not to haue the name nor ſtrength of a Statute, And therefore by their counſell and aſſent we haue decreed the ſaid Statute to be void, and the ſame in as much as it proceeded of deede, we haue agreed to be adnulled, willing neuertheleſſe that the articles contained in the ſaid pretenſed Statute, which by other of our Statutes, or of our progenitors Kings of England, haue beene approued, ſhall according to the forme of the ſaid Statute in euery point as conuenient is, be obſerued. And the ſame we doe onely to the conſeruation and reintegration of the rights of our Crowne, as we be bound, and not that we ſhould in any wiſe grieue or oppreſſe our ſubiects, whom we deſire to rule by lenity and gentleneſſe.

Cap. VI.

Temporall Iuſtices ſhall not inquire of Proceſſe awarded by Spirituall Iudges.

ITem, whereas Commiſſions be newly made to diuers Iuſtices, that they ſhall make inquiries vpon Iudges of holy Church, whether they made iuſt proceſſe or exceſſiue in cauſes teſtamentorie and other, which notoriouſly pertaineth to the cogniſance of holy Church, the ſaid Iuſtices haue inquired and cauſed to be indicted Iudges of holy Church, in blemiſhing of the Franchiſe of holy Church: that ſuch Commiſſions be repealed, and from henceforth defended. Sauing the Article in Eyre, ſuch as ought to be.

There ſhall be no more Commiſſions granted to Iuſtices to inquire of Spirituall Iudges.

CAP. VII.

No Scire facias ſhall be awarded againſt a Clerke for Tithes.

No Scire facias ſhal be awarded to warne a clerke to anſwer for his tithes.

ITem, whereas Writs of Scire facias, haue beene granted, to warne Prelates, Religious and other Clerkes to anſwere diſmes in our Chancery, and to ſhew if they haue any thing, or can any thing ſay, wherefore ſuch diſmes ought not to be reſtored to the ſaid demandants, and to anſwer as well to vs, as to the partie to ſuch diſmes: that ſuch writs from henceforth bee not granted, and that the proceſſe hanging vpon ſuch writs bee adnulled and repealed, and that the parties be diſmiſſed from the Secular Iudges of ſuch maner of pleas. Sauing to vs our right ſuch as we and our anceſtors haue had, and were wont to haue of reaſon. The penalty of an offendor.

YE ſhall ſweare, that well and lawfully ye ſhall ſerue our Lord the King, and his people in the Office of Iuſtice, and that lawfully ye ſhall counſell the King in his buſineſſe, and that ye ſhall not counſell, nor aſſent to any thing, which may turne him in damage or diſheriſon by any manner way or colour. And that ye ſhall not know the damage or diſheriſon of him, whereof ye ſhall not cauſe him to be warned by your ſelfe, or by other, And that ye ſhall do equall Law, and execution of right to all his Subiects, rich and poore, without hauing regard to any perſon. And that ye take not by your ſelfe or by other, priuily nor apertly, gift nor reward of gold nor ſiluer, nor of any other thing, which may turne to your profit, vnleſſe it be meate or drinke, and that of ſmall value of any man that ſhall haue any plea or proceſſe hanging before you, as long as the ſame proceſſe ſhall ſo be hanging, nor after for the ſame cauſe. And that yee take no fee, as long as ye ſhall be Iuſtice, nor robes of any man great or ſmall, but of the King himſelfe. And that ye giue none aduiſe nor counſell to no man great nor ſmall, in no caſe where the King is partie. And in caſe that any of what eſtate or condition they be, come before you in your Seſſions with force and armes, or otherwiſe againſt the peace, or againſt the forme of the Statute thereof made, to diſturbe execution of the common Law, or to menace the people, that they may not purſue the Law, that ye ſhall cauſe their bodies to be arreſted and put in priſon. And in caſe they be ſuch, that ye cannot arreſt them, that ye certifie the King of their names, and of their miſpriſion haſtily, ſo that he may thereof ordaine a conuenable remedie. And that ye by your ſelfe nor by other, priuily nor apertly, maintaine any plea or quarrell hanging in the Kings Court, or elſewhere in the Country. And that ye deny to no man common right, by the Kings letters, nor none other mans, nor for none other cauſe, and in caſe any letters come to you, contrarie to the Law, that ye doe nothing by ſuch letters, but certifie the King thereof, and proceed to execute the Law, notwithſtanding the ſame letters. And that ye ſhall doe and procure the profit of the King and of his Crowne, with all things where ye may reaſonably doe the ſame. And in caſe yee be from henceforth found in default in any of the points aforeſaid, ye ſhal be at the Kings will of body, lands and goods, thereof to be done as ſhall pleaſe him, as God you helpe and all Saints.

Oath. Clerkes of the Chancerie.

YE ſhall ſweare that well and lawfully ye ſhall ſerue our Lord the King, and his people, in the Office of Clerke of the Chancerie, to which yee bee attitled: And ye ſhall not aſſent nor procure the Kings diſheriſon, nor perpetuall damage to your power: Nor ye ſhall doe nor procure to be done, any fraud to any mans wrong, nor thing that toucheth the keeping of the ſeale, and ye ſhall lawfully giue counſell in the things that toucheth the King, when ye ſhall be thereto required, and the counſell which you know touching him, yee ſhall conceale. And if you know the Kings diſheriſon or perpetuall damage or fraud to be done vpon the things which touch the keeping of the Seale, ye ſhall put your lawfull power to redreſſe and amend it: And if ye cannot doe it, then ye ſhall certifie the Chancellor, or other, which may doe the ſame to be amended to your intent.

Clerkes of the Courſe.

And for the Clerkes of courſe ſhall be added. And ye ſhall not bring, nor to your knowledge ſuffer to be brought any writs which ye make out of the Court not ſealed thereof to doe execution: nor ſhall record any Attourney by Writs nor without Writs without eſpeciall Licence, if ye haue not lawfully examined the partie, and the Attourney in proper perſon, or at the leaſt, him that ſhall make Attourney in proper perſon, nor ye ſhall deliuer any Writ which ſhall be of commandement to the examinors, nor to the ſeale, before that the ſame writ be ſent to you by the commander, which thereof hath power, vnleſſe it be to the Chancellor, or to one of the Maſters, which commandeth you to make the Writs. And all the Writs that ye ſhall make, ye ſhall deliuer to the examiners by your owne hand, or by one companion which is ſworne to the King, if ye your ſelfe be out of the Court, becauſe of ſicknes, or other cauſe neceſſary, ſo that ye cannot doe it, And no writ written of an other mans hand ſhall be deliuered to the examiners, vnder your name, as yours, nor no name ſhall ye put vnder your Writs, but your owne, as god you helpe and all Saints.

Statutes made at Weſtm. 7. Maij, Anno 20. Ed. 3.

EDVVARD by the grace of God, &c. to the Sheriffe of Stafford, greeting. Becauſe that by diuers complaints made to vs; We haue perceiued that the Law of the Land, which we by our oath be bound to mainteyne, is the leſſe well kept, and the execution of the ſame diſturbed many times by maintenance and procurement, as well in the Court, as in the Countrie: We greatly moued of conſcience in this matter, and for this cauſe deſiring as much for the pleaſure of God & eaſe and quietneſſe of our Subiects, as to ſaue our conſcience, and for to ſaue and keepe our ſaid Oath, by the aſſent of the great men, & other wiſe men of our Counſell: We haue ordeyned theſe things following.

CAP. I.

The Iuſtices of both Benches, aſſiſe &c. ſhall do right to all men, take no fee but of the King, nor giue counſell where the King is partie.

FIrſt we haue commanded all our Iuſtices, that they ſhall from henceforth doe equall Law and execution of right to all our ſubiects rich and poore, without hauing regard to any perſon, and without omiting to doe right for any letters or commandement, which may come to them from vs, or from any other, or by any other cauſe. And if that any Letters, Writs, or Commandements, come to the Iuſtices, or to other deputed to doe Law and right, according to the Vſage of the Realme, in diſturbance of the Law, or of the execution of the ſame, or of right to the parties, the Iuſtices and other aforeſaid ſhall proceed and hold their Courts and proceſſes where the pleas and matters be depending before them, as if no ſuch Letters, Writs, or Commandements were come to them: And they ſhall certifie Vs and our Counſell of ſuch Commandements, which be contrarie to the Law, as afore is ſaid. And to the intent that our Iuſtices ſhould doe euen right to al people, in the maner aforeſaid, without more fauour ſhewing to one then to an other, we haue ordeyned and cauſed our ſaid Iuſtices to be ſworne, that they ſhall not from henceforth, as long as they ſhal be in office of Iuſtice, take fee nor robe of any man, but of our ſelfe, and that they ſhal take no gift nor reward by themſelues nor by other priuily nor apertly of any man that hath to doe before them by any way, except meat and drinke, and that of ſmall value, and that they ſhall giue no counſell to great man or ſmall, in caſe where we be partie, or which doe or may touch vs in any point, vpon paine to be at our wil, body, lands, and goods, to doe thereof as ſhall pleaſe vs, in caſe they doe contrary. And for this cauſe we haue increaſed the fees of the ſame our Iuſtices, in ſuch manner that it ought reaſonably to ſuffice them. Stat. 2. Edward. 3 8. Stat. 11. R. 2. 10. *R*egiſt. fo. 186.

A Statute made Anno 25. Ed. 3. & Anno Domini 1350. of thoſe that be borne beyond Sea.

In what place baſtardie pleaded againſt him that is borne out of the Realme ſhall be tryed.

Our Lord the King at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, at the vtas of the Purification of our Lady, the yéere of his reigne of England the fiue and twentieth, and of France the twelfth, conſidering the great miſchiefes and dammages, which haue happened to the people of his Realme of England, as well becauſe that the Statutes ordeyned before this time, haue not béene holden and kept as they ought to be: as becauſe of the mortall peſtilence that late reigned: and willing to prouide for the quietneſſe and common profit of his ſaid people conuenient remedie therefore, by the aſſent of the Prelates, Earles, barons, and other great men, and all the Commons of his ſaid Realme, ſummoned to the Parliament, hath ordeyned and eſtabliſhed the things vnderwritten, videlicet, becauſe that ſome people be in doubt, if the children borne in the parts beyond the Sea, out of the liegeance of England, ſhould be able to demand any inheritance within the ſame liegeance or not, whereof a Petition was put in the Parliament late holden at Weſtminſter, the ſeuentéenth yéers of the reigne of our Lord the King that now is, and was not at the ſame time wholly aſſented: Our Lord the king, willing that all doubts and ambiguities ſhould be put away, and the Law in this caſe declared and put in a certainty, hath charged the ſaid Prelates, Earles, barons, and other wiſe men of his Counſell, aſſembled in this Parliament, to deliberate vpon this point: all which of one aſſent haue ſaid, that the Law of the Crowne of England is, and alwaies hath béene ſuch, that the children of the Kings of England, in whatſoeuer parts they be borne, in England or elſewhere, be able and ought to beare the inheritance after the death of their anceſtors: which Law our ſaid Lord the king, the ſaid Prelates, Earles, barons, and other great men, and all the Commons aſſembled in this Parliament, doe approue and affirme for euer. And in the right of other children borne out of the liegeance of England, in the time of our Lord the king, they be of one minde accorded, that Henry ſonne of Iohn de Beaumond, Elizabeth daughter of Guy de Bryan, and Gyles ſonne of Ralph Dawbeny, and other which the king will name, which were borne beyond the Sea, out of the Liegeance of England, ſhall be from henceforth able to haue and enioy their Inheritance after the death of their

A Statute for the Clergy made Anno 25. Ed.3 & Anno Dom. 1350.

OVr Lord the King, ſeeing and examining by good deliberation the Petitions and Articles deliuered to him in his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the feaſt of Saint Hillary, the yeare of his raigne of England the fiue and twentieth, & of France the twelfth, by the honourable Father in God, Simon Archbiſhop of Canterburie, and other Biſhops of his Prouince, vpon and for certaine grieuances, which they alledged to be done to holy Church, and to the Clergie, againſt the priuiledges of holy Church, and then they prayed, that a conuenable remedy might be thereof ordeined to the reuerence of God, and of holy Church: by the aſſent of his Parliament, for him and his heires, willeth and granteth the points vnderwritten.

CAP. I.

All Priuiledges granted to the Clergie confirmed. The King nor his Heires ſhall preſent to a Benefice of an others right of any time of his Progenitors.

FIrſt, that all the Priuiledges and Franchiſes granted heretofore to the ſaid Clergie bee confirmed and holden in all points. And as touching preſentments to be made by our Lord the King, or any of his Heires, to a Benefice of holy Church, in an others right by old title: our ſaid Lord the King, to the honour of God, and holy Church, willeth and granteth, of the aſſent of the ſaid Parliament, that from henceforth he nor any of his heires ſhall not take title to preſent to any Benefice in an others right of any time of his Progenitors. Nor that any Prelate of his Realme be bound to receiue any ſuch preſentment to be made, nor to doe thereof any execution, nor that any Iuſtice of the one place, or the other, may not nor ought not to hold plea, or giue iudgement vpon any ſuch preſentment to be made. But that the ſaid King, and his heires be for euer hereafter clearely barred of all ſuch preſentments, Sauing alwaies to him and his heires all ſuch preſentments in an others right, fallen or to fall of all his time, and of the time to come.

The King nor his heires ſhall not preſent to a Benefice of an others right of any time of his progenitors.

A repeale of the Stat. of Anno 14. of Ed.3.2 touching the Kings preſentment to a Church of an others right.

AND becauſe in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the fourteenth yeere of the raigne of our Lord the King that now is, amongſt other things then granted to the Prelates of holy Church, It was ordeyned that the King ſhould not take title to preſent to any benefice in an others right, but of the voydances, which ſhall happen of ſuch benefices within three yeeres next before his preſentment, which thing ſeemeth very preiudicall to the King and his heires: It is accorded in this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid Ordinances, as to this point ſhall be holden for none. But neuertheleſſe, that all the other Articles conteyned in the ſaid Ordinance and grant then made to holy Church, ſhall ſtand in their force.

ces, againſt GOD and good faith, and in depreſſion of them which had good and true title to the ſaid benefices: now the King will and granteth, that at what time he ſhall make collation or preſentment from henceforth to any benefice in an others right, that the title whereupon he groundeth himſelfe ſhall be well examined, that it be true. And at what time before iudgement the title be found by good information vntrue or vniuſt, the collation or preſentment thereof made, ſhalbe repealed. ITem, whereas the ſaid Prelates haue grieuouſly complained, praying thereof remedy, for that Secular Clerkes aſwell Chapleines, as other Monkes, and other people of Religion, haue beene drawne and hanged by award of the Secular Iuſtices, in preiudice of the Franchiſes of holy Church, and in oppreſſion of the Iuriſdiction thereof: It is accorded and granted by the ſaid King in his Parliament, that all manner Clerkes, as well ſecular as Religious, which ſhall be from henceforth conuict before the ſecular Iuſtices aforeſaid, for any treaſons or felonies touching other perſons then the king himſelfe, or his royall maieſty, ſhall frō henceforth freely haue and enioy the priuiledge of holy Church, and ſhall be without any impeachment or delay deliuered to the Ordinaries demaunding them. And for this grant the ſaid Archbiſhoppe promiſeth to our Lord the King, that vpon the puniſhment and ſafekeeping of ſuch Clerkes offendors, which ſo ſhall be deliuered to the Ordinaries, hee ſhall thereof make a conuenient ordinance, whereby they ſhall be ſafely kept and duly puniſhed, ſo that no Clerke ſhall take courage to offend for default of correction.

ITem, although that Clerkes arraigned of felony before Secular Iuſtices, which challenged their Clergie, and were demanded by the Ordinary of the place, haue beene often before this time remaunded to the Goale by the ſaid Iuſtices ſurmiſing to them, that other things be to be ſaid againſt them, neuertheleſſe becauſe the Common Law is, that a Clerke in ſuch caſe ought not to be remaunded to the Goale, but ought to be preſently arraigned of all, or otherwiſe deliuered to the Ordinary: It is accorded, that this point be kept by all manner of Iuſtices and Iudges Secular throughout our Realme.

A Biſhops temporalties ſhall not be ſeiſed for a contempt. St.1.Ed.3.2. St.14.Ed.3.3.

ITem, becauſe the Temporalties of Archbiſhops, and Biſhops haue beene oftentimes taken into the Kings hands for contempts done to him vpon Writs of Quare non admiſit, and likewiſe for diuers other cauſes, whereof the ſaid Prelates, haue praied the King, that no ſuch taking ſhall from henceforth be made, ſith they be Peeres of the land: The King will and granteth in the ſame Parliament, that all the Iuſtices, which from henceforth ſhall giue iudgement againſt any Prelate of the Land in ſuch caſe or the like, that they in ſuch caſe may freely receiue, & from henceforth ſhall receiue for the contempt ſo iudged, a reaſonable fine of the partie ſo condemned, according to the quantitie of the treſpaſſe, and after the quality of the contempt, incontinently at the time of the iudgement, if the partie offer the ſame, or otherwiſe after the iudgement, at what time the partie will offer himſelfe. And if it neede, the Chancellor and the treaſorer, ſhall be called to the receit of the ſaid fines. Regiſt. fol.32.

CAP. VII.

The Ordinarie may counterpleade the Kings title for a Benefice fallen by Lapſe.

ITem, becauſe that many preſentments to diuers Benefices of holy Church, as well of the patronage of lay people, as of people of holy Church, which were void by ſixe months, whereof the collation of ſuch Benefices by lapſe of time was deuolute, and of right perteyning to the Ordinaries of the places, were recouered by the King by iudgements thereof giuen of the aſſent of the ſaid Patrons, in diſceipt of the ſaid collations ſo made reaſonably by the ſaid Ordinaries: in which pleas the Ordinaries, nor their Clerkes, to whom they did giue ſuch Benefices, were not receiued to ſhew nor defend their right in this behalfe, nor to counterplede the Kings right ſo claimed, which is not reaſonable: wherefore the King, by the aſſent of the ſaid Parliament, will and graunteth for him and his heyres, that when Archbiſhoppes, Biſhoppes, or other

Ordinaries haue giuen a benefice of right deuolute to him by laps of time, and after the King preſenteth and taketh the ſuit againſt the patron, which percaſe will ſuffer that the King ſhall recouer without action tried in deceipt of the Ordinary, or the poſſeſſor of the ſaid Benefices, that in ſuch caſe, and all other caſes like, where the Kings right is not tried, the Archbiſhop, or Biſhop, Ordinary or Poſſeſſor, ſhall be receiued to counterpleade the title taken for the King, and to haue his anſwer, and to ſhew and defend his right vpon the matter, although that he claime nothing in the Patronage in the caſe aforeſaid.

ITem, whereas the ſaid Prelates haue ſhewed and prayed remedy, for that the Secular Iuſtices doe accroche to them coniſance of voidance of benefices of right, which Cogniſance and the diſcuſſing thereof pertaineth to the Iudges of holy Church, and not to the Lay Iudge: the King will and granteth, that the ſaid Iuſtices ſhall from henceforth receiue ſuch challenges made or to be made by any Prelate of holy Church in this behalfe, and moreouer thereof ſhall doe right and reaſon.

Coniſance of voidance of benefices belongs to the Eccleſiaſticall Iudge.

Cap. IX.

Indictments of Ordinaries for extortion ſhall be put in certaintie.

ITem, becauſe that the Kings Iuſtices doe take endictments of Ordinaries, and of their miniſters of extortions and oppreſſions, and impeach them without putting in certaine, wherein, or whereof, or in what manner they haue done extortion: The King will, that his Iuſtices ſhall not from henceforth impeach the Ordinaries, nor their miniſters, becauſe of ſuch indictments of generall extortions or oppreſſions, vnleſſe they ſay and put in certaine, in what thing and of what, and in what manner the ſaid Ordinaries or their miniſters haue done extortions or oppreſſions. By the Kings protection the parties ſuite ſhall not be hindered, but his execution.

By the Kings protection the parties ſuite ſhall not be hindered, but his execution.

ITem, for as much as our Lord the King hath made before this time protections to diuers people, which were bounden to him in ſome manner of Debt, that they ſhould not bee impleaded of the debts which they owed to other, till they had made grée to our Lord the King, of that which to him was due by them, by reaſon of his prerogatiue, and ſo during ſuch protections, no man hath vſed, nor durſt impleade ſuch debtors: It is accorded and aſſented, that notwithſtanding ſuch protections, the parties which haue actions againſt their debtors, ſhall bee anſwered in the Kings Court by their debtors. And if iudgement bee thereupon giuen for the plaintife or demaundant, the execution of the ſame iudgement ſhalbe put in ſuſpence till grée be made to the King of his debt. And if the creditors will undertake for the Kings debt, they ſhall be thereunto receiued, and ſhall haue execution againſt the debtors of the debt due and adiudged to them, and alſo ſhall recouer againſt them as much as they ſhall pay to the King for them. Cap. XXI.

The Kings butler ſhall puruey no more wine then ſhalbe appointed.

ITem, whereas before this time the Kings Butlers and their Deputies were wont to take, and dayly doe take much more Wine, by colour of their Office, to the Kings vſe, then they ſhall néede, whereof the worſt they deliuer to the Kings vſe, and the beſt in great number they retaine to themſelues, to ſell and make thereof their profit: and ſometime they releaſe to Marchants that which they haue taken of them, for Fines and Gifts, which they take of the ſame Marchants by extortion, to the great dammage and impoueriſhment of the ſaid Marchants: It is accorded, That the Steward of the Kings houſe, and treaſurer of the Wardrobe, ſhall ſend to all the Ports of England, where Wines be to be taken to the Kings vſe, the certaine number, which the Butler ſhall take in euery Port, ſo that nothing be taken ouer this number. And that the Maior and Baylifes of the ſaid Ports certifie the ſaid Steward and Treaſurer of the number of all the Tunnes ſo taken by the Butler, or his Lieutenant vnder the ſeale of the ſaid Maior and Baylifes, by Indentures made betwixt them and the takers of the ſaid Wines. And in caſe that it be found, that the Butler or his Lieutenant take more, or take reward of any, or delay any by colour of his Office, as by arreſt, he ſhall make grée to the partie of the double, and ſhall be put out of his office, and haue impriſonment, and be raunſomed at the Kings will. And the King ſhall aſſigne his Iuſtices, when ſhall pleaſe him, to enquire vpon theſe things. And the Butler ſhall anſwer as well for his deputies, as for him ſelfe, where they be not ſufficient. The debt of a Lombard vnpaid, ſhalbe ſatisfied by his company. Ob.

The Statute of Prouiſors of Benefices, made anno 25. Ed.3. and Anno Dom.1350.

The King and other Lords ſhal preſent vnto Benefices of their owne, or their anceſtors foundation, and not the Biſhop of Rome.

VVHereas late in the Parliament of good memory of Edward King of England, grandfather to our Lord the King that now is, the fiue and thirtieth yeare of his reigne, holden at Carlile, the petition heard, put before the ſaid grandfather and his Counſell in his ſaid Parliament by the Comminaltie of the ſaid Realme conteining: That whereas the holy Church of England was founded in the eſtate of Prelacie within the Realm of England by the ſaid grandfather and his progenitors, and the Earles, Barons, and other Nobles of his ſaid Realme & their anceſtors, to inform them and the people of the law of God, and to make hoſpitalities, almes, & other works of charity in the places where the Churches were founded, for the ſoules of the founders, their heires, & all chriſtians, & certain poſſeſſions aſwel in fées, lands, rents, as in aduouſons which do extend to a great valure, were aſſigned by the ſaid founders to the prelates & other people of the holy Church of the ſaid realm, to ſuſtaine the ſame charge, And eſpecially of the poſſeſſions which were aſſigned to Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Abbots, priors, religious & all other people of holy church, by the kings of the ſaid realme, earles, barons, & other great men of his realme: the ſame kings, earles, barons, & other nobles, as lords, aduowées, haue had & ought to haue the cuſtody of ſuch voidances and the preſentments and the collations of the benefices being of ſuch prelacies.

St.Carliel an. 35.Ed.1.

The cauſes why the Kings and noble men of the Realme did giue lands to Biſhops and other prelates.

The Pope beſtowed ſpirituall liuings vpon Aliens not dwelling in England.

The inconueniences which did enſue the Popes prouiſions of benefices to Aliens in England.

The pope giueth the benefices of the church, & reſerueth the firſt fruits to himſelfe.

And the ſaid Kings in times paſt were wont to haue the greateſt part of their Councell, for the ſafegard of the Realme when they had néed, of ſuch Prelates, and Clerkes ſo aduaunced: The Biſhop of Rome, accroching to him the Seigniories of ſuch poſſeſſions and Benefices, doth giue and graunt the ſame Benefices to Aliens, which did neuer dwell in England, and to Cardinals, which might not dwell here, and to other as well Aliens as Denizens, as if he had béene Patron, or Aduowée of the ſaid dignities and Benefices, as hee was not of right by the Law of England, whereby if they ſhould bee ſuffered, there ſhould ſcantly bee any Benefice within a ſhort time in the ſaid Realme, but that it ſhould bée in the hands of Aliens and Denizens by vertue of ſuch prouiſions, againſt the góod will and diſpoſition of the Founders of the ſame Benefices. And ſo the elections of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and other religions ſhould faile, and the almes, hoſpitalities, and other works of Charitie, which ſhould be done in the ſaid places, ſhould be withdrawen, the ſaid graundfather and other lay patrons, in the time of ſuch voidances, ſhould loſe their preſentment, the ſaid Counſell ſhould periſh, and góods without number ſhould be carried out of the Realme, in adnullation of the eſtate of the holy Church of England, and diſheriſon of the ſaid graundfather, and the Earles, Barons, and other Nobles of the ſaid Realme, and in offence and deſtruction of the Lawes and rights of his Realme, and againſt the góod diſpoſition and will of the firſt Founders: by the aſſent of the Earles, Barons, and other Nobles, and of all the ſaid Communaltie, at their inſtances and requeſts, the damage and grieuances afore conſidered, in the ſaid full Parliament was ordeined, prouided, eſtabliſhed, agréed, adiudged, and conſidered, that the ſaid oppreſſions, grieuances, and damages in the ſame Realme from henceforth ſhould not be ſuffered in any maner. And now it is ſhewed to our Lord the King in this preſent Parliament holden at Weſtmiſter, at the vtas of the Purification of our Lady, the fiue and twentieth yeare of his reigne of England, and of France the twelft, by the grieuous complaints of all the Commons of his realme, that the grieuances and miſchiefes aforeſaid do daily abound, to the greater damage and deſtruction of all his realm of England, more then euer were before, viz. that now of late the Biſhop of Rome by procurement of Clerkes and otherwiſe, hath reſerued, and doth daily reſerue to his collation generally and eſpecially, as well Archbiſhopricks, Biſhopricks, Abbeyes, and Priories, as all other dignities, and other Benefices of England, which be of the aduoury of people of holy Church, and giue the ſame as well to Aliens as to Denizens, and taketh of all ſuch benefices the firſt fruits, and many other profits, and a great part of the treaſure of the ſaid realme is caried away and diſpended out of the realm, by the purchaſers of ſuch benefices and graces aforeſaid: and alſo by ſuch priuie reſeruations many Clerkes aduanced in this Realme by their true Patrons, which haue peaceably holden their aduancements by long time, be ſuddenly put out: whereupon the ſaid Commons haue praied our ſaid Lord the King, that ſith the right of the crowne of England, and the Law of the ſaid realme is ſuch, that vpon the miſchiefes and damages, which happen to his Realme, he ought and is bound by his oath, with the accord of his people in his Parliament therof to make remedy and law, and in remouing the miſchiefes and damages which thereof enſue, that it may pleaſe him thereupon to ordeine remedy.

The cauſes and reaſons of making this ſtatute.

Elections of the dignities of the church ſhall be free as they were founded.

Patrons and founders of the dignities of the church and their heirs ſhall haue the collation or preſentation to them being void. St. 9. H. 33. 3

Where the Pope maketh prouiſion to a dignitie of the church the K. ſhall preſent. Fitz. N.B. fo. 37. c 169. f.

11. H. 4. fo. 57. 74.

Our Lord the King, ſéeing the miſchiefes and damage before mentioned, and hauing regard to the ſaid Statute, made in the time of his ſaid grandfather, and to the cauſes conteined in the ſame, which Statute holdeth alwaies his force, and was neuer defeated, repealed, nor adnulled in any point, and by ſo much he is bounden by his oath to cauſe the ſame to be kept as the Law of his Realme, though that by ſufferance and negligence it hath béen ſithence attempted to the contrary, alſo hauing regard to the grieuous complaints made to him by his people in diuers his Parliaments holdẽ heretofore, willing to ordeine remedy for the great damages and miſchiefes which haue happened and daily doe happen to the Church of England by the ſaid cauſe: By the aſſent of all the great men and the Communalty of the ſaid realme, to the honour of God and profite of the ſaid Church of England, and of all his realme, hath ordred and ſtabliſhed, that the frée elections of Archbiſhops, Biſhops and all other dignities and benefices electiue in England, ſhall hold from henceforth in the maner as they were granted by the Kings progenitors, and the anceſtors of other lords founders of the ſaid dignities and other benefices. And that all prelats & other people of holy church, which haue aduouſons of any benefices of the Kings gift, or of any of his progenitors, or of other lords & donors, to do diuine ſeruices and other charges thereof ordeined, ſhall haue their collations & preſentments fréely to the ſame in the maner as they were enfeoffed by their donors. And in caſe that reſeruatiõ, collation or prouiſion, be made by the court of Rome of any Archbiſhopricke, Biſhopricke, dignity or other benefice, in diſturbance of the frée elections collations, or preſentations afore named, which at the ſame time of the voidance, that ſuch reſeruations, collations, & prouiſions, ought to take effect, our Lord the King, and his heires ſhall haue and enioy for the ſame time the collations to the Archbiſhoprickes and other dignites electiue, which be of his aduowry, ſuch as his progenitors had before that frée election was granted, ſince that the elections was firſt granted by the K. progenitors vpon a certaine forme and condition, as to demand licence of the K. to chuſe, and after the election to haue his royall aſſent, and not in other maner. Which conditions not kept, the thing ought by reaſon to reſort to his firſt nature.

And if any ſuch reſeruation, prouiſion, or collation bee made of any houſe of Religion of the Kings aduowrie, in diſturbance of free election, our Soueraigne Lord the King and his heires, ſhall haue for that time the collation to giue this dignity to a conuenient perſon. And in caſe that collation, reſeruation, or prouiſion be made by the Court of Rome of any Church, Prebend, or other Benefices, which bee of the aduowrie of people of holy Church, whereof the King is Aduowee paramont immediate, that at the ſame time of the voydance, at which time the collatiō, reſeruation, or prouiſion ought to take effect as afore is ſaid, the king and his heires thereof ſhall haue the preſentment or collation for that time. And ſo from time to time, whenſoeuer ſuch people of holy Church ſhall be diſturbed of their preſentments, or collations by ſuch reſeruations, collations, or prouiſions, as afore is ſaid: ſauing to them the right of their Aduouſons and their preſentments, when no collation or prouiſion of the court of Rome is thereof made, where that the ſaid people of holy Church ſhall or will to the ſame Benefices preſent or make collation. And that their Preſentees may enioy the effect of their collations or preſentments. And in the ſame manner euery other Lord, of what condition that he be, ſhall haue the collations or preſentments to the houſes of Religion, which be of his Aduowry and other benefices of holy Church, which bee pertaining to the ſame houſes. And if ſuch aduowees doe not preſent to ſuch Benefices within the halfe yeare after ſuch voidances, nor the Biſhop of the place doe not giue the ſame by laps of time within a moneth after halfe a yere: that then the King ſhall haue thereof the preſentments and collations, as he hath of other of his owne aduowrie. And in caſe that the Preſentees of the King, or the Preſentees of other Patrons of holy Church, or of their aduowees, or they to whom the King or ſuch Patrons or Aduowees aforeſaid haue giuen Benefices, pertaining to their preſentments or collations, be diſturbed by ſuch prouiſors, ſo that they may not haue poſſeſſion of ſuch benefices, by vertue of the preſentments or collations to them made, or that they which be in poſſeſſion of ſuch Benefices, be impeached vpon their ſaid poſſeſſions, by ſuch prouiſors, then the ſaid prouiſors, their procurators, executors, and notaries ſhall be attached by their body, and brought in to anſwer. And if they be conuict, they ſhall abide in priſon without being let to mainpriſe or baile, or otherwiſe deliuered, till that they haue made fine and ranſome to the king at his will, and gree to the partie that ſhall feele himſelfe grieued. And neuertheleſſe before that they bee deliuered, they ſhall make full renunciation, and finde ſufficient ſuretie, that they ſhall not attempt ſuch things in times to come, nor ſue any Proceſſe by them, nor by other againſt any man in the court of Rome, nor in any part elſewhere, for any ſuch impriſonments, or renunciations, nor any other thing depending of them.

And in ſuch houſes the Colledges and Couents ſhall haue the profits. Sauing alwaies to our Lord the King, and to all other Lords, their old right. And this ſtatute ſhall haue place, as well of Reſeruations, Collations, and Prouiſions made and graunted in times paſt againſt all them which haue not yet obtained corporall poſſeſſion of the Benefices graunted to them by the ſame Reſeruations, Collations, and Prouiſions, as againſt all other in time to come. FIrſt, becauſe it is ſhewed to our Lord the King, by the grieuous and clamorous complaints of the great men and Commons aforeſaid, how that diuers of the people be, and haue béene drawen out of the realme to anſwere of things, whereof the cogniſance perteineth to the Kings Court: and alſo that the iudgements giuen in the ſame Court be impeached in an other Court, in preiudice and diſheriſon of our Lord the King, and of his crowne, and of all the people of his ſaid Realme, and to the vndoing and diſtruction of the common Law of the ſame realme at all times vſed. Where vpon good deliberation had with the great men and other of his ſaid Counſell, it is aſſented and accorded by our Lord the King, and the great men and Commons aforeſaid, that all the people of the Kings liegeance, of what condition that they be, which ſhall draw any out of the realme in plea, whereof the coniſance pertaineth to the Kings Court, or of things whereof iudgements be giuen in the Kings Court: or which doe ſue in any other Court to defeate or impeach the iudgements giuen in the Kings Court, ſhall haue day, containing the ſpace of two moneths, by warning to be made to them in the place were the poſſeſſions be, which be in debate, or otherwiſe, where they haue lands, or other poſſeſſions, by the Sheriffes, or other the Kings Miniſters, to appeare before the King and his Councell, or in his Chancery, or before the Kings Iuſtices in his places of the one Bench or the other, or before other the Kings Iuſtices, which to the ſame ſhall be deputed, to anſwere in their proper perſons to the King of the contempt done in this behalfe. And if they come not at the ſaid day in their proper perſon to be at the Lawe, they, their Procurators, Atturneyes, Executors, Notaries, and Maintainors, ſhall from that day forth be put out of the Kings protection, and their lands, goods, and cattels forfeit to the King, and their bodies whereſoeuer they may be found ſhall be taken and impriſoned, and ranſomed at the Kings will. ITem, becauſe our Lord the King hath often granted charters of pardon of felonies, vpon feined and vntrue ſuggeſtions of diuers people, whereof much euill hath chaunced in times paſt: and for to eſchew ſuch euill, it is accorded and aſſented by our ſaid Lord the King, and all the ſaid counſell, that from henceforth in euery Charter of Pardon of felony, which ſhall be graunted at any mans ſuggeſtion, the ſaide ſuggeſtion, and the name of him that maketh the ſuggeſtion, ſhall be compriſed in the ſame Charter. And if after the ſame ſuggeſtion be found vntrue, the Charter ſhall be diſallowed and holden for none. And the Iuſtices before whom ſuch Charters ſhall be alleadged, ſhall enquire of the ſame ſuggeſtion, and that as well of Charters granted before this time, as of Charters which ſhall be granted in time to come. And if they finde them vntrue, then ſhall they diſallowe the Charters ſo alledged, and ſhall moreouer doe as the Law demaundeth.

The Aulnegers fee for euery Cloth ſold. Clothes ſhalbe ſealed before they be put to ſale. A Subſidie granted to the King of euery Cloth ſold.

The length and breadth of coloured cloth, & Cloth of ray.

ITem, whereas the great men and Commons haue ſhewed to our Lord the King, how diuers Marchants as well Foreines as Denizens, haue withdrawn them, and yet doe withdraw them to come with Clothes into England, to the great damage of the King and of all his people, becauſe that the Kings Aulneger ſurmiſeth to Marchant ſtrangers, that their Clothes be not of aſſiſe, that is to ſay, the coloured Cloth of the length of ſixe and twenty yards meaſured by the creaſt, and of the breadth of ſixe quarters and an half: And the Cloth of ray, of the length of eight and twenty yards meaſured by the liſt, and of the breadth of ſixe quarters, and whereas the ſame haue béene arreſted as forfeite to our Lord the King, they haue prayed our ſaid Lord the King, that it may pleaſe him, to releaſe and put out ſuch forfeitures in eaſe of his people, for a conuenient recompence to be made to him, of the other party: our Lord the King, vpon ſuch condition hearing their ſupplication, hath releaſed and excluded him of all the ſaid forfeitures, and he willeth and granteth for him and for his heires, that there ſhall be no Clothes forfeit, although they be not of the ſame aſſiſe, but the Kings Aulneger ſhall meaſure the Cloth and marke the ſame, by which marke a man may know how much the Cloath containeth. And of as much as the Cloath, which is bought for Cloath of Aſſiſe, ſhal be found leſſe then the Aſſiſe, allowance or abatement ſhall be made to the buyer in the payment, which he ſhall make for the ſame Cloath, after the quantity of the price for which the Cloath was bought. And the Aulneger ſhall take for euery Cloath ſo meaſured, which is of Aſſiſe, that is to ſay, of the ſeller an halfe peny, and of halfe a Cloath a farthing for his office, and no more, nor they ſhall take nothing of the cloathes which be leſſe then of the halfe cloath. And that he nothing meddle of the Aulnage of any Cloath, but onely of Cloathes which be to be ſold. And for ſo much as the ſaid Lords and Commons haue granted to the King a Subſidie of euery Cloath, which is to be ſold, to take of the ſeller ouer the cuſtomes thereof due, that is to ſay, of euery Cloath of the ſaid Aſſize, wherein there is no graine iiij.d. and of euery halfe ſuch cloath.ii.d. and of euery cloath of Aſſize of Scarlet vi.d. and of euery halfe ſuch Cloath.iii.d. and of euery Cloath halfe graine of Aſſize v.d. and of euery halfe ſuch Cloath ii.d.ob. And that euery Cloath paſſing the half Cloath of Aſſize by iii. yards and more, which is no cloath whole of Aſſiſe, and alſo of euery Cloath paſſing the whole Cloath by thrée yards and more, ſhall be taken after the rate of the Subſidy which is to be payed for the whole Cloath of the ſame ſort. So alwayes that of no Cloath, which conteineth not halfe a Cloath, nor of Cloathes which a man maketh to his owne vſe to cloathe him and his meiny, nor of Cloath ſealed, with the Seale of the Collectour of the ſaid Subſidie, of which the ſame Subſidy was once payed by the ſeller, to whoſe hands that ſuch Cloathes ſhall come after to ſell, or in any manner, nothing of the ſaid Subſidy ſhall be payed and demaunded. And that ſuch manner of Cloathes, which be put to ſale before that they be ſealed with the ſaid Seale, ſhall be forfeit to the King, and taken into his hands by the ſaid Collector or Aulneger, or by the Deputy of one of thẽ, or elſe by the Bailiffes of the towne where ſuch vendible Cloathes not ſealed ſhalbe found. The Statute of the Staple made anno 27. Edw. 3. anno Dom. 1353.

EDward by the Grace of God, &c. to our Sheriffes, Mayors, Bailiffes, Miniſters, & other our faithful people, to whom theſe preſent letters ſhal come, greeting. Where as good deliberation had with the Prelates, Dukes, Earles, Barons, and great men of the Counties, that is to ſay, of euery County one for all the County, and of the Commons of Cities and Boroughes of our Realme of England, ſummoned to our great Counſell holden at Weſtminſter the Munday next after the feaſt of Saint Matthew the Apoſtle, the ſeuen and twentieth yeere of our Reigne of England, and of France the fourteenth, for the dammage which hath notoriouſly come as well to vs and to the great men, as to our people of our realme of England, and of our Lands of Wales and Ireland, becauſe that the Staple of Wools, Leather, and Woolfels, of our ſaid Realme and Lands hath beene holden out of our ſaid Realme and Lands. And alſo for the great profits which ſhould come to the ſaid Realme and Lands if the Staple were holden within the ſame and not elſewhere, to the honour of God, and in reliefe of our Realme and lands aforeſaid, and for to eſchew the perils that may happen of the contrary in time to come, by the counſaile and common aſſent of the ſaid Prelates, Dukes, Earles and Barons, Knights, and Commons aforeſaid, we haue ordained and ſtabliſhed the things vnderwritten.

Cap. I.

Where the Staple for England, Wales and Ireland ſhall be kept: whither Merchandiſe of the Staple ſhalbe carried, and what Cuſtome ſhall be paied for them.

At which townes the Staple of wooll, leather, fells and lead for England, Wales & Ireland ſhal be holden.
St. 13. Ed. 3. 1. 14. R. 2. 1.

FIrſt that the Staple of Wools, Leather, Woolfels, and Lead, growing or comming forth within our ſaid Realme and Lands, ſhall be perpetually holden at the places vnderwritten, that is to ſay, for England at Newcaſtle vpon Tine, Yorke, Lincolne, Norwich, Weſtminſter, Canterbury, Ciceſter, Wincheſter, Exceter, and Briſtow. For Wales at Kaermerdyn, and for Ireland at Deuelyn, Waterford, Corke, and Drogheda, and not elſewhere. And that all the ſaid Wools, as well olde as new, Woolfels, Leather and Lead, which ſhall be carried out of the ſaid Realme and land, ſhall be firſt brought to the ſaid Staples, and there the ſaid Wooll and Lead betwixt Merchant and Merchant, or Merchant and others ſhall bee lawfully weighed by the Standard. And that euery Sacke and Sarpler of the ſame Wools ſo weighed, bee ſealed vnder the ſeale of the Mayor of the Staple. And that the Wools ſo weighed and ſealed at the Staple of Yorke, Lincolne, Norwych, Weſtminſter, Canterbury and Wincheſter: and alſo Leather, Woolfels, and Lead which ſhall come there: (the Cuſtomes of the Staple thereof paid) ſhall be witneſſed by bill, ſealed with the Seale of the Mayor of the Staple, and brought to the Ports vnder written, that is to ſay, from Yorke to Hull, from Lincolne to Saint Botolfe, from Norwich to great Yermouth, from Weſtminſter to London, from Canterbury to Sandwich, and from Wincheſter to Southhampton. And there the ſaid Wools and Lead ſhall be another time weighed by our Cuſtomers aſſigned in the ſame Ports. And all the Wools and Lead brought to the ſaid ports of Newcaſtle, Chicheſter, Exeter, Briſtow, Kaermerdyn, Deuelin, Waterford, Corke and Drogheda, where the other Staples be holden, ſhalbe but once weighed by the Standard betwixt Merchant and Merchant, or Merchant and other in preſence of our Cuſtomers there. And an Indenture ſhall be made betwixt the Mayor of the Staple being in the Port of the ſea and our Cuſtomers there, of all the Wools and Lead ſo weighed, and alſo of al the Leather and Woolfels, which ſhall come to the ſaid Staples to paſſe there, and the ſame Wools and Lead, and alſo the Leather and Woolfels cuſtomed and cocketted, and the Cuſtomes therof duly payed to our ſaid Cuſtomers in all the ſaid Ports, that is to ſay, of Deniſens for the time that they haue paſſed, halfe a marke of a Sacke of Wooll, halfe a marke of three hundred Woolfels, a marke of a Laſt of Leather, and of Aliens ten ſhillings of a Sacke of Wooll, ten ſhillings of a three hundred Woolfels, & twenty ſhillings of a Laſt of Leather, and three pence of euery ſow of Lead: Then the ſaid Merchandiſes ſhall be carried by Merchants Strangers, which haue bought the ſame, and not by Engliſhmen, Welſhmen, nor Iriſhmen, to the parts beyond the ſea out of the ſaid Realme, and Lands, to what parts it ſhall pleaſe the ſaid Merchant Merchandiſe of the Staple caryed from ſtaple townes to Port townes.

An Indenture ſhal be made betweene the Maior of the ſtaple & the cuſtomer, of all the wooll & lead weighed. The ſeueral cuſtomes of Merchandiſes of the Staple to be payed by Denizens and aliens. Merchants aliens, and not the Kings ſubiects ſhall tranſport beyond the ſea, wooll, &c.

Strangers. And that the ſaid Mayor and Cuſtomers ſhall delay no man willingly for gaine, nor for ſuch cauſe, nor in other manner ſhall any thing take of any perſon to doe that pertaineth to their office, vpon paine of impriſonment and to pay to the party the double of that which they haue ſo taken, and alſo of that which the party ſhalbe indammaged becauſe of ſuch taking or delay, and moreouer be ranſomed at our will, but ſhall hold them content of that which they did take in certaine to doe their office. And that the Mayor of the Staple and Cuſtomers take an othe of all the Merchants which ſo ſhall paſſe with Wools, Leather, Woolfels and Lead, that they ſhall hold no Staple beyond the ſea of the ſame Merchandiſes.

Euery Merchãt ſtranger ſhall be ſworn to hold no Staple beyond the ſea.

Cap. II.

Merchants Strangers may come into, and depart forth of the Realme with their goods, and none of them ſhall be taken by the Kings Purueyors.

ITem, to repleniſh the ſaid Realme and lands with money and plate, gold and ſiluer, and Merchandiſes of other Lands, and to giue courage to Merchant Strangers, to come with their Wares and Merchandiſes into the Realme and Lands aforeſaid. We haue ordained and eſtabliſhed, that all Merchãts Strangers, which be not of our enemity, of what Land or Nation that they be, may ſafely and ſurely vnder our protection and ſafe conduct come and dwell in our ſaid Realme and Lands where they will, and from thence returne with their ſhips, Wares and all manner Merchandiſes, and freely ſell their Merchandiſes at the Staple and elſewhere within the ſame Realme and Lands, to any that will buy them, paying the cuſtomes thereof due. And more to aſſure the Merchants Strangers and others bringing goods and Merchandiſes within the ſaid Realme and Lands, we wil and grant for vs and for our heires and ſubiects, that nothing ſhalbe taken ouer the cuſtomes aforeſaid nor taken of them to our vſe by colour of ſale, nor in other manner againſt their wil, nor by the Miniſters of vs or of our heires: nor by the Miniſters of any of the Prelates, Dukes, Earles, Barons, Lords nor Ladies, nor of any other great nor ſmall. And if any Miniſter, or other by colour of his office, or in other maner take any thing of them againſt their will, he ſhall be incontinently arreſted by the Mayors and Bayliffes of the place, if it be out of the Staple, or by the Mayor or Miniſters of the Staple, if it be within the Staple. And ſpeedy and ready proceſſe ſhall be againſt him from day to day, and from houre to houre according to the Law of the Staple, and not at the Common Law, as well out of the Staple as within at euery mans complaint that ſo ſhal be grieued. And if he be therof attainted, he ſhall pay to the Merchant the double of that which he hath taken, and as much to vs. And that no Commiſſion be made to take ſuch prices of the ſaid Merchants, and if any Commiſſion be made, it ſhalbe holden for none.

A ſafe conduct granted to merchants ſtrãgers to come & dwell in this Realme, and to returne when they will, & none of their goods ſhall be taken by the K. purueyors without their cõſent

Cap. III.

All perſons may buy Wools, Fels, &c. So that they bring them to the Staple. It ſhalbe felony for an Engliſh, Welſh, or Iriſh Merchant to tranſport Wooll, &c.

ITem, we will and grant, that all Merchants as well Aliens as Denizens, may buy Wools, Leather, Woolfels, and Lead, through our Realme and Lands without couin or colluſion to abate the price of the ſaid Merchandiſes. So alwayes that they bring the ſame to the Staples. And that no Merchant Engliſh, Welſh, nor Iriſh, ſhal carry any maner of wools, Leather, Woolfels or Lead out of the ſaid Realme and Lands, vpon the paine of life and member, and of forfeiture of the ſaid Merchandiſes, and of all their other goods and cattels to vs, and of forfeiture of all their Lands and tenements to the chiefe Lords. And the chiefe Lords ſhall haue a writ of eſcheat in the caſe. And that no ſtrange Merchants by couin betwixt them and Engliſh, Iriſh or Welſh Merchants, ſhal carry out of the realm & Lands aforeſaid, the ſaid Wares and Merchandiſes to the profit of Engliſh, Iriſh or Welſh Merchants, in part or in all. Nor that any Merchant Engliſh, Iriſh, nor Welſh, nor other make couin or colluſion with Merchants Strangers, to carry their Wools, Leather, woolfels, or Lead, to the parts beyond the ſea, out of the Realme & Lands aforeſaid, vnder the name of Merchants ſtrangers, nor ſhall ſend nor hold their ſeruants, or other their Atturneys in the parts beyond the Sea, out of our ſaid Realme and Lands to ſell or to ſuruey the ſale of their ſaid Wools, Leather, Woolfels & Lead there, or to receiue the money comming of the ſale of the ſaid Wools, Leather, Woolfels and Lead. Nor that any Engliſhman, Iriſhman, or Welſhman, by himſelfe nor by other, take payment of gold nor of ſiluer, nor of other thing in recompence or commutation, or in the name of payment in the parts beyond the Sea out of the Realme and Lands aforeſaid, of Merchandiſes ſold in England, Ireland, or Wales, touching the Staple, but all ſuch payment ſhall be made in gold or in ſiluer or Merchandiſe in England, Ireland, or Wales, where the contract was made, vpon the forfeitures & paines next aforeſaid. Nor that the Merchants Strangers nor Denizens, make betwixt them priuily nor apertly any company or confederacy in fraud or deceit of this ordinance, nor that any main[illegible]ne the ſame for gaine, nor in other maner to doe any ſuch fraud or deceit vpon the ſame pains & forfeitures. And alwaies it is to be vnderſtanded, that euery Engliſhmã, Iriſhman, or Welſhman, may freely bring their own Wools, Leather, Woolfels, and Lead, to the Staple to ſell there without being compelled to ſell them in the countrey. And that euery Merchant that ſhall ſell his Wools, at the Staple, be bound to warrant the packing of the ſame Wools.

All Merchants may buy merchandiſes of the Staple, ſo that they bring them to the Staple. It ſhall be felony for an Engliſh, Welſh, or Iriſh man to tranſport wooll, Fels, Leather, or Lead.

CAP. IIII.

None going vnto or returning from the Staple, ſhalbe diſturbed by purueyors.

None going or comming from the Staple ſhall be diſturbed by the kings Purueyors.

Item, for as much as no Staple may be profitable for vs and for our ſaid Realme and Lands, vnleſſe it be frée: we will and grant for vs and for our heires, for the maintenance of the ſaid Staple, that al maner of people may come with their carriage and goods to the Staple, and frō the ſame returne fréely without being diſturbed by prices of vs or of any other. Sauing to vs and to our heires all maner of prices royall, of all maner of carriages and victuals through all our ſaid Realme and Lands of old times due and vſed of right, as haue béene made by vs and by our Anceſtors in times paſt. And euery Carrier returning from the Staple, ſhal haue a bill vnder the Seale of the Maior of the Staple, whereby it may be known, that he ſerueth the Staple, containing the iournyes which he néedeth for his returne to the houſe, which bill ſhall be freely granted to him. And the ſame Mayor ſhall be ſworne that he ſhall make no ſuch bill for any other then which ſerueth the Staple. And if any ſuch Carrier, Cart, Ships, Beaſts, or other thing, which ſerueth for Carriage of that which pertaineth to the Staple, be taken, and be within the vierge out of the Staple, Hue and Cry ſhall be leuyed vpon the Takers, and the Takers ſhal be preſently Apprehended by people of the towne, where the price was made, or by people of another Towne, if they be lacking, and brought before the Steward and Marſhall of our houſe. And there ready puniſhment ſhall be made of them, according as the déed requireth. And if any ſuch price be made out of the vierge, Hue and Cry ſhall be leuied, and the Takers ſhall be taken and arreſted by the Towne, where ſuch prices ſhall be made, or by other Townes nére, if they be lacking, and brought to the next Iaile and there to be done of them as of felons, if the déed the ſame require. And in caſe that the people of ſuch townes be negligent, and will not purſue and arreſt ſuch Takers, as before is ſaid, the foure townes next ſhall anſwer of the damages that may bée found before them whom we ſhall thereto aſſigne, that the plaintiffes haue incurred by their default, if they cannot reaſonably excuſe themſelues thereof. And if ſuch prices be made in a place where the Staple is, the Takers ſhall be arreſted by the Maiors and Miniſters of the Staple, and right done to the plaintiffes by the ſaid Maiors and Miniſters. So alwayes that if ſuch price be made at the Staple, and the ſtaple be within the vierge, and the takers arreſted bee of our houſe, then right ſhalbe done of them of the Maiors and Miniſters of the Staple. And the Steward and Marſhall of our houſe, or the Stewards lieutenant ſhall be thereto called, if they will be there, to ſée that right be done of the ſaid Takers according to the law of the Staple. And in caſe they come not, the Maior and Miniſters of the Staple ſhall procéede in the proceſſe, and doe Iuſtice according to the Law of the Staple, notwithſtanding the not comming of the Steward or Marſhall, or lieutenant aforeſaid.

What penalty ſhal be inflicted, and by whom, vpon thoſe that take the goods of the Staple.

Cap. V.

None of the Kings Iuſtices ſhall take cogniſance of things belonging to the Staple.

None of the K. Iuſt. ſhall take coniſance of thoſe things that doe belong to the Staple.

Item, in caſe that our Bench or common Bench, or Iuſtices in Eyre, or Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, or the place of the Marſhalſey, or any other Iuſtices come to the places, where the ſaid Staples bée, the ſaid Iuſtices nor Stewards, nor Marſhals, nor of other the ſaid places, ſhall haue any coniſance there, of that thing, which pertaineth to the conyſance of the Mayor and Miniſters of the Staple.

Cap. VI.

None of the Kings Officers ſhall meddle where the Staples be.

None of the K. officers ſhall meddle in the places where the Staples be holden.

Item, we will and defend, that no Marſhall nor other Miniſter of our houſe, or of others, ſhall make liuery, nor meddle in the places, where the Staples be holden and kept, nor with the houſes where the ſaid Merchants or their people, or Wools or other Merchandiſes of the Staple be lodged, nor enter into the ſame to execute their office there, nor take any thing thereof to ſpare any, vpon paine to make grée to the party, at whoſe ſuite he ſhall be attainted, of the quatreble of that which the plaintiffe ſhalbe endamaged, & further ſhalbe grieuouſly puniſhed by vs.

Cap. VII.

Licences granted to carry Merchandiſes forth of the Realme ſhalbe void.

If any Licence ſhall be granted to tranſport, &c. contrary to this Stat. it ſhall be void.

Item, we will and grant, that no licence or priuiledge to make paſſage by Engliſhmen, Iriſhmen, or Welſhmen, of Wools, Leather, Woolfels or Lead out of the ſame Realme, & Lands, ſhall be granted by vs nor our heires againſt this ordinance. And if any be granted to the contrary, they ſhall be holden for none. And they ſhall giue no warranty, nor excuſe to them, which ſhall cauſe to be paſſed the ſaid Merchandiſes, that they ſhall not incurre the peines and forfeitures contained in the ſaid Article.

Cap. VIII.

The Iuriſdiction of the Mayor and Conſtables of the Staple. All people of the Staple ſhalbe ruled by the Law Merchant, and not by the common Law.

ITem, wee haue ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that the Maiors, and Conſtables of the Staples ſhall haue iuriſdiction and cogniſance within the Townes where the Staples ſhall bee of people and of all manner of things touching the Staple. And that all Merchants comming to the Staple, their ſeruants and people in the Staple, ſhall be ruled by the Law Merchant, of all things touching the Staple, and not by the common Law of the Land, nor by vſage of Cities, Boroughes nor other Townes, and that they ſhall not implead nor be impleaded before the Iuſtices of the ſaid places in plea of debt, couenant, and treſpaſſe, touching the Staple, but ſhall implead all perſons, of whom they will complaine, as well ſuch as be not of the Staple, as thoſe that be of the Staple, which ſhall be there found. And in the ſame maner they ſhall be impleaded onely before the Maior and Iuſtices of the Staple, which ſhall be thereto deputed of all manner of pleas and of actions, whereof the coniſance pertaineth to the Miniſters of the Staple. So alwayes that all manner of contracts and couenants made betwixt Merchant and Merchant or other, whereof the one party is a Merchant or Miniſter of the Staple, whether the contract or couenant made be within the Staple or without, and alſo of treſpaſſes done within the Staple to Merchants or to Miniſters of the Staple by other, or by any of them to other: the partie plaintiffe ſhal chooſe whether he wil ſue his action or quarrel before the Iuſtices of the Staple by the Law of Staple, or in other place at the common Law: And he ſhalbe thereto receiued. So alwayes that in the pleas touching any of our houſe, the Steward or his Lieutenant, and the Marſhals of our houſe ſhalbe with the Mayor of the Staple, to ſée that right be done to the parties as before is ſaid if they wil be there. But pleas of Land & of Freehold ſhalbe at the Common Law. And if Merchants or their people being in the Staple, becauſe of the ſame doe commit felony or be ſlaine, robbed or maimed by any perſons, the Mayor of the Staple and other méet perſons ſhal be aſſigned Iuſtices, to heare and determine the ſaid felonies & maimes within the Staple without delay, according to the common Law, And if any ſuch Felon or Treſpaſſer be taken & deteined within any franchiſe to whom ſoeuer the ſame be, becauſe of ſuch felony or maime done within the Staple, it ſhalbe preſently commanded by writ, to cauſe the ſaid Felon, or him that did the maim to come before the ſaid Iuſtices, to do right of him in form aforeſaid. And if they that haue ſuch priſoners in Ward, will not deliuer them, they ſhall incurre the paine of an C.l. to vs. And neuertheles they ſhall deliuer the body in the forme aforeſaid. And in caſe that any inditment be made out of the Staple of felonies or treſpaſſes done by people of the Staple, or by other to them within the Staple, the ſame inditement ſhalbe ſent before the ſaid Maior, and them which ſhall be aſſigned Iuſtices with him, to do right in this party. And if the plea or debate be made before the Mayor of the Staple, betwixt the Merchants or Miniſters of the ſame, and thereupon to try thereof the trouth an enqueſt or profe is to be taken: we will that if the one party and the other be a ſtranger, it ſhall be tryed by Strangers. And if the one party and the other be Denizens, it ſhall be tried by Denizens. And if the one party be Denizen, and the other an Alien, the one halfe of the enqueſt or of the proofe ſhalbe of deniſens, and the other halfe of aliens.

Cap. IX.

The effect of a recogniſance knowledged in the Staple for recouery of a debt.

ITem, to the intent that the contracts made with the ſame Staple ſhalbe the better holdē, and the paiments readily made: we haue ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that euery Maior of the ſaide Staples ſhall haue power to take recogniſances of debts, which a man will make before him, in the preſence of the Conſtables of the Staple or one of them. And that in euery of the ſaid Staples be a ſeale ordained, remaining in the cuſtody of the Mayor of the Staple, vnder the ſeales of the Conſtables, and that all obligations which ſhalbe made vpon ſuch recogniſances, be ſealed with the ſaid ſeale paying for euery obligation of an C. li. and within, of euery li. a ob. & of euery obligation aboue a C li. a q. And that the Maior of the ſtaple, by vertue of the ſame letters ſo ſealed, may take & hold in priſon the bodies of the debtors after the terme incurred, if they be found within the Staple, till they haue made grée to the creditor of the debt & damages. And alſo arreſt the goods of the ſaid debtors found within the ſaid Staple, & deliuer the ſaid goods to the ſaid creditors, by the true eſtimation, or to ſell thē at the beſt that a man may, and deliuer the money to the creditors vntil the ſumme due. And in caſe that the creditors be not found within the Staple, nor their goods to the value of the debt, the ſame ſhall be certified in the Chancery vnder the ſaid ſeale by which certification a Writ ſhalbe ſent to take the bodies, of the ſaid debtors, without letting them to mainpriſe, and to ſeiſe their lands and tenements, goods and cattels. And the Writ ſhall be returned in the Chancery, with the certificat of the value of the ſaid lands and tenements, goods and cattels. And thereupon due execution ſhall be made from day to day, in manner as it is contained in the Statute Merchant: ſo that he to whom the debt is due, ſhall haue eſtate of fréehold in the lands, & tenements, which ſhall be deliuered to him by vertue of the ſame proceſſe, and recouery by Writ of Nouell diſſeſin, in caſe if he be out. And that the debtor

Cap. X.

There ſhall be but one Weight, Meaſure and Yard through the Realme.

There ſhall be one weight, one meaſure, & one yeard through all the Land.

The penalty of him which doth not weigh by equall ballance.

ITem, becauſe we haue perceiued, that ſome Merchants doe buy auoir de pois, Wools and other Merchandiſes by one weight: and ſell by another, and make alſo deceitfull draughts vpon the Weight, and alſo vſe falſe meaſures and Yards in great deceit of vs, and all the Commons, and of Lawfull Merchants: We will and ſtabliſh that one Weight, one Meaſure, and one Yard, be through all the land, as well out of the Staple as within. And that Wools, and all manner auoir de pois, be weighed by the ballance, ſo that the tongue of the ballance be euen without bowing to the one ſide or to the other, or without putting hand or foot, or other touch making of the ſame. And that he which doth againſt the ſame, to the dammage of the ſeller ſhall forfeit to vs the value of the Merchandiſe ſo weighed and meaſured. And the party that will complaine him ſhal haue the quatreble of that which he ſhall de endamaged. And the treſpaſſer ſhal haue one yéeres impriſonment, and be ranſomed at the Kings will. And thereupon Iuſtices ſhall bee aſſigned to enquire of ſuch treſpaſſes at all times that ſhall be néedfull, and to doe right as well at our ſute, as at the ſute of other that thereof will complaine. *Stat.*9.*H.*3.25.14.*Edw.*3.12.9.*H.*5.8.8.*H.*6.5.11.*H.*7.4.

CAP. XI.

The penalty for foreſtalling of Merchandiſe before they come to the Staple.

It ſhal be felony to foreſtall, buy, or giue earneſt for any merchãdiſes before they come to the ſtaple or port, or to goe into the ſhip for that cauſe. St.28.Ed.3.13.

ITem, we haue ordained and ſtabliſhed, that all Merchants, Aliens and Denizens, and other that doe bring Wines and other wares or Merchandiſes, whatſoeuer they be to the Staples, Cities, Boroughes, and good townes, or to Ports of the Sea within our ſaid Realm, and Lands, may ſafely and without challenge and impeachment, of any ſel them in groſſe or at retaile, or by parcels at their will to all maner people that will buy the ſame. And that no Merchant, priuie nor ſtranger, nor other of what condition that he be, goe by land nor by water toward ſuch wines, Wares, or Merchandiſes comming into our ſaid Realme and Lands, in the Sea, nor elſewhere to foreſtall or buy them, or in other maner to giue earneſt vpon them before that they come to the Staple, or to the Port where they ſhalbe diſcharged, nor enter into the ſhips for ſuch cauſe, till the Merchandiſes be ſet to land to be ſold, vpon the paines and forfeitures contained in the ſame third article aforeſaid.

CAP. XII.

The penalty of ſelling of Wool, &c. to a Scottiſh man, to be carried into Scotland.

Felony to carry any wool, &c. into Scotland, or to ſell them to a Scottiſh man.

ITem, that no Merchant priuie nor ſtranger, nor other, ſhall carry out of our Realme of England, Wools, Leather, or Woolfels to Barwicke vpon Twede nor elſewhere, nor into Scotland, nor that any man Merchant nor other, of what condition that he be, ſell his Wools, Woolfels, nor Leather to any man of Scotland, nor to any other to carry into Scotland, vpon the paines and articles contained in the ſaid third article.

CAP. XIII.

A remedy where a Merchants goods be robbed or periſhed on the Sea.

How merchants robbed on the Sea, whoſe goods be brought into this Realme ſhall be relieued.

Ships periſhed on the Sea.

ITem, we will and grant that if any Merchant Priuie or ſtranger, be robbed of his goods, vpon the Sea, and the goods ſo robbed come into any parts within our Realme and Lands, and he will ſue for to recouer the ſaid goods, he ſhalbe receiued to proue the ſaid goods to be his owne by his markes, or by his Cart or Cocket, or by good and lawfull Merchants priuie or Strangers. And by ſuch proues the ſame goods ſhall be deliuered to the Merchants, without making other ſute at the Common Law. And in caſe that any ſhips going out of the ſaid Realme and Lands, or comming to the ſame, by tempeſt or other miſfortune breake vpon the Sea bankes, and the goods come to the land, which may not be ſaid wrecke, they ſhall be preſently without fraud or euill deuiſe deliuered to the Merchants, to whom the goods be, or to their ſeruants, by ſuch proofe as before is ſaid, paying to them that haue ſaued and kept the ſame, conuenient for their trauaile, that is to ſay, by the diſcretion of the Sheriffes and Bailiffes, or other our Miniſters in places glidable, where other lords haue no franchiſe, and by the aduiſe and aſſent of foure or ſixe of the beſt or moſt ſufficient diſcréet men of the Countrey. And if that be within the franchiſe of other lords, then it ſhall be done by the Stewards and Bailiffe, or Wardens of the ſame franchiſes and by the aduice of foure or ſixe diſcréet men of the Countrey, as afore is ſaid, without any delay.

Cap. XIIII.

Merchants may bring in golde or ſiluer to the Kings Exchanges, and carrie out as much.

ITem, we haue ordeyned that all Merchants priuie and ſtrangers, may ſafely carie and bring within our ſaid Realme and lands, plate of ſiluer and billets of gold, and al other manner gold, and all money of gold and ſiluer to our bullion, or to our exchanges, which we ſhall cauſe to be ordeyned at our ſaid Staples, and elſewhere, taking there money of our coine of gold and ſiluer couenable to the value. And if any will take good money of gold and ſiluer of other coine then of ours in payment, he ſhall take the ſame without impeachment, ſo that none be thereunto compelled, if he will not take it of his good will.

Prouided alwaies, that no money haue common courſe within our ſaid Realme & lands, but the money of gold and ſiluer of our coine. And that none carrie out of our ſaid Realme and lands the old ſterling, nor other money but our new money of gold & ſiluer; except the Merchants ſtrangers, that bring to our ſaid Realme and lands any maner of money, and there will imploy this money within our Realme and lands: whom we will that they may recarrie into their country all this money, or as much as ſhall remaine thereof not imployed without impeachment. So alwayes that good and lawfull ſearch be thereof made in the Ports and other places, where any arriuall is. And that all the money, that euery Merchant ſtranger ſhall bring within our ſaid Realme and lands, ſhall be put in writing by the Searchers, to the intent that no Merchant ſhal carry more beyond the Sea then he brought into the ſame Realme and lands.

Merchants may bring in gold or ſiluer in money or bullion to the Kings Exchanges, and carrie forth as much: new money, but not old ſterling.

Prouided alwaies, that no miniſter nor other by colour of ſuch ſearch, ſhal make impeachment or diſturbance to any Merchant ſtranger to grieue him vnduely. And that all the falſe money that may be found by ſearch or in other maner eſpied within the ſame our Realme and lands, in deceipt of our good money, ſhalbe forfeited to vs; according to the ordinances another time thereof made.

All falſe money ſhall be forfeited to the King.

Cap. XV.

Indentures ſhall be made betweene Carriers of wooll by the water, and the Bayliffes of Townes where they load them: which Carriers ſhalbe ſworne and bound to carrie them to the Staple.

ITem, we will and eſtabliſh, that they that haue Wools, Leather, Fells, and Leade, in the countrey betwixt the places where the Staples be, and the Sea, and the ſame will cauſe to be caried to the Staples by freſh waters, or by armes of the Sea, ſhall make Indenture betwixt them and the Bayliffes of the Townes where they put them in Ship, teſtifying how much Wools, Leather, Fels, and Lead is ſo put in Ship. And the Bayliffes of the places ſhall take an oath and ſufficient ſuerty, for which they will anſwer, of them and the Mariners, that they ſhall goe with the ſame Wools, Leather, Fells, and Lead to the Staple, and no partie elſwhere, and there ſhall diſcharge before they doe enter the Sea. And that the Bayliffes ſend preſently the one part of the Indenture conteyning the ſuerty and the quantity of the Wools, Leather, Woolfels, and Lead to the Mayor of the Staple, at their coſts that owe the goods, by ſome man for whom they will anſwer. And if any Mayor, Bayliffe, or other miniſter of the places, where ſuch merchandiſes ſhal be charged, ſuffer the ſaid merchandiſes to paſſe in other manner, as well the Maiors and Bayliffes and miniſters aforeſaid, as the Merchants which the ſame ſhall charge, ſhall incurre the paines and forfeitures conteyned in the ſaid third Article.

Indentures ſhal be made betweene Carriers of wools, &c. to the Staple by freſh water or armes of the Sea, & the Bayliffes of townes where they ſhip them.

Cap. XVI.

Houſes ſhall be let for reaſonable rents in Staple Townes impoſed by the Maior, &c.

ITem, that in euery Towne where the Staple ſhalbe holden, ſhall be ordeined certaine roumthes and places, where the Wools and other merchandiſes ſhall be put, And becauſe that the Lords or Gardians of the houſes & places (ſeeing the neceſſitie of Merchants) do ſet percaſe their houſes at too high ferme: We haue ordeyned, that the houſes which be to be leaſed in ſuch manner ſhalbe ſet at a reaſonable ferme, according to the ordinance of the Mayor & Conſtables of the Staple, & of foure diſcreet men of the beſt of the towne, where the Staple is, which ſhalbe ſworne in the preſence of the ſaid Mayor & Conſtable, to make a lawfull taxe, ſo that for default of houſes, the Staple ſhall not be impeached. And that no man, that bringeth his Wools or other merchandiſes there, be diſturbed to lodge the ſame wools or other merchandiſes in the houſes which they haue ſo hired.

Reaſonable rents ſhalbe impoſed vpon houſes prouided for the Staple by the Mayor, &c.

Cap. XVII.

A Merchant Stranger ſhall not be impeached for anothers debt, but vpon good cauſe. Merchants of enemies Countries ſhall ſell their goods in conuenient time and depart.

ITem, that no Merchant ſtranger be impleaded for anothers treſpaſſe, or for anothers debt, whereof he is not debtor, pledge, nor mainpernour. Prouided alwaies, that if our liege people, Merchants or other, be indammaged by any Lords of ſtraunge lands or their ſubiects, and the ſaid Lords (duely required) faile of right to our ſaid ſubiects, wee ſhall haue the Law of

Marque,

None merchants goods ſhall not be ſeiſed for anothers debt, but vpon cauſe.
Law of marque

Merchants of enemies countries ſhall haue conuenient time by Proclamation to ſell their goods, and to depart.

Marque, and of taking them againe, as hath béene vſed in times paſt, without fraud or diſceit. And in caſe that debate doe riſe (which God defend) betwixt vs and any Lords of ſtrange lands: We will not that the people and Merchants of the ſaid lands be ſuddenly ſubdued in our ſaid Realme and lands becauſe of ſuch debate, but that they be warned, and Proclamation thereof publiſhed, that they ſhall voyd the ſaid Realme and lands with their goods fréely, within fortie dayes after the warning and proclamation ſo made. And that in the meane time, they be not impeached nor let of their paſſage, or of making their profit of the ſame merchandiſes, if they will ſell them. And in caſe that for default of winde, or of ſhip, or for ſickneſſe, or for other euident cauſe, they cannot auoid our ſaid Realme and lands within ſo ſhort time, then they ſhall haue other fortie dayes, or more if néed be, within which they may paſſe conueniently, with ſelling their merchandiſe, as afore is ſaid.

Cap. XVIII.

Merchants of Ireland or Wales may bring their Merchandiſes to the Staples of England.

Merchants of Ireland and Wales which cannot ſell their wooll &c. there, may bring the ſame to any of the Staples of England,

It ſhalbe felony for any Welſh or Iriſh man to carry their wooll &c. to any other place ſauing to the Staple.

ITem, becauſe we doe well perceiue, that Merchants ſtrangers doe not come ſo commonly into Ireland, nor into Wales, for merchandiſe as they doe into England, we will of our ſpeciall grace, that it ſhalbe lawfull to the people of Ireland and Wales, which cannot vtter their wools, leather, woolfels and lead, in Ireland and in Wales, to the Merchants ſtrangers, to come with their ſaid merchandiſes, after that they be cuſtomed and coketted in Ireland and in Wales, to any of our Staples in England, which them ſhall pleaſe, bringing their cokets, witneſſing their merchandiſes, which they ſhall diſcharge, at the Staples in England: ſo that they when they ſhall come to the Staple in England, or they that bought their ſaid Merchandiſes of them, ſhall not pay another time Cuſtome nor Subſidie for the ſaid merchandiſes ſo cuſtomed in our ſaid lands of Ireland and Wales. And our Treaſurer, and the Barons of our Eſchequer of England, ſhalbe certified two times by the yere at the leaſt, that is to ſay, at Eaſter and Michaelmas, how much wools, leather, woolfels, and lead ſhall paſſe out of the ſaid land of Ireland, and of the cuſtome thereof payed. And in caſe that the Merchants, or other people of Ireland or of Wales after that they be in the Sea with their ſaid Merchandiſes, do paſſe to any place, other then to the Staples in England, they ſhall incurre the paines and forfeitures in the ſaid third Article.

Cap. XIX.

None ſhall looſe his goods by his ſeruants offence. Speedie Iuſtice ſhall be done from day to day, and from houre to houre.

No Merchant ſhall loſe his goods for the offence of his ſeruant.

Speedy iuſtice ſhall be done to Merchants from day to day & from houre to houre.

ITem that no Merchant nor other, of what condition that he be, ſhal loſe or forfeit his goods nor merchandiſes for the treſpaſſe and forfeiture of his ſeruant, vnleſſe he doe it by the commaundement or procurement of his maſter, or that he hath offended in the office, in which his Maſter hath ſet him, or in other maner, then the Maſter is bound to anſwer for the déed of his ſeruant by the law Merchant, as elſewhere is vſed. And becauſe that Merchants may not often long tarrie in one place for leuying of their merchandiſe: we will and graunt, that ſpéedy right be to them done from day to day and from houre to houre, according to the lawes vſed in ſuch Staples, before this time holden elſwhere at all times, when they will them complaine, of any, or that any will complaine of them, ſo that the merchants be not by malice delayed for default of ſpéedie remedie.

Cap. XX.

Merchants ſtrangers taken in the K. protection. And for the wrongs ſhall recouer double damages.

Merchants ſtrangers ſhall haue preſent remedy for any grieuances done to them.

ITem, becauſe we haue taken all the Merchants ſtrangers in our ſaid Realme and lands, into our ſpecial protection, and moreouer granted to doe to them ſpéedie remedy of their grieuances, if any be to them done: we haue ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that if any outrage or grieuance be done to them in the countrey out of the Staple, the Iuſtices of the place where ſuch outrages ſhall be done, ſhall do ſpéedie iuſtice to them after the law merchant from day to day, and from houre to houre, without ſparing any man, or to driue them to ſue at the common law. And if any be conuict that he hath grieued the merchants ſo taken in our protection, he ſhalbe puniſhed by vs for the contempt done to vs, in as much as ſhal be iudged to the Merchants for their damages. And to the ſaid Merchants ſtrangers their double damages ſhall be iudged.

Cap. XXI.

A Maior and two Conſtables ſhalbe choſen yearely in euery Staple towne. And their authoritie.

ITem, becauſe the Staples cannot long continue, nor the ordinances thereof made and to be made, be kept, if good executors and Iuſtices be not ſtabliſhed to make thereof good and readie execution: we haue ordeyned and ſtabliſhed, that in euery towne where the ſtaple is ordeyned, a Mayor good, lawfull and ſufficient ſhall be made and ſtabliſhed, hauing knowledge of the Law Merchant to gouerne the Staple, and to doe right to euery man after the lawes aforeſaid, with out fauour, ſparing, or griefe doing to any. And in euery place, where the Staple is, ſhall be two comenable Conſtables now at the beginning placed by vs, to doe that perteyneth to their office, as in other Staples is accuſtomed, & when they ſhall be dead, or changed, then other ſhalbe choſen by the Comminalty of the Merchants of the ſaid places. And that no Mayor hold the office ouer one yeare, vnleſſe he be newly choſen by the Comminalty of the Merchants, as well of ſtrangers as of denizens. And that the ſaid Mayor and Conſtables haue power to keepe the peace, and to arreſt offendors in the Staples for debt, treſpaſſe, or other contract, and them to put in priſon, and puniſh after the law of the Staple. And a priſon ſhall be ordeyned for the ſafe keeping of them that ſo ſhall be impriſoned. And the Mayors, Sheriffes, and Bayliffes of the townes, where the Staple is, or adioyning to the Staple, ſhalbe attending to the Mayor and miniſters of the Staple, to do execution of their commandements, vpon paine of grieuous forfeiture: and one Lord or other of the moſt ſufficiency in the countrey, where the Staple is, ſhalbe aſſigned to be aydant to the Mayor and miniſters of the Staple, to iuſtifie diſobedient perſons, which by the ſaid Mayor and miniſters cannot be iuſtified, and to maintaine and counſell them when need ſhall be to the good gouernance of the Staple, and to redreſſe at euery mans complaint, that which ſhalbe miſtaken by the ſaid Maior, or miniſters or other, & to do right to the complainants in this behalfe.

There ſhall be a Mayor & two Conſtables in euery Staple Towne, and what by their office they may doe.

And if any merchant will complaine of the Mayor or of the Conſtables, that they haue failed of right, or ſhewed fauor againſt reaſon to eyther of the parties, it ſhalbe ſpeedily redreſſed by the Chauncelor and our Councell without delay. Regiſt.fo.18.

And that the ſame Mayor and Conſtables doe not nor ordeyne any thing contrary to theſe ordinances, nor make interpretation nor exception to them, otherwiſe then the words do purport, but if there be any thing that is doubted, it ſhalbe ſhewed to our Counſell, and there declared by good aduice.

CAP. XXII.

Correctors ſhall be appointed in the Staple Townes, to make and record bargaines.

ITem, we haue ordeyned, that in euery place, where the Staple ſhall be holden, there ſhall be a certaine number of Correctors, aſwell of ſtrangers as of priuies, good people, ſufficient, and hauing knowledge of ſuch myſtery, lawfully to make and record the bargaines betwixt the buyers and the ſellers, as hath bin vſed in other Staples holden in other places, & that they find ſufficient mainpernors before the Mayor and Conſtables of the Staple, lawfully to doe that pertayneth to their office: and if they be found in default, they ſhall pay to him that is indamaged, as much as his loſſe ſhall amount to: So that they meddle them not with any maner of merchandiſe for the time that they ſhall abide in the office. And that no man be conſtrained to haue a Corrector vnleſſe he will of his owne good will, nor to pay any thing to any Corrector, vnleſſe he meddle of his bargaine at his requeſt.

Correctors ſhal be appointed to make and record bargaines betweene buyers and ſellers.

CAP. XXIII.

The officers of the Staple and Merchants repairing to it ſhall be ſworne to maintaine the Staple, and the Lawes and Cuſtomes of it.

ITem, that a certaine number of portors, packers, winders, workers, and other labourers of wools, and all other merchandiſes be ſufficiently ordeyned for the place where the Staple is, & they and the correctors and al maner officers of the Staple, beſides the Conſtables, ſhal be ſworn before the Mayor of the Staple, that they lawfully ſhall execute their office, without fraud or diſceit. Alſo all Merchants aliens and denizens, comming to the ſaid Staples becauſe of Merchandiſe, ſhalbe ſworne before the ſame Mayor and Conſtables, that they ſhalbe iuſtified by the ſame Mayor and Conſtables, according to the law and vſage of the Staple, and ſhall maintain as much as in them is the Staple and the lawes and vſages of the ſame without fraud or diſceit. And the Mayor and Conſtables ſhalbe ſworne in the Chancery, to do lawfully that which perteyneth to them. St.14.R.2.3.

Officers of the Staple & Merchants coming thither, ſhall be ſworne to bee ordered and to maintaine the lawes of the Staple.

CAP. XXIIII.

Two Merchants aliens ſhalbe choſen to be aſſociat in iudgement to the Major and Conſtables. And ſixe mediators of queſtions betweene buyers and ſellers ſhall be choſen.

ITem, we will and ordeine that the Merchants ſtrangers ſhall chooſe two merchants ſtrangers, whereof the one towards the South, and the other towards the North, ſhalbe aſſigned to ſit with the Mayor and Conſtables of the Staples, where ſome of thoſe perſons choſen ſhall come, to heare the plaints touching Merchants aliens, that ſhall be moued before the ſaid Mayor and Conſtables at all times that any of the ſaid perſons choſen will be there, and to ſee that plaine right be done to the ſaid Merchants aliens, ſo that the ſaid Mayor and Conſtables ſhall not ceaſe to proceed in their proceſſe, in caſe that thoſe perſons choſen come not thither. And in caſe that debate riſe betwixt them, vpon the diſcuſſing of any plea or quarrell: the tenour of the ſame plea or quarrell ſhall be ſent before the Chauncellor, and other of our Counſell, to bee determined there without delay. And alſo ſixe perſons ſhall be choſen, that is to ſay, foure aliens, whereof two ſhall bee of Almaigne, and two of Lombardy, and two of England, which ſhall be diſcreete men, and worthy of faith, and ſhall ſweare, that they ſhall well and lawfully execute their office, that is to ſay, that when and at what time any queſtion or debate ſhall riſe or come amongſt Merchants of any vnreaſonable Wooll, or vndue packing according to the couenants made betwixt the ſellers and the buyers, that the ſaid perſons, or foure of them, may before the Mayor of the Staple and the officers, by their oath ſay and amend as reaſon will, and thereupon credence ſhall be giuen to them without any contradiction.

Two Merchants aliens ſhall be choſen to be aſſociat in iudgement to the Mayor and Conſtable of the Staple.

Matters in queſtion in the ſtaple ſhalbe decided by the Chãcellor & the kings Councell.

There ſhall be ſixe mediators of queſtion choſen.

Cap. XXV.

It ſhall be felony to make any conſpiracy which may returne to the diſturbance of the Staple.

It ſhalbe felony to make any confederacy or conſpiracy which may turn to the diſturbance or the defeating of the Staple.

ITem, we haue ordeyned and ſtabliſhed, that no Merchant nor other, ſhall make confederacy, conſpiracy, couin, imagination or murmur, or euill deuice in any point that may turne to the impeachment, diſturbance, defeating or decay of the ſaid Staples, or of any thing that to them perteyneth, or may pertaine: and if any doe, and thereof be attainted before the Mayor and miniſters of the Staple, or other, whom we ſhall thereto aſſigne, he ſhall incurre the paines and forfeitures conteyned in the ſaid third Article.

Cap. XXVI.

Credit ſhall be giuen to letters, or the Merchants oathes, of the value of their goods.

Credit ſhalbe giuen to Letters, brought by Merchants Aliens, or to their oathes, of the value of their goods.

ITem, whereas it is conteyned in the Charter of our Graundfather, granted to the Merchants ſtrangers, and by vs confirmed, that of Merchandiſes, which they ſhall bring into our ſaid Realme and land, and whereof three pence of the pound ought to be payed by the ſaid Merchants ſtrangers, according to the ſame grant, faith, and credence ſhall be giuen to them vpon the value of the ſaid merchandiſes by letters, which they may ſhew of the ſame goods of their Lords and companions. And if they haue no letters, they ſhall be beleeued by their oath in this behalfe. And now late it is done vs and our Counſell to vnderſtand by the complaint of the ſaid Merchants, that albeit they haue letters teſtifying the value of their merchandiſes, the Sheriffes, Mayors, Bayliffes, and miniſters of many places doe conſtraine them to ſweare for the ſaid merchandiſes, againſt the forme of their ſaid Charter, and neuertheleſſe after the oath made, vnſeale their barrels, fardels, and bales, for which they haue taken their oath, and the ſame let lye foure or ſixe dayes ſo vnſealed, before they will ſee the ſame, and ſo they take away from the ſaid Merchants the ſale of their goods, to their great dammage. We not willing, that the Merchants ſtrangers, that come with their merchandiſes into our ſaid Realme and lands, for the common profit of the ſame, ſhall be in ſuch maner grieued; will, graunt, and ſtabliſh, that the ſaid Charter be holden, and that the barrels, fardels, and bales, and the other goods of the ſaid Merchants, for which they haue ſhewed their letters that be not ſuſpicious, or taken the oath as it is conteyned in the ſame Charter, preſently after the oath taken, or ſuch letters ſhewed, their goods ſhall be deliuered to them without delay, therof to make their profit, without any thing taking of them ouer the cuſtome of three pence of the pound, ſo that the Sheriffes, Mayors, Bayliffes or other miniſters ſhall meddle no more of the ſame goods, vpon paine of impriſonment, and to pay to the party grieued by this cauſe his quatreble damages, & as much to vs, and vpon the ſame; right ſhalbe done in our Chancery at euery mans complaint.

Cap. XXVII.

The forfeiture of thoſe which before this Statute haue tranſported their woolls, &c.

The forfeiture of thoſe which before this ſtat. did tranſport wooll, &c.

ITem, we haue ordeyned and eſtabliſhed, that all thoſe that ſhal be conuict that they haue caried Wools, Leather, and Woolfels to the parties beyond the Sea, againſt the defence and Proclamation thereof made before the making of this ordinance, ſhall be iudged to priſon, and incurre the forfeiture of the ſame Wools, Leather and Woolfels ſo paſſed, and of all their other goods and cattels, and moreouer be ranſomed at our will.

Cap. XXVIII.

The Liberties of the Staple confirmed, notwithſtanding the Franchiſes of others: But in Faires, Markets, Hundreds, Leets, &c.

The liberties of the ſtaple confirmed notwithſtanding Franchiſes graunted to corporat Cities or Towns.

Other mens liberties being in the ſtaple ſaued.

ITem, we will, graunt, and ordeyne, that all the ſaid things be firmely kept and holden in all points, notwithſtanding franchiſe, cuſtom, priuiledge, exemption, iudgements, or other grants made to Cities, Boroughs, Towns, Comminalties, people of the fiue Ports and other Ports, or any other ſingular perſons whatſoeuer. And in caſe that any thing be to be amended, added, changed, or withdrawen of any of the ſaid points in time to come for a true cauſe, we will, that the ſame be done by deliberation and aduice of the great men and other of our Counſell in the Parliament. Sauing in other things to the Prelates, Dukes, Earles, Barons, and other Lords, their fairs, markets, hundreds, wapentakes, leetes, iuriſdictions, courts, franchiſes, & priuiledges and all other things to them pertayning in the places where the Staples be and ſhal be, and elſewhere as farre forth as they had them before that the Staples were ordeyned.

The ordinance of the ſeuerall fees of the Mayors and Conſtables of the Staple, in euery City and Towne where the Staple is ordeyned to be kept, & by what meanes the ſame ſhall be leuied.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter Anno 28. Edwardi tertij, & Anno Domini 1354.

OVr Lord the King, at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the Monday next after the Feaſt of Saint Marke the Euangeliſt, the yeare of his Reigne of England the eight & twentieth, & of France the fifteenth, to the honour of God, and of holy Church, and for the Common profit of him and his people, by the aſſent of the Prelates, the Prince, Dukes, Earles, Barons, and the Commons of his Realme there aſſembled, hath ordeyned and eſtabliſhed the points vnder written.

Cap. I.

A Confirmation of all Statutes before made and vſed.

FIrſt, that the great Charter, and the Charter of the Forreſt, and all other ſtatutes before this time made and vſed, be kept and mainteyned in all points.

A confirmation of former Stat.

Cap. II.

Lords of the Marches of Wales ſhall be attendant to the Crowne of England, and not to the Principality of Wales.

ITem, it is accorded and eſtabliſhed, that all the Lords of the Marches of Wales, ſhall be perpetually attending and annexed to the Crowne of England, as they and their anceſtors haue bin all times paſt, and not to the Principality of Wales, in whoſe hands ſoeuer the ſame Principality be, or hereafter ſhall come.

Lords of the Marches ſhall be attendant on the Crowne of England, and not to the Principality of Wales.

Cap. III.

No perſon ſhall be condemned without his anſwer.

ITem, that no man, of what eſtate or condition that he be, ſhall be put out of land nor tenement, nor taken, nor impriſoned, nor diſherited, nor put to death without being brought in anſwer by due proceſſe of the law. Stat. 9. H. 3. 29. Stat. 5. Ed. 3. 9.

No man ſhalbe condemned without his anſwer.

Cap. IIII.

How the King ſhalbe anſwered the meſne rates of lands comming to him by his tenants death.

ITem, becauſe that Eſcheators and other the Kings miniſters, which haue made Liuery by the Kings commandement from his Chancery, of the lands and tenements, that were taken into the Kings hands by the death of the tenants, which held of him, and the heires, and other, to whom the ſaid lands and tenements ought to deſcend, reuert, or remaine, haue béene charged in the Eſchequer of the fermes and the rents whereof the termes of payments were to come after ſuch liuery made, for the rate and portion of the time that the ſame lands and tenements were in the Kings hands: It is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that of Manors, Cities, Boroughs, Townes, Hundreds, Franchiſes, and all other lands and tenements, whereof profit doth riſe from time to time through the yeare, as of Mills, Herbage, Tolle, Pleas, and profits of Courts, and al ſuch iſſues and profits, euery Eſcheator and other miniſter, which hath ſeiſed ſuch lands and tenements to the Kings vſe, ſhalbe bound to anſwer to the King for the rate and portion of the time, according to the old courſe of the Eſchequer. And that of ancient fermes and rents, which be to be payed at certaine termes as rent ſecke, & rent ſeruice, wherof no profit riſeth till the day of payment, ſuch fermes and rents ſhalbe payed to them, which haue liuery out of the Kings hand, at the termes of payments of the ſaid fermes and rents, which followeth after ſuch liuery made as well of the time paſt, as of the time to come.

How the King ſhalbe ſatiſfied of the meane rates of thoſe lands which come to his hands by the death of his tenants.

Cap. V.

No Iron ſhall be carried forth of the Realme.

money to the King: and the Iuſtices aſſigned ſhall haue power to enquire of Laborers. And the other Iuſtices whom the King will thereto aſſigne, ſhall haue power to enquire of them that ſell the yron at too deare a price, and to puniſh them, after the quantity of the treſpaſſe.

Cap. VI.

Who ſhall be Coroners, and by whom and where they ſhall be choſen.

Who ſhall be Coroners, and where they ſhall be choſen. Stat.3.Ed.1.10. Raſt.pla fo.132.

ITem, it is ordeyned and accorded, that all Coroners of the Counties ſhall be choſen in the full Counties, by the Commons of the ſame Counties, of the moſt meete and moſt lawfull people that ſhall be found in the ſaid Counties, to execute the ſaid office; ſaued alwayes to the King and other Lords, which ought to make ſuch Coroners, their ſeignories and franchiſes. Cap. VII.

No Sheriffe ſhall continue in his office aboue one yeare.

No Sheriffe ſhall continue in his office aboue one yeare.

ITem, it is ordeyned and eſtabliſhed, that the Sheriffes of the Counties ſhall be remoued euery yeare out of their offices, ſo that no Sheriffe that hath beene in his office by a yeare, ſhall abide in the ſame office the yeare next following. And that no commiſſion be made to him thereof, or renewed for the ſame yeare following. St.14.Ed.3.7.42.Ed.3.9.23 H.6.8.Raſt.pla.fo.202.

Cap. IX.

No Writ ſhall be directed to a Sheriffe to charge an Enqueſt to endict any.

No writ ſhal be directed to the Sheriffe to charge a Iury to indict any.

ITem, because that the people of the Realme haue ſuffered many euils and miſchiefes, for that Sheriffes of diuers Counties, by vertue of Commiſſions and generall Writs granted to them at their owne ſuit, for their ſingular profit to gaine of the people, haue made and taken diuers enqueſts to cauſe to indict the people at their will, and haue taken fine and ranſome of them to their owne vſe, and haue deliuered them, whereas ſuch perſons indicted were not brought before the Kings Iuſtices to haue their deliuerance: It is accorded & eſtabliſhed for to eſchew all ſuch euils and miſchiefes, that all ſuch Commiſſions and Writs before this time made, ſhall be vtterly repealed, and that from henceforth no ſuch Commiſſions nor Writs ſhall be graunted. Fitz.N.B.fo.92.C.144.I.250.

Cap. X.

The penalty of the Mayor, Sheriffes, &c. of London if they doe not redreſſe Errors and Miſpriſions there. And in what Counties the Triall thereof ſhall be.

The penalty of the Mayors, Sheriffes, &c. of London which doe not redreſſe errors and miſpriſions there.

ITem, becauſe that the errors, defaults, and miſpriſions, which be notoriouſly vſed in the City of London for default of good gouernance of the Mayor, of the Sheriffes, and the Aldermen, cannot be enquired nor found by people of the ſame City: It is ordeyned and eſtabliſhed, that the ſaid Mayor, Sheriffs, and Aldermen, which haue the gouernance of the ſame City, ſhall cauſe to be redreſſed and corrected the defaults, errors, & miſpriſions aboue named, and the ſame duly puniſh from time to time vpon a certaine paine, that is to ſay, at the firſt default a thouſand markes to the King, and at the ſecond default two thouſand markes, and at the third default that the Franchiſe and liberty of the City be taken into the Kings hand. And be it begun to enquire vpon them at S. Michael next comming, ſo that if they doe not cauſe to be made due redreſſe as afore is ſaid, it ſhall be enquired of their defaults by enqueſts of people of foreine Counties, that is to ſay, of Kent, Eſſex, Suſſex, Hertford, Buckingham and Berke, as well at the Kings ſuit as others that will complaine.

The trial of the defaults of the Mayor, &c. of London touching gouernement, ſhalbe by enqueſt of foreine Counties. The Conſtable or Lieutenant of the Tower ſhal receiue and execute the K. Writs.

And if the Mayor, Sheriffes, & Aldermen be by ſuch enqueſts thereto aſſigned, indicted, they ſhall be cauſed to come by due proceſſe before the kings Iuſtices, which ſhall be to the ſame aſſigned out of the ſaid City, before whom they ſhal haue their anſwer as well to the K. as to the party. And if they put them in enqueſts, the ſame enqueſts ſhall be taken by foreine people as afore is ſaid. And if they be attainted, the ſaid paine ſhall incurre and be leuied of the ſaid Mayor, Sheriffes, & Aldermen for default of their gouernance. And neuertheleſſe the plaintiffes ſhall recouer the treble damages againſt the ſaid Mayor, Sheriffes, & Aldermen. And becauſe that the Sheriffs of London be parties to this buſineſſe, the Conſtable of the Tower, or his Lieutenant, ſhall ſerue in the place of the Sheriffes, to receiue the Writs, as well Originals of the Chauncery as Iudicials, vnder the Seale of the Iuſtices, to doe thereof execution in the ſaid City. And Proceſſe ſhall be made by Attachment, and Diſtreſſe, and by Exigend, if néed be: ſo that at the Kings ſuit the Exigend ſhall be awarded after the firſt Capias returned, and at the third Capias returned, at the ſuit of the party. And if the Mayor, Sheriffes, and Aldermen haue lands or tenements out of the City, Proceſſe ſhall be made againſt them by Attachments and Diſtreſſes in the ſame Counties, where the lands or tenements be. And that euery of the ſaid Mayor, Sheriffes and Aldermen which doe appeare before the ſaid Iuſtices, ſhall anſwer particularly for himſelfe, as well at the perill of other, which be abſent, as of himſelfe. And this ordinance ſhal be holden firme and ſtable, notwithſtanding any maner Franchiſe, Priuiledges, or Cuſtomes. And this ordinance ſhall extend to all Cities and Boroughs of the Realme, where ſuch defaults or miſpriſions be vſed, and not duely corrected nor redreſſed. Sauing that the enqueſts ſhall bee taken by forreine people of the ſame County, where ſuch Cities or Boroughs be. And that the paine of thoſe of the ſaid Boroughes and Townes, which ſhal be thereof attainted, ſhall be iudged by the diſcretion of the Iuſtices, which ſhall be thereto aſſigned. St. 1. H. 4. 15. St. 31. Ed. 3. 10.

What proceſſe ſhalbe awarded in this ſuit.

This ordinance prouided for London, ſhall extend to all Cities and Boroughs.

CAP. XI.

Freſh ſute and Huy and Cry ſhall be made after robbers from Country to Country.

ITem, becauſe that great clamour and grieuous complaints be made, as well by Aliens as by Denizens, that Merchants and others paſſing through the Realme of England with their merchandiſes and other goods, be ſlaine and robbed, and namely now more then they were wont, whereof remedy hath not béene made to the complainants: Our Lord the King conſidering the profit, which may come to the ſaid Realme by comming and abiding of the ſaid Merchants aliens in the ſame Realme, and the dammage and miſchiefe, which to them and other is done daily by ſuch manſlaughters, and robberies, and willing to prouide for the ſurety and indemnity of Merchants and other aforeſaid, hath ordeyned and eſtabliſhed, by the aſſent of all his Parliament, to the intent that Merchants Aliens ſhall haue the greater will & courage to come into the ſaid Realme of England, and that remedy from henceforth be ſpéedily made to ſuch Merchants and other robbed, according to the forme conteyned in the Statute late made at Wincheſter, that is to ſay, that ſolemne Cry be made in all Counties, Hundreds, Markets, Fayres, and all other places where ſolemne aſſembly of the people ſhall be, ſo that none by ignorance ſhall excuſe him, that euery Country from henceforth be ſo kept, that immediately after Felonies and Robberies done, freſh ſute be made fro Towne to Towne, and fro Country to Countrey, and Enqueſts if néed be, ſhall be alſo taken in the Townes by him, which is Soueraigne of the Towne, and after in Hundreds, Franchiſes, and in the County, and ſometime in two, thrée or foure Counties, in caſe when Felonies ſhalbe done in the Marches of the Counties, ſo that the offendors may be attainted. And if the Countrey doe not anſwer of ſuch offendors, the paine ſhall be ſuch, that euery Countrey, that is to ſay, the people dwelling in the Countrey, ſhall anſwer of the robberies done, and of the damages, ſo that all the Hundred where the robbery ſhall be done, with the Franchiſes which be within the precinct of the ſame Hundred, ſhall anſwer of the robbery done. And if the robbery be done in the diuiſion of two Hundreds, both Hundreds ſhall anſwer together with the Franchiſes. And longer terme ſhall not the Countrey haue after the robbery or felony done then forty dayes, within which, them behoueth to make grée of the robbery, or of the offence, or that they anſwer of the bodies of the offendors. Stat. 27. El. 13. Stat. 18. Ed. 2.

Stat. 13. Ed. 1. 1. 2. Huy and Cry ſhalbe leuied, & freſh ſuit ſhalbe made after robbers, from towne to towne, and from countrey to countrey.

The penalty of the countrey if robbers offending therein, be not taken within xl. dayes.

CAP. XII.

Within what time purueyances made for the Kings houſe ſhall be payed for.

ITem, for that the meane people of the Realme, and diuers other haue complained of the grieuances done to them, becauſe the Purueyors of our Lord the King, the Quéene, and of the Prince, and of other, haue taken of them their goods, liuings, and victuals, and thereof haue deliuered them tailes, aſſigning to them a day and place to receiue their payment at forreine places and farre off, where they diſpended the value of the thing ſo taken of them, or the double, before that they haue receiued their payment, and oftentimes haue failed of all. The King willing to prouide a remedy againſt ſuch grieuances, hath ordeyned and ſtabliſhed, for the quietneſſe and eaſe of his people, that of all purueyances, which be or ſhall be made to his vſe, or to any others vſe, within the ſumme of twenty ſhillings, payment ſhall be thereof made incontinently vpon the purueyance made, without deliuering any taile for any day or place elſwhere to bee thereof aſſigned. And that of other purueyances made to the ſumme of twenty ſhillings and aboue, payment ſhall be made within a quarter of a yeare then next following, after ſuch purueyances made, at certaine dayes and places, according as it may be moſt for the eaſe and leſſe trauaile of the people.

Purueyances made to the K. vſe vnder xx. s. ſhall be preſently payed for, and al aboue within a quarter of a yeare.

Cap. XIII.

The warranty of packing of wooll ſhall be put out. An enqueſt ſhall be de medietate linguæ where an Alien is partie.

ITem, it is accorded and eſtabliſhed, that all the ordinances made in the great counſaile holden at Weſtminſter, the Monday next after the Feaſt of Saint Matthew the Apoſtle laſt paſt, together with certaine declarations & additions made in this preſent Parliament, be firmely kept and holden for a Statute to endure for euer, which declarations and and additions doe follow in this manner: whereas it is conteyned in the ſayd Ordinances, that euery Merchant, that ſelleth his Wools at the Staple, ſhall be bound to warrant the packing of the ſame Wools: and if a plea of debate be moued before the Mayor of the Staple, betwixt the Merchants or miniſters of the ſame, and thereupon to try the truth thereof, an enqueſt or proofe ſhall be taken, then if both parties be Aliens, it ſhall be tryed by Aliens, and if both parties be denizens, it ſhall be tryed by denizens, but if the one partie be denizen and the other alien, halfe of the enqueſt or of the proofe ſhall be of denizens, & the other halfe of aliens. And alſo that no Merchant priuy nor ſtranger, nor other of what condition that he be, ſhall goe by land nor by water to meete ſuch ſhips charged with Wines, wares, or other merchandiſes comming into the Realme of England, nor other lands of the Kings, in the Sea nor elſewhere, for to foreſtall, buy or in other maner giuing them earneſt, before that they come to the Staple, or to the Port were they ſhalbe diſcharged, nor enter the ſhips for ſuch cauſe till the Merchandiſes be ſet to land for to ſell: It is accorded and ſtabliſhed, that the warranty of packing of Wools for diuers miſchiefes, which the Commons haue thereof perceiued, ſhall wholly be out. And that no man be holden to make ſuch warranty vnleſſe it be by couenant made by deed enſealed. Alſo that no man, other then a Merchant denizen or alien, that knoweth the lawes and vſages of the Staple, vſed before that the ſaid ordinances of the Staple were made, ſhall be charged by the ſame lawes and vſages, till they bee declared in Parliament.

And that in all maner of Enqueſts and proofes, which be to be taken or made amongſt aliens and denizens, be they Merchants or other, as well before the Mayor of the Staple, as before any other Juſtices or miniſters, although the King be party, the one halfe of the Enqueſt or proofe ſhall be denizens, and the other halfe of aliens, if ſo many aliens and forreiners be in the Towne or place where ſuch enqueſt or proofe is to be taken, that be not parties, nor with the parties in contracts, pleas, or other quarrels, whereof ſuch enqueſts or proofes ought to be taken: and if there be not ſo many aliens, then ſhall there be put in ſuch enqueſts or proofes, as many aliens as ſhall be found in the ſame Townes or places which be not thereto parties nor with the parties as afore is ſaid, and the remnant of denizens, which be good men and not ſuſpitious, to the one party nor to the other.

And that no maner of Ship, which is fraught towards England or elſewhere, be compelled to come to any Port of England, nor here to abide againſt the will of the Maſters and Mariners of the ſame, or of the Merchants, whoſe the goods be. And if ſuch ſhips come of their own good will, or be driuen by tempeſt or other misfortune or miſchiefe to any Port in England, and the Maſters, Mariners, or Merchants of the ſame Ships will ſell or deliuer part of their merchandiſes with their good will, it ſhall be lawfull for euery man to buy ſuch merchandiſes freely without impeachment, in the Port where ſuch Ships ſhall come, albeit the ſaid merchandiſes be not put to land to ſell, ſo alwayes that no Merchant nor other ſhall goe by land nor by water to meet ſuch Ships charged with merchandiſes, to foreſtall the ſame merchandiſes, or to giue them earneſt by way of foreſtalling, vpon the paines contayned in the third Article of the ſaid ordinances, ſo that the Maſters, Mariners, and Merchants, after that they haue ſo ſold that, which pleaſeth them of their ſaid goods, and payed thereof the cuſtome, may freely depart and goe with their ſhips and all the remnant of their goods whither it ſhall pleaſe them without cuſtome therof to be payed. And that none, of what condition that he be, by art or engine ſhall diſturbe any ſhip charged with merchandiſes to come to any Port of England, but to the Port where the Maſters, Mariners, and Merchants will firſt of their free will arriue, nor after they haue arriued, ſhall meddle with the ſale of the ſame merchandiſes nor diſturbe the Merchants, nor their ſeruants, that they may not themſelues by their owne hands, according as to them beſt ſhall ſeeme for their profit, ſell and deliuer their merchandiſes, at what time and to whom ſhall them beſt pleaſe. And if any ſet diſturbance, he ſhall incurre a grieuous forfeiture to the King, according to the quantity of the Treſpaſſe.

None ſhall foreſtall merchandiſes comming towards this Realme. Stat. 27. Ed. 3. 3.

The Statute of Herrings, made Anno 31. Edw. tertij, & Anno Domini 1357.

FOr as much as the commons of the Realme of England, at the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the Monday next after the wéeke of Eaſter, the yeare of the reigne of our Lord the King, Edward the third of England xxxi, and of France xviij. haue complained them to our Lord the king, becauſe that the people of great Yarmouth doe encounter the Fiſhers bringing Herring to the ſaid towne in the time of the Fayre, and doe buy and foreſtall the Herring before they doe come to the towne. And alſo the Hoſtelers of the ſame towne that lodge the Fiſhers comming thither with their Herring, will not ſuffer the ſaid Fiſhers to ſell their ſaid Herring, nor meddle with the ſale thereof, but ſell them at their owne will as deare as they will, and giue to the Fiſhers that pleaſeth them, whereby the Fiſhers doe withdraw themſelues to come thither. And ſo is the Herring ſet at much greater price then euer it was, to the great damage of our Lord the King, of the Lords and of all the people: wherefore our Lord the King ſéeing the miſchiefes in this behalfe, by the aſſent of the great men & al the Commons, hath ordeyned and ſtabliſhed remedy vpon the ſaid miſchiefes in the forme as followeth.

Cap. I.

Herrings ſhall not be bought or ſold on the Sea. At what time they ſhall be ſold.

FIrſt, that no Herring be bought nor ſold in the Sea, till the Fiſhers be come into the Hauen with their Herring, and that the Cable of the Ship be drawen to the land. St.5.El.5.

No Herring ſhall be ſold on the Sea.

Cap. II.

The order and time of bringing and ſelling of Herring at Yarmouth Faire. How many Herrings ſhall be accompted C. and how many a M. Who ſhall gouerne the Faire.

ITem, that the Fiſhers be frée to ſell their Herring to all that come to the Fayre of great Yarmouth, without any diſturbance of their Hoſtelers, or any other. And when the Fiſhers will ſell their merchandiſes in the Port, they ſhall haue their Hoſtelers with them, if they there will be, and in their preſence and the preſence of other Merchants openly ſhal ſel their merchandiſes. And that euery man claime his part for the taking after the rate of the ſame merchandiſes ſo ſold. And the ſaid ſale ſhall be made from the Sun riſing, till the Sun going downe, and not before nor after, vpon forfeiture of the ſame merchandiſes. And that the ſaid Fiſhers be free to buy their victuals and that which they need, where ſhall pleaſe them. And that no Hoſtlers nor other, buy any for to hang in their houſes by couin nor in other maner, at an higher price the Laſt then forty ſhillings, but leſſe in as much as he may, according as he may agree with the ſeller. And that no Hoſtelers nor any of their ſeruants, nor any other whatſoeuer he be, comming to the ſaid Fayre, ſhall goe by land nor by Sea to foreſtall Herring priuily nor openly, but the Herring ſhall come freely vnſold vnto the Hauen. Nor that any Riber make buying of freſh Herring in the Hauen of Yarmouth betwixt the Feaſts of S. Michael and S. Martin, vpon paine of impriſonment at the Kings will, and to forfeit all the Herring ſo bought. And that no veſſell called Piker of London, nor of none other place, ſhall enter into the ſaid Hauen to abate the Fayre in damage of the people, vpon the paine of forfeiture of their veſſell, and all their cattels found within. And that all the Hoſtelers be ſworne before the Wardens of the ſaid Fayre, and enioyned vpon a great forfeiture to the King, to receiue their gueſts well and conueniently, and to ayde and eaſe them reaſonably, taking of euery Laſt that ſhall be ſold to other Merchants then to the ſaid Hoſtelers, xl.d. And that of Herring ſold to the ſame Hoſtelers to take in their houſes, the ſame Hoſtelers ſhall take nothing, and that becauſe of the profits, which they ſhall haue of victuals ſold to their ſaid gueſts, and of the aduantage that they haue more then other of carriage of Herring ſo by them bought and hanging in their houſes. And that the Hoſtelers becauſe of this ordinance, doe not refuſe their gueſts, but receiue them and intreate them in good and friendly manner, as they haue done before time. And that they for the aduantage of xl.d. the laſt, take vpon them for the payment of all the Herring that ſhall be ſold by their aſſent to any perſons. And the hundred of Herring ſhall be accompted by ſixe ſcore and the Laſt by ten thouſand. And that the Merchants of Yarmouth, of London, or elſewhere, ſell the thouſand of Herring to the people after the rate of the price of the Laſt. And that the people of Yarmouth ſell the Laſt of redde Herring bought for xl.s. freſh within xl. dayes for halfe a marke of gaine, and not aboue. And that the people of London at ſuch Fayre ſhal bring the Laſt from Yarmouth to London for one marke of gaine, and not aboue. And alſo two Laſts of ſhotten Herring freſh ſhall be ſold for the price aſſeſſed of the buying of a Laſt of full Herring: and ſo of more and leſſe after the ſame rate, and of ſhotten Herring red, the two Laſts ſhall be ſold deerer of a marke then the Laſt of Herring full redde, and that becauſe the carriage of a Laſt of ſhotten Herring draweth to as much as the Laſt of full Herring, and ſo of more and leſſe, according to the ſame rate. And that the Ships called the Pykers, ſhall freely buy freſh Herring and all other merchandiſes of Fiſhes in Kyrkeley, and elſewhere vpon the coaſts of the Sea, without impeachment or diſturbance of the Hoſtelers of Yarmouth or of any other. So alwayes that no more Herring be diſcharged in the road of Kyrkeley out of the Fiſhers ſhips, but as much as may reaſonably ſuffice to the charge of the Pykers that thither ſhall come for the ſame cauſe. And that the Fiſhers bee compelled to bring all the remnant of their Herring to the ſaid Fayre to ſell there. So that none ſell Herring in any place about the hauen of Yarmouh by ſeuen miles, except in three townes of Yarmouth, that is to ſay, Eſton, Weſton, and Southon, vnleſſe it be Herring of their owne fiſhing. And our Lord the King doth wil, that the Barons of the fiue Ports ſhal cauſe to be kept & gouerned the ſaid Fayre according to the compoſition late made betweene them & the people of the towne of Yarmouth confirmed by the Kings grandfather. And that the ſame Barons and Bayliffes of great Yarmouth cauſe to be kept theſe preſent ordinances in all points, and to be cryed in euery Sunday betweene S. Michael and S. Martin, vpon paine to loſe their Franchiſe, and to be puniſhed at the Kings will. And that the people of Yarmouth ſuffer the ſaid Barons of the fiue Ports to gouerne and rule the ſaid Fayre after the purport of the ſaid compoſition, and due execution to be made of this ordinance, vpon the paine laſt aforeſaid: And theſe ordinances in the right of buying & ſelling of Herring ſhall be holden in all the Townes of England, where Herring is taken and ſearched, vpon the paines aforeſaid.

An Ordinance of Herring, made anno 35.Ed.3.
& Anno Domini 1360.

All perſons may buy Herring in the Faire of Yarmouth openly, and not priuily. No man ſhall enter into a bargaine of Herring vntill the first Chapman haue done with it.

THough that late at the procurement of ſome, doing Vs and our Counſell to vnderſtand, that becauſe that the Hoſts of our Towne of great Yarmouth, which lodge the Fiſhers comming there with their Herring, in the time of the Faire, will not ſuffer the ſaid Fiſhers to ſell their Herrings, nor to meddle with the ſale of the ſame, but ſell them at their owne will as déere as they will, and giue the Fiſhers that pleaſeth them, ſo that the Fiſhers do withdraw themſelues to come there, and the Herring was ſet at a greater dearth then it was before. Amongſt other things it was ordained by Vs and our Counſell, that the ſaid Fiſhers of Herring ſhould be frée to ſell their Herring to all people that will come to the ſaid faire of Yarmouth without any diſturbance of their Hoſt or any other. And when the ſaid Fiſhers would ſell their merchandiſes in the Port, they ſhould haue their Hoſts with them, if they would be there, and in their preſence and in the preſence of other Merchants, openly ſhould ſell their merchandiſes to whom them pleaſed. And if other Merchants preſent would haue part of the ſaid merchandiſes, euery of them ſhould haue for his part vpon the taking, after the rate of the ſame merchandiſes ſo ſold. And the ſaid ſale ſhall be made from the Sunne ryſing til the Sunne going downe, and not before nor after. And that no Hoſtelers nor other, buy Herring to hang in his houſe by couin nor in other maner at an higher price the laſt then fortie ſhillings. Neuertheleſſe becauſe it is ſhewed to vs, and to our Counſell by Petition in this preſent Parliament, that the ſale of Herring is much decayed, and the people greatly endamaged by the points aforeſaid; that is to ſay, that many Merchants comming to the Faire, as well labourers and ſeruants, as other, doe bargaine for Herring, and euery of them by malice and enuie encreaſe vpon other, and if one profer xl.s. another will profer x.s. more, and the third lx.s. and ſo euery one ſurmounteth other in the bargaine, and ſuch profers extend to more then the price of the Herring vpon which the Fiſhers profered it to ſell at the beginning: and when euery man claimeth his part of the Herring for the price accorded, he ſhall haue his part, and the Herring ſhall be ſo deuided amongſt them, that the Fiſher is ſo much greeued and delayed in the gathering of his mony, that he ſhould demand of ſo many perſons, that he leeſeth his mart and the aduantage of his Fiſhing. And alſo herein that no freſh Herring is put to ſale, but from the Sunne riſing till the Sunne going downe, and not before nor after, which is to the great loſſe of Fiſhers, and appairing of the Herring, & damage of the people that ſhall buy the ſame, for the fiſhing is more by night then by day, & often it chanceth, that the Fiſhers be ſo long and ſo charged, that they come to the Towne after Sunne going downe, or little before, ſo that they cannot ſell their Herring in the time for the ſale limited, ſo that they muſt abide all the night and the day after vpon the ſale of their Herring, and loſe many marts and profits of their fiſhing. We perceiuing the miſcheeues and grieuances aforeſaid, by the aduice and aſſent of our Parliament will and grant that it ſhall be lawfull to euery man, of what condition that he be, Merchant or other, to buy herring openly, and not priuily at ſuch price as may be agreed betwixt him and the ſeller of the ſame Herring. And that no man enter in bargaine vpon the buying of the ſame, till he that firſt commeth to bargaine ſhall haue an end of his bargaine greeable to the ſeller, and that none encreaſe vpon other during the firſt bargaine, vpon paine of forfeiture to vs the double of his profer, but euery man ſhall haue the Herring ſo bought according to the bargaine thereof made. And that euery Fiſher may deliuer and ſell his Herring and Fiſh at euery Part, when he commeth to the ſaid Towne of great Yarmouth, without any diſturbance or impeachment: Notwithſtanding any Ordinance made to the contrary before this time. In witneſſe whereof We haue cauſed theſe our Letters Patents to be made. Giuen at Weſtminſter the twentieth day of February, in the fiue and thirtieth yeare of Our raigne of England.

A rehearſall of the St. of an. 31 Ed. 3. 2. & of the inconueniences thereof.

Al perſons may buy herring in the faire time at great Yarm. openly and not priuily.

No man ſhall enter into a bargain of herring vntill the firſt chapman hath done with it.

& Anno Domini 1362.

TO the honour and pleaſure of God, and amendment of the outragious greeuances and oppreſſions done to the people, and in reliefe of their eſtate, King EDVVARD at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſt. in the fifteenth of Saint Michaell, the ſixe and thirtieth yeare of his raigne, at the requeſt of his Commons by their Petitions deliuered to him in the ſaid Parliament, by aſſent of the Prelates, Dukes, Earles, Barons, and other great men in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, hath granted for him and his heires for euer the Articles vnder written.

CAP. I.

A Confirmation of all former Statutes.

A confirmation of former Statutes.

FIrſt, that the great Charter, and the Charter of the Foreſt, and the other Statutes made in his time and in the time of his progenitors, be well and ſurely holden and kept in all points.

CAP. II.

No purueyance but for the King and Queene. The name of purueyor changed into buyer. Ready payment ſhall be made for things purueyed, and they ſhall be appraiſed.

No purueiance ſhalbe made but for the King & the Queene. St. 34. Ed. 3. 2.

ITem, for the grieuous complaint which hath been made of purueyors of victuals of the houſes of the King, the Queene, their eldeſt ſonne, and of other Lords and Ladies of the Realme, the King of his owne will without motion of the great men or Commons, hath granted and ordained in eaſe of his people, that from henceforth no man of the ſaid Realme ſhall haue any taking but only himſelfe and the Queene his companion. And moreouer of the aſſent aforeſaid it is ordained and eſtabliſhed, that vpon ſuch purueyances from henceforth to be made for the houſes of the King, and the Queene, ready payment ſhall be made in hand, that is to ſay, the price for which ſuch victuals be ſold commonly in the Markets about. And that the heinous name of Purueyor be changed and named Buyer. And if the Buyer cannot well agree with the Seller of that which he ſhall need, then the takings which ſhall be made for the ſaid two houſes, ſhal be made by the view, teſtimony, and appreiſement of the Lords, or their Bailiffes, Conſtables, and foure good men of euery Towne, and that by Indenture to bee made betwixt the Buyers and the ſaid Lords, or Bailiffes, Conſtables, and foure men conteining the quantity of their takings, and of the price, and of what perſons. And that the takings bee made in conuenient and eaſie manner without dureſſe, compulſion, menace or other villany. And that the takings and buyings be made in ſuch places, where greateſt plenty is, and that in a meet time. And that no more be taken than ſhall be needfull in the ſeaſon for the ſaid two houſes. And that the number of the buyers bee diminiſhed in as much as well may. And that ſuch bee buyers which bee ſufficient to anſwer to the King and his people, and that none of them haue deputy, and that the commiſſions be ſealed with the great Seale, and euery halfe yeere redeliuered into the Chancery, and other newly made: And that in the ſaid Commiſſions be compriſed all the matter and manner of their takings and buyings And that the ſaid Commiſſions bee made vpon the end of the ſaid Parliament, and then all the other Commiſſions of Purueyors heretofore made be wholly repealed. And that no man bee bound to obey to the buyers of other Lords againſt their agreement and will, nor to the buyers of the ſaid houſes, vnleſſe they make ready paiment in hand, as before is ſaid: and that no man be put in contempt by cauſe of diſobedience made in this behalfe: And that the takings of all manner of Corne and Malt for the ſaid two houſes, bee meaſured by meaſure according to the Standerd, ſtriked and not by heap: and for the cariages of the ſaid Corne and Malt, & for all manner of takings and buyings to be made for the ſaid two houſes, ready paiment be made in hand in the ſame manner as for the takings and buying aforeſaid. And that there be no more carriage taken than needeth, and ſhalbe neceſſary in this behalfe, and if any buyer after the new commiſſions made, make any takings or buying, or taking of carriage in other manner than is compriſed in their ſaid commiſſions, he ſhall haue puniſhment of life and of member, as in other ſtatutes is ordeined of Purueyors. The order of purſuing a Suggeſtion made to the King:

St. 9. H. 3. 29.

The order of purſuing of a Suggeſtion made to the King. St. 38. Ed. 3. 9.

ITem, though that it be conteined in the great Charter, that no man be taken nor impriſoned, nor put out of his Freehold, without proceſſe of the Law, neuertheleſſe diuers people make falſe ſuggeſtion to the King himſelfe, aſwell for malice as otherwiſe, whereof the King is often grieued, and diuers of the Realme put in dammage againſt the forme of the ſame Charter. Wherefore it is ordained, that all they which make ſuch ſuggeſtions ſhall be ſent with the ſame ſuggeſtions, before the Chancellor, Treaſorer, and his graund Counſell, and that they there finde ſuretie to purſue their ſuggeſtions, and incurre the ſame paine that the other ſhold haue had if he where attainted, in caſe that his ſuggeſtion be found euill. And that then proceſſe of the Law be made againſt them without being taken and impriſoned againſt the forme of the ſaid Charter and other Statutes. Stat. 25. Ed. 3. 4. 42. Ed. 3. 3.

Cap. XIX.

How each perſon ſhall vſe a Hawke of an others that he taketh vp.

St. 34. Ed. 3. 22.

How each perſon ſhall vſe a Hawke of another mans that he taketh vp.

The concealing or imbeſiling of a Hawke is felony.

ITem, whereas it was another time ordeined, that euery perſon that findeth any Fawlkon, Tercelet, Laner, or Laneret, or any other Hawke that is loſt of his Lords, that preſently he ſhall bring him to the Sheriffe of that Countie, and that the Sheriffe make Proclamation in all the good Townes of the Countie, that he hath ſuch Hawke in keeping, and if the Lord which hath loſt him, or any of his come to challenge him, and proue reaſonably that it is his Lords, let him pay for his coſts, and haue the Hawke, if none come within foure moneths for to challenge him, then the Sheriffe ſhall haue the Hawke, making gree to him that did take him, if he be a ſimple man, and if he be a Gentleman, & of eſtate to haue the hawke, the Sheriffe ſhall redeliuer to him the Hawke, taking of him reaſonable coſts for the time that he had him in his keeping, and if any hath taken ſuch hawke, and the ſame conceale from the Lord, to whom the hawke is, or from him Fawlkoners, or if any take him away from the Lord, and thereof be attainted, he ſhall haue two yeares impriſonment and yeeld to the Lord the price of the Hawke ſo concealed or taken away, if he had wherof, and if not, he ſhall the longer abide in priſon: Notwithſtanding this ordinance, the offenders doubt but little to offend in this behalfe. Wherefore it is ordeined and by Statute ſtabliſhed in this preſent Parliament, that if any ſteale any hawke, & the ſame carrie away, not doing the ordinance aforeſaid, it ſhall be done of him as of a theefe that ſtealeth a horſe or other thing.

STATVTES MADE AT WESTMINSTER THE FIRST YEARE OF THE RAIGNE of King RICHARD the ſecond after the Conqueſt of England, In the yeare of our Lord God, 1377.

RICHARD by the grace of God King of England and of France, and Lord of Ireland, to the Sheriffe of Northampton, greeting. Know thou that to the honour of God, and reuerence of holy Church, for to nouriſh Peace, vnity, and concord in all the parts within our Realme of England (which we doe much deſire) by the whole aſſent of the Prelates, Dukes, Earles, and Barons of this our Realme, at the inſtance and eſpeciall requeſt of the Commons of our Realme aſſembled at our Parliament holden at Weſtminſt. the fifteenth day of Saint Hillary, in the firſt yeare of our Raigne, we haue ordained and ſtabliſhed certaine Statutes in amendment and reliefe of this our ſaid Realme, in manner and forme following.

CAP. I

A Confirmation of the Liberties of the Church, and of all Statutes not repealed.

A confirmation of the liberties of the Church.

The great Charter read in Parliament.

FIrſt it is agréed, and ſtabliſhed, that holy Church ſhal haue and enioy all her rights, liberties and franchiſes wholly and without blemiſh. And that the great Charter, which at the requeſt of the ſaid Commons was read in the ſaid Parliament, and alſo the Charter of the Foreſt: and all other good Statutes & prouiſions made in the time of the progenitors of our Lord the King that now is, and not repealed: ſhall be obſerued and firmely kept in all points.

CAP. II.

The Peace ſhall be kept, and Iuſtice ſhall be done to all perſons.

Peace ſhall be maintained, & Iuſtice ſhall be done.

ITem, our ſaid Lord the King, greatly deſiring the tranquility and quietneſſe of his people, willeth and ſtraitly commandeth, that the Peace within this Realm of England be ſurely obſerued and kept, ſo that all his lawfull ſubiects may from henceforth ſafely and peaceably goe, come, and dwell according to the Law and vſage of the Realme. And that Iuſtice and right be indifferently miniſtred to euery perſon.

CAP. III.

Prelates ſhall haue their action of treſpaſſe againſt Purueyors offending.

Prelates ſhall haue their Actions of Treſpas againſt Purueyors offending, & recouer treble damages.

CAP. XII.

A priſoner by iudgement ſhall not be let at large. Confeſſion of a debt to the King to delay anothers execution.

ITem, whereas diuers people, at the ſuite of the party commanded to the priſon of the Fléet, by iudgements giuen in courts of our Lord the King, be often times ſuffered to goe at large by the Warden of the priſon, ſometime by mainpriſe or by baile, and ſometimes without any mainepriſe with a baſton of the Fléet, and doe goe from thence into the countrey about their Merchandiſes, and other their buſineſſe, and be there long out of priſon nights and daies, without their aſſent, at whoſe ſuite they be iudged, and without their grée thereof made. Whereby a man cannot come to his right and recouery againſt ſuch priſoners, to the great miſchiefe and vndoing of many people: It is ordained and aſſented, that from henceforth no Warden of the Fléet ſhall ſuffer any priſoner there being by iudgement at the ſuit of the party, to go out of priſon by mainpriſe, baile, nor by baſton, without making grée to the ſaid parties of that whereof they were iudged, vnleſſe it be by writ or other commandement of the King, vpon peine to loſe his office, and the kéeping of the ſaid priſon. And moreouer, if any ſuch Warden from henceforth be attainted by due proceſſe, that he hath ſuffered or let ſuch priſoner to goe at large againſt this Ordinance, then the plaintiffes ſhall haue their recouery againſt the ſame Warden, by writ of debt. And alſo it is ordained, that if any at the ſuit of the party iudged to another priſon for debt, treſpas, or other quarrel, will confeſſe himſelfe voluntarily, and by a fained cauſe, debtor to the King, and by that meanes to be iudged to the ſaid priſon of the Fléet, there to haue greater libertie of priſon then elſe where, and ſo to delay the party of his recouery, the ſame recogniſance ſhall be there receiued, and if he be not debtor to the King of record, his body ſhall incontinently be remanded to the priſon where he was before, there to remaine till he hath made grée to the ſaid party, and the ſame grée made, he ſhalbe immediately ſent againe to the Fléet, there to abide, till he hath made grée to the King of his recogniſance aforeſaid. *Stat.*7.*H.*4.4.

Eccleſiaſticall Iudges ſhall not be vexed for ſuits for Tithes in a ſpirituall Court.

Eccleſiaſticall Iudges nor other ſhalbe indicted or impriſoned for ſuits in any Spirituall Court for tythes, &c.

ITem, the Prelates and Clergy of this Realme doe greatly complaine them for that the people of holy Church, purſuing in the ſpirituall Court for their Tithes, and their other things, which of right ought and of old times were wont to pertaine to the ſame ſpirituall Court, and that the Iudges of holy Church, hauing cogniſance in ſuch cauſes and other perſons thereof medling according to the Law, be maliciouſly and vnduely for this cauſe indited, impriſoned, and by ſecular power horribly oppreſſed, and alſo enforced with violence by othes and grieuous obligations, and many other meanes vnduely compelled to deſiſt and ceaſe vtterly of the things aforeſaid, againſt the liberties and franchiſes of holy Church: Wherefore it is aſſented, that all ſuch obligations made or to be made by dureſſe, or violence, ſhall be of no value. And as to thoſe that by malice do procure ſuch indictments, and to be the ſame enditors, after the ſame enditées be ſo acquit, ſuch procurers & enditors ſhall haue & incurre the ſame peine that is contained in the Statute of Weſtmiſter the ſecond, of thoſe which procure falſe appeales to be made. And the Iuſtices of Aſſizes or other Iuſtices before whom ſuch enditées ſhall be acquit, ſhall haue power to enquire of ſuch procurers and enditors, and duely to puniſh them according to their deſert.

Cap. XIIII.

In an action of goods taken away, the defendant maketh title for Tithes due to the Church.

ITem, it is accorded, that at what time that any perſon of the holy Church be drawen in plea in the ſecular Court for his owne Tithes taken by the name of goods taken away, & he which is ſo drawen in plea, maketh an exception, or alledgeth that the ſubſtance and ſuite of the buſineſſe is onely vpon Tithes, due of right and of poſſeſſion to his Church, or to another his Benefice: that in ſuch caſe the generall auerment ſhall not be taken without ſhewing ſpecially how the ſame was his lay cattall.

In an action of goods carried away the def. maketh his title for Tythes due to his Church.

Cap. XV.

The penaltie for arreſting of Prieſts doing Diuine Seruice.

ITem, becauſe that Prelates doe complaine themſelues, that aſwell beneficed people of holy Church, as other, be arreſted and drawen out as well of Cathedrall Churches as of other Churches and their Churchyards, and ſometime whiles they be intended to Diuine ſeruices, and alſo in other places, although they be bearing the body of our Lord Ieſu Chriſt to ſick perſons, & ſo arreſted and drawen out, be bound and brought to priſon againſt the liberty of holy Church. It is ordained that if any Miniſter of the King or other, doe arreſt any perſon of holy Church by ſuch maner, and thereof be duly conuict, he ſhall haue impriſonment, and then be ranſomed at the Kings wil, & make gree to the parties ſo arreſted. Prouided alwaies that the ſaid people of holy Church, ſhall not hold them within the Churches or Sanctuaries by fraud or colluſion in any maner. And therefore we command, that thou cauſe all the ſaid Statutes to be cryed and publiſhed and firmely kept through thy Bailiwicke, according to the forme and tenour thereof, and that do not omit in any wiſe, Giuen vnder the witnes of our great Seale the firſt day of February in the firſt yeere of our Reigne.

And that as well theſe Merchants Aliens and Denizens and euery of them that will buy and ſell Corne, Fleſh, Fiſh and all manner other victuals and ſuſtenance, and alſo all manner of ſpiceries, Fruit, Furre, and all manner of ſmall Wares, as ſilke, goldwyre, or ſiluerwyre, couerchiefes, and other ſuch ſmall Ware, may from henceforth freely and without denying or any manner diſturbance as well in the Citie of London, as in all Cities, Boroughs, Ports of the Sea, Faires, Markets, and other places within the Realme, ſel and buy in groſſe, and by parcels to whom and of whom them pleaſe, denizens or forraigne, except the Kings enemies, and except that all manner of Wines, as well ſweet as other ſhalbe ſold by the ſaid Strangers in groſſe & by whole veſſels, as they be brought into the realme, and not at retaile by any in the ſaid Cities, Boroughes, and other townes franchiſed, but onely by the inhabitants & freemen in the ſame. And as to al other great Wares, as Cloth of gold & ſiluer, ſilke, Sandal, Papery, Cloth, Canuas & other ſuch great Wares, and alſo al maner of other great Merchandiſes not aboue expreſſed, whatſoeuer they be, from henceforth as well aliens as denizens, aſwell in the Citie of London, as in other Cities, boroughs, Ports of the ſea, townes, Faires, Markets, & elſewhere through the ſaid Realme, within franchiſe & without, may ſell the ſame in groſſe to euery perſon forraine or denizen that wil buy the ſame freely & without denying (except to the Kings enemies and the Realmes) aſwell by the bale, cloth, or by whole peeces at their pleaſure and not at retaile, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame Merchandiſes, but onely the Citizens and Burgeſſes in their owne Cities and Boroughes and other good townes fraunchiſed, to whom (and to none other ſtrange Merchant of their franchiſe,) they may, and it ſhall be lawfull to them without impeachment to vnfold, vndoe, and cut in the ſame their proper Cities, and Boroughes, the great Merchandiſes, and other great Wares aforeſaid, and as well the ſame as wines and other Merchandiſes whatſoeuer, there to ſell in groſſe and by retaile at their pleaſure, paying all the Cuſtomes and Subſidies due: notwithſtanding any Statutes, Ordinances, Charters, Iudgements, Allowances, Cuſtomes, and Vſages made or ſuffered to the contrary: which Charters and Franchiſes, if any there be, they ſhall be vtterly repealed and adnulled, as a thing made, vſed or granted againſt the common profit, or oppreſſion of the people. Sauing alwaies to Prelates and Lords of the Realm wholly their liberties and franchiſes, that they may make their Purueyances and buyings of victuals, and of other their neceſſaries as they were wont to doe in old time, and ſauing that the Ordinances made before this time of the ſtaple of Calis bee holden in their force and vertue. And it is not the Kings minde, that Merchants Strangers, or Denizens, that will buy and ſell their Wools, Woolfels, Wares, Clothes, Yron, and other Merchandiſes, at Faires, & Markets in the Countrey, ſhould be reſtrained or diſturbed, by this Statute, to ſell or buy freely in groſſe or at retaile, as they were wont to doe heretofore. And if it ſo happen, that from henceforth diſturbance be made to any Merchant Alien, or Denizen, or other, vpon the ſaile of ſuch things, in Citie, Borough, Towne, Port of the Sea, or other place that hath franchiſe, againſt the forme of this Ordinance, and the Maior, Bailiffes, or other that haue the keeping of ſuch franchiſe, required by the ſaid Merchants or other in their name therof to make remedy, do not the ſame, and thereof be attainted, the franchiſe ſhall be ſeiſed into the Kings hand. And neuertheleſſe, they that haue done ſuch diſturbance againſt this ſtatute, ſhalbe bound to render and reſtore to the plaintiffe his double dammages that he hath ſuffered by this occaſion. And if ſuch diſturbance be made to ſuch Merchants, or to other in townes, and places where no franchiſe is, and the Lord if he be preſent, or his Bailiffe, Conſtables or other Warden of the Townes, and places, in abſence of the Lords thereof, required to doe right and doe not, and thereof be duely attainted, they ſhall yeeld to the plaintiffe his double dammages, as afore is ſaid, and the diſturbors in the one caſe and the other aſwell within franchiſes as without, if they be attainted ſhall haue one yeeres impriſonment, and be ranſomed at the Kings wil. And it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the Chancellor, Treaſurer, and Iuſtices aſſigned to hold pleas of the King in the places where they come, ſhall diligently enquire of ſuch diſturbances and grieuances, and doe puniſhment according as afore is ordained. And neuertheleſſe the King ſhall aſſigne by commiſſion certaine people, where and when ſhall pleaſe him to enquire of ſuch diſturbances and grieuances and to puniſh the offenders in this party, as before is ſaid. 9.H.3.30.

AT the Parliamēt holden at Weſtminſter, the Munday next before the Feaſt of S. Hillary, the third yeare of King Richard the ſecond, of the aſſent of the Lords and other in the ſaid Parliament, our ſaid Lord hath cauſed to bee made certaine Statutes and Ordinances in the forme following.

Cap. I.

A Confirmation of the Lawes of the Church, and of the Lawes and Statutes of the Realme.

A confirmation of the liberties of the Church & the lawes of the Realme.

FIrſt it is ordained and eſtabliſhed, that holy Church haue and wholy enioy her Franchiſes and Liberties, by the maner as ſhe hath had and enioyed them in the time of the Kings Noble Progenitors, and that the good Lawes and Cuſtomes of the Realme, and the Statutes made before this time and not repealed, be holden and firmely kept and put in due execution.

Cap. II.

The penaltie of the Aulneger that ſetteth his Seale to faultie Clothes.

Stat.2.Ed.3.14.
27.Ed.3.1.
47.Ed.3.1.

ITem, becauſe that the Commons doe greatly complaine them to be grieued, for that though in the time of the Kings Noble grandfather, it was ordained for the common profit of the Realm, that all the Woollen Clothes from thenceforth to be made in England which ſhould be ſet to ſale ſhould containe a certaine meaſure in length and breadth, vpon a certaine paine compriſed in the ſaid Statute, neuertheleſſe diuers people through the Realm, not hauing regard to the ſaid Statute, make now diuers Woollen Clothes vendible, which doe not containe the meaſure nor the aſſiſe ordained by the ſame Statute, and which worſe is, cauſe ſubtilly to be tacked and ſet together with thred diuers pieces of ſuch Clothes, and after by couin betwixt them and the Kings Aulnegers, to hide and colour the falſitie, do procure the ſaid Aulneger to put the ſeale ordained vpon the ſame Clothes, to the intent and for that the buyers might beléeue, that ſuch Clothes ſo ſealed be ſufficient Clothes, and whole, containing the ſaid aſſiſe, for otherwiſe they had not béen ſealed, as they ſay, in great deceit of the people, and miſchiefe to the ſaid buyers, as well denizens as ſtrangers: It is accorded and aſſented, that the Statutes made of the ſaid Clothes before this time, and not repealed, be kept and duely put in execution. And moreouer it is aſſented that if any the ſaid Aulnegers or of the Collectors of the ſubſidie of the ſaid Clothes, do from henceforth ſet his ſeale to any ſuch Cloth ſo ſowed in deceit, the ſame Cloth ſhall be forfeit to the King, in whoſe hands ſoeuer it be found, & alſo the Aulneger or Collector thereof found guiltie, ſhall forfeit his office. And if he haue put the ſame ſeale to any other Cloth vendible, that is not of the ſaid aſſiſe, the ſame Aulneger or Collector ſhall forfeit to the King the value of the ſame Cloth ſo ſealed in deceit of the people, together with his ſaid office. And neuertheleſſe, for the ſaid falſitie he ſhall haue one yeares impriſonment, and then be ranſomed at the Kings will. And this Statute ſhall begin to hold place at the Natiuitie of Saint Iohn Baptiſt, next comming, and not before. Stat.11.H.4.6.

The penaltie of the aulneger that ſetteth his ſeale to cloth tacked together faultie or lacking aſſiſe.

CAP. III.

None ſhall take any Benefice of an alien, or conuey money to him.

ITem, becauſe that our Lord the King hath perceiued, as well by the complaints of his faithfull liege people, and by their clamour by diuerſe petitions therof deliuered in diuerſe Parliaments before this time, as otherwiſe by the perfect knowledge and experience of the deede, how the Churches Cathedrall and Collegiall, Abbeys and Priories, and other Benefices of his Realme, which were late founden, & richly endowed by his Noble Progenitors, in which diuers Dignities, Offices, Perſonages, Chanonries, Prebends, & other Benefites were ſolemnely and deuoutly ordeyned and eſtabliſhed, of the eſſent of the aforeſaid Progenitors of the King and of other their Noble Founders, which did giue to the ſaid Paſtours of the ſame Churches, Abbeys, Priories, and of other great places, the aduouſons of the ſame Benefices, to the intent that the ſame Benefices ſhould be giuen to honeſt and meete perſons of the Realme, to ſerue and honour GOD diligently, and alſo to keepe hoſpitalities, and to enforme and teach the people, and to doe other worthie things perteyning to the cure of Soules, after the eſtate and qualitie of the ſaid Benefices: and ſo was it done in all times paſt after the foundation of the ſame; till now late, that by the informations, inſtigations, & procurements of ſome of the kings liege people, the ſame Benefices haue beene giuen againſt the will of the Founders to diuers people of an other Language, and of ſtrange Lands and Nations; and ſometime to the vtter enemies of the King and of his Realme, which neuer made reſidence in the ſame, nor can not, may not, nor will not in ſuch wiſe beare and performe the charges of the ſame Benefices, as in hearing confeſſions, preaching, nor teaching the people, keeping hoſpitalitie, nor accompliſhing the other things neceſſarie to the gouernance of the ſame Benefices, but onely thereof haue and take the emoluments and temporall profits, not hauing regard to the Spirituall Cure, nor to other charges to the ſame Benefices perteyning or belonging, but manifeſtly ſuffer the noble buildings in old times there made when the ſame Benefices were occupyed by Engliſhmen, wholly to fall to decay, whereby the Diuine Seruice is greatly miniſhed, the Cure of Soules neglected and left, the Clergie enfeebled, the Treaſure of the ſaid Realme carryed to the hands of aliens, and all the Eſtate of holy Church brought to leſſe reuerence then before it was wont to be: and though that in the time of the ſaid Grandfather certaine Ordinances, ſtatutes, and Compoſitions, were made and affirmed, wholly to put out or at the leaſt to reſtraine the ſaid miſchiefes in this behalfe, neuertheleſſe the ſaid aliens not hauing regard to the ſame, doe not refraine to take and receiue ſuch Benefices within the ſaid Realme, but by the comfort, aid, and great ſuccour, which they haue had of the Kings liege people, that be their Fermors, Procurators, and Atturneys in this behalfe, and in euery part of the ſaid Realme, doe enforce themſelues from day to day more and more to accept the greateſt Dignities and Benefices within the ſaid Realme, and by diuerſe cautelous manners, much preiudiciall to the ſame Realme if that were ſuffered, whereby the ſaid miſchiefes doe daily increaſe, and much more will encreaſe if due remedie be not the ſooner prouided.

The cauſes why aduouſons of benefices were giuen to ſpirituall perſons.

The inconueniences which haue enſued by giuing of benefices to aliens.

Stat.25.Ed.3.

Our Lord the King, by the aduiſe and common aſſent of all the Lords temporall, being in this Parliament, hath ordeyned and eſtabliſhed, that none of the Kings liege people, nor other perſon, of whatſoeuer ſtate or condition that he be, ſhall not take nor receiue within the ſame Realme of England, Procuracie, Letter of Atturney, nor Ferme, nor other Adminiſtration by Indenture, nor in other manner whatſoeuer, of any perſon ef the World, of any Benefice within the ſaid Realme, but onely of the Kings liege people of the ſame Realme, without the ſpeciall grace and expreſſe licence of our Lord the King, by the aduice of his Counſell. And if any before this time haue accepted of any aliens ſuch Procuracies, Fermes, or Adminiſtration, that they ſhall vtterly leaue them within fortie daies after publication of this Ordinance. And that none of the ſaid liege people, nor other that may be found in the ſaid Realme, ſhall conuey by vertue of ſuch Procuracy, Ferme, or adminiſtration, Gold, Siluer, nor other Treaſure nor Commoditie out of the ſaid Realme by Letter of Eſchange, by Merchandize, nor in other manner to the profit of the ſaid aliens, without like licence of the King by the aduiſe of his ſaid Counſell. And if any doe the contrarie in any point conteyned in this Ordinance, he ſhall incur the peine and puniſhment conteyned in the Statute of Prouiſors, made in the time of the Kings Grandfather, the ſeuen and twentieth yeere of his Reigne, by the ſame Proceſſe compriſed in the ſaid Statute, and by warning to be made to them in their Benefices or other their poſſeſſions within the Realme. And if they be out of the ſaid Realme, and not Beneficed nor hauing poſſeſſion within the ſame Realme where they may be warned, then a Writ ſhall be made in the Chauncery grounded vpon this Ordinance to the Sheriffe of London, or to the Sheriffe of the Countie, in which they were or ſhall be borne, at the Kings ſuit, returnable in the one Bench or the other, by which Writ it ſhall be commaunded, that Proclamation bee made openly, that they appeare before the Iuſtices in the Bench, where the Writ is returnable at a certaine day compriſed in the ſame Writ, conteyning the ſpace of half a yeere to anſwer

None ſhall take in farme any benefices of the Church of an alien without the K. licence.

St.27.Ed.3.8.

Alle the veſſels of wine, vinegre, hony, & oyle brought into the realm ſhalbe gauged.

RICHARD by the grace of God, &c, to the Sheriffe of Nottingham, gréeting. The Commons of our Realme of England haue prayed vs by their Petition deliuered to vs at our preſent Parliament, holden at Northampton, conteyning how many Wines of diuers manners oftentimes brought within the Land, which doe often paſſe without gauging, becauſe that the Statutes thereupon made in the time of our grandfather, (whom God aſſoile) doe not make expreſſe mention of all manner Wines, and of other licours, to the great damage of the Lords and Commons of the ſame Realme, which be oftentimes deceyued in their buying, becauſe they cannot without gauge, haue rightfull knowledge how much the ſame veſſell will conteyne, that it may pleaſe vs, for the profit of vs and our Realme more plainly to declare the ſame Statutes, in ſuch maner, that all maner of Wines, and other licours gaugeable brought within this Realme may be compriſed in the ſame Statutes: We conſidering the ſaid Supplication to be profitable for vs, the Lords, and Commons of the ſame Realme, will and grant by the aſſent of the Prelates, and Lords aforeſaid, that the Statutes thereupon made (as is ſaid) be holden, kept, and put in due execution. And moreouer we declare, and of the aſſent aforeſaid, will and grant, that aſwell all maner veſſells of ſwéete Wines of the Rine, and of other Wines, as other veſſells of Vinegre, Oyle, Honey, and all other licours gaugeable, which from henceforth ſhall come within this Realme of England, or within our Lands of Wales and Ireland, ſhall be well and lawfully gauged by our Gaugours thereto aſſigned, or their deputies. And if any ſet debate & diſturbãce and will not ſuffer the Wines or other licours aforeſaid, to be gauged, he ſhal incur the peins ordeyned by the ſaid other Statutes. And in the ſame maner the Gaugour ſhall incur the peine compriſed in the ſame Statutes, if default be from henceforth found in them or in their deputies in this behalfe. Statute 18.H.6.17. 1.R.3.13. 28.H.8.14.

Other Statutes made at Weſtminſter, Anno 5.R.2. & Anno Domini 1381.

RICHARD by the grace, &c. to the Sheriffe of Notingham, greeting, Know thou, that to the reuerence of God and of holy Church, and for to nouriſh peace, unitie, and quietneſſe of good accord, in all parts of our Realme of England, and eſpecially for the good gouernance of the ſame Realme (which we doe chiefly deſire) of the aſſent of the Prelates, Lords and Commons aſſembled at our Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the morrow after All ſoules laſt paſt, we haue cauſed to be made certaine ordinances and Stabliſhments, as well for the amendment of the ſaid gouernance as for the common profit of the realme in the forme following.

Cap. I

A confirmation of the Liberties of the Church, and of all Statutes made and not repealed.

A confirmation of the liberties of the Church, & of the lawes of the Realme.

FIrſt, it is aſſented and accorded that holy Church haue and enioy all her Liberties and Franchiſes wholly. And that the great Charter and the Charter of the Foreſt, and all other good Statutes and Ordinances made before this time and not repealed, and eſpecially the Statutes of purueyors late made in the time of the noble King Edward our grandfather be holden, kept and put in due execution after the forme and effect of the ſame.

Cap. II.

None ſhall tranſport Gold or Silver. None ſhall depart out of the Realme without licence.

ITem, for the great miſchiefe which the Realme ſuffereth and long hath done, for that Gold & Silver, as well in money, Veſſell, Plate, and Jewels, as otherwiſe by exchanges made in diuers maners, is carried out of the Realme, ſo that in effect there is none thereof left, which thing if it ſhould longer be ſuffered, would ſhortly be the deſtruction of the ſame Realme (which God prohibit:) It is aſſented and accorded, and the King enioyneth all maner of people, Merchants, Clerks, and other, as well ſtrangers as denizens, of what eſtate or condition they be, vpon paine of as much as they may forfeit, that none of them vpon the ſaid paine priuily nor openly ſend nor carry, nor cauſe to be ſent or carried out of the ſaid Realme, any Gold or Silver in Money, Bullion, Plate, or Veſſell, neither by exchanges to be made, nor in other maner, but the wages of Callis, and of other the Kings Fortreſſes beyond the Sea, and eſpecially excepted the Prelates, Lords, and other of the ſame Realme, to whom ſometimes it behoueth neceſſarily to make paiments beyond the Sea, that of the ſame payments onely they make Eſchanges in England, by good and ſufficient Merchants for to pay beyond the Sea: and firſt ſpeciall leaue and licence had of the King, as well for the eſchangors as for the perſon which ought to make the payments, contaning expreſly the ſumme which ſhall be ſo exchanged. And it is aſſented, that the Merchants that ſo ſhall make eſchanges, ſhall be diligently examined and ſworne in their proper perſons as often as they ſhall haue the ſaid licence, that they ſhall not ſend beyond the Sea any manner of Gold nor Silver vnder the colour of the ſame exchange. And if after Proclamation of this ordinance any perſon be from henceforth duely attainted that he hath cauſed to be ſent or caried beyond the Sea, any Gold or Silver againſt this reſtraint and Ordinance, he ſhall forfeit to the K. the ſame ſumme ſo carried or ſent. And the King our Lord of his Royall Maieſty defendeth the paſſage vtterly of all maner of people, as well Clerkes as other, in euery Port and other Town and place vpon the Coaſt of the Sea, vpon paine of forfeiture of all their goods, except onely the Lords and other great men of the Realme, and true and notable Merchants, and the Kings Souldiers. And euery perſon other then is before excepted, which after publication of this Ordinãce made, ſhall paſſe out of the ſaid Realm without the Kings ſpeciall licence (which licence the King willeth and commandeth that it be not from henceforth made, but onely in one of the ports vnder written, that is to ſay, London, Sandwich, Douer, Southampton, Plimouth, Dertmouth, Briſtow, Yarmouth, Saint Botolph, Kingſton vpon Hull, Newcaſtle vpon Tine, and the other Ports and paſſages towards Ireland and the Iſles pertaining to the Realme of England) ſhall forfeit to the King as much as he hath in goods as aboue is ſaid, and neuertheleſſe the Maſter or Mariner of the Shippe, or of other veſſell in which he ſhall carry ouer beyond the Sea, any perſon but ſuch onely as be before excepted, without the ſaid licence, and thereof be conuict duly, ſhall forfeit the ſaid veſſell to the King. And the King commandeth all Wardens and Searchers of the Ports and paſſages through England, that they ſhall from henceforth diligently vſe their Office, and make good and ſtrait ſearch. And if any Searchers or Warden of the Ports and paſſages through the ſaid Realme, by negligence or in other maner doe or ſuffer wittingly to be done in any point the contrary of the ſaid two Articles touching the Money of Gold or Silver, and the ſaid paſſages of people, and thereof be duly conuict, he ſhall forfeit to the King his ſaid Office and all his goods, and his body ſhall be committed to priſon, there to abide an whole yeare without redemption. And thereupon whoſoeuer eſpieth and proueth duly that any thing be done againſt the intent of the ſaid two laſt Articles, whereby the ſaid forfeiture ought to fall vpon any perſon, he ſhall haue half of the ſame forfeiture for his labour at the Kings gift.

CAP. VII.

The penaltie where any doth enter into Lands where it is not lawfull or with force.

The penaltie where any doth enter into lands but where his entry is giuen by the law, and then with ſtrōg hand.

AND alſo the King defendeth, that none from henceforth make any entry into any Lands and Tenements, but in caſe where entry is giuen by the Law, and in ſuch caſe not with ſtrong hand, nor with multitude of people, but only in peaceable and eaſie maner. And if any man from henceforth doe to the contrary, and thereof be duely conuict, he ſhall be puniſhed by impriſonment of his body, and thereof ranſomed at the Kings will. Regiſt.f.182. CAP. VIII.

A remedie for them whoſe writings were deſtroyed in the late inſurrection.

A remedy for them whoſe writings were burned in the late inſurrectiō.

ITem, touching the Charters, Releaſes, Obligations, and other Deeds, and Muniments, brent, deſtroyed, or otherwiſe eloined in the ſame rumour, It is aſſented, that they which thereof feele them greeued, ſhall put their Petitions diſtinctly made vpon their matter ſpecially before the King and his Counſell betwixt this and the Natiuity of Saint Iohn Baptiſt, next comming at the furtheſt, and there make ſufficient proofe of the ſaid Muniments ſo loſt, and of the forme and tenor of the ſame, and that done, ſuch remedy ſhall thereof be prouided for them at euery mans complaint, as beſt ſhall ſeeme in the caſe, ſauing the Law. Stat.6.R.2.4.

CAP. IX.

Euery perſon that is impeached in the Eſchequer may plead in his owne diſcharge.

Euery perſon that is impleaded in the Eſchequer may plead in his owne diſcharge.

ITem, because that greeuous complaint hath oftentimes beene made of the Officers of the Eſchequer, for that the Heires, Executors, Occupyers of Goods, and Land Tenants, of diuers perſons which haue beene impeached in the ſaid Eſchequer, of debts, accompts, and other demands, and which although they haue offered them there to ſhew, or plead for their diſcharge of thoſe impeachments according to the Law, they haue not beene alwaies thereunto receiued heretofore, without hauing expreſſe commandement by Writ or Letter of the great Seale or priuie Seale, to the great diſquietneſſe, miſchiefe, and delay of the ſaid perſons impeached and no aduantage to the King: It is ordained and aſſented, that the Barons of the ſaid Eſchequer ſhall from henceforth haue full power to heare euery anſwere of euery demand made in the ſame Eſchequer, ſo that euery perſon that is impeached or impeachable of any cauſe by himſelfe, or by any perſon, ſhall be from henceforth receiued in the ſame Eſchequer to plead, ſue, and haue his reaſonable diſcharge in this behalfe, without tarrying or ſuing any Writ, or other commandement whatſoeuer.

CAP. X.

The Couenants of thoſe that ſhall ſerue the King in his Warres or Embaſsies ſhall be put in writing, and ſent into the Eſchequer.

ITem, becauſe that great miſchiefes haue happened in times paſt to diuers perſons, as well to Lords of the Realme, as other, which were retained or aſſigned to ſerue our Lord the King by Indentures or without Indentures, in his Warres and his Meſſages, or in other maner, and for the ſame cauſes receiue certain ſummes of mony at the receit of the ſaid Eſchequer or elſewhere by aſſignement, which ſummes haue beene put vpon them in the Rolles of the ſaid Eſchequer, as money receiued by way of lone, and for that cauſe the ſame ſummes ſhould runne in demand vpon them at the Eſchequer as a cleere debt, although the ſaid perſons ſo retained, their Heires, Executors, Occupyers of their Goods or Land Tenants, after their death haue demanded to be admitted to accompt of the ſummes receiued, which hath not beene granted to them, but they haue beene conſtrained to purſue their graunt by the Great or Priuie Seale directed to the Treaſurer and Barons there, whereby it was commanded to the Treaſurer and Barons to accompt with them in this behalfe: which Warrants oftentimes haue beene denied, becauſe that the Kings Officers, newly made, percaſe had no knowledge of ſuch retaining made before their time: and ſometime haue beene granted, but not ſo fully as reaſon and the caſe required: and for as much as the ſame warrant would that accompt ſhould not be receiued but only of the ſumme ſo receiued by lone, whereas a greater ſumme percaſe was due to them of reaſon, to the great miſchiefe and hinderance of the ſaid perſons: It is ordained and aſſented, that of all people, which from henceforth ſhall be retained or aſſigned to ſerue the King, their Couenants ſhall be put in writing and ſent to the Eſchequer, there to remaine of Record, ſo that at what time that any perſon ſo retained, his heires, or executors, occupiers of the goods, or land tenants come to accompt thereof at the Eſchequer, they ſhall be thereto receiued, and haue due allowance in their accompt, according to the content of their couenant, if percaſe any repeale or countermand be made of ſuch retinue of any perſon after that his couenants be put in writing, and ſent to the ſaid Eſchequer; as is aforeſaid, the ſame repeale likewiſe ſhall be put in writing, and ſent to the Eſchequer, ſo that by the ſight of the ſame repeale, and of the couenants before there ſent, the Barons of the ſaid Eſchequer, ſhall doe right to the party according as the Law and reaſon demandeth. And if any thing be due vnto them by the ſame accompt, that thereof by certificate of the ſame Eſchequer; the Treaſorer and the Chamberlaines ſhall make payment or aſſignement to them without tarrying or ſuing other warrant, or commandement of the great or priuy Seale in this behalfe.

The couenants of thoſe which ſhall be retained to ſerue the king in his warres or Embaſſets ſhall be ſent into the Eſchequer.

Cap. XI.

The Accompts in the Eſchequer ſhall be more ſpeedily heard then they were wont.

ITem, it is ordained and aſſented, that the accompts in the Eſchequer ſhall be more ſhortly heard, made, and ingroſſed, then they were wont heretofore: Sauing alwaies that the parcels of the ſame accompts be made as fully as they were wont in times paſt, and that by ordinance to be made by the Barons of the ſaid Eſchequer, there to endure of Record for euer.

The Accompts of the eſchequer ſhall be more ſpeedily heard then before they were.

Cap. XII.

Two Clerks ſhall be aſſigned to make parcels of Accompts in the Eſchequer.

ITem, it is ordained and aſſented, that two clerks ſhall be aſſigned to make parcels of accounts in the ſame Eſchequer to them that will demand the ſame, and they ſhall be ſworne that they ſhall commit no falſehood in their office, and ſhall take for their Labour of them to whom they ſerue reaſonably, according to the ordinance of the Barons of the ſaid Eſchequer.

Two Clerks ſhall be aſſigned to make parcels of Accompts in the Eſchequer.

Cap. XIII.

Accompts of Nihil ſhall be put out of the Eſchequer. An accomptant diſcharged vpon his Othe.

ITem, it is ordained and aſſented, that the accompts of Nihil in the Eſchequer, ſhall be wholly put out, or if any ſuch accompts ought there to remaine, the accomptants preſently after their othe made in the ſaid Eſchequer ſhall be examined by the Barons there, if they ſhould or ought to anſwer the King of any thing in this behalfe. And if it be found by their ſaid othe that they ought not, then by the ſame their othe they ſhall be diſcharged to yeeld other accompt before any auditor. The Kings right alwaies ſaued.

Accompts of Nihil ſhall be put out in the Eſchequer.

Cap. XIIII.

The Clerke of the Pipe, &c. ſworne for the entrie of Writs of the great and priuy Seale.

ITem, it is accorded and aſſented, that the Clerke of the Pipe, and the Remembrancers of the Eſchequer ſhall be ſworne, that from terme to terme they ſhall ſee (whiles the ſaid Eſchequer ſhall be open) all the Writs of the great Seale, or of the priuy Seale, which ſhall be ſent to the ſaid Eſchequer the ſame terme for the finall diſcharge of any perſon of the Realme of any demand in the ſaid Eſchequer; and that euery of them to whom it pertained, ſhall make due execution of the ſaid commandement. And alſo it is ordained and aſſented, that the ſaid two Remembrancers ſhall be ſworne of their part, that euery terme from henceforth they ſhall make a ſcedule of all the perſons that ſhall be diſcharged in their offices by iudgement, or in other maner in the ſame terme of any demands, in the ſame Eſchequer, containing the maner of the ſame diſcharges, and to deliuer the ſame ſcedule to the ſaid Clerke of the Pipe the ſame terme, to the intent that the ſame Clerke of the Pipe ſhall thereof diſcharge the ſaid parties in the great rolle. Alſo the ſaid Clerke of the Pipe ſhall be ſworne, that he from terme to terme ſhall require the ſame ſcedules, and the ſame ſcedules by him ſo receiued, he ſhall diſcharge the ſaid parties in the maner aforeſaid. And in the ſame maner the ſaid Clerke of the Pipe for his part ſhal cauſe to be certified in writing to the ſaid Remembrancers of all ſuch diſcharges which ſhall be made in his office, to the intent that a man diſcharged in one place be diſcharged in all other places of the ſaid Eſchequer.

The Clerke of the Pipe and the two remembrancers ſhall be ſworne for the entry of writs of the great or priuy Seale. &c.

Cap. XV.

Vpon a Iudgement of Liuerie, the Remembrancer ſhall cauſe the ſuit to ceaſe.

How the Remembrancer ſhall vſe a Iudgment of Liuery comming out of any Court into the Eſchequer.

ITem, though that many times heretofore diuers perſons haue had liuery of their Lands and Tenements out of the Kings hands, by iudgement giuen for them in the Kings Bench, or elſe where, and of the ſame iudgements, after haue procured to ſend the tenure of the Records and proceſſes thereof made by Writ of Mittimus, into the ſaid Eſchequer, to the intent for to diſcharge them of the accompts demanded of them vpon the ſame Tenements, neuertheleſſe the officers of the ſame Eſchequer would not in times paſt diſcharge the ſaid perſons thereof, before that the ſame records and proceſſes were word by word newly entred in the Eſchequer, and thereupon new proceſſe made, and new iudgements there another time giuen, to the great damage and delay of the parties, without profit to the King: It is ordained, and aſſented, that from henceforth after that ſuch record, or the tenour of the ſame, ſhall come into the ſaid Eſchequer by the Kings commandement (as it is ſaid) that the Remembrancer, in whoſe office ſuch accompts ſhal be demanded, ſhall preſently cauſe the ſuit to ceaſe in that behalfe by words to be entred vpon the indorſment of the Writ, touching the tenour of the record of the ſaid Iudgement, without new Iudgement or making of Proceſſe further in this behalfe.

Cap. XVI.

The Fees of the Clerkes of the Eſchequer for making Commiſſions, or Records of Niſi prius.

The Clerkes Fee for making of a Commiſſion or Record of Niſi prius in the Eſchequer.

ITem, it is aſſented, and the King ſtraightly defendeth, that from henceforth nothing ſhall be giuen for making of a Commiſſion in the ſaid Eſchequer for the fee of a Clerke which ſhall make the ſame aboue two ſhillings only, nor for the record of Niſi prius with this Writ, but two ſhillings onely, as afore this time was wont to be done and vſed.

Other Statutes made at Weſtminſter, Anno 5. R. 2. & Anno Dom. 1382.

FOr the common profit of the Realme of England, diuers ordinances and ſtabliſhments haue beene made by our Lord the King, the Prelates, Lords, and Commons of the ſaid Realme, being in this preſent Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the Tueſday next after the Feaſt of S. Iohn Portlatine, the fift yeare of the raigne of our Lord King RICHARD the ſecond, in the forme following.

Cap. I

Merchants Strangers may come vnto, continue and depart forth of the Realme.

Merchants ſtrangers may come into this Realme, continue here and depart at their pleaſures.

FIrſt it is accorded and aſſented in the Parliament, that all maner of Merchants Strangers, of whatſoeuer Nation or Countrey they be, being of the amitie of the King and of his realm ſhall be be welcome, and freely may come within the Realme of England, and elſewhere within the Kings power, aſwell within franchiſe, as without, and there to be conuerſant, to Merchandiſe and tarry as long as them liketh, as thoſe whom our ſaid Lord the King, by the tenour hereof taketh into his protection and ſafegard, with their goods, Merchandiſes, and all maner familiars. And for ſo much the King willeth and commandeth, that they and euery of them be well, friendly, and Merchantlike intreated, and demeaned in al parts within his ſaid Realm and power, with their Merchandiſes and all maner goods, and ſuffered to go and come, and into their proper Countrey peaceably to returne without diſturbance or impeachment of any. CAP. III.

In which Courts Writs of Nuſance called Vicountiels ſhall be purſued.

In what courts writs of Nuſance called vicountiels ſhall be purſued. Regiſt. fol. 199. V.N.B. fol. 110. Fitz. N.B. fo. 104.

ITem, it is ordeined and accorded, that all Writs of Nuſances, commonly called Vicountiels ſhall be from henceforth made at the election of the plaintiffe in the nature of old times vſed, or elſe in the nature of Aſſiſes determinable before the Kings Iuſtices of the one Bench or the other, or before the Iuſtices of Aſſiſe to be taken in the county of the place aſſigned or to be aſſigned. Stat. 13. Ed. 1. 24.

CAP. IIII.

Deedes inrolled that were deſtroied in the late inſurrection exemplified ſhall be of force.

Deedes that were inrolled & late imbeſiled by Rebels in an Inſurrection being exemplified ſhalbe of the ſame force as the Deedes.

ITem, it is accorded, that all inrolments of déeds, and other muniments in the Rolles of the Chancery, of either Bench and the Eſchequer of our Lord the King before this time enrolled, and after by Traitors to the King and his Realm, in the inſurrection late made within the ſame Realme ſeditiouſly remoued, torne, and rent, or otherwiſe imbeſiled, ſhall be in a due forme exemplified vnder the Kings great Seale without fée of the Seale thereof to be paid, and that the ſame exemplifications ſo had, ſhall be of the ſame effect and ſtrength in all things, as the ſame déeds and muniments ſhould haue béene, if they were had whole and vnhurt. St. 5. R. 2. 8.

CAP. V.

Iuſtices of Aſſiſe &c. ſhall hold their Seſſions in principall townes.

Iuſtices of Aſſiſe and Gaole deliuery ſhall hold their Seſſions in the principall Townes. St. 11. R. 2. 11.

ITem, it is ordained and accorded, that the Iuſtices aſſigned and to be aſſigned, to take Aſſiſes and deliuer the Gaoles, ſhall from henceforth hold their Seſſions in the principall and chiefe Townes of euery of the Counties, where the Shire Courts of the ſame Counties be holden and hereafter ſhall be holden. Stat. 14. H. 6. 3.

CAP. VI.

The penalties of the man and woman, where a woman rauiſhed doth conſent. In an Appeale of Rape the defendant ſhall not wage battell.

The penalties both of the man and the woman where a woman rauiſhed doth conſent.

ITem, againſt the offendors and Rauiſhers of Ladies, and the daughters of Noble men, and other women in euery part of the ſaid Realme, in theſe dates offending more violently, & much more then they were wont: It is ordeined and ſtabliſhed, that whereſoeuer, and whenſoeuer ſuch Ladies, daughters, and other women aforeſaid be rauiſhed, and after ſuch rape doe conſent to ſuch Rauiſhors, that aſwell the Rauiſhors, as they that be rauiſhed, and euery of them, be from thenceforth diſabled, and by the ſame déed be vnable to haue or challenge all inheritance, dower, or ioyntfeoffement after the death of their husbands and aunceſtors. And that incontinently in this caſe the next of the blood of thoſe Rauiſhors, or of them that be rauiſhed, to whom ſuch inheritance, dower, or ioyntfeoffement ought to reuert, remaine, or fall after the death of the Rauiſhor or of her that is ſo rauiſhed, ſhall haue title immediately, that is to ſay, after the Rape to enter vpon the Rauiſhor, or her that is Rauiſhed, and their aſſignes, and land tenants, in the ſame inheritance, dower, or iointfeoffement, and the ſame to hold in ſtate of inheritance. And that the husbands of ſuch women, if they haue husbauds, or if they haue no husbands in life, that then the Fathers or other next of their blood, haue from henceforth the ſuit to purſue and may ſue againſt the ſame offendors and rauiſhors in this behalfe, and to haue them thereof conuict of life, and of member, although the ſame woman after ſuch Rape doe conſent to the ſaid rauiſhors. And further it is accorded that the defendant in this caſe ſhall not be receiued to wage battell, but that the truth of the matter be thereof tried by inquiſition of the Countrey. Sauing alwaies to our Lord the King, and to other Lords of the ſaid Realme, all their Eſcheates of the ſaid Rauiſhors if peraduenture they be thereof conuict. St. 3. Ed. 1. 13. 13. Ed. 1. 34.

No Victualler ſhall execute a Iudiciall place in a Citie, or Towne Corporate.

ITem, it is ordained and enacted, that neither in the Citie of London, nor in other Cities, Boroughs, Townes, or Ports of the Sea, through the Realme, any Victualler, ſhall haue, exerciſe, nor in no wiſe occupy any Iudiciall office, but in ſuch Towne where none other perſon ſufficient may be found to haue the ſame office. In which caſe, yet the ſame Iudge for the time that he ſhall continue in the ſaid office, ſhall vtterly omit and abſtaine himſelfe, and his from the exerciſe of Victualling, vpon paine of forfeiture of his victualls ſo ſold. Stat.12.Edw.2.6. 3.H.8.8.

No victualler ſhall exerciſe a iudiciall place in any city or town corporate.

Cap. X.

Aliens being in Amitie with the King and the Realme, may bring in victualls and ſell them.

ITem, it is ordained and accorded, that all manner of Foreines and Aliens being of the amitie of the King, and of his Realme, and comming within the ſaid Citie of London, and other Cities, Boroughs, and Townes within the ſaid Realme, as well within Liberties as without, with Fiſh and all maner of other victualls, there tarying & going againe to their owne Countries ſhall from henceforth be vnder the ſafegard and the ſpeciall protection of our ſaid Lord the King. And there it ſhall be lawfull to them and euery of them, and by force of theſe preſents, they may from henceforth cut their fiſhes and victualls aforeſaid, without impeachment or denying of any man, in pieces, and in part, or in all, at retaile, or in groſſe, as to them beſt ſhall ſeeme, to ſell and make their profit: any Charters, Statutes, Ordinances, Priuiledges, or Cuſtomes made or had to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Aliens being in amity with the King and the Realme, may bring in victuals and ſell them in groſſe. St.14.H.6.6.

Cap. XI.

He in the reuerſion ſhall haue an attaint or Writ of Error vpon a falſe verdict found, or an erronious iudgement giuen againſt the particular tenant.

ITem, it is accorded and aſſented, that if the tenant for terme of life, tenant in dower, tenant by the curteſie of England, or tenant in taile after poſſibilitie of iſſue extinct be impleaded and plead to an Enqueſt, and loſe by the oath of twelue, or by default, or in other maner, that he, to whom the reuerſion of the tenements ſo loſt, doth appertaine at the time of ſuch iudgement giuen, his heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall haue an action by Writ of Attaint, to attaint the ſame oath, if they will aſſigne the ſame oath to be falſe, and alſo by Writ of Error, if error be found in the record of ſuch iudgement, as well in the life of ſuch tenants that doe loſe, as after their death. And if ſuch iudgement erronious be reuerſed, or ſuch falſe oath be found, that the tenant which did loſe by the firſt iudgment, if he be in life, ſhal be reſtored to his poſſeſſiõ of the tenemẽts ſo loſt, with the iſſues in the meane time, and the partie purſuing to the arrerages of the rent if any be due to the ſame tenements. And if ſuch tenants be dead at the time of the iudgement giuen vpon ſuch Writs of Attaint, and of error, that reſtitution of the ſaid tenements be made to the partie purſuing, with the iſſues after the death of the ſaid tenant, together with the arrerages of the rent, if any to him were due in the life of the ſaid tenant.

He in the Reuerſion alledgeth that the particular tenant was of couin with the demandant.

The particular tenants remedy to trauerſe the couin.

Prouided neuertheleſſe, that although the tenant which ſo did loſe by the firſt iudgement be in life, and the partie purſuing will alledge, that the ſame tenant was of couin, and of aſſent of the demandant, which recouered, that ſuch ought to be loſt, that reſtitution of the ſame tenements bée made to the ſame party purſuing, with the iſſues and arrerages, as afore is ſaid, Sauing to ſuch Tenant his action by Writ of Scire facias, out of the ſame iudgement ſo reuerſed or giuen, or Writ of Attaint, if he will trauerſe the couin and aſſent aforeſaid, and otherwiſe not. And that this Statute hold place of iudgements to be giuen in time to come. And alſo of two iudgements late giuen in the Kings Bench in two Pleas of error, the one betwixt Edmund Frances, and Idein his wife demandants, and Robert Weſtby, and other tenants of certaine tenements in Oxenford, and in the ſuburbs of the ſame town: and the other betwixt the ſaid Edmund and Idein demandants, and Richard Cornewall, and Iſabell his wife, and other tenants of certaine tenements in the ſame towne, of which tenements the reuerſion at the time of the ſaid two iudgments giuen, did pertaine to the Maſter and Schollers of the College of the Vniuerſitie Hall in Oxenford, as it is ſaid, ſo that the Maſter and Schollers may haue and doe their ſuit by Writ of Attaint or of Errour of the ſame iudgements, as to them beſt ſhall ſéeme according to the forme of this Statute. 23.H.8.3.

All Merchants Aliens and Denizens may buy and ſell within this Realme without interruption.

St.9.Ed.3.1.

Merchants may buy and ſell wares, victailes, and all other commodities within the realme without diſturbance. 9.H.3.30.

ITem, whereas by a ſtatute made at Yorke, the ninth yeare of K. Edward 3 grandfather of the King that now is, it was ordained and ſtabliſhed, that all merchants aliens and denizens, and all other, and euery of them, of what eſtate and condition they be, which will buy or ſell corne, wine, auoir de pois, fleſh, fiſh, and all other victualls, wooll, clothes, wares, merchandiſes, and all other things vendible, from whenceſoeuer they come, by foraines or by denizens, to what place that it be, be it Citie, Borough, Towne, Port of the ſea, Faire, Market, or other place within the ſame realme, within franchiſe or without, may freely and without diſturbance ſell the ſame to whom pleaſe them, as well to foraines as denizens, except to the enemies of the King and of his Realme: And if percaſe diſturbance be done to any Merchant alien or denizen, or other, vpon the ſale of ſuch things in citie, borough, towne, port of the ſea, or other place which hath a franchiſe, and the Maior, Bailiffes, or other, that haue the keeping of the ſaid franchiſe be required by the ſaid Merchants or other, thereof to make remedy, and doe not, and thereof be attainted, the franchiſe ſhall be taken into the Kings hand: And neuertheleſſe he and other which haue done this diſturbance againſt this ſtatute, ſhall be bound to yeeld and reſtore to the ſaid Merchant his double damages, which he hath ſuſtained by this occaſion. And if ſuch diſturbance be done to ſuch Merchant, or to other in townes or places where no franchiſe is, and the Lord, if he be preſent, or his Bailiffe, Conſtable, or other Warden of the ſaid townes and places, in abſence of the Lords thereof, required to doe right, doe not, and thereof be attainted, they ſhall yeeld to the plaintiffe his double damages, as afore is ſaid, and the diſturbers in the one caſe and the other as well within franchiſe as without, if they be attainted, ſhall haue impriſonment of one yeare, and neuertheles be ranſomed at the Kings will. And that no alien nor denizen vpon the ſame paines, be diſturbed but that he may freely buy the things aboue named in the places aforeſaid, and carry the ſame where pleaſeth him to his owne vſe, or to the profit of the King, the great men, and the people of the realme, except that the Merchants aliens ſhall carry no wines out of the realme (as it is contained in their Charter) and that the ſaid things be holden, kept and performed in euery citie, borough, towne, port of the ſea, and other places within the ſaid realme: notwithſtanding any charters of franchiſe to them granted to the contrary, nor vſage, cuſtome nor iudgement giuen vpon their charters, vſages, nor cuſtomes which they can alledge: which charters, vſages & cuſtomes (if any there were) the ſaid K. the grandfather, the prelats, earles, barons & great men & commons aforeſaid doe hold of no forca, as things granted, vſed and accuſtomed to the damage of the King, the Prelates, Earles, Barons, and great men of his Realme, and oppreſſion of the Commmons.

Sauing alwayes to the King and to other, the cuſtomes due of the ſaid Merchandiſes. And alſo that the Chancellor, Treaſurer, and Iuſtices aſſigned to hold the pleas of the King in places where they come, ſhall enquire of ſuch diſturbances and grieuances and puniſh according as is before ordained. And neuertheleſſe the King ſhall cauſe to be aſſigned by Commiſſion vnder the great Seale, certaine people, where and when it ſhall pleaſe him to enquire of ſuch diſturbances and grieuances, & to execute puniſhment; as aforeſaid. And after by a Statute made at a Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xxv. yeare of King Edward the third, it was ordained, by the ſame Edward the Grandfather, Prelates, Earles, Barons, and all other great men and Commons, that the ſaid Statute made the ſaid ix. yeare, in all points and articles contained in the ſame, ſhould be holden and kept, maintained. And if any Charter, letters patents. Proclamation or commandement, vſage, allowance or iudgement were made to the contrarie, the ſame ſhould be vtterly repealed, auoided and holden for none. And moreouer that euery Merchant or other, of what condition that he be, aſwell Alien as Denizen which ſhall bring Wines, fleſh, and fiſh, or victuals, Clothes, Fels, or auoir de pois, or any other Wares or Merchandiſes to the Citie of London, or to other Cities, Boroughes or good townes of England, or Port of the Sea, may freely and without challenge or impeachment of any, ſell them in groſſe or at retaile, or by parcels, at his will, to all manner people that will buy the ſame: notwithſtanding any grant, franchiſe or Cuſtome vſed, or any other manner thing done to the contrary, ſince that ſuch franchiſes, and vſages be in common preiudice of the King and of all his people. And that no Maior, Bailiffe, Catchpole, Miniſter or other ſhall meddle with the ſale of any maner of victuals vendible carried or brought to Cities, Boroughes, nor other Townes, nor Faire, nor Market, but onely he to whom the victuals ſhall be. And alſo that Proclamation be thereof made of new in all the Counties of England, and in the Citie of London, and in all other Cities, Boroughs, and good townes and Ports of the Sea, and elſewhere within the Realme of England, where it ſhall bee needfull. And that the ſaid King the Grandfather ſhall thereupon cauſe to bee aſſigned his Iuſtices at all times that ſhall pleaſe him and ſhall be neceſſary, to enquire of all them that ſhall ſell or any thing doe to the contrary, and to puniſh them according to the paine contained in the ſame Statute, made the ſaid ninth yeare. And that euery man that will ſue againſt any, ſhall haue a writ out of the Chancery to attach him by his body, as a diſturber of the common profit, and to make him come to the anſwer thereof, in the Kings Court, as by the ſame ſtatutes plainely doth appeare: Our Lord the King ſeeing cleerely that the ſaid Statutes if they were holden and fully executed ſhould much extend to the profit & wealth of all the Realme, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed by the aſſent of the Prelates, Dukes, Earles, Barons, Great men, Nobles and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Statutes ſhall from henceforth be firmely holden, kept, maintained, and fully executed in all the points and articles of the ſame, notwithſtanding any ordinance, Statute, Charter, Letters Patents, Franchiſe, Proclamation, Commandement, Vſage, Allowance, or iudgement made or vſed to the contrary. And that if any Statute, Ordinance, Charter, Letters Patents, Franchiſe, Proclamation, Commandement, vſage, allowance or iudgement bee made or vſed to the contrary, it ſhall bee vtterly repealed, auoided, and holden for none. Who may enquire of and puniſh the foreſaid offences.

Ann.25.Ed.3.2.

Merchants may ſell their wares in groſſe, or by retaile, or by parcels, notwithſtanding any grant or Cuſtome to the contrary. 2.R.2.1.

The Stat. of 9.Ed.3.1. & 25.Ed.3.2. ſhall be executed in all points, notwithſtanding any Charter &c.

Cap. VIII.

Certaine annnities granted by the King, his father and Grandfather, made voide.

ITem, it is ordained and ſtabliſhed that all the Annuities and other things giuen or granted by our Lord the King, or by his father or Grandfather to any manner perſons with the clauſe: Quouſque pro ſtatu ſuo aliter duxerimus ordinandum, ſhall be wholy void and of no force, if the ſame perſons haue accepted afterward any other things of the King and of his ſaid father or Grandfather.

Cap. IX.

No new Impoſition ſhall be put vpon Merchandiſes.

ITem, that no impoſition, or charge be put vpon Wools, Leather, or woolfels, other then the cuſtome and Subſidie granted to the King in this preſent Parliament, and if any be the ſame ſhall be repealed, and annulled, as it was another time ordained by Statute, ſauing alwayes vnto the King his ancient right.

Cap. X.

The Kings Signet or priuie Seale, ſhall not be ſent in diſturbance of the Law.

ITem, it is ordained and eſtabliſhed, that neither letters of the Signet, nor of the Kings priuie ſeale, ſhall be from henceforth ſent in damage or preiudice of the Realme nor in diſturbance of the Law. Stat.9.H.3.29.2.Ed.3.8.

No ſeale of the kings ſhall be ſent to preiudice the cōmon Law.

Cap. XI.

The keeping of Aſſiſes in good townes, referred to the conſideration of the Iuſtices, &c.

Stat.6.R.2.5.

The keeping of Aſſiſes in good townes referred to the conſideration of the Chanceller and Iuſtices.

Item, whereas late in a Statute made at Weſtminſter the firſt yeare of the Kings Raigne that now is, amongſt other things it was ordained and accorded that the Iuſtices aſſigned and to be aſſigned to take aſſiſes, and deliuer Goales ſhould hold their Seſſions in the chief and principall townes of euery County, that is to ſay, where the Shire courts of the ſame counties be or hereafter ſhall be holden: our Lord the King conſidering how the ſaid Statute is in part preiudiciall and grieuous to the people of diuers counties of England, will and grant of the aſſent aforeſaid, at the requeſt of the ſaid Commons, that the Chancellor of England for the time being, ſhall haue power thereof to make and prouide remedy by aduiſe of the Iuſtices from time to time when need ſhall be, notwithſtanding the ſaid Statutes.

Statutes made at Canterbury, Anno 12.R.2. & An. Dom. 1388.

For the common profit and vniuerſall wealth of all the Realme of England, our Lord the King, at his Parliament holden at Canterbury the morrow after the Natiuity of our Lady the xij. yeare of his raigne by the aſſent of the Lords and Commons there aſſembled, hath made certaine Statutes and Ordinances in the forme following.

Cap. I.

A confirmation of the liberties of the Church, and of all former Statutes not repealed.

A confirmation of the liberties of the Church and of former Statutes.

First it is accorded and aſſented that holy Church haue all her liberties and franchiſes. And that the great Charter and the Charter of the Foreſt and all other Statutes and Ordinances made in times paſt, and not repealed ſhall be duely holden and firmely kept.

Cap. II.

None ſhall obtaine offices by ſuit, or for reward, but vpon deſert.

Co.Inſt. 134.a.

None ſhall obtaine offices by ſuit or for reward but by deſert.

Item, it is accorded that the Chanceller, Treaſurer, Keeper of the priuie Seale, Steward of the Kings houſe, the Kings Chamberlaine, Clerke of the Rolles, the Iuſtices of the one Bench and of the other, Barons of the Eſchequer, and all other that ſhall be called to ordaine, name, or make Iuſtices of Peace, Sheriffes, Eſcheators, Cuſtomers, Comptrollers, or any other Officer or Miniſter of the King ſhall be firmely ſworne, that they ſhall not ordaine, name or make Iuſtices of Peace, Sheriffe, Eſcheator, Cuſtomer, Comptroller nor other officer nor Miniſter of the King for any gift or brocage, fauour or affection, nor that none, which purſueth by him, or by other priuily or openly to be in any maner office, ſhall be put in the ſame office, or in any other: but that they make all ſuch officers and Miniſters of the beſt, and moſt lawfull men and ſufficient to their eſtimation and knowledge.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter, Anno 13.R.2. & Anno Dom.1389.

IN the Parliament holden at Weſtminſt. the Munday next after the feaſt of Saint Hillary, the xiij. yeare of the Raigne of King RICHARD the ſecond after the Conqueſt, our Lord the King, to the honour of God and holy Church, and for the common profit of his liege people of his realm, of the aſſent of the Prelates and Lords temporall, and Commons being in the ſame Parliament, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed the things vnder written.

Cap. I.

The kings preſentee ſhal not be receiued to a Church full of an incūbēt, vntill he hath recouered it by law.

FIrſt, whereas it is ordained by a Statute made the xxv. yeare of the Raigne of King Edw. the Grandfather of our Lord the King that now is, that at what time that the King ſhall make collation or preſentment to any benefice in anothers right, that the title vpon which he groundeth himſelfe ſhall be well examined that it be true, and at what time before iudgement giuen, the title be found by good information vntrue and not iuſt, the collation or preſentment thervpon made ſhall be repealed: and notwithſtanding the ſame Statute ſome of the Kings preſentees by fauour of the Ordinaries be inſtituted and inducted in benefices of holy Church without due proceſſe: the parties not warned nor called, and ſometime taken by falſe enqueſts fauourably, and the incumbents in ſuch maner put out. It is ordained and aſſented, that the ſaid Statute be firmely holden and kept. And moreouer our Lord the King, for the reuerence of God and holy Church, doth will and grant, that if he preſent to any benefice that is full of any incumbent, that the preſentee of the King ſhall not be receiued by the Ordinary to the Benefice, till the King hath recouered his preſentment by proceſſe of the Law in his owne Court: and if any preſentee of the King be otherwiſe receiued, and the incumbent put out without due proceſſe, as afore is ſaid, the ſaid incumbent ſhall begin his ſuit within a yeare after the induction of the Kings preſentee at the leaſt. Stat.4.H.4.22.

The Stat. of Ed.3.3. confirmed touching the examination of the Kings Title to a Benefice when he preſenteth in anothers right.

When the King preſenteth to a Benefice full of an incumbent his preſentee ſhall not be receiued vntill he hath recouered by Law.

CAP. II.

The authority of the Conſtable of England and the remedy where it is abuſed.

ITem, becauſe that the Commons doe make a grieuous complaint, that the court of the Conſtable and the Marſhals hath incroched to him, and daily doth incroch contracts, couenants, treſpaſſes, debts and detinues & many other actions pledable at the Common Law, in great preiudice of the King, & of his Courts, and to the great grieuance and oppreſſion of the people: Our Lord the King willing to ordaine a remedy againſt the preiudices & grieuances aforeſaid, hath declared in this Parliament by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, the power and iuriſdiction of the ſaid Conſtable, in the forme that followeth. To the Conſtable it pertaineth to haue cogniſance of contracts touching deeds of Armes and of Warre out of the Realme, and alſo of things that touch warre within the Realme, which cannot bee determined nor diſcuſſed by the Common Law, with other vſages and Cuſtomes to the ſame matters pertaining, which other Conſtables heretofore haue duly and reaſonably vſed in their time. Ioyning to the ſame, that euery plaintiffe ſhal declare plainely his matter in his petition before that any man be ſent for to anſwere thereunto. And if any will complaine, that any plea be commenced before the Conſtable and Marſhall, that might be tryed by the Common Law of the Land, the ſame plaintiffe ſhall haue a priuy Seale of the King without difficulty directed to the ſaid Conſtable and Marſhal, to ſurceaſe in that plea, vntill it be diſcuſſed by the Kings Counſell, if that matter ought of right to pertaine to that court, or otherwiſe to be tried by the Common law of the Realme of England, and alſo that they ſurceaſe in the meane time. Stat.28.E.1.3.8.R.2.5. 33.H.8.12.Raſt.pla.fol.278.

The authority of the Conſtable of England and wherein it conſiſteth.

The remedy where the Conſtable & Marſhall hold plea of any thing determinable by the cōmon law.

CAP. III.

The limits of the Steward and Marſhals court of the Kings houſe.

ITem, it is accorded and aſſented, that the Court of the Steward and Marſhall of the Kings houſe, nor alſo the iuriſdiction thereof, ſhall not paſſe the ſpace of twelue miles, to be counted from the lodging of our ſaid Lord the King. Fitz.N.B.fo.281.B.

The limits of the Steward and Marſhals Court.

CAP. IIII.

The dutie of a Clearke of the Market of the Kings houſe.

ITem, at the requeſt of the ſaid Commons, it is ordained & aſſented that the Clerke of the Market of the Kings houſe, ſhal doe his office well and duly. And that all falſe meaſures & weights ſhall be burned after the forme of the Statute. And that the ſaid Clerke take no Common fine, but that euery perſon, which is found in default touching the ſame office, be puniſhed according to his deſert, and that he ſhall not ride but with vj. horſes at the moſt, and that he ſhall not tary in any towne nor other place longer then the neceſſity of his buſineſſe ſhall require: and if he doe any thing contrary to this Statute, and be thereof duely conuict, he ſhall pay to the King at the firſt time that he ſhall be conuict, an C.s. and at the ſecond time x.li. and at the third time xx.li.

The dutie of the Clerke of the Market of the Kings houſe

CAP. V.

With what things the Admirall and his deputie ſhall meddle.

ITem, for aſmuch as a great and common clamour and complaint hath beene oftentimes made before this time, and yet is, for that the Admirals and their Deputies hold their Seſſions within diuers places of this Realme, as well within Franchiſe as without, accroching to them greater authoritie then belongeth to their Office, in preiudice of our Lord the King and the Common Law of the Realme, and in diminiſhing of diuers Franchiſes, and in deſtruction and impoueriſhing of the common people. It is accorded and aſſented, that the Admirals and their Deputies ſhall not meddle from henceforth, of any thing done within the Realme, but onely of a thing done vpon the Sea, as it hath beene vſed in the time of the Noble Prince King Edward, grandfather of our Lord the King that now is. Stat.15.R.2.3. 2.H.4.11.Raſt.pla.fol.23.

CAP. VI.

How many Serieants at armes there ſhall be, and with what things they ſhall medle.

ITem, at the grieuous complaint made by the Commons to our Lord the King in this Parliament, of the exceſſiue and ſuperfluous number of Serieants at Armes, and of many great extortions and oppreſſions done by them to the people. The King therefore doth will that they ſhal all be diſcharged, and that of them and other there ſhalbe taken of good and ſufficient perſons to the number of thirty, and no more from henceforth. And moreouer the King prohibiteth them to meddle with any thing that toucheth not their office. And that they doe no extortion nor oppreſſion to the people, vpon paine to loſe their office, and to make a fine and ranſome at the Kings pleaſure, and full ſatisfaction to the partie.

There ſhalbe but xxx. Serieants at armes who ſhall meddle with nothing but touching their offices.

CAP. VII.

What ſort of perſons ſhall be Iuſtices of Peace, and what their charge is to doe.

What ſort of perſons ſhalbe Iuſtices of Peace, & what their charge is to doe. 12.R.2.10.

ITem, whereas it is contained in the laſt Statute made at Canterbury, that no Steward of any Lord, ſhal be aſſigned in the Commiſſion of the Iuſtice of Peace, neuertheles for certaine cauſes ſhewed in this Parliament: It is accorded and aſſented, that Iuſtices of Peace ſhall bée made of new in all the Counties of England, of the moſt ſufficient Knights, Eſquires, & Gentlemen of the Law of the ſaid Counties, notwithſtanding the ſaid Statute. And that the ſaide Iuſtices be ſworne duly and without fauour to kéepe and put in execution all the Statutes and Ordinances touching their offices. *Sta.1.Ed.*3.16.4.*Ed.*3.2.12,*R.*2,10.2.*H.*5.4.18.*H.*6.11.

CAP. VIII.

The rates of labourers wages, ſhalbe aſſeſſed and proclamed by the Iuſtices of Peace: And they ſhall Aſſeſſe the gaines of victualers. Who ſhall make Horſebread and the weight and price thereof.

St.12.R.2.9.

ITem, it is ordained and aſſented, that the Statutes and Ordinances made in the laſt Parliament holden at Canterbury, aſwell of ſeruants, labourers, artificers, and victualers, as of all other things, ſauing the exception in the next article before touching Iuſtices of peace, and alſo all other Statutes and Ordinances made before this time, and not repealed, ſhalbe firmely kept and duely executed, but foraſmuch as a man cannot put ye price of Corne and other victuals in certaine, it is accorded and aſſented, that the Iuſtices of Peace in euery County, in two of their Seſſions to be holden betwixt the Feaſt of Eaſter and Saint Michael, ſhall make Proclamation by their diſcretion according to the dearth of victuals, how much euery Maſon, Carpenter, Tiler and other Craftſmen, Workemen, and other Labourers by the day, as wel in harueſt as in other times of the yéere, after their degrée, ſhall take by the day with meat and drinke, or without meat & drinke, betwéene the two Seſſions beforeſaid, notwithſtanding the Statutes thereof heretofore made: and that euery man obey to ſuch Proclamations from time to time as a thing done by Statute. And in the right of victualers it is accorded, that they ſhall haue reaſonable gaines, according to the diſcretion and limitation of the ſaid Iuſtices and no more, vpon peine to be grieuouſly puniſhed according to the diſcretion of the ſaid Iuſtices, where no paine is limited in certaine before this time. And that Sheriffes, Stewards of Lords of franchiſes, Maiors, & Bailiffes, and all other that haue Aſſiſe of bread and ale to kéepe, and the correction of the ſame, ſhall take no amerciament or fine for any default touching the Aſſiſe, for the which a man or woman by the Law ought to haue bodily puniſhment, according as it is another time ordained by ſtatute, but they ſhal iudge them to the ſame bodily puniſhment, as the offence requireth & ſhall doe due execution therof. And that Maiors, Bailiffes & Stewards of franchiſe, and all other that haue the order and ſuruey of victuals in Cities, Boroughs, Merchant townes and elſewhere, where victuals be ſold in the Realme, ſhall put the Statute made the xxiii. yéere of the Reigne of King Edward grandfather to the King that now is, which beginneth. There ſhalbe but one weight and one meaſure through the Realme, Sauing in the Countie of Lancaſter. The weight of Wooll, and the refuſe thereof.

ITem, it is ordained and accorded, that one meaſure and one weight be through all the Realme of England, as in the great Charter, and other Statutes and Ordinances thereof made is more plainely contained. And euery one that ſhalbe conuict that hath or vſeth any other meaſure or weight ſhall haue impriſonment of halfe a yeare, & make recompence to the partie grieued to the double of his loſſe, except it be in the Countie of Lancaſter, becauſe in that Countie it hath allwayes béene vſed to haue greater meaſure then in any other part of the Realme. And that none buy or ſell wooll at more weight then at fouretéene pound the ſtone, vpon paine to pay the double to him that féeleth him grieued, and to make fine and ranſome to the King after the quantitie of the treſpaſſe. And that no denizen nor forrein make any other refuſe of woolls but cot, gare, and villeine. And that no Merchant nor other man buy his wools by theſe words, good packing, nor by like words, vpon paine, that is to ſay, the Broker to haue impriſonment of halfe a yeare, and the buyer to make a fine to the King after the quantitie of the treſpaſſe, and the party that féeleth him grieued ſhall haue double damages of that which he hath ſuffered by the ſaid occaſion. And that none ſhall make wools to be cocketted but in the name of him to whom the wools be, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, as it hath béene another time ordained by Statute. The length and bredth of Cogware, and Kendall cloth.

Item, although it be ordeyned by diuers Statutes, that all maner clothes of ray and of colour, ſhall be of a certaine length and breadth compriſed in the ſame Statutes, neuertheleſſe for as much as it hath béene a common cuſtome to make certaine clothes in diuers counties of England called Cogware and Kendall cloth, of the breadth of thrée quarters of a yeard, whereof ſome be of the price of xl.d. and ſome of v.s. and ſold to Cogmen out of the Realme, and alſo to poore & meane people within the Realme, of the which clothes a great part is made of the worſt wooll within the Realme, that cannot well ſerue for any other clothes: It is accorded and aſſented, that from henceforth it ſhal be lawfull to euery man to make ſuch maner of clothes of the length and breadth as it hath béene vſed before this time, notwithſtanding any Statute made to the contrarie. Prouided alwaies, that the makers and workers of ſuch clothes ſhall not make them of any better wooll then they were wont to doe. And alſo it is aſſented, that all ſuch clothes as be arreſted by force or colour of the ſaid Statutes or any of them, ſhal be diſcharged and redeliuered. *Stat.*2.E.3.1. 25.Ed.3.1. 47.Ed.3.1. 12.R.2.14. 5.Ed.6.6. 43.El.10.4.Ia.2.

Cogware and Kendall cloth may be made of ſuch length and brea dth as they haue beene.

Cap. XI.

The clothes of certaine Counties tacked and folded ſhall not be put to ſale before they be opened.

Item, for as much as diuers plaine clothes that be wrought in the Counties of Somerſet, Dorſet, Briſtow, and Glouceſter, be tacked and folded together and ſet to ſale, of the which clothes a great part be broken, brouſed, and not agréeing in the colour, neyther be according in breadth, nor in no maner to the part of the ſame clothes ſhewed outwards, but be falſely wrought with diuers wools, to the great deceit, loſſe, and damage of the people, in ſo much that the Merchants that buy the ſame clothes, and carry them out of the Realme to ſell to ſtrangers be many times in daunger to be ſlaine, and ſometime impriſoned, & put to fine and ranſome by the ſame eſtrangers, and their ſaid clothes brent or forfeit becauſe of the great deceit and falſehood that is found in the ſame clothes, when they be vntacked and opened, to the great ſlander of the Realme of England: It is ordeyned and aſſented, that no plaine cloth tacked nor folded ſhall be ſet to ſale within the ſaid Counties, but that they be opened, vpon paine to forfeit them, ſo that the buyers may ſée them, and know them, as it is vſed in the county of Eſſex: and that the workers, Weauers, and Fullers, ſhall put their ſeales to euery cloth that they ſhall worke, vpon a certaine paine to be limited by the Juſtices of the Peace: and that this ordinance begin to hold place at the Feaſt of Saint John Baptiſt next following. Prouided alwayes, that after the Merchants haue bought the ſame clothes to carrie and doe carrie them out of the Realme, they may tacke them and fold them at their pleaſure; for the more eaſie carriage of them.

In what caſe a Protection Quia profecturus, or Quia Moratur is not allowable.

ITem, becauſe that many perſons be delayed as well in actions reall as in actions perſonall by protection, with the clauſe of Volumus, for that many people, as well ſuch as be not able to be retained in warre, as other by the teſtimoniall of the Gouernours of the Marches, Captaines of Gariſons, Admirals, and other doe purchaſe diuers protections with clauſe of Volumus: and with clauſe Quia profecturus, &c. after that a plea is commenced againſt them, rather to delay the ſame plea, then for the Kings ſeruice, whereas plentie of other ſufficient that be not impleaded may be found to doe the King ſeruice in ſuch caſe, and often doe remaine in the countrey without going to their ſaid ſeruice, to the great damage of the purſuants, and diſturbance of common right. It is therefore ordained and aſſented, that no protection with clauſe de profecturus be allowed in any plea whereof the ſuit is commenced before the date of the protection, if it be not in a voyage that the King himſelfe goeth, or other voyages royall, or in the Kings meſſages, for buſines of the Realme, but they that be impleaded ſhall make their Atturnies to anſwer for them in ſuch pleas, or elſe they ſhall tarry themſelues if they will: howbeit, it is not the intent of the making of this Statute, but that the protection with clauſe Quia Moratur, be allowed in all caſes, as it hath been before this time. And if any tarrie in the countrie, without going to their ſeruice for the which he is retained, ouer a conuenient time after that he hath any protection, or returne from the ſame ſeruice, if the Chancellor be thereof duely informed, he ſhall repeale ſuch protection, as it hath beene vſed before this time. Where he in the reuerſion may be receiued in a ſute commenced againſt the particular tenant.

ITem, becauſe that when tenants for terme of life, tenants in dower, or by the law of England, or in taile after poſſibilitie of iſſue extinct, be impleaded, they be often of the couin of the demaundants, that the tenements demaunded againſt them ſhall be recouered, and they will not pray in ayde, nor vouch to warrantie them in the reuerſion, but pleade in chiefe ſuch a plea, whereby they know well the tenements ſhall be loſt, in diſheriſon of them in the reuerſion. It is accorded and aſſented, that if any ſuch tenant be impleaded, and he in the reuerſion come into the Court, and prayeth to be receiued to defend his right at the day that the tenant pleadeth to the action, or before, he ſhalbe receiued to defend his right at the day that the tenant pleadeth to the action, or before he ſhalbe receiued to pleade in chiefe to the action, without taking any delay by voucher, aid, prayer, nonage, or any other delay whatſoeuer, ſo that after ſuch receit he ſhall haue no maner delay by protection, eſſoine of the Kings ſeruice, common eſſoine, nor any other delay whatſoeuer, but that the buſineſſe ſhalbe haſted in as much as it may be by the law: and that dayes of grace be giuen by the diſcretion of the Judges betweene the demaundant and him that is receiued in ſuch caſe, without giuing the common day in plea of land, if the demaundant will not aſſent, to the intent that the demandants be not too much delayed becauſe they muſt plead with two aduerſaries, And in the right of pleas that be now depending in ſuch caſe, they in the reuerſion ſhalbe receiued in the manner aforeſaid, at the next day that the parties haue in Court although the ſame parties haue pleaded in chiefe before this time.

In which Courts an Attaint may be brought vpon a falſe verdict giuen in Lincolne.

ITem, becauſe that vpon the grieuous complaint of the reuerend father in God, the Biſhop of Lincolne, and the Deane and the Chapiter of the Church of our Ladie in Lincolne, made by their petition to our Lord the King, and the Lords in this preſent Parliament: the Maior and the Bailiffes of the Citie of Lincolne by the commandement of the King and the aſſent of the Lords were enioyned and charged by writ, to be before the King and his Counſell in the ſame Parliament at a certaine day with ſufficient inſtruction and information of all the matter compriſed in the ſame petition, with full power and authoritie vnder the common Seale of the ſaid Citie, to anſwere for them, and the Comminaltie of the ſaid Citie, vpon all things contained in the ſame petition, and further to doe and receiue that which ſhall be ordained by the King and his Counſell in that behalfe, vpon a certaine paine limited in the ſame Writ, the tenour of which petition, containing the grieuances done to the ſaid Biſhop and Chapiter by the people of the Citie of Lincolne, by colour of their Franchiſe, was ſent to the ſame Maior and Bailiffes cloſed within the ſaid Writ. And though the ſaid Maior and Bailiffes at the day contained in the ſame Writ came before the King and his Counſell in the Parliament aforeſaid, yet they did not bring any ſufficient warrant from the Comminaltie of the ſaid Citie, as they had in commandement by the ſaid Writ, and vpon that our ſaid Lord the King, by the aſſent of the Prelates and other Lords in the ſame Parliament being, by default of the Mayor, Bailiffes, and Commons aforeſaid in that behalfe, hath proceeded and examined the ſaid petition and the grieuances therein contained. And alſo becauſe that a common clamour hath beene, that many of the Kings lieges often haue ſuffered diuers iniuries in the ſaid Citie, becauſe in reſpect of freeholds within the the ſame Citie, treſpaſſes, contracts, and other things riſing within the ſame Citie, triable by Aſſiſe, Iurie, or Enqueſt haue beene tried by people of the ſame Citie, which be ſo fauourable one to another, that they doubt not to make falſe oathes, and that becauſe they be encouraged, for as much as they haue not beene before this time conuict by forraines, by colour of their Franchiſe: Our Lord the King, willing for the cauſes aforeſaid, to prouide for the quietneſſe of the ſaid Church, and full right to be done as well to the ſaid Biſhop, Deane, and Chapiter, and their ſucceſſors, as to all other in time comming, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed in that behalfe, that in Aſſiſes, Iuries, and all other Enqueſts that ſhall be taken betweene partie and partie, before the Maior and Bailiffes of the ſame Citie for the time being, if any of the parties feele himſelfe grieued of a falſe oath made by ſuch Aſſiſe, Iurie, or Enqueſt, the Attaiut ſhall be graunted to him, and the Record ſent by Writ into the Kings Bench, or into the Common place. And that the Sheriffe impanell the Iurie of ſuch Attaint of forraines of the Countie, without ſending to the Franchiſe of the ſaid Citie, and that the Iuſtices ſhall take the ſame Iurie of the ſame forrains, notwithſtanding any Franchiſe granted to the ſame City, or other vſage to the contrary. In a pardon of Murder, Treaſon, or Rape, the offence committed ſhall be ſpecified. The forfeiture of him at whoſe ſuit ſuch a Pardon is obtained.

Our Lord the King, at his Parliamēt holden at Weſtminſter the munday next after the Feaſt of Saint Hillary the thirteenth yeare of his raigne, hearing the grieuous complaint of his Commons in the ſame Parliament, of the outragious miſchiefes and damages which haue happened to his ſaid Realme, for that treaſons, murders and rapes of women be commonly done & committed, and the more becauſe Charters of Pardon haue bin eaſily granted in ſuch caſes: the ſaid Commons requeſted our Lord the King that ſuch Charters might not be granted: to whom the King anſwered that he will ſaue his libertie and regaltie, as his Progenitors haue done heretofore: but to nouriſh the more quietneſſe and peace within his Realme, by the aſſent of the great men and Nobles, being in the ſame Parliament, he hath granted, that no Charter of pardon from henceforth ſhall be allowed before any Iuſtice for Murder, or for the death of a man ſlaine by await, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, treaſon, or rape of a woman, vnleſſe the ſame murder, death of the man ſlaine by a wait, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, treaſon, or rape of a womā, be ſpecified in the ſame Charter. And if a Charter of the death of a man be alleadged before any Iuſtices, in which Charter it is not ſpecified, that he of whoſe death any ſuch is arraigned, was murdred or ſlaine by await, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, the ſame Iuſtices ſhall enquire by a good enqueſt, of the viſne where the dead was ſlaine, if he were murdred or ſlaine by await, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, and if they finde that he was murdred or ſlaine by await, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, the Charter ſhall be diſallowed, and further it ſhall be done as the Law commandeth. And if any be ſuter to the King for a Charter of pardon for murder, death of a man ſlaine by await, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, treaſon, or rape of a woman, if the Chamberlaine indorſe, or cauſe to be endorſed ſuch bill, he ſhall ſet the name of him that maketh ſuit for ſuch Charter vpon the ſame bill, vpon pain of one thouſand markes, and if the vnderchamberlaine endorſe ſuch bill, he ſhall doe likewiſe, vpon paine of fiue hundred markes, and that none other then the Chamberlaine or Vnderchamberlaine, endorſe nor cauſe to be endorſed any ſuch bill, vpon paine of one thouſand markes: and that ſuch bill be ſent and directed to the keeper of the priuie ſeale. And that no warrant of the priuie ſeale be made to haue ſuch Charter, vnleſſe the keeper of the priuie ſeale haue ſuch bill endorſed or ſigned by the Chamberlaine or Vnderchamberlaine, as afore is ſaid. And that no Charter of pardon, of treaſon, nor of other felonie, paſſe the Chancerie without warrant of the priuie ſeale, but in caſe where the Chancellor may grant it of his office without ſpeaking thereof to the King. And if he, at whoſe ſuit any Charter of pardon for murder, death of man ſlaine by await, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, treaſon, or rape of a woman be granted, if he be an Archbiſhop or Duke, he ſhall pay to the King one thouſand pound, and if he be a Biſhop or Earle, he ſhall pay to the King one thouſand markes, and if he be an Abbot or Prior, Baron or Baronet, he ſhall pay fiue hundred markes, and if he be a Clerke, Bacheler, or other of leſſe eſtate, of whatſoeuer conditiō that he be, he ſhall pay to the King two hundred markes, and haue one yeares impriſonment.

In a pardon for murder, treaſon rape, &c. the offence cōmitted ſhal be ſpecified.

A confirmation of the Statute of Proviſors made Anno 2[illegible] Ed.3. And the forfeiture of him that accepteth a Benefice contrarie to that Statute.

Item, whereas the Noble King Edward, grandfather to our Lord the King that now is, at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter at the vtas of the Purification of our Lady, the fiue and twentieth yeare of his raigne cauſed to be rehearſed the Statute made at Carleile in the time of King Edward ſonne of King Henry, touching the eſtate of the holy Church of England, The ſaid grandfather of the King that now is, by the aſſent of the great men of his Realme, being in the ſame Parliament, holden the ſaid fiue and twentieth yeare, to the honour of God and of holy Church, and of all his Realme, did ordaine & ſtabliſh, that the free elections of Archbiſhopprickes, Biſhopprickes, and all other dignities and Benefices electiue in England, ſhould hold from thenceforth in the maner as they were granted by his Progenitors and by the Aunceſtors of other Lords founders, and that all Prelates and other people of holy Church, which had Aduowſons of any Benefices of the gift of the King or of his Progenitors, or of other Lords and donors, nors, ſhould freely haue their collations and preſentments, and thereupon a certaine puniſhment was ordained in the ſame Statute for them which accept any Benefice or dignitie, contrarie to the ſaid Statute made at Weſtminſt: the ſaid fiue and twentieth yeare, as afore is ſaid, which ſtatute our Lord the King hath cauſed to be recited in this preſent Parliament at the requeſt of his Commons in the ſame Parliamẽt: The tenor whereof is ſuch as hereafter followeth. Wheras late in the Parliament of good memory of Edward King of Englãd, &c. rehearſing the whole ſtatute made the ſaid fiue and twentieth yeare, and then thus: Our Lord the King that now is, of the aſſent of the great men of his Realme, being in this preſent Parliament, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that for all Archbiſhopricks, Biſhoprickes, and other dignities and Benefices electiue, and all other Benefices of holy Church, which ſhall begin to be void in deed, the nine and twentieth day of Ianuarie, the thirteenth yeare of the raign of our Lord King Richard that now is, or after, or which ſhall be void in time to come within the Realme of England, the ſaid Statute made the ſaid fiue and twenieth yeare, ſhall be firmely holden for euer, and put in due execution from time to time in all maner points. And if any do accept of a Benefice of holy Church contrary to this Statute, and that duely proued, and be beyond the Sea, he ſhall abide exiled and baniſhed out of the Realme for euer, his lands and tenements, goods and cattels ſhall be forfeit to the King: and if he be within the Realme, he ſhall be alſo exiled and baniſhed as afore is ſaid, and ſhall incurre the ſame forfeiture, and take his way, ſo that he be out of the Realme within ſixe weekes next after ſuch acceptation. And if any receiue any ſuch perſon baniſhed, comming from beyond the Sea, or being within the Realme after the ſaid ſixe weekes, knowing thereof, he ſhall be alſo exiled and baniſhed, and incurre ſuch forfeiture as afore is ſaid. And that their Procurators, Notaries, Executors, and Summoners haue the paine and forfeiture aforeſaid.

For all Benefices which ſhall be void after the 29. Ianuar. Anno 13. R 2. the Statute of 25. Ed. 3. of Prouiſors ſhall be put in execution

Item, it is accorded and aſſented, that the Ordinances and Statutes made and not repealed of them that make entries with ſtrong hand into lands and tenements or other poſſeſſions whatſoeuer, and them hold with force, and alſo of thoſe that make inſurrections, or great ridings, ryots, routs, or aſſemblies in diſturbance of the peace, or of the common law, or in affray of the people ſhall be holden, and kept, and fully executed: ioyned to the ſame, that at all times, that ſuch forcible entries ſhall be made, and complaint thereof commeth to the Iuſtices of Peace, or to any of them, that the ſame Iuſtices, or Iuſtice take ſufficient power of the Countie, and goe to the place where ſuch force is made: and if they find any that hold ſuch place forcibly, after ſuch entrie made, they ſhall be taken and put in the next Gaole, there to abide conuict by the Record of the ſame Iuſtices or Iuſtice vntill they haue made fine and ranſome to the King. And that all the people of the Countie, as well the Sheriffe as other, ſhall be attendant vpon the ſame Iuſtices to goe and aſſiſt the ſame Iuſtices to arreſt ſuch offendors, vpon paine of impriſonment, and to make fine to the King. And in the ſame maner it ſhall be done of them that make ſuch forcible entries in Benefices or offices of holy Church. Raſt.pla.fo.320.

Cap. III.

In what places the Admirals Iuriſdiction doth lie.

In what places the Admirals iuriſdiction doth lie, and of what things he hath cogniſance.

Item, at the great and grieuous complaint of all the Commons made to our Lord the King in this preſent Parliament, for that the Admirals and their deputies doe encroach to them diuers iuriſdictions, franchiſes, and many other profits pertaining to our Lord the King, and to other Lords, Cities, and Boroughs, beſides thoſe they were wont or ought to haue of right, to the great oppreſſion and impoueriſhment of all the Commons of the land, and hinderance and loſſe of the Kings profits, and of many other Lords, Cities, and Boroughs through the Realme. It is declared, ordained, and eſtabliſhed, that of all maner of contracts, pleas, and quarrels, and of all other things done riſing within the bodies of Counties as well by land as by water, and alſo wrecke of the Sea, the Admirals Court ſhall haue no maner of Cogniſance, power nor iuriſdiction: but all ſuch maner of contracts, Pleas, and Quarrels, and all other things riſing within the bodies of Counties, as well by Land as by Water, as afore, and alſo Wrecke of the Sea ſhall be tried, determined, diſcuſſed, and remedied, by the Lawes of the Land, and not before, nor by the Admirall, nor his Lieutenant in any wiſe. Neuertheleſſe of the death of a man, and of a maihem done in great Ships, being and houering in the maine ſtreame of great Riuers, onely beneath the Bridge of the ſame Riuers nigh to the Sea, and in none other places of the ſame Riuers, the Admirall ſhall haue Cogniſance, and alſo to arreſt Ships in the great flotes for the great voyages of the King and of the Realme. Sauing alwaies to the King al maner forfeitures, and profits thereof comming: and he ſhall haue alſo iuriſdiction vpon the ſaid flotes during the ſaid voyages onely, ſauing alwaies to the Lords, Cities, and Boroughs, their Liberties, and Franchiſes. There ſhall be but eight buſhels of corne ſtriked to the quarter.
St.1.H.5.10.

Item, whereas it is ordained by diuers Statutes, that one meaſure of Corne, Wine, and Ale ſhould be throughout of the realm, & that eight buſhels ſtriked make the quarter of corne. Neuertheleſſe becauſe that no paine is thereupon ordained in the ſaid ſtatutes, diuers people of diuers Cities, Boroughes, Townes, and Markets, will not take, neither buy in the ſaid Cities, Boroughs, Townes, Markets, ne in none other place, but nine buſhels for the quarter: and if they cannot buy in that maner, they arreſt it as forfeit, to the great damages & oppreſſion of all the people, and manifeſtly againſt the Statutes aforeſaid: It is ordained and aſſented, that the ſaid Statutes ſhall be firmely kept and holden, as well in the Citie of London, as in euery other place throughout the Realme, and that as well by water, as by land, notwithſtanding any vſage in times paſt to the contrary. And that none from henceforth doe buy in the Citie of London, nor in other place, any maner Corn or Mault, but after eight buſhels the quarter according to the purport of the ſaid Statutes, vpon paine of forfeiture of all the Corne or Mault ſo bought: ſauing to the King the ſaid forfeiture, except Franchiſes royall, to whom the King at this time of his ſpeciall grace hath granted the ſame forfeiture, and that as well the Maior and Sheriffes of London, as the Maiors and Bailiffes of other Cities, Boroughs, Townes, and Markets (if they doe not thereof full and due execution) ſhall incurre like paine, as well at the ſuit of the King as of the partie, or of any other perſon that will ſue for the King. St.11.H.7.4.

CAP. V.

Aſſurances of lands to certaine places, perſons, and vſes ſhall be adiudged Mortmaine.

Item, whereas it is contained in the Statute De religioſis, that no religious, ne other whatſoeuer he be, doe buy or ſell, or vnder colour of gift, or terme, or any other maner of title whatſoeuer, receiue of any man, or in any maner by gift or engine cauſe to be appropriated vnto him any lands or tenements, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, whereby the ſaid lands and tenements in any maner might come to Mortmaine. And if any religious or any other, doe againſt the ſaid Statute by arte or engine in any maner, that it be lawfull to the King, and to other Lords vpon the ſaid lands and tenements to enter, as in the ſaid Statute doth more fully appeare. And now of late by ſubtill imagination, and by arte, and engine ſome religious perſons, Vicars, and other ſpirituall perſons, haue entred in diuers lands and tenements, which be adioyning to their Churches, and of the ſame by ſufferance and aſſent of the tenants haue made Churchyards, and by Bulls of the Biſhop of Rome, haue dedicated and hallowed the ſame, and in them doe make continually Parochiall burying without licence of the King and of the chiefe Lords: therefore it is declared in this Parliament, that it is manifeſtly within the compaſſe of the ſaid Statute. And moreouer it is agréed and aſſented, that all they that be poſſeſſed by feoffment, or by other maner, to the vſe of religious people, or other Spirituall perſons, of lands and tenements, fées, aduowſons, or any maner other poſſeſſions whatſoeuer, to amortiſe them, and whereof the ſaid religious and ſpirituall perſons take the profits, that betwixt this and the Feaſt of S. Michael next comming, they ſhall cauſe them to be amortiſed by the licence of the King and of the Lords, or elſe that they ſhall ſell and alien them to ſome other vſe betwéene this and the ſaid feaſt, vpon paine to be forfeited to the King, and to the Lords according to the forme of the ſaid ſtatute of religious, as lands purchaſed by religious people. And that from henceforth no ſuch purchaſe be made, ſo that ſuch religious or other ſpirituall perſons take thereof the profits, as afore is ſaid, vpon paine aforeſaid. And that the ſame Statute extend and be obſerued of all lands, tenements, fées, aduowſons, and other poſſeſſions, purchaſed or to be purchaſed to the vſe of Guilds or Fraternities. And moreouer it is aſſented, becauſe Mayors, Bailifes, and Commons of Cities, Boroughs, and other Townes which haue a perpetuall Comminaltie, and others, which haue offices perpetuall, be as perpetuall as people of religion, that from henceforth they ſhall not purchaſe to them and to their commons or office, vpon paine contained in the ſaid ſtatute De religioſis. And whereas others be poſſeſſed, or hereafter ſhall purchaſe to their vſe, and they thereof take the profits, it ſhall be done in like maner as is aforeſaid of people of religion.

Cap.

Cap. I.

No Merchant ſtranger ſhall buy or ſell with another Merchant ſtranger to ſell againe.

First whereas by the Statute made at Yorke the ninth yeare of the raigne of King Edward Grandfather of our Lord the King that now is, it was ordained and ſtabliſhed that all Merchants aliens and denizens, and all other, and euery of them of what eſtate or condition that they be, which will buy or ſell corne, wines, auoir de pois, fleſh, fiſh, and all other liuings and victualls, clothes, wools, wares, Merchandiſes, and all other things vendible, from whenceſoeuer they come, by forreines or by denizens, to what place that it be, be it in City, Borough, Town, Port of the Sea, Faire, Market, or other place, within the ſame Realme, within Franchiſe and without, may freely and without diſturbance ſell the ſame to whom them pleaſe, as well to forreines as to denizens, except the enemies of the King and of his Realme: And after by another Statute made the fiue and twentieth yeare of the ſaid grandfather, it was ordained and accorded, that the ſaid Statute made the ninth yeare ſhould be holden, kept, and maintained in all points. And moreouer, that euery Merchant and other, of what condition that he be, as well alien as denizen that bringeth wines, fleſh, fiſh, or other manner of victuals, clothes, fells, or auoir de pois, or other wares or merchandiſes, to the Citie of London or other Cities, Boroughs, and good Townes of England, or Ports of the Sea, may freely and without challenge or impeachment of any, ſell them in groſſe or at retaile, or by parcels at his pleaſure, to any people that will buy them, notwithſtanding any franchiſe, grant, or cuſtome vſed, or any other manner of thing made to the contrarie, and that without diſturbance or impediment of any, vpon certaine paines contained in the aforeſaid Statutes: And after in the eleuenth yeare of the raigne of our ſaid Lord the King, it was alſo ordained and ſtabliſhed by the ſtatute made in the ſame yeare, that thoſe two ſtatutes aforeſaid ſhould be holden, kept, maintained, and fully executed in all points and articles of the ſame, notwithſtanding any ſtatute, ordinance, charter, letters patents, franchiſe, Proclamation, commandement, vſage, allowance or iudgement made or vſed to the contrary, as in the ſaid ſtatute more fully is contained. Neuertheleſſe for as much as it ſeemeth to our Lord the King, that the ſaid Statutes, if they ſhall be fully holden and executed, ſhall extend to the great hinderance and damage as well of the City of London, as of other Cities, Boroughs, and Townes of the realme: it is ordained and aſſented, that no Merchant ſtranger alien ſhall ſell, nor buy, nor merchandie within the Realme with another ſtrange Merchant alien, to ſell againe, nor that no ſtrange Merchant alien ſhall ſell to retaile within the ſame Realme, nor ſhall put to ſaile any manner of wares or Merchandiſes, except liuings and victuals, and alſo that aliens ſhall ſell wines by whole veſſels, and ſpicery by whole veſſels and bales & in no other manner And that no maner of ſpicery, after that it be brought in the Realme, ſhall be caried out of the ſame Realme by alien or denizen, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame. And moreouer the King will that the ſaid Statutes in all articles and points ſhall be firmely holden and kept.

Præmunire for purchaſing of Bulls from Rome. The Crowne of England ſubiect to none

The remedie to recouer preſentments to Benefices in the K. Court, and the execution therof is done by the Biſhop.

The Pope awarded proceſſes & ſentences of Excommunication againſt certaine Biſhops for executing iudgemēts giuen in the K. Court.

The Popes tranſlation of Prelates out of the Realme, or from one Spirituall liuing to another.

Stat. 35. Ed. 1.
Stat. 25. Ed. 3. de prouiſo.

The freedome of the Crowne of Engl & that it is in ſubiection to no realm.

ITem, whereas the Commons of the Realme in this preſent Parliamēt haue ſhewed to our redoubted Lord the King, grieuouſly complaining, that whereas the ſaid our Lord the King and all his liege people ought of right, and of old time were wont to ſue in the Kings Court, to recouer their preſentments to Churches, Prebends, and other Benefices of holy Church, to the which they had right to preſent, the Coniſance of plee of which Preſentment belongeth onely to the Kings Court of the old right of his Crowne vſed and approued in the time of all his Progenitors Kings of England: And when iudgement ſhall be giuen in the ſame Court vpon ſuch a plea, and preſentment, the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and other Spirituall perſons which haue inſtitution of ſuch Benefices within their iuriſdictions, be bound, and haue made execution of ſuch iudgements by the Kings commandements of all the time aforeſaid, without interruption, (for another Ley perſon cannot make ſuch execution,) and alſo be bound of right to make execution of many other of the Kings commandements, of which right the Crowne of England hath beene peaceably ſeiſed, as well in the time of our ſaid Lord the King that now is, as in the time of all his Progenitors till this day. But now of late diuers proceſſes be made by the Biſhop of Rome, and cenſures of Excommunication vpon certaine Biſhops of England, becauſe they haue made execution of ſuch commandements, to the open diſheriſon of the ſaid Crowne, and deſtruction of our ſaid Lord the King, his Law, and all his Realme, if remedie be not prouided. And alſo it is ſaid, and a common clamour is made, that the ſaid Biſhop of Rome hath ordained and purpoſed to tranſlate ſome Prelates of the ſame Realme, ſome out of the Realme, and ſome from one Biſhopricke into another within the ſame Realme, without the Kings aſſent & knowledge, and without the aſſent of the Prelates, which ſo ſhall be tranſlated, which Prelates be much profitable and neceſſarie to our ſaid Lord the King and to all his Realme: by which tranſlations (if they ſhould be ſuffered) the Statutes of the Realme ſhould bee defeated and made void, and his ſaid liege ſages of his Counſell without his aſſent, and againſt his will, carried away, and gotten out of his Realme, and the ſubſtance and treaſure of the Realme ſhall be carried away, and ſo the Realme deſtitute as well of Counſell as of ſubſtance, to the finall deſtruction of the ſame Realme. And ſo the Crowne of England, which hath beene ſo free at all times, that it hath beene in no earthly ſubiection, but immediately ſubiect to God in all things, touching the regaltie of the ſame Crowne, and to none other, ſhould be ſubmitted to the Pope, and the Lawes and Statutes of the Realme by him defeated and auoided at his will, in perpetuall deſtruction of the Soueraigntie of the King our Lord, his Crowne, his Regaltie, and of all his Realme, which God defend.

The promiſe of the Commons to aſſiſt the K. in defence of the liberties of his Crowne.

The like promiſe of the lords temporall.

The promiſe of the lords ſpirituall touching the commons petition.

And moreouer the Commons aforeſaid ſay, that the ſaid things ſo attempted be cleerly againſt the Kings Crowne and his Regaltie, vſed and approued of the time of all his Progenitors: Wherefore they and all the liege Commons of the ſame Realme will ſtand with our ſaid Lord the King, and his ſaid Crowne, and his regaltie in the caſes aforeſaid, and in all other caſes attempted againſt him, his Crowne, and his Regaltie in all points, to liue and to die. And moreouer they pray the King and him require by way of iuſtice, that he would examine all the Lords in the Parliament as well Spirituall as Temporall ſeuerally, and all the States of the Parliament, how they thinke of the caſes aforeſaid which be ſo openly againſt the Kings Crowne, and in derogation of his Regaltie, and how they will ſtand in the ſame caſes with our Lord the King, in vpholding the rights of the ſaid Crowne and Regaltie. Whereupon the Lords Temporall ſo demanded, haue anſwered euery one by himſelfe, that the caſes aforeſaid be cleerely in derogation of the Kings Crowne, and of his Regaltie, as it is well knowne, and hath been of a long time knowne, and that they will be with the ſame Crowne and Regaltie in theſe caſes ſpecially, and in all other caſes which ſhall be attempted againſt the ſame Crowne and Regalty in all points with all their power. And moreouer it was demanded of the Lords Spirituall there being, and the procurators of others being abſent their aduice and will, in all theſe caſes, which Lords, that is to ſay, the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and other Prelates being in the ſaid Parliament ſeuerally examined, making proteſtations, that it is not their minde to deny nor affirme that the Biſhop of Rome may not excommunicate Biſhops, nor that he may make tranſlation of Prelates after the Law of holy Church, anſwered and ſaid, that if any executions of Proceſſes made in the Kings Court (as before) be made by any, & cenſures of excōmunication to be made againſt any Biſhops of England, or any other of the Kings liege people, for that they haue made execution of ſuch commandements, And that if any executions of ſuch tranſlations be made of any Prelates of the ſame Realme, which Prelates be very profitable and neceſſarie to our ſaid Lord the King, and to his ſaid Realme, or that the ſage people of his Counſell, without his aſſent and againſt his will be remoued and caried out of the Realme, ſo that the ſubſtance and treaſure of the Realme may be conſumed, that the ſame is againſt the King and his Crowne, as it is contained in the Petition before named. And likewiſe the ſame procurators euery one by himſelfe examined vpon the ſaid matters, haue anſwered and ſaid in the name, and for their Lords as the ſaid Biſhops haue ſaid and anſwered, and that the ſaid Lords Spirituall will and ought to bee with the King in theſe caſes in lawfully maintaining of his Crowne, and in all other caſes touching his Crowne and his Regaltie, as they be bound by their Liegeance. Whereupon our ſaid Lord the King, by the aſſent aforeſaid, and at the requeſt of his ſaid Commons, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that if any purchaſe or purſue, or cauſe to be purchaſed or purſued in the Court of Rome or elſewhere, any ſuch tranſlations, proceſſes, and ſentences of excommunications, bulls, inſtruments, or any other things whatſoeuer which touch the King, againſt him, his Crowne, and his Regaltie, or his Realme, as is aforeſaid, and they which bring within the Realme, or them receiue, or make thereof notification, or any other execution whatſoeuer within the ſame Realme or without, that they, their notaries, procurators, maintainors, abbettors, fautors, and counſellors, ſhall be put out of the Kings protection, and their lands and tenements, goods and chattells, forfeit to our Lord the King: and that they be attached by their bodies, if they may be found, and brought before the King and his Counſell, there to anſwer to the caſes aforeſaid, or that proceſſe be made againſt them by Præmunire facias, in maner as it is ordained in other Statutes of prouiſors: and other which doe ſue in any other Court in derogation of the Regaltie of our Lord the King. Cap. VI.

A Repeale of part of the Statute of 13. R.2.1. touching his forfeiture that obtaineth a Pardon.

ITem, whereas in an Article of a Statute made in the Parliamēt holden at Weſtminſter, the Munday next after the Feaſt of S. Hillary, the thirteenth yeare of the King that now is, it was ordained and granted, that no Charter of Pardon from thence ſhould be allowed before any Iuſtices for murder, death of a man ſlaine by await, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, treaſon, or rape of woman, if it were not ſpecified in the ſame Charter: And if any Charter of the death of man were alledged before any Iuſtices, in which Charter was not ſpecified, that he of whoſe death any ſuch was arraigned was murthered or ſlaine by await, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, the Iuſtices ſhould enquire by a good Inqueſt of the viſne where the dead perſon was ſlaine, if hee were murdered or ſlaine by await, aſſault, or malice prepenſed: & if they ſhould find that he was murdred or ſlaine by await, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, the Charter ſhould be diſallowed, and moreouer done as the Law ſhould require. Which things our Lord the King doth will and grant, that they ſhall be firmely holden and kept. And moreouer by the aſſent of the Lords in this preſent Parliament, and at the prayer of the Commons he hath ordained and granted, that the reſidue of the ſaid Article ſhall be wholly out, repealed, and adnulled: that is to ſay, if any ſue to the King for a Charter of Pardon for murder, death of man ſlaine by await, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, or rape of a woman, if the Chamberlaine indorſe, or cauſe to be indorſed ſuch Bill, he ſhall put the name of him that maketh ſuit for ſuch a charter vpō the ſame Bill, vpon paine of a thouſand markes, and if the Vnderchamberlaine indorſe ſuch Bill, he ſhall do likewiſe, vpon paine of fiue hundred markes. And that none other but the Chamberlaine or the Vnderchamberlaine ſhall indorſe, or cauſe to be indorſed any ſuch Bill vpon paine of a thouſand markes. And that no warrant of the priuie Seale ſhall be made to haue a Charter, except the Keeper of the priuie Seale haue ſuch Bill indorſed or ſigned by the Chamberlaine or Vnderchamberlaine as afore. And that no Charter of Pardon of treaſon or of other felonie ſhall paſſe the Chancerie without warrant of the priuie Seale, but in caſe where the Chancellor may grant it by his office without ſpeaking thereof to the King. And that he at whoſe ſuit any Charter of Pardon for murder, death of man ſlaine by await, aſſault, or malice prepenſed, treaſon, or rape of a woman, ſhall be granted, if he were an Archbiſhop or a Duke, he ſhall pay to the King a M.li. if he were a Biſhop or an Earle, he ſhall pay to the King a M.markes, & if he were an Abbot, Prior, Baron, or Banoret, he ſhal pay to the King 500.markes, and if he were a Clerke, Bacheler, or other of leſſe eſtate, of what condition that he be, he ſhall pay to the King 200.markes, and ſhall haue a yeares impriſonment: becauſe that the ſaid commons of the Realme ſithence haue perceiued great greeuance of this Ordinance aforeſaid, for that many people for malice haue indicted diuers perſons of murder, death of a man ſlaine by await, aſſault, and malice prepenſed, and treaſon, where in truth there was no ſuch cauſe, to the intent that no man ſhould be bold to ſue, to the King our Lord for ſuch Charter.

Stat.13.R.2.1.

In a pardon of murder, treaſon or rape, the offence ſhall be compriſed.

A confirmation of the firſt part of the St. of 13. R.2.1. & a repeale of the latter part thereof.

The forf. of him at whoſe ſuit the pardon aforeſaid is obtained

Statutes made at Weſtminſter Anno 17. Ric. 2. & Anno Domini 1393.

THeſe be things ordained and eſtabliſhed by our Lord the King, at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the fifteenth day of S. Hillary, the ſeuenteenth yeare of his Raigne, by the aſſent of the ſaid Parliament, which hee doth will and command, that they ſhall be firmely holden and kept after the purport of the ſame.

Cap. I.

There ſhall be no melting of money to make any thing thereof. Foraigne money ſhall not be currant.

Stat.9.Ed.3.3. No ſterling money ſhall bee melted for veſſell.

The groat and halfe groat ſhall not be meled for veſſell. 17.Ed.4.1. No forein coine ſhall be currant in England. There ſhall be no exchange of Engliſh money with Scottiſh money.

FIrſt where it was ordained by the Noble King Edward, grandfather to our Lord the King, the ninth yeare of his raigne, that no ſterling, halfe penie, nor farthing, ſhal be molten for veſſell, nor other thing thereof to be made by the Goldſmith, nor other, vpon paine of forfeiture of the money ſo molten, and impriſonment of the Founder, till he haue yeelded to the King the halfe of that which he hath ſo molten, notwithſtanding any Charter or Franchiſe granted or vſed to the contrarie: It is accorded and aſſented, that the ſaid Ordinance ſhall be firmely holden and kept. And moreouer it is ordained and aſſented, that no groat nor halfe groat ſhall be molten by any man to make veſſell, or other thing thereof, vpon the ſame paine. And that no gold nor ſiluer of Scotland, nor of other Lands beyond the Sea, ſhall run in any manner of payment within the Realme of England, but ſhall be brought to the Bullion there to be molten in the Coine of England, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, and of impriſonment, fine, and ranſom of him which doth contrarie. And that no man ſhall ſend any Engliſh money into Scotland to change the ſame in money, or for Scottiſh money vpon the paine next aforeſaid. 19.H.7.5.

Cap. II.

Euerie perſon may make Cloth of what length and breadth he will.

Euery man may make cloth of what length & breadth he will. Rep.5.Ed.6.6. No cloth ſhalbe ſold before it be meaſured & ſealed by the Aulneger. There ſhalbe no deceit in cloth.

ITem, that euery man of the Realme may make, & put to ſale and ſell Clothes, aſwell Kerſeis as other, of ſuch length and breadth as him pleaſe, paying the aulnage, ſubſidy, and other duties, that is to ſay, of euery piece of Cloth after the rate, notwithſtanding any Statute, Ordinance, Proclamation, reſtraint, or defence made to the contrarie. And that none ſhall ſell or put to ſale any Clothes before that they be meaſured by the Kings Aulneger, and ſealed with the Seale to that ordained, vpon the paines contained in the Statutes thereof made: and that no man ſhall put, mingle, cauſe nor make other diſceit in the Clothes of Kerſeys, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame. Stat.47.Ed.3.1. 11.H.6 9.

Cap. III.

What ſort of Worſteds may be caried forth of the Realme, and what not.

What ſort of worſteds may be caried forth of the Realme & what not.

ITem, that the Merchants and workers of Clothes, called ſingle Worſteds, may carie boltes of ſingle worſted to what parts they will (except to the Kings enemies) paying the cuſtomes and ſubſidies thereof due, without paying the duties of Caleys, notwithſtanding any Statute, Ordinance, Proclamation, Inhibition, Commandements or Charters, Liberties, Vſages, or priuiledges, granted or to be granted to the Burgeſſes of Caleys, or to the Merchants of the Staple of Caleys, or to any other made or to be made to the contrarie. And that the obligations & ſureties taken before this time for the duties of Calies, ſhall be reſtored and deliuered. Prouided alwaies that vnder the color of the ſaid bolts of ſingle Worſted, they ſhall carie no double Worſteds, nor halfe double, nor Worſteds ray, nor motley, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame.

Cap. IIII.

ITem,where it is contained in the Statute of Weſtminſter the ſecond,that yong Salmõs ſhal not be taken nor deſtroyed by nettes or by other engines at the ſtankes of Milles from the mids of Aprill till the Natiuitie of S.Iohn the Baptiſt. vpon a certain paine limited in the ſame Statute: And whereas by a Statute made the thirtéenth yeare of the King that now is, it was ordained,that the ſaid Statute of Weſtminſter the ſecond, ſhould be firmely holden and kept, ioyning to the ſame,that yong Salmons ſhould not be taken at the Milles ſtankes or elſewhere, vpon the ſame paine. And that no Fiſher nor Garthman,nor none other,of what eſtate or condition that he were ſhould not put from henceforth in the waters of Thamis, Humber, Ouſe, Trent,nor none other water of the Realme,by the ſaid time,nor by none other time of the yeare any nettes called ſtalkers,nor other nettes nor engines whatſoeuer,whereby the fry or bróod of Salmons,Lampraies,or of any other Fiſh whatſoeuer may in any wiſe be taken or deſtroyed vpon the paine aforeſaid: And alſo it was rehearſed in the ſaid Statute,made the ſaid thirtéenth yeare,that where it is contained in the ſame Statute of Weſtminſter, that all the waters in which Salmons be taken in the Realm, ſhall be put in defence as to the taking of Salmons frõ the day of the Natiuitie of our Lady till Saint Martins day: It was ordained and aſſented in the ſaid Statute made in the ſaid thirtéenth yeare,that the waters of Lone,Wire,Merſée, Ribbil,& all other waters in the Cõuty of Lancaſter,ſhould be put in defence as to the taking of Salmons from the day of S.Michaell till the day of the Purification of our Lady,and in none other time of the yeare, becauſe that Salmons be ſeaſonable in the ſaid waters by the time aforeſaid: And that in the parts where ſuch riuers be,góod and ſufficient Conſeruators of the ſaid Statute, made the ſaid thirtéenth yeare,ſhould be aſſigned and ſworne,as it was ordained in the Statute of Weſtminſter,and that they ſhould puniſh the offendors vpon the paine contained in the ſame Statute of Weſtminſter,without ſhewing any fauour thereof: which Statutes haue not béene hitherto duely executed for default of góod Conſeruators,as our ſaid Lord the King hath perceiued by complaint to him made in this preſent Parliament: Wherefore it is accorded and aſſented, that the Iuſtices of the Peace of all the Counties of England,ſhall be Conſeruators of the ſaid Statutes in the Counties where they be Iuſtices: And that they and euery of them at all times when they may attend,ſhall ſuruey the offences and defaults attempted againſt the Statutes aforeſaid. And alſo ſhall ſuruey and ſearch all the Weares in ſuch Riuers, that they ſhall not be very ſtrait for the deſtruction of ſuch Fry and bróod,but of reaſonable wideneſſe after the old aſſiſe vſed or accuſtomed: And that the ſame Iuſtices,or any of them which ſhall find default or abuſe againſt the Statutes aforeſaid,ſhall make due puniſhment of them,which be found in default after the content of the ſame Statute. And that the ſame Iuſtices ſhall put góod and ſufficient vnder Conſeruators of the ſame Statutes vnder them which ſhall be ſworne to make like ſurueying,ſearch and puniſhment without any fauour thereof to be ſhewed. And moreouer that the ſame Juſtices in their Seſſions, ſhall enquire as well by their office, as at the information of the vnder Conſeruators aforeſaid, of all treſpaſſes miſpriſions, and defaults made againſt any of the points aforeſaid, and ſhall cauſe them which be thereof endicted to come before them, and if they be thereof conuict, they ſhall haue impriſonment, and make fine after the diſcretion of the ſame Juſtices. And if the ſame be at the information of any of the vnder Conſeruators aforeſaid, the ſame vnder Conſeruator ſhall haue the halfe of the ſame fine. And forasmuch as it is granted to the Citizens of London by the Kings Progenitors, that they may remoue and take away all the weares in the waters of Thamis and Medeway, and that they ſhall haue the puniſhments thereof pertaining to the King: Our ſaid Lord the King, in this preſent Parliament, by the aſſent aforeſaid hath granted that the Maior or Warden of London for the time being, ſhall haue the conſeruation of the Statutes aforeſaid. And ſhall make thereof due execution and like puniſhmēt as afore is ordained of the Juſtices of the Peace, in the ſaid waters of Thamis, from the bridge of Stanes to London, and from thence ouer the ſame water, and in the ſaid water of Medeway as farre as it is granted to the ſaid Citizens, as afore is ſaid.

The Maior of London ſhall haue the conſeruation of the St. of Thamis.

CAP. IIII.

A Confirmation of part of the Stat. of 28. Ed. 3. 13. touching Merchants ſtrangers.

ITem, whereas it is contained in a Statute of the late King Edward Grandfather to the King that now is, the xxviij. yeare of his raigne, that no maner of ſhip, which is freighted toward England, or elſewhere, ſhall be compelled to come to any port of England, nor there to tarry againſt the agreement of the Maſters and Mariners of the ſame, or of the Merchants to whom the goods be: and if ſuch ſhips come of their owne good will or be driuen by tempeſt, caſualty or other miſfortune to any Port of England, and the Maſters or Mariners, or Merchants of the ſame Ships, will ſell or deliuer part of their Merchandiſes with their good will, it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon to buy ſuch Merchandiſes freely without impeachment in the Port where ſuch Ships ſhal come, albeit the Merchandiſes be not put to ſale to the Land. And that the Maſters, Mariners, and Merchants after that they haue ſo ſold, ſo much as pleaſeth them of their ſaid goods, and the cuſtome thereof paied, may freely depart and goe with their Ships, & all the remnant of their goods where it ſhall pleaſe them, without paying thereof cuſtome. Our ſaid Lord the King for the quietneſſe and eaſe of his people, willeth that the ſaid Statute ſhall be holden and kept in all points & duly executed, notwithſtanding any ordinance or vſage to the contrary.

A confirmation of that part of the Statute of 28. Ed. 3. 13. which giueth libertie to ſtrangers to come & goe where they will.

CAP. V.

The penaltie of him who taketh anothers Horſe or Beaſt for the Kings ſeruice without ſufficient warrant.

ITem, foraſmuch as the Commons haue made complaint, that many great miſchiefes, extortions and oppreſſions be done by diuers people of euill condition, which of their authoritie take and cauſe to be taken Royally, horſes and other things, and beaſts out of their Waines, Carts, and houſes, ſaying and deuiſing that they be to ride on haſty meſſages and buſineſſe, where of truth they be in no wiſe priuie of any buſineſſe or meſſage, but onely in deceit and ſubtiltie by ſuch colour and deuiſe doe take horſes, and the ſaid horſes too haſtily doe ride and euill intreat, hauing no manner of conſcience or compaſſion in this behalfe, ſo that the ſaid horſes become all ſpoiled and foundred, paying no manner of thing nor peny for the ſame, nor giuing them any manner of ſuſtenance: And alſo that ſome ſuch manner of people changing and altering their names, doe take and ride ſuch horſes, and carry them farre from thence to another place, ſo that they, to whom they belong, can neuer after by any meane ſee, haue againe, nor know their ſaid Horſes where they be, to the great miſchiefe, loſſe, impoueriſhment & hinderance of the K. poore people, their huſbandrie, and of their liuing. Our Lord the King willing for the quietneſſe and eaſe of his people to prouide remedie thereof, will and hath ordained, that none from henceforth ſhall take any ſuch Horſe or Beaſt in ſuch maner againſt the conſent of them to whom they be. And if any that doe, and haue no ſufficient warrant nor authoritie of the King, he ſhall be taken and impriſoned till he hath made due agreement to the partie. St. 28. H. 6. 2.

The penaltie of him who doth take any perſons horſe or &c. to ſerue the King without warrant.

Cap. XI.

How farre Sheriffes ſhall be charged with the ancient Farmes of the County.

ITem, whereas the ſaid Commons by their petition haue ſhewed in the ſame Parliament, how the Sheriffes of Counties within the Realme, be charged with the ancient Ferme of the ſame Counties, whereas a great parcell of the profits of the ſame is giuen ſeuerally to Lords & other the Kings leige people, ſo that the ſame Sheriffes cannot pay their ferme without doing extortion in the ſaid Counties, in great oppreſſion and hinderance aſwell of the ſaid Sheriffe, as of the inhabitants of the ſaid Counties: Our Lord the King conſidering the miſchiefes aforeſaid, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords and commons aforeſaid, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that from henceforth the Sheriffes of the Counties of Eſſex, and Hertford in ſpeciall, and the Sheriffes of other Counties aforeſaid, for the time being, ſhall accompt in the Eſchequer, and haue allowance by their othe of the Iſſues of the ſaid Counties, aſwell after the date of their Patents made to them by the ſaid late King Richard, as for all times to come. And if any Sheriffe from henceforth doe any extortion to the people, and be thereof attainted, he ſhall be duely puniſhed for the ſame extortion at the Kings will.

Sheriffes ſhall not be charged with the ancient fermes of the Counties, where part of the profits be giuen to others.

Of Sheriffes puniſhment for extortion.

Cap. XII.

A confirmation of former Stat. touching pulling downe of Weares.

ITem, whereas by ſir Edward late King of England, Grandfather of our Lord the King that now is, the fiue and twentieth yeare of his raigne, becauſe that the common paſſage of Ships and Boates in the great Riuers of England were oftentimes diſturbed, by the leuying of Weares, Milles, Stankes, Stakes, and Kidels, in great damage of the people, it was accorded, that all ſuch Weares, Milles, Stankes, Stakes, and Kidels, which were leuied and ſet vp in the time of King Edward ſonne to King Henry, and after in ſuch Riuers, whereby the ſhips and boates be diſturbed, ſo that they cannot paſſe as they were wont, ſhall be wholly pulled downe, and not be leuied againe. And that Writs be thereupon ſent to the Sheriffes of places where neede ſhall be, to ſuruey and enquire, and to make thereof execution. And alſo that Iuſtices be therupon aſſigned at all times when neede ſhall require. And after at the grieuous complaint of the great men and the Commons, made in the Parliament of the ſaid King Edward the Grandfather, the fiue and fortieth yeare of his raigne, complaining by their Petition, that the ſaid Statute, was not duely executed nor kept, after the effect of the ſame, it was accorded and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid Statute in this point be holden and kept after the effect of the ſame, added to the ſame, that if any ſuch noyſance be pulled downe by due proceſſe contained in the ſaid Statute hee that will cauſe the ſaid noyſance to be repaired, and thereof be duely attainted, ſhall incurre the paine of an hundred markes to the King, to be leuied by the eſtreates of the Eſchequer. And like law to be holden of a noyſance made by the enhaunſing of ſuch Weares Milles, Stankes, Stakes, and Kidels, as by new leuying, as in the ſame Statutes more fully doth appeare. And now at the requeſt of the ſaid Commons, ſhewing by their petition, that the common paſſages of Ships and Boates in the great Riuers of England, and alſo Meadowes and Paſtures, and Lands ſowed adioyning to the ſaid Riuers be greatly diſturbed, drowned, waſted, and deſtroyed by outragious enhaunſing and ſtraighting of Weares, Milles, Stankes, Stakes, and Kidles, in old time made and leuied before the time of the ſaid King Edward ſonne of King Henry, whereof great damage and loſſe hath come to the people of the Realme, and daily will come if remedy be not thereof prouided: It is accorded and ſtabliſhed by the aſſent aforeſaid, that the ſaid Statutes be in all their Articles holden, and firmely kept, and duely executed, with all the paines, and after the effect of the ſame ioyned thereto, that Commiſſions bee made in due forme to ſufficient perſons to be iuſtices in euery Countie of England, where neede ſhall be, to ſuruay and keepe the waters and great Riuers there, and to correct and amend the defaults, and to make due execution of the ſaid ſtatutes, after the effect of the ſame, as well by their ſuruey, aduice, and diſcretion, as by enqueſts thereof to be taken as well within Franchiſe as without, ſo often and when neede ſhall be, and to heare and determine the things aforeſaid. And moreouer, to ſuruey the Weares, Milles, Stankes, Stakes, and Kidles, in old times made and leuied before the ſaid time of King Edward, ſonne of King Henry. And them that they finde too much enhanced or ſtraited, to correct, pull downe, and amend in the manner and forme aforeſaid: Sauing alwaies a reaſonable ſubſtance of Weares, Milles, Stankes, Stakes, and Kidles aforeſaid, ſo in old times made and leuied. And if any ſuch noiſances of Weares, Mils, Stankes, ſtakes, and kidles of paſſages and ſtraightings in old time made and leuied, be iudged and awarded by the ſaid Iuſtices to be pulled downe and amended, he that hath the Freehold of the ſame ſhall make thereof execution at his owne coſts within halfe a yeare after notice to him thereof to be made, vpon paine of an hundred markes to be paid to the King by Eſtreates of the Eſchequer: and he that cauſeth them to be repaired or enhanced or ſtraited againſt the ſaid iudgment and

Where all ſorts of Appeales ſhall be tried and determined

No Appeale ſhall be purſued in Parliament.

ITem, for many great inconueniences and miſchiefes that often haue hapned by many appeales made within the Realm of England before this time: It is ordained & ſtabliſhed from henceforth, that all the appeales to be made of things done within the Realme, ſhall be tried, and determined by the good Lawes of the Realme, made & vſed in the time of the Kings noble progenitors: and that all the appeales to be made of things done out of the Realme, ſhall be tried and determined before the Conſtable and Marſhall of England, for the time being: And moreouer it is accorded and aſſented, that no appeales be from henceforth made, or in any wiſe purſued in Parliament in any time to come.

CAP. XV.

The puniſhment of the Maior &c. of London for defaults committed there.

Stat.28.Ed 3. 10.

The Maior of London ſhall redreſſe errors, defaults, and miſpriſions, notoriouſly vſed in the ſame Citie.

The Conſtable or Lieutenant of the Tower ſhall receiue and execute the Kings writs.

ITem, where as by a Statute made in the time of the King Edward, Grandfather of our Lord the King that now is, the ſeuen and twentieth yeare of his raigne, it was ordained and ſtabliſhed, that becauſe the errors, defaults, and miſpriſions, which were notoriouſly vſed in the Citie of London, for default of good gouernance of the Maior, Sheriffes, and Aldermen, might not be enquired nor found by people of the ſame Citie: That the ſaid Maior, Sheriffes, and Aldermen, which had the gouernance of the Citie ſhould redreſſe and correct the defaults, errors, and miſpriſions aforeſaid, and the ſame duely to puniſh, from time to time vpon a certaine paine, that is to ſay, at the firſt default a thouſand markes to the King, and at the ſecond default two thouſand marke, and at the third default that the franchiſe be taken into the Kings hand, and be it begunne to enquire of them at the Feaſt of Saint Michael next enſuing: ſo that if they make not due redreſſe, as before is ſaid, It ſhall be enquired of their defaults by enqueſts of forraigne Counties, that is to ſay, Kent, Eſſex, Suſſex, Hertford, Buckingham, and Berke, as well at the Kings ſuit as of others that will complaine. And if the Maior, Sheriffes, and Aldermen, be by ſuch enqueſts endicted: they ſhall be cauſed to come by due proceſſe before the Iuſtices, which ſhall be thereto aſſigned out of the Citie, before whom they ſhall haue their anſwer, as well at the ſuit of the King, as of the partie, and if they put themſelues in enqueſts, the ſame enqueſts ſhall be taken of forraigne people, as afore is ſaid, and if they be attainted, the ſaid paine ſo incurred ſhall be leuied of the ſaid Maior, Sheriffes, and Aldermen, for default of their gouernment. And neuertheleſſe the plaintiffes ſhall recouer their treble damages againſt the ſaid Maior, Sheriffes, and Aldermen. And becauſe that the Sheriffes of London be partie to this buſineſſe, the Conſtable of the Tower, or his Lieutenant, ſhall be officer in ſtead of the Sheriffes, to receiue the Writs as well originals of the Chancerie as iudicials, vnder the Seales of the Iuſtices, to doe thereof execution in the ſaid Citie, and proceſſe ſhall be made by attachments, diſtreſſe, and exigend if neede be, ſo that at the Kings ſuit the exigend ſhall be awarded after the firſt Capias returned, and at the third Capias returned, at the ſuit of the partie, and if the Maior, Sheriffes, and Aldermen, haue Lands and Tenements out of the ſaid Citie, proceſſe ſhall be made againſt them by attachment and diſtreſſes in the ſame Counties where the Lands and Tenements be, and that euery of the ſaid Maior, Sheriffes, and Aldermen, which commeth before the ſaid Iuſtices, ſhall anſwer alone for himſelfe, as well at the perill of other, which be abſent as of himſelfe. And that this ordinance be holden firme and ſtable, notwithſtanding any manner Franchiſes, Priuiledges or Cuſtomes. And that this ordinance ſhall extend to other Cities and Boroughes of the Realme, where ſuch defaults or miſpriſions be vſed, and not duely correct nor redreſſed, ſauing that the enqueſts be taken by forraigne people of the ſame County, where ſuch Cities and Boroughes be. And that the penaltie of them of ſuch Cities, Boroughes, and Townes, which ſhall be thereof attainted be iudged by the diſcretion of the Iuſtices, which ſhall be thereto aſſigned: Our Lord the King conſidering the good and lawfull behauiour of the Maior, Sheriffes, and Aldermen, and of all the Comminaltie of the ſame Citie of London towards him, and therefore willing to eaſe and mitigate the penaltie aforeſaid, by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and of the Commons aforeſaid, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the penaltie aforeſaid, aſwell of the thouſand Marke, and of the two thouſand Marke, and of the ſeiſure of the Franchiſe, compriſed in the ſaid Statute, ſhall not be limited in a certaintie, but that the penaltie in this caſe be by the aduice and diſcretion of the Iuſtices therto aſſigned, as other Cities and Boroughs be within the Realme, and that the remnant of the ſame Statute, and the proceſſe thereof ſtand in their force.

The penalties inflicted by the Statute of 28.Ed.3.10. vpon the Maior of London ſhall be according to the diſcretion of the Iuſtices.

Cap. XVI.

Merchants of London ſhall be as free to packe their Clothes as other Merchants.

ITem, It is accorded and aſſented that the Merchants of London from henceforth ſhall be as free to packe their Clothes and quit of the ſame packing, as the other Merchants, or other Strangers within the ſame Citie, or within other Cities and Boroughes within the Realme be, and if any Letters Patents be made to the contrarie, they ſhall be vtterly repealed, anulled, and holden of no force nor vertue.

Merchants of London ſhall be as free to packe their Clothes as other Merchants.

Cap. XVII.

Strangers may buy and ſell within the Realme Victualls in groſſe, or by retaile.

ITem, Whereas in the Statute made at Weſtmiſter, in the eleuenth yeare of the ſaid late K. Richard, amongſt other things it is ordained and accorded, that euery Forraine and Alien, being of the Kings amitie and of the Realme, and comming within the Citie of London and other Cities, Boroughes, and Townes within the ſaid Realme as well within Franchiſe as without, with Fiſh and all manner other victualls there dwelling and returning, ſhall be from henceforth vnder the ſafeguard and ſpeciall protection of the King. And that it ſhall be lawfull to them, and euery of them, to cut their Fiſh and Victualls aforeſaid, by pieces, and the ſame to taile and retaile in part or in all, or in groſſe, as to them ſhall beſt ſeeme to ſell, and thereof to make their profit without impeachment or contradiction of any, notwithſtanding any Statutes, Charters, Ordinances, Priuiledges, or Cuſtomes made or had to the contrary. Our Lord the King conſidering the ſame Statute to be very profitable many wayes, if it were put in execution, by the aſſent of his Lords and Commons aforeſaid hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid Statute be formerly holden, kept, and duly executed after the forme and effect thereof, notwithſtanding the Letters Patents late granted to the contrarie to the Fiſhmongers of London, by the ſaid late King Richard, vpon his laſt voyage toward Ireland. Stat. 6.R.2.10.14.H.6.6 3.Iac.6.

A confirmation of the ſtatute 11.R.2.7. authoriſhing Merchants Strangers to buy and ſell within the Realme.

Cap. XVIII.

Proceſſe againſt one of the Countie of Cheſter which committeth an offence in an other Shire.

ITem, vpon the grieuous clamour and complaint made to our Lord the King, in this preſent Parliament, of many Murders, manſlaughters, robberies, batteries, and other riots and offences: which before this time haue beene done by people of the Countie of Cheſter to diuers of the Kings Liege people in diuers parts and Counties of England: The ſame our Lord the King, by the aduice and aſſent of his Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and of his Commons aforeſaid, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that if any perſon of the Countie of Cheſter reſiant or dwelling within the ſame County of what eſtate or condition he be: doe commit any murder or felonie in any place out of the ſame County, proceſſe ſhall be made againſt him by the Common Law, till the Exigend in the Counties where ſuch murder or felony was done. And if he flee from thence into the Countie of Cheſter, and be outlawed and put in Exigend for ſuch murder or felony: the ſame Outlawrie or Exigend ſhall be certified to the Officers and Miniſters of the ſame Countie of Cheſter, and the ſame Felon ſhall be taken by the ſame officers or miniſters, and his Lands and Tenements, Goods and Cattels, being within the ſame ſaid Countie of Cheſter, ſhall be ſeiſed as forfeit into the hands of the Prince, or of him that ſhall be Lord of the ſame Countie of Cheſter, for the time, and the King ſhall haue the yeare, and day, and the waſt. And the other Lands and Tenements, Goods and Cattells of ſuch Felon, being

And that the great Charter and the Charter of the Foreſt, and all the good ordinances and ſtatutes, made in the time of our ſaid Lord the King, and in the time of his Progenitors not repealed, be firmely holden and kept.

Cap. II.

The word Inſidiatores viarum, &c. ſhall not be put in any Indictments &c.

A confirmation of the St. made 25.Ed.3 de Clero

ITem, our ſaid Lord the King, hauing in remembrance the faithfull hearts, and the inward affection that the Clergie of England hath borne to him, and alſo the great charges which the ſame Clergie hath had and ſuſtained for his honour and profit, after the time of his Coronation, and therefore willing to be gratious Lord to them in their affaires, by the aſſent of the ſaid Lords, and at the eſpeciall ſuit and requeſt of the ſaid Commons, will and granteth, that the Statutes made the fiue and twentieth yeare of King Edward, graundfather to our Lord the King that now is, touching the Clergie of England, be entirely holden and kept, and put in due execution.

The words Inſidiatores viarũ & depopulatores agrorum ſhal not be put in Inditements or Appeales.

And moreouer, the ſame our Lord the King, conſidering that the words and termes (that is to ſay) Inſidiatores viarum, & depopulatores agrorum, compriſed in the petition deliuered to him in this Parliament by the Clergie of England, haue not béen commonly vſed in indictments, arraignements, appeales, nor in other impeachments, in the time of his ſaid grandfather, nor in the time of his other progenitors, and willing therefore to auoid ſuch nouelties, for the great quietneſſe and ſuretie of his people, by the aſſent of the Lords and Commons of the ſame Parliament will and granteth, and hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that the ſaid words and termes, ſhal not be from henceforth vſed, nor put in indictments, arraignments, appeales, or any other impeachments. Nor that by force of any ſuch word or terme, any Clerke religious, or ſecular, nor any other of the Kings liege people, ſhalbe from henceforth arraigned, appealed; impeached, or grieued before any ſecular Judge: but our Lord the King doth will, that the Juſtices may take and receiue before them indictments, arraignments and appeales of felonies, containing in them the effect of the ſaid words and termes, if any perſon of ſuch felonies ſhall be hereafter indicted, arraigned, or appealed: and if percaſe it chance in time to come any Clerks religious or ſecular, ſhall be indicted, arraigned, or appealed, and their indictments; arraignments, or appeales, doe comprehend the effect of the ſaid words, Inſidiatores viarum, and depopulatores agrorum, or other words purporting like effect: yet neuertheleſſe ſuch Clerkes ſhall haue and inioy the priuiledge of holy Church, and ſhall be deliuered to the Ordinaries them demanding, or their Deputies, without any impeachment, or any delay.

Clerks ſhall be allowed their Clergie notwithſtanding an Inditement hath the words aforeſaid.

Cap. III.

A confirmation of the Liberties of the Church and Clergie. A Clerke conuict for Treaſon, or being a common Thiefe, ſhall not make his purgation.

Item, by the ſame aſſent our Lord the King doth will and graunt, and hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that all the Statutes, Ordinances, and grants, made or granted by his noble progenitors or predeceſſors Kings of England, to the Clergie of England, for the conſeruation of their Liberties and priuiledges, and for the conſeruation of the Liberties and Immunities of holy Church, not reuoked, be firmely holden, obſerued and kept, and put in due execution according to their forme and effect. And thereupon the Archbiſhop of Canterbury for himſelfe, and for all other Biſhops of his Prouince, hath promiſed to our ſaid Lord the King, that if from henceforth any Clerke Secular or Religious, that is conuict of Treaſon that toucheth not the King himſelfe, nor his royall Maieſtie, or that he be a common thiefe, and for ſuch notoriouſly holden and reputed, and for the ſame cauſe as Clerke conuict ſhall be from henceforth deliuered to any Ordinary: that the ſame Ordinary ſhall kéepe him ſafely and ſurely, and according to the effect of a Conſtitution prouinciall to be made by the Archbiſhops and other Biſhops, according to the content, forme, and effect of the Letters of Simon late Archbiſhop of Canterbury, bearing date the twelfth Kalends of March, the yeare of grace, one thouſand thrée hundred fiftie one, ordaining and inſerting in the ſame Conſtitution certain paines by them to be limited by their diſcretion. And that no ſuch Clerke conuict of ſuch Treaſon, or that he be a common thiefe, as afore is ſaid, after he be deliuered, ſhall make any purgation contrary to the purport of the ſaid Conſtitution: which Conſtitution ſhall be ſhewed to our ſaid Lord the King before this next Parliament, to the intent that if it ſéemeth to his high diſcretion, that the ſaid Conſtitution ſhall not be a conuenient remedy in this caſe, that then it may be treated and prouided of other remedie in ſuch ſort as appertaineth. Commiſſions ſhall be ſent to enquire of the accompt of Sheriffes, Eſcheators, &c.

Commiſſions ſhall be ſent to inquire of the accompt of euerie ſheriffe, eſcheator, accomptant.

Item, whereas diuers of the Sheriffes, Eſcheators, Aulnegers, Cuſtomers, Comptrollers, and other the Kings officers, accomptable in many parts of the Realme, doe defraud and deceiue our ſaid Lord the King, yearely in their vnlawfull and vntrue accompt, concealing and retaining to their owne vſe the greater part of that which rightfully ought to pertaine to the king, to his great damage and loſſe. Our ſaid Lord the King, by the aduice & aſſent aforeſaid, hath ordained, that preſently after euerie finall accompt, giuen and made by the Officers and Cuſtomers aforeſaid, before the Barons of the Exchequer of our Lord the King, the tenor of the accompt of euery of the ſaid officers from time to time ſhall be ſent into the Counties, where the ſame accomptants be officers, together with Commiſſions directed to the moſt lawfull and diſcréet perſons to inquire and certifie the profits which the ſaid Accomptants haue receiued within the ſaid Counties in the name and to the vſe of our ſaid Lord the King, by them in the manner aforeſaid, vpon their ſaid accompts, or deceitfully concealed and receiued to their proper vſe and profit. And in caſe that the ſaid Accomptants be attainted of their ſaid frauds and deceits, they ſhall incurre to our Lord the King, the penaltie of the treble of the ſame whereof they ſhall be ſo conuict, and their bodies to priſon, vntill they haue made fine and ranſom to our ſaid Lord the King according to the diſcretion of his Iudges.

CAP. IIII.

Aliens ſhall not carie forth of the Realme merchandiſes brought in by aliens.

A repeale of ſo much of the St. of 5.H.4.9 as doth aſſigne Merchants aliens to ſell their merchandiſe within a quarter of a yeare.

Aliens ſhall not cary forth of the Realme merchandiſe brought in by aliens.

Item, whereas in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter amongſt other things it was ordained that the Merchants Aliens and Strangers ſhould ſell their Merchandiſes within a quarter of a yeare next after the comming thereof into the realme. Our Lord the King ſéeing the ſaid Ordinance hurtfull and preiudiciall, aſwell for himſelfe and his Realme, as for the ſaid Merchants Aliens and Strangers, by the aduice and aſſent aforeſaid, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid Ordinance be vtterly void and adnulled for euer. And that the ſame Merchants Aliens and Strangers be at their frée diſpoſition to ſell their Merchandiſes in the maner as they did before the making of the ſaid ordinance. Sauing alwayes the franchiſes and liberties of the Citie of London. And further prouided alwaies that the ſaid Merchants Aliens and Strangers ſhall not carry or cauſe to be carried out of the realme any Merchandiſes brought within the Realme by the Merchants and Aliens and Strangers aforeſaid.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter, anno 7. Hen. 4. & Anno Domini 1405.

OVr Lord the King at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the firſt day of March, the ſeuenth yeare of his raigne, by the aduice & aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the requeſt of the Commons in the ſame Parliament hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, diuers Ordinances and Statutes in the forme as followeth.

Cap. I.

A confirmation of the Liberties of the Church, and of all Cities and perſons &c. and of all Statutes not repealed. Peace ſhall be kept. &c.

FIrſt, that holy Church haue all her liberties and franchiſes, and that all the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and all the cities, boroughs and townes franchiſed, haue and enioy all their liberties and franchiſes, which they haue of the grant of the Kings progenitors, and of the confirmation & grant of our Lord the King that now is. And that the great Charter & the Charter of the Foreſt, and all the ordinances and Statutes made in the time of our Lord the King, and in the time of his progenitors, not repealed, be firmely holden and kept, and duely executed in all points. And that the peace within the realme be holden and kept, ſo that all the Kings liege people and ſubiects, may from henceforth ſafely and peaceably goe, come, and abide, according to the Lawes and vſages of the ſame Realme, and that good Juſtice and euen right be done to euery perſon: ſauing to the ſame our Lord the King his regaltie and prerogatiue.

A confirmation of the Liberties of the Church, and of all ſtatutes not repealed.

Peace ſhall be maintained and Juſtice ſhall be done to all.

Cap. II.

The Realmes of England and France intayled to the King and his foure ſonnes by name.

ITem, at the requeſt and of the aſſent of the Lords and Commons in the ſaid Parliament, it is ordained and eſtabliſhed, that the inheritance of the Crowne, and of the Realmes of England and France, and of all the other Dominions of our Lord the King, beyond the Sea, with all the Appurtenances, ſhall be ſettled and remain in the perſon of the ſame our Lord the King, and in the heires of his body begotten: and eſpecially at the requeſt and of the aſſent aforeſaid, It is ordained and eſtabliſhed, pronounced, decreed, and declared, that the Lord the Prince Henry, eldeſt ſon to our Lord the King, be heire appatant to the ſame our Lord the King, to ſucceed him in the ſaid Crowne, Realmes, and Dominions, to haue them with all the Appurtenances, after the deceaſe of the ſame our Lord the King, to him and his heires of his body begotten. And if he dye without heires of his body begotten, then all the ſaid Crowne, Realmes, & Dominions, with all the Appurtenances, ſhall remaine to the Lord Thomas, ſecond ſon of our ſaid Lord the King, & to the heires of his body begottē. And if he die without iſſue of his body, that thē all the ſaid Crown, Realmes, & Dominions, with all the Appurtenãces, ſhall remain to the Lord Iohn, the third ſon of our ſaid Lord the King, & to the heires of his bodie begotten. And if he die without heires of his bodie begotten, that then all the foreſaid Crowne, Realmes, and Dominions, with all the Appurtenances, ſhall remaine to the Lord Humfrey, the fourth ſonne of our ſaid Lord the King and the heires of his bodie begotten.

The inheritãce of the Crowne of England & of all the K. dominions entailed to him and his ſonnes by name.

Cap. III.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter, Anno 11. H. 4.

& Anno Dom. 1409.

BY the aduiſe and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the requeſt, inſtance, and ſuit of the Commons, being in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the fifteenth of Saint Hillarie, the eleuenth yeare of the raigne of King HENRY the fourth; The ſame our Lord the King hath ordained diuers Statutes and Ordinances in the forme as followeth.

Cap. I.

A Sheriffe maketh an vntrue returne of the election of the Knights of the Parliament.

St.7.H.4.15.

The penaltie of the Sheriffe which maketh an vntrue returne of the election of the Knights of the Parliament. St.8.H.6.7.

FIrſt, whereas in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the ſeuenth yeare of the raigne of our ſaid Lord the King, there was ordained and ſtabliſhed by a Statute for the preſeruation of the Liberties and Franchiſes of the election of the Knights of the Shire vſed through the Realme, a certaine forme and manner of the Election of ſuch Knights, as in the ſaid Statute more fully is contained: And foraſmuch as in the ſame Statute no penaltie was ordained or limited in ſpeciall vpon the Sheriffes of the Counties, if they make any returnes to the contrary of the ſame Statute: It is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the Juſtices aſſigned to take aſſiſes ſhal haue power to enquire in their Seſſions of Aſſiſes, of ſuch returnes made: and if it be found by enqueſt, and due examination before the ſame Juſtices, that any ſuch Sheriffe hath made, or hereafter make any returne contrary to the tenour of the ſaid Statute, that then the ſame Sheriffe ſhall incurre the penaltie of one hundred pounds to be payed to our Lord the King: and moreouer that the Knights of the Counties ſo vnduly returned, ſhall loſe their wages of the Parliament of old time accuſtomed. Stat.1.*H.*5.1. 6.H 6.4. 23.*H.*6.15. Raſt.pla.fol.410.

Cap. II.

No common Hoſtler ſhall be a Cuſtomer, Comptroller, or Searcher.

No common Hoſtler in a Citie or Borough ſhall be a Cuſtomer, Comptroller, or ſearcher there.

ITem, it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that no man which holdeth a common Hoſtry in any City or Borough of England, ſhall be Cuſtomer, Comptroller, finder, nor ſearcher of the ſaid Lord the King: and that to eſchew the damage and loſſe, which thereof may happen by the fauour that ſuch common Hoſtlers may, or will doe to Merchants and other their gueſts in their ſaid Offices. Stat.20.*H.*6 5.

Cap. III.

Records ſhall not be amended or impaired after Judgement inrolled.

Juſtices of Aſſiſe ſhall deliuer into the Treaſury the records of Aſſiſe &c. euery ſecond yeare. St.9.Ed.3.5.

Records ſhall not be amended or impaired after Judgement giuen and recorded.

ITem, It is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the Juſtices aſſigned and to be aſſigned, to take Aſſiſes by Commiſſion of our Lord the King in the Counties of the Realme, from henceforth ſhal cauſe to be deliuered fully in the Kings Treaſury, all the Records of Aſſiſes of Nouel diſſeiſin, of Mortdanceſtor and of Certifications, with all the appurtenances and appendances before them determined euery ſecond yeare, that the plea thereof be determined and iudgement giuen without more delay, and that the Records and proceſſe of Pleas, reall, and perſonall, and of Aſſiſes of Nouel diſſeiſin, or Mortdanceſtor, and Certifications, and of other, whereof Judgement is giuen and enrolled, or things touching ſuch plea, ſhall in no wiſe be amended nor impaired by new entring of the Clerkes, or by the Record or thing certified in witneſſe or commandement of any Juſtice in no Terme after that ſuch iudgement in ſuch pleas is giuen and enrolled. Fitz. Error. 51.

Cap. IIII.

He that playeth at vnlawfull games prohibited by the Stat. of 12.*R.*2.6. ſhall be ſixe daies impriſoned. Rep.33.*H.*8.9.

Cap. V.

Gally halfepence ſhall not be currant in payment in this Realme.

Gally halfepence ſhall not be currant payment.

ITem, becauſe that Gally halfepence doe commonly runne in the realme for payment, in derogation of the Kings Crowne, and in great deceipt of the Common people: It is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid Gally halfepence ſhall neuer be currant in payment, nor in other maner within the Realme of England. vpon paine of forfeiture thereof. And moreouer that the Gally halfe pence, in whoſe hands ſoeuer they be found within the Realme, ſhall be forfeit to our Lord the King after two moneths next enſuing the Proclamation of this Statute. And alſo the ſame our Lord the King, will that all the Statutes and Ordinances made before this time by him or by his noble Progenitors not repealed, aſwell of money of Scotland as of the money of other Realmes and parties beyond the Sea, be holden, and kept, and put in due execution.

Cap. VI.

Clothes ſhall not be tacked and plaited together before the Aulneger hath ſet his Seale to them.

Stat.7.H.4.10.

ITem, whereas by the Statute made the ſeuenth yeare of the raigne of our ſaid Lord the King that now is, it was ordained, that euery whole coloured Cloth made within the Realme ſhould contained by aſſiſe the length of eight and twenty yards by the creſt, and euery dozen of Cloth of the length of fourteen yeards by the creſt; and the Rayes meaſured by the liſt ſhould containe the ſame length, that is to ſay, the whole Cloth eight and twentie yeards, and the Dozen foureteene yeards: And certaine Aulnegers thereto aſſigned through the Realme, ſhould take their charge in the Exchequer, well and lawfully without fraud to ſearch and ſuruay ſuch Clothes, and Dozens, that euery of them in his nature doe containe the length and breadth as the Statute aforeſaid requireth. The ſame Aulnegers hauing power and authority by our ſaid Lord the King, duely to execute their Office, and with the Seale of their ſaid Office thereto aſſigned to Seale all the ſaid Clothes and Dozens holding their length and breadth, after the forme of the ſaid aſſiſe, ſo that the people hauing whereof they may be ſure, that by the warrant of the ſame ſealing, their Clothes and Dozens aforeſaid, ſhall hold their length and breadth, after the forme of the ſaid Statute: notwithſtanding which Statute, certaine perſons, namely, in the Weſt parts, making ſuch manner Clothes, which doe not hold their ſaid aſſiſe aſwell in Raies as in full Cloth, and in eſpeciall where the whole coloured Cloth ought to containe the length of eight and twenty yeards, it holdeth not but three and twentie yeards, and where the Dozen of Cloth ought to hold thirteene yeards, it holdeth but eleuen yeards, and to conceale the deceit of the meaſure, the ſaid people ſo making ſuch Clothes and Dozens, cauſe the ſame to be plaited and tacked together preſently after they be made. And when the Aulnegers ſee the Clothes ſo tacked together, they doe ſeale them without making any more ſearch or ſuruaying of the ſame clothes, to the great deceit and hinderance, aſwell of the Lords as the Commons of the Realme. Our Lord the King conſidering the miſchiefes aforeſaid, and willing thereof to prouide remedie, by the aduice and aſſent of the ſaid Lords, and at the requeſt of the ſaid Commons, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed. that a new ſeale hauing a ſigne and a marke differing from the old Seale of the ſaid Office of Aulneger, ſhall be made and deliuered to the ſaid Aulnegers, and that after that the ſame Seale ſo newly to be made, be deliuered to the ſaid Aulnegers, Proclamation ſhall be made openly in the Weſt parts, and other places through the Realme, that no perſons making ſuch manner of Clothes and Dozens in the ſame Weſt parts, nor elſe where within the Realme of England, be ſo hardy to tacke and plaite together ſuch maner Clothes, before that the Aulneger hath duely made his ſearch and ſuruay of the ſame Clothes, that they hold their length and breadth ordained in the ſaid Statute, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame: And that the ſaid Aulneger after that, ſhall ſet the ſaid new Seale of his Office to ſuch maner of Clothes and Dozens, ſauing alwaies that the clothes & dozens of Colour & of Ray, which be enſealed with the ſaid old Seale, before the Proclamation made, may haue their courſe to be ſold without any impediment, impeachment, or reſtraint, vpon them to be made by the ſaid Aulnegers, or any other officers, betwixt the date of the ſaid Proclamation, and the feaſt of S. Peter ad vincula next comming. And in caſe that any Aulneger in doing his ſaid office doe contrarie to this Statute, and thereof be duely attainted, that he at the firſt time that he ſhall be ſo attainted, ſhall loſe x.li. and at the ſecond time xx. pounds, to be leuied and paied to the vſe of our ſaid Lord the King, of all his Lands and Tenements, goods, and cattels, in whoſe hands ſoeuer they be. And at the third time his body ſhall be arreſted, and all his goods and cattells at the Kings will. And moreouer the ſame our Lord the King doth will, that euery perſon which will ſue for the King, or for himſelfe, ſhall haue the ſuit to ſuch Aulnegers, ſo doing againſt this Statute. And the ſame partie purſuing ſhall haue for his Labour the fourth part of the penaltie of tenne or twenty pound aforeſaid: according as the caſe ſhall happen: ſauing to Lords and other their Franchiſes, if they haue any in this caſe. Stat.11.H.6.9.

No man ſhall tacke and plight together clothes before the Aulneger hath ſet his Seale vnto them. Stat.13.R.11.

The penaltie of an Aulneger not performing his dutie.

Merchants Strangers, ſhall pay to the King the Cuſtomes, and Subſidies granted to him by the Commons for Cloth cut in pieces, and for Clothes cut into garments proportionably, after the rate of a whole piece. Exp.

Cap. VIII.

The Lord Chancellor ſhall ſend the Eſtreates of Exchanges taken of Merchants into the Exchequer euery fifteene daies. Obs. Stat.14.R.2.2. 9.H.5.9.

Cap. IX.

Iurors in Indictments ſhall be returned by the Sheriffe, or &c. without denomination of any.

Iurors in Indictments ſhall be returned by the Sheriffes, or Bailiffes, without denomination of any. St 11.H.7.24. 3.H.8.12.

ITem, becauſe that now of late Enqueſts were taken at Weſtminſter of perſons named to the Juſtices, without due returne of the Sheriffe, of which perſons ſome were outlawed before the ſaid Juſtices of Record, and ſome fled to Sanctuary for Treaſon, and ſome for Felony, there to haue refuge, by whom aſwell many offenders were indicted, as other lawfull liege people of our Lord the King, not guilty, by conſpiracie, abatement, and falſe imagination of other perſons, for their ſpeciall aduantage and ſingular lucre, againſt the courſe of the Common Law uſed and accuſtomed before this time: Our ſaid Lord the King, for the greater eaſe and quietnes of his people, will and granteth, that the ſame Indictment, ſo made, with all the dependance thereof be reuoked, adnulled, void, & holden for none for euer. And that from henceforth no Indictment be made by any ſuch perſons, but by enqueſts of the Kings lawfull liege people, in the maner as was uſed in the time of his noble Progenitors, returned by the Sheriffes, or Bailiffes of Franchiſes, without any denomination to the Sheriffes, or Bailiffes of Franchiſes before made by any perſon of the names, which by him ſhould be empanalled, except it be by the Officers of the ſaid Sheriffes or Bailiffes, of Franchiſes ſworne and knowne to make the ſame, and other Officers to whom it pertaineth to make the ſame according to the law of England. And if any Endictment be made hereafter in any point to the contrarie: that the ſame Indictment be alſo void, reuoked, and for euer holden for none.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter, Anno 13 Hen. 4. & Anno Domini 1411.

THe Tueſday, being on the morrow of all Soules the thirteenth yeare of the raigne of our Lord King HENRY the fourth: The ſame our Lord the King by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall & Temporall, and at the requeſt of the Commons being in the ſaid Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, hath cauſed to be ordeined and ſtabliſhed diuers Statutes and Ordinances, in forme as followeth.

Cap. I.

ITem, it is ordained and eſtabliſhed, That if any Riot, Aſſembly, or Rout of people againſt the Law, be made in parties of the Realme, that the Iuſtices of Peace, thrée, or two of them at the leaſt, and the Sheriffe or vnder-Sheriffe of the County where ſuch Riot, aſſembly, or Rout ſhall be made hereafter, ſhall come with the power of the County (if néede be) to arreſt them, and ſhall arreſt them, and the ſame Iuſtices and Sheriffe or vnder-Sheriffe ſhall haue power to record that which they ſhall find ſo done, in their preſence againſt the Law. And that by the Record of the ſame Iuſtices and Sheriffe, or vnder-Sheriffe, ſuch treſpaſſors, and offendors ſhall be conuict in the manner and forme as is contained in the Statute of forcible entries. And if it happen that ſuch treſpaſſors, and offendors be departed before the comming of the ſaid Iuſtices and Sheriffe and vnder-Sheriffe, that the ſame Iuſtices, thrée or two of them, ſhall diligently inquire within a moneth after ſuch Riot, Aſſembly, or Rout of people ſo made, and thereof ſhall heare and determine according to the Law of the land.

Certificate of a riot, and the puniſhment of offendors.

And if the truth cannot be found in the manner as afore is ſaid, then within a moneth then next following, the Iuſtices, thrée or two of them, and the Sheriffe or vnder-Sheriffe ſhall certifie before the King and his Counſell all the déede, and circumſtances thereof: which Certificate ſhall be of like force, as the preſentment of twelu, vpon which Certificate the ſaid treſpaſſors and offendors ſhall be put to anſwer, & they which ſhall be found guiltie, ſhall be puniſhed according to to the diſcretion of the King and his Counſell.

A Trauerſe of a riot triable in the Kings Bench.

Conuiction of offendors, for default of apparance.

And if ſuch treſpaſſors & offendors do trauerſe the matter ſo certified, the ſame Certificate and Trauerſe ſhall be ſent into the Kings Bench, there to be tried and determined as the Law requireth. And if the ſame treſpaſſors doe not appeare before the King and his Counſell, or in the Kings Bench at the firſt Precept, then ſhall be another Precept, directed to the Sheriffe of the Countie, to take the ſaid treſpaſſors and offendors, if they may be found, and to bring them at a certaine day before the King and his Counſell, or into the Kings Bench. And if they cannot be found, that the Sheriffe or vnder-Sheriffe ſhall make Proclamation in his full Countie next enſuing the deliuery of the ſecond Precept, that they ſhall appeare before the King and his ſaid Counſell, or in the Kings Bench, or in the Chancerie, in time of vacation within thrée wéekes then next following. And in caſe the ſame offendors come not as afore is ſaid, and the Proclamation made and returned, they ſhall be conuict and attainted of the Riot, Aſſemblie, or Rout afore ſaid, notwithſtanding any article or ordinance made to the contrary.

Thus endeth the Statutes of King Henry the fourth.

Anno primo HENRICI quinti.

STATVTES MADE AT WESTMINSTER IN THE FIRST YEARE OF the Raigne of King HENRIE the fift, and in the yeare of our Lord, 1413.

OVr Lord the King at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the three weekes of Eaſter, the firſt yeare of his raigne, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the Commons of this Realme, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed diuers Statutes and Ordinances in the forme following.

CAP. I.

What ſort of people ſhall be choſen, and who ſhall be the chooſers of the Knights and Burgeſſes of the Parliament.

What perſons ſhall be choſen & who ſhall be, the chuſers of the knights and burgeſſes for the parliament. Raſt.pla.fo.410.

FIrſt, that the Statutes of the election of the Knights of the Shires to come to the Parliament, be holden and kept in all points: adioyning to the ſame, that the Knights of the Shires, which from henceforth ſhall be choſen in euery Shire, be not choſen vnleſſe they be reſiant within the Shire where they ſhall be choſen, the day of the date of the Writ of the ſummons of the Parliament. And that the Knights and Eſquires, and other which ſhall be chooſers of thoſe Knights of the Shires be alſo reſiant within the ſame Shires in manner and form as is aforeſaid. And moreouer, it is ordained & eſtabliſhed, that the Citizens and Burgeſſes of the Cities & Boroughs be choſen men citizens and burgeſſes reſiant dwelling and frée in the ſame cities & boroughs, and no other in any wiſe. Stat.7.H.4.15.8.H.6.7.10.H.6.2.23.H.6.15.

CAP. II.

A confirmation of former Stat. touching Weares, Milles, Kiddels, &c.

St.25.Ed.3.4. 45.Ed.3.2. 4.H.4.11. A confirmation of former St. made concerning the leuying and ſtraitning of weares &c.

ITem, becauſe that great complaint hath béene made to our ſaid Lord the King in this preſent Parliamẽt, for that the ſtatutes made in the time of his noble progenitors Kings of England, of the leuying and ſtreating of Weares, Mils, Stanks, Stakes, and Kidels, bee not kept according to the forme and effect of the ſame ſtatutes, to the great damage of the people of the Realme of England. Our ſaid Lord the King that now is, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the ſaid commons, will and grant that the ſaid ſtatutes and ordinances be ſurely holden and kept, and put in due execution.

CAP. III.

The penaltie that ſhall be inflicted vpon him which doth forge or publiſh a falſe deed, ſhall be to ſatisfie the partie grieued his damages, and to make fine and ranſome at the Kings will. REP. 5.El.14. Raſt.pla.fol.353. Fitz.forger de faits.1.2.3.&c.

CAP. IIII.

Sheriffes Bailiffes ſhall not be in the ſame office in three yeares after. Sheriffes officers ſhall not be Atturneies.

The Sheriffs Bailiffes ſhall not be in the ſame office 3. yeares after.

ITem, foraſmuch as the Kings liege people dare not purſue or complaine of the extortions & of the oppreſſions to them done by the officers of Sheriffes, that is to ſay, by vnderſheriffes, clerks of Sheriffes, receiuers, and Bailiffes of Sheriffes, becauſe that the ſaid Vnderſheriffes, Clerkes, Receiuers, & Bailiffes be continually from yeare to yeare, abiding with the Sheriffs interchangeably out of one office into another: Our Lord the King, by the aduice & aſſent aforeſaid, and at the requeſt of the ſaid commons hath ordained & eſtabliſhed, that they which be Bailiffes of Sheriffs, by one yeare, ſhall be in no ſuch office by thrée yeares next following, except Bailiffes of Sheriffes, which be inheritable in their Sheriffewickes. And that no vnderſheriffe, Sheriffs Clerke, receiuer, nor Sheriffes Bailiffe, be Atturney in the Kings Courts, during the time that he is in office with any ſuch Sheriffe.

Sheriffes officers ſhall not be Atturneys.

By what meaſure Puruaiors and others ſhall take and buy Corne.

ITem, whereas in the time of the Kings noble progenitors it was ordained that one meaſure of corne ſhould bée through all the Realme of England, that is to ſay, eight buſhels for the quarter, and that euery buſhell ſhall containe eight gallons, by force of which ordinances ſuch meaſure hath béene vſed, with a Buſhell of the ſaid Quarter heaped. And notwithſtanding the ſaid good ordinances and vſages, the Puruaiors of Corne as well for the houſe of the father of our Lord the King, as for the houſe of our Lord the King which now is, haue taken before this time for the ſaid houſes continually nine buſhells of Wheate and of other Corne for the Quarter, and that many times by meaſure not ſealed, and alſo not ſtricken, againſt the will of the ſellers of the ſame, and without due price ſet vpon the ſame after the Law of the land, and alſo cauſe the ſellers to cary the ſaid corne to what place that them pleaſeth, without paying for the cariage: and the Merchants and Citizens of London doe vſe to take of euery ſeller for the quarter of Wheate, nine buſhels by the meaſure, vſed within the ſaid Citie called the Fate, with a Buſhell ſet vpon the ſaid Fate, and yet make the ſellers to pay a halfepenie for the meaſuring of euery quarter, and take for a quarter of Oates, tenne buſhels, whereby the buyers of the corne in the Countrey, will not buy nor take for the quarter of Corne, but in the ſame manner, as the ſaid Puruaiors, and they of the ſaid Citie vſe to take, to the great hinderance and perpetuall vndoing of the Comminaltie aforeſaid.

London meaſure called the Fate.

It is ordained and eſtabliſhed, that all the ſaid good Ordinances be firmely holden and kept, after the effect of the ſame. And that no Puruaior of our Lord the King, nor any other, ſhall vſe hereafter to buy nor to take any corne by other meaſure, but eight buſhels ſtriked for the quarter, and that none bée otherwiſe bound to deliuer for the quarter, but eight buſhells ſtriked, as is aforeſaid, and alſo that the payment be made in hand for the carriage. And that if any Purueior of our Lord the King, or any other perſon, buy or take any Corne otherwiſe, or by other meaſure but eight buſhells ſtriked for the quarter, as in the ſaid ordinances is contained, and thereof bee attainted, he ſhall haue one yeares impriſonment, and pay to the King a hundred ſhillings, and to the party that féeleth himſelfe grieued an other hundred ſhillings, and that as Statutes made at Leiceſter, Anno ſecundo Hen.quinti, & Anno Domini 1414.

OVr Lord the King at his Parliament holden at Leiceſter, the laſt day of Aprill, the ſecond yeare of his raigne, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the ſpeciall inſtance & requeſt of the Commons of his Realme in the ſame Parliament aſſembled, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed diuers Ordinances, declarations and Statutes made in the forme as followeth.

Cap. I.

Ordinaries ſhall inquire of and reforme the eſtates of Hoſpitalls.

The cauſes of the erection of hoſpitalls.

FIrſt, for as much as many Hopitalls within the Realme of England, founded as well by the noble Kings of this Realme, and Lords and Ladies both Spirituall any Temporall, as by diuers other eſtates, to the honour of God and of his glorious Mother, in ayde and merite of the ſoules of the ſaid Founders, to the which Hoſpitals the ſame Founders haue giuen a great part of their moueable goods for the buildings of the ſame, and a great part of their lands and tenements, therewith to ſuſtaine impotent men and women, Lazers, men out of their wits, and poore women with child, and to nouriſh, relieue, and refreſh other poore people in the ſame, bee now for the moſt part decaied, and the goods and profits of the ſame by diuers perſons as well Spirituall as Temporall withdrawne and ſpent in other vſe, whereby many men and women haue died in great miſery for default of aide, liuing and ſuccour: to the diſpleaſure of God, and perill of the ſoules of ſuch maner of diſpoſers. The K. our ſoueraigne Lord, conſidering the meritorious and deuout intents of the Founders aforeſaid, and the vnaccuſtomed gouernment in the ſame, hath by the aduice and aſſent aforeſaid ordained, and eſtabliſhed, that as to the Hoſpitals, which be of the patronage and foundation of the King, the Ordinaries by vertue of the Kings Commiſſions to them directed, ſhall inquire of the maner and foundation of the ſaid Hoſpitals, and of the gouernance and eſtate of the ſame, and of all other matters neceſſary and requiſite in this behalfe, and the inquiſitions thereof taken ſhall certifie in the Kings Chancery. And as to other Hoſpitalls, which be of another foundation, and patronage then of the King, the Ordinaries ſhall inquire of the manner of the foundation, eſtate, and gouernance of the ſame, and of all other matters and things neceſſary in this behalfe: and vpon that make thereof correction and reformation, according to the Lawes of holy Church, as to them belongeth.

Ordinaries ſhall inquire of & reforme the foundation, eſtate and gouernment of hoſpitals. St.14.El.5.

A Corpus cum cauſa, or Certiorari to remoue him which is in Execution at an other mans ſuit.

ITem, for as much as many men haue beene condemned in the Courts of our Lord the King, and in the Courts of his Progenitors, as well within the Citie of London, as in other Cities and Boroughes within the Realme of England, and by the vertue of ſuch condemnations haue beene committed to the priſon of our Lord the King, there to remaine vntill they haue made agreement to the plaintiffes, to whom they were condemned : After by their ſuggeſtion made in the Chauncery of our Lord the King, they haue had diuers Writs called Certiorari, and Corpus cum cauſa, out of the Chauncery of our ſaid Lord the King, directed to the Sheriffe, or Keepers of the priſons, where ſuch perſons condemned be holden, to haue their bodies with the cauſe of impriſonment of the condemned aforeſaid in the Chancery, at the dayes contained in the ſaid writs. After which writs together with the body & the cauſe of the condemnation returned in the Chancery aforeſaid, the ſaid perſons ſo condemned haue bin deliuered in the Chancery aforeſaid by baile or by mainpriſe, or enlarged without baile or mainpriſe againſt the aſſent & wil of the ſaid plaintiffes, & without any agreement made to the ſaid pl. of the ſums, in the which they be condemned, againſt the law of the land: and ſo remaine the ſaid plaintifes without remedy, in hinderance of the ſtate of ſuch plaintiffs, & in defeating of the iudgments giuen in the Courts aforeſaid. Our Lord the King, willing herein to prouide remedy, by the aduice and aſſent aforeſaid, and at the requeſt of the foreſaid commons, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that if any ſuch writ of Certiorari

Which Iuſtices of the Peace muſt be reſident in the ſame Shire. And at what times they muſt hold their Quarter Seſſions.

Item, foraſmuch as the ſeruants and labourers of the Shires of the realme do flee from Countie to Countie, becauſe they would not be iuſtified by the ordinances and ſtatutes by the Law for them made, to the great damage of Gentlemen and others, to whom they ſhould ſerue, becauſe that the ſaid ordinances and ſtatutes for them ordained, be not executed in euery Shire: Our Lord the King, willing in this caſe to prouide a remedy, by the aduice and aſſent aforeſaid, and at the requeſt of the ſaid commons, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the ſtatute of laborers, made at Canterbury, and all other good ſtatutes of labourers, made and not repealed, be firmely holden and kept, and put in due execution. And moreouer, that the Iuſtices of peace haue power to ſend their Writs for ſuch fugitiue labourers to euery Sheriffe of the realme of England, and to make ſuch Proceſſe as the ſtatute requireth, to bring them before them to anſwere to our Soueraign Lord the K. and to the parties, of the contempts and treſpaſſes made or done againſt the ordinances & ſtatutes aforeſaid, in like maner as the Iuſtices haue power to ſend to euery Sheriffe for the felons before them indicted. And alſo that all the ſtatutes and ordinances of Laborers, Seruants and Artificers before this time made and not repealed, be exemplified vnder the great ſeale, and ſent to euery Sheriffe of the realm of England, therof to make proclamation in full Countie, and after this Proclamation ſo made, that euery Sheriffe ſhall cauſe the ſaid exemplification to him directed, to be deliuered to the Iuſtices of the Peace in his Countie named of the Quorum, or to one of them, to remaine with ſuch Iuſtices which be or ſhall be, for the better putting of the foreſaid ſtatutes and ordinances in due execution. And in Shires where diuers Commiſſions of the peace be made, there ſhall be ſo many exemplifications of the ſtatutes and ordinances aforeſaid made, as be Commiſſions of the Peace in the ſame Shires, and ſent to the Sheriffe to make proclamation, and to deliuer the ſame as is aforeſaid.

Proceſſe againſt Felons dwelling in Tyndall or Examſhire in Northumberland.

ITem, foraſmuch as by the Commons of the Countie of Northumberland, grieuous complaints haue béene made to our ſoueraigne Lord the King in this preſent Parliament, for that many murders, treaſons, manſlaughters, robberies, and diuers other offences, to many of the faithfull liege people of the ſame Countie, by people dwelling in the ſame Countie within the Franchiſe of Tindale and Examſhire, where the Kings Writs runneth not, now of late haue béene perpetrated, otherwiſe then haue béene done or knowne before this time, to ſo many perils of the ſaid liege people of our Lord the King, that without due remedie in this behalfe prouided, they dare no longer there dwell, becauſe that ſuch offendors bée ſo fauoured by ſuch Franchiſe: Our ſaid Lord the King, by the aduice and aſſent aforeſaid, and at the requeſt of the ſaid Commons, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that if any perſon of the ſaid Franchiſes of Tindale and Examſhire, reſiant or dwelling in the ſame, of what eſtate or condition that he be, doe any murders, treaſons, manſlaughters, or robberies, or conſent to doe them out of the ſaid Franchiſes of Tindale and Examſhire, proceſſe ſhall be made againſt him by the common Law, vntil he be outlawed. And that after ſuch Outlary pronounced and returned, the Iuſtices, before whom ſuch Outlary is returned, ſhall make thereof certificate to ſuch Miniſter or Miniſters of the ſaid Franchiſes as to them ſhall ſéeme beſt in this behalfe, according to their diſcretion. Breaking of Truce and Safe-conduct ſhall be high treaſon. In euery Port there ſhall be a Conſeruator of the Peace and Safe-conduct.

ITem, foraſmuch as before this time diuers people, compriſed within the Truces made as well by our Lord the King which now is, as by his noble father, and alſo diuers other people hauing ſafe conducts as well of our Lord the King that now is, as of his noble father, haue béene ſome ſlaine, robbed and ſpoiled, by the Kings liege people and ſubiects, as well vpon maine Sea, as within the Ports and coaſts of the Sea of England, Ireland, and of Wales, whereby the ſaid truces and ſafe conducts haue béene broken and infringed, to the great diſhonour and ſlander of the King and againſt his dignity. And the ſaid manſlayers, robbers, ſpoilers, and offendors of the ſaid truces and the Kings ſafe conducts, as is afore declared, haue béene by diuers of the Kings liege people and ſubiects within the coaſts of diuers Counties receiued, abetted, procured, concealed, hired, ſuſtained, and maintained. Our ſaid Lord the King, by the aduice and aſſent aforeſaid, and at the requeſt of the ſaid commons hath ordained and declared, that ſuch manſlaughter, robbery, ſpoiling, breaking of truce and ſafe conducts, and voluntary receit, abetment, procurement, concealing, hiring, ſuſtaining, and maintaining of ſuch perſons, to be done in time to come by any of the Kings liege people and ſubiects within the Realme of England, Ireland, and Wales, or vpon the maine ſea, ſhall be adiudged and determined for high Treaſon done againſt the Kings Crowne and his dignity. And in euery Port of the Sea ſhall be made and aſſigned from henceforth by the King by his Letters patents, one lawfull man called a Conſeruator of the Truce, and the Kings Safe conducts, which ſhall haue fortie pound land by the yeare at the leaſt. And that the Conſeruator haue power and authority by the ſaid Letters patents, and alſo by Commiſſion of the Admirall of England, to enquire of all ſuch treaſons and offences to bée done againſt the truce and ſafe conducts vpon the maine Sea, out of the body of the Counties, and out of the Franchiſes of the fiue Ports of the King, as the Admirals of the Kings of England before this time reaſonably, after the old cuſtome and law on the maine Sea vſed, haue done or vſed. And alſo that the ſaid Conſeruator haue like and the ſame power, to puniſh all them, which be or ſhall be indicted or accuſed before him as well at the Kings ſuit as at the parties, of any thing to be done againſt the truce of the Kings ſafe conducts vpon the maine ſea, out of the body of the Counties and Liberties of the Realme of England, and out of the Franchiſe of the fiue Ports, by ſuch proceſſe, examination, proofes, determination, iudgement, and execution, as Admirals of the Kings of England before this time reaſonably, according to the old cuſtom and law vpon the maine ſea vſed, haue done or vſed.

And in caſe that the Capias and Exigend be awarded in this behalfe, that the names and ſurnames of ſuch perſons ſo indited, and the Towne and the County and Miſtery whereof they be, ſhall be ſpecified and declared in the inditements and proceſſes of the ſame. And that the ſaid Conſeruator haue full power to heare at euery mans ſuit, which will complaine before himſelfe or his lieutenant, of any offence done to the party againſt the ſaid truces and ſafe conducts. And that two men learned in the Law be named and aſſociate in euery Commiſſion of our Lord the King, to be made to ſuch Conſeruator, and that the ſaid Conſeruator, and the ſaid men learned in the Law, in the Commiſſion to him aſſociate and aſſigned ſhall haue full power and authority to make deliuerance, according to the Law and vſage of the Land, of ſuch men ſo indited before the ſaid Conſeruator of things to be done within the body of the County, or liberty where the ſaid Port is, againſt the ſaid truce and the Kings ſafe conducts, and to determine ſuch ſuits commenced at any mans ſuit, which will complaine before the ſaid Conſeruator, of any offence to him done againſt the ſaid truce and ſafe conducts, and thereof to make due redreſſe and remedie. And that the ſaid two men to the ſaid Conſeruator ſo aſſociate, be aſſiſting & attending to the ſaid Conſeruator to make the deliuerances and determination in the maner and forme aforeſaid, when they be by the ſaid Conſeruator reaſonably required. And that the ſaid Conſeruator and the ſaid two men of Law, be ſworne that they nor any of them ſhall take fee, gift, hyre, wages, reward or brocage, of any other then of the King in any wiſe in this behalfe, in hinderance of due execution and puniſhment of ſuch traitors, and offendors aforeſaid. And that the ſaid Conſeruator ſhall be reſiant in the Port and places where he ſhall be Conſeruator aſſigned as aforeſaid. And euery Conſeruator ſhall take yearely for the ſaid office forty pound of the King at the leaſt, and that they be ſworne, that if any perſon of what eſtate or condition ſoeuer he be, procure, excite, or abet them or any of them to doe any thing contrary to this Ordinance & oath aforeſaid, that euery of them ſhall make due relation to our Soueraigne Lord the King or to the Chanceller of England for the time being, as ſpeedily as he well may, without concealment in any point, vpon paine of impriſonment, and to make fine and ranſom at the Kings pleaſure. And that the ſaid Conſeruator haue a ſeale of our Lord the King ordained for the ſaid office. And that the Maſter of the Ship, Barge, or Balinger, or other veſſels in the ſaid Port be ſworn, & the poſſeſſor alſo (if he be preſent) before the ſaid Conſeruator, before that he paſſe out of the ſaid Port, that he ſhall not attempt to doe any thing againſt the ſaid truce and the Kings ſafe conducts. And alſo that the ſaid Conſeruator ſhall cauſe to be inrolled of record before him, as wel the names of ſuch owners and maſters, as the names of their Ship, Barge, Balinger, or other veſſel, together with the number of the Mariners in the ſame being. And if they take any thing of the Kings enemies, or of any other, they ſhall cauſe to be brought ſuch things taken into the Port, and thereof make full information to the ſaid Conſeruator, before that they thereof make diſcharge or ſale, If it be not that by force of wind, tempeſt, or of enemies, or ſome other reaſonable cauſe ſuch Ship, Barge, Balinger or other veſſel, muſt enter into another Port for the preſeruation of the ſame veſſell, or other cauſe reaſonable. And that then they ſhall make full information to the ſaid Conſeruator, or to the Conſeruator of the Port, in which the ſaid veſſels arriue or enter, of the price and of the quantity of the thing, receiuing a letter teſtimoniall vnder the ſaid ſeal of the aforeſaid Conſeruator, by the which the Conſeruator of the ſaid Port, whereof the veſſell or veſſels ſhall goe out, may haue notice of the quantity and alſo of the value of the goods and cattels ſo taken. And if any poſſeſſor or maſter of any Ship or other Veſſell, goe out of any Port of the Realme of England, or diſcharge his Ship or Veſſell againſt the forme of this Ordinance, that ſuch Ship or Veſſell, together with the price taken in the ſame duely made, ſhall be forfeit to the King, and the body of the poſſeſſor or maſter of ſuch Ship or Veſſell committed to priſon, there to remaine vntill he hath made a fine and ranſome to the King.

Commiſſions ſhall be awarded to enquire of a Riot, and of the Iuſtices default therein.

ITem, wheras it is contained in the Statute made the xiij. yeare of the Noble King Henry, father to our Lord the King that now is amongſt other things, that if any riot, aſſembly, or rout of people againſt the Law be made in any part of the realme, then the Iuſtices of the Peace iij. or ij. of them at the leaſt, and the Sheriffe or vnderſheriffe of the Countie where ſuch Riot, Aſſembly, or Rout ſhall be made hereafter, ſhould come with the power of the ſaid County, if néed were, to arreſt them, & them ſhould arreſt, and the ſame Iuſtices, Sheriffe or vnderſheriffe ſhould haue power to record that which they found ſo done in their preſence againſt the Law, and that by record of the ſame Iuſtices, Sheriffe or vnderſheriffe, ſuch treſpaſſers or offenders ſhould be conuict in manner and forme as is containe din the Statute of forcible entries. And if it happen that ſuch treſpaſſors or offenders were departed before the comming of the Iuſtices, Sheriffe or vnderſheriffe, that the ſame Iuſtices, thrée or two of them ſhall diligently enquire within a moneth after ſuch Riot, Aſſembly or Rout of people ſo made, and the ſame heare and determine according to the Law of the Land. And if the truth could not be found in manner as afore is ſaid, within a moneth then next enſuing, the ſaid Iuſtices thrée or two of them and the Sheriffe or vnderſheriffe ſhall certifie before the King and his Counſell all the déed and circumſtance of the ſame, which certificate ſhall be of like force as the preſentment of twelue men: vpon which certificate the ſaid treſpaſſors and offenders ſhall be put to anſwere, and they which be found guiltie, ſhould be puniſhed according to the diſcretion of the King and his Counſell. And moreouer that the Iuſtices of Peace dwelling néereſt in euery County where ſuch Rout, Aſſembly, & Riot of people ſhould be made hereafter, together with the Sheriffe or vnderſheriffe of the ſame Counties, and alſo the Iuſtices of Aſſiſes for the time that they ſhall be in their Seſſions in caſe that any ſuch Riot, Aſſembly or Rout be made in their preſence, ſhall make execution of this Statute euery one of thē vpō paine of an C.li. to be paid to the K. as often as they ſhal be found in default of execution of the ſame ſtatute. And forasmuch as many riots, routs and aſſemblies, haue béene made in diuers parts of the realme, ſince the making & proclamation of the ſame ſtatute, becauſe that the ſame ſtatute hath not bin put in due execution, as our Soueraigne Lord the King hath perceiued by diuers & grieuous complaints to him made in this preſent Parliament. The ſame our Lord the King, willing hereof to prouide a better remedy, by the aduiſe & aſſent aforeſaid, and at the ſuit of the ſaid Commons, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that if default be found in the ſaid ij. Iuſtices of the peace, or Iuſtices of aſſiſes, & the ſheriffe or vnderſheriffe of the County where ſuch riot, aſſembly, or rout ſhall be made, touching the execution that they ought to make by vertue of the ſaid ſtatute, & whereof the ſaid ſtatute maketh mention, that then at the inſtance of the party grieued, the kings commiſſiō ſhal go out vnder his great ſeal, to enquire aſwel of the truth of the caſe, & of the originall matter for the party complainant, as of the default or defaults of the ſaid Iuſtices, ſheriffe or vnderſheriffs in this behalf ſuppoſed, to be directed to ſufficient and indifferent perſons at the nomination & by the direction of the Chanceller of the realme of England. And that the ſaid commiſſioners preſently ſhall returne into the Chancery the enqueſts & matters before them in this behalfe taken & found. And moreouer that the coroners of the ſame coūty for the time being, in which county ſuch riot, aſſembly or rout ſhall be made, ſhall make the panell vpon the ſaid commiſſion returnable for the time that the ſheriffe ſo ſuppoſed in default ſhall continue in his office, which coroners ſhall returne no perſons, but only ſuch which haue lands, tenements, or rents to the value of x.li. by yere at leaſt. And alſo that the ſame coroners ſhall returne vpon euery of the ſaid perſons empanelled at the firſt day when iſſues be to be loſt, xx.s. at the leaſt, and at the ſecond day, xl.s. at the leaſt, and at the third day, C.s. at the leaſt, and at euery day after the double at the leaſt, which iſſues ſo returned in reſpect of non appearance of ſuch perſons empanelled, ſhall be adiudged as forfeit to the King, and leuiable to his vſe. And

A rehearſall of the Stat. of 13. H.4.7. prouided againſt thoſe that commit any Riot, Rout, or vnlawfull Aſſembly.

Commiſſions ſhal be awarded to enquire of the Riot, and of the Iuſtices and Sheriffes defaults.

Vpon the Commiſſion the Coroners ſhall returne the enqueſt, and of what ſufficiency the Iurors ſhall be.

if default be found in the ſaid Coroners touching the returne of ſuch perſons to be empanelled, or touching the returne of ſuch iſſues as afore is ſaid,that euery of them ſhall forfeit to the kings vſe,fortie pound. And if it happen that the ſaid Sheriffe ſo reputed in default, be diſcharged of his office at the time that ſuch Commiſſion ſhall be awarded out of the Chancery, that then the new Sheriffe of the ſame Countie, his ſucceſſor mediate or immediate for the time being, and not the Coroners of the ſame Countie, ſhall make the panell vpon this Commiſſion, returnable in maner and forme as the ſaid Coroners ſhould doe in time when the Sheriffe ſo reputed in default,continued in his office. And that the ſame new Sheriffe ſhall incurre like paine of forty pound to the King,if any default in him be found touching the returne of other perſons by him empanelled,which haue not Lands,Tenements,or Rents to the value of tenne pounds by yeare, or of returning ſuch iſſues which the ſaid Coroners be aboue charged to returne, as the ſaid Coroners are to loſe to the King in this behalfe. And that the Chanceller of England for the time being,as ſoone as he may haue knowledge of ſuch Riot, aſſemblie or Rout, ſhall cauſe to be ſent the Kings writ to the Iuſtices of the Peace,and to the Sheriffe or Vnderſheriffe of the County, where they be ſo made,that they ſhall put the Statute in execution, vpon the paine contained in the ſame. And though that ſuch writ come not to the ſaid Iuſtices, Sheriffe or Vnderſheriffe, they ſhall not be excuſed of the paine aforeſaid, if they make not execution of the ſaid Statute.

What iſſues the Coroners ſhall returne vpon the Iurors & vpon what penaltie.

Where the Sheriffe and not the Coroners ſhall returne the Iury. A writ directed out of the chancery to enquire of Riots.

Prouided alwaies that the ſaid Iuſtices and other officers aforeſaid,ſhall execute their offices aforeſaid at the Kings coſts, in going and continuing in doing their ſaid offices, by payment thereof to be made by the Sheriffe of the ſame County for the time being, by indentures betwixt the Sheriffe and the ſaid Iuſtices and other Officers aforeſaid to be made of the payment aforeſaid, whereof the ſaid Sheriffe vpon his account in the Exchequer, may haue due allowance. And that ſuch Rioters attainted of great and heynous Riots,ſhall haue one whole yeares impriſonment at the leaſt,without being let out of priſon by baile,mainpriſe,or in any other manner during the yeare aforeſaid. And that the Rioters attainted of pettie Riots,ſhall haue impriſonment as beſt ſhall ſéeme to the King or to his Counſell. And that the fines of ſuch Rioters attainted,ſhall be by the ſaid Iuſtices encreaſed and put to greater ſummes then they were wont to be put in ſuch caſes before this time,in aide and ſupportation of the Iuſtices and other Officers aforeſaid in this behalfe. And that the Kings liege people being ſufficient to trauell in the County where ſuch Routs,Aſſemblies,or Riots be,ſhall be aſſiſtant to the Iuſtices,Commiſſioners,Sheriffe or Vnderſheriffe of the ſame County whē they ſhall be reaſonably warned to ride with the ſaid Iuſtices,Commiſſioners and Sheriffe,or Vnderſheriffe in aid to reſiſt ſuch Riots, Routs,and Aſſemblies,vpon paine of impriſonment,and to make fine & ranſome to the King. And that the Bailiffes of Franchiſes ſhall cauſe to be impanelled ſufficient perſons as before, vpon pain to loſe to the King fortie pound,in caſe that ſuch ſufficient perſons may be found within the ſame Franchiſes. And that like ordinances and paines ſhall hold place and take effect in Cities,Boroughes,and other places and townes infranchiſed,which haue Iuſtices of the Peace within the cities,boroughs,townes and other places aforeſaid. And that this Statute ſhall beginne to hold place preſently after the Proclamation thereof made. St.19.H.7.13.

CAP. IX.

A remedy to puniſh him that doth commit felony and flie into an vnknowne place.

ITem,foraſmuch as great and grieuous complaints haue béene made to our Soueraign Lord the King,by the Commons in this preſent Parliamēt of diuers murders,manſlaughters,robberies,batteries,aſſemblies of people in great number,in maner of inſurrection,and of diuers other rebellions and Riots,and after ſuch offences the ſaid Felons and offenders flée, and withdraw themſelues into diuers woods and ſecret places and vnknowne,and elſewhere, to the intent and purpoſe to auoid the execution of the Common Law,and that they might not be brought to anſwere,whereupon our Soueraigne Lord the King,conſidering the aforeſaid complaint, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall in the ſame Parliament aſſembled,hath ordained & ſtabliſhed at the requeſt of the ſaid Commons,that if any perſon hereafter come into the Chancery,& make cōplaint duly that any ſuch felō or offēdor as afore is ſaid,flée or withdraw himſelfe into any ſuch place,or elſewhere,to the intent aforeſaid, vpon ſuch a complaint a bill ſhall be ſufficiently made for the King. And the Chanceller of England for the time being, after ſuch a bill to him deliuered,if he may be duely enformed,that ſuch a bill containeth truth,ſhal haue power to make according to his diſcretion,a writ of Capias at the Kings ſuit,directed to the Sheriffe of the Countie or Counties where the ſaid murders,manſlaughters,robberies, batteries and other offences be ſuppoſed by the ſaid bill to be done and perpetrate, returnable in the ſaid Chancery at a certaine day. And if the perſons in the ſaid writ contained, be taken by the ſaid Sheriffe or yéeld themſelues in the ſame Chancery,that then ſuch perſons ſhall be put in ward or to mainpriſe,according to the diſcretion of the Chanceller. And moreouer be it commanded to enquire of ſuch offences,& vpō that ſhall be done as the law requireth. And if the Sheriffe return at the day of the Capias returnable, that the perſons in the ſame compriſed for any of theſe cauſes aforeſaid, cannot be by him taken, neither the ſame perſons doe yéeld themſelues in the ſaid Chancery, that then the ſaid Chancellor ſhall cauſe to be made a writ of Proclamation, directed to the ſaid Sheriffe, returnable in the Kings Bench at a certaine day that he ſhall make Proclamation in two Counties, that the perſons named in the ſaid writ ſhall come at the ſaid day in the Bench aforeſaid, there to anſwere to the matter compriſed within the ſaid bill, vpon paine to be conuict of the matter compriſed in the ſaid bill. And that in euery ſuch writ of Proclamation ſhall be contained the ſubſtance of the matter compriſed within the ſaid bill: and if they come not at the day of ſuch Proclamation returned, then ſhall they be holden and adiudged for conuict and attainted as aforeſaid. And if they come at the Proclamation, it ſhall be of them enquired and done in maner as aboue is ſaid.

The ſuggeſtiōs of ſuch riots ſhall be teſtified vnder ſeales of two Iuſtices of Peace and the Sheriffe.

Riots committed in a County where there is a Chancellor and a Seale.

Prouided alwaies that the ſuggeſtions of ſuch riots be teſtified to the Chancellor of England by letters ſealed vnder the ſeales of two Iuſtices of Peace at the leaſt, and the Sheriffe of the County, where ſuch riots ſhall be made, before that the writ of Capias be granted, in which writ of Capias the matter which is compriſed within the ſame bill ſhall be as well expreſſed, as in the writ of Proclamation thereof to be made. And if ſuch caſe happen in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, or elſe in any franchiſe, where there is a Chancellor and a ſeale, that then the Chancellor of England, ſhall cauſe to be written or ſent by the Kings writ to the Chancellor of ſuch County or franchiſe, all the ſuggeſtion in the ſaid bill compriſed, commanding him to make ſuch execution as in the ſaid article is compriſed, ſo alwaies that the Kings writ ſhall not runne out of the Chancery of England in ſuch a County or franchiſe, otherwiſe then hath béen vſed in time paſt. Sta. 7. H. 4. 8.

ITem, whereas in the time of King Henry the fourth, father to our Soueraigne Lord, whom God forgiue, the ſeuenth yeare of his Raigne, to eſchew many diſcords and debates, and diuers other miſchiefes, which were likely to riſe and happen, becauſe of many prouiſions then made or to be made by the Pope, and alſo of licences thereupon granted, by the ſaid late King, amongſt other things it was ordained and ſtabliſhed that no licence or pardon ſo granted, before the ſame ordinance, nor after to be granted, ſhould be auaileable to any benefice, full of an incumbent at the day of the date of ſuch licence, or pardon granted: Notwithſtanding ſeuerall perſons, hauing prouiſions of the Pope of diuers benefices in England and elſwhere, and licences royall, to execute the ſaid prouiſions, haue by colour of the ſame prouiſions, licences & acceptations of the ſaid benefices, ſubtilly excluded diuers perſons of their benefices, in which they haue bin incumbents by a long ſeaſon, of the collation of the patrons ſpirituall, to them duely made to their intent, to the vtter deſtruction & ſubuerſion of the eſtates of the ſaid incumbents: the King willing to remoue ſuch miſchiefes, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed that all the incumbents of euery benefice of holy Church of the patronage, collation or preſentation of ſpirituall patrons, may peaceably & quietly enioy & ſhall enioy their ſaid benefices, without being inquieted, moleſted, or any wiſe grieued by any colour of ſuch prouiſions, licences and acceptations whatſoeuer. And that all the licences and pardons vpon, & by ſuch prouiſions made, in any manner, ſhall be void & of no value. And if any féele himſelfe grieued, moleſted, or inquieted, in any wiſe from henceforth by any, by any colour of ſuch prouiſions, licences, pardons, or acceptations, that the ſame moleſtors, grieuors, and inquietors, and euery of them, ſhall ſuffer and incurre the paine and puniſhments, contained in the Statutes of prouiſors, before this time made, and that by proces of Præmunire facias formed vpon the caſe. And that the party which ſhall ſue by the ſame writ, ſhall recouer his treble damages, if the defendants named in the ſame writ, or any of them be conuict in that behalfe.

All prouiſions made by the Pope and licences or pardons granted by the King touching any benefices full of an incumbent ſhall be voide.

Cap. V.

In which Courts an Attaint may be brought vpon a falſe verdict giuen in the City of Lincolne, and by whom it ſhall be tryed.

St. 13. R. 2. 18.

ITem, whereas by the Statute made in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the thirtéenth yeare of King Richard the ſecond it was ordained and ſtabliſhed, that in Aſſiſes, Iuries, and all other enqueſts, which from thenceforth ſhould be taken betwixt party & party, before the Maior and Bailiffes of the City of Lincolne, which for the time ſhould be, if any of the parties then did complaine him of falſe Oathes, made by ſuch Aſſiſes, Iuries or enqueſts, that the attaint ſhould be granted to him, and the record ſhould be ſent by writ into the Kings Bench, or into the common bench. And that the Sheriffe ſhould array the panell of the Iury of ſuch attaint of forraines, without ſending to the franchiſe of the ſaid City. And the Iuſtices ſhould take the ſame Iury of the ſame forraines, notwithſtanding any franchiſe granted to the ſaid citie, or any other vſage to the contrary: neuertheleſſe, for as much as the Lord Henry late King of England, father to our Soueraigne the King aforeſaid, the xxj. day of Nouember, the xiij. yeare of his Raigne, by his letters patents amongſt others, granted to the Maior and comminalty of the ſaid Citie, that the name of Bailiffes of the ſame Citie, ſhould be tranſlate into the name of Sheriffes, and that the ſame citie, ſuburbs, and precinct of the ſame (except the caſtle of Lincolne: and the wals and ditches of the ſame) ſhould for euer be called the County of the Citie of Lincolne: diuers people be and haue béene in doubt, whether a man that will complaine of a falſe oath, made in the County of the ſaid City, after by force of the ſaid Statute, ſhould haue a writ of attaint, directed to the Sheriffe of the County of Lincolne, to be arraied by the people of the ſame County or not, and alſo of other Articles and points of the ſaid Statute. The King willing to remoue all manner ambiguities, and doubts in this behalfe, hath ordained, granted, and eſtabliſhed, that in Aſſiſes, Iuries, and all other Enqueſts, which be and ſhall be taken, betwixt party and party, before the Maior and Bailiffes, and before the Sheriffe of the County of the Citie of Lincolne, which

The Maior and Bailiffes of Lincolne tranſlated into the name of the Sheriffes of the County of the City of Lincolne.

Vpon a falſe verdit giuen before the Maior, &c. of the County of the City of Lincolne an attaint may be brought triable by forraines.

for foꝛ the time is, and ſhall be, oꝛ any of them, if any of the ſaid parties doe complaine of a falſe oath made by ſuch Aſſiſes, Juries, and Enqueſts, a Writ of Attaint ſhall be granted to him, directed to the Sheriffe of the ſaid County of Lincolne, foꝛ the time being, and the ſame Recoꝛd ſhall be ſent by a Writ into the Kings Bench, oꝛ into the common Bench. And that the Sheriffe of the County of Lincolne which foꝛ the time ſhall be, ſhall array the panell of the Jurie of ſuch Attaint, of people of the Countie of Lincolne. And that the Juſtices of the King and of his heires, ſhall take the ſame Jurie of people of the countie of Lincolne, accoꝛding to the intent and effect of the ſaid Statute, notwithſtanding the ſaid Letters Patents, oꝛ any thing therein contained, oꝛ any poſſeſſion oꝛ other thing by the foꝛce of the ſame Letters, had oꝛ made, oꝛ any Franchiſe granted, oꝛ to be granted, to the Citizens of the ſaid Citie oꝛ to their ſucceſſoꝛs; oꝛ other vſage to the contrarie, in the ſaid Citie of Lincolne is ſo made incoꝛpoꝛate.

CAP. VI.

It ſhall be Treaſon to clip, waſh, and file money.

ITem, becauſe that befoꝛe this time, great doubt and ambiguitie hath béene, whether that clipping, waſhing, and filing of the money of the land, ought to be iudged treaſon oꝛ not, foꝛ as much as no mention thereof is made in the declaration of the Articles of treaſon, made in the Parliament holden the xxv. yeare of King Edward the third. The ſame our Loꝛd the King willing to decide ſuch doubt, and to put the ſame in a certainty, hath declared in this pꝛeſent Parliament, that ſuch clipping, waſhing, and filing, ſhall be adiudged foꝛ Treaſon, and they which ſo do clip, waſh and file the money of the land, ſhall be iudged Traitoꝛs to the King, and to the realme, and ſhall incurre the paine of treaſon. Clipping, waſhing and filing of the money of this Realm ſhal be high treaſon

CAP. VII.

Which Iuſtices ſhall haue authoritie to heare and determine the offences of falſifying of money.

ITem, becauſe counterfeiting, clipping, waſhing, and other falſitie of money of the land, is much moꝛe vſed, and daily doth moꝛe abound, then it was wont, foꝛ that the puniſhment of the ſame, pertaineth not to any Judges of the Realme, but to the Kings Juſtices befoꝛe himſelfs, oꝛ by ſpeciall Commiſſioners thereto aſſigned, and it is very likely there will be deſtruction of the money, vnleſſe haſtie execution and remedie be pꝛouided, as the King by the grieuous complaint of the commons hath perceiued: Our ſaid Loꝛ: the King willing to remedie the ſame, hath oꝛdained and eſtabliſhed, that the Kings Juſtices aſſigned to take Aſſiſes in all the counties of England, ſhall haue power by the Kings Commiſſions, to heare and determine in their Seſſions, as well of the counterfeiting, and of the bꝛinging of ſuch falſe money into the Realme, as of clipping, waſhing, and euerie other falſitie of the ſaid money. And that the Juſtices of Peace thꝛough the Realme ſhall haue power by the Kings commiſſions, to inquire of all ſuch matters, and thereupon to make pꝛoceſſe, by Capias onely againſt thoſe, which befoꝛe them ſhall be thereof endicted. Statutes made at Weſtminſter Anno quarto Hen: quinti, & Anno Domini. 1416.

AT the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the ninteenth day of October, the fourth yeare of the raigne of King HENRY the fift after the conqueſt: The ſame our Lord the King, with the aſſent of the Prelates, Dukes, Earles, Barons, and at the ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the Commons aſſembled in the ſame Parliament, hath cauſed to be ordained & ſtabliſhed certaine Statutes and ordinances, in the forme as followeth.

CAP. I.

A confirmation of all former Statutes not repealed.

FIrſt, that the great Charter, and the Charter of the Foꝛeſt, and all other Statutes and oꝛdinances made in his time, and in the time of his noble pꝛogenitoꝛs Kings of England, and not repealed, ſhall be firmely holden and kept in all points.

A confirmation of former Statutes not repealed.

Cap. II.

Sheriffes ſhall haue allowance vpon their accompts of things caſuall.

Sheriffes ſhall haue allowance vpon their accompts of things caſuall.

ITem, that all the Sheriffes of England, ſhall haue allowance vpon their accompts, by their oathes of things caſuall, as of eſtreates that be not in ferme, nor in demand. But all ſuch things that be or runne in yearely fermes or yearely demands, they ſhall be charged to the King, as the Sheriffes haue béen charged in that caſe in times paſt.

Cap. V.

How Merchant ſtrangers ſhall be vſed, and Hoſts appointed for them.

A confirmation of the Stat. of 5. H. 4. 7 and 5. H. 4. 9. touching the vſing of Merchant ſtrangers.

ITem, whereas in a Statute made in the time of King Henry the fourth after the Conqueſt, the fifth yeare of his raigne, it was ordained and ſtabliſhed, that all the Merchants aliens, of what eſtate or condition they be, comming, abiding, or reſiant within the Realme of England ſhould be entreated and demeaned within the ſame Realme in the ſame forme, maner and condition, as the Merchants Denizens be or ſhall be intreated or demeaned in the parties beyond the Sea, and in no other maner, vpon paine to forfeit to the King all the goods and cattells of the ſaid Merchants aliens. And alſo it was ordained and ſtabliſhed in the time of the ſaid late King Henry, amongſt other things by the Statute, that in euerie Citie, Towne, and Port of the Sea of England, where the ſaid Merchants aliens, or ſtrangers, be or ſhall be repayring, ſufficient hoſts ſhalbe aſſigned to the ſame Merchants by the Maior, Sheriffe, or Bailiffes, of the ſaid Cities, Townes, and Port of the Sea. And that the Merchants aliens, and ſtrangers, ſhall not remaine in other places, but with the ſaid Hoſtes ſo to be aſſigned. And that the ſame Hoſtes ſo to be aſſigned, ſhall take for their labour in the ſame maner as was accuſtomed of old time: and for that our Lord the King hath perceiued, that the ſame Statutes haue not béene put in due execution: he willeth and granteth, that the ſame Statutes ſhall be firmely holden and kept in all points, and put in due execution from henceforth according to the purport of the ſame.

Cap. VI.

If any Archbiſhop, Biſhop, &c. of Ireland Rebell to the King, ſhall make collation of a Benefice to any Iriſhman, or bring any Iriſhman to the Parliament to diſcouer the Counſell of Engliſhmen to Rebels, his Temporalties ſhall be ſeiſed vntill he hath made fine to the King. Ob.

Cap. VII.

In what caſes Letters of Marque may be granted.

Stat. 2. H. 5. 6.

Letters of Marque ſhal be granted to any of the Kings ſubiects with whom Truce is broken vpon the Sea.

ITem, becauſe our Soueraigne Lord the King hath heard and conceiued at the grieuous complaint of the Commons of his Realme, in this Parliament, for that in reſpect of a ſtatute made at his Parliament holden at Leiceſter, the laſt day of Aprill, the ſecond yeare of his raigne, in which Statute is contained, that the breaking of truce and of ſafe conducts, and willing receit, abetment, procurement, counſell, hiring, ſuſtaining and maintaining of breakers of truce, and of the ſafe-conducts of the King our Lord to be made by his liege people from henceforth, within the Realme of England and Ireland, and the Countrey of Wales vpon the maine Sea, ſhall be iudged and determined for high treaſon, done againſt the Crowne, and the Kings dignitie: By reaſon of which Statute, though the Kings ſubiects be ſo much grieued againſt the truce, that they dare not prouide remedy by way of Act, for that the Kings enemies, as well in the parts beyond the Sea, as in the Realme of Scotland, haue thereof taken great courage, to grieue the Kings faithful liege people, in ſlaying ſome of them, and in taking ſome of them priſoners, and alſo taking their goods and cattels, againſt the tenour of the truce, as well vpon the maine Sea, as vpon the Marches of Scotland: whereof the ſaid Commons haue humbly beſéeched our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King to prouide remedie. The King willing as well in this caſe as in other, to take order for the indemnity of his liege people and faithfull ſubiects, hath declared in this preſent Parliament, that of all attempts made by his enemies vpon any of his faithful liege people againſt the tenour of any truce, taken before this time, wherein is no expreſſe mention made, that all marques and repriſals ſhall ceaſe, the ſame our Soueraigne Lord the King will grant marque in due forme to all them that féele themſelues in this caſe grieued. And our ſaid Lord the King wil do the like to all his liege people that féele them grieued againſt the tenour of any truce, which betwixt him and any of his enemies ſhall be newly taken hereafter. And to the greater comfort of his faithfull liege people, to the intent that they may the more readily, and without long delay, haue remedie in this caſe. The ſame our Lord the King will, that if he or they that feele them grieued, againſt the tenour and forme of ſuch truce within the Realme of England, out of the ſaid marches of Scotland, or vpon the ſea, or in the parties beyond the ſea, ſhall complaine to the keeper of the priuie ſeale, which for the time ſhall be, who, after ſuch complaint heard and perceiued thereof, ſhall make to the partie complainant (if he the ſame require) Letters of requeſt, vnder the priuie ſeale, in a due forme, and if after ſuch requeſt made, the partie required doe not make within a conuenient time due reſtitution or ſatisfaction to the party grieued, then the Chancelor of England, for the time being, ſhall cauſe to be made to ſuch partie grieued (if he that demaund) Letters of Marque vnder the great Seale, in a due forme. And as for remedie to be ordained for the Kings liege people and ſubiects, that feele them grieued in the Realme of Scotland, or in England at the Marches ioyning to Scotland, againſt the forme of ſuch truce, as afore is ſaid: our Lord the King ſhall giue power by commiſſion to the Wardens, as well of the Eaſt marches, as of the weſt marches, towards Scotland, and to euery of them, to heare the complaints of all them his liege people and ſubiects which be or ſhall be grieued, and to cauſe thereupon to be made requeſt by Letters, to be deliuered to him which hath done or ſhall doe ſuch grieuance, or to the Wardens of the Marches, or conſeruator of the truce of the parties of Scotland, if he may well doe it, or otherwiſe to make Proclamation in open places, vpon the Marches, that he or they, which haue done ſuch grieuances againſt the truce, ſhall make due reſtitution or ſatiſfaction to the party grieued. And if they doe it not within a conuenient time, then at the inſtance of euery of the Kings liege people and ſubiects which thereof feeleth, or ſhall feele himſelfe grieued in ſuch caſe, letters of Marque be giuen in due forme, vnder the ſeales of the ſaid Wardens, or vnder his ſeale, to whom the complaint ſhall be made in this caſe without any difficultie.

A remedy againſt thoſe that indict others of felony committed in a place where there is none ſuch. Proceſſe againſt makers &c. of falſe Deedes.

HENRIE King of England, &c. To his Chancellor in the Countie Palatine of Lancaſter, greeting. Know ye that for as much as diuers men of malice and enuie, and for gaine and reuenge haue often cauſed to be indicted and appealed diuers of our true liege people of treaſons or felonies, in the County of Lancaſter, pretending by thoſe appeales and indictments, that the ſaid treaſons or felonies were committed in a certaine place where of truth no ſuch place is had in the ſaid County, where the ſaid appeale & indictment is made, to the great damage & perill of ſuch our liege people, conſidering that ſome ſo appealed & indicted, dare not appeare before the Iuſtices in their proper perſons, to anſwer thereof, for feare of beating, maihemming, or killing of them, by the conſpirators or procurors of the ſame appeales and indictments, as by the Commons of the Realme of England, in our laſt Parliament holden at Weſtminſter by their petition there exhibited, grieuouſly complaining, was ſhewed: It is ordained in the ſame parliament by the aſſent of the Prelates, and great men of the ſame Realme, there being, at the requeſt of the ſaid Commons, for the common profit and quietneſſe of the people of the ſame Realme, that euery Iuſtice, which hath power to heare and determine ſuch treaſons and felonies, within the ſaid Countie, by the oath of twelue men, (of whom euerie one ſhall haue freehold in the ſame countie, to the yearly value of an hundred ſhillings aboue all charges) before that the Exigend be awarded without allegation of the partie, as well in the parties abſence, as his preſence, ſhall require of office, whether any ſuch place be in the Countie, where ſuch appeales or indictments be made or to be made, or not. And if it be found that there is no ſuch place place within the ſame Countie, then ſuch appeales and indictments, and the proceſſe thereupon made, or to be made, ſhall be void and holden for none. And that in ſuch caſe the indictors aforeſaid be puniſhed by impriſonment, fine, and ranſom by the diſcretion of the ſaid Iuſtices. And that this preſent ordinance and remedie extend as well to appeales and indictments not determined before this time, as to appeales and indictments to be taken hereafter. And if any Exigend from henceforth be awarded, before that ſuch inquiſition of office (as afore is ſaid) be taken, that the ſame exigend and the awarding thereof, be likewiſe void and holden for none.

Provided that this preſent ordinance haue ſtrength, and extend onely vntill the next Parliament. And alſo know ye, that in the ſaid Parliament of the aſſent and requeſt aforeſaid, it was ordained and ſtabliſhed, that in Writs to be purchaſed, againſt thoſe that forge or make vntrue Charters, or muniments, and them proclaims or cauſe to be read, like proceſſe ſhall be made by Capias and Exigend, as in Writs of treſpaſſe. And therefore we command you, firmely enioyning, that immediately after the ſight thereof, you cauſe this Statute and ordinance openly to be proclaimed in the places within the ſame Countie where ſhall be moſt expedient and neceſſarie, as well within liberties as without: and that alſo you cauſe all and ſingular our Iuſtices, hauing power to heare and determine felonies and treaſons within the ſaid Countie, fully to be inſtructed, and without delay to be certified of the ſaid ordinance and Statute by our Letters, containing the tenour of the ſame. Witneſſe, &c. the xvj. day of December, the vij. yeare of our reigne. And by petition in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the ſecond day of December, the eight yeare of the ſame King, a like Writ was made. Sauing that the Teſte of the ſame Writ was, Witneſſe Humfrey Duke of Glouceſter, Protector of England, at Weſtminſter the tenth day of Ianuarie, the eight yeare, &c.

The Stat. prouided 2. H 5. 5. for offendors in Tindall and Examſhire ſhall be extended againſt the like offendors in Rydeſdale.

ITem, wheras in the Parliament holden at Leiceſter, the laſt day of April, the ſecond yeare of the raigne of our Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, at the grieuous complaint made to him there by certaine of his Commons, for that many murders, treaſons, manſlaughters, robberies, and other offences were committed by diuers of the Kings liege people dwelling within the Franchiſes of Tindale and Examſhire, by fauour of the Franchiſe, where the Kings Writ doth not runne, to the great miſchiefe and perill of the ſaid liege people: It was ordained and ſtabliſhed, that if any perſon of the ſame franchiſes, reſiant and abiding within the ſame, of what eſtate or condition that he be, commit any murders, treaſons, manſlaughters, robberies, or conſent to do the ſame out of the ſaid franchiſes, proceſſe ſhould be made againſt him by the common law, till he were outlawed, and that after ſuch outlawry pronounced & returne made thereof, the Juſtices before whom ſuch outlawrie ſhall be returned, ſhould thereof make certificate to ſuch Miniſter and Miniſters of the ſaid franchiſes, as to them beſt ſhould ſeeme in this behalfe, according to their diſcretion. And ſuch felon ſhall be taken by ſuch miniſter or miniſters, and his lands and tenements, goods and cattels being within the ſame franchiſes ſeiſed into the hands of the Lords of the ſame Franchiſes, for the time being, as forfeit. And that the other lands and tenements, goods and cattels of ſuch Felons out of the ſame Franchiſes, ſhall wholly remaine to the King and to other Lords hauing thereof Franchiſes, as forfeit. Sauing alwaies to the King the forfeitures of ſuch murderers, traitors, manſlayers, robbers, and all ſuch offendors, and of other things, which to him pertaine as of the right of his Crowne. And forasmuch as like murders, treaſons, manſlaughters, robberies, conſents, and offences by diuers perſons, theeues and felons, called intakers and outparters dwelling within the Franchiſe of Rideſdale, in which Franchiſe the Kings Writ doth not runne as it is ſaid, haue beene done now of late in diuers places in the Counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, Weſtmerland, and elſewhere out of the ſame Franchiſe of Rideſdale, be fauour & ſuccour of the ſame Franchiſe, whereof no redreſſe towards them hath beene had by the lawes heretofore vſed, to the great miſchiefe, perill and dammage of the people ſo grieued, as our ſoueraigne Lord the King, by the grieuous complaint to him made in this preſent Parliament hath fully perceiued. Our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, willing to remedie the ſame, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed in the ſame Parliament, that ſuch proceſſe, certificate, and execution ſhall be made hereafter againſt ſuch murderers, manſlayers, robbers, conſenters, and offenders, abiding or reſiant within the ſaid Franchiſe of Rideſdale, for their offences done out of the ſaid Franchiſe of Rideſdale. And alſo ſuch maner forfeitures ſhall runne in all points, aſwell to our Soueraigne Lord the King, as to all other perſons, as it was ordained for the ſaid offenders of Tindale and Examſhire, by the ſaid ſtatute made at Leiceſter, and according to the forme and equitie of the ſame ſtatute. Anno primo HENRICI ſexti.

STATVTES MADE AT WESTMINSTER IN THE FIRST YEARE OF the Raigne of King HENRIE the ſixt, and in the yeare of our Lord, 1422.

AT the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the Munday next before the Feaſt of S. Martin, the firſt year of the raigne of our Soueraign Lord King HENRY the ſixt. The ſame King by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the Commons of the Realme of England being aſſembled in this preſent Parliament, hath cauſed to be ordained and ſtabliſhed diuers Ordinances, and Statutes in the forme following.

CAP. I.

The Kings Counſell may aſſigne money to be coined in as many places as they will.

The Kings Counſell may aſſigne money to be coined and exchanges to be holden in as many places as they will.

FIrſt it is ordained and eſtabliſhed, for the profit of the King, and the eaſe of his people, that the Lords of the Kings Counſel for the time being, may aſſign by authority of the ſaid Parliament, maſters and workemen to make money of gold and ſiluer, to hold the exchanges of money aſwell in the Citie of Yorke, as in the towne of Briſtow, and alſo in as many places as to the ſaid Lords ſhall ſeeme neceſſary, according to their good aduice and diſcretion, any Statute or Ordinance made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. II.

All the Statutes of Purueyors ſhall be proclaimed in euery County, foure times in the yeare.

Euery Sheriffe ſhall proclaime the Statutes of Purueyors in his Bailiwicke foure times in the yeare.

ITem, that all the Statutes and Ordinances made of Purueiors and buiers, and not repealed, be kept and executed in all points, and alſo Proclaimed in all Counties through the realme by the Kings commandement. And that euery Sheriffe of the Realme of England, after that he hath receiued the ſaid Statutes thereof to make Proclamation by ſuch commaundement, ſhall cauſe them to be proclaimed euery yeare foure times through his Bailiwicke, vpon paine to pay to the King at euery time that he thereof failes, an hundred ſhillings. And that vpon the ſame paine euery of the ſaid Sheriffes ſhall deliuer the ſaid commandement to his ſucceſſor immediatly by Indenture to be made betwixt them, whereby he may make like Proclamation for the time that he continueth in the ſaid office, for the eaſe and ſuretie of the people. And that euery ſuch ſucceſſor, after ſuch commandement by him receiued, ſhall make ſuch Proclamations foure times in the yeare, and ſhall make ſuch deliuerance of the ſaid commandement to his ſucceſſor, as aboue is ſaid, vpon the paine aforeſaid. St.20.H.6.8.

CAP. III.

Which ſort of Iriſhmen onely may come to dwell in England.

All perſons borne in Ireland ſhall depart out of the Realme, &c.

ITem, forasmuch as diuers manſlaughters, murders, rapes, robberies, and other Felonies, riots, conuenticles, and diuers other offences now late haue beene done in diuers Counties of the Realme of England, by people borne in the Countrey of Ireland, repairing to the Towne of Oxenford, and there reſiant and dwelling vnder the iuriſdiction of the Uniuerſitie of Oxenford, to the great feare of all maner of people in the realm of England dwelling therabout, as by all the Commons of the ſame realme aſſembled in the ſaid Parliament it was grieuouſly cōplained: Our ſaid Lord the King by the aſſent aforeſaid, and at the requeſt of the ſame commōs hath ordained & ſtabliſhed, that all people borne in Ireland, ſhal depart out of the realm within a moneth after Proclamation made of this ordinance, vpon paine to loſe their goods, and to be impriſoned at the Kings will. Except Graduats in the Schooles, and men hauing Benefice of holy Church in England, and men of law in England, and thoſe which be enherite in England, and thoſe that haue father and mother being Engliſh people religious perſons profeſſed, Merchants Burgeſſes, & other inhabitants within Cities or Boroughes of good fame which can find ſuretie of their good bearing, and Iriſh women maried to Engliſh men, and Iriſhmen maried to Engliſh women, which be of good fame: and that all theſe Iriſh people, which haue Benefices or offices in the land of Ireland, ſhall abide there vpon their Benefices and offices vpon paine to loſe and forfeit the profits of their Benefices and offices, for the defence of the land of Ireland aforeſaid, according to the ordinance made in the time of King Henry the fift, the firſt year of his raigne. And that the Graduats and Beneficed men ſhall find ſuretie of their good bearing, and that they take not vpon them the principalitie of any Hall or Hoſtell, but to remaine amongſt the Engliſh Schollers vnder the principalitie of others. Moreouer that theſe Schollers of Ireland, which be no Graduats, and be of the Kings obeyſance, ſhall find ſurety of their good bearing in the maner as the ſaid Graduats ſhould doe, in ſuch ſort and forme as is aforeſaid. And that all the Schollers of Ireland, being now in England, which will here dwell, euery of them ſhall bring to the Chanceller of England for the time being, before the Feaſt of Saint Iohn Baptiſt next comming, letters vnder the ſeale of the Lieutenant or Iuſtices of Ireland, teſtifying that they be of the Kings obeyſance. And of them that bring not ſuch letters betwixt this & the ſaid Feaſt of S. Iohn Baptiſt, it ſhal be done as of Rebels to our Lord the King. And that from & after the ſaid feaſt of S. Iohn, no perſons borne in Ireland ſhall enter the Realme of England to dwell in the ſaid Uniuerſitie of Oxenford or of Cambridge, or elſewhere within the Realme of England, vnleſſe he bring to the ſaid Chanceller of England, ſuch letters teſtimonials, vpõ pain to be puniſhed as a Rebell to our Lord the King. Stat. 2. Hen. 6. 8.

Cap. VI.

For what cauſes only gold or ſiluer may be carried out of the Realme.

A confirmation of the Stat. of 9. H. 5. 5. That the Mint ſhall be at Caleis. EXP.

ITem, whereas by King Henry the fifth, father to our Lord the King that now is, it was ordained that a Mint of gold and ſiluer ſhould be holden within the town of Caleis, whereby great ſubſtance of money of gold and ſiluer, hath béene brought within the Realme, which money by diuers perſons hath béene and is daily carried out of the ſame to Burdeux, Flanders, and other places, againſt the Statute in old times made and purueyed in this behalfe, as hath béene grieuouſly complained in this Parliament, It is ordained and aſſented, that the ſame Statute be holden and kept, and put in due execution. And moreouer it is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that no gold nor ſiluer ſhall be carried out of the Realme, contrarie to the ſaid Statute, vnleſſe it be for payment of warres, and the Kings Souldiers beyond the Sea, vpon paine of forfeiture of the value of the ſumme of money ſo carried out of the Realme, to be leuied of him that ſhall bring, carrie, or ſend it out of the ſame Realme. And that he which eſpieth it, and thereof giueth knowledge to the Counſell, or to the Treaſurer of England, ſhall haue the fourth part of the forfeiture ſo due to the King. Except the ranſomes for fines of Engliſh priſoners, taken and to be taken beyond the Sea, and the money that the Souldiers ſhall carrie with them for their reaſonable coſts, and alſo for horſes, oxen, ſhéepe, and other things bought in Scotland, to be ſent and carried to the parties adioyning, ſo that the money to be ſent for the fines of the ſaid priſoners, or to be carried by the ſaid Souldiers to the parties beyond the Sea, be not done without the Kings ſpeciall licence. And becauſe it is ſuppoſed, that the money of gold of the Realme, is carried out of the ſame by Merchants aliens: It is ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the Merchants aliens ſhall find ſuretie in the Chancerie, euerie Companie for them of their Companie, that none of them ſhall carrie out of the Realme any gold or ſiluer, againſt the forme of the ſaid Statute, vpõ paine of forfeiture of the ſame gold or ſiluer or the value of the ſame. And if any of them doe the contrarie, and that duely proued, and he ſo doing be gone ouer the Sea, then the pledges of his Company ſhall pay to the King the ſaid forfeiture, whereof he that ſhall eſpie it, and thereof giue notice to the Treaſurer, or to the Kings Counſell, ſhall haue the fourth part as is aforeſaid.

No gold or ſiluer ſhall be caried forth of the Realme but for the cauſes herein excepted. Stat. 9. Ed. 3. 1. 5. R. 2. 2. 2. H. 4. 5. 17. Ed. 4. 1.

Stat. 1. H. 6. 3.

ITem, whereas is ordained in the laſt Parliament amongſt other things that all people borne in Ireland, ſhall depart out of the Realme within a moneth next after Proclamation made of the ſaid ordinance, vpon paine to loſe their goods, and to be impriſoned at the Kings wil, except certaine perſons in the ſame ordinance excepted, and that the Graduats and Beneficed men ſhould finde ſuertie of their good abearing, and that they ſhould not take vpon them the principalitie of any Hall or Hoſtell, but to remaine amongſt other Engliſh Schollers vnder the principalitie of other, and alſo thoſe Schollers of Ireland that be not Graduats, and be of the Kings obeiſance ſhall finde ſuertie of their good abearing in the maner as the ſaid Graduats ſhall doe in the forme aforeſaid. And that all the Schollers of Ireland being elſewhere in Englãd, that will here abide, ſhall bring euery of them by himſelfe to the Chancellor of England for the time being, before the feaſt of Saint Iohn Baptiſt laſt paſt, Letters vnder the ſeale of the Lieutenant or Iuſtices of Ireland, witneſſing that they be of the Kings obeiſance. And that all of them that bring not thoſe Letters before the Feaſt of Saint Iohn, it ſhall be done as of rebells to the King. And from this feaſt of Saint Iohn forward, no perſon borne in Ireland, ſhall enter the Realme of England to abide in the Vniuerſitie of Oxenford or Cantbridge, or elſewhere within the Realme of England, vnleſſe he bring to the ſaid Chancellor ſuch Letters teſtimoniall, vpon paine to be puniſhed as Rebells to the King.

And for as much as in the ſaid ordinance no mention was made, before whom nor in what maner the ſuertie of good abearing as before, ſhall be found: It is ordained and eſtabliſhed, that the Chancellors of the Vniuerſities of Oxenford and Cambridge for the time being, euerie of them within his iuriſdiction, ſhall take the ſureties to be taken of Schollers within the ſame Vniuerſities, and certifie the ſame into the Kings Chancerie. And that the Iuſtices of Peace within the Counties, and Maiors and Bailiffes within Cities and Boroughes enfranchiſed, haue power to take before them ſuch maner ſuertie of good abearing, and to doe execution vpon them which ſhall abide, or doe againſt the ſaid ordinance from henceforth.

Who ſhall take ſureties of Iriſhmen that ſhall reſort into the Realme according to the ſtat. of 1. H. 6. 3.

Cap. IX.

The money called blancke ſhall be wholly put out.

ITem, it is ordained, that Proclamation be made through all the Counties of England within Franchiſes and without, and within Cities, Townes, Boroughes, and elſewhere, that all the money called blanckes ſhall be wholly out and voided out of the Realme before the Feaſt of S. Iohn Baptiſt next comming. And moreouer that no man after the ſaid Feaſt pay or receiue for payment in any maner within the ſaid Realme, the ſaid money called blanckes, vpon the paine contained and ordained by a Statute made the third yeare of King Henry, father to our Lord the King, againſt all that pay or receiue for payment, the money called Gally halfe pence, Suskin, and Dotkins within the Realme.

The money called Blanckes ſhall be wholly put out.

And that no Goldſmith nor Iewellor, nor any other that worketh harneſſe of ſiluer ſhall ſet any of the ſame to ſell within the Cittie, before that it be touched with the touch, and alſo with a marke or ſigne of the workeman of the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture of the double, as afore is ſaid. And that the marke and ſigne of euery Goldſmith be knowne to the Wardens of the Craft. And if it may be found, that the ſaid kéeper of the touch, touch any ſuch harneſſe with the Leopards head except it be as fine in allay as the ſterling, that then the keeper of the touch for euery thing ſo proued, not as good in allay as the ſaid ſterling, ſhall forfeit the double value to the King, and to the partie as is aboue recited. And alſo it is likewiſe ordained in the Citie of Yorke, New-caſtle vpon Tine, Lincolne, Norwich, Briſtow, Salesbury, and Couentrie, that euery one ſhall haue diuers touches, according to the Ordinance of the Maiors, Bailiffes, or gouernors of the ſame Townes. And that no Goldſmithes, nor other workers of ſiluer, nor keepers of the ſaid touches within the ſame Townes, ſhall ſet to ſale or touch any ſiluer in other maner then is ordained before, within the City of London, vpon paine of the ſaid forfeiture, and moreouer that no Goldſmith or other worker of ſiluer within the Realme of England, where no touch is ordained, as afore is ſaid, ſhal worke any ſiluer, except it be as fine in allay as the ſterling, and that the Goldſmith or worker of the ſame ſiluer, ſet vpon the ſame his marke or ſigne, before he ſet it to ſale. And if it be found that it is not as fine as the ſterling, that then the worker of the ſame ſhall forfeit the double value, in maner and forme as before is recited, within the City of London. And the Juſtices of Peace, Maiors, and Bailiffes, and all other hauing power as Juſtices of Peace, ſhall heare, enquire, and determine, by bill, plaint, or in other maner, all that doe contrary to the ſaid Ordinances, and thereof to make due execution by their diſcretions. Prouided alwayes that if the Maſter of the Mint that now is, or which for the time ſhall be, offend or haue offended in his office of the ſaid Mint, that then he be puniſhed and iuſtified according to the forme of the ſaid Indentures. Stat.28.Ed.1.20. 17.Ed.4.1. 18.Eliz.15.

The penaltie of the keeper of the touch which toucheth any veſſell not ſufficient in allay.

Seuerall cities & townes ſhall haue ſeuerall touches.

Juſt. of P. Maiors, &c. may enquire of, heare & determine the offences aforeſaid.

Cap. XV.

No man ſhall faſten Nets to any thing ouer Riuers.

ITem, it is ordained, that the ſtanding of nets and engines called trinkes, and all other nets, which be and were wont to be faſtened and hanged continually day & night by a certaine time in the yeare to great poſts, boates & ancres ouerthwart the Riuer of Thamis, and other Riuers of the Realme, which ſtanding is a cauſe of as great and more deſtruction of the brood and fry of fiſh, and diſturbance of the common paſſage of veſſels, as be the weares, kydels, or any other engines, be wholly defended for euer. And that euery perſon that ſetteth or faſteneth them hereafter to ſuch poſtes, boats, and ancres, or like thing continually to ſtand as before is ſaid, and be duly thereof by the courſe of the Law conuict, ſhall forfeit to the King C.s. at euery time that he is ſo proued in default. Prouided alwayes, that it ſhall be lawfull to the poſſeſſors of the ſaid trinkes if they be of aſſiſe, to fiſh with them in all ſeaſonable times, drawing and pulling them by hand, as other fiſhers doe with other nets, and not faſtening or tacking the ſaid nets to poſts, boates, and ancres, continually to ſtand as afore is ſaid. Sauing alwayes to euery of the Kings liege people their right, title, and inheritance in their fiſhings in the ſaid water.

The penalty of thoſe which doe faſten trinkes or other nets ouer any riuer.

In what ſort owners of trinkes may fiſh with them.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter, anno 3. Hen. 6. & Anno Domini 1424.

OVr Lord the King, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporall, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the Commons aſſembled in this Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the laſt day of Aprill, the third yeare of his reigne, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed certaine Ordinances and Statutes, to the honour of God, and for the weale of this Realme, in the forme following.

Cap. I.

Maſons ſhall not confederate themſelues in Chapters and aſſemblies.

FIrſt, whereas by the yearely Congregations and Confederacies made by the Maſons in their generall Chapiters and Aſſemblies, the good courſe and effect of the Statutes of Laborers be openly violated and broken in ſubuerſion of the Law, and to the great dammage of all the Commons. Our ſaid Lord the King willing in this caſe to prouide remedy, by the aduice and aſſent aforeſaid, and at the eſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid Commons, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that ſuch Chapiters and congregations ſhall not be hereafter holden. And if any ſuch be made, they that cauſe ſuch Chapiters and Congregations to be aſſembled and holden, if they thereof be conuict, ſhall be iudged for Felons. And that all the other Maſons that come to ſuch Chapiters and Congregations, be puniſhed by impriſonment of their bodies, and make fine and ranſome at the Kings will.

It ſhalbe felony to cauſe Maſons to confederate themſelues in Chapiters and aſſemblies.

Cap. II.

Sheepe ſhall not be tranſported beyond Sea without the Kings licence.

Whoſoeuer ſhall tranſport ſheepe to any parts beyond the ſea ſhal forfeit them. St.8.El.3.

ITem, becauſe that diuers perſons doe from time to time carrie out of the Realme great number of Sheepe with Fleeces into Flanders and other Countreys beyond the Sea, and there they ſheare them, and ſell as well the ſame Sheepe as the Wolles of the ſame to men of the ſame Countrey, ſo that by ſuch perſons the Sheepe within the ſaid Countrey of Flanders, and other parts in ſhort time be likely to be much increaſed, to the great diſceit, loſſe, and damage of our Lord the King, of his cuſtomes and ſubſidies of the ſaid Wolles, and alſo to the great hindrance of all the Realme, and diminution and abatement of the price of Wolles, as well at the Staple, of Caleis, as here in England, vnleſſe remedie be prouided in this behalfe. Our ſaid Lord the King, conſidering the premiſes, by the aduice and aſſent, and at the requeſt aforeſaid, hath ordained and granted by the authoritie of the ſaid Parliament, that no maner perſon, of what eſtate or condition that he be, hereafter be ſuffered to ſhip within the Realme of England any Sheepe fleeced or ſhorne into the ſaid Countrey of Flanders, or to any other parts beyond the Sea except it be to victuall the Towne of Caleis and the Marches thereof. And that euery man that may be eſpied which vnder the color of victualling of the ſame Towne and Marches of Caleis, paſſeth into any other places then to the ſame Towne and Marches with any Sheepe fleeced or ſhorne, (except he haue the Kings licence) ſhall forfeit to the King the ſame Sheepe, or the value thereof as often times as he ſhall be found in default.

Cap. III.

The penaltie of a Cuſtomer, Collector, &c. concealing the Kings Cuſtome.

The penaltie of a Cuſtomer, Collector or Comptroller concealing the Kings cuſtome.

ITem, it is ordained & eſtabliſhed, that if any Cuſtomer, Collector, or Comptroller of the Kings cuſtomes of Cockets of Cloths, of Subſidies, of Tunnage, or Pondage, in any Port or place of England, be duely attainted or conuict at the Kings ſuit of falſe concealing of the Kings Cuſtome or Subſidie, duely entred and paid by any Merchant, that then the ſaid Cuſtomer, Collector, or Comptroller, ſo duely attainted or conuict by the Law, ſhall looſe and forfeit to the King the treble value of the Merchandiſes ſo duely cuſtomed, and make fine and ranſome. And he that will ſue, ſhall haue the third part for his labor. Stat.4.H.4.20.

Cap. IIII.

Licence may be granted to conuaie Butter and cheeſe to any place.

The L. Chancellor may grant licence to any to conuay butter & cheeſe to any other place beſide the ſtaple.

ITem, whereas by a Statute made in the time of the noble King Edward the third, it was ordained, that the ſtaple, and the merchandiſes of the ſtaple ſhould be carried to Caleis, amongſt which merchandiſes, it was ordained by the ſame Statute, that Butter and Cheeſe ſhould be Merchandiſes of the Staple, by which Ordinances, diuers perſons of the Realme of England haue had great damage, becauſe that the ſaid Butter and Cheeſe be ſo tender merchandiſes, that they cannot tarry their Merchants, as our Lord the King hath perceiued by the grieuous complaint of his ſaid Commons: The ſame our Lord the King, willing to prouide remedie in this behalfe, by the aduice and aſſent aforeſaid, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that he that will cary Butter and Cheeſe to any other parts then to the ſaid Staple, ſhall ſue to the Chancellor of England for the time being, to haue licence in this behalfe. And that the ſame Chancellor haue power to make to him ſuch licences vnder the Kings great Seale, if it like him ſo to doe by his diſcretion. Stat.18.*H.*6.3. Stat.1.&2.P.&M.5.

Cap. V.

Commiſſions may be awarded to certaine perſons to reforme the Riuer of Ley running from Ware to Thamis, Pr.Stat.9.*H.*6.9. 13.Eliz.18.

Statutes made at Leiceſter, Anno 4.Hen.6.

& Anno Domini 1425.

THeſe be the Ordinances and Statutes made by our Soueraigne Lord the King, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the commons of his Realme, in his Parliament holden at Leiceſter, the eighteenth day of Februarie, the fourth yeare of his reigne, being to the honour of God, and for the weal, profit, and eaſe of his Realme.

Licence giuen to all the Kings ſubiects to tranſport Corne.

ITem, wheras the noble K. Richard the ij. after the Cōqueſt at his Parliamēt holden at Weſtminſter, the xv. day of Saint Hillary. the xvij yeare of his raigne, at the eſpeciall requeſt of the Commons of the ſame Parliament, did grant licence to all his liege people of his Realme of England, to ſhip and carrie Corne out of the ſaid Realme, to what part them pleaſed, except to enemies, paying the ſubſidies, and duties thereof, notwithſtanding any ordinance, porclamation or reſtraint made before to the contrarie. Neuertheleſſe the ſame late King, willing that his Counſell might reſtraine the ſaid paſſage when to them ſeemed needfull for the profit of the Realme. Our Lord the King at the eſpeciall requeſt of the Commons of this preſent Parliament, and by the aduice and aſſent aforeſaid, will and granteth, that the ſaid Statute be holden and kept in all points, ſo that his Counſell may reſtraine the ſaid paſſage when they ſhall thinke it for the profit of the Realme. A confirmation of the St. of 17. R 2.7 giuing licence to all the K.ſubiects to cary corne forth of the Realme.

Statutes made at VVeſtminſter, Anno 6. Hen.6.& Anno Domini. 1427.

OVr Lord the King at his Parliamēt holdē at Weſtminſter, the fifteenth of Saint Michaell, the ſixth yeare of his raigne, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the Commons of his Realme in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, hath cauſed to be made certaine Statutes and Ordinances to the honour of God, and for the weale and eaſe of his people, in the maner & forme following.

Cap. I.

Within what time a Capias awarded againſt any perſon indicted in the Kings Bench, ſhall be returnable.

Upon an indictment of any perſon in the K. bench a Capias ſhal be awarded againſt him returnable at the leaſt 6. weekes after, before any exigend ſhall be awarded.

FIrſt, for that diuers of the Kings faithfull Subiects, by falſe practiſe, couin, and conſpiracie of certaine euill perſons be indicted before our Lord the King, in his Bench, of diuers Felonies and Treaſons, by ſuſpect Iurors, hired and procured to the ſame by confederacy and couin of the ſaid conſpirators, by force of which Indictments a Capias is awarded to the Sheriffes of the Countie, where the ſaid Bench is, returnable within two or foure daies, at which day, if the partie ſo indicted come not, an Exigend is awarded, whereby the goods and cattells of ſuch perſons endicted bee forfeit to our Lord the King, to the vtter vndoing of diuers of the Kings faithfull Subiects, as the ſame our Lord the King, hath conceiued by the grieuous complaint of the ſaid Commons made to him in the ſaid Parliament: Our ſaid Lord the King, willing in this caſe to prouide remedie, hath ordained by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords, that before that any Exigend be awarded againſt ſuch perſons indicted before the King in his ſaid Bench, Writs of Capias ſhall be directed, as well to the Sheriffe or Sheriffes of the County wherein they be indicted, as to the Sheriffe or Sheriffes of the Countie whereof they be named in the Indictments, the ſame Capias hauing the ſpace of ſix weekes at the leaſt, or longer time by the diſcretion of the ſaid Iuſtices, if the caſe require it before the returne of the ſame, which Writs ſo returned, the Iuſtices ſhall proceed in the maner as they haue done before this time: And if any Exigend be awarded, or any outlary pronounced hereafter againſt ſuch perſons indicted, before the returne of the ſaid Writs, the ſame Exigend ſo awarded, with the outlary thereof pronounced, ſhall be void and holden for none. And this Ordinance ſhall indure as long as ſhall pleaſe the King. St.8.H.6.10.

Cap. II.

How long time the Copies of pannells in Aſſiſe ſhall be deliuered to the parties before the Seſſions of the Iuſtices.

How long time the copies of panels in Aſſiſes ſhal be deliuered to the parties before the ſeſſions of the Iuſt.

ITem, becauſe that diuers of the Kings liege people in times paſt haue beene diſherited, for that in ſpeciall Aſſiſes the tenants and defendants could not haue knowlerge nor copie of the panell of them that be impanelled to paſſe in the ſaid Aſſiſes, to enforme them of their right and titles before the day of the Seſſion that the Aſſiſes ſhould be demanded: Our Lord the King, willing thereof to prouide remedie, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that the panells of the Aſſiſes ſhall be arraied, and a copie indented of the ſame by the Sheriffe deliuered to plantiffes, tenants, and defendants, ſixe daies at the leaſt before the Seſſion of the Iuſtices, if they the ſame demand. And as to the returne or anſwer of the Bailiffes of Franchiſes, they ſhall make their returnes or anſwers to the Sheriffes of ſuch ſpeciall Aſſiſes, ſixe daies before the Seſſions in the manner aforeſaid. And that vpon paine of fortie pound, to be paid by the ſaid Sheriffes or Bailiffes to our Lord the King, as often as they or any of them doe or cauſe to be done contrarie to this Ordinance or Statute. Stat.42.Ed.3.11.

Cap. III.

The Iuſtices of Peace and chiefe officers in Cities, &c. ſhall make Proclamations what euerie Artificer and Workeman ſhall take for wages. And the penaltie of a ſeruant Artificer or Labourer that taketh more. Exp.5.Eliz 4. Stat.8.H.6.8.

Cap. IIII.

The Sheriffes trauerſe to an Inqueſt found touching returning Knights of the Parliament.

A rehearſall of the St of 7.H.4.15. touching the forme of the chooſing of the knights for the Parliament.

ITem, where it was ordained and eſtabliſhed in the ſeuenth yeare of King Henry the fourth grandfather of our Lord the King that now is, that Knights of Shires for the Parliament, ſhould be choſen in the maner & forme following, that is to ſay, at the next County to be holden after the deliuery of the Writ of the Parliament, Proclamation ſhall be made in the full Countie, of the day and place of the Parliament, and that all they which be preſent there, aſwell ſutors duely ſummoned for this cauſe as other, ſhall attend to the election of their Knights for the Parliament. And then in full Countie they ſhall proceed to the election freely and indifferently, notwithſtanding any requeſt or commandement to the contrarie. And that after they be choſen, whether ſuch perſons choſen be preſent or abſent, their names ſhall be written in Indentures, vnder the Seales of all the choſers, and annexed to the ſaid Writ of Parliament, which Indenture ſo ſealed and tacked, ſhall be holden for the returne of the ſaid Writ, as to the Knights of the ſaid Shires. And alſo in the Writs of the Parliament hereafter to be made, this clauſe ſhall be put in the manner as followeth. Et electionem tuam in pleno Comitatu tuo factam, diſtincte & aperte ſub ſigillo tuo & ſigillis eorum qui electioni illi interfuerint, nos in Cancellaria noſtra ad diem & locum in breui contentos certifices indilate. And for that in the ſame Statute no paine was ordained nor ſpecially ſet vpon the Sheriffes of the County, if they make their returne contrary to the ſaid Statute: It was ordained and eſtabliſhed the eleuenth yeare of the ſaid King Henry the fourth, that the Iuſtices of Aſſiſes ſhould haue power to enquire in their Seſſions of Aſſiſes of ſuch returnes made; and if it be found by Inqueſt and due examination before the ſame Iuſtices, that any ſuch Sheriffe hath made, or hereafter ſhall make any returne contrarie to the tenor of the ſaid Statute, that the ſame Sheriffe ſhould incur the paine of an hundred pound, to be paid to our ſaid Lord the King. And moreouer, that the Knights ſo vnduely returned, ſhall loſe their wages of the Parliament in old times accuſtomed, to the great miſchiefes of ſheriffes & knights of the ſhire which be forbarred and put out of their anſwer, againſt ſuch Inqueſts of office taken before the ſaid Iudges, becauſe of the Statutes and Ordinances aforeſaid: Our Lord the King willing in this caſe to prouide remedie; hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that all the Knights of the Shires choſen for this preſent Parliament, & the Sheriffes of the ſame Counties againſt whom any Inqueſts or offices of vndue election be found before the Iuſtices of Aſſiſes ſhall haue their anſwer and trauers to ſuch Inqueſts of office taken. And alſo all the Knights from henceforth ſo to be choſen, and the ſheriffes that ſhall make ſuch elections, ſhall haue their anſwer and trauerſe to ſuch Inqueſts & offices before any Iuſtices of Aſſiſes hereafter to be taken, & the ſaid Knights and Sheriffes ſhall not be endamaged vnto our ſaid Lord the King, or his ſucceſſors, for any ſuch Inqueſt taken or to be taken vntill they be duely conuict according to the forme of the Law. St. 8.H.6.7.

By the St. of 11 H.4.1. Iuſt. of Aſſiſe ſhall inquire of vndue returnes of knights of the Parliament.

The Knights choſen for the Parliament, & ſheriffes of counties may haue their trauerſe to an office found againſt them.

CAP. V.

Seuerall Commiſſions of Sewers ſhall be granted. The forme of the Commiſſion.

ITem, our Soueraigne Lord the King, by the aduice and aſſent aforeſaid, conſidering the great damage and loſſes which now late be happened by the great inundation of waters in diuers parts of the Realme, and that much greater damage is very like to enſue, if remedie be not ſpeedily prouided, hath ordained and granted, that during tenne yeares next enſuing, ſeuerall Commiſſions of Sewers ſhall be made to diuers perſons by the Chancellor of England for the time being, to be ſent into all parts of the Realme, where ſhall be needfull, according to the forme that followeth.

Commiſſions of Sewers, ſhal be granted during tenne yeares.

HENRY, by the grace of God King of England &c. to his well beloued and faithfull A.B.C. and D. greeting. Know ye, that whereas the Walles, Ditches, Gutters, Sewers, Bridges, Caulceis, and Weares by the Coaſt of the Sea, and Marſh, within the Coaſts and Limits of Lindeſey, in the Countie of Lincolne; by rage of the Sea, flowing and reflowing, and trenches of freſh waters by diuers places deſcending to the Sea, be ſo decayed and broken, that many ineſtimable damages for default of reparation of the ſame Walls, Ditches, Gutters, Bridges, Caulceis, and Weares, in times paſt haue happened there, and yet it is to be feared that much more hurt within ſhort time will happen vnleſſe that ſome ſpeedie remedie be prouided therefore: We forasmuch as by reaſon of our Regall dignitie we be bounden to haue regard to the ſafety of our Realme of England in all places, willing in this behalfe to prouide conuenient and ſpeedie remedie, haue aſſigned you, &c. of which, &c. we will to be one, our Iuſtices to ſuruey the ſaid Walls Ditches, Gutters, Sewers, Bridges, Caulceis, Weares, and Trenches, and to enquire by the Othe as well of Knights, as other good and lawfull men of the ſaid Countie, aſwell within Liberties as without, by whom the truth of the matter may be beſt knowne, by whoſe default ſuch damages haue there happened, and who doth hold lands and tenements, or hath any common of paſture or fiſhing in thoſe parts, or elſe in any wiſe haue, or may haue the defence, profit, and ſafegard, aſwel in perill nigh, as from the ſame far off, by the ſaid walls, ditches, gutters, ſewers, bridges, caulceis, & weares, and alſo hurt or commodity by the ſame trenches, & there to diſtraine all them for the quantity of their lands and tenements either by the number of acres, or by their plough lands, for the rate of the portion of their tenure, or for the quantity of their common of paſture or fiſhing, together with the Bailifes of liberties & other places of the counties and places aforeſaid, to repaire the ſaid walls, ditches, gutters, ſewers, bridges, caulceis, & weares in the places neceſſary, & the ſame or other as often & where ſhall be needfull to make of new, & to clenſe the ſaid trenches in places neceſſary, & if need be to ſtop them vp. So that no tenants of lands or tenements, nor any hauing common of paſture or fiſhing, rich or poore, nor other of what condition, ſtate or dignity, which haue or may haue defence, cōmodity & ſafegard by the ſaid walls, ditches, gutters, ſewers, bridges, caulceis, or weares, or elſe any hurt by the ſaid trenches, whether they be within liberties or without (ſhal in any wiſe be ſpared in this) & for agiſtmēts vpon the ſea bāks for preſeruation of the ſaid parts, according to the number of the acres or perches by you, &c. of whom, &c. we wil to be one newly to number, & as often & where ſhal need of new to make. And to depute certain diligent & true keepers for the ſaid preſeruation, & to heare the account of the collectors of the money, which ſhalbe leuied for this cauſe, & to be ſpent in the reparation & amendmēt of the ſaid walles, ditches, gutters, ſewers, bridges, caulceis, and weares, and ſtopping of the ſaid trenches, And to diſtrain by you &c. of whom &c. we wil to be one, or by other whom ye ſhal therto

The dutie of Iuſtices of Peace, where Land is entered vpon or detained with force.

Stat.15.R.2.2. touching forcible entries rehearſed & confirmed.

ITem, Whereas by the noble King Richard, late King of England after the Conqueſt, the ſecond, at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the morrow after All Soules, the fiftéenth yeare of his raigne, amongſt other things, it was ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the Statutes and Ordinances made, and not repealed of them that make Entries with ſtrong hand into Lands, or Tenements, or other poſſeſſions whatſoeuer, and them hold with force, and of them that make Inſurrections, Riots, Routs, Ridings, and Aſſemblies in diſturbance of the Peace, or of the Common Law, or in affray of the people, ſhould be holden and fully executed. And moreouer, it is ordained by the ſame Statute, that at all times that ſuch forcible entries be made and complaint thereof come to the Iuſtices of Peace, or any of them, that the ſame Iuſtices or Iuſtice ſhall take the power of the County, and ſhall goe, or one of them ſhall goe to the place where ſuch force is made. And if they find, or he findeth any holding ſuch place, forcibly after ſuch entrée made, they ſhould be taken and put in the next Gaole, there to remaine conuict by the record of the ſame Iuſtices or Iuſtice, vntill they haue made fine and ranſome to the King. And that all the people of the County, aſwell Sheriffes, as other, ſhall be attending to the ſaid Iuſtices, and to aſſiſt them to arreſt ſuch Malefactors, vpon paine of impriſonment, and to make fine and ranſome to the King. And that in the ſame manner be done of them that make forcible Entries, into Benefices or Offices of holy Church, as in the ſame Statute is contained more at large.

The defects of the ſtatute of 15.R.2.2.

And for that the ſaid Statute doth not extend to Entries in Tenements, in peaceable maner, and after holden with force, nor if the perſons which enter with force into Lands or Tenements, be remoued, and voided before the comming of the ſaid Iuſtices or Iuſtice, as before, nor any paine ordained if the Sheriffe dos not obey the commandements and precepts of the ſaid Iuſtices, for to execute the ſaid ordinance, many wrongfull and forcible entries be daily made, in Lands and Tenements by ſuch as haue no right, and alſo diuers gifts, Feoffements, and diſcontinuances ſometimes made to Lords, and other puiſſant perſons, and extortioners, within the ſaid Counties, where they be conuerſant, to haue maintenance, and ſometime to ſuch perſons as be vnknowne to them ſo put out, to the intent to delay and defraud ſuch rightfull poſſeſſors of their right, and recouery for euer, to the finall diſheriſon of diuers of the Kings faithfull Liege people, and likely daily to encreaſe, if due remedy be not prouided in this behalfe: Our Lord the King conſidering the Premiſſes, hath ordained, that the ſaid Statute and all other Statutes of ſuch entries or alienations made in times paſt, ſhall be holden and duely executed: Ioyned to the ſame, that from henceforth where any doth make any forcible Entrie in Lands and Tenements, or other poſſeſſions, or them hold forcibly, after complaint thereof made within the ſame Countie where ſuch Entrie is made, to the Iuſtices of Peace, or to one of them by the partie grieued, that the Iuſtices or Iuſtice ſo warned within a conuenient time, ſhall cauſe or one of them ſhall cauſe the ſaid Statute duely to be executed; and that at the coſtes of the partie ſo grieued.

The office and duetie of Iuſtices of peace whē any forcible entrie is made into Lands or peaceable entrie and after detaining with force.

li.8.fo.121.

And moreouer, though that ſuch perſons making ſuch entries be preſent, or elſe departed before the comming of the ſaid Iuſtices or Iuſtice, notwithſtanding the ſame Iuſtices or Iuſtice in ſome good Towne next to the Tenements ſo entred or in ſome other conuenient place, according to their diſcretion, ſhall haue, or either of them ſhall haue authority and power to enquire by the people of the ſame County, aſwell of them that make ſuch forcible Entries in Lands and Tenements, as of them which the ſame hold with force. And if it be found before any of them, that any doth contrary to this Statute, then the ſaid Iuſtices or Iuſtice, ſhall cauſe to reſeiſe the Lands and Tenements ſo entred or holden as afore, and ſhall put the party ſo put out in full poſſeſſion of the ſame Lands and Tenements, ſo entred or holden as before. And if any perſon after ſuch entree into Lands or Tenements holden with force, make a feoffement, or other diſcontinuance to any Lord, or other perſon, to haue maintenance, or to take away and defraud the poſſeſſor of his recouery in any wiſe, if after in Aſſiſe or other action thereof to be taken or purſued before Iuſtices of Aſſiſes, or other the Kings Iuſtices whatſoeuer, by due enquiry thereof to be taken, the ſame feoffements and diſcontinuances may be duely proued to be made for maintenance, as afore is ſaid, that then ſuch feoffements or other diſcontinuances, ſo as before made, ſhall be void, fruſtrate, and holden for none.

Riotous perſons committing of Felonies, and the fleeing into ſecret places.

Stat.2.H.5.9.

Riotous perſons commit murders, manſlaughters, robberies, and then flie into ſecret places.

Coke l

ITem, for that great and grieuous complaint was made to King Henry, late King of England, father to our Lord the King that now is, at his Parliament holden at Leiceſter, the ſecond yeare of his raigne, by the Commons of his Parliament aforeſaid, of diuers murders, manſlaughters, robberies, batteries, aſſemblies of people in great number in manner of inſurrections, and of diuers other rebellions and riots: and after ſuch offences the ſaid felons and offenders did flée and withdraw themſelues to diuers woods and ſecret places vnknowne, and elſewhere, to the intent and purpoſe to auoid the execution of the common Law, and that they might not be brought to anſwere according to the proceſſe of the common Law: whereupon the ſaid late King, conſidering the aforeſaid complaint, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall & temporall, in the ſame Parliament aſſembled, did ordaine and ſtabliſh, at the requeſt of the ſaid commons, that if any after come into the Chancery, and make complaint duely that any ſuch felon or offender as aforeſaid, hath fled or withdrawne him to any ſuch place or elſewhere, to the intent aforeſaid, vpon ſuch complaint a bill ſhall be ſufficiently made for the King, & the Chancellor of England for the time being, after ſuch bill to him deliuered, if he may be duly informed, that ſuch bill containeth truth, ſhall haue power by his diſcretion to award a Writ of Capias at the ſuit of our Lord the King, directed to the Sheriffe of the countie or counties where the ſaid murders, manſlaughters, robberies, batteries, and other offences be ſuppoſed by the ſaid bill to be done and committed, returnable in the ſaid Chancery at a certaine day. And if the perſons ſpecified in the ſaid writ be taken by the ſaid Sheriffe, or yéeld themſelues in the ſame Chancery, that then ſuch perſons be put in priſon or to mainpriſe, according to the diſcretion of the Chancellor. And moreouer it ſhall be commanded to inquire of ſuch offences, and vpon that ſhall be done as the law requireth. And if the Sheriffe returne at the day of the Capias returnable, that the perſons in the ſame compriſed, for any of the ſame cauſes aforeſaid, cannot be taken by him, nor the ſame perſons doe yeeld themſelues in the ſaid Chancery, that then the ſaid Chancellor ſhall cauſe to be made a writ of proclamation directed to the Sherife, returnable in the Kings Bench at a certaine day, that he make proclamation in two counties, that the perſons named in the ſaid writ come at the ſaid day into the aforeſaid Bench there to anſwer to the matter compriſed in the ſaid bill, vpon pain to be conuict of the matter compriſed within the ſaid bill. And in euery ſuch writ of Proclamation ſhall be contained the ſubſtance of the matter compriſed in the ſaid bill. And if they come not at the day of ſuch proclamation returned, then they ſhall be holden and adiudged for conuict and attainted as afore is ſaid. And if they come at the Proclamation, it ſhal be inquired of thē and done in the maner as afore is ſaid. Prouided that the ſuggeſtions of ſuch riots be ſignified to the Chancellor of England by letters ſealed vnder the ſeales of two Iuſtices of the peace at the leaſt, and the Sheriffe of the countie, where ſuch riots ſhall be, before that ſuch writ of Capias be granted, In which writ of Capias, the matter which is compriſed within the ſame bill, ſhall be as well expreſſed as in the writ of proclamation thereof to be made. And if ſuch a caſe happen in the countie Palatine of Lancaſter, or elſewhere in franchiſes, where there is a Chancellor & a ſeale, that then the ſaid Chancellor of England cauſe to be written or ſent by the Kings Writ to the Chancellor of ſuch Countie or Franchiſe, all the ſuggeſtion in the ſaid bill compriſed, commanding him to make ſuch execution as in the ſaid article is compriſed. So alwayes that the Kings Writ out of the Chancery of England ſhall not run in ſuch County or Franchiſe, otherwiſe then hath been vſed in time paſſed, and that the ſaid ordinance ſhall ſtand in his force till the end of the next Parliament, Our Lord the King, conſidering that diuers other murders, manſlaughters, robberies, batteries, aſſemblies of people in great number in manner of inſurrections, and diuers other rebellions and riots, haue bin made in diuers Counties of the Realme, ſince the making of the ſaid ſtatute, not puniſhed, becauſe that the ſaid ſtatute held no force, but vntill the end of the Parliament then next following, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid Statute ſhall now be kept, and firmely holden for a Statute for euer, as well of murders, manſlaughters, robberies, batteries, aſſemblies of people in great number, in manner of inſurrections, and diuers other rebellions and riots made and committed before the beginning of this preſent Parliament as in time to come.

Prouided alwaies, that it be teſtified by two Iuſtices of the Peace of the Counties where ſuch riots ſhall be ſuppoſed, that the common fame and voice, runneth in the ſame Counties of the ſame riots, before that the writ of Capias ſhall be awarded. Prouided alſo, that if any ſuch caſe happen in the ſaid county Palatine of Lancaſter, or elſewhere in a place enfranchiſed, where there is a Chancellor and a ſeale, that then the ſaid Chancellor of ſuch county or place infranchiſed for the time being after complaint to him duely made & teſtified by a Iuſtice, or the Lieutenant of a Iuſtice & Sheriffe of ſuch County Palatine or place infranchiſed, for the time being, in the forme aforeſaid, ſhall haue like power to award a Capias and a writ of Proclamation aforeſaid, as the ſaid Chancellor of England hath.

our Lord the King, and alſo for that the lands and tenements of many of the Kings liege people be ſeiſed into the Kings hands vpon ſuch enqueſts, or let to ferme by the Chancellor or treſuror, before ſuch enqueſts be returned in the Chancery. Our Lord the K. hath ordained by the authority of this preſent parliament, that no Eſcheator or Commiſſioner take in any wiſe any enqueſt to inquire, but of people returned and impanelled by the Sheriffes in the Countie, within which he is Eſcheator or Commiſſioner. And if any Eſcheator or Cōmiſſioner take enqueſts of people, which be not impanelled nor returned by the Sheriffe as is aforeſaid, and therof by examination or otherwiſe at the ſuit of the party, which for himſelfe or for the King, or any other perſon that will ſue, be duely conuict, for euery enqueſt ſo taken, that he incurre the paine and forfeiture of xl.li. to be paid, that is to ſay, the one halfe to the King, and the other halfe to the party grieued, at whoſe ſuit he ſhall be conuict. ITem, whereas in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the eight and twentieth yeare of King Edward the third, amongſt other things in fauour and libertie of the Merchants ſtrangers, repairing into the Realme of England, it was ordained, that if a plea or debate be moued before the Maior of the Staple, amongſt the Merchants or Miniſters of the ſame, and for to trie the truth thereof, an Enqueſt or proofe is to be taken, if the one partie and the other bee ſtrange, it ſhould be tried by ſtrangers: And if the one partie and the other be Denizens it ſhould be tried by Denizens: and if the one partie be Denizen, and the other an Alien, the one halfe ſhould be of Denizens, and the other halfe Aliens: and moreouer, that in all inqueſts and proofes, which ſhalbe taken and made betwixt Aliens and Denizens, be they Merchants or other as well before the Maior of the Staple, as before any other Iudges or Miniſters, although our Lord the King be partie, the one halfe of the Enqueſt or proofe, ſhould be of Denizens, and the other halfe of aliens, if there be ſo many aliens in the towne or place where ſuch inqueſt or proofe is to be taken, that be not parties, nor with the parties in cōtracts, pleas, or other quarrels, whereof ſuch enqueſt or proofes ought to be taken, & if there be not ſo many aliens, then ſo many aliens ſhall be put in ſuch enqueſts or proofe as ſhall be found in the ſame places or Townes, which be not parties thereunto, nor with the parties as before is ſaid, and the remnant of Denizens, which be good men and not ſuſpect of the one partie nor of the other. Sithence which ordinance the ſaid Merchants aliens haue beene allwayes demeaned and ruled, as well in the Staples as in other of the Kings Courts, after the forme of the ſaid ordinance, vntill now late they haue beene thereof reſtrained and impeached by colour of another Statute made in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the ſecond yeare of King Henry father of our Lord the King that now is, by which Statute for the great miſchiefes, damages, and diſheriſons which daily doe happen thorough the Realme, as well in caſe of the death of a man, as in caſe of freehold and other caſes, by them that paſſe in enqueſts in the ſaid caſe, which were common Iurors and other, which had but little or nothing to liue vpon, but by ſuch enqueſts, and which had nothing to loſe becauſe of their falſe oathes, whereby they doe the more lightly offend their conſciences. Statutes made at Weſtminſter, Anno 9. Hen.6.

& Anno Domini 1430.

AT the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the Friday next before the Feaſt of Saint Hillarie, the ninth yeare of the raigne of our Lord the King that now is, diuers Statutes and Ordinances were made and eſtabliſhed by the aduice & aſſent of the Lords Spirituall & Temporall, & at the ſpeciall requeſt of the Cõmõs of the Realm aſſembled in the ſaid Parliament in the forme following.

CAP. I.

All Aſſiſes and Niſi prius ſhall be adiourned during this Parliament, vntill certain daies. EXP.

CAP. II.

Engliſh Merchants may ſell their merchandiſes to Aliens, giuing them only ſixe moneths day of payment, notwithſtanding the Stat. of 8.*H.6.*24. EXP. 10.*H.*7.fo.7.

CAP. III.

All indictments, inquiſitions, proceſſe, records and iudgements made or giuen againſt Owen Glendor, attainted of high Treaſon, ſhall ſtand good, notwithſtanding any error, miſpriſion or defect: But this ſhall not be preiudiciall to the heires of Owen as to any lands intailed. PR.

CAP. IIII.

An Idemptitate nominis maintaineable by executors, &c.

ITem, for that before this time many outlawries, haue beene pronounced againſt diuers of the Kings liege people, aſwell before the Statute of additiõs made at Weſtminſter the firſt year of King Henry the fift, father to our Lord the King that now is, as ſithence in reſpect of which outlawries, the bodies of other perſons hauing ſuch and like names, as they had which were outlawed in deed, haue been taken and impriſoned, and their goods and cattels for this cauſe ſeaſed by the Eſchetors of the King and of his noble progenitors. And although that by the common Law of the Realme, a writ of Idemptitate nominis, had been maintainable for the ſame perſon which in the forme aforeſaid was moleſted and grieued: neuertheleſſe if any perſon of the ſaid lieges, hauing like name, as any other perſon of the ſame liege people, which was outlawed in deed, had made his executors and died, often it happened, that by malice and ſubtile imaginations the goods and cattels of ſuch Teſtator, which had the ſame name as he had which was outlawed in deed, were ſeaſed and eſcheted to the hands of our Lord the King and of his progenitors, in retardation of the execution of the teſtament of euery ſuch Teſtator, for the doubt which hath beene, whether any executors may by the common Law haue a writ of Idemptitate nominis or not. Wherefore to take away and remoue all ſuch ambiguities and doubts in this caſe hereafter, of the aſſent and aduice aforeſaid, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid Commons, it is ordained and eſtabliſhed by authority of this Parliament, that a writ of Idemptitate nominis be grãted and made good and maintaineable for the executors of euery Teſtator, to the ſame ef-

And that this Ordinance ſhall haue relation and force by authority aforeſaid for the executors of euery Teſtator, as well of euery outlawry pronounced againſt any perſon at any time before this Parliament, as of all maner of outlawries to be pronounced againſt any perſon in time to come. Cap. V.

All men ſhall haue free paſſage in Seuerne with goods, cattels, &c.

A remedy for them which be hindered of their free paſſage with boates or goods vpon the riuer of Seuerne.

ITem, becauſe the riuer of Seuerne is common to all the Kings liege people, to carry and recarry within the ſtreame of the ſaid riuer, to Briſtow, Glouceſter, and Worceſter, and other places ioyning to the ſaid riuer, all maner of Merchandiſes and other goods and cattels, as well in trowes and boats, as in flotes commonly called dragges, in euery part ioyning to the ſaid Riuer: within which Riuer, many Welſhmen and other perſons dwelling in diuers places ioyning to the ſaid Riuer, haue now late aſſembled in great number, arraied in maner of War, and taken ſuch Flotes otherwiſe called Dragges, and them haue hewed in peices, and with force and Armes beaten the people, which were in ſuch Dragges, to the intent that they ſhould hire of the ſaid Welſhmen, and other perſons for great ſummes of money, Boates and other Veſſels for carriage of ſuch Merchandiſes, and other goods and cattels, to an euill example and great impoueriſhment of the ſaid Liege people, if remedie be not haſtily prouided: It is ordained by authoritie of this Parliament, that the ſaid Liege people of the King may haue and enioy their frée paſſage in the ſaid Riuer, with Flotes and Dragges, and all maner of Merchandiſes, and other goods and cattels at their will, without diſturbance of any: and if any be diſturbed of his frée paſſage in the ſaid Riuer, the party grieued ſhall haue his action according to the courſe of the Common Law. Cap. VI.

The Burgeſſes of Dorcheſter ſhall haue their weighing by xij. miles about, &c.

By the Stat. of 8.H.6.5. the Burgeſſes of Dorcheſter ſhall not be diſturbed to vſe their weighing by xii. miles about the ſame.

ITem, it is ordained and aſſented that by force of the Statute made in the laſt Parliament, of weights, according to the ſtandard of the Exchequer to be had in euery Citie, Borough, and Towne within the Realme, the Burgeſſes of the Borough of Dorceſter ſhall not be diſturbed of their right, to vſe their weighing by xij. mile round about the ſame Borough, vſing alwaies ſuch weights as in the ſaid Statute be expreſſed: and that no right nor title of weighing, grow to any by force of the ſame laſt Statute in diſturbance of the right of the ſaid Burgeſſes of the ſaid Borough of Dorceſter.

Cap. VII.

No Sheriffe or vnderſheriffe of the County of Hereford, ſhall take money by extortion, or do any wrong in his turne or other place by colour of his office vpon paine of forfeiture of x. li. Exp. St. 11. H. 6. 7.

Cap. VIII.

The weight of a wey of Cheeſe.

Stat. 8.H.6.5. A wey of cheeſe ſhall containe xxxii. cloues.

ITem, whereas it hath béene of old times accuſtomed in all the Counties of England, that all the Chéeſes, which ought to be ſold by the wey, ſhould be weighed by the Auncell, and becauſe that at the laſt Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, it was ordained, that the ſaid Auncels in reſpect of the great deceipt of the ſame, ſhould be deſtroyed, and other weights touching ſhould be in this behalfe ordained, and it is ſo, that the poore people of the Realme be greatly deceiued by the ſaid weights touching, for that they know not how many pounds the wey of Chéeſe doth containe, by the ſaid weights touching. And therefore to the intent that the ſaid poore people ſhall not be in this behalfe deceiued, as they haue béene ſithence the ſaid laſt Parliament: It is ordained by authority of this Parliament, that the weight of a wey of Chéeſe may containe xxxij. cloues, that is to ſay, euery cloue vij. li. by the ſaid weights touching.

CAP. XI.

Proclamations before a writ be awarded to the Biſhop to certifie Baſtardy.

ITem, wheras by a ſupplication deliuered in this preſent Parliament by the Commons of the ſame, it was declared by Margeret Duches of Clarence, Iohan Duches of Yorke ſiſters, and amongſt other heires to Edmond Earle of Kent, Richard Duke of Yorke, Richard Earle of Saliſbury, and Alice his wife, Ralfe Earle of Weſtmerland, Iohn Lord of Typtoſt & of Powes, and Ioyce his wife, & Henry Gray, coſins, and other of the heires of the ſaid Edmund late Earle, as in the ſame ſupplication is ſuppoſed, that is to ſay, the ſaid Duke, ſon to Anne daughter of Alianour, another of the ſiſters of the ſaid Edmond, The ſaid Alice daughter to Alianour another ſiſter of the ſaid Edmond, The ſaid Ralfe ſonne to Elizabeth, another ſiſter of the ſaid Edmund, The ſaid Ioyce daughter to the ſaid Alianour mother of Anne. And the ſaid Henry Gray, ſonne to Iohan daughter of the ſame Alianour, that whereas Alianour, wife to James Lord of Audeley, pretending, calling and affirming herſelfe daughter and heire to the ſaid Edmund late Earle of Kent, and begotten and borne in marriage pretenſed, had betwixt him and Conſtance late wife of Thomas Lord Diſpenſer, where by the ſaid ſupplication it is ſuppoſed, that the ſaid Alianour, wife to the ſaid Iames is Baſtard, and neuer was any marriage made, had, nor ſolemniſed betwixt the ſaid Edmund and Conſtance but the ſaid Edmund (by the Ordinance, will, and agréement of King Henry the fourth, grandfather to our Lord the King that now is, after great, notable, and long ambaſſage had and ſent to the Duke of Millaine, for a marriage to be had betwixt the ſaid Edmund and Luce ſiſter to the ſaid Duke of Millaine) did take to wife and openly and ſolemnly married the ſaid Luce at London. The ſaid Conſtance then liuing and being there preſent, not claiming the ſaid Edmund to her huſband, nor any dower of his lands after his deceaſe, which mariage betwixt the ſaid Edmund and Luce ſo had and ſolemniſed, continued without any interruption of the ſaid Conſtance or of any other, during the life of the ſaid Edmond, as diuers Lords and other credible and notable perſons of the ſaid Realm doe well remember. And how after the deceaſe of the ſaid Edmund, the ſaid Luce was endowed of his lands, as his lawfull wife continuing thereof her eſtate peaceably all her life:

A ſecret practiſe to proue one mulier in the ſpirituall Court that is a Baſtard.

A practiſe to proue one mulier by the common Law, who is indeed a baſtard.

Neuertheleſſe the ſaid Alianour, the wife of Iames, vpon great ſubtiltie, proceſſe imagined, priuy labour and other meanes, and coloured waies, to the intent that ſhe ought to be certified mulier, by ſome Ordinary, in caſe that Baſtardie ſhould be alledged in her perſon, hath brought (as it is ſaid) in examination before certaine Iudges in the ſpiritual Court not informed nor hauing knowledge of the ſaid ſubtiltie, imagined proceſſe, priuie labour, and coloured waies, certaine ſuborned proofes and perſons of her aſſent and couin, depoſing for her, that the ſaid Alianour the wife of Iames, was begotten within marriage had and ſolemniſed betwixt the ſaid Edmond and Conſtance. The ſaid Ducheſſes, the Duke of Yorke, and Earle of Saliſbury, and Alice, Earle of Weſtmerland, Iohn the Lord of Typtoſt, Ioyce, and Henry, nor any of them thereof warned, nor knowing vntill long time after the depoſition ſo made, whereof the ſaid ſuppliants do feare them to be grieued and impeached of their inheritance had by the ſaid Edmond by another ſubtilty and labour in the temporall Law to be practiſed and wrought by the ſaid Lord of Audely and Alianour his wife. As if they will commence any action againſt any perſons of their owne aſſent and couin, or otherwiſe, will cauſe ſuch perſons of ſuch aſſent and couin to purſue an action againſt them (as it is ſuppoſed that they entend to doe) In which action by the couin and aſſent aforeſaid, Baſtardy ought to be alledged in the perſon of the ſaid Alianour, wife of Iames, and thereupon by the aſſent and couin an iſſue is to be taken, and a writ to be ſent to ſome Ordinary (where it pleaſe them not aduertiſed of the ſaid ſubtilty, aſſent, and couin,) to certifie if the ſaid Alianour the wife of Iames, be mulier or not, before which Ordinary the ſame Alianour, wife of Iames, will alledge and proue her ſelfe mulier by the ſaid depoſitions of the ſaid ſuborned witneſſes. And then the party reputed as aduerſary againſt the Lord of Audely, and Alianour his wife, in the ſaid action taken or to be taken by aſſent and couin aforeſaid, will alledge no proofe nor matter, nor make any defence before the ſaid Ordinary againſt the ſame Lord Audely and Alianour his wife, but ſuffer the matter before the ſaid Ordinary to procéed according to the meaning of the ſaid Lord of Audeley, and Alianour his wife. So that it is very likely, that the ſame Ordinary will certifie the ſaid Alianour the wife of Iames, mulier, which certificate ſo had and made, ought by the Law of England, to diſherite the ſaid Ducheſſes, Duke of Yorke, Earle of Saliſbury, Earle of Weſtmerland, Iohn Lord of Tiproſt, Alice, Ioyce and Henry, and their iſſue for euer of the whole inheritance aforeſaid: whereupon the premiſſes tenderly conſidered, and to eſchew ſuch ſubtile diſheriſons, as well in the ſaid caſe as in other caſes like in time to come, by the aduice and aſſent of all the Lords Spirituall, and alſo at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, it is ordained and eſtabliſhed by authority of this Parliament, that if the ſaid Alianour the wife of Iames be certified mulier in any court before this time, that no maner certificat heretofore made for the ſaid Alianour wife of Iames, ſhall in any wiſe put to preiudice, in dammage, nor conclude any perſon or perſons but him or his heires that was partie to the plea. And that from henceforth all Juſtices of or in the Courts where any Plea is or ſhall be depending, taken, or moued, in which pleas ſo depending, taken or moued, Baſtardy is or ſhall be alledged againſt any perſon party to the ſame plea, and thereupon an iſſue ioyned, which by the Law ought to be certified by the Ordinary, that the Judges or one Judge of or in the Courts, where the ſaid plea is or ſhall be depending, taken, or moued before the time that any writ of certificate paſſe out of the ſame Court to the Ordinary, to certifie vpon the iſſue ſo ioyned or to be ioyned, ſhall make a remembrance vnder their ſeales or his ſeale, at the ſuit of the demandant or tenant, plaintiffe, or defendant in the plea, in which the Baſtardy is or ſhall be alledged, reciting the iſſue that is ioyned in the ſame plea of Baſtardy, and certifying to the Chanceller of the King of England for the time being, to the intent that thereupon Proclamation be made in the ſaid Chancery by three moneths, once in euery moneth, that all perſons pretending any intereſt to obiect againſt the party, which pretendeth himſelfe to be mulier, that they ſue to the Ordinary, to whom the writ of Certificate is or ſhall be directed, to make their allegations and obiections againſt the party which pretendeth him to be mulier, as the Law of holy Church requireth: and the ſaid Chanceller hauing notice of the ſaid remembrance and iſſue ioyned, and being required by the ſaid demandant or tenant, plaintiffe or defendant hauing the ſaid remembrance, to make the ſaid Proclamation as afore is ſaid, the ſame Chanceller for the time being ſhall cauſe to be made Proclamation in the forme aforeſaid. And the Proclamation ſo made ſhall certifie in the Court where the ſaid plea, in which the Baſtardy is alledged another time, ſhall be depending. And that the Judges of or in the Court, where the ſame plea is, or ſhall be depending, taken, or moued, before any Proclamation ſo to be made in the Chancery, make one time ſuch Proclamation openly in the ſame Court, and alſo another time when the Proclamation ſhall be certified by the Chanceller of England, and made in the forme aboue rehearſed: and then the ſaid Judge ſhall award the ſaid writ of Certificate to the Ordinary, to certifie vpon the iſſue ſo ioyned or to be ioyned: & if any writ of Certificat be made or granted, before that all the Proclamations in the forme aforeſaid be made and certified, that then the ſaid writ of Certificat, and the certificat of the Ordinary therupon made or to be made, ſhall be void in Law, and of none effect: and if any writ before this time be directed to any Ordinary to certifie, if the ſaid Alianour, wife of Iames be Baſtard or not, and at this time not certified, if it be certified hereafter by vertue of the ſaid writ, that the ſame certificat of the ſaid Ordinary ſo made be void and of none effect. Statutes made at Weſtminſter Anno decimo Hen: ſexti, & Anno Domini 1432.

OVr Lord the King at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xij. day of May, the tenth yeare of his raign, to the honour of God, and for the wealth of him and his Realme, and for the tranquility and eaſe of his people, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the Commons in the ſame Parliament aſſembled, hath cauſed to be enacted and ſtabliſhed diuers Statutes and Ordinances in the forme following.

Cap. I.

Recogniſances taken before the Maior, &c. of Calis ſhall be effectuall in England.

Recogniſances taken before the Maior of the Staple of Calis ſhall be effectuall within England.

FIrſt, whereas it is granted to the Maior & Conſtables of the Staple of Calis, by the Charter of the Kings noble progenitors, and by him confirmed, that they ſhall haue power to take & record all recogniſances of debts before them made by any perſon. And therefore great doubts were if the recogniſances before the ſaid Maior and Conſtables made beyond the Sea, ſhould be effectuall and executory in all points within the Realme of England, as the recogniſances made before the Maior & Conſtables of the Staple of Weſtminſter be. Our Lord the K. willing in this caſe to take away all ſuch doubts, by the aduice & aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall & temporall, & at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid Commons, hath ordained by authority of the ſame Parliament, that all the recogniſances of debts before the ſaid Maior and Conſtables of Calis made or to be made by any perſons beyond the ſea, ſhall be as effectuall and executory, and of ſuch force in all points within the Realme, and in the ſame forme executory, as the ſaid recogniſances made before the ſaid Maior and Conſtables of the Staple of Weſtminſter, or before any other Maiors or Conſtables of the Staple within the ſaid Realme be.

CAP. II.

Certaine things required in him which ſhall be a chooſer of the Knights of the Parliament.

ITem, whereas at the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the morrow of Saint Mathew the Apoſtle, the viij, yeare of the King that now is, it was ordained by authoritie of the ſame Parliament, that the Knights of all Counties within the Realme of England to be choſen to come to the Parliaments hereafter to be holden, ſhould be choſen in euery County by people dwelling and reſiant in the ſame, whereof euery one ſhall haue freehold to the value of fortie ſhillings by yeare at the leaſt, aboue all charges, vpon a certaine paine contained in the ſame Statute: not making expreſſe mention in the ſame that euery man that ſhall be chooſer of any ſuch Knights ſhall haue freehold to the value of fortie ſhillings at the leaſt, aboue all charges within the ſame county, where ſuch chooſer with other like, ſhall make ſuch election or elſewhere. And therefore our Lord the King willing to make plaine declaration of the ſaid Statute, by the aduice & aſſent aforeſaid, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid Commons, hath ordained that the Knights of all Counties within the ſaid Realme to be choſen to come to Parliaments hereafter to be holden, ſhall be choſen in euery County by people dwelling and reſiant in the ſame, whereof euery man ſhall haue freehold to the value of xl. s. by the yeare at the leaſt aboue all charges within the ſame County where any ſuch chooſer will meddle of any ſuch election. CAP. IIII.

The penaltie of him that maketh a falſe entry. That the plaintiffe doth offer himſelfe in perſon where he doth not.

ITem, for that diuers of the Kings liege people before this time haue been outlawed and greatly vexed and diſquieted in diuers ſuits, aſwell before the King in his bench, as in the common bench, in the records of which ſuits the entries haue beene made, that the plaintiffes in the ſame ſuits, Obtulerunt ſe in propria perſona ſua, where the ſame plaintiffes neuer appeared to ſuch ſuits, nor had knowledge of the ſame, in great miſchiefe of the ſaid liege people, if remedy be not prouided in this behalfe. Our Lord the King willing in this caſe to prouide remedy, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed by authority of this preſent parliament, that no maner Fyliſer, Exigenter, nor any other officer whatſoeuer from henceforth ſhall make ſuch entry in any manner ſuit except that the plaintiffe in the ſame ſuit, before that ſuch entry be made, doe appeare in his proper perſon before ſome of the ſaid Iuſtices of the place, where the plea is or ſhall be depending. And there he ſhall be ſworne vpon a booke, that he is the ſame perſon, in whoſe name the ſaid ſuit is ſued, or that ſome other credible perſon of the Kings Counſell make ſuch othe for him. And this ordinance ſhall endure till the next Parliament. Stat.18.H.6.9. made perpetuall.

The penalty of him which maketh a falſe entry, that the plaintiffe doth offer himſelfe in perſon where he doth not.

CAP. VI.

What proceſſe ſhall be awarded vpon an inditement remoued into the Kings Bench.

ITem, whereas in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the eight yeare of the King that now is, it was ordained, that vpon euery indictment or appeale, by the which any of the Kings liege people, dwelling in other foraine and diuers Counties then where ſuch endictment or appeale is or ſhall be taken of treaſon, felony, or treſpas, to be taken hereafter before Iuſtices of Peace, or before any other Iuſtice whatſoeuer, hauing power to take ſuch enditements or appeales, or other Commiſſioners or Iuſtices in any Countie, Franchiſe, or Libertie of England, before any Exigend awarded vpon any enditement or appeale in the forme aforeſaid to be takē that preſently after the firſt writ of Capias vpon euery ſuch enditement or appeale awarded and returned, that another writ of Capias ſhalbe awarded, directed to the Sheriffe of the Coũty whereof he that is ſo endited or appealed is or was ſuppoſed to be conuerſant by the ſame enditement or appeale, returnable before the ſame Iuſtices Commiſſioners, before whom he is endited or appealed, at a certaine day containing the ſpace of 3. moneths, from the date of the ſame writ & the return of the ſame as by the ſame ſtatute plainly appeareth, by which clauſe of the ſame Statute, that is to ſay, returnable before the ſame Iuſtices or cõmiſſioners, before whõ he is endited or appealed, ſome doe thinke that the writ of Capias ordained by the ſaid Statute, which ſhall be

And imagining to defraud and make fruſtrate the ſaid Statute, doe ſue to remoue ſuch enditements and appeales out of the hands of the Iuſtices or Commiſſioners aforeſaid, into the Kings Bench and elſewhere, by Certiorari and otherwiſe, vnknowne to the partie ſo endicted, and therupon ſue the proces vſed at the Common Law, before the making of the ſaid Statute in the Kings Bench and elſewhere after the remouing, to the great impoueriſhing and vexation of the Kings faithful ſubiects: wherefore the ſame our Lord the King, by the aduice and aſſent aforeſaid, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid Commons, by authority aforeſaid, hath ordained that the ſaid Statute be holden and kept and put in due execution in all points. Ioyned to the ſame, that if any ſuch endictments, taken or to be taken before any Iuſtices of Peace, or before any other hauing power to take ſuch endictments or appeales, or other Iuſtices or Commiſſioners in any County, Frāchiſe or Liberty of England ſhall be remoued before the King in his Bench or elſewhere by Certiorari or otherwiſe, then after ſuch remouing, before any Exigend awarded vpon any ſuch endictment or appeale in the forme aforeſaid taken, or to be taken that preſently after the firſt writ of Capias vpon euery ſuch endictment or appeale awarded & returned, that another writ of Capias be awarded, directed to the Sheriffe of the County, whereof he that is ſo endicted or appealed, is or was ſuppoſed to be conuerſant by the ſame endictment or appeale returnable before the King in his Bench at a certaine day, containing the ſpace of thrée moneths or foure, from the date of the ſaid laſt writ of Capias, according to the maner and forme that the Iuſtices of peace, and other in the ſaid firſt Statute contained, ought to haue done before ſuch remouing after the making of the ſaid firſt Statute. And if any ſuch Exigend be hereafter awarded vpon any ſuch endictment or appeale after ſuch remouing againſt the forme aforeſaid, or any outlawry therupon pronounced, as wel the ſame Exigend ſo awarded as the outlawry therupon to be pronounded, and euery of them ſhall be holden for none & void, according as in the ſaid firſt Statute is more fully contained.

The plaintiffes in attaint ſhall recouer their coſts and damages.

ITem, our Lord the King by the grieuous complaint of his Commons, conſidering the miſchiefs had within the Realme, and yet not remedied, and alſo the great dammage and diſheriſon that commeth by the vſuall Periury of Jurors, empanelled vpon enqueſts, as well in the Courts of our Lord the King, as of other, the which periury doth abound & encreaſe daily more then it was wont for the great gifts that ſuch Jurors take of the parties in pleas ſued in the ſaid Courts, wherefore the greater part of people that haue to ſue in the ſaid Courts, leaue their ſuites for the miſchiefs aforeſaid, and namely in reſpect of the delaies that be in the writs of Attaints, for that in times paſt in Writs of Attaints, when the grand Jurie had appeared in Court, and were ready to paſſe, one of the tenants or defendants, or of the pettie Jurors named in ſuch writs, ſometime haue pleaded falſe and faint pleas, which were not triable by the grand Jury of the attaint, and by that meanes delaied the taking of ſuch grand Juries vntill ſuch pleas were tried: and after ſuch pleas tried and found for the plaintiffe another of the Jurors, tenants or defendants might plead another ſuch falſe and faint plea after the laſt continuance in the ſame attaints, and ſo euerie of the defendants, Jurors, or tenants, after other might plead ſuch falſe and faint plea and delay the grand Jurie when it was ready to paſſe: and though that all ſuch falſe and faint pleas were found againſt them which pleaded, no paine was giuen to them by the Common Law. In regard of which delaies, the grand Juries in attaints haue béene often grieuouſly vexed and trauailed, and the plaintiffes in ſuch attaints put to ſo great coſtes, and thereby impoueriſhed, that they could not proſecute their ſaid ſuits, wherefore the Jurors be the more encouraged to be periured & to make their falſe othes in ſuch caſes: Our ſaid Lord the King willing thereof to prouide remedy, at the requeſt of the ſaid Commons, and by the aſſent of the Lords abouesaid, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that the parties plaintiffes in all ſuch attaints ſhall recouer their damages and coſtes againſt all ſuch tenants, Jurors, and defendants, which they haue ſuſtained in that behalfe, and that this Statute extend as well to writs of Attaints now hanging, as to writs of Attaints to be purchaſed hereafter.

No ſuit before any Iuſtices, &c. ſhall be diſcontinued by a new Commiſſion.

No ſuit before any Iuſtices or Commiſſioners ſhall be diſcontinued by a new Commiſſion. St.1.Ed.6.7.

ITem, our Lord the King, conſidering the great loſſes & damages which oftentimes haue come and be likely to come hereafter, as well to himſelfe as to many of his lieges, for that where as well diuers indictments and ſuits for our Lord the King, as other ſuits betweene party and party haue beene taken before diuers Iuſtices of the Peace, aſſigned by ſeuerall Commiſſions of our ſaid Lord the King in diuers Counties of England, and diuers pleas and proceſſes vpon thoſe indictments haue often bin made, & hanging before the ſame Iuſtices not determined, the which pleas and proceſſes been often diſcontinued by making of new Commiſſions of the peace in thoſe Counties, to the great loſſe of our ſaid Lord the King, and of his ſubiects in delay of the ſame pleas and ſuits, and of the deliuerance of his ſaid ſubiects. And vpon that, our Lord the King willing to prouide remedie, of the aſſent and authoritie aboue ſaid, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed that in all ſuch pleas, ſuits, and proceſſes, in them to be taken and to be made before Iuſtices of the Peace in any Countie of England, the ſaid pleas and proceſſes in ſuch ſuits to be done, ſhall not be diſcontinued by ſuch new Commiſſions of the Peace to be made: but thoſe pleas and proceſſes ſhall ſtand in their force. Of what length and breadth Clothes called Straights ſhall be.

ITem, whereas in a Statute made the ſeuenteenth yeare of King Richard the ſecond after the Conqueſt, it was ordained, that euerie man of the Realme might make and ſet to ſale and ſell Clothes, aſwell Kerſies as other, of ſuch length and breadth as him pleaſed, paying the aulnage, ſubſidie, and other deuoires, that is to ſay, of euery piece of Cloth after the rate, notwithſtanding any Statute, Ordinance, Proclamation, reſtraint or defence made to the contrary, and that none ſell nor put to ſale any Clothes before they be meaſured by the Kings Aulneger, and enſealed with the Seale thereunto ordained, vpon paine contained in the Statutes thereof made, and after in the Statute made in the ſeuenth yeare of King Henry the fourth, grandfather of our Lord the King that now is, it was alſo ordained, that the Cloth of color ſhould contain in length eight and twentie yards meaſured by the backe, and in breadth ſixe quarters & a halfe, and if the Cloth makers ſhould make their Clothes of leſſe length or breadth they ſhould bee forfeit to the King. And after by another ſtatute made in the eleuenth yeare of the ſaid King Henry the fourth, it was ordained that proclamation ſhould be made openly through the Realme, that no perſon making ſuch maner of Clothes or Doſins within the Realm, ſhould be ſo hardy to tack and fold together ſuch maner of Clothes, before that the Aulneger hath made his ſearch and ſuruaying duely to the ſame Clothes, that they hold their length and breadth, ordained by the ſaid laſt Statute, made the ſaid ſeuenth yeare, as in the ſame Statute is more fully contained. Vpon which Statutes made in the time of the ſaid King *H*enry the fourth, diuers opinions haue been holden in the Kings Exchequer, as the ſame our Lord the King hath conceiued by the complaint of the commons of his Realme. Our Lord the King willing to repreſſe ſuch opinions, of the aſſent and authority aboueſaid hath declared, that this word (Cloth) in the ſaid Statutes before rehearſed, ſhall haue relation, and ſhall be vnderſtood of whole Cloth called broad Clothes and broade Doſins, and not of other Clothes and pieces of Clothes called Streats, now made, or to be made. And moreouer hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that euery man may make, ſet to ſale, and ſell all maner of Clothes called Streats, containing in length fourteene yards, and in the breadth one yard, vnwatered, or elſe twelue yards watered, without impeachment of any officer of the Kings, paying to the King

He ſhall ſinde ſureties &c. that ſueth to defeate an execution vpon a Statute.

He ſhall find ſuretie to the K. & to the party that ſueth to defeate an execution vpon a ſtatute ſtaple. Fitz.N.B fo.150.

ITem, becauſe diuers perſons within this Realme in times paſt often haue béene taken and arreſted by diuers Sheriffes and other officers of the King by Writs, as well going out of the Chancery of the King, as of his Progenitors, to haue execution of diuers Recogniſances made before the Maiors of the Staple of diuers ſummes, of which ſummes ſuch perſons to whom the dutie belonged, had no conuenient remedie, other then the ſaid executions, which perſons ſo taken and arreſted for execution of the ſame Recogniſances, be oftentimes brought by diuers writs De corpus cum cauſa before the King in his Chancerie out of priſons in the which they be ſo kept by force of ſuch executions, and there they doe ſue ſhewing forth diuers Indentures and other things in defeſance of ſuch Recogniſances, deſiring Writs of Scire facias to warne the party or parties, at whoſe ſuit they be taken and arreſted, to anſwere therennto. And thereupon by ſuretie found to the King in the Chancery, haue béene deliuered out of priſon, notwithſtanding their ſaid arreſt for the execution of ſuch Recogniſances, as aboue is ſaid, ne ſuretie found to the Recogniſées, to whom they be ſo bound to ſatisfie them of their duties, in caſe that the matters compriſed within the ſaid writs of Scire facias, be not found nor adiudged for the Recogniſors thereby bound, whereby the ſaid Recogniſées haue béene ſometime greatly delayed, of their execution, and ſometime their execution vtterly loſt, and in time to come likely to be loſt, for that no aduantage nor auaile thereof might come, be, or accrue to the ſaid Recogniſées to whom ſuch perſons be ſo bound by the ſaid ſuretie ſo bound to the King, ſéeing the ſame perſon ſo bound, may by the Kings pardon be acquit and diſcharged for euer. Our Lord the King, conſidering that the ſaid Recogniſées to whom perſons be bound are oftentimes without remedie, if ſo be that the ſaid Recogniſors would not purſue forth their ſaid Writs of Scire facias, with effect, or otherwiſe, that the matters of their ſaid Writs of Scire facias be found or adiudged againſt them, and thereupon they withdraw them to places priuiledged, or eloigne them out of the Realme, or elſe they would not appeare, ſo that their bodies might be put in execution, to the great hindrance and vndoing of ſuch Recogniſées in time to come, and alſo becauſe that the King is inherited of the taking of ſuch ſureties to himſelfe by the courſe of the Chancerie. The King doth will that from henceforth ſuch ſureties be made as well to the King as to the partie.

The puniſhmẽt of ſuch as doe make aſſault vpon any that come to the Parliament or &c.

And if he come and be found guiltie by Inqueſt, by examination, or otherwiſe of ſuch affray or aſſault, then he ſhall pay to the partie ſo grieued his double damages found by the Inqueſt, or to be taxed by the diſcretion of the ſaid Iuſtices, and make fine and ranſom at the Kings will, as aboue is ſaid. The Iuſtices of Peace of Middleſex ſhall keepe their Seſſions but twice in the yeare,

St.2.H.5.4.

ITem, whereas it was ordained by a Statute, that the Juſtices of Peace of all the Counties of England for the time being ſhould ſit and hold their Seſſions foure times by yeare, to enquire and execute all charges contained in their Commiſſio, which they be ſworne to doe according to the forme of the ſaid Statute vpon a great paine, as by the ſame Statute more fully appeareth. Our Lord the King, conſidering that all the high Courts be ſet and holden in the County of Middleſex, continually during all the foure times of the Terme, by which time of Terme the Commons inhabiting in and of the ſame Countie, muſt attend from time time to enquire of all the Articles to the ſaid Courts belonging, as reaſon and Law requireth, and that preſently after euerie of the ſaid Termes ended, the ſaid Juſtices of the ſaid County doe ſit and hold their Seſſions in the ſame Countie, as they ought to doe by force of the ſaid Statute, more to auoid the ſaid penaltie then for any other neceſſarie thing there to be enquired, at which Seſſions they cauſe to come before them a great part of the inhabitants and commons of the ſaid Countie of Middleſex, to enquire of all manner of things as to them is giuen in charge, And by that meanes they be charged and vexed throughout all the yeare, as well out of the time of Terme, as in the time of the Terme, ſo that they haue no reſt nor time to doe their husbandry & their labor to get their liuing in any wiſe, to their vtter vndoing if they be not relieued in this behalfe. Therefore the ſame our Lord the King willing in this caſe to prouide for them a remedy, hath ordained, by the aduice and aſſent aforeſaid, and at the requeſt of the ſaid Commons of the Realme, that the Juſtices of Peace which now be, and all other hereafter for the time being, in the ſaid Countie of Middleſex ſhall be cléerely diſcharged of the ſaid penaltie by authoritie of the ſame Parliament from henceforth, the Court of the Kings Bench being ſet in the ſaid Countie of Middleſex. Prouided alwaies, that the ſaid Juſtices of Peace of the ſaid Countie of Middleſex for the time being kéepe, obſerue, and execute the Court of the Seſſions of the Peace, two times in the yeare at the leaſt, and more often if néed be for any riot or forcible entrie made within the ſame Countie of Middleſex, and that vpon the paine and forfeiture of ſuch ſummes as be for that ordained by any Law made before this time, to the end and entent that the ſaid Commons and Inhabitants of the ſaid Countie of Middleſex be not enforced nor compelled to appeare before the Juſtices of Peace of the ſame Countie for the time being, but at ſuch time which ſhall ſéeme by the diſcretions of the ſame Juſtices of Peace neceſſarie and behoofefull.

The Juſt. of P in Middleſex ſhall keepe their ſeſſions but twice in the yeare, ſauing to inquire of riots or forcible entries.

Cap. V.

All merchandiſes ſhipped in Creekes ſhall be forfeited to the King, &c.

ITem, it was ſhewed to our Lord the King, by the Commons of the ſame Parliament, that as well becauſe of vndue ſearch made in the Ports and Créekes within the Realme vpon diuers perſons, which by ſubtile imaginations and meanes doe ſhip woolls and woolfels, and ſeuerall other merchandiſes which ought to repaire to the Staple of Caleis, and them carrie and conuay to diuers other parts beyond the Seas, without paying cuſtome, againſt the tenour of the Statutes thereof made and ordained, by the which meanes the cuſtomes and ſubſidies granted to the King be greatly impaired and decayed, It was ordained by the King and all the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Cõmons in this preſent Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the xj. yeare of our Lord the King that now is, that none, vpon paine of felony, ſhould carry nor ſhip any ſuch Merchandiſes of the Staple in any Creekes within the ſaid Realme againſt the Ordinance aforeſaid: neuertheleſſe diuers perſons hauing no feare of the ſaid ſtatute cuſtomably ſhip aſwell in the Ports as in the Creekes aforeſaid, by vndue meanes great value of Wools, Woollfelles and of other Merchandiſes of the Staple, and them carry into Flanders, Holland, Zeland, Brabant, and Normandy, without paying any cuſtome for the ſame, and moreouer diuers perſons doe ſhip cuſtomably Wools and woolfels in diuers parts of the Realme of England which be Cocketted and Cuſtomed to goe to Caleis, and come not there, but the ſame Woolles and Woolfels carry into other parts aforeſaid, contrary to the Statute thereof ordained, by the which vntrue meanes the King is greatly endamaged, and defrauded of his Cuſtomes and ſubſidies, and the ſaid Staple within ſhort time in point to be clearely deſtroied, the Towne of Calice impouerished and decaied, and the Realme not encreaſed. Our Lord the King conſidering the premiſſes, hath ordained by the ſtatute aforeſaid, that all the Wools and Woolfels, and all other Merchandiſes which by ſtatute ought to repaire to the ſaid Staple, found in any Creekes, ſhipped contrarie to the ſaid Statute and Ordinance ſhall be forfeit to our Lord the King. And moreouer that euery perſon whatſoeuer he be, which at any time ſhall ſhip or cauſe to be ſhipped any maner of Wools, Woolfels, and other Merchandiſes to goe to the Staple aforeſaid, & come not there, ſhall forfeit as much goods as the Wools, Woolfels, and other Merchandiſes, by them ſo ſhipped and carried to other places then to Calice doe amount, by extent after the very value, (except the Merchandiſes, which be to be excepted to paſſe by the Kings licence to other places.) Reſerued alwaies to the King the whole moitie of ſuch forfeitures, which be Coketted and accuſtomed to goe to Calice, and come not there, as afore is ſaid, aud to them which find and ſeiſe the Merchandiſes, the other moitie, without any diminution or abatement. And if any perſon take any Wools Woolfels, or any other Merchandiſe of the Staple, iu any ſuſpicious place adioyning to the water ſide, in whatſoeuer place that it be, and no Indenture thereof made betwixt him and the Maior, Bailiffe, or Conſtable of the Towne, in the which ſuch Wooll, Woolfels, and other Merchandiſes of the Staple, be ſo laied, that then the ſame Wools, Woolfels, and Merchandiſes be forfeit. And that the King haue one moity of all ſuch forfeitures, and the Lords of the Towne, where ſuch Merchandiſes be ſo laied, and he which them find and ſeiſe, the other moitie, to be equally diuided betwixt them. And euery man ſhall haue power by authority aforeſaid to make ſearch in euery place for ſuch goods of the Staple ſo carried or ſhipped or layed to be ſhipped as afore is ſaid, without impediment or diſturbance of any perſon. St.11.H.6.14.

All merchandiſes of the Staple ſhipped in Creekes ſhall be forfeited to the King.

Merchandiſes laid in ſecret places by the water ſide to be tranſported.

CAP. VI.

None ſhall diſturbe an Alien that bringeth in Victuals to ſell in groſſe, or by retaile.

ITem, our Lord the King is enformed by the ſaid Commous how in the Statute made the vj. yeare of K. Richard the ſecond, late King of England, it was ordained and accorded, that euery Foraine and Alien, being of the Amitie of our Lord the King, and of the Realme, and comming within the Citie of London, and other Cities, Boroughes, and Townes, within the ſaid Realme of England, aſwell within Franchiſes as without, with fiſh, aud other victuals whatſoeuer there abiding and returning, ſhould be from thenceforth vnder the ſafe guard and ſpeciall protection of our Lord the King, and that it ſhould be lawfull to them and to euery of them, that they might cut fiſh and victuals aforeſaid by peices, and to taile and retaile them in part, and in whole or in groſſe, as they ſhall thinke beſt to ſell and make their profit, without impeachment or contradiction of any, notwithſtanding any Statutes, Charters, ordinances, priuiledges, or cuſtomes made or had to the contrary. And thereupon by a Statute made the firſt yeare of K. Henry the iiij. it was ordained and ſtabliſhed that the ſaid ſtatute and ordinance, made the ſaid vj. yeare, ſhould be firmely holden, and kept, and duely executed after the forme and effect of the ſame, notwithſtanding any Letters Patents of Late granted to the Fiſhmongers of the Citie of London, as in the ſaid, Statute, made the firſt yeare fully appeareth: by the ſupplication of the Commons aforeſaid, hath made, ordained, and ſtabliſhed by authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid ſtatutes ſhall be firmely holden and kept, any other ſtatutes or ordinances made to the contrary notwithſtanding. Joined to the ſame, that if any man diſturbe any foraine or alien to ſell their fiſh in groſſe or at retaile, in part or in whole contrary to the ſaid ordinances, and thereof be duely attainted at the ſuit of the King or of the party, that then he ſhall forfeit x. li. and he that will ſue for our Lord the King, or for himſelfe, ſhall haue the one halfe, and the King the other halfe, and ſuch ſuit ſhall be taken for any offence committed in the Citie of London againſt the ſaid ordinance, for him which will ſue for our Lord the King, or for himſelfe, in what Countie that pleaſeth him of the Counties of Middleſex, Hertford, Eſſex, Kent, Surrey, or in the Citie of London. Where in a ſuit before the Marſhall, the defendant may plead, that the Plaintiffe or he are not of the Kings houſe.

St.28.Ed.1.3. 13.R.2.2.

In a ſuit commenced before the Marſhall of the Kings houſe the defendant ſhall not be eſtopped to plead that the plaintiffe or he, are not of the Kings houſe.

FIrſt, becauſe that the Stewards and Marſhals of the Kings Houſe, and their Deputies, before this time haue holden before them pleas of Debt, detinue, and other pleas perſonall moued betwixt people which were not of the ſame houſe, making mention in their Records that the plaintiffes and defendants of the ſame pleas were of the ſaid houſe, and doe not allow to the parties defendants in the ſame pleas, their challenges and exceptions by them alledged, that they themſelues, or plaintiffes in the ſame ſuits be not of the ſame houſes, againſt the Lawes and Statutes before this time had and made, whereby diuers of the Kings Liege people in his Court holden before the ſaid Stewards and Marſhals oftentimes againſt the Law, be grieuouſly vexed and troubled to their great damage and hinderance: Our ſaid Lord the King conſidering the Premiſſes, hath ordained by authoritie of the ſame Parliament, that in euery ſuit from henceforth againſt the ſaid defendants to be taken, they ſhall not be eſtopped by ſuch record, to ſay that themſelues, or the plaintiffes in the ſame record ſpecified, were not, at the time of the ſaid plea or ſuit thereof commenced, of the Kings houſe, as by the ſame record is ſuppoſed: but the defendants ſhall haue their auerrement to ſay that they themſelues or the ſaid plaintiffes were not of the ſame houſe at the time of ſuch plea or ſuit commenced, The ſaid record or other matter within the ſame contained notwithſtanding.

No perſon ſhall ſue forth a Subpœna vntill he find ſuretie to ſatisfie the defendant his damages and coſts, if he doe not verifie his Bill.

CAP. V.

What ſort of perſons may be impanelled vpon an Attaint.

ITem, Our Lord the King conſidering that the triall of life and of death, Lands, and Tenements, góods and cattels of euery perſon of his Liege people of this Realme, touching matters in déed by the Law of the ſame Realme, remaine and ſtand, and daily is very likely to be had and made by the othes of Enqueſts of twelue men duely ſummoned in his Courts, and alſo that the great periurie which horribly continueth, and daily increaſeth in the Common Iurors of the ſaid Realme, is moſt likely to tend to the greateſt miſchiefe which may fall to the ſaid Realme, and that it is to be ſuppoſed by reaſon, that the more ſufficient that men be of Lands, & Tenements, the more vnlikely they are to be drawne or moued to periury by brocage, power, or corruption, & that in euery action and writ of Attaint, at the leaſt there muſt be xiij. defendants, vnles that the death of any cauſe the contrary, of which xiij. defendants euery perſon by the Law may haue a ſeuerall plea and anſwere, triable in whatſoeuer Countie that him pleaſeth of the ſaid Realme, and euery of the ſame thirtéene pleas and anſweres triable out of the countie in which the Action and Writ of Attaint is ſued, doth cauſe the delay of the taking of the graund Iurie of Attaint, vntill the time that euery of the ſaid forraine ſeuerall anſweres be tried. And though that all theſe thirtéene ſeuerall anſweres and pleas, euery one after other, to cauſe more delaies be pleaded, tried, and found, againſt theſe thirtéene defendants, they themſelues haue no preiudice by the ſame, nor the plaintiffes in the ſaid Actions and writs of Attaint no other aduantage, but that the Kings Court then ſhall procéed to the taking of the ſaid grand Iury, which by ſubtiltie that daily encreaſeth, may cauſe the delay of the plaintiffes in the ſaid actions and writs of Attaint by ten yeares or more, by common eſtimation: hath ordained by authority aforeſaid, for part of the remedy of the ſaid miſchiefe, that no Sheriffe, Bailiffe of Franchiſe, nor Coroner in Actions, or Writs of Attaint of plea of Land, of the yearly value of xl.s. or more, nor action of Attaint of déeds concerning Lands or Tenements of like value or more, nor perſonall, whereof the Iudgement of the recouery ſhall extend to the ſumme of forty pounds, or more, ſhall returne nor impanell in any inquiſition nor enqueſt, any perſons, but ſuch as be inhabiting within his Bailiwicke, which haue eſtate to their owne vſe, or they to whoſe vſe other perſons haue eſtate of Fée ſimple, Féetaile, or Fréehold, in Lands and Tenements of the yearely value of twenty pound, or more in his Bailiwicke out of ancient demeane, the fiue Ports, and the tenor of Gauelkind, nor ſhall returne in the Kings Court leſſe iſſues in the ſaid actions of Attaint, then xl.s. at the firſt Writ of Diſtreſſe, and C.s. at the ſecond Writ of Diſtreſſe, and the double of euery other Writ of Diſtreſſe againſt the perſons impanelled, and returned to be ſworne in the ſame actions. And that no perſon of leſſe ſufficiencie of Fréehold then of the yearely value of twenty pound, in the forme aforeſaid, ſhall be ſworne in the Kings Court vpon any iſſue in the ſaid actions of Attaint, if he be for the ſame by the plaintiffes in due forme challenged. And that alſo as often as any Sheriffe, Bailiffe of Franchiſe or Coroner doe contrary to this Ordinance, he ſhall pay & by this Statute be bound to pay to the King tenne pound, and to the plaintiffes in the ſaid Actions and Writs of Attaint, for their delay other ten pound. And if any of the forraine anſweres and pleas be tried and found againſt any of the ſaid defendants, that then the ſame Iudgement, againſt the ſame defendants, and for the ſaid plaintiffes ſhall be giuen by the Kings Iuſtices, and conſideration of his Courts, as by the Law ſhould be giuen againſt the ſame defendants, in caſe that the graund Iury in the ſaid Actions & Writs of Attaint vpon the points and Articles of the ſame Writs, had paſſed againſt the ſame defendants, and with the ſaid plaintiffes. CAP. I.

Letters Patents ſhall beare the date of the Kings warrant deliuered into the Chancerie.

FIrſt, whereas by ſuit made to the King by diuers perſons it hath beene deſired by their petitions, to haue offices, fermes, and other things of the gift and grant of the King by his gracious Letters Patents, thereof to them to be made, deſiring by the ſame petitions the ſame Letters Patents of the King, to beare date at a certaine day limited in the ſame, the which day is often long before the Kings grant to them thereupon made, haue borne the ſame date, by reaſon whereof, diuers of the Kings Liege people hauing ſuch Offices, Fermes, and other things of the gift or grant of the King, by his gracious Letters Patents thereof to them long time before duly made, by ſuch ſubtil imagination of ſuch antedates deſired by ſuch Petition, of ſuch Offices, Fermes, and other things often haue béene put out, amoued, and expelled, againſt right, good conſcience, and reaſon: Our ſaid Lord the King, willing to put out ſuch imaginations, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall aforeſaid, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid Commons, hath ordained by authoritie of the ſame Parliament, that of euery warrant hereafter ſent by the ſame our Lord the King, or his heires, to the Chanceller of England, for the time being, the day of the deliuery of the ſame to the Chanceller, ſhall be entred of record in the Chancery. And that the Chanceller doe cauſe Letters Patents to be made vpon the ſame warrant, bearing date the day of the ſaid deliuerie in the Chancery and not before in any wiſe. ITem, where in the Parliament of our Lord the King, holden at Weſtminſter the fiftéenth yeare of his raigne, among other Articles, it was ordained, that no Sheriffe, Bailiffe of franchiſe, nor Coroner, in Action or writs of Attaint, of Plea of Land of the yearely value of xl. s. or more, nor in action of Attaint of Déeds concerning Lands and Tenements, of the yearely value of xl. s. and more, nor in perſonall action, whereof the Iudgement of the recouery extends to xl. li. or more, ſhould returne or impanell in any inquiſition or enqueſt any perſons, but them that be inhabiting within his Bailywicke, which haue eſtate to their vſe, or they to whom other perſons haue eſtate of Fée ſimple, Fée taile, or Fréehold in Lands and Tenements of the yearely value of xx. li. or more, within his Bailiwike out of ancient demeane, fiue ports, and the tenure of Gauelkind, in reſpect of which Ordinance, Séeing within the County of Kent, there be but xxx. or xl. perſons at the moſt, which haue any Lands or Tenements out of the tenure of Gauelkind, becauſe the greater part of the ſaid County or well nigh all, is of the tenure of Gauelkind, which perſons be continually impanelled, and returned in the ſaid actions to the great hinderance and impoueriſhment of the ſame perſons. Our ſaid Lord the King conſidering the premiſſes, hath granted, ordained, and ſtabliſhed by authoritie aforeſaid, that thoſe men which haue eſtate to their vſe, and alſo they to whoſe vſe other men haue eſtate of Féeſimple, Féetaile, or Fréehold in Lands and Tenements, of the yearely value of xx. li. of the tenure of Gauelkind ſhall be returned and impanelled, in all ſuch attaints as be aboue recited, which attaints be not now depending, but may depend in time to come, in the ſame manner and forme as any other perſon may be returned and impanelled, by force of the ſaid ſtatute made the ſaid xv. yeare.

Butter and Cheeſe may be tranſported without licence.

ITem, Whereas in the Statute made the xxj. yeare of King Richard the ſecond, at the grieuous complaint of his Commons, ſhewing how the Staple was limited to reſt at Caleis, and that all maner of Woolles, Woolfels, Leather, Lead, Tinne, Chéeſe, Butter, and Hony, going out of the Realme of England, ought to haue recourſe to the ſaid place of Caleis, and to no place elſewhere: certaine places by their ſuggeſtions, had before that time purchaſed licences to cary out Wools, and other Merchandiſes aforeſaid to what parts beyond the ſea, that pleaſed them of the Kings amitie, to the which their Licences doe extend, without comming to the ſaid place of Caleis, to the great aduantage of the perſons ſo hauing Licences, and great damage of them which haue no Licence: wherfore the ſaid King by authorite of his Parliament holden the yeare aforeſaid, ordained and ſtabliſhed, that the ſaid ſtatute ſhould be holden and obſerued, as to the great Merchandiſes aforeſaid, that is to ſay, Wools, Woolfels, Tinne, & Lead only without Licence thereof to be granted but by the King himſelfe. In reſpect of which ſtatute ſo made, the Chanceller for the time being, often hath denied to grant Licences for Chéeſe and Butter, to be carried to any other place, but onely to the ſame Caleis, to the great damage of the people of this Realme. Our ſaid Lord the King, conſidering that Chéeſe and Butter is a Merchandiſe which cannot be well kept, nor tarry his Merchant, and will be greatly impaired by vermine and wormes, and is alſo tender and of ſo ſimple price, that it cannot well beare the coſts of the Staple, hath ordained by the authority aforeſaid, that the Kings Liege people may conuey and carrie out of his Realme, whether it ſhall pleaſe them, of the Kings amitie, Chéeſe and Butter without any Licence to be purſued in any wiſe, paying for the ſame the Cuſtomes and Subſidies thereof due from time to time, any ſtatute made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Cap. V.

None appointed to be a Collector of a Fifteene in a Citie ſhall be alſo Collector in the ſame Countie: Except he hath Lands, &c.

No man dwelling in any citie or &c. appointed to be collector for the fifteene there, ſhall be ſo in the ſame County.

ITem, whereas heretofore at the time of euery quinzime and diſme, granted to the King or to his Progenitors, the Collectors of the ſame diſmes, within the Cities and Boroughes of his Realme, hauing Citizens, or Burgeſſes of them comming to the Parliament haue often béen deputed and aſſigned of perſons dwelling within the ſame Cities and Boroughs, which and other perſons dwelling in the ſame, haue béene now often now of late made Collectors of the ſame Quinzimes and Diſmes granted to the K. as well in the Counties within which the ſame cities and boroughs be, as within the ſame cities & boroughs, to their great loſſe & damage & likely more to be hereafter if remedy be not prouided. The ſame our Lord the K. willing againſt ſuch loſſe & damage to prouide a remedy in this behalf hath ordained by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no mā dwelling within any city or borough in the ſaid realm, of which citie or borough it hath béen vſed before this time, and yet is, the names of certain men by the perſons for the ſaid citie or borough comming to the Parliament to be deliuered in the Kings Chancery to be Collectors of Diſmes, in the ſame Citie or Borough, and whereupon the King hath ſent his letters patents to the ſame perſons ſo named and deliuered in his Chancery to be Collectors of the Diſmes, or parcell of the ſame within the ſaid citie or borough, and the which Collectors haue vſed and béene bound to accompt of their receit in this behalfe immediatly in the Kings Eſchequer, ſhall in any wiſe be deputed nor aſſigned to be Collector of any Quinzime, or any parcell of the ſame, granted or to be granted to the King or his heires within any County of this Realme, except that he may diſpẽd in the County out of the ſaid citie or borough in lands or tenements to the value of an hundred ſhillings by yeare ouer the charges and repriſes,

Stat. 36.Ed.3.13.

No lands ſhall be granted before the K. title thereunto be found by inquiſition, nor within a moneth after, vnleſſe it be to him that tendreth his trauerſe.

ITem, whereas in a Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the morrow after Saint Mathew the Apoſtle, the eighth yeare of the raigne of our Lord the King that now is, among all other things it was ordained, that no Lands or Tenements ſeiſed into the Kings hands vpon Enqueſts taken before the Eſcheators or Commiſſioners ſhall not be granted nor let in any wiſe to ferme by the Chancellor, or Treaſurer of England, or any other the Kings Officer, vntill the ſame Enqueſts and Verdicts be fully returned into the Chancery or into the Eſchequer, but all ſuch lands and tenements ſhall wholly and continually remaine in the Kings hands, vntill the ſaid Enqueſts and Verdicts be returned, and by a moneth after the ſame returne, if it be not ſo that he or they which féele themſelues grieued by the ſame Enqueſts, or put out of their lands or tenements come into the Chancery, and offer themſelues to trauerſe the ſaid Enqueſts, and offer themſelues to take the ſame lands or tenements to ferme. And if they ſo doe, that then the ſame lands and tenements ſhall be committed to them if they ſhew good euidences prouing their trauerſe to be true, according to the forme of the ſtatute made the ſixe and thirtieth yeare of Edward the third, to hold vntill the iſſue taken vpon the ſame trauerſe be found and diſcuſſed for the King or for the partie, finding ſufficient ſuretie to purſue the ſaid trauers with effect, and to yéeld and pay to the King the yearely value of the lands or tenements, whereof the trauerſe ſhall be ſo taken, if it be adiudged for the King. And if any Letters patents of any lands or tenements bée made to any other perſon to the contrary, or let to farme within the ſaid moneth of the returne, they ſhall be void and holden for none. the which good ſtatute and ordinance diuers perſons deuiſing to ſubuert, and by their ſubtiltie to ſerue as for no purpoſe, haue ſued to obtaine ſuch gifts, and grants, and fermes by the Kings Letters patents, before any inquiſition or title found for the King of the ſame, pretending ſuch gifts and grants not compriſed nor remedied by the ſaid ſtatute, notwithſtanding that it is in like miſchiefe of the ſaid ſtatute: Our ſaid Lord the King, conſidering the premiſſes, and willing to prouide due remedy in this behalfe, hath ordained by the authority aforeſaid, that no Letters patents ſhal be made to any perſõ or perſons of any lands or

Cap. IX.

The warrant of Atturney ſhalbe recorded the ſame Terme that the Exigent is awarded.

ITem, whereas in a ſtatute expired, made the tenth yeare of the reigne of our Lord the King that now is, it was contained, that ſéeing diuers of the Kings liege people before that time, had bin outlawed, vexed, and greatly diſquieted in diuers ſuits as well before the King himſelfe in his Bench, as in the common Bench, in the Records of which ſuits, the entries haue béene made that the plaintiffs in the ſame ſuites, Obtulerunt ſe in propria perſona ſua, where the ſame plaintiffes in the ſame ſuites did not appeare to ſuch ſuites, nor had any knowledge of the ſame, to the great miſchiefs of the ſaid leige people, if remedie ſhould not bée prouided. Our Lord the King willing in this caſe to prouide a remedy, did ordaine by authority of the ſame Parliament, holden the ſame yeare, That no Philizer, Exigenter, nor any other officer from the ſame time ſhould make any ſuch entry in any ſuch ſuit, except that the ſame plaintiffes in the ſame ſuit, before any ſuch Entry ſhall be made, do appeare in his proper perſon before ſome of the Juſtices of the place, where the plea was or ſhall be hanging, and they ſhall be ſworne vpon a booke, that he was the ſame perſon in whoſe name the ſaid ſuit was ſued, or that ſome other credible perſon of his Counſell ſhall make ſuch oath for him. 18.Ed.3.2.
13.R.2.7.
17.R.2.10.

ITem, whereas by Statutes made in the time of the Kings noble Progenitors, it was ordained, that in euery County of England, Iuſtices ſhould be aſſigned of the moſt worthy of the ſame counties to keepe the peace, and to doe other things, as in the ſame Statutes fully is contained, which ſtatutes notwithſtanding, now of late in many counties of England the greateſt number haue beene deputed and aſſigned which before this were not wont to be, whereof ſome be of ſmall behauiour, by whom the people will not be gouerned nor ruled, and ſome for their neceſſitie doe great extortion and oppreſſion vpon the people, whereof great inconueniences be likely to riſe daily, if the King therefore doe not prouide remedie. The King willing againſt ſuch inconueniences to prouide remedie, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed by authoritie afore ſaid, That no Iuſtice of Peace within the Realme of England in any Countie, ſhall be aſſigned or deputed, if he haue not lands or tenements to the value of xx.li. by yeare: and if any be ordained hereafter to be Iuſtices of peace in any County, which hath not lands or tenements to the value aforeſaid, that he thereof ſhall giue knowledge to the Chancelor of England for the time being, which ſhall put another ſufficient in his place, and if he giue not the ſaid knowledge (as before) within a moneth after that he hath notice of ſuch Commiſſion, or if he ſit or make any warrant or precept by force of ſuch Commiſſion, he ſhall incurre the penaltie of xx.li. and neuertheleſſe be put out of the Commiſſion as before, and the King ſhall haue the one halfe of the ſaid penalty, and he that will ſue for the King the other halfe, and he that will ſue for the King and for himſelfe, ſhall haue an action to demand the ſame penalty by writ of debt at the common law.

No man ſhall be Iuſtice of peace, vnleſſe he hath lands to the yearely value of xx.li.

Prouided alwayes, that this ordinance ſhall not extend to cities, townes, or boroughes, which be Counties incorporate of themſelues, nor to cities, townes, or boroughes, which haue Iuſtices of peace of perſons dwelling in the ſame by commiſſion or warrant of the King, or of his progenitors. Prouided alſo that if there be not ſufficient perſons hauing lands and tenements to the value aforeſaid, learned in the law, and of good gouernance within any ſuch Countie, that the Chancellor of England for the time being ſhall haue power to put other diſcreet perſons learned in the Law in ſuch Commiſſions, though they haue not lands or tenements to the value aforeſaid, by his diſcretion.

Certaine perſons excepted to whom this ſtatute doth not extend.

Cap. I.

All Letters of Safe-conduct ſhall be inrolled in the Chancerie.

FIrſt, whereas poore Merchants of the King of this Realme daily bée robbed by the Kings enemies vpon the Sea, and in diuers Riuers and Ports within the ſame Realme, of their Ships, goods, and merchandiſes, of great riches, and their bodies taken and impriſoned, with dureſſe, and put to great fines and ranſomes, and the Kings poore ſubiects dwelling nigh the Sea coaſts taken out of their owne houſes with their Cattells and Infants vpon land, and carried by the ſaid enemies where it pleaſe them, which miſchiefes come by reaſon that the ſaid Merchants be diſcouraged, with force and puiſſance of Shippes, and of people defenſible to kéep the Sea, and the coaſts of the ſame, for that the Shippes, goods and Merchandiſes, by them taken from the ſaid Kings enemies, be ſometimes claimed by the Kings enemies, by colour of Safe-conducts, not duely purchaſed, nor of Record inrolled, ſo that the Kings Subiects may haue notice of them, and ſometime be claimed by Merchants ſtrangers of the Kings amitie, to be due to them, by colour of falſe witneſſes of their nation, & by Letters of Markes and Charters partly by them counterfeited, and by ſuch proues vpon ſuch claimes, be reſtored to the ſame goods and merchandiſes, often taken in Shippes and Veſſels belonging to the Kings enemies, and the ſaid Kings ſubiects put to great vexation and loſſe of their owne goods, whereby the ſaid Kings enemies be greatly inriched, and their Nauy ſtrongly encreaſed, and the Nauy, and Merchandiſe of the ſaid Realme of our Lord the King greatly diminiſhed, and ſuch damages and inconueniences daily be likely to increaſe and come to the ſaid Realme of our ſaid Lord the King, if ſpéedy remedy in this caſe be not prouided.

Our ſaid Lord the King conſidering the premiſſes, and that if people of the Kings amitie be feared and diſcouraged to freight the Ships and Veſſels of the Kings enemies and aduerſaries, their Nauie in time to come will be decreaſed, and diminiſhed, and the Nauie of the Kings ſubiects and friends increaſed, and enlarged: by the aduice and aſſent aforeſaid, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of the ſaid Commons, to eſchew the miſchiefes aforeſaid, hath ordained by authority of the ſaid Parliament, that all Letters of ſafe conduct to be granted to the Kings enemies and aduerſaries, or any other people whatſoeuer, ſhall be enrolled in the Chancery of our ſaid Lord the King of Record, before that any ſuch Letters ſhall be in any wiſe deliuered to them, to whom the ſame Letters ſhall be granted: and that all ſuch Letters of ſafe-conduct hereafter to be granted not inrolled of Record in the ſaid Chancery, before the deliuery to them, to be made, in the manner as is ſaid, ſhall be void and of no force nor effect.

All letters of ſafe conducts which be not enrolled in the chancery before the deliuery of them, ſhall be void. Stat. 18. H. 6. 8.

And moreouer, if hereafter any goods or merchandiſes be taken by the ſaid ſubiects of our Lord the King vpon the ſea, or the coaſts of the ſame, charged in any ſhip or other veſſell, which is belonging to the enemies or aduerſaries of our Lord the King for the time being, not hauing ſufficient Letters of ſafe conducts, inrolled in the forme aforeſaid, that they which ſo ſhall take the ſame goods and merchandiſes, ſhall them inioy without any reſtitution thereof to be made in any wiſe, to whatſoeuer perſon the ſame goods and merchandiſes ſo taken, at the time of the taking of the ſame or before, were belonging.

They which will take benefit by the K. ſafe conduct, muſt haue it ready inrolled at the time of their apprehenſion.

Prouided alwaies, that if the ſubiects of our Lord the King, taking ſuch ſhips charged with merchandiſes, not hauing nor ſhewing ſuch Letters of ſafe conduct within the ſame ſhips at the time of the ſaid taking, and bringing them by force to a certaine port or place within the ſaid realme, ſhall not be endamaged in their perſon nor goods for ſuch taking, if they be ready to make full reſtitution of the ſame ſhips and merchandiſes, within reaſonable time after that full knowledge is made to them of ſufficient Letters of ſafe conduct for the ſame ſhippes and merchandiſes, enrolled in the ſaid Chancery of Record before the taking of them. Prouided alſo that this Ordinance ſhall beginne to hold his force at the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next comming. 14.E.4.4.

Though the ſafe conduct be not preſently ſhewed, yet it doth ſuffice if it be after proued to be inrolled.

Prouided alwayes, that this grant and ordinance ſhall not extend to any perſons which haue licences by the Kings letters patents to them made before this time, to ſhip, cary, or conuaie any wools, woolfels, or tinne to other places or ports beyond the ſea, then to the Staple of Calice, but that they ſhall be of this ordinance clearely diſcharged and excepted.

CAP. V.

No Cuſtomer &c. ſhall haue a Ship of his owne, vſe Merchandiſe, keepe a Wharfe, or, Inne, or be a Factor.

St.11.H.4.2.

The cauſe why a common hoſtler ſhall not be a Cuſtomer Comptroller, or Searcher.

ITem, whereas in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the eleuenth yeare of the raigne of King Henry the fourth, it was ordained and ſtabliſhed, that no man that had a common hoſtry in any citie or borough of this realme, ſhall be cuſtomer, comptroller nor ſearcher, & that to eſchew the damages and preiudices, which thereof may grow by the fauour that ſuch common Hoſtlers way and will make to Merchants, and to other their gueſts in their offices. And now of late diuers Cuſtomers, comptrollers, and alſo ſearchers, comptrollers and ſuruaiors of ſearches, haue diuers perſons to be their clerks, deputies, and miniſters in their ſaid offices, of which clerks, deputies, and miniſters, ſome haue ſhips of their owne, and ſome of them meddle with the fraighting of ſhips, and alſo buy and ſell diuers Merchandiſes, and thereof occupy to their owne vſe diuers wharfes and keyes, being by the waters ſides, where common diſcharge of diuers merchandiſes is had in diuers ports of this Realme, by the which as well great deceit and dammages daily doe grow to the King of his Cuſtomes and Subſidies, as a great loſſe to Merchants repairing to the Ports, where the ſaid Clerkes, Deputies, and Miniſters be: alſo many hold hoſteries and Tauernes, and alſo keepe wharfes, and they and their ſeruants be Factors and atturneyes for Merchants, Denizens, and Aliens, by which great damage and loſſe daily doth grow to the King in his Cuſtomes and Subſidies by fauour that ſuch Clerkes, Deputies, and Miniſters, holding ſuch Hoſteries, Tauernes and Wharfes, doe to Merchants and to other their gueſts in the ſaid offices. And greater damage is like thereof to grow in time to come, if ſpeedy remedy be not prouided. Our ſaid Lord the King, willing againſt ſuch damages and loſſes, to prouide a remedy in this behalfe, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed by authoritie aforeſaid, that no Cuſtomer, Comtroller of the Cuſtome, Clerkes, Deputies, Miniſters, nor their ſeruants, Factors, nor Searchers, Comptrollers or Surueiors of Searches, nor their Clerkes, Deputies, miniſters or Factors ſhall haue any ſhips of their owne, or ſhall buy or ſell by way or by colour of Merchandiſe, nor they ſhall not meddle with the fraighting of ſhips, or haue or occupy any ſuch Wharfes or Keyes, or ſhall hold any hoſteries or Tauernes, or ſhall be any Factors or Atturneies for any Merchant Denizen or Alien, nor ſhall be hoſt to any Merchant Alien, vpon the paine of xl.li. to be forfeit as often as they doe the contrary that is to ſay the one halfe to the king, and the other halfe to him that will ſue in this caſe againſt any ſuch perſon doing the contrary this Ordinance to begin at the Feaſt of Saint Michael next comming.

No Cuſtomer Controller, &c. ſhall haue any ſhip of his own, vſe Merchandiſe, keepe a wharfe, an Inne or be a Factor to another.

Cap. XI.

The order of leuying the wages of the Knights of the Parliament.

ITem, whereas before this time diuers Sheriffes in diuers Counties of England by colour of writs to them directed,to leuy the wages of the Knights of the Shires for the time being of the Parliament of the King that now is,and of his noble progenitors,haue leuyed more money then hath beene due to the ſaid Knights,and more then they haue deliuered,keeping and retaining great part of the money to their owne vſe and profit,to their officers and ſeruants to the great loſſe of the common people of the ſaid Counties. The King conſidering the premiſſes, hath ordained by the authority aforeſaid, that the Sheriffe of euery County for the time being, in the next County Court holden in their Counties,after the deliuery of the ſaid writs directed to them ſhall make open Proclamation, that the Coroners and euery chiefe Conſtable of the Peace of the ſaid Counties,and the Bailiffes of euery Hundred or Wapentake of the ſame County, and alſo other which will be at the aſſeſſing of the wages of the Knights of the Shires ſhal be at the next Countie there to be holden to aſſeſſe the ſaid wages of the ſaid Knights. And that the Sheriffe,Vnderſheriffe,Coroners,or Bailiffes for the time being,be there at the ſame time in their proper perſon,vpon paine of forfeiture to the King of euery of them that maketh default, fortie ſhillings. At which time the ſaid Sheriffe or Vnderſheriffe in the preſence of them that ſhall come to the ſame,and of the ſutors of the ſame Counties then being there in the full County,well and duely ſhall aſſeſſe euery hundred to that aſſeſſable by it ſelfe, to pay a certaine ſumme for the wages of the Knights of the Shire,ſo that the whole ſumme of all the hundreds doe not exceed the ſumme which ſhall be due to the ſaid Knights. And after that in the ſame County they ſhal aſſeſſe well and lawfully, euery Village within the ſaid Hundreds, which ſhould be there aſſeſſable to a certaine ſumme for the payment of the ſaid wages, ſo that the whole ſumme of all the townes within any of the ſaid hundreds doe not exceed the ſumme aſſeſſed vpon the hundred of which they be. And that the ſaid Sheriffes,Vnderſheriffes,Bailiffes,nor any other officer, for the cauſe aforeſaid ſhal leuy more money of any Village then that whereunto they were aſſeſſed: and if any doe,or will aſſeſſe any hundred or village, otherwiſe then is aforeſaid, that they ſhall forfeit for euery default to the King twenty pound, and to any man which will ſue in this caſe tenne pound.

And that the ſaid Sheriffes well and duely ſhall leuy the money ſo aſſeſſed vpon the aforeſaid Villages, as ſpeedily as they well may after the ſaid aſſeſſing, and the ſame ſhall deliuer to the ſaid Knights, according to the writs thereof to be made vpon the ſaid penalties. And he that will ſue in this caſe, ſhall be thereunto admitted, and ſhall haue for his action in this caſe a Scire facias, againſt him that offendeth contrary to this Ordinance, & if the defendant duly warned in the ſame make default, or elſe appeare and be in the ſame conuict, that then the Plaintiffes ſhall recouer againſt them which be ſo conuict, ten pound to their owne vſe, ouer the ſaid twenty pound, with their treble damages for the coſts of their ſuits.

Who may enquire of, heare, & puniſh the offenders aforeſaid.

And the Juſtices of the Kings Bench, and of the Common place, Juſtices of Aſſiſes, and goal deliuery, and Juſtices of Peace in their countrey, ſhall haue power to enquire, heare, and determine of all the ſaid defaults, as well by enquiry at the Kings ſuits, as by action at the ſuit of the parties. And that all ſuch expences of Knights ſhall not be leuied of any other Villages ſeigniories or places, but of ſuch, whereof it hath béene leuyed before this time.

The Knights wages ſhall bee leuyed but in ſuch places where they haue beene.

And that in euery ſuch Writ from henceforth to be made to leuy the wages of the ſaid Knights, This Act ſhall be comprehended in the ſame. Regiſt.fol.192. Raſt.pla.fol.595. Fitz. Auowrie.260. St.35.H.8.11.

Cap. XIIII.

The penaltie of a Subiects taker, taking any thing without the owners conſent.

The penalty if a Subiects Cator or other, doe take any thing againſt the owners will.

ITem, the King hath ordained and ſtabliſhed by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if any buyer or other officer of the Duke of Glocester, or of any other Lord or perſon of what eſtate, degrée, or condition that he be, preſume vpon him to take, or elſe doe take any victuals, corne, hay, cariages, or any other thing whatſoeuer, of any of the Kings liege people in any wiſe againſt their will, without lawfull bargaine betwixt the ſaid buyers or officers, and the ſaid liege people thereof to be made, to the vſe of the ſaid Duke or other Lord for their houſes, but only for the King and the Quéene, and their houſes, that then if notice or requeſt be made to the Maior, Sheriffe, Bailiffe, Conſtable, Officers, or other of the Kings Miniſters of Cities and Boroughs, or other Counties or places where ſuch taking ſhall happen to be, that then the ſaid Maior, Sheriffe, Conſtable, Officer and miniſter, to whom ſuch notice and requeſt ſhall be made, preſently ſhall take & arreſt all ſuch buyers and officers ſo doing or offending, and them ſhall ſend to the Kings next priſon, there to remaine and not to be let to baile nor mainpriſe, vntill they haue redeliuered the ſaid victuals, cariages, and other things ſo taken, or the very value of the ſame. And if the ſaid Maior, Sheriffes, Bailiffes, Conſtables, and Officers aforeſaid doe contrary to this, that then they ſhall forfeit twentie pound, whereof the King ſhall haue the one halfe, and the party from whom ſuch things be taken, the other halfe, if he will ſue by an action of debt, in the which the defendant ſhall not wage his Law: and if he will not ſue, whoſoeuer will ſue for the King and himſelfe ſhall haue the ſuit to recouer to himſelfe the one halfe therof, & the King the other halfe: And if any of the ſaid buyers, other then of the King and the Quéene, be duely conuict of ſuch vnlawfull taking (as afore is recited) at the ſuit of ſuch parties as ſhall ſue them in this behalf, that then they ſhall yéeld to the partie which ſo ſueth the treble value of the vitailes, or other thing ſo taken, and the double coſts of their ſuits, and for the ſaid treſpaſſe to make fine and ranſome to the King. And that in all ſuch actions or ſuits aforeſaid the Kings protection ſhall not be allowed nor auaileable for the defendant. And this Ordinance ſhall begin to take effect at the Feaſt of Eaſter which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, one thouſand foure hundred forty and ſixe. Cap. XV.

Who ſhall be Knights for the Parliament. The maner of their election. The remedie where one is choſen and another returned.

Sta.1.H.5.11

ITem, wheras by authoritie of a Parliament holden at Weſtminſt. the firſt yeare of the raign of King Henry, father to the King that now is, amongſt other things it was ordained, that the Citizens and Burgeſſes of Cities, and Boroughs, comming to the Parliament, ſhould be choſen men, Citizens and Burgeſſes reſiant, abiding and free in the ſame Cities, & Boroughs, and none other, as in the ſame Statute more fully is contained, which Citizens, and Burgeſſes haue alwaies in Cities and Boroughs, beene choſen by Citizens and Burgeſſes, and no other, and to the Sheriffe of the Counties returned, and vpon their returnes receiued and accepted by the Parliament before this holden. And alſo whereas by authoritie of a Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the eight yeare of the raign of the King that now is, it was ordained in what maner and forme the Knights of the Shires comming to the Parliaments from thenceforth to be holden ſhould be choſen, and how the Sheriffes of the ſame Counties thereupon ſhould make their returnes, as in the ſame Statute more fully appeareth: by force of which Statute elections of Knights to come to the Parliaments ſometime haue beene duely made and lawfully returned, vntill now of late that diuers Sheriffes of the Counties of the Realme of England, for their ſingular auaile and lucre, haue not made due elections of the Knights, nor in conuenient time, nor good men and true returned, and ſometime no returne of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes lawfully choſen to come to the Parliaments, but ſuch Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes haue bin returned, which were neuer duely choſen, and other Citizens and Burgeſſes then thoſe which by the Maiors and Bailiffes were to the ſaid Sheriffes returned: and ſometime the Sheriffes haue not returned the writs, which they had to make election of Knights to come to the Parliaments, but the ſaid writs haue imbeſiled, and moreouer made no precept to the Maior and Bailiffe, or to the Bailiffes or Bailiffe, where no Maior is of Cities and Boroughes, for the election of Citizens and Burgeſſes to come to the Parliament, by the colour of theſe words contained in the ſame writs: Quod in pleno comitatu tuo eligi facias pro comitatu tuo duos milites, & pro qualibet ciuitate in comitatu tuo duos ciues, & pro quolibet burgo in comitatu tuo duos burgenſes, & alſo becauſe ſufficient penaltie and conuenient remedy for the party in ſuch caſe grieued is not ordained in the ſaid Statutes againſt the Sheriffe, Maiors, and Bailiffes, which do contrary to the forme of the ſaid Statutes: The King conſidering the premiſſes, hath ordained by authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Statutes ſhall be duely kept in all points: and moreouer, that euery Sheriffe, after the deliuery of any ſuch writ to him made, ſhall make and deliuer, without fraud, a ſufficient precept vnder his ſeale, to euery Maior and Bailiffe, or to Bailiffes or Bailiffe where no Maior is of the Cities and Boroughs, within his Countie, reciting the ſaid writ, commanding them by the ſame precept, if it be a City, to chuſe by Citizens of the ſame City Citizens, and in the ſame manner and forme, if it be a Borough, by the Burgeſſes of the ſame to come to the Parliament. And that the ſame Maior and Bailiffes, or Bailiffes or Bailiffe where no Maior is, ſhall returne lawfully the precept to the ſame Sheriffes, by indentures betwixt the ſame Sheriffe and them to be made of the ſaid elections, and of the names of the ſaid Citizens and Burgeſſes, by them ſo choſen, and thereupon euery Sheriffe ſhall make a good and rightfull returne of euery ſuch writ, and of euery returne by the Maiors and Bailiffes, or Bailiffes or Bailiffe, where no Maior is, to him made. And that euery Sheriffe at euery time that he doth contrary to this ſtatute or any other ſtatutes for the election of Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes, to come to the Parliament before this time made, ſhall incurre the paine contained in the ſaid ſtatute made the ſaid eight yeare, and moreouer ſhall forfeit and pay to euery perſon hereafter choſen Knight, Citizen or Burgeſſe in his Countie, to come to any Parliament, and not duly returned, or to any other perſon, which in default of ſuch Knight, Citizen or Burgeſſe will ſue, an hundred pound, whereof euery Knight, Citizen and Burgeſſe ſo grieued ſeuerally, or any other perſon which in their default will ſue, ſhall haue his action of debt againſt the ſaid Sheriffe, or his Executors or Adminiſtrators, to demand and haue the ſaid hundred pound, with his coſtes ſpent in that caſe. And that, in ſuch action taken by vertue of this ſtatute, the defendant ſhall not wage his law of the demand aforeſaid in any wiſe, and that no defendant in ſuch action ſhall haue any eſſoine. And in the ſame manner at euery time that any Maior and Bailiffes, or Bailiffes or Bailiffe, where no Maior is, ſhall returne other then thoſe which be choſen by the Citizens and Burgeſſes of the Cities or Boroughes, where ſuch elections be, or ſhall be made, ſhall incurre and forfeit to the King fortie pound: and moreouer ſhall forfeit and pay to euery perſon hereafter choſen Citizen or Burgeſſe to come to the Parliament, & not by the ſame Maior and Bailiffes, or Bailiffes or Bailiffe, where no Maior is, returned, or to any other perſon, which in default of ſuch Citizen or Burgeſſe ſo choſen will ſue, fortie pound, whereof euery of the Citizens and Burgeſſes ſo grieued ſeuerally, or any other perſon which in their default will ſue, ſhall haue his action of debt againſt euery of the ſaid Maior and Bailiffes, or Bailiffes or Bailiffe, where no Maior is, againſt their Executors or Adminiſtrators, to demand and haue of euery of the ſaid Maiors and Bailiffes, or Bailiffes or Bailiffe, where no Maior is, fortie pound, with his coſtes in this caſe expended. And that in ſuch action of debt taken by force of this ſtatute, no defendant in any wiſe ſhall wage his law of the ſaid demand, nor haue any eſſoine.

A penalty inflicted vpon thoſe that ſhall keepe Faires or Markets vpon Sundaies.

ſelues and their ſeruants from diuine Seruice. The foreſaid Lord the King, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons of this Realme of England, being in the ſaid Parliament, and by authority of the ſame Parliament, hath ordained that all manner of Faires and Markets in the ſaid principall Feaſts, and Sundayes, and Good-friday, ſhall clearely ceaſe from all ſhewing of any goods or merchandiſes (neceſſary victual only except) vpon paine of forfeiture of all the goods aforeſaid ſo ſhewed, to the Lord of the Franchiſe or Libertie, where ſuch goods, contrary to this ordinance, be, or ſhall be ſhewed (the foure Sundayes in Harueſt except.) Neuertheleſſe of his ſpeciall grace, by authority aforeſaid, granteth to them power, which of old time had no day to hold their Faire or Market, but oncly vpon the feſtiual dayes aforeſaid, to hold by the ſame authority and ſtrength of his old grant, within three dayes next before the ſaid Feaſts or next after, Proclamation firſt made to the ſimple common people, vpon which day the aforeſaid Faire ſhall be holden, alwaies to be certified without any fine or fee to be taken to the Kings vſe. And they which of old time haue by ſpeciall grant ſufficient dayes before the Feaſts aforeſaid, or after, ſhall in like manner as is aforeſaid, hold their Fairs and Markets the full number of their daies. The ſaid Feſtiuall dayes and Sundayes, and Goodfriday except.

Prouided alwaies, that this preſent ordinance ſhall begin to take effect at the Feaſt of Saint Michael next comming, and not before, and ſhall endure vntill the next Parliament, and ſo forth, except in the ſaid Parliament a reaſonable cauſe be alledged, ſhewed and proued, for the which it ſhall ſeeme not expedient that the foreſaid ordinance ſo ſhall endure.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter, Anno 28. Hen. 6. & Anno Domini 1449.

TO the honour of God, and of holy Church, and for the Common wealth and profit of all the Realm of England. Our Lord the King HENRY the ſixt after the conqueſt, by aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt of the Commons in the Parliament aſſembled of our Soueraigne Lord the King, that now is, holden at Weſtminſter the ſixt day of Nouember, the eight and twentieth yeare of his raign, by authority of the ſame Parliament, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed certaine Ordinances and Statutes in manner and forme following.

CAP. I.

A Rehearſall and confirmation for ſeuen yeares, of the Statute of 27.*H.6.*1. prohibiting Merchandiſes growing or wrought in Holland, Zeland and Brabant, to be brought into this Realme, vntill Engliſh Cloth may be ſold there. EXP.

CAP. II.

The penalty for taking any perſons Horſes or Cart without the deliuery of the Owner, or ſome Officer, or for taking money to ſpare them.

ITem, Whereas diuers Hoſtlers, Brewers, and other Victualers, keeping hoſteries and other houſes of retailing of victuals in diuers places in this Realme, haue purchaſed the Kings Letters Patents, ſome to them for terme of life, and ſome to them & to other ioyntly for terme of their liues, to take Horſes and Carts for the cariage of the King and Queene, more for their priuate and ſingular lucre and profit, then for any faithfull ſeruice of the King, or of the Queene: by colour of which Letters Patents they daily take horſes and carts where that no need is, and bring them to their hoſteries and other places of their affinitie, and there keepe them ſecretly, ſometime vntill they haue ſpent xx.d. or xl.d. of their ſtuffe, and ſometime more, and then they make the owners of the ſaid horſes and carts to pay for the ſame before that they can get deliuerie of their horſes and carts, and ſome till they haue made a fine with them for ſuch horſes and carts at their will. And of ſome of the Kings people they take fines to ſhew fauour, and not to take their horſes and Carts, ſo that diuers perſons of the Kings Liege people in this noble Realme, be greatly indamaged by the ſaid takers, aſwell for the none paiment of the hire of the ſaid horſes and carts, as for the great charge they haue for their meat and fines made for their deliuerie after they be ſo taken. Our ſaid Lord the King by the aduice and aſſent aforeſaid hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that all ſuch Letters Patents, granted to any perſon or perſons holding any Hoſteries, Brewhouſes, or houſe of retailing of Victuall ſhall be void, and of no value, nor effect, and if any ſuch grant be made to any ſuch perſon or perſons from henceforth that all ſuch Patents ſo granted ſhall be void and of none effect. And that no perſon or perſons ſhall take horſe nor cart in any place within this Realme, but by the deliuerie of the Maior, Sheriffe, Bailiffes, or Conſtable, where ſuch taking ſhall be had. And if any ſuch perſon or perſons take any horſe or cart, of any perſon or perſons without agreement made to the poſſeſſor for the ſame, and by the deliuerie of the Maior, Sheriffe, Bailiffe, or Conſtable where ſuch takings ſhall be had, that then he or they, from whom ſuch horſe or cart is taken, and he or they of whom ſuch fines or paiments be taken, as is afore rehearſed, ſhall haue an Action of treſpas at the common Law for ſuch takings. And that he or they that feeleth himſelfe grieued in ſuch action ſhall recouer treble damages againſt him or them which ſo take any horſe or Cart, fines or paiment, contrary to this Ordinance. Sauing alwaies to the King his prerogatiue and his preheminẽce of and in the Premiſſes. St. 3. Ed. 1. 31. 20. R. 2. 5.

Cap. V.

The penaltie for the Officers of the Cuſtome, which by colour of their offices ſhall diſtraine any mans ſhippes or goods.

ITem, whereas diuers Waterbailiffes Searchers, Comptrollers of ſearches, and other their deputies and ſeruants within the Ports of this Realme, and ſpecially within the Ports of Fowey, Plimmouth, Dertmouth, and Pole, by color of their offices daily doe wrongfully take by conſtraint of diſtreſſes and arreſts vpon the Ships, Barges, Balengers, and other veſſells, goods and merchandiſes of the Kings liege Merchants of this ſaid Realme, and among all other vpon the Kings liege Merchants of Gaſcoine, Guien, Ireland, Gerneſey, and Garneſey, in their comming and going in the ſaid Ports great charges and impoſitions, that is to ſay, for euerie piece of Creſcloth, foure pence, for euery hundred of Canuas, ſixe pence, for the weight of euery tunne of Iron, twelue pence, and ſome time more, and likewiſe of all other goods and merchandiſes of the ſaid liege people and other Merchants of the Kings amity: And by ſuch wrongfull diſtreſſes, arreſts, charges, and impoſitions, they do diſcourage the ſaid Merchants freely to come into this ſaid Realme, and to returne, contrary to all Law and conſcience, to the great preiudice of our ſaid Lord the King, in loſſe of his Cuſtomes and Subſidies, and to the great damage of the ſaid Merchants, and their ſucceſſors, vnleſſe due remedie thereof be had in the ſame, By aduice, aſſent, and authoritie aforeſaid, it is ordained and eſtabliſhed, that the ſaid Merchants, their ſucceſſors and euerie of them, of all ſuch iniuries, diſtreſſes, arreſts, charges, and impoſitions, afore recited, to be made to them or any of them, as well by ſuch Waterbailiffes, Searchers, and Comptrollers of the ſearch, as by Collectors of the ſaid cuſtomes and ſubſidies, Comptrollers of the ſame, Surueiors of the cuſtomes and ſubſidies, and of the ſearch packers, or any other officers, or their deputies or ſeruants, by their commandement, or any of them hereafter, may haue thereupon a generall writ of treſpaſſe, againſt ſuch offendors & euery of them, according to the forme of the law, and to recouer againſt them and euery of them, thereof ſo conuicted, fortie pound. And that the ſaid Merchants, their ſucceſſors and euery of them ſo grieued (as before is ſaid) ſhall purſue the ſaid Writ of Treſpas, againſt the ſaid offendors and euery of them, for ſuch iniuries, diſtreſſes, arreſts, charges and impoſitions ſo to be made, as afore is ſaid, within two moneths next after ſuch iniuries, diſtreſſes, arreſts, charges and impoſitions, to be made by them or any of thẽ, as before is ſaid. And in caſe that the ſaid Merchants, their ſucceſſors, or ſome of them doe not purſue the ſaid Writ of Treſpaſſe, of ſuch iniuries, diſtreſſes, arreſts, charges and impoſitions aforeſaid, againſt the ſaid offendors, nor any of them within the ſaid two moneths, that then it ſhall be lawfull to euery other perſon of the Kings liege people to purſue the ſaid writ of treſpas

Cap. IX.

A remedie for a woman inforced to be bound by Statute or Obligation.

ITem, whereas in all parts of this Realme diuers people of great power, moued with vnſatiable couetouſneſſe againſt all right, humanity, integrity and good conſcience, haue ſought and found new inuentions, and them continually doe execute, to the danger, trouble, and great abuſing of all Ladies, Gentlewomen, ane other women ſole, hauing any ſubſtance of lands, tenements, or other moueable goods within this Realme, perceiuing their great weakneſſe and ſimplicity, will take them by force, or otherwiſe come to them, ſeeming to be their great friends promiſing them their faithful friendſhip, and ſo by great diſſimulation, or otherwiſe, get them into their poſſeſſion, conueying them into ſuch places where the ſaid offenders be of moſt power: and when any woman by ſuch meanes, or by any other meane be in their gouernment, the ſaid euill diſpoſed perſon or perſons will not ſuffer them to goe at large, and be at their libertie, vntil that they will bind themſelues to the ſaid offendors, or other perſon or perſons, to their vſe, in great ſummes, by Obligation or Obligations, aſwell ſimple as conditional, or by Obligation or Obligations of Statute Merchant, made before a Maior or Bailiffes, hauing power to take ſuch Recogniſances.

Alſo they will many times compell them to be maried by them, contrary to their owne likings, or otherwiſe they will leuy the ſaid ſumme or ſummes on their lands and goods, and put their perſon or perſons in danger, to their great damage, which hath beene and is like to be an vniuerſall preiudice to the law of holy Church, and the law of this Realme, vnleſſe due remedie thereupon be prouided. Our ſaid Lord the King conſidering the premiſſes, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed by authority of this preſent Parliament, that in all ſuch caſes aforeſaid, the partie bound may haue a writ out of the Chancery, containing all the matter of their vnreaſonable entreatie, directed to the Sheriffe of the County, where any ſuch offences were ſo done, or after ſhall be done, commanding him, that he by force of this writ make proclamation, in the full countie, and in the next County Court, after the receit of the ſaid writ, that the perſon or perſons contained in the ſaid writ, ſhall appeare at a certain day & place prefixed in the ſaid writ, before the Chancellor of England for the time being, or otherwiſe before the Juſtices of Aſſiſes in the Counties, where the ſaid offences were done, or elſe before ſome other notable perſon to be aſſigned by the Chanceller of England, for the time being, at the which day and place if the ſaid parties appeare, that then the ſaid Chancellor of England, Juſtice, or other perſon ſo to be aſſigned by the Chancellor, for the time being, by vertue of this ordinance, ſhall duely examine the ſaid parties vpon the premiſſes. By which examination, if they can find the ſaid Obligation or Obligations, or any of them ſo to be made, as is aforeſaid, that then the ſaid Obligation or Obligations, and all proceſſe and execution ſued, or to be purſued thereupon ſhall be void, and of no force nor effect. And if it be found by examination before them, that the ſaid obligation or obligations or any of them were made, or ſhall be found to be made for a true duetie, and by no ſuch meanes as afore is ſaid, that then the ſaid Obligation or Obligations, and all the proces and execution ſued or to be purſued thereupon, ſhall ſtand good and effectuall. And if it be ſo that the perſon or perſons in ſuch Writs named or to be named, againſt whom any ſuch Letters or Writs, hereafter ſhall be ſued, make default at the day and place limited in the ſame Writ or Writs, that then all ſuch Obligation or Obligations, as be before ſpecified, and declared, and in the ſaid Writ or Writs expreſſed, declared, and ſpecified, and all maner of Proces and execution ſued or to be ſued thereupon, ſhall be void, and of no force, nor effect. And that the ſaid Sheriffe or Sheriffes, to whom ſuch Writ or Writs vpon this ordinance hereafter commenced, ſhall be directed, ſhall execute the ſaid Writs according to the tenor of the ſame, vpon paine of three hundred pound, whereof our Soueraigne Lord the King to haue the one halfe, and the other halfe, to the party which ſhal ſue the ſaid Writ of Proclamation. And that the ſaid party ſo grieued may haue an action of debt in euery ſuch caſe againſt the ſaid Sheriffe for the halfe of the ſaid three hundred pound ſo forfeit, with Proces of Outlarie. Statutes made at Weſtminſter, Anno triceſimo tertio Henrici ſexti, & Anno Domini 1455.

HENRIE by the grace of God King of England and France, & Lord of Ireland, the ſixt after the Conqueſt, at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the ninth day of Iuly, the three and thirtieth yeare of his raign, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spiritual & Temporal, and the Commons of his realme of England, being in the ſame Parliament, and by authority of the ſame Parliament, made and ordained certaine Ordinances and Statutes for the Common wealth of the ſame Realme in the forme following.

Cap. I.

A remedie for Executers againſt ſeruants that imbecill their Maſters goods after his death.

FIrſt, our foꝛeſaid Loꝛd the King conſidering how that of late time, diuers houſhold ſeruants as well of Loꝛds, as of other perſons of good degrée, ſhoꝛtly after the death of their ſaid Loꝛds and maſters, violently and riotouſly haue taken and ſpoiled the goods which were of their ſaid Loꝛds and Maſters at the time of their death, and the ſame diſtributed amongſt them, to the impediment of the execution of the Will of their ſaid Loꝛds and Maſters, and to the great diſpleaſure of God, and alſo contrary to the duty and truth, which they ought to haue had towards their ſaid Loꝛds and Maſters, and to a perilous example in time to come, vnleſſe due remedy in this behalfe be pꝛouided: wherefoꝛe the ſame Loꝛd the King, by the aduice, aſſent and authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, hath oꝛdained and eſtabliſhed, that after full infoꝛmation made to the Chauncelloꝛ of England foꝛ the time being, by the executoꝛs of any ſuch Loꝛds oꝛ perſon, oꝛ two of the ſame executoꝛs of ſuch riot, taking, and ſpoile made, oꝛ hereafter to be made by the houſhold ſeruants of their oꝛ his ſaid teſtatoꝛ after his death, the ſame Chancelloꝛ by the aduice of the chiefe Iuſtices of the Kings Bench, and of the Common Bench, and chiefe Baron of the Exchequer foꝛ the time being, oꝛ two of them, ſhall haue power to make ſo many, and ſuch Writs to be directed to ſuch Sheriffes by their diſcretion, as to them in this behalfe ſhall ſéeme neceſſary, to make open pꝛoclamation in ſuch Cities, Boꝛoughes, Townes, oꝛ place, two market daies, within twelue daies next after the deliuery of the ſame wꝛits, as to the ſame Chancelloꝛ by the aduice afoꝛeſaid ſhall ſéeme reaſonable, that the ſaid offendoꝛs ſhall appeare befoꝛe the ſame our Loꝛd the King, oꝛ his heires in his Bench, at ſuch a day as by the ſaid wꝛit ſhall be limited, ſo that the ſaid laſt pꝛoclamation be made by fiftéene daies befoꝛe the ſame day of appearance. And if any ſuch wꝛit be returned at the day contained in the ſaid wꝛit, and the wꝛit be executed, that pꝛoclamation is thereupon had and made accoꝛding to the ſaid oꝛdinance, and then if the ſaid perſon oꝛ perſons which ſhould appeare by reaſon of the ſaid pꝛoclamation, make default at the day ſpecified in the ſaid wꝛit, and doe not appeare, then he oꝛ they ſo making default, ſhall be attainted of felony.

A remedie foꝛ the Executoꝛs againſt a ſeruant of their Teſtatoꝛs, which imbeſled his maſters goods after his death: Raſt pla. fol. 572.

And if any ſuch perſon oꝛ perſons doe appeare at the ſame day, then the Iuſtices of the ſaid Kings Bench, ſhal haue power by the ſaid oꝛdinance, to commit ſuch perſon oꝛ perſons, ſo appearing, to pꝛiſon, there to remaine accoꝛding to the ſaid Iuſtices diſcretion, vntill the ſaid offenders in the ſaid Bench, doe anſwere to the ſaid Executoꝛs in ſuch actions, which the ſaid Executoꝛs will declare againſt them oꝛ any of them, by Bil oꝛ by Writ, foꝛ the riot, taking and ſpoiling afoꝛeſaid, and that the ſame actions be determined. So that the ſame actions be purſued with effect, and not ſlackly, to the intent to kéepe the ſame perſon oꝛ perſons in pꝛiſon.

And if ſuch perſon oꝛ perſons be ſet at liberty out of pꝛiſon by the ſaid Iuſtices, that then the ſame perſon oꝛ perſons ſhall find ſufficient perſons to be bounden with them to the ſaid executoꝛs by way of Recogniſance in the ſaid Bench, by diſcretion of the Iuſtices, to kéep ſuch daies as he oꝛ they ſhall haue by the ſame Court. And if the kéepers of the pꝛiſon, whereunto the ſaid perſon oꝛ perſons be committed, doe let them goe at large out of the pꝛiſon, of his owne authoꝛitie, without the conſideration and oꝛder of the ſaid Iuſtices, then the ſaid Kéeper ſhall foꝛfeit and loſe foꝛtie pound to the ſaid executoꝛs. And that no pꝛotection be allowed in any action, to be taken vpon the ſaid oꝛdinance.

A Gaolours foꝛfeiture foꝛ letting at liberty a pꝛiſoner committed to his cuſtody by foꝛce of this Statute.

CAP. II.

Iurors in an Indictment in the Countie of Lancaſter, of a Foraine dwelling in another Countie.

ITem, becauſe that the humble and faithfull liege people of the King, his ſubiects inhabiting within the countie palatine of Lancaſter to doe the King ſeruice, be, and at all times were ready, and haue done to him and his progenitors, as well in the Realme of England, as in the realme of Scotland, France, and other parts, and haue béene gouerned by the Kings lawes, and not damnified by the ſame, otherwiſe thẽ other of the Kings liege people inhabiting in the realm of England out of the ſaid county, vntill now of late by a certaine Statute at the laſt parliament holden at Reading, it was ordained and eſtabliſhed, that none of the Kings liege people againſt whom any exigend ſhould be awarded or outlagary pronounced at the ſuit of the King, or of the party in the ſaid county, ſhould forfeit any goods or cattels, lands, or tenements in any county, but onely the goods and cattels, lands and tenements, which the perſons ſo outlawed, or they againſt whom any ſuch exigend in the ſaid County ſhould be awarded, haue in the ſame County of Lancaſter, and by reaſon of any ſuch outlagary, at the ſuit of the King, or at the ſuit of the party pronounced within the ſame County, ſhould not be barred or diſabled of any manner of action, nor to claime any maner inheritance out of the ſame County, notwithſtanding any outlawrie againſt them pronounced, as in the ſame act doth more plainly appeare.

A rehearſall of the Statute of 20.H.6 2.& 31. H.6.6. That they which be outlawed in the County of Lancaſter ſhall forfeit no lands nor goods that they haue in other Counties.

And by reaſon of the ſame act, if any foraine ſhould come into the ſaid County Palatine, and ſhould ſlea any of the liege people of our Lord the King, or ſhould commit any treaſon, murder, rape, robbery, or other felony or treſpaſſe, or make any contract, or doe any other offence within the ſaid County of Lancaſter, that then he ſhould haue no other puniſhment nor forfeiture in this behalfe, but onely of ſuch goods, which ſuch foraines doing and committing ſuch horrible offences, haue within the ſaid County Palatine, which for the moſt part haue nothing within the ſame County. For which cauſe the ſaid foraines, knowing no perill, puniſhment, nor loſſe of goods in the law, to refraine or reſtraine them of ſuch treaſons, murders and felonies, be the more encouraged daily to commit the ſame within the ſaid County, and giueth them audacitie, daily to offend againſt the lawes of the King, his Crowne, and Dignity, and alſo in reſtraint of the Kings Laws, to the great loſſe and finall deſtruction of the ſaid liege people and ſubiects in the ſaid County Palatine: whereof the foreſaid Lord the King conſidering the premiſſes, by the aduice, aſſent and authoritie aforeſaid, hath willed, granted, and eſtabliſhed, that the act before rehearſed and made at the ſaid laſt Parliament holden at Reading, ſhall be adnulled, void and ſtand in no force. And further for the conſeruation, tranquility, quietneſſe and peace of all his liege people, as well within the ſaid County Palatine, as of other his liege people out of the ſaid Countie, within the Realme of England, the ſame Lord the King by authority aforeſaid, hath granted, ordained and ſtabliſhed, that euery enditement hereafter to be taken before any of the Kings Iuſtices in the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, or before any Sheriffe in his turne, in the ſaid County, whereby any perſon or perſons be ſuppoſed by the ſame enditement to be or to haue béene inhabiting or conuerſant out of the ſaid County of Lancaſter, and within any other County within the Realme of England, ſhall be taken and had by the verdict of twelue men, whereof euery of them or ſome other perſon or perſons to their vſe within the ſame County of Lancaſter, ſhall haue to the yearely value of an hundred ſhillings. And no proceſſe ſhall be made out of any ſuch enditement before it be duely inquired and examined before the Kings Iuſtices within the ſaid County of Lancaſter for the time being, whether the ſaid enditors, and euery of them, at the time of ſuch enditement ſo taken, had lands and tenements within the ſaid County of Lancaſter, to the yearely value of an hundred ſhillings aboue all charges. And if it be found by examination of the ſaid Iuſtices for the time being, within the ſaid Countie, that the ſaid enditors and euery of them at the time of ſuch enditement ſo taken, had not lands and tenements to the yearely value aforeſaid, that then the ſame enditement, as to ſuch perſons ſo endited, ſuppoſed by the ſaid enditements to be inhabiting and conuerſant out of the ſaid Countie of Lancaſter, ſhall be void and of no effect. And alſo the ſame Lord the King, of the aduice and authoritie aforeſaid, hath granted, ordained, and ſtabliſhed, that euery enditement from henceforth to be taken within any County of the ſaid Realme, and out of the ſaid County of Lancaſter, before any Iuſtice, or the Sheriffe in his turne, whereby any perſon or perſons ſuppoſed by the ſame enditement to be, or to haue béen conuerſant or inhabiting within the ſaid County of Lancaſter, and without ſuch County where ſuch enditements ſhall happen to be taken, ſhall be taken by verdict of twelue men, whereof euery of them, or ſome other perſon or perſons to their vſe, ſhall haue lands and tenements within the ſame Countie where the ſaid inditements ſhall be taken, to the yearely value of an hundred ſhillings. And that no proceſſe be made out of any ſuch enditements, before it be duely examined and inquired before the Kings Iuſtices, hauing power to award any proceſſe vpon ſuch enditements, whether the ſaid enditors and euery of them, at the time of ſuch enditements taken,

Cap. VII.

How many Atturnies may be in Norfolke, how many in Suffolke and in Norwich.

ITem, whereas of time not long paſt within the Citie of Norwich, and the Connties of Norfolke and Suffolke, there were no more but ſixe or eight Atturnies at the moſt, comming to the Kings Courts, in which time great tranquility raigned in the ſaid Citie & Counties, little trouble or vexation was made by vntrue and foraine ſuits. And now ſo it is, that in the ſaid Citie and Counties there be fourſcore Atturnies or more, the more part of them hauing no other thing to liue vpon, but onely his gaine by the practiſe of Atturneyſhip: and alſo the more part of them not being of ſufficient knowledge to be an Atturney: which come to euery Faire, Market, and other places, where is any aſſembly of people, exhorting, procuring, mouing and exciting the people to attempt vntrue and foraine ſuits for ſmall treſpaſſes, little offences, and ſmall ſummes of debt, whoſe actions be triable and determinable in Court barons, whereby proceed many ſuits more of euil will and malice, then of truth of the thing, to the manifold vexations, and no little damage of the Inhabitants of the ſaid Citie and Counties, and all to the perpetuall diminution of all the Court barons in the ſaid Counties, vnleſſe conuenient remedie be prouided in this behalfe: The foreſaid Lord the King, conſidering the premiſſes, by the aduice, aſſent, and authoritie aforeſaid, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that at all times from henceforth there ſhall be but ſixe common Atturnies in the ſaid County of Norfolke, and ſixe common Atturnies in the ſaid county of Suffolke, and two common Atturnies in the ſaid Citie of Norwich, to be Atturnies in Courts of Record, and that all the ſaid fourteene Atturnies ſhall be elect and admitted by the two Chiefe Iuſtices of our Lord the King, for the time being, of the moſt ſufficient and beſt inſtructed by their diſcretions. And that the election and admiſſion of all Atturnies, which ſhall be elected and admitted by the ſaid Iuſtices for the time being, aboue the ſaid number in the ſaid Counties, ſhall be void and of no authority nor record. And if any perſon or perſons vſurpe or preſume to be Atturnie in Courts of record in the ſaid Counties or Citie, otherwiſe then before is ſpecified, and that found by inquiſition taken before the Iuſtices of Peace in the ſaid Citie or Counties (which ſhall haue power by vertue of this ordinance to enquire thereof in their Seſſions) or in any other maner lawfully proued, that then he or they that ſo preſume, if they be thereof lawfully conuict, ſhall forfeit twenty pound, as often as he or they be ſo conuict, the one halfe thereof to be taken to the Kings vſe, and the other halfe to his vſe, which for the ſame will ſue. And he that thereof will ſue, ſhall haue an action of debt againſt any ſuch perſon which ſo preſumeth to be Atturney. And ſuch proceſſe for recouery of the ſame, as lyeth in an action of debt at the Commou law vpon an obligation. Prouided alwaies that the ſaid ordinance begin and firſt take effect at the Feaſt of Eaſter next comming, and not before, if the ſame ordinance ſeeme reaſonable to the Iuſtices.

A practiſe of cõtentious Atturnies, to ſtirre vp ſuits for their priuate profits.

There ſhall be but ſix common Atturnies in Norfolke, ſixe in Suffolke, and two in Norwich.

Licences or pardons of Alienation or to enter into lands diſcended after an anceſtors death.

And moreouer it is ordained, granted, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, by the aduice, aſſent and authoritie aforeſaid, that all manner of licences, gifts and grants made by any of the foreſaid late pretenſed Kings of England to any perſon or perſons, to giue, grant, alien, purchaſe or receiue any lands, tenements, rents, poſſeſſions or other hereditaments holden of any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings in any manner, or to enter into any Lands or Tenements, Rents, Poſſeſſions, or other Hereditaments, after the death of any of their Aunceſtors, without due liuery thereof ſued by due Proceſſe, according to the courſe of the Common Law of this Realme of England, or pardons made by any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings, to any perſon or perſons for any alienations made of any Lands or Tenements, Rents, poſſeſſions, or other Hereditaments, holden of any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings of England, or pardon or pardons granted by any of them to any perſon or perſons, for any entry or entries, made in any Lands, Tenements, Rents, Poſſeſſions, or other Hereditaments, which ſhould diſcend, reuert, remaine, or in any other manner ſhould come to them, or any of them, after, or by the death of any of their ſaid Aunceſtors, or any other perſon or perſons, without due liuerie thereof ſued, according to the courſe of the Chancery, and Law and Cuſtome of this Land: or licence made by any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings of England, to any perſon or perſons to found, erect, or eſtabliſh, any Abby, Priory, houſe of Religion, Colledge, Chantery, Hoſpitall, or other houſe or ſpirituall place, or of almes: or licence made by any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings to any perſon or perſons, to found or erect any Fraternitie, Guild, Companie, or Fellowſhip, or other bodie corporate, or to giue & grant any Lands, Tenements, Rents, Poſſeſſions, or other Hereditaments, to any perſon or perſõs corporate, or hauing perpetuall ſucceſſion: or licence made by any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings, to any of theſe afore named, for the acceptance and receite of any thing by any ſuch gift, grant, or licence made by any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings to any perſon or perſons, to hold or retaine any aduouſõ or church in proper vſe by way of licence, or appropriatiõ, or to make any elections, ſo that any ſuch aduouſon pertaine not to the crowne, or pardon or pardons made by any of the ſaid late Kings to any body or perſons corporate, or hauing perpetuall ſucceſſiõ by purchaſe inquiſition or receite of any of the premiſſes: or liueries or reſtitutions of temporalties made by any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings to any Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Abbot, Prior, Deane, Chapter, or other perſon or perſõs ſpirituall, ſhal be of like force, vertue & effect, as if the ſaid licences, pardons and liueries were granted by any King in this Realme lawfully raigning, and obtaining the

Licences to found any ſpirituall place or houſe or any fraternitie, guild &c or to giue any lands to them.

Licences of appropriation or to make elections.
Pardons to Corporations.
Liueries or reſtitutions of Temporalties.

Crowne of the ſame by iuſt title. So that the ſame Licences, Reſtitutions, and Liueries, were executed in the time of any of the ſaid late pretenced Kings, in déed & not of right, or if they were executed within the ſame time in part & not in the whole, that the ſame licences, as to that part ſo executed, ſhall be of like force, vertue & effect, as if the ſaid licences were granted by any K. lawfully raigning in this Realme of England, & obtaining the Crown of the ſame by iuſt title. And if any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings, in déed and not of right, hath by his Letters Patents, or by authoritie of their Parliaments founded or eſtabliſhed any Abby, Priorie, houſe of Religion, Colledge, Chanterie, Hoſpitall, or any other houſe or Spirituall place of almes, that all ſuch foundations, as to the Corporations and ſites of the ſame, ſhall be of like force, vertue and effect, as if ſuch foundations were made by any King lawfully raigning in this Realme, and obtaining the Crowne of the ſame by iuſt title: ſo that this preſent Article concerning the foundations or eſtabliſhments aforeſaid, or any of them, ſhall not extend nor be preiudiciall in any maner to the King or to any other perſon or perſons, for any Lands, Tenements, Rents, Poſſeſſions, or Hereditaments, or any manner aduouſons in any wiſe pertaining to the King, or to any other perſon or perſons, other then ſuch which be and make the ſite or ſites of any ſuch Abby, Priory, houſe of Religion, Colledge, Chanterie, Hoſpitall, or other houſe or place aforeſaid.

Aſſignement of dower to any woman during her life.

And that all grants and aſſignements of dower, made by any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings, to any woman after the death of her husband, to hold for terme of her life, or by any Letters Patents made of ſpeciall grace by any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings, or aſſignements of dower made to any ſuch wife after the death of her husband in the Chancerie, after the courſe of the ſame in the time of the pretenſed raignes of any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings, ſhalbe of like vertue, power and effect, as if the ſaid grants and aſſignements were made by any King lawfully reigning, and obtaining the crowne of the ſame by iuſt title.

Prouided alwaies, that this preſent Article doe not extend, nor in any wiſe be preiudiciall to the King, for any Lands, Tenements, Rents, Poſſeſſions, or other Hereditaments, pertaining to the King, in the right of his Crowne, the firſt day of Nouember laſt paſt.

Lands aſſured in mortmaine by the King, which were giuen to him to that intent.

Prouided alſo that by this preſent Act no preiudice be done to the Ducheſſe of Bedford as concerning her Dower. And whereas any Lands, Tenements, Rents, Poſſeſſions, Hereditaments, or other things haue bin giuen to any of the ſaid pretenſed Kings by any perſon or perſons to the intent, that gifts ſhould be therof made by the ſaid Kings, or any of them, by any of their Letters Patents by way of Mortmaine for euer, that all grants and Letters Patents made by any of the ſame late pretenſed Kings, for the amortiſing of any lands, tenements, rents, poſſeſſions, hereditaments, or other things, ſhall be of like force, vertue and effect, as if the ſame grants were made by any King lawfully raigning in this Realme, and obtaining the Crowne of the ſame by iuſt title: ſo that any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings by whom any ſuch Letters Patents were made, were neuer ſeiſed of and in the ſaid Lands, Tenements, Rents, Poſſeſſions, or Hereditaments, but onely by vertue of ſuch feoffements, grants, gifts, or other eſtates made to them, or any of them.

Lands aſſured to the King by way of recompence or exchange.

Prouided alwaies that this Act extend not to any Lands, Tenements, Rents, Poſſeſſions, aduouſons, hereditaments, or others things that were giuen to any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings by way of recompence or exchange for any Lands, Tenements, Rents, Poſſeſſions, aduouſons, Hereditaments, or other things which in any wiſe pertained to the Crowne, although no mention were made in any Letters Patents or other writings of any recompence or exchange.

Collations, gifts & preſentations to benefices during the incumbents liues.

And that all Grants, Collations, Gifts or Preſentations, made by any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings, to any perſon or perſons not corporate, nor hauing perpetuall ſucceſſion of any Benefice, Dignitie, Church, Prebend, Hoſpitall, or Chappell, ſhall be of like force, vertue and effect, as if the ſame Grants, Collations, Gifts and Preſentations were made by any King lawfully raigning in this Realme, and obtaining the Crowne of the ſame by iuſt title, during the life or liues of the ſaid perſon or perſons being Incumbents, Poſſeſſors or occupiers of the ſame, or any of them.

The Kings open enemies and perſons attainted excepted.

Prouided alwaies, that thoſe perſons which be attainted in this preſent Parliament, and ſuch that be out with the Kings enemies, ſhall take no benefit nor aduantage by this Act.

Grants of wards & mariages.

And that all Grants made by any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings, by any their Letters Patents, to any perſon or perſons of any wards & mariages ſhall be of like force, vertue & effect, as if the ſame Grants were made by any King lawfully raigning in this Realme, and obtaining the Crowne of the ſame by iuſt title.

Grants of faires and markets.

And all Grants and Letters Patents made by any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings, to any perſon or perſons, to haue any Faire or Faires, Market or Markets, in any Town or Townes, place or places, all ſuch Grants, and Letters Patents, as to ſuch Faires and Markets, and euery of them, ſhall be of like force, vertue and effect, as if the ſame Grants, and Letters Patents were made by any King lawfully raigning in this Realme, and obtaining the Crowne of the ſame by iuſt title.

Grants to heires of liueries of their anceſtors lands.

And alſo if any perſon or perſons hath ſued, obtained and had any Liuerie by the courſe of the Common Law of this Realme, or otherwiſe of any Lands, Tenements, Rents, Poſſeſſions, Aduouſons, or other Hereditaments, which ſhould deſcend, reuert, remaine, or in any other manner come to them or any of them, by any Liuery purſued after or by the death of any of their anceſtors, or any other perſon or perſons, after the fourth day of March laſt paſt, that all ſuch Liueries ſhall be of like force, vertue, and effect, as they were at the time of the ſaid Liueries purſued. So that the ſaid Lands, Tenements, Rents, Poſſeſſions, Aduouſons, and other Hereditaments, or any parcell thereof, were not pertaining to the King in the right of his Crowne.

Wards or marriages granted by K.Ed.4.

Prouided alwaies, that this Article extend not to any Lands, Tenements, or other things which doe pertaine or ought to come into the Kings hands, by reaſon of any attainder in this preſent Parliament. And alſo that all Grants, and Letters Patents made by our Lord the King, to any perſon or perſons, after the fourth day of March laſt paſt, of any Wards or marriages, of any perſon or perſons being within age, ſhall bee of like force and effect to them and euery of them, as they were at the times of the Grants, and Letters Patents thereof made to them or any of them: Any act or Ordinance in this preſent Parliament made or to be made notwithſtanding.

K.Ed.4. letters patents made to ſeuerall perſons of offices.

Prouided alwaies, that this Article extend not to any Wards or marriages of any perſons which doe pertaine or ought to come to the Kings hands, by reaſon of any attainder in this preſent Parliament, and that all Grants made by our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King by his Letters Patents after the fourth day of March laſt paſt, to any of his faithfull liege men that were not againſt him in any Feeld after the firſt day of his raigne, nor againſt the high and mightie Prince, father to the ſaid King in the Feeld and euill iourney of Wakefeeld, of any office or offices, which ſuch perſon or perſons by the Kings diſcreet conſideration hath deſerued, the effect of ſuch Grant or Grants, ſhall be of like ſtrength and force, as they or any of them were at the time of ſuch Grant or Grants, Letters Patents, and euery of them made: Any Statute, Act or Ordinance made or to be made in this preſent Parliament notwithſtanding.

Certaine officers to whom the King had granted their offices during his pleaſure

The ſame Letters Patents ſo excepted, to endure and be of ſtrength, vertue, and effect at the pleaſure and will of the King. And alſo that all confirmations, Ratifications, Approbations, Leaſes, and Grants, of all Franchiſes, Liberties, Priuiledges, Cuſtomes, or any other Commodities, Profits, or Aduantages, and euery of them, Diſtinctions, Seuerances from Counties, and making of Counties by themſelues, Grants, Releaſes, Diminutions, and Pardons, of fee Fermes, and euery of them, made and granted by our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King by his Letters Patents ſithence the fourth day of March laſt paſt, in reliefe and benefit of any Citie, Towne, or Borough of this Realme, to any Maior, Bailiffe or Bailiffes, Sheriffe or Sheriffes, Maior and Comminaltie, Maior & Citizens, Maior and Aldermen, Maior and Sheriffe, Maior, Bailiffes, and Commonalty, Citizens, Bailiffes, and Citizens, their heires and ſucceſſors and the heires and ſucceſſors of euerie of them, by whatſoeuer name or names they or any of them be called or named in the ſaid grants or other the premiſſes, or any of them, ſhall be of like force & effect, as they or any of them were at the time of the Grants, and Letters Patents thereof made. And alſo if any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings, or any of their Anceſtors, hath beene infeoffed by any perſon or perſons, of or in any Lands, Tenements, Rents, Poſſeſſions, Aduouſons, or other Hereditaments, onely vpon truſt and confidence to refeoffe the ſaid perſon or perſons, or their heires or aſſignes of any of the ſame, at ſuch time as they ſhould be thereto required, that all ſuch Grants, Feoffements, or other eſtates made by any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings, or any of their Anceſtors, of any ſuch Lands, Tenements, Rents, Poſſeſſions, Aduouſons, or other Hereditaments, to any ſuch perſon or perſons, their heires or aſſignes, or to the heires or aſſignes of any of them, ſhall be of like force and effect in the Law, and auaileable to the ſaid perſon or perſons, and to the heires and aſſignes of them and euery of them, as they were at the times of the ſaid grants and feoffments or other eſtates made to them or any of them, any act or ordinance in this preſent Parliament made or to be made notwithſtanding. So that none of the ſaid pretenſed Kings, nor any of their aunceſtors, after the laſt day of the raigne of King Edward the third, progenitor of our ſaid lord the King, were at any time ſeiſed of the lands, tenements, rents, poſſeſſions, aduouſons, or other hereditaments, nor of any parcell thereof, but only by vertue of ſuch feoffments made to them or any of them vpon confidence in maner & forme aforeſaid, and in no other maner: & that the ſame lands, tenements, rents, poſſeſſions, aduouſons or other hereditaments, and euery of them be holdē of the ſame chiefe Lords immediate, or of their heires, & by the ſame ſeruices, as they were holden at the time of the ſame feoffements made to any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings, or to any of their aunceſtors, any poſſeſſion of the late pretenſed Kings, or of any of their aunceſtors, after the laſt day of the raigne of King Edward the third, notwithſtanding. Prouided alwaies, that no perſon attainted in this preſent Parliament take any benefit or aduantage thereby. Alſo that all Letters Patents granted and directed by our ſaid Lord the King after the firſt day of his raigne, to his Chancellor or Treaſurer of this Realme, Juſtices of the pleas to be holden before the King, Juſtices of the common bench, or Barons of the Exchequer, or to any of them, for the exerciſe of any ſuch thing as pertaineth to the office or offices, authoritie, and power of them or any of them, by reaſon of any of the ſaid letters patents and grants, ſhall be of like force, vertue and effect, as they or any of them were the firſt day of Nouember laſt paſt, any ſtatute, act, or ordinance made in this preſent Parliament notwithſtanding. So that the Barons of the Exchequer ſhall occupy, or exerciſe their offices at the Kings pleaſure as the Juſtices doe. And alſo that euery Commiſſion made, granted, and directed by any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings in any of their times, to any perſon or perſons to bee aſſigned for the peace in euery or any countie of this Realme to be eſtabliſhed and kept, and to heare and determine all manner of Felonies, Treſpaſſes, and other offences ſpecified in the ſaid Commiſſions, and euery of them, done or committed in any of the ſaid Counties, or to deliuer any gaole or gaoles within this Realme, or in other place or places vnder the obeyſance of the Crowne, of the priſoners being in any of the ſaid gaoles, in the time of any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings, or to heare and determine all manner Treaſons, Felonies, Treſpaſſes, or other offences done in any of the ſaid Counties, or in any place or places vnder the obeyſance of the Crowne of the ſaid Realme, ſpecified in euerie of the ſame Commiſſions, or for Sewers being aſſigned to ſuruaie and to cauſe to be repaired and amended Walls, Marſhes, Ditches, Gutters, Calceys, and Bridges, and other defaults in any Marſh or Marſhes in any part of this Realme, ſpecified in the ſame Commiſſions and euery of them, and all other Commiſſions made by any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings to any perſon or perſons before the fourth day of March laſt paſt, and all Proceſſes, Determinations, Executions, Incidents, Adminicles, and other Circumſtances pertaining to the ſame Commiſſions and euery of them, not void, repealed, and adnulled, ſhall be of like force, vertue, and ſtrength, as if the ſame Commiſſions and euery of them were made and granted by any King lawfully raigning in this Realme, and obtaining the Crowne of the ſame by iuſt title: So that a ſpeciall Act be made for ſuch perſons that were before this time indamaged for the King.

The force of the Kings letters patents made to the L. Chancellor, L. Treaſurer, Juſtices &c. or to the Barons of the Exchequer.

Commiſſions of the peace, of gaole deliuery, and to heare and determine, Or of Sewers, and all other Commiſſions.

And alſo that all manner of Acts and Ordinances made by authority of any Parliament or Parliaments holden in the time of any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings, for the conſeruation and keeping of the towne of Shrewsburie, and of the good, peaceable, and quiet rule and gouernement within the ſaid towne, betwixt the Inhabitants of the ſame, and euery of them, ſhall bee of like force and effect, as if the ſame acts, or ordinances, and euery of them, were made in the time of any King or Kings lawfully raigning in this Realme, and obtaining the Crowne of the ſame by iuſt title.

Acts of Parliament for Shrewsbury.

Alſo whereas the ſaid late pretenſed King Henry the ſixth, in deed, and not of right, king of this realme, by his Charter indented vnder the Seale of the Duchie of Lancaſter ſealed, bearing date the twentieth day of March, the foure and twentieth yeare of his vſurped raigne, did giue and grant, and by the ſame Charter confirmed to William Abbot of Biland the manor of Kilbourne, with the appurtenances, in the Countie of Yorke, with all the Knights fees, viewes of frankepledge, franchiſes, liberties, commodities, profits, and appurtenances to the ſame Manor, in any wiſe belonging or appertaining, to haue and to hold the ſame Manor, with the other premiſſes to the ſaid Abbot, and his ſucceſſours for euer, yeelding therefore to the ſaid pretenſed King Henry the ſixt, and his heires dukes of Lancaſter xxj.li. yearely (where the ſaid pretenſed King, nor any of his anceſtors Dukes of Lancaſter, before the ſame time were euer anſwered of the ſaid yearely iſſues and profits of the ſame Manour, but of xvj.li. by yeare onely) the ſaid xxj.li. to be paid at the feaſts of Pentecoſt and Saint Martin in Winter by euen portions, for all ſecular ſeruices, with clauſe of diſtreſſe for default of paiment of the ſaid rent by halfe a yeare, in all the Manors, lands, and tenements of the ſaid Abbot and Conuent within the ſame County, as in the ſame Charter thereof made more plainely appeareth.

K.H.6. his grant to the Abbot of Biland of the manor of Kilbourne in the county of Yorke

That all the ſame Charter, gift, and grant ſhall be vntill this time, and hereafter to the ſaid Abbot and Couent, and to their ſucceſſors, of like force and effect, as they were the firſt day of March laſt. Any Act or Ordinance made in this preſent Parliament, notwithſtanding.

Grants to Abbots, Priors, &c. to make free election.

And alſo that all grants and licences made by letters patents of any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings, to any Abbot and Couent Prior and Couent, or to any other perſon or perſons, to haue and make by frée election within themſelues at any voydance, Abbot or Prior, and to be conuentuall, perpetuall, and electiſe, where before they were datiſe and remoueable, ſhall be of like ſtrength, vertue, and effect, as if the ſame grants and licences, or any of them were made by any King lawfully raigning, in this Realme, and obtaining the Crowne of the ſame by iuſt title.

Recogniſances and Deeds inrolled.

Alſo that all Records of Recogniſances and Déeds inrolled, had and made in any court or courts of record, or before any Juſtice of Record, in the time of the raignes of any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings, ſhall be of like force, vertue, and effect, as if the ſame Records were had or made in the time of any King lawfully raigning in this Realme, and obtaining the Crowne of the ſame by iuſt title.

Licences to make parkes, chaſes, free warrens, or to make caſtles, towers, or to embatell a houſe.

And alſo that all licences and grants made by any of the ſaid late pretenſed Kings to any perſon or perſons, to make, haue, incloſe, and inioy any Parke or Parkes, Warren, or frée Chaſe, or to embatell, to carnall, to maſtoll, or to make any towre, caſtle or fortreſſe, within this realm, ſhall be of like fore, vertue, and effect, as if the ſaid grants and licences were made by any King lawfully raigning in this Realme, and obtaining the Crowne of the ſame by iuſt title.

Cicily Ducheſſe of Yorke, mother to the King

Prouided alwaies, that this act doe not extend, nor be preiudicall to the right noble, high and mighty Princes Cicylie Duches of Yorke, mother vnto our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, of any grant or grants made to her by the King by his letters patents before the firſt day of this Parliament, by whatſoeuer name or names ſhe ſhall be called in the ſame Letters Patents, but that the ſame letters patents, and euery grant therein contained, bée of like force and effect, as they were before the firſt day of this Parliament: This Act, or any other, made or to be made in this preſent Parliament notwithſtanding.

Lands deuolued to the King by attainder, or, &c.

Prouided alwayes, that this Act, nor any article of the ſame, doe not extend to any lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, hereditaments, or other things, which the King ought in any wiſe to haue by force of any act of attainder of any perſon or perſons made in this preſent Parliament.

Prouided alſo, that no perſon or perſons attainted in this preſent Parliament, or being out with the Kings enemies, take any benefit or aduantage by this Act, nor any other Act made or to be made in the ſaid Parliament.

CAP. II.

Iuſtices of Peace may award Proces vpon Indictments taken in Sheriffes Turnes.

ALſo wheras many of the Kings faithfull liege people, as wel ſpirituall as temporall, by the inordinate and infinite indictments and preſentments, as well of felony, treſpaſſes, and offences, as of other things, which of long time haue béene had and vſed within the counties of this Realme, and taken before Sheriffes for the time being in their countie ſeuerally, vnderſheriffes, their clerks, bailiffes, and miniſters, at their turnes or lawdayes, holden before them ſeuerally in the counties, which indictments and preſentments be oftentimes affirmed by Jurors hauing no conſcience, nor any fréehold, and little goods, and often by the ſaid ſheriffes meniall ſeruants and bailiffes, and their Vnderſheriffes, by which indictments and preſentments, the ſaid lawfull liege people be attached and arreſted by their bodies, and put in priſon by the ſaid Sheriffes, Vnderſheriffes, their clerks, bailiffes and miniſters, to the great loſſe of their goods, and they ſo being in priſon by the ſaid Sheriffes, Vnderſheriffes, their clerks, Bailiffes, and their miniſters, are conſtrained to make grieuous fines and ranſomes, and leauy of them great fines & amerciaments for the ſaid indictments and preſentments, in great hinderance and vtter vndoing of the ſaid liege people. After which fines, ranſomes, and amerciaments ſo rated and leuyed by the ſaid Sheriffes, Vnderſheriffes, clerkes, Bailiffes and their miniſters, the people aforeſaid be inlarged out of priſon, and the ſaid indictments and preſentments be imbeſiled & withdrawne. Our ſaid Lord the King conſidering the premiſſes, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall & temporall, and at the requeſt of the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that all manner indictments and preſentments that ſhall be taken hereafter before any of his ſaid Sheriffes of his counties for the time being, their Vnderſheriffes, clerks, bailiffes, or miniſters, at their turnes or lawdayes, before mentioned, they nor any of them ſhall haue power or authority to attach, arreſt, or put in priſon, or to leauy any fines or amerciaments of any perſon or perſons ſo indicted or preſented, by reaſon or colour of any ſuch indictment or preſentment taken or to be taken before them or any of them, nor to make, or take of any ſuch perſon or perſons ſo indicted or preſented any fine or ranſome, but that the ſaid ſheriffes, and their Vnderſheriffes, clerks or Bailiffes, and their miniſters, ſhall bring, preſent,

The inconueniences of vnlawful indictments in Sheriffes turnes by mean perſons.

Indictments & preſentments taken in the Sheriffes turne ſhall be deliuered to the Juſtices of Peace of the ſame county Stat.11.H.7.15.

and deliuer all ſuch enditements and preſentments taken before them or any of them in their turnes or Lawdaies aforeſaid, to the Iuſtices of Peace at their next Seſſions of the peace, that ſhall be holden in the Countie or Counties where ſuch endictments and preſentments ſhall be taken, before the ſaid Iuſtices of ſuch Countie or Counties for the time being: And if any of the ſaid Sheriffes, Vnderſheriffes, Clerks, Bailiffes, and their Miniſters doe not bring, deliuer, and preſent all ſuch indictments or preſentments ſo taken before them and euery of them in their turnes or Lawdaies, as before is recited, at ſuch Seſſions of the peace, before the ſaid Iuſtices of Peace, that then all ſuch Sheriffes, Vnderſheriffes, Clerks, Bailiffes, and their Miniſters, and euerie of them that ſo ſhall faile in bringing, deliuering and preſenting of ſuch indictments or preſentments, ſhall forfeit to the King forty pounds, at euery time that they or any of them doth the contrarie: And that the ſaid Iuſtices of Peace ſhall haue power and authoritie to award Proces vpon all ſuch indictments and preſentments, as the Law doth require, and in like forme as if the ſaid enditements and preſentments were taken before the ſaid Iuſtices of peace in the ſaid Countie or Counties, and alſo to arraine and deliuer all ſuch perſons or perſon ſo indited and preſented before the ſaid Sheriffes, Vnderſheriffes, their Clerks, Bailiffes, and their Miniſters, or any of them in their turnes or lawdaies. And all ſuch perſon or perſons, which be endited or preſented of treſpaſſe, ſhall make ſuch a fine as ſhall ſeeme lawfull by their diſcretions. And the eſtreats of the ſaid fines and amerciaments ſhall be enrolled, and by indenture be deliuered to the ſaid Sheriffes, Vnderſheriffes, their Clerks, Bailiffes or Miniſters, or ſome of them, to the vſe and profit of him that was Sheriffe in the ſaid Counties or Countie at the time of ſuch indictments or preſentments taken: And if any of the ſaid Sheriffes, their Vnderſheriffes, Clerks, Bailiffes, or their Miniſters doe arreſt, attach, or put in priſon, or cauſe any fine or ranſome to be taken, or leuie any amerciament of any perſon or perſons ſo indicted or preſented, by reaſon or colour of any ſuch indictment or preſentment taken before them at their turnes or lawdaies, aboue rehearſed, before that they haue proceſſe from the ſaid Iuſtices of Peace, or eſtreats deliuered out of the ſaid indictments or preſentments ſo brought, deliuered, & preſented to them, that then the ſaid Sheriffes which ſo doe, ſhall forfeit an hundred pound. The one halfe thereof to be imployed to the expences of the Kings houſe, and the other halfe to the partie or parties which be or is endamaged, and he or they ſhall haue therefore an Action of debt at the common Law, and like Proceſſe, as is in an action of debt at the common Law: and that the defendant or defendants in ſuch ſuits or actions of debt, ſhall not be eſſoined, nor wage their Law: and if he or they or any of them againſt whom this action ſhall be taken, doe offer or caſt any protection or other impediment, in retardation of the ſaid Suits or Actions, that ſhall not be allowed vnto him.

Iuſt of P. ſhall award proceſſe againſt them that be indicted in the ſheriffes turne & arraine & deliuer the offendors.

The eſtreats ſhall be indented & deliuered by the Iuſt. of P. to the ſheriffe.

Prouided alwaies, that this preſent Ordinance doe not extend, nor in any wiſe be preiudiciall to the Sheriffes of the Citie of London now being, or which at any time hereafter ſhall be, concerning any indictments or preſentments to be taken within the ſaid Citie of London.

This ſtat. doth not extend to the Sheriffes of London.

Prouided alſo that this Act extend not, nor be preiudiciall to any perſon or perſons, which hath Graunts of any Fines or Amerciaments by any Letters Patents of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, or of any of his Progenitors or Predeceſſors, bearing date before the tenth day of December, next after the beginning of this Parliament: and that this Act and Ordinance doe not extend nor be preiudiciall to any perſon or perſons, hauing any Liberties or Franchiſes by any of the ſaid Letters Patents, or in any other maner by preſcription. And that this Ordinance be in his force, and beginne to take effect at the fourtieth day next after the firſt day of May next after the beginning of this preſent Parliament, vpon the which firſt day the ſaid Parliament was diſſolued.

Grants of fines made by the King.

Cap. IIII.

Certaine merchandiſes not lawfull to be brought ready wrought into this Realme.

The inconueniences enſuing of bringing of wares ready wrought into this Realme.

Item, whereas in the ſaid Parliament by the Artificers of manuell occupations men and women, inhabiting and reſiant in the Citie of London, and other Cities, Townes, Boroughs, and Villages within the ſame Realme of England and Wales, it hath béene piteouſly ſhewed and complained, how that all they in generall, and euery of them, be greatly impoueriſhed, and much hindred and preiudiced of their worldly encreaſe and daily liuing, by the great multitude of diuers commodities and wares pertaining to their miſteries and occupations, being fully wrought and ready made to ſale, as well by the hands of ſtrangers being the Kings enemies, as other in this Realme and Wales, fetched and brought from beyond the Sea, alwell by Merchants ſtrãgers, and deniſens and other perſons, whereof the greateſt part in ſubſtance is deceitfull and nothing worth in regard of any mans occupation or profit, by which occaſion the ſaid artificers can not liue by their miſteries and occupations as they haue done in times paſt, but diuers of them, as well houſholders as hirelings, and other ſeruants and apprentiſes in great number, be at this day vnoccupyed, and doe hardly liue, in great miſerie, pouertie, and néed, whereby many inconueniences haue growne before this time, and hereafter more be like to come (which God defend) if due remedie be not in this behalfe prouided. Our redoubted Soueraigne Lord the King, conſidering the premiſſes, and willing in this caſe to prouide remedy, by the aduice, aſſent, and authority aforeſaid, hath ordained, enacted and eſtabliſhed, That no Merchant borne ſubiect of our ſaid Lord the King, denizen nor ſtranger, nor other perſon after the Feaſt of S. Michaell the Archangell next comming, ſhall bring, ſend nor conuey, nor cauſe to be brought, ſent nor conueyed into this Realme of England, and Seigniorie of Wales, any of the chaffers, wares, or things vnder written, that is to ſay, any Woollen Cappes, woollen Clothes, Laces, Corſes, Ribands, Fringes of ſilke and of thréed, Laces of thréed, ſilke twined, ſilke in any wiſe imbroydred, Laces of gold, of ſilke or gold, ſadels, ſtirops, or any harneis pertaining to ſadels, ſpurres, boſſes for bridles, aundirons, gredirons,, any maner of lockes, hammers, pinſons, firetongs, drippingpans, Dice, Tenis balles, Points, Purſes, Gloues, Girdles, Harneis for Girdles, of Iron, Latten, Stéele, Tinne, or of Alkemine, any thing wrought of any tawed Leather, any tawed Furres, Buſcans, Shooes, galoches or Corkes, kniues, daggers, woodkniues, bodkins, ſheres for tailors, cyſors, Raſers, Cheſſemen, playing Cardes, Combes, Pattins, Packnéedles, any painted ware, Forcers, Caſkets, Rings of Copper, or of Latten guilt, Chafingdiſhes, hanging Candleſtickes, Chaffing balles, ſacring Belles, rings for Curtaines, Ladles, Scommers, counterfeit Baſons, Ewers, Hatts, Bruſhes, Cardes for wooll, blacke Iron thréed commonly called and named white Wire, or any of thoſe wares or chaffers to be vttered and ſold within the ſame Realme of England, or in the Countrey of Wales, by way of Merchandiſe, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame merchandiſes, at euery time, and as often as they may be found in the hands of any perſon or perſons to be ſold. The one halfe of the ſame forfeiture to be paid to the vſe of our Lord the King, and the other halfe to him that will firſt ſeiſe the ſame for the King. The ſame halfe by him ſo ſeiſed for our Lord the King to be deliuered by the ſaid ſeiſor thereof to the Eſcheator of the Countrey or place where the ſame ſeiſin ſhall be, by Indenture betwixt them made duely to anſwere thereof in his accompt.

Certaine merchandiſes which it is not lawfull to bring into this Realme, wrought. St.1.R.3.12.

A prouiſo for ſuch wares as be taken vpon the Sea or by wrecke.

Prouided alwaies that if any of the ſaid wares or chaffers made out of this Land, be taken vpon the ſea without fraud and colluſion, or come in this Realme of England, or the Countrey of Wales, by way of wrecke, that thoſe be in no wiſe taken within this Act or Statute, but that they may be ſold within this Realme of England, or Wales, this Act or ſtat. notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, that all wares and chaffers made ⁊ wrought in the Land of Ireland or Wales may be brought and ſold in this Realme of England, as they were wont before the making of this Statute, this Act or Statute notwithſtanding.

Wares made in Ireland or Wales.

Alſo our Lord the King hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, by the aſſent and authoritie aforeſaid, that the Maſters and Wardens for the time being, of euery Craft and Miſterie in euerie Citie, Borough, Towne, and Village, where any ſuch Craft or Miſterie is vſed or occupyed, ſhall haue ſufficient power and authoritie in euerie ſuch Citie, Towne, Borough, and Village, where they for the time being ſhall be Wardens or Maſters of any ſuch craft or miſtery, and the Maior of ſuch Citie, Borough, Towne, or Village, for the time being, if any Maior be, or the Bailiffes or Bailiffe of any ſuch Citie, Borough, Towne, or Village for the time being, if any Bailiffes or Bailiffe there be and no Maior, or Serieant, or any other officer to them aſſigned by the ſaid Maior, Bailiffes or Bailiffe, in euery ſuch Citie, Borough, Towne, and Village, where any ſuch craft or miſtery is vſed or occupied, where no ſuch Maſters nor Wardens of any ſuch craft or miſterie be, that the Maſters or Wardens of the crafts and miſteries of the Citie, Towne, Borough or Village next adioining to the ſame, and the Conſtable of ſuch City, Borough, Towne, or Village, ſhall haue power and authority to ſearch in their owne crafts and miſteries, and in all other crafts and miſteries, vttering by way of ſale any of the foreſaid wares, as well within Cities, boroughs, townes, and villages of the ſame Realme of England, and of the Countrey of Wales, as within the liberties and Franchiſes of the ſame Cities, boroughs, townes, and villages at all times reaſonable by the day, at Faires and markets, ſhops open, and Warehouſes, all ſuch maner wares, chaffers, and merchandiſes pertaining to euery of their proper crafts and miſteries, which ſhall be made by any Alien artificer, man or womã, or any other perſon or perſons within the ſame Realme of England or Wales, or which at any time ſhall be occupied by any of the ſaid crafts or miſteries, in whoſe hands ſo euer they may be found.

The chiefe officers of Cities, or, &c. ſhall haue authoritie to ſearch for defectiue wares.

Prouided alſo that the ſaid Maſters, Wardens, and other named in the ſaid ordinance to be ſearchers, ſhall not enter in any place exempt by priuiledge, franchiſe or cuſtome to make in the ſame any ſearch as is aforeſaid, but by the ouerſight of ſome officer of euery ſuch place ſo exempt where any ſuch ſearch ſhall happen to be made, and if the ſaid ſearchers by the ſame ſearch do find that ſuch chaffers, wares or merchandiſes, or any part thereof be not pure, lawfull and able chaffers, wares or merchandiſes, and duly wrought and made, as they ought to be, and that ſufficiently proued; that then it ſhal be lawful to ſuch ſearchers to take and ſeiſe all ſuch chaffers, wares, and merchandiſes, which ſhall ſo be found not good, pure, lawfull or able, nor well wrought as a thing forfeit. The one halfe of the ſame forfeiture to be paid to the vſe of our Lord the king, and the other halfe thereof to ſuch Maſters or Wardens, which ſo ſhall make ſearch and find the ſame. And that this preſent ordinance or ſtatute concerning the ſaid Artificers ſtand and be in his force as long as ſhall pleaſe our Soueraigne Lord the King.

Wares and merchandiſes that be not lawfull ſhall be forfeit.

Prouided alwaies that this ordinance and Act, nor any other ordinance, or act made or to be made in this preſent Parliament, ſhall extend or in any wiſe be preiudiciall or hurtfull to Robert Stillington Clerk Deane of the free Chappel of our Lord the King, of S. Martin Legraund of London, nor to his ſucceſſors of the ſaid Chappel hereafter for the time being in any maner, nor to the ſaid Robert, Deane and Chapiter of the ſame Chappel, as in and for all maner Priuiledges, Liberties, Franchiſes, Rights and Cuſtomes, in any maner pertaining to them before this Parliament. Nor to any perſon or perſons dwelling or inhabiting or which ſhall hereafter inhabite and dwell within the Sanctuary and precinct of the ſame Chappel, and eſpecially within the Lane, commonly called S. Martins Lane. St. 5. El. 7.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter Anno. 4. Ed. 4. & Anno Domini. 1464.

OVr Lord King EDVVARD the fourth after the Conqueſt, at his Parliament ſummoned at Weſtminſter, the nine and twentieth day of Aprill, in the third yeare of his raigne, and by diuers Prorogations and Adiournments, continued till the one and twentieth day of Ianuarie, in the fourth yeare of his ſaid raign, on the ſame one and twentieth day of Ianuarie, to the reuerence of God, and for the wealth of him, and his people, by the aduice and aſſent of his Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the ſpeciall requeſt of his Commons, being in the ſaid Parliament, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed certain Statutes and Ordinances in maner and forme following.

Cap. I.

The length and breadth of Clothes made to be ſold. No Clothes wrought beyond Sea ſhall be brought into England.

The inconueniences which haue enſued to this Realme by the deceitfull making of Cloth.

FIrſt, whereas many yeares paſt,and now at this day, the workemanſhippe of Clothes and things requiſite to the ſame,is and hath beene of ſuch fraud,diſceit,and falſitie, that the ſaid Clothes in other Lands and Countries be had in ſmall reputation, to the great ſhame of this Land. And by reaſon thereof a great quantitie of Clothes of other ſtrange Lands be brought into this Realme,and here ſold at an high and exceſſiue price,euidently ſhewing the offence,default and falſehood of the making of Woollen Clothes of this Land. Our ſaid Lord the King,for the remedy of the premiſſes, and to the preferrement of ſuch labours and occupations, which haue beene vſed by the making of the ſaid Clothes, by the aduice,aſſent,and requeſt, and authoritie aforeſaid,hath ordained and eſtabliſhed certaine Statutes and Ordinances, in maner and forme enſuing: Firſt, that euery whole Woollen Cloth,called Broad cloth,which ſhall be made, and ſet to ſale after the Feaſt of Saint Peter,called ad vincula, which ſhall be in the yeare of our L. M,CCCC.lxv. after the full watering and racking,ſtraining,or tenturing of the ſame ready to ſale,ſhall hold and containe in length xxiiij.yards, and to euery yard an inch, containing the breadth of a mans inch,to be meaſured by the creſt of the ſame Cloth. And in breadth ij. yardes or vij.quarters at the leaſt within the liſts. And if the ſaid Cloth be longer in meaſure then the ſaid xxiiij.yards and the ynches, then the buyer thereof ſhall pay to the ſeller for as much as doth exceed ſuch meaſure of xxiiij.yards, according to the rate of the meaſure aboue ordained.

The length and breadth of wollen cloth called broad cloth.

REP.5.Ed.6.6.

The length and breadth of Straits.

And it is enacted and eſtabliſhed,by authoritie of the ſaid Lords,that all maner Clothes called Streits,to be made and put to ſale,after the ſame Feaſt, after the full watering, and racking, ſtraining,or tenturing thereof ready to ſale, ſhall hold and containe in length xij.yards and iij. inches,according to the meaſure aforeſaid,and in breadth one yard within the liſts.

The length and breadth of Kerſey.

Alſo it is ordained and eſtabliſhed by the authoritie aforeſaid,that euery Cloth called Kerſey, to be made and put to ſale after the ſaid Feaſt, after the full watering,racking,ſtraining, or tenturing of the ſame ready to ſale,ſhall hold and containe in length,xviij.yardes and iij.inches, as is aforeſaid,and in breadth one yard and a naile,or at the leaſt one yard within the liſt.

Halfe Clothes.

And alſo it is ordained and eſtabliſhed by the authoritie aforeſaid,that euery halfe cloth of euery of the ſaid whole Clothes,Streits,and Kerſeis,ſhall keep his meaſure in length and breadth according to the rate,forme,and nature of his whole Cloth aforeſaid. And that no perſon which ſhall make or cauſe to be made any woollen Cloth to ſell after the ſaid Feaſt,ſhall mingle,or put in or vpon the ſame Cloth nor the wooll whereof the ſaid Cloth ſhall be made,any Lambs wooll, Flockes,or Corke in any maner,vpon paine to forfeit xx.s.for euery Cloth or halfe cloth,wherein,or whereupon any ſuch Lambs wooll,Flocks or Corke ſhall be put or mingled. The one halfe thereof to be to the King,and the other halfe to him that will ſeiſe the ſame Cloth,and duly proue the ſame to be made contrary to this ordinance. But it ſhall be lawful for him to make Cloth of Lambes wooll by it ſelfe,without mingling with any other wooll. Except alſo that Corke may be vſed in dying vpon woaded wooll,and alſo in dying of all ſuch Cloth that is onely made of woded wooll,ſo that the ſame Wooll and Cloth be perfectly boiled and madered. Except alſo that Corke may be put vpon Cloth which is perfectly boiled and madered.

Lambes Wooll, Flockes, or Corke, ſhall not be put into cloth but for certaine cauſes. St.7 Ed.4.2.

Clothes ſhall perfectly purſue one order of workemanſhip.

A Seale of lead ſhall be ſet vpon fau tie cloth REP.5.Ed.6.6.

Cloth lawfully made ſhall be ſealed with a double print in Lead, St.17.Ed.4.5.

Sealing of Cloth which is leſſe then a whole cloth, and longer then a halfe cloth.

Alſo it is ordained and enacted,that euery of the ſaid Clothes,and halfe Clothes ſhall perfectly and rightly purſue and follow one order of workemanſhip,from one end to the other,without diferẽce in the weauing,fulling,knotting or burling. And in caſe any ſuch differẽce or raw,or ſkaw, cokel,or fagge,happen to be in any part of the ſaid Clothes,Streits,or Kerſeis,that then a ſeale of Lead,therfore ordained & by the Treaſorer of England for the time being prouided, ſhall be ſet and hanged in the loweſt part of the edge of the ſame Cloth, Streit, or Kerſey, for perfect knowledge to be had to the buyer thereof. And that euery of the ſaid Clothes,Streit, and Kerſey, of the length and breadth aforeſaid,and alſo of the ſaid perfection, ſhall be from the Feaſt of S. Peter ad vincula,ſealed at the end of the ſame,with a double print in Lead, deuiſed & ordained by the ſaid Treaſorer,in teſtimonie and witneſſe of the foreſaid true length, breadth and making. And if any of the aforeſaid Clothes,Streits,or Kerſeis,doe not containe the aforeſaid length and breadth,or be not of the perfect workemanſhip aforeſaid,& the ij.parts of the ſame cloths,ſtreits, or kerſeis be of the true & perfect workmanſhip aforeſaid,keeping their ſaid length & bredth, that then euery ſuch Cloth,Streit,& Kerſey ſhal be ſealed with the ſaid Seales,in the forme aforeſaid and that euery halfe cloth containing greater length then the halfe cloth,and leſſe length then the whole cloth, of the ſorts of the clothes aforeſaid, being of the ſaid perfect workmanſhippe and breadth, ſhall be ſealed with a ſeale printed in Lead, hauing a marke differing from both the Seales aforeſaid,in teſtimony and witneſſe of the true length, breadth and making of the halfe cloth. And if any woollen cloth of any ſorts of the clothes before recited, perfectly made and hauing breadth after the ſort before limited,containing iij.yards and an halfe, or more, or leſſe then the halfe cloth,be put to ſale,after the ſaid feaſt, the ſame cloth ſhall be ſealed with a Seale printed in Lead, hauing a marke differing from any of the ſaid Seales for a knowledge to be had of the default of the halfe cloth, the ſaid Seales to be deuiſed and ordained by the ſaid Treaſorer, and to be put at the end of euery of the halfe clothes, and clothes leſſe then halfe clothes. Alſo by the aduice, aſſent and authoritie aforeſaid, it is ordained and eſtabliſhed, that the Treaſorer of England for the time being, ſhall haue power and authoritie to make ſuch and as many keepers of the ſaid Seales as he ſhall thinke neceſſary, So that no ſtranger borne be made any of the ſaid Keepers. And that euery of the ſaid Keepers ſo to be made ſhall accompt yearely of the reuenues of their ſaid offices in the ſaid Eſchequer before the Treaſorer of England, and the Barõs there for the time being, duely ſhewing in the ſame accompts, the number of the clothes, halfe Clothes, Streits, and Kerſeis ſealed by them, with the names of the owners of the ſame. Euery of the ſame Keepers to be rewarded yearely at his ſaid accompt for his labour and diligence had in this behalfe at the receipt of the ſaid Eſchequer, by the diſcretion of the ſaid Treaſorer and Barons, without paiment of any thing in the ſaid Eſchequer, in or for the making of his ſaid accompt. And in caſe any of the ſaid Keepers doe ſeale any of the aforeſaid Clothes with any other Seale, or any of the ſame Clothes otherwiſe made then according to the maner and ordinance aboue ſpecified, and that by ſufficient proofe and examination ſhewed and approued before the ſaid Treaſorer and Barons, by the ſaid depoſition, teſtimony and witneſſe of ſuch ſufficient perſons, of good and due reputation, which haue had prompt experience in weauing, fulling, and making of Clothes: or if the ſame Keeper doe refuſe to ſeale any of theſe Clothes, made according to the ſaid maner and ordinance: or if any ſuch Keeper or Aulneger doe take after the ſaid feaſt for the King of any perſon for the ſealing or meaſuring of any ſorts of Cloth, any other ſumme of money then is contained in the Statutes and Ordinances made before this time, and not repealed, or if any ſuch Keeper or Aulneger, after the ſaid feaſt doe refuſe to ſhew his Commiſſion of his office to any perſon deſiring the ſame vpon the ſealing or meaſuring of any ſuch clothes before rehearſed, and that examined and duely proued, that then he, as often as he ſhall offend in any of the premiſſes, ſhall forfeit the ſumme of xx.s. The one halfe thereof to the King, and the other halfe to the party prouing the ſaid offences therein by ſuit to be made before the ſaid Treaſorer and Barons, by Bill of debt in the ſaid Eſchequer, in which Bill like iudgement and execution ſhall be had, as is accuſtomably had and vſed againſt other accomptants in the ſame Eſchequer. And that theſe Statutes and Ordinãces and other Statutes ⁊ Ordinances made before this time and not repealed, concerning any of the premiſſes ſhall be contained, and ſpecified in euery Commiſſion to be made to euery ſuch Keeper or aulneger, after the ſaid Feaſt. Alſo whereas before this time in the occupations of Clothmaking, the Labourers thereof haue beene driuen to take a great part of their wages in pinnes, girdles, and other vnprofitable wares vnder ſuch price as they did extend to, and alſo haue deliuered to them Woolles to be wrought by very exceſſiue weight, whereby both men and women haue beene diſcouraged of ſuch labour. Therefore it is ordained and eſtabliſhed, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euery man ⁊ woman being Clothmakers from the Feaſt of Saint Peter, ſhall pay to the Carders, Spinſters, and all ſuch other Labourers in any part of the ſaid Trade, lawfull Money for all their lawfull wages and payment of the ſame. And alſo ſhall deliuer Woolles to be wrought according to the faithfull deliuery and due weight thereof, vpon paine of forfeiture to the ſame Labourer the treble of his ſaid wages ſo not paid as often as the Clothmaker doth refuſe to pay the ſame in the ſaid maner and forme to any ſuch Labourer, put by him to the occupation in any of the ſaid parts of Clothmaking, and alſo to forfeit to the ſame Labourer, for euery deliuery of exceſſiue ⁊ vnlawfull weight to him committed to be wrought vj.d. for euery default.

The L. Treaſorer ſhall make as many keepers of the ſeale to ſeale cloth as he will.

The accompt of the keepers of the ſeale and their reward.

The penaltie of the keeper of the Seale for omitting his dutie.

A Clothier ſhall pay to his workfolkes ready money and ſhall deliuer them wooll according to the weight.

Alſo it is ordained and eſtabliſhed by the authority aforeſaid, that euery Carder, Spinſter, Weauer, Fuller, Sherman, and Dyer ſhal duly performe his duty in his occupation, vpon paine to yeeld to the party grieued in this behalfe his double damages. And that euery fuller from the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Peter, in his craft and occupation of Fulling, Rowing, or taſeyling of Cloth, ſhall exerciſe and vſe taſels, and no Cardes, diſceitfully impairing the ſame cloth, vpon paine to yeeld to the partie grieued, his double damage. And that euery Iuſtice of Peace for the time being, of euery Countie of this Realme throughout the ſame Countie, out of Cities, Boroughes, and Townes where any Maior, Maſter, Warden, Bailiffe, or Bailiffes, is or be, and euery Mayor, where there is no Maſter, and euery Maſter where there is no Maior, and euery Bailiffe or Bailiffes, where there is no Maior nor Maſter, ⁊ euery portreue, where no Maior, Maſter, Bailiffe, nor Bailiffes is or be, of euery Citie, Borough, and Towne, within euery ſuch Countie aforeſaid, and euery Conſtable of Hundred, where any Conſtable of Hundred is, out of euery Citie, Borough, ⁊ town where any Maior, Maſter, Bailiffe, or Bailiffes, or Portreeues is or be, and that euery Steward keeping or holding Wapentake or Leet of any perſon out of Citie, Borough or Towne, where no Maior, Maſter, Bailiffe or Bailiffes, or Portreeues is or be, ſhall haue power ⁊ authoritie by this Ordinance to heare and determine the complaints of euery ſuch Clothmaker, and labourer, alwell for non paiment of the ſaid Labourers wages, as of the ſaid forfeiture and damages, by due examination of the parties in this behalfe, thereupon for non-payment of the ſaid duties and forfeiture, and for the ſaid dammages to commit the Euery worker of wool ſhall do his duty therein lawfully.

The Fullers dutie in his occupation.

What Magiſtrates may enquire of and puniſh ſuch as doe offend.

What proces ſhall be awarded by Iuſtices of peace againſt offendors.

ſaid offendors in this behalfe to the next Gaole within the ſame Countie, there to remaine till the ſaid duties, forfeitures, and damages be fully paid to the ſaid Labourer or Clothmaker. And alſo that euery of the ſaid Iuſtices of Peace, Maior, Maſter, Warden, Bailiffe or Bailiffes, Portréeue, and Steward of Wapentake and Léet, vpon the information or complaint of any other perſon which is not grieued, in this behalfe, ſhall haue power by the ſaid authoritie within his Iuriſdiction to cauſe the party to come before him, againſt whom ſuch information or complaint ſhall be made, for offending this Ordinance, and to examine him in and vpon the matter contained in the ſame information or complaint: and if the party by examination, or other due proofe be found guiltie or defectiue, that then the ſame partie, as often and for euery time that he is ſo found guiltie or defectiue, ſhall forfeit to the King, or to ſuch perſon or perſons, which is or be intitled to haue fines or amerciaments for offences done within their Iuriſdiction, iij.s.iiij.d. And that euery of the ſaid Iuſtices of Peace, and other officers aforeſaid within his Iuriſdiction vpon euery of the ſaid informations or complaints ſhall haue full power to make like proceſſe againſt the partie, vpon whom any ſuch information or complaint, as before is rehearſed, ſhall be made, to cauſe him perſonally to appeare before him, thereupon to be examined, as Iuſtices of Peace haue vpon information or complaint made to them, for ſuretie of peace, without any fée or reward to be taken or had by any of the ſaid Iuſtices, or any other officer in this party, for the execution of their offices in this behalfe.

No Clothes made in any other Region ſhall be brought into England to be ſold. St.11.Ed.3.3.

Alſo it is ordained and eſtabliſhed, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all manner of Wóollen Clothes made in any other Region, brought into this Realme of England, and ſet to ſale within any part of this Realme of England after the ſaid Feaſt of S. Peter, ſhall be forfeit to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, except Clothes made in Wales, and Ireland, and Clothes taken by any of the Kings Liege people vpon the Sea without fraud or colluſion. and by the authority aforeſaid it is ordained and eſtabliſhed, that any other Act or Ordinance made in this preſent Parliament concerning Clothmaking, or any of the Premiſſes contrary, or not according to this Act, ſhall be void and of none effect.

CAP. II.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter, Anno ſeptimo Edw: quarti, & Anno Domini 1467.

At the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the third day of Iune the ſeventh yeare of the raigne of King Edward the fourth after the Conqueſt. Our ſaid Lord the King, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the requeſt of his Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame Parliament, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed certaine Statutes and Ordinances in manner and forme following.

Cap. I.

The Election, Oath, Authority, Searching and Sealing of the Wardens of Worſted Weauers in Norwich and Norfolke.

First, for that there be as well within the City of Norwich, as elſewhere within the County of Norffolke, diuers perſons, which doe make vntrue wares of all manner of Worſteds, not being of the aſſiſe in length nor in bredth, nor of good ſtuffe, and right making as they ought to be, and of old time were accuſtomed, and the ſleyes and yarne pertaining to the ſame, not well made and wrought, in great deceit as well of denizens, as of ſtrangers inhabiting or repayring to this realme, which haue vſed and doe vſe to buy ſuch merchandiſes, truſting that they were within as they ſeemed without, where indeed it is contrary. And for that the Worſteds in times paſt were lawfully wrought, and merchandiſe well liked, and greatly deſired and eſteemed in the parts beyond the Sea: Now becauſe they be of no right making, nor good ſtuffe, they be reported and eſteemed deceitfull and vnlawfull merchandiſe, and of little regard, to the great damage of our Lord the King, and great preiudice of his loyall ſubiects. Our ſaid Lord the King, by the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of his Commons, being in the ſaid parliament, and by the authoritie of the ſaid Parliament, for the wealth of his people, and the perpetuall amendment of the ſaid Worſteds, and eſchewing and auoyding all maner deceits to be done and wrought in Worſteds, by them that worke the ſame, and the meanes thereof: hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that men of the ſaid craft within the ſaid City, ſhall haue power euery yeare the Munday next after the Feaſt of Pentecoſt, to chooſe foure Wardens within the ſaid City of the ſame Craft. And alſo that Artificers of the ſame craft likewiſe out of the City, that is to ſay, within the county of Norfolke, ſhall haue power euery yeare at the ſame day to chooſe foure wardens within and of the ſaid county, of the ſame craft. And the aforeſaid Wardens in the ſaid county and citie, to come before the Mayor of the ſaid citie for the time being, vpon the Munday next after the Feaſt of Corpus Chriſti then next following, & then to be ſworne before the Maior of the ſaid Citie, and the Steward of the Duchy of Lancaſter within the ſaid county for the time being, if it happen him within the ſaid county then to be preſent, or elſe before the ſaid Mayor onely, the ſaid Steward then being abſent. And that all the ſaid Wardens, as well within the ſaid City as without, or elſe the greateſt part of them, vnder this forme before recited, choſen and ſworne, ſhall haue full power for the yeare then next following, to ſuruey the workmanſhip of the ſaid Artificers, and that they make and worke rightfully and well and of good ſtuffe, and to ordaine ſuch rules and ordinances within the ſaid craft, as often as it ſhall ſeeme needfull or neceſſary for the amendment of the ſaid Worſteds and craft: And that all ſuch rules and ordinances ſo made and ordained by them, ſhall be obeyed and kept by the ſaid Artificers.

Foure Wardens of worſted weauers in Norwich, and other foure in Norfolke.

Foure Wardens ſhall take their oath before the Maior, &c. 26. H. 8. 16.

The Wardens power.

Or

Puniſhment of the offendors.

The length and bredth of pieces of Worſted.

Wardens may ſeiſe defectiue ſtuffe.

Or otherwiſe foure of the ſaid Wardens, calling to them ſix of the moſt diſcreet of the ſaid artificers within the ſaid citie, and ſix of the ſame artificers within the ſaid county, by the diſcretion of the ſaid Mayor and Steward, or of one of them, ſhall puniſh ſuch of the ſaid artificers, which breaketh or doth contrary to any of their ſaid rules and ordinances. And that euery peece of worſted ſhall be purſuing through the piece of lawfull making, good and conuenient ſtuffe: And that they ſhall hold the length and bredth as the aſſiſe was wont to be of old time rightfully accuſtomed, that is to ſay, beds of the greateſt aſſiſe, fourteene yards largely in length, and foure yards largely in bredth: and beds of the meane aſſiſe, twelue yards in length, & three yards in bredth: and beds of the leaſt aſſiſe, ten yards in length, and fiue quarters in bredth: and cloaths called Monkes cloaths, twelue yards in length at the leaſt, and fiue quarters in bredth: and cloaths called Chanon cloaths, of the one aſſiſe ſix yards in length, and two yards in bredth, and of the other aſſiſe fiue yards in length, and ſeuen quarters in bredth: and double Motleyes ſeuen yards in length, and fiue quarters in bredth: and ſingle Motleyes ſix yards in length, and fiue quarters in bredth: and double Worſted ten yards in length, and fiue quarters in bredth: and the halfe double Worſted ſix yards in length, and fiue quarters in bredth: & the roll of Worſted thirty yards in length, and halfe a yard in bredth. And that no lambs wooll be put in any of the ſaid worſteds: and that the Wardens of the ſaid craft and euery of them for the time being, ſhall haue power and authoritie to ſeiſe all ſuch cloaths and ſtuffe ſo being defectiue.

The Maior & ſteward, &c. may inquire of, heare & determine al offences

Twelue artificers ſhal inquire of the viii. Wardens.

And that the Mayor and Steward, and euery of them, by twelue of the diſcreet Artificers of the ſaid citie and county, ſhall haue power at all times to enquire, heare, & determine of all ſuch as doe againſt the ſaid Ordinances within the ſaid citie or county. And moreouer, in eſchewing all ſuch deceits and falſhoods which might happen to be wrought and done in the ſaid craft by the eight Wardens aforeſaid, or betwixt themſelues onely, or in concealing of the falſe workmanſhip of other of the ſaid Artificers in the ſaid city and county, That the Mayor of the ſaid city for the time being, and the ſaid Steward or one of them at ſuch time as he ſhall thinke conuenient, ſhall call before him the ſaid twelue Artificers, or the greateſt part of them, and charge them to be ſworne to make rightfull ſearch as well in the ſtuffe, as in all the working of the worſted by the ſaid eight Wardens hereafter to be wrought and made.

The puniſhment of the Wardens defectiue.

Where the Wardens may ſearch.

And that the ſaid Wardens ſo found defectiue either in execution of their Office in ſearch of all other of the ſame Artificers within the ſaid City and Countie, or elſe in their owne ſtuffe or workmanſhip, ſhal be corrected by the ſaid Maior or ſteward in ſuch forme as other offendors of the ſame craft ought of right to be corrected. And that the ſaid wardens & euery of thẽ in euery part of the ſaid Cite of Norwich, and elſewhere in the Counties of Norfolke, Suffolke, and Cambridge at all times conuenient ſhall haue power to ſearch all manner of Worſteds, and the ſtuffe of them, as well within the Loomes, as out of the Loomes, wrought within the ſaid Citie of Norwich, or County of Norfolke.

Defectiue ſtuffe ſhall be forfeit.

Euery man ſhal ſet his proper marke vpon his worſted.

And if any man before the ſaid Maior and Steward or either of them, bee thereof found defectiue, by their diſcretion, he ſhall be corrected, and the Worſted aud ſtuffe found in manner and forme aforeſaid defectiue, ſhall be forfeit. The one halfe of ſuch forfeiture found in the ſaid Citie of Norwich to be to the Maior of the ſame city, and found in any other place, to the Maior, or Bailiffes of the Cities, Boroughs and Townes, or to the chiefe Lords of the Fee, of and in ſuch place as ſhall happen any ſuch Worſteds and ſtuffe by the ſaid Wardens or by any of them by any cauſe aforeſaid to be found defectiue or forfeitable: & the other halfe to the Wardens of the ſaid craft for the time being. And that no man of the ſaid craft make any Worſted, vnleſſe hee put his proper marke fixed or wouen vpon the ſame by the ordinance of the ſaid Wardens, or elſe the ſame worſted ſhall be forfeit to our ſaid Lord the King:

Places of ſearch ſhall be appointed, and alſo dayes.

Wardens ſhall ſet their marke.

Moreouer, for the full reformation of the deceits and falſhood aboue rehearſed, by authority aforeſaid, it is ordeined & enacted, that the ſaid eight wardens. the ſaid munday next after Corpus Chriſti, yearely incontinently after their charge recited before the ſaid Maior and Steward, or one of them, ſhall aſſigne incontinently a certaine place or two within the ſaid citie and certain daies by the weeke, and an other certaine place or two or more if they thinke it neceſſary in the ſaid County of Norfolke, and certaine daies by the weeke for the yeare then next following, to the intent that euery piece of worſted, which in the ſame year ſhall be ſet to ſale, ſhall be brought before the Wardens of the ſaid craft for the time being, to one of the ſaid places ſo by them aſſigned, to the intent that as well the Artificers of worſteds, and the ſaid Wardens may certainly know the place where the ſaid worſteds may duely and rightfully be ſearched, and if the ſaid wardens find the ſaid worſteds by their ſearch well and lawfully made, that then ſuch a marke or token ſhall be ſet by the ſaid Wardens or by one of them, without fine or fee vpon the ſame, ſo that all Buyers may well know, which piece is ſufficiently, and rightfully ſearched & wrought, And that the ſaid ſearch ſhall as well extend to the ſtuffe of the ſame, as to the ſufficient making. And ſuch as they ſhall finde defectiue, that the Maior of the ſaid Citie and Steward of the ſaid Duchie or one of them for the time being, by the aſſent of the ſaid Wardens and twelue Artificers, ſhall haue power by this Act to ſet therein ſuch correction as to them ſhall ſeeme reaſonable, And for euery piece of Worſted, ſold not marked after the forme aforeſaid, that the firſt ſeller thereof ſhall forfeit the price of the piece ſo by him ſold, to our Lord the King. And that all Ordinances, Acts, and Grants made or to be made in preiudice, or contrary to the premiſſes concerning Worſteds, be void, and of none effect.

And that all Maiors, Sheriffes, and Bailiffes, and all other Officers ſhall be attending, ayding and ſupporting to the ſaid Wardens in their ſearch, as often as they or any of them ſhall bee by the ſaid Wardens or any of them reaſonably required. St.20.H.6.10. 23.H.6.4. 14.H.8.3.

All officers ſhall be attendant vpon the ſearchers.

Cap. II.

The inhabitants of certaine Hundreds in the County of Devon, may put flocks in the Cloth made of the Wooll growing in the ſame Hundreds.

ITem, it was ſhewed to our ſaid Lord the King in the ſaid Parliament, by the Inhabitants and reſidents of the Hundreds of Liſton, Taueſtocke, and Rowburgh within the Countie of Deuonſhire, that whereas in the laſt Parliament begunne at Weſtminſter the nine and twentieth day of April, the third year of his raigne, And by diuers prorogations & adiournments continued till the xxi of January, in the fourth yeare of his raigne, amongſt other things it was ordained by authority of the ſame Parliament, that no perſon which ſhould make any woollen Cloth to ſell, from the feaſt of S. Peter called ad vincula, then next following, ſhould put in or vpon the ſame cloth, nor in the wooll whereof the ſaid cloth ſhall be made, any flocks in any wiſe, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame cloth, wherein any flockes ſhould be put or mixt, as by the ſaid ordinance more plainely appeareth. By which ordinance the ſaid inhabitants being within the ſaid Hundreds, were likely to be vndone, for that they haue continually vſed from the time whereof is no memory, to mixe and put flockes in the Cloth made thereof, the wooll growing within the ſame Hundreds, without which flocks they might nor could make any cloth there to ſell, by reaſon of the groſſeneſſe and ſtubbornneſſe of the ſaid wooll: For the ſame wooll is not put in clothing, nor in cloth in any part of this realme, ſo that our ſaid Lord the King by the ſaid ordinance ſhall loſe his Cuſtomes, Aulnages, and all other profits pertaining and belonging to him of the ſaid Cloth made in the ſaid Hundreds, and the inhabitants aforeſaid for euer ſhall be vtterly impoueriſhed, and like to be vndone, vnleſſe a reformation be had in the premiſſes.

Stat.4.Ed.4.1.

Our ſaid Lord the King (the premiſſes conſidered) by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spiritual & Temporal, & the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame hath ordained, that all the ſaid inhabitants and reſidents in any places within the ſame thrée Hundreds, may make and cauſe to bee made all manner woollen cloth of the ſaid wooll, and to the ſame lawfully put and cauſe to be put ſuch quantity of flocks as ſhall be néedfull, and profitable to the maker and owner of the ſame cloth. And that all the clothes after ſuch forme to bee made with flocks within the ſaid thrée Hundreds, and euery of them, may be bought and ſold at all times, without any impeaching or dammage of any perſon, and without forfeiting any of the ſaid clothes, notwithſtanding the ſaid ordinance aboue rehearſed. St.5.Ed.6.6. 27.El.17.

The inhabitants of Liſton, Taueſtock, and Rowburgh may put flockes into their clothes, notwithſtanding the Statute of 4 Ed 4 1.

Cap. III.

No Woollen yarne or Cloth ſhall be carried beyond Sea vnfulled.

ITem, it was ſhewed in the ſaid Parliament by the Commons, that whereas in diuers parts within this realme, Merchants, as well Strangers as Denizens, haue daily vſed to buy woollen yarne by the pound, and other waights, in diuers Markets and Faires, whereof cloth ſhould be made: and likewiſe to buy raw clothes not fulled, and the ſame yarne and raw clothes ſo not fulled, did carry beyond the ſea, For all which yarne and clothes vnfulled our Lord the King did take no manner Cuſtome, Aulnage, nor any other profit or auaile, where if the ſaid yarne were wouen, and the ſaid Clothes fulled within this Realme, the King ſhould haue the cuſtome and aduantage for the ſame, and Weauers and Fullers of the ſaid Realme ſhould be well occupied, for default whereof the Kings liege people be greatly hurt and impoueriſhed, and ſtrangers thereby the better occupied and enriched: Wherefore our ſaid Lord the King by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall & Temporal, & at the requeſt of his Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that no perſon, denizen or ſtranger from the Feaſt of the Aſſumption, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord God 1468. ſhal cary or cauſe to be caried into any parts beyond the Sea, any woollen yarne or cloth not fulled, but that the woollen yarne, which ſhall be made after the ſame Feaſt in this realme, ſhal be wouen in the ſame Realme. And alſo all cloth therin made, after the ſaid Feaſt ſhall be fulled, & fully wrought within the ſaid Realme, before that it be had and carried out of this Realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of the very value of all ſuch yarne vnwouen, and Cloth not fulled had or carried out of this Realme. The one halfe of the ſame forfeiture to be leuied to the Kings vſe, and the other halfe thereof to him or them that eſpieth or maketh proofe of any ſuch vnwouen yarne, or Cloth not fulled after the ſaid Feaſt to be carried to any place beyond the Sea. St.50.Ed.3.7.

No perſon ſhall carry beyond the Sea, any woollen yarne or cloth not fulled. St.3.H.7.11. 8.El.6. 3.H.8.7.

Cap. IIII.

The effect of the Kings grant of lands to them, which before had right in them.

The force of the K. grants, releaſes, &c. of lands to them which before had right to them.

ITem, by the aduice, aſſent, and authoritie aforeſaid it is ordained that euery grant, releaſe, confirmation, and reſtitution made and granted by the King in Fee ſimple, or Fee taile, to any perſon or perſons after the fourth day of March, the firſt yeare of his raigne, of any mannor or mannors, lands, or tenements with their appurtenances, whereunto the ſaid perſon or perſons before the time of euery ſuch grant, releaſe, confirmation, or reſtitution to him or them ſo made, had in or to the ſame right or title, ſhall be of ſuch force and effect as they were before the beginning of the ſaid Parliament. Any Act made or to be made in the ſame Parliament notwithſtanding,

Cap. V.

How lands comming to the Kings hands by attainder, and after granted to another, ſhall be holden.

Lands holden of a common perſon by fealty, &c. comming to the K. hands by attainder of treaſon, being after granted to another, ſhall be holden as if the ſame attainder had not beene

ITem, by the aduice, aſſent, and authority aforeſaid it is ordained, that all lands, tenements, hereditaments, and other poſſeſſions, which the firſt day of March, next before the fourth day of March, the firſt yeare of the Kings raigne were holden by fealtie and rent, or other ſeruices, of any perſon or perſons not attainted, which lands, tenements, hereditaments, or other poſſeſſions the fourth day of March, in the firſt yeare of the Kings raigne, or any time after came into the Kings hands or poſſeſſion, by reaſon of any attaindor of treaſon, and after paſſed from the King by any of his Letters patents, to any perſon or perſons, or hereafter ſhall paſſe from the King by any of his Letters patents to any perſon or perſons, that the ſame perſon or perſons and euery of them, and euery their heire and heires, aſſignee and aſſignes, ſucceſſor & ſucceſſors, ſhal haue, perceiue, and take ſuch rent and rents, as to any of them were due, & ought to be due of the ſame lands, tenements, hereditaments, or other poſſeſſions, or any of them being in the hands of any other perſon or perſons then the King, as if the ſaid attaindors had not been had: And that it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon or perſons not attainted, and to euery of them, & to euery of their heire or heires, aſſignee, and aſſignes, ſucceſſor, and ſucceſſors, in the ſame lands, tenements, hereditaments, or other poſſeſſions, being in the hands of any other perſon or perſons then of the King for the ſaid rent or rents to diſtraine, after ſuch maner and forme as they & euery of them might haue done, if the ſame attaindors had not beene had. This Act to be in his force the firſt day of this ſaid Parliament.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter Anno octauo Edw. quarti, & Anno Dom. 1468.

OVr Lord the King EDVVARD the fourth after the Conqueſt, at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the third day of Iune, the ſeuenth yeare of his raigne, and by diuers Prorogations and Adiournments continued till the twelfth day of May, the eight year of his raign. The ſame xij. day by the aduice & aſſent of his Lords Spiritual and Temporal, & at the ſpeciall requeſt of his Commons, in the ſame Parliament aſſembled, hath made, ordained, & ſtabliſhed diuers Statutes & Ordinances in the form following.

Cap. I.

The length, breadth, and weight of broad ſet Clothes and ſtrait ſet Clothes made in Norffolk Suffolke, and Eſſex. And they ſhall be ſealed by the Aulneger. Rep. 5. Ed. 6. 6.

Cap. II.

The penaltie for giuing or taking of Liueries, or for retaining. Rep. 3. Car. 4.

Cap. III.

In actions triable by Iurors of Middleſex, the Iurors ſhall be called the fourth day.

The generall charges and troubles which the freeholders of Middleſex being Iurors doe endure.

ITem, it was ſhewed by the Commons in the ſaid Parliament, on the behalf of the freeholders dwelling within the County of Middleſex, within which County there be yearely many actions ſued and tryals had by twelue men, which be within many other Counties of this Realme, in regard of the reſiance of all the Kings Courts holden and remaining at Weſtminſter within the ſaid County, ſo that in euery action brought to an iſſue in the ſaid County, ſome of the ſaid freeholders be impanelled, to their great vexation: and further the Seſſions of Peace holden within the ſaid County, by inquiſitions in the Kings Bench, and vpon the deliuerance of Priſoners there, and by actions vpon patents and tailes ſued in the Kings Eſchequer, & to Sheriffes and other accountants, their deputies and Atturnies, ſurmiſes be ſhewed and iſſues thereupon ioyned and taken, the ſame tenants, alwaies impanelled thereupon be importunately vexed, grieued and impoueriſhed, and (which more hurt is) when they be impannelled vpon diuers actions perſonall, and the Venire facias, and Habeas Corpora returned: a delay by eſſoine or default is by the Law allowed to the party Plaintiffe, or defendant: and though ſome of them, which be impannelled, would appeare, yet the Iury ſhould not be demanded, but all their defaults without demanding (be it amerciament or iſſues ſo vpon them returned) ſhall be entred, no default being in them, which is againſt reaſon. Our Lord the King (the premiſſes conſidered) by the aduice of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the requeſt of the Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, hath ordained, that euery Iuror, from the feaſt of the bleſſed Trinity next comming, that ſhall be impannelled and returned within the ſaid County of Middleſex, in any of the ſaid courts, in any of the ſaid actions, at euery fourth day of the returne thereof ſhall be demanded and called, and that all perſons impannelled in any of thoſe courts that doth appeare at the ſame day, their appearance ſhall be recorded and there entred by the Court, and they ſhall not be amerced, nor loſe any Iſſues the ſame day in that ſuit. And it is ordained by the ſame authority, that euery default, eſſoine, and euery other delay of any perſon plaintiffe or defendant in any ſuch perſonall action by the Law heretofore vſed, by this ordinance ſhall not be preiudiced, nor taken away in any maner, but be adiudged, adiourned, and allowed, in as ample and large forme, as they were before the making of this Statute. This ordinance notwithſtanding.

In actions triable in any court at Weſtminſter by Iurors of Middleſex, at the fourth day after the returne the Iurors ſhall be called.

Delaies in perſonall actions not preiudiced by this Statute.

Cap. IIII.

A pardon to all thoſe that occupyed the Sheriffewick aboue one yeare Anno 1.2.3. Ed.4. And yet the Statutes made 14 Ed.3.7. 42. Ed.3. & 23. H.6.8. for all the other yeares ſhal cõtinue. Exp.

Statutes made at Weſtminſter, Anno duodecimo Edw. quarti. & Anno Domini 1472.

AT the Parliament holden at Weſtminſt. the ſixt day of October, in the xij. yeare of the raigne of King Edward the fourth after the Conqueſt: our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King to the honor of God, and the weale of him and of his realme, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the requeſt of his Commons in the ſame Parliament aſſembled and by authority of the ſame Parliament, hath ordained, made and eſtabliſhed certaine Statutes and Ordinances in forme following.

Cap. I.

How long a Sheriffe being not diſcharged may occupy his office.

FIrſt, whereas by a Statute made at Weſtminſter, in the xxiij. yeare of the raigne of King Henry late in deed and not of right King of England called King Henry the ſixt, it was ordained, that no Sheriffe ſhould occupy his office of Sheriffe aboue a yeare, vpon paine of two hundred pounds: Except certaine perſons in the ſaid Statute excepted, as in the ſame is more plainely ſpecified. Diuers and many of the Kings liege people haue beene grieuouſly endamaged and greatly delayed of their ſuits and proceſſes euery yeare, in the terme called Michaelmas Terme, as for their actions, writs and precepts to be returned within the ſame Terme, after the ſixt day of the Moneth of Nouember, becauſe that the kings letters patents whereby any Sheriffe is made, doe moſt commonly beare date, the ſixt day of Nouember. And though it ſo be, that the new Sheriffes be yearly choſen the morrow after the Feaſt of All Soules, of which new Sheriffes ſo choſen and appointed, diuers of them haue refuſed, and diuers of them haue not had their patents, nor taken their othe, vntill long time after the end of the ſaid Michaelmas Terme, by reaſon whereof diuers of the Kings liege people and ſubiects be greatly endamaged and delayed of their ſuits, proceſſes, and precepts, which ſhould be returnable in the Kings Courts at the daies of the returne within the ſame terme after the ſixt day of Nouember, that is to ſay, at the daies of returne, called Craſtino Martini, Octabis Martini, and Quindena Martini, becauſe that the old Sheriffes durſt not, nor would not take vpon them to returne any writ or precept after the yeare, that his patent did beare date, for feare of the penalty contained in the aforeſaid Statute, to the great loſſe as well to the King of that which ſhould grow to him by reaſon of the ſaid proceſſe, as to his liege people, by delayes which they thereby ſuſtaine: It is ordained by authoritie of the aforeſaid Parliament, that if any Sheriffe of any County doe execute or returne any Writ, Precept, or Warrant in any of the ſaid Courts of the King within the ſaid Terme called Michaelmas Terme, after the firſt day of Nouember, and before any writ of diſcharge deliuered to him of his occupying of Sheriffewick, he ſhall not be damnified by force of the ſaid Statute, nor charged of the penaltie aforeſaid, although that he hath occupied the office of Sheriffe, after any of the ſaid daies of returne called Craſtino Martini, Octabis Martini, or Quindena Martini. St, 17.Ed.4.5.

Cap. II.

Foure Bowſtaues ſhall be brought into this Realme for euery Tunne of Merchandiſe.

ITem, becauſe that our Soueraigne Lord the King by a petition deliuered to him in the ſaid Parliament by the Commons of the ſame, hath perceiued that great ſcarcitie of Bowſtaues is now in this Realme, and the Bowſtaues that be in the Realme, be ſold at an exceſſiue price, whereby the exerciſe of Archery is greatly diſcontinued, and almoſt loſt: Our ſaid Lord the King conſidering the premiſſes, by the aduice, aſſent and authoritie aforeſaid, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that euery Merchant ſtranger, and euery, or any of their Factors, Atturnies, or Seruants, which at any time after the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel next comming, ſhall bring, ſend, or conuey into this land any merchandiſe in Carracke, Galley, or Ship, of the Citty or Countrey of Venice, or of other Citie, Towne, or Countrey, from whence any ſuch Bowſtaues haue beene before this time brought, ſent, or conueyed into this land, at euery time of their bringing, ſending, or conueying of any ſuch merchandiſes into this Realme, ſhall bring, ſend, or conuey into this Realme, with the ſaid merchandiſes, in the ſame Carracke, Galley, or Ship, wherein any ſuch merchandiſes ſhall be hereafter brought, ſent, or conueyed, for euery tunne waight of ſuch merchandiſes, which hereafter ſhall be contained in euery Carracke, Galley, or Ship, foure bowſtaues, vpon paine of forfeiture to the King for euery default of bringing of euery ſuch Bowſtaffe ſixe ſhillings eight pence. And alſo the ſaid Bowſtaues ſo brought, ſent, or conueyed by the ſaid Merchants, their Factors, Atturnyes, or ſeruants into this Realme, ſhall be ſearched and ſurueyed by the Maior, Sheriffes, Bailiffes, or chiefe gouerners of ſuch Cities or Townes within this Realme, where any ſuch Carracke, Galley, or Ship ſhall hereafter come to ſafe Port: And the ſaid Maiors, Sheriffes, Bailiffes, or chiefe Gouerners ſhall aſſigne two men moſt expert, to ſearch the ſaid Staues, and the ſaid two men to be ſworne by the ſaid Maior, Sheriffes, Bailiffes, or chief gouernors, that they ſhall truely and indifferently marke the ſtaues that be not good and ſufficient, according to the maner as ſuch Staues in times paſt were wont to be marked, to the intent that all the Kings liege people may haue knowledge of them without fraud. Stat.13.El.14.

Foure Bowſtaues ſhall be brought into this Realme for euery Tunne of Merchandiſes.

Bowſtaues brought into this Realme ſhall be ſurueyed, ſearched and marked.

Cap. VII.

The penalty of them that doe not performe the award and order of Commiſſioners authoriſed to pull downe Weares.

ITem, whereas by the laudable Statute of Magna Charta, amongſt other things it is contained, that all Kedles by Thamiſe and Medewey, and throughout the realm of England, ſhould be taken away, ſauing by the Sea bankes, which Statute was made for the great wealth of all this land, in auoiding the ſtraitneſſe of all Riuers, ſo that ſhips and Boats might haue in them their large and free paſſage, and alſo in ſafegard of all the fry of Fiſh ſpawned within the ſame, vpon which Magna Charta the great ſentence and Apoſtolike curſe by a great number of Biſhops was pronounced againſt the breakers of the ſame, and the ſame ſentence is foure times in the yeare openly declared according to the Law of the holy Church: and in affirmance of the ſaid Statute of the great Charter diuers Statutes haue beene after made and ordained, amongſt which in a Parliament holden in the firſt yeare of the vſurped raigne of King Henry the fourth Stat.9.H.3.23. Statutes that haue been made for the pulling downe or reforming of weares and of the Commiſſioners authoritie.

Stat.1.H.4.12. Stat.25.Ed.3.4.

it was recited that in the fiue and twentieth yeare of King Edward the third, progenitor of our Lord the King that now is, becauſe that the common paſſages of Ships and Boats in the great Riuers of England were oftentimes diſturbed by leuying of Weares, Mils, Milſtanks, Stakes and Kedles, to the great damage of the people, it was ordained and eſtabliſhed that all ſuch Weares, Mills, Milſtanks, Stakes Kedles which were leuyed and ſet vp in the time of King Edward, ſonne of King Henry, and after in ſuch Riuers (whereby the Ships and Boats were diſturbed that they could not paſſe as they were wont) ſhould be taken away and broken downe, neuer to be ſet vp againe: and that Writs ſhould be thereupon ſent to the Sheriffe of ſuch places where need ſhould be, to ſurvey and enquire and the ſame to execute: and that Iuſtices ſhould be thereto aſſigned at all times when need requireth. And after grieuous complaint both of great men and of the Commons thereupon made in the Parliament of the ſaid King Edward the third, in the fiue and fortieth yeare of his Raigne, ſhewing by their petition, that the ſaid Statute was not duly executed nor obſerued according to the forme and the effect thereof: It was accorded and eſtabliſhed, that the ſame Statute in that point ſhould be holden and kept, according to the tenor of the ſame, adioyned thereto, that if any ſuch anoyance be done, that the ſame be broken downe by due proces contained in the ſaid Statute, and that he which againe doth leuy ſuch anoiances, and be thereof duly attainted, ſhall runne in the paine of an hundred markes to our Lord the King, to be leuyed by the eſtreats of the Eſchequer. The ſame Law ſhall be holden of anoyance made by the enhanſing of the ſaid Weares, Mils, Milſtanks, Stakes & Kedles as by new leuying, as in the ſaid Statutes more plainely appeareth. And then at the requeſt of the ſaid commons, ſhewing by their petition, that the Common paſſages of ſhips and boats in the great Riuers of England, and alſo medowes and paſtures, and arable lands adioining to the ſaid riuers, were greatly diſturbed, drowned, waſted, and deſtroyed by the outragious enhanſing and ſtreiting of weares, mils, milſtanks, ſtakes, and kedles, made in old time and leuyed before the time of the ſaid King Edward, ſonne to the ſaid King Henry: whereby great loſſe and damage often enſued to the people of the Realme, and daily would enſue if remedy were not prouided.

St 47.Ed.3.1.

Stat.1.H.4.12.

Wherefore it was ordained and enacted by the aſſent of the ſaid Parliament, holden the firſt year of the ſaid pretenſed King Henry the fourth, that the ſaid ſtatutes in all their articles ſhould be obſerued, firmely kept, and duly executed: adioyned thereto that Commiſſions ſhould be made in due forme to ſufficient perſons to be Iuſtices in euery County of England, where need ſhould be, to ſuruey and keep the waters and great riuers there, and to correct and amend the faults, and to make due execution by the ſaid Statutes according to the effect of the ſame, as well by their Suruey, aduice and diſcretion, as by enqueſts to be taken thereof within franchiſe and without, when need ſhall be, and to heare and determine all thoſe things aforeſaid, and moreouer to ſuruey the weares, mils, milſtanks, ſtakes, and kedles, made in old time and leuyed before the ſaid time of King Edward, ſonne to King Henry: and ſuch as they find too much enhanſed or ſtreited, to correct, breake downe, and amend in the maner and forme aforeſaid.

Sauing alwaies a reaſonable ſubſtance of the ſame weares, mils, milſtanks, ſtakes, and kedles, ſo made in old time and leuyed. And if any ſuch anoyances of Weares, Mils, Milſtanks, ſtakes, and kedles, in letting of the paſſages and ſtreiting made in old time and leuyed, be iudged or conſidered by the ſaid Iuſtices to be broken downe or amended, he that hath the freehold of the ſame ſhall doe execution thereof at his owne coſts, within halfe a yeare after knowledge giuen to him vpon paine of forfeiture of an C. markes, to be paid to our Lord the King by eſtreats in the Exchequer: and he that doth leuy them againe, enhance, or ſtreit them contrary to the ſaid iudgement, and thereof be duly conuict, ſhall runne in the paine of an hundred markes, to be paid to our Lord the King by Eſtreats into the Eſchequer aforeſaid, as in the ſame Statutes more fully appeareth: Contrary to which great Charter, & all the Statutes aforeſaid, in diuers parts of this Realme of England, both in the deſtroying of the Fiſh as afore is ſaid, and in diſturbance of the paſſages of ſhips, Barges, Boats, and other veſſels by diuers and many people, diuers fiſh Garthes, Mils, Mildammes, Milſtanks, Locks, Ebbing Weares, Stakes, Kedles, Heckes, or Floodgates, and diuers other diſturbances be daily enhaunced, leuyed and enlarged, to the great damage of our Lord the King, and of his faithfull lieges. Our ſaid Lord the King graciouſly conſidering the premiſſes, by the the aduice and aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and at the requeſt of the ſaid Commons in this Parliament aſſembled, & by authority of the ſame hath ordained and eſtabliſhed, that the ſaid Statute of the great Charter,, and all other ſtatutes concerning the premiſſes, ſhall be duly obſerued and kept: adioyned thereto, that if after the feaſt of Saint Michaell, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God, 1475. by award, rule, or iudgement of any of the ſaid Commiſſioners aſſigned, according to the ſaid Statute made in the ſaid firſt yeare of Henry the fourth, it be found that any ſuch Weares, Fiſh Garthes, Milles, Mildammes, Milſtanks, Locks, Ebbing weares, Stake, Kedles, Heckes, or Floodgates, be made, leuyed, enhaunched, ſtraited or enlarged againſt the ſame Statute, the offendors in this behalf, contrary to the aforeſaid award, rule and iudgment, being duly warned by the Sheriffe or Sheriffes by Scirefacias, directed to the Sheriffe or Sheriffs of ſuch county or counties, where ſuch weares,

Coke li.10.f.1.8.

A confirmation of all Statutes made for the pulling downe of weares.

The penalty of an offender that doth not performe the award of Commiſſioners authorized by the Stat. of 1. H. 4. 12.

Fiſhgarthes, Mils, Mildammes, Milſtanks, and other noyances, diſturbances, or impediments be, and within thrée moneths next after the ſaid garniſhment made they doe not duly and wholly amend, breake downe and auoid the ſaid making, leuying, enhancing, ſtreiting or enlarging, being defectiue as afore is ſaid in the ſaid Statute made in the ſaid firſt yeare, that then he or they being defectiue in this behalfe, ſhall forfeit to our Lord the King, an hundred marks, to be paid by eſtreats in the Eſchequer, in maner and forme as in the ſame Statute more fully is contained.

The penalty of him which doth continue in his offence or doth delay to reforme it.

Moreouer if the ſaid offendor or his heire or heires, aſſignée or aſſignes, or any of them do deferre or continue the ſame default, contrary to the award, rule and iudgement of the Commiſſioners aforeſaid, that he or they ſo doing, deferring or continuing the ſaid default, ſhall forfeit for euery moneth after the ſaid thrée moneths ended, that the ſame default ſhall remaine and be not corrected, amended, nor reformed, an hundred markes, the one halfe thereof to our Lord the King and the other halfe to any of his liege people which in this behalfe will ſue for the ſame by action of debt to be conceiued by originall Writ, without fine to be made or taken for the ſame in the Chancery.

In which action, like proceſſe, rule, iudgement and execution ſhall be allowed, had and made, as is vſed in other actions of debt purſued at the Common Law by Writ, and that the defendant in any ſuch action be not admitted to doe or wage his Law, nor that any protection or eſſoin of the Kings ſeruice be allowed for the defendant in the ſame Writ.

The penalty of the heire or aſſignee of the offender that continueth the ſame offence.

Moreouer it is ordained and eſtabliſhed by the ſame authority, that if any perſon or perſons, other then ſuch, againſt whom ſuch award,, rule or iudgement were made and had, being heire or aſſignée to them or any of them, doe preſume to occupy or continue any ſuch weares, Fiſhgarths, Mils, Mildammes, Milſtanks, Locks, Ebbing Weares, Stakes, Kedles, Heckes, Floodgates or other diſturbances, or impediments as afore is ſaid, he or they ſo preſuming to occupy or continue, ſhall forfeit at euery default for euery moneth as is aforeſaid an hundred markes, the one halfe to our Lord the King, and the other halfe to him of the Kings liege people that will in this behalfe ſue by action of debt, thereupon to be conceiued, without paying any fine for the ſame, as is aforeſaid: In which action like proceſſe, rule, iudgement, and execution ſhall be vſed and made as in all other actions of debt purſued at the Common Law by writ is vſed: and that the defendant in any ſuch action ſhall not be admitted, nor in any wiſe receiued to wage or doe his Law: Nor any maner protection or eſſoine of the Kings ſeruice be for ſuch defendant in any wiſe allowed.

Cap. VIII.

All Mayors, Bailiffes, &c. ſhall haue the ſearching and ſurueying of victuall.

Item, whereas the gouernours, that is to ſay, Maiors, Bailiffes, and other like gouernours of euery City, Borough and Towne of ſubſtance within this Realme of England for the moſt part haue Courts of Léets and viewes of frankpledge, holden yearely within the ſame Cities, Boroughes and Townes, and ſurueying of all victualers there, and correction and puniſhment of the offenders and breakers of the aſſiſe of the ſame, to be preſented and amerced if any default be found in the ſaid Courts, or by their ſurueying, which by reaſon ought not to be contraryed, nor the victualers there by the Law ought to be ſurcharged or oppreſſed, as now of late diuers perſons daily entending their ſingular auaile and profit to oppreſſe the ſaid Victualers and to enter and breake the liberty of diuers places in this Realme, hauing franchiſes, and ſurueying of all victualers and correction of the ſame: haue purchaſed letters patents of our Soueraigne Lord the King, to be Surueyors and Correctors of all ſuch victualers within diuers Cities, Boroughes, and other places of this Realme of England, as of Ale, Béere, Wine, and other ſuch victuals by which pretence and vnlawfull office they doe commit diuers and many extortions and oppreſſions amongſt the Kings liege people, taking of them vnlawfully diuers great fines and ranſomes, to the great damage of the Kings liege people, and alſo wrongfull derogation of the Liberties and Franchiſes of diuers of the ſaid Cities, Boroughes, and Townes. Our ſaid Lord the King (the premiſſes conſidering) by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the requeſt of the ſaid Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame Parliament hath ordained and eſtabliſhed that all letters patents granted by him to any perſon or perſons of any office of ſearching or ſurueying of Wine, Ale, Béere, or any other victuall, ſhall be vtterly void and of none effect. And that no perſon other then ſuch Gouernours before rehearſed or other intitled by point of Charter, from the feaſt of Eaſter next comming by colour of ſuch letters patents ſo obtained, or after to be obtained, as before is ſaid, ſhall vſe or exerciſe any ſuch office, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery default xl.li. CAP. IX.

What Lands an Eſchetor muſt haue, who he may make his deputie, he ſhall not let his office to farme.

ITem, whereas by an Ordinance made at Weſtminſter the xlij. yeare of the raigne of King Edward the third, progenitor of our Lord the King, that now is, amongſt other things it was ordained that none ſhould be made Eſcheator, vnleſſe he had twenty pound of land at the leaſt, or more in fee, and that they ſhould doe their offices in their proper perſons, and if any other bee, hee ſhall be out: which ordinance according to the true meaning thereof is not obſerued, to the great damage of diuers people of this Realme of England, becauſe that many perſons inſufficient & of euill conſcience, be yearely made Eſcheators in diuers parts of this Realme of England, which often doe ſet their office of Eſcheatorſhip to Farme to other great men extortioners and oppreſſors of the people, the ſame Eſcheators taking of the ſaid perſōs ſuch ſumme of money as betwixt them may be agreed, and ſurety to be diſcharged vpon their account, and to be ſaued harmeleſſe againſt our Soueraign Lord the King and all other perſons: which perſons ſo vnlawfully taking the ſaid office of Eſcheatorſhip, by an vndue maner to ferme, doe enforce themſelues to the extortioners and offendors to the people, where of old time by the gouernment of the Realme of England, Eſcheators and their deputies ſhould be, and ought to be good, ſufficient, & well diſpoſed perſons and rightfull, aſwell to our Lord the King, as to his people: where at this day few ſuch perſons be made Eſcheators or their Deputies. It is therefore ordained by authority of this preſent Parliament, that no Eſchetor to be made after the feaſt of the Natiuity of our Lord, which ſhal be in the yeare of our Lord God, M.CCCC.lxxiij. ſhall take vpon him the office of Eſcheator, nor occupy the ſame office by himſelfe, nor by any other, vnleſſe the ſaid Eſcheator, or other perſon or perſons to his vſe, haue at the time that he ſhall be choſen Eſcheator, Lands, Tenements, or Rents in fee ſimple, fee taile, or for terme of life, of the yearely value of twenty pound, lying & being within the ſame Countie or Counties, whereof he ſhall be made Eſcheator. Nor that any ſuch Eſcheator to be choſen after the ſaid Feaſt ſhall in any wiſe ſell nor ſet to Ferme the ſaid Office of Eſcheatorſhip, nor make any Deputy or Deputies, but ſuch for whom he will anſwere at his perill: the name or names of the ſaid Deputy or Deputies to be certified by the ſame Eſcheator by his Letters Patents to the Treaſurer, and Barons of the Kings Exchequer for the time being, within twenty daies after ſuch deputation. And that no ſuch deputy or deputies, take vpon him or them to occupy in the office of Eſcheatorſhip, vnleſſe ſuch Eſcheator haue lands, tenements or rents to the aforeſaid yearely value, in maner and forme as is aforeſaid: and if any perſon or perſons after the ſaid feaſt doe contrary to the premiſſes or any of them, he ſhall forfeit for euery default xl. li. the one halfe thereof to our Soueraigne Lord the King, to be imployed to the vſe of his honourable houſe: the other halfe to euery of the Kings liege people, which will therefore ſue by action of debt, wherein like proceſſe, rule, iudgement, coſts and damages, ſhall bee had and awarded, as is vſed in other actions of debt vſually purſued by writ at the common Law. And that no waging of Law, protection, nor eſſoine be in any wiſe allowed in the ſame to the defendant: And the Iuſtices of Peace in euery place corporate, and the Iuſtices of Peace in euery other place hauing Iuſtices of Peace within them, ſhall haue power to heare and determine euery ſuch forfeiture vpon preſentment thereof had before them in their Seſſions, in which preſentment, like proceſſe ſhall be had, as is vſed vpon enditements of treſpaſſe done with force and armes againſt the Kings Peace. Prouided alwaies, that this Act doe not extend to any perſon or perſons made or to be made Eſcheator of any Citie, Borough, or Towne of this Realme of England hauing authority to make or to be Eſcheators within themſelues by the letters patents of the grant of our Soueraign Lord the King, or of any of his noble progenitors or predeceſſors.

Stat. 42. Ed. 3. 5.

No man ſhal be Eſcheator vnles he hath xx. li. land or rent in the ſame County.

No Eſcheator ſhall let his office to farme, or make any deputy but for whom he will anſwere.

Cap. II.

In a Court of Pipowders the plaintiffe ſhall be ſworne that the contract was made in the time and iuriſdiction of the ſame Faire.

ITem, whereas diuers Faires be holden and kept in this Realm, ſome by preſcription allowed before Iuſtices in Eyre, and ſome by the grant of our Lord the King that now is, and ſome by the grant of his Progenitors and Predeceſſors: And to euery of the ſame Faires is of right pertaining a Court of Pipowders to miniſter in the ſame due iuſtice in this behalfe, in which Court it hath béene all times accuſtomed, that euery perſon comming to the ſaid Faires ſhould haue lawfull remedie of all maner of contracts, treſpaſſes, couenants, debts, and other déeds made or done within any of the ſame Faires during the time of the ſame Faire, and within the iuriſdiction of the ſame, and to be tried by Merchants being of the ſame Faire: which Courts at this day be miſuſed by Stewards, Underſtewards, Bailiffes, Commiſſioners, and other miniſters holding and gouerning the ſaid Courts of the ſaid Faires, for their priuate profit, holding plées by plaints as well of contracts, debts, treſpaſſes, and other feats done and committed out of the time of the ſaid Faires, or the iuriſdiction of the ſame, whereof of truth they haue no iuriſdiction, ſurmiſing the ſame debts, treſpaſſes, couenants, or other déeds, to be done within the time of the Faires, or within the iuriſdiction of the ſame Faires, where of truth they were not ſo. And ſometime by the deuiſe of euill diſpoſed people ſeuerall ſuits be fained, and trouble them to whom they beare euil will to this intent, that they for lucre may haue fauourable inqueſts of thoſe that come to the ſaid Faires, where they take their actions. And whereby, diuers perſons comming to the ſame Faires, be grieuouſly vexed and troubled by fained actions, and alſo by actions of debts, treſpaſſes, déeds and contracts, made and committed out of the time of the ſaid Faire or the iuriſdiction of the ſame, contrary to equitie and góod conſcience, wherby the Lords of the ſame Faires doe loſe great profit by the not comming of diuers Merchants to their Faires which by this occaſion doe abſtaine, and alſo the Commons be vnſerued of ſuch ſtuffe and merchandiſe, which otherwiſe would come to the ſame Faires: Our ſaid Lord the King, conſidering the premiſſes, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the requeſt of the Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, hath ordained and ſtabliſhed, that from the firſt day of May next enſuing, no Steward, Underſteward, Bailiffe, nor Commiſſary, nor other miniſter of any ſuch Courts of Pipowders ſhall hold plea vpon any action at the ſuit of any perſon or perſons, vnleſſe the plaintiffe or plaintiffes, or his or their atturny, in the preſence of the defendant or defendants, doe ſweare vpon the holy Euangeliſt vpon the declaration, that the contract or other déed contained in the ſaid declaration, was made or committed within the Faire, and within the time of the ſame Faire, where he taketh his action, & within the iuriſdiction and bounds of the ſame Faire. And although that the plaintiffe or plaintiffes by their othe doe affirme the ſame, yet neuertheleſſe the ſaid defendant or defendants, ſhall not be concluded by the ſame, but may anſwere and plead to the action, or in abatement of the plaints, and to proffer an iſſue that the ſame contract, treſpaſſe, or other déed contained in ſuch declaration whereupon the plaintiffe or plaintiffes doe declare, was not committed nor done within the time of the Faire and iuriſdiction of the ſame, but out of the time of the Faire, or at other places out of the iuriſdiction of the ſame Faire, according to the truth in this behalfe. And if it be ſo tried, or that the plaintiffe or plaintiffes or their atturnies doe refuſe to take the othes in the forme aforeſaid, that then the defendant or defendants ſhall be quite diſmiſſed and diſcharged in that behalfe out of the ſame Court, the party plaintiffe to take his remedy at the common Law or other place conuenient, as ſhall to him ſéem góod, notwithſtanding this Ordinance. And that euery Steward, Underſteward, Bailiffe, and Commiſſary, or other miniſter, holding, ruling, or gouerning any of the ſaid Courts that doth the contrary of this ordinance, ſhall forfeit for euery default in this behalfe C.s. The one halfe to be to our Lord the King, and the other half to him that will in this behalfe purſue his action vpon this Ordinance, by action of debt in his owne name. And that Writs of proclamation be in all góod haſt directed to euery Sheriffe of euery County of England to cauſe this Ordinance to be proclaimed in euery Faire within his County, as well within franchiſe as without. This Act to endure from the ſaid firſt day of May vntill the firſt day of the next Parliament. CAP. IIII.

The preparation of Earth for making of Tile.

ITem, whereas in diuers parts of this Realme, great damage hath béene & daily is, and by likelyhood in time to come will much encreaſe for default of true, ſeaſonable and ſufficient making, whiting, & anealing of Tile, called plaine Tile, otherwiſe called Thaktile, Roofetile, or Creaſtile, Cornertile, & Guttertile, made and to be made within this Realm: Our Lord the King (the premiſſes conſidered) for the generall profit of this Realm, by the aduice of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the requeſt of the Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, hath ordained & eſtabliſhed, that all & euery perſon or perſons, which hereafter ſhall vſe the occupation of making of any ſuch Tile, as before is ſaid, ſhall make it good, ſeaſonable, able & ſufficient, and well whited and anealed. And that the earth whereof any ſuch Tile ſhall be made, ſhall be digged and caſt vp before the firſt day of Nouember next before that they ſhall be made, and that the ſame earth be ſtirred and turned before the firſt day of February then next following the ſame digging and caſting vp, & not wrought before the firſt day of March next following, and that the ſame earth before it be put to making of Tile, be truely wrought & tryed from ſtones. And alſo that the vaines called Malin or Marle, and Chalk lying commonly in the ground nere to the land conuenient to make Tile, after the digging of the ſaid earth, whereof any ſuch Tile ſhall be made, ſhall be well, lawfully, and truly ſeuered and caſt from the earth whereof any ſuch Tile ſhall be made. And that euery ſuch plaine Tile ſo to be made, ſhall containe in length ten inches and an halfe, and in breadth ſixe inches and a quarter of an inch, and in thicknes halfe an inch and halfe a quarter at the leaſt. And that euery ſuch Roofetile or Creaſtile ſo to be made, ſhall containe in length thirtéene inches, and the thicknes of half an inch and halfe a quarter at the leaſt, with conuenient déepneſſe according. And that euery Guttertile and Couertile to be made, ſhall containe in length ten inches and an halfe, with conuenient thickneſſe, breadth and déepneſſe according. And if any perſon or perſons ſet to ſale to any perſon or perſons, any ſuch Tile aboue ſpecified, made or to be made contrary to the ſaid Ordinance, then the ſeller thereof ſhall forfeit to the buyer of the ſame, the double value of the ſame Tile, & beſides that, ſhall make fine & ranſome to the King at his will. And that euery perſon that féeleth himſelfe grieued, and will ſue in this behalfe ſhall haue an action of debt againſt the offendors, wherein ſhall be made and had like proceſſe, recouery and execution, as is or may be at this day in any other actions of debt, purſued at the common Law. And that the plaintiffe in euery ſuch action (if it be found with him) may recouer againſt the defendant in the ſame action his reaſonable coſts and expences of his ſuit. And that the defendāt in any ſuch action ſhal not be admitted to wage his Law, or to haue any eſſoin, or protection allowed, nor any aduantage by fourching of eſſoine or diſtreſſe. And alſo that the Iuſtices of Peace for the time being, within any Coūty of this Realme, & euery of them ſhall haue full power to enquire, heare and determine by their diſcretions, aſwell by examinatiō or otherwiſe, the defaults, offences, and treſpaſſes, which ſhall happen to be committed contrarie to this Ordinance, aſwell at the Kings ſuit, as at the parties which ſhall féele himſelfe grieued in that behalfe. And if it be found, or may appeare to the Iuſtices of Peace, or any of them by examination, or otherwiſe by their diſcretion, that any perſon or perſons hath offended contrary to this Ordinance, that then the ſame Iuſtices, before whom it ſhall be found or appeare, ſhal aſſeſſe vpon the offendor in this behalfe no leſſe fine, then for euery M. of plaine tile ſet to ſale, contrary to this ordinance, v.s. And for euery C. roofetile vj.s. viij.d. And for euery C. cornertile or gutter tile ij.s. ſold contrary to this ordinance. And that leſſe fine be made after the rate of the ſame by the diſcretion of the ſaid Iuſtices or any of them. And that the ſame Iuſtices ſhall haue full power to call before them or any of them, at any time and place requiſite, ſuch & ſo many perſons as by their diſcretion haue or ſhall haue beſt experience or knowledge in the occupatiō of making of Tile, to ſearch and examine the digging, caſting, turning, parting, making, whiting, and anealing aforeſaid. And that the ſame perſon or perſons which ſo ſhal be aſſigned ſearchers, ſhal haue full power to make ſearch. And that no perſon put ſuch Tile to ſale, before that it be ſearched by the ſaid ſearchers, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame Tile, And if the ſame ſearchers or any of them doe find, that any perſon or perſons, exerciſing the occupation of Tilemaking doth offend contrary to this Ordinance, that then the ſame ſearchers ſhall preſent ſuch defaults before the Iuſtices of P. at their next ſeſſions. And that euery ſuch preſentment be as ſtrong and effectuall in the law, as the preſentment of xij. men. And that ſuch ſearchers ſo to be ordained, aſſigned & deputed, ſhall haue of euery ſuch Tilemaker for his labour of the ſaid ſearch, for euery M. plaine tile ſearched one peny, for euery C. roofetile ob. And for euery C. Cornertile & guttertils a q. And that the ſame ſearchers ſhall doe and execute their effectuall induſtry and diligence in this behalf according to this Ordinance, vpon paine of forfeiture to our Lord the King, for euery default in this behalfe x.s. And that the Iuſtices of Peace ſhall haue power to examine, enquire and determine the faults of ſuch ſearchers in the premiſſes, in like forme as aboue is ordained for the defaults of Tilemakers. This Ordinance to begin to take effect at the Feaſt of S. Michaell next comming, and not before.

The preparatiō of earth for the making of tiles and the ſeuerall lengths, bredth, & thickneſſe of them.

The forfeiture of the offendor that ſelleth defectiue tiles.

Iuſt. of P. may inquire of, heare & determine theſe offences.

Iuſt. of P. ſhall haue authoritie to appoint ſearchers of tiles.

The ſearchers authoritie, & fee for their paines.

An alteration of part of the Statute of 4.Ed.4.1.

Stat.4.Ed.4.1.

ITem, whereas by an Act made in the Parliament of our ſaid Lord the King, holden at Weſtminſter in the fourth yeare of his raigne, it was ordained, eſtabliſhed and enacted amongſt other things, that all Woollen Clothes, halfe Clothes, Streits, & Kerſies, of a certaine length and breadth ſpecified in the ſame Act, and being of all perfectneſſe of making, alſo compriſed in the ſame Act, ſhould be from the Feaſt of Saint Peter, called ad Vincula, which was in the yeare of our Lord God 1465. ſealed with a double print in Lead, to be deuiſed and ordained by the Treaſurer of England for the time being, teſtifying the true length and bredth, and lawfull making. Alſo by the ſame Act it was ordained amongſt other things, that the Treaſurer of England for the time being, ſhould haue power and authority to make ſuch and as many keepers of the ſame Seales, as he ſhall thinke neceſſary. So that no ſtrangers borne, ſhould be made any of the ſame keepers. And that euery of the ſaid keepers ſo to be made, ſhall yearly accompt of the reuenues of their ſaid offices in the Kings Eſchequer, before the Treaſurer of England, & the Barons there for the time being, ſhewing in the ſame accompts, the number of all the Clothes, halfe Clothes, Streits, and Kerſies, ſealed by them, with the names of the owners thereof. Euery of the ſaid keepers to be rewarded yearly at his ſaid accompt for his labour and diligence had in this behalf at the receipt of the ſaid Eſchequer, by the diſcretion of the ſaid Treaſurer and Barons, without payment of any thing in the ſaid Eſchequer, for the making of his ſaid accompt, as in the ſaid act thereof made, is more largely contained. The King certainly perceiuing, that ſithence the making of the ſame Act, he hath had yearly greater loſſe by the approuement of the ſubſidie and aulnage of Clothes, then he had at any time before the ſaid Act of approuement made. For the ſame and for diuers other great cauſes mouing him, by the aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, & by authority of the ſame Parliament, hath ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, that from the Feaſt of Eaſter next comming, all the Woollen Clothes, halfe Clothes, Streits and Kerſies, being of good and perfect making of length and breadth, according to the forme of the ſaid Act, made in the ſaid fourth yeare, ſhall be ſealed with Waxe at both ends, taking no more for the ſame both ſeales, then before was taken for the ſealing of an whole Cloth, halfe Cloth, Streit, or Kerſie. Except only, that in the City of London and in the Town of Briſtow, all the Clothes that ought to be ſealed, ſhall be ſealed with Lead, as hath been there accuſtomed. Moreouer, it is ordained, enacted and eſtabliſhed by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Treaſurer of England for the time being, ſhal haue power & authoritie, to let to ferme the ſubſidie and aulnage of Clothes which ought to be ſealed, unto perſons willing to haue the ſame to ferme, by ſufficient ſurety in the forme as was uſed and done before the ſaid Statute made in the ſaid fourth yeare. The fermors to haue the one half of the forfeiture of all the Clothes and peeces of Clothes to be ſet to ſale, not ſealed with the ſaid Seales to their owne uſe, paying therefore and for the ſaid ſubſidie and aulnage, to our Lord the King at his Eſchequer, ſuch yearly ſummes of money as ſhall be agreed betwixt the Treaſurer of England and them, and to be accomptants to the King of the other halfe of the ſaid forfeiture, at the ſaid Eſchequer, The ſaid Statute made in the ſaid fourth yeare notwithſtanding.

Woollen clothes, halfe clothes, &c. ſhall be ſealed with waxe at both ends, notwithſtanding the St. of 4.Ed. 4.1. REP.5.Ed. 6.6.

How long the old Sheriffe may execute his Office if he haue not before his Writ of Diſcharge.

St.12.Ed.4.1.

ITem, whereas by a Statute in the laſt Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, it was ordained, that the old Sheriffe of euery County might execute and returne euery Writ, Precept or Warrant, in any of the Kings Courts, within the Terme called Michaell Terme, after the vi. day of Nouember, and before any Writ of diſcharge to him deliuered of his occupying of Sheriffe, without hurt, loſſe, or penaltie, by the ſame Statute remembred, as in the ſame doth more largely appeare. And becauſe that the words of the authority giuen by the ſaid Act to the ſaid old Sheriffe, be very eſpeciall, and not generall enough for the Common wealth, purpoſed or intended by the ſame Act. It is therefore ordained by authority of this Parliament, that euery old Sheriffe of euery County, remembred in the ſaid laſt Act, from the ſixth day of Nouember next to come, ſhall haue full authoritie and power, as well lawfully to execute and returne euery writ, Precept, or Warrant, from euery of the ſaid Courts of the King, deliuered to him, as to doe and execute euery other thing, which to the office of Sheriffe lawfully pertaineth, at all times during the Termes of Saint Michaell, and of Saint Hillary, unleſſe before the ſame time he be lawfully diſcharged of his occupation of Sheriffe, without ſuſtaining any damage, forfeiture, or pain in reſpect thereof: Any Act, Ordinance, or Prouiſion before made to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. OVr Lord the King Edvvard the fourth, at his Parliamẽt holden at Weſtminſter, the twentieth day of Ianuary, in the two and twentieth yeare of his raigne, to the honour of God, and for the wealth of his people of this his Realme, by the aduice & aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporal, & at the requeſt of his Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame Parliament, hath ordained & eſtabliſhed certaine Statutes and Ordinances, in maner and forme following.

Cap. I.

A repeale of all former Statutes made, touching the exceſſe of Apparell. What kinde of Apparell Temporall men of euery degree and eſtate are allowed, and what prohibited to weare. None vnder the eſtate of a Lord (except certaine perſons particularly named) ſhall weare any gowne or mantle, vnleſſe it be of ſuch length, that (he being vpright) it ſhal couer his priuy mẽbers, and buttocks. The forfeitures of the offendors and who ſhall haue them. Rep. 1.*H.*8.14. & 1.Iac.25.

Cap. II.

The contents of veſſels of Salmons, Herrings, and Eeles, And how Fiſh ſhall be packed.

Packing of ſalmons & the content of the veſſell thereof. St.11.H 7.13.

ITem, whereas diuers deceits haue béene vſed and done as well in the meaſures of veſſels called Butts, Barrells, and halfe Barrells, ordained for Salmon, And Barrells, halfe Barrells and Firkins, ordained for Herring, Eeles, and other barrelled Fiſh, as in the packing in the ſame veſſells of euery of the ſaid Fiſhes before named, to the great damage of the King, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and other of the Kings faithfull ſubiects. For reformation whereof, our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, by the aduice, aſſent, and authority aforeſaid, hath ordained and enacted, that no Merchant ſtranger nor denizen, after the Feaſt of S. Michaell next comming, ſhall ſell nor ſet to ſale, any Salmon, by Butt, Barrell, halfe Barrell, or any other veſſell, before it be ſéene, except the ſame Butt doe hold and containe fourescore and foure galons, the Barrell two and fortie galons, the halfe Barrell one and twentie galons, well and truly packed, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery Butt, Barrell, and halfe Barrell, ſo failing their ſaid meaſure ſixe ſhillings and eight pence. Alſo that no ſuch Merchant, being vnder the Kings obeyſance, after the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michaell, ſhall ſell or put to ſale, any maner Salmon, by Butte, or other veſſell, except it be well and faithfully packed, that is to ſay, the great Salmon by it ſelfe, without mingling with them any grilles or broken bellied Salmon.

Packing of Grilles.

And that all ſmall fiſh called grilles, ſhall be packed by themſelues onely, without any mingling, vpon paine of forfeiture and loſſe of ſixe ſhillings and eight pence for euery Butt, Barrell, and halfe Barrell mingled, packed and ſet to ſale contrary to this act.

The content of a barrell, &c of herring & it ſhall be well packed.

The content of a barrel of eeles, & they ſhall not be mingled.

Alſo that no merchants, nor other perſon ſet any Herring to ſale by Barrell, halfe Barrell, or Firkin, except the ſame Barrell containe two and thirtie galons, the halfe Barrell and Firkin after the ſame rate. And that the ſame Herring be well, truely and iuſtly cowched and packed. And that it be of one times taking and ſalting. And that the ſame Herring be as good and as well packed in the middeſt, and in euery part of the ſame Barrell or other veſſell, as it ſhall be in the ends of the ſame Barrells and other veſſells, vpon paine to forfeit thrée ſhillings and foure pence for euery Barrell, halfe Barrell and Firkin ſo failing their ſaid meaſure, and alſo vpon paine of forfeiture and loſſe of thrée ſhillings and foure pence for euery Barrell, halfe Barrell & Firkin of Herring ſorted, laid or packed contrary to this act. Alſo that no ſuch merchant nor palingman ſell or ſet to ſale any Eeles by Barrell, halfe Barrell or Firkin, except the ſame Barrell containe two and fortie galons, the halfe Barrell and Firkin after the ſame rate. Nor that any ſuch Merchant nor Palingman doe mingle any Gallebetten, ſtorued, or pulled Eeles with the good Eeles, but that the good Eeles be well and iuſtly packed & ſold by themſelues. Nor that they mingle with the góod Eeles, or put to ſale any red Eeles vpon pain of forfeiture and loſſe of ten ſhillings for euery Barrell, halfe Barrell and Firkin, ſo failing their meaſure. And alſo vpon paine of forfeiture and loſſe of ten ſhillings for euery Barrell, halfe Barrell and Firkin ſo mixt, packed ane ſet to ſale, as afore is ſaid, contrary to this act. Alſo that no ſuch Merchant after the ſaid Feaſt ſell or ſet to ſale any barrelled fiſh, except the ſame fiſh be well and faithfully packed, that is to ſay any countable fiſh commonly called tale fiſh, by it ſelfe, and the ſame fiſh, called Grilles, by themſelues, without any mixture of the ſaid fiſhes with the great fiſh, & without mixture or packing of thokes or fiſh with broken bellies, with the ſaid Tale fiſh or ſmall fiſh. And that the ſaid Tale fiſh or ſmall fiſh be not laid double in the packing. And that euery Tale fiſh containe in length from the bone in the finne to the third ioynt in the taile ſixe and twentie inches at the leaſt, and that the napes of all ſuch barrelled fiſh ſhall be no longer then the little bone that reſteth vpon the great finne. And that the bone of euery ſuch ſalt fiſh ſhall be taken away to the nauell of the fiſh.

How fiſh ſhal be packed.

And that euery ſuch fiſh be ſplatted or opened downe to an handfull of the taile, vpon paine of forfeiting and loſing of thrée ſhillings and foure pence for euery barrell of fiſh, which hereafter ſhall be found packed, ſorted, mixt, naped, laid double, or not boned, nor ſplatted or open, according to this act.

Alſo in eſchewing the common loſſes and deceits aforeſaid, Our ſaid Lord the King hath ordained and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all Maiors, Bailiffes, and Gouernors of Cities, Boroughs, Market Townes, and all other places of this his Realme for the time being, where there be Maiors, Bailiffes, or Gouernors, ſhall haue power and authoritie to name and choſe diſcréet and expert perſon or perſons daily to ſearch and gauge all ſuch veſſelles as aboue be rehearſed, that they be faithfully packed, and kéep their lawfull meaſure and aſſiſe according to the Ordinances aforeſaid. The one halfe of all the ſaid fines, forfeitures, and penalties, and euery of them, to be to our Lord the King, and the other halfe to him or them of his ſubiects that ſhall ſeiſe or purſue for the ſame by Action of debt, by Writ at the Common Law, by Bill, or Plaint, according to the Cuſtome of the Citie or Town where any ſuch fines, forfeitures, & penalties, ſhall hereafter happen to be or fall. And that the defendant, in any ſuch Action be not admitted to wage nor doe his Law, Nor that any Protection or Eſſoine of the Kings ſeruices for any ſuch defendants be allowed. Prouided alwaies that this Act be not preiudicall to any perſon or perſons hauing the forfeiture of the góods of Felons, Fugitiues, and condemned perſons.

Chiefe officers of cities and boroughs, &c. ſhall appoint ſearchers to ſearch & gauge veſſels of fiſh.

Moreouer, it is ordained and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that euery ſuch perſon and perſons ſhall haue and enioy like forfeitures of and in euery of the premiſſes within their Franchiſes, as the King now hath in other places without.

Cap. III.

No Ribands, Laces, Corſes, Girdels, Calliſilk, or Colleinſilke twined ſhall be brought into England to be ſold, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, or the value thereof. Exp. St. 33 *H.6.*5. 3.Ed.4.3. 19.*H.7.*21.

Cap. IIII.

Whoſoeuer ſhall ſell a long Bow of Ewe aboue the price of three ſhillings & foure pence ſhall forfeit twentie ſhillings. Rep. 8.Eliz.10. Stat.3.*H.*7.13. 33.*H.*8.9.

Cap. V.

No perſon ſhall full or thicke any Hattes. Bonettes, or Cappes, at any fulling Mill, or ſet to ſale any ſo fulled, vpon paine to forfeit fortie ſhillings. Exp. Rep. 1.Iac.25, Stat.7.Ed.6.8.

Cap. VI.

How much land he muſt haue which ſhall haue a marke or game of Swannes.

ITem, where as well our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, as other Lords, Knights, Eſquires, and other noble men of this noble Realme of England, haue béen heretofore greatly ſtored of markes and games of Swannes in diuers parts of this Realme of England, vntill of late that diuers kéepers of Swannes haue bought and made to them markes and games in the Fennes & Marſhes, and other places, and vnder colour of the ſame and of ſuruieying & ſearch for the Swans and Cygnets for their Lords and maſters, haue ſtollen Cygnets, and put vpon them their owne marke, by which vnlawfull meanes, the ſubſtance of the Swannes be in the hands and poſſeſſion of Yeomen and Huſbandmen, and other perſons of little reputation. Wherefore it is ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted by our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and at the ſpeciall petition and requeſt of the Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſaid Parliament, that no perſon, of what eſtate, degrée, or condition he be (other then the ſonne of our Soueraign Lord the King) from the Feaſt of Saint Michaell next comming, ſhall haue or poſſeſſe any ſuch marke or game, of his owne, or any

any other to his vſe ſhall haue or poſſeſſe any ſuch marke or game, except he haue Lands and tenements of the eſtate of freehold to the yearely value of fiue markes aboue all yearely charges. And moreouer, that euery perſon or perſons, now hauing any ſuch marke or game, ſhall ſell or giue the ſame betwixt this and the Feaſt of S. Michaell next comming, to the vſe of them to whō they ſhall be ſo ſold or giuen: and if it happen any perſon or perſons, not hauing any poſſeſſion of Lands or Tenements, to the ſaid yearely value, or any other to haue or poſſeſſe Lands to his or their vſe, to haue or poſſeſſe any ſuch marke or game after the ſaid feaſt, that then it ſhall be lawfull to any of the Kings ſubiects, hauing lands or tenements to the ſaid value, to ſeiſe the ſaid Swannes as forfeit. Whereof the King ſhall haue one halfe, and he that ſhall ſo ſeiſe, the other halfe.

Any perſon hauing 5. markes of freehold may ſeiſe the ſwans forfeited.

Cap. VII.

How long any Woods felled in any Foreſt or purlew may be incloſed and kept ſeuerall.

Woods felled in any foreſt or purlewe may be incloſed & kept ſeuerall 7 yeares St. 35 H. 8. 17. 13. El 25.

Coke. li. 8. fo. 13

ITem, our ſaid Lord the King conſidering that diuers ſubiects hauing Woods growing in their owne ground, within the Foreſt of Rokingham, and other Foreſts and Chaſes within his Realme of England, or purlewes of the ſame, which haue cut their ſaid Wood, becauſe the ſame ſubiects might not before time cut nor incloſe their ſaid ground, to ſaue the yong ſpring of their Woods ſo cut, any longer time then for three yeares, The ſame yong ſpring hath beene in times paſt and daily is deſtroyed with Beaſts and Cattell of the ſame Foreſt, Chaſes, and purlewes, to the great hinderance, as well of his ſaid ſubiects, as of his Deere, Vert, and Veniſon in their couert, and otherwiſe likely to be the deſtruction of the ſame Foreſts, Chaſes, and purlewes: By the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, doth ordaine, eſtabliſh, and enact, that if any of his ſubiects, hauing Woods of his owne growing in his owne ground, within any Foreſt, Chaſe, or purlew of the ſame, within this Realme of England, from the firſt day of this Parliament, ſhal cut or cauſe to be cut the ſame Wood or part thereof, by Licence of the King or of his heires, in his Foreſts, Chaſes, or purlewes, or without licence in the Foreſt, Chaſe, or purlew of any other perſon, or make any ſale of the ſame Wood: it ſhall be lawfull to the ſame ſubiects, owners of the ſame ground whereupon the Wood ſo cut did grow, and to other ſuch perſons to whom ſuch Wood ſhall happen to be ſold, immediatly after the Wood ſo cut, to coppie and incloſe the ſame ground with ſufficient hedges, able to keep out all maner Beaſts and Cattell forth of the ſame ground, for the preſeruing of their yong ſpring: and the ſame hedges ſo made, the ſaid ſubiects may keep them continually by the ſpace of ſeuen yeares next after the ſame incloſing, & repaire and ſuſtaine the ſame as often as ſhall need within the ſame ſeuen yeares, without ſuing of any other licence of him or of his heires, or other perſons, or any of their officers of the ſame Foreſts, Chaſes and purlewes.

Cap. VIII.

Merchandiſes caried into or fetched out of Scotland, ſhall be firſt brought to Barwick. The freemen of Barwick ſhall haue to farme the fiſhing there.

Merchandiſes carried into or brought out of Scotland or the Iſles, ſhall be firſt brought to Barwicke.

ITem, our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, for the ſuretie of the Towne of Barwicke, and the marches of the ſame, and to haue the ſame Towne to be inhabited with great number of his faithfull liege people, which would there abound and encreaſe by the repaire of Merchants and merchandiſe, and exerciſe of the ſame, hath by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporal, and the Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame Parliament ordained, enacted, and eſtabliſhed, that from the feaſt of the Natiuity of Saint Iohn Baptiſt next comming, all merchants which ſhall cary or bring any merchandiſe out of Scotland, or the Iſles of the ſame, into this Realme of England, or into Ireland, or Wales, firſt ſhall bring the ſame Merchandiſe to the ſaid Towne of Barwick: and that none of the Kings liege people, nor any other perſon vnder the Kings obeyſance, ſhall buy any Merchandiſe brought out of Scotland, and carry the ſame, or cauſe to be carryed into this Realme of England, or any other place vnder the Kings obeyſance, but that the ſame Merchandiſe be bought, ſold and cuſtomed at his ſaid Towne of Barwicke, Except to the Citie of Carleyle, and the Ports or Creeks pertaining to the Weſt Marches. And that no maner Merchant, Denizen, nor Stranger vnder the Kings obeiſance, ſhall carry or conuey to ſell any maner Merchandiſe of England, Ireland, or Wales into Scotland, or the Iſles of the ſame, which be not vnder the Kings obeyſance, & that none vnder the Kings liegeance and obeyſance, ſell any maner merchandiſe of England, Ireland or Wales to any of the inhabitants of Scotland, or the Iles of the ſame, in any place within England, Ireland, or Wales, ſauing only at the ſaid towne of Barwicke and Carleile aforeſaid. And that no Merchandiſe ſhall be ſhipped in any Creeks or other place betwixt Tinmouth and the ſaid Towne of Barwicke, but only in the Port or Hauen of the ſaid Towne of Barwicke: and that no perſon or perſons ſauing the Burgeſſes and Freemen of the ſaid Towne of Barwicke, ſhall cauſe any Salmon to be ſold which ſhall be taken in the water of Twede. And if any perſon or perſons, offend or doe with any Merchandiſe aforeſaid, contrary to any of the ſaid Ordinances, the ſame perſon or perſons ſhall forfeit all the ſaid Merchandiſe, and that it ſhall be lawfull to any of the Kings liege Subiects to ſeiſe all ſuch Merchandiſe ſo forfeit, or elſe to purſue in his owne name an Action of debt againſt the ſame perſon or perſons, which ſo ſhall forfeit, containing the ſumme of the value of the ſaid goods: and in the ſame action to haue like proceſſe, iudgement, and execution, as is vſed in other actions of debt by the courſe of the Kings Laws: and that in none of the ſame ſuits and Actions, any Protection or Eſſoine of the Kings ſeruice be allowed nor any defendant admitted to doe his Law, and our Lord the King to haue aſwell the one halfe of all ſuch merchandiſe forfeit and ſeiſed, as the one halfe of all ſuch ſummes of mony which ſhal be recouered by action in the forme aforeſaid, to purſue for the value of any ſuch goods ſo forfeit: and the perſon or perſons, which ſhall ſeiſe and perſue in the forme aforeſaid, to haue the other halfe of the ſame.

And by the ſaid authority it is ordained and enacted, that the Merchants and Freemen of the ſaid Towne may of the grace of our ſaid Lord the King, haue to ferme all the waters Royall, & fiſhing places within the ſaid Towne of Barwicke and Signiorie of the ſame; paying for the ſame as much as any other perſon will do, and that the ſame Merchants and Freemen & euery of them may from henceforth haue, occupy, and enioy to them, their Heires, and Succeſſors for euer, all Liberties, Franchiſes and Cuſtomes, which at any time before pertained to the ſaid Towne, and that they may ſhip all maner goods and merchandiſes there, and carry them to what place or places, Port, or Ports, that they will, and there diſcharge, and the ſame recharge with Corne or any other Victuall, or Merchandiſes, and bring the ſame to the ſaid Towne of Barwicke for victualling thereof.

The merchants and freemen of Barwicke ſhall haue to ferme the waters royall and fiſhings there.
St. 1. Iac. 28.

Prouided alwaies that this Act, nor any other Act made, or to be made in the ſaid Parliament doe not extend, nor be preiudiciall to William Biſhop of Durham, nor to his Succeſſors, in or for any maner thing pertaining or in any wiſe belonging to him.

Thus endeth the Statutes made in the time of the Noble King Edward the fourth.

HENRICI SEPTIMI.

The King our Soueraigne Lord Henry the ſeuenth after the Conqueſt, by the Grace of God, King of England and of France, and Lord of Ireland, at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the ſeuenth day of Nouember, in the firſt yeare of his raigne, to the honour of God and holy Church, and for the common profit of the Realme, by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by Authoritie of the ſaid Parliament, hath done to bee made certaine Statutes and Ordinances, in manner and forme following.

Cap. I.

An Act to maintaine a Formedon againſt the Pernour of the profits of Lands enfeoffed to vſe.

FIRST, That where diuers of the Kings ſubiects hauing cauſe of action by Formedon in the deſcender, oꝛ elſe in the remainder, by foꝛce of any taile foꝛ lands and tenements, bee defrauded and delayed of their ſaid actions: and oftentimes without remedie, becauſe of feoffments made of the ſame lands and tenements to perſons vnknowne, to the intent that the demādaints ſhould not know againſt whom they ſhall take their actions: It is oꝛdained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, by the aduiſe of the Loꝛds ſpirituall and tempoꝛall, and the commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by authoꝛity of the ſame, That the * demandant in euery ſuch caſe haue his action againſt the Pernour oꝛ Pernours of the pꝛofits of the lands oꝛ tenements demanded, whereof any perſon oꝛ perſons beene enfeoffed to his oꝛ their vſe, and the ſame Pernour oꝛ pernours named as tenant oꝛ tenants in the ſaid action, haue the ſame * vouchers, and their lyen thereupon, aide pꝛayer, and all other aduantages, as the ſame Pernour oꝛ Pernours ſhould haue had, if they were tenants indeed, oꝛ as their feoffees ſhould haue had, if the ſame action had béene conceiued againſt them. And if it foꝛtune any perſon to deceaſe, ſo hauing feoffées to the vſe of him oꝛ of his heires, the ſaid heire being within age, againſt whom ſuch action is bꝛought as Pernour: then the ſame heire ſhall haue his age in the ſaid action conceiued againſt him and all other aduantages, as if his anceſtoꝛ had dyed ſeiſed of the ſaid lands and tenements ſo in demand. And alſo it is oꝛdained by the ſaid authoꝛity, That all recoueries as ſhall be in any ſuch actions againſt ſuch Pernour oꝛ Pernours, and their heires, and their ſaid feoffees and their heires, and the cofeoffées of the ſaid Pernours and their heires, ſhall bee as good to the recouerers and their heires, as though the ſaid Pernour oꝛ Pernours were tenants indéed, oꝛ feoffées to their vſe, oꝛ their heires, as is aboueſaid, of the fréehold of the ſaid lands and tenements, at any time of the ſaid action vſed. Cap. II.

Aliens made Denizens, ſhall pay ſuch cuſtomes as they did before.

ITem, Where in time paſt diuers grants haue beene made by King Edward, as well by his Letters Patents, as by Acts of Parliament, to diuers Marchants ſtrangers, boꝛne out of this Realme, to be denizens, whereby they haue and enioy ſuch fréedomes and liberties, as doe denizens boꝛne within this Realme, as well in abatement of their cuſtome, which they ſhould beare if they were no denizens, as in buying and ſelling of their merchandiſe, to their great auaile and lucre: And oft times ſuffer other ſtrangers, not denizens, deceitfully to ſhippe and carry great and notable ſubſtance of merchandiſe in their names, by the which the ſaid goods bee frée of cuſtome, in like wiſe as they were goods of a denizen, where of right they ought to pay cuſtome, as the goods of ſtrangers, by the which they be greatly aduanced in riches and honour: and after they be ſo inriched, foꝛ the moſt part they conuey themſelues with their ſaid goods, Aliens made denizens ſhall pay ſuch cuſtomes and ſubſidies as they did before.

into their owne Countries, wherein they be naturally borne, to the great impouerishing of this Realme, and to the great hurt and defraud of the Kings Highneſſe in paiment of his cuſtomes. Wherefore it is enacted, ſtabliſhed and ordained by the aduiſe of the ſaid Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That any perſon made, or hereafter to be made denizen, ſhall pay for his merchandiſe like Cuſtome and Subſidie, as he ought or ſhould pay afore that he were made denizen: any letters Patents, or other Ordinances by Parliament, or otherwiſe contrary to this made, notwithſtanding. Cap. VII.

Inconueniences enſuing by hunting in Parkes, &c. in the night, or diſguiſed.

ITem, For as much as afore this time diuers Ordinances and Statutes haue beene made in diuers Parliaments holden in the ſame Realme, for the punition of inordinate and vnlawfull huntings in Foreſts, Parkes, and in Warrens within the ſaid Realme: Which Statutes and Ordinances notwithſtanding, diuers perſons in great number, ſome with painted faces, ſome with viſors, and otherwiſe diſguiſed, to the intent they ſhould not bee knowne, riotouſly and in manner of warre arrayed, haue oftentimes of late dayes hunted, as well by night as by day, in diuers Foreſts, Parkes, and Warrens in diuers places of this Realme, and in ſpeciall in the County of Kent, Surrey, and Suſſex, by colour whereof haue enſued in times paſt great and heinous Rebellions, inſurrections, Riots, Robberies, Murders, and other inconueniences, to the preuarication and enſample of Riotors and euill diſpoſed perſons of this Realme in ſo offending, which offences could not be puniſhed afore this time, according to the ſaid Statutes, Ordinances, and Lawes of this ſaid Realme, becauſe that the ſaid miſdoers, by reaſon of their painted faces, viſours and other diſguiſings, could not bee knowne: The King our Soueraigne Lord, of his noble and aboundant grace, conſidering the premiſſes, by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, at the ſupplication of the Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, ordaineth, That at euery ſuch time as information ſhall bee made of any ſuch vnlawfull huntings by night, or with painted faces, hereafter to be done to any of the Kings Counſell, or to any of the Iuſtices of the Kings Peace of the County where any ſuch hunting ſhall be had, of any perſon to be ſuſpect thereof, that then it ſhall be lawfull to any of the ſame Counſell, or Iuſtices of Peace, to whom any ſuch information ſhall be made, to make a warrant to the Sherife of ſuch County, or to any Conſtable, Bayliffe, or other officer within the ſame Countie, to take and arreſt the ſame perſon or perſons of whom any ſuch information ſhall bee made, and to haue him or them afore the maker of any ſuch warrant,

Cap. X.

The Statute of 1. *R.*3.9. touching Italian Merchants, and other ſtrangers whoſoeuer, and the penalties, forfeitures, and ſeiſors therein limited, be reuoked from all others, and by this Statute be given to the King onely:

THE SECOND PARLIAMENT, Holden in the third yeare of King HENRY the ſeuenth.

THE King our Soueraigne Lord Henry the ſeuenth, by the grace of God King of England, and of France, and Lord of Ireland, at his Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the ninth day of Nouember, in the third yeare of his noble raigne, to the worſhip of God and holy Church, and for the Common wealth of this his Realme, by the aduiſe of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in the preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame Parliament, hath ordained and eſtabliſhed certaine Statutes and Ordinances, in manner and forme as hereafter enſueth.

Cap. I.

The autheritie of the Court of Star-chamber, where one Enqueſt ſhall enquire of the concealment of another. A Coroners duty after a murder committed. A Iuſtice of Peace ſhall certifie his Recogniſance, Indicts, &c. of Murder.

FIrſt, the King our ſaid Soueraigne Lord remembreth, how by vnlawfull Maintenances, giuing of Liueries, ſignes and tokens, and retainders by indentures, promiſes, oathes, writings, or otherwiſe embraceries of his ſubiects, vntrue demeanings of Sherifes in making of Panels and other vntrue returnes, by taking of Money, by iniuries, by great riots and vnlawfull aſſemblies, the policy and good rule of this Realme is almoſt ſubdued, and for the none puniſhing of theſe inconueniences, and by occaſion of the premiſſes, little or nothing may be found by enquirie, whereby the lawes of this Land in execution may take little effect, to the increaſe of Murders, Robberies, Periuries, and vnſureties of all men liuing, and loſſes of their lands and goods, to the great diſpleaſure of Almighty God.

The authoꝛitie of the Court of the Starre-chamber. St.21.H.8.20.

Therefoꝛe it is oꝛdained, foꝛ reformation of the pꝛemiſſes, by authoꝛity of the ſaid Parliament, that the Chanceloꝛ and Treaſurer of England foꝛ the time being, and keeper of the Kings pꝛiuy Seale, oꝛ two of them, calling to them a Biſhop and a tempoꝛall Loꝛd of the Kings moſt honourable Counſell, and the two [d] chiefe Juſtices of the Kings Bench and Common Place, foꝛ the time being, oꝛ other two Juſtices in their abſence, vpon Bill oꝛ Infoꝛmation put to the ſaid Chanceloꝛ foꝛ the King, oꝛ any other, againſt any perſon, foꝛ any miſbehauing afoꝛe rehearſed, haue authoꝛity to call befoꝛe them by Writ oꝛ by Pꝛiuy Seale the ſaid miſdoers, and they and other by their diſcretion, by whom the truth may be knowne, to examine, and ſuch as they finde therein defectiue, to puniſh them after their demerits, after the foꝛme and effect of Statutes thereof made, in like manner and foꝛme as they ſhould and ought to be puniſhed, if they were thereof conuict, after the due oꝛder of the law.

An Enqueſt charged to inquire of the concealement of another Enqueſt.

And ouer that, it is oꝛdained by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, That the Juſtices of the Peace of euery Shire of this Realme, foꝛ the time being, may take by their diſcretion, an Enqueſt, whereof euery man ſhall haue Lands and tenements to the yearely value of xl. ſhillings at the leaſt, to enquire of the concealements of other Enqueſts taken afoꝛe them, and afoꝛe other, of ſuch matters and offences as are to bee enquired and pꝛeſented afoꝛe Juſtices of Peace, whereof complaint ſhall be made by Bill oꝛ by Bils, as well within franchiſe as without. And if any ſuch concealment be found of any Enqueſt, as is afoꝛe rehearſed, had oꝛ made within the yeare, after the ſame concealment, euery perſon of the ſame Enqueſt to be amerced foꝛ the ſame concealements, by diſcretion of the ſame Juſtices of the Peace, the ſaid amerceaments to be ſeſſed in plaine Seſſions.

The cauſes why murders be committed St. Winton. An.3.Ed.1.

Item, the King remembꝛeth how murders and ſlaying of his ſubiects daily doe increaſe in this Land, the occaſions whereof be diuers, : one, that no men in townes where ſuch Murders hap to fall and bee done, will atache the Murderer, where the Law of the Land is, that if any man be ſlaine in the day, and the Felon not taken, the Townſhip where the death oꝛ Murder is done, ſhall be amerced, and if any man be wounded in perill of death, the party that ſo wounded, ſhould bee arreſted, and put in ſurety, till perfect knowledge bee had, whether he ſo hurt ſhould liue oꝛ die. And the Coꝛoner, vpon the view of the body dead, ſhould enquire of him oꝛ them that had done that Death oꝛ Murder, of their abbettoꝛs and conſentoꝛs, and who were pꝛeſent when the death oꝛ murder was done, whether man oꝛ woman, and the names of them that were pꝛeſent, and ſo found, to enroll and certifie: which law by negligence is diſuſed, and thereby great boldneſſe is giuen to ſlayers and murderers. And ouer this it is vſed, that within the yeare and a day after any Death oꝛ Murder had and done, the felony ſhould not be determined at the Kings ſuit, foꝛ ſauing of the parties ſuit, wherein the party is oftentimes ſlow, and alſo agreed with, and by the end of the yeare all is foꝛgotten, which is another occaſion of Murder. And alſo he that will ſue any Appeale, muſt ſue in pꝛoper perſon, which ſuit is long and coſtly, that it makſth the party appellant weary to ſue.

A Coꝛoner ſhall execute his office accoꝛding to the law.

Foꝛ refoꝛmation of the pꝛemiſſes, the king our Soueraigne Loꝛd, by the aſſent of the Loꝛds ſpirituall and tempoꝛall, and the Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by authoꝛity of the ſame, will that euery Coꝛoner exerciſe and doe his office accoꝛding to the Law, as is afoꝛe rehearſed, and that if any man be ſlaine oꝛ murdered, and therefoꝛe the ſlayers, murderers, abettoꝛs, maintainoꝛs, and comfoꝛtoꝛs of the ſame, be indicted, that the ſame ſlayers and murderers, and all other acceſſaries of the ſame, be arraigned and determined of the ſame Felony and Murder at any time at the Kings ſuit, within the yeare after the ſame Felony and murder done, and not tarry the yeare and day, foꝛ any appeale to be taken foꝛ the ſame Felony oꝛ Murder.

A murderer indicted ſhall bee pꝛeſently arraigned at the Kings ſuit.

A murderer indicted and acquited, ſhall not be let at liberty.

And if it happen any perſon named as pꝛincipall oꝛ acceſſary, to be acquited of any ſuch Murder at the Kings ſuit, within the yeare and day, that then the ſame Juſtices afoꝛe whom he is acquited, ſhall not ſuffer him to goe at large, but either to remit him againe to the pꝛiſon, oꝛ elſe to let him to bayle, after their diſcretion, till that yeare and day be paſſed.

Appeal againſt him that was arraigned of murder. Fitz N.B.fo.115.b,c.

And if it foꝛtune the ſame Felons oꝛ Murderers and acceſſaries ſo arraigned, oꝛ any of them to be acquite, oꝛ the pꝛincipal of the ſaid Felony, oꝛ any of them to be attainted [e], the wife oꝛ next heire to him ſo ſlaine, as ſhall require, may take and haue their appeale of the ſame Death and Murder within the yeare & day after the ſame Felony and murder done, againſt the ſaid perſons ſo arraigned, and acquite, and all other their acceſſaries, againſt the acceſſaries of the ſaid pꝛincipall, oꝛ any of them ſo attainted, oꝛ againſt the ſaid pꝛincipals ſo attainted, if they be on liue, and the benefit of his Clergy thereof befoꝛe not had, and that the appellant haue ſuch and like aduantage, as if the ſaid acquitall oꝛ attainder had not beene, the ſaid acquitall oꝛ attainder notwithſtanding:

Within what time and befoꝛe whom an appeal of murder ſhall be commenced.

The Appellant may make his Atturney. Fitz N B.fo.26.b Raſt.Pla.fo.43.43.

And ouer that the wife oꝛ heire of the ſaid perſon ſo ſlaine oꝛ murdered, as the caſe ſhall require, may commence their [f] appeale in pꝛoper perſon, at any time within the yeare after the ſaid Felony done, befoꝛe the Sherife and Coꝛoners of the County where the ſaid Felony oꝛ Murder was done, oꝛ befoꝛe the King in his Bench, oꝛ Juſtices of Gaole deliuery: and the appellant in any appeales of Murder oꝛ Death of man, where battaile by the courſe of the Common Law lyeth not, may make their Attourneys and appeare in the ſame, in the ſaid appeales after they be commenced, to the end of the ſuit and execution of the ſame. And if any perſon be ſlaine oꝛ murdered in the day, and the murderer ſcaps vntaken, that the Townſhip where the ſaid deed is ſo done, be amerced foꝛ the ſaid eſcape, and that the Coroner haue authority to enquire thereof vpon the view of the body dead. And al'o Juſtices of Peace haue power to enquire of ſuch eſcapes, and that to certifie afore the King in his Bench, and that after the Felony found, the Coroners deliuer their inquiſitions afore the Juſtices of the next Gaole deliuery, in the Shire where the inquiſition is taken, the ſame Juſtices to proceed againſt ſuch Murderers, if they be in the Gaole, or elſe the ſame Juſtices to put the ſaid inquiſitions afore the King in his Bench. And for as much as Coroners had not, nor ought to haue any thing by the Law for their office doing, which ofttimes hath beene the occaſion that Coroners haue beene remiſſe in doing their office: It is ordained, that a Coroner haue for his fee, vpon euery inquiſition taken vpon the view of the body ſlaine, xiii.s. iiii.d. of the goods and cattels of him that is the ſlayer and murderer, if hee haue any goods, and if hee haue no goods, then the Coroner haue for his ſaid fee, of ſuch amercements as ſhall fortune any Towneſhip to be amerced for eſcape of ſuch Murderer as is aforeſaid. And if any Coroner be remiſſe, and make not inquiſitions vpon the view of the body dead, and certifie not according as is afore ordained, that the Coroner for euery default forfeit to the King 100. ſhillings. And alſo it is ordained by the ſame authority, that euery Juſtice of Peace within this Realme, that ſhall take any recogniſance for the keeping of the peace, that the ſame Juſtice doe certifie, ſend, or bring the ſame recogniſance at the next Seſſions of Peace, where hee is or hath beene Juſtice, that the party ſo bound may be called: and if the party make default, the ſame default then there to be recorded, and the ſame recogniſance, with the record of the default be ſent and certified into the Chancery, or afore the King in his Bench, or into the Kings Eſchequer. So much of this Statute as concerneth the puniſhment of thoſe that give or take liueries, is repealed 3. Car. 4.

CAP. II.

The penaltie for carrying a woman away againſt her will, that hath lands or goods.

ITem, Where women, as well maidens, as widowes and wiues, hauing ſubſtances, ſome in goods moueable, and ſome in lands and tenements, and ſome being heires apparent unto their anceſtors, for the lucre of ſuch ſubſtances beene oftentimes taken by miſdoers, contrary to their will, and after married to ſuch miſdoers, or to other by their aſſent, or defoiled, to the great diſpleaſure of God, and contrary to the Kings lawes, and diſparagements of the ſaid women, and utter heauineſſe and diſcomfort of their friends, and to the euill enſample of all other: It is therefore ordained, eſtabliſhed, and enacted by our Soueraigne Lord the King, by the aduice of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That what perſon or perſons from henceforth that taketh any woman ſo againſt her will vnlawfully, that is to ſay, maid, widow or wife, that ſuch taking, procuring and abetting to the ſame, and alſo receiuing wittingly the ſame woman ſo taken againſt her will, and knowing the ſame, be a felony. And that ſuch miſdoers, takers, and procurators to the ſame, and receitors, knowing the ſaid offence in forme aforeſaid, be henceforth reputed and iudged as principall felons. Prouided allway, that this act extend not to any perſon taking any woman, onely claiming her as his ward or bondwoman.

Cap. VII.

A certificate ſhall be made of goods brought into one Port and remoued to another.

One man ſhall not enter goods in the name of another.

Item, The King our Soueraigne Lord, by the aduiſe and aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons aſſembled in this ſaid Parliament, and by authoritie of the ſame, hath ordained and enacted, that euery Marchant, as well denizen as ſtranger, which ſhall bring from henceforth any manner of goods into any Port within this Realme by way of Marchandiſe, and there doe enter the ſaid goods or Marchandiſes in the bookes of the Cuſtomers of the ſaid Port, where the goods or marchandiſes ſhall firſt come to, and the Kings dutie thereof, the ſaid Cuſtomers contented, or therefore with him agréed, and afterward that done, will conuey or carrie the ſame goods or marchandiſes from thence in any other Port within the ſaid Realme: that then the owner of the ſaid goods and marchandiſes, his Factour or Attourney, ſhall bring from the Cuſtomers of the Port where the ſaid goods or marchandiſes be ſo entred, a Certificat vnder the ſame Cuſtomers ſeales, directed to the Cuſtomers of the Port whereto the ſaid goods or marchandiſes ſhall be conueyed or carryed, making mention within the ſame certificat, as well of the naturall colour, length and valure of all manner of marchandiſes ſo entred, vſed to be meaſured with Elne or Yard, as of the naturall waight, content, or valure of all manner other marchandiſes, vſed to be weighed or valured: and that the ſame certificat ſo made, be deliuered to the ſaid Cuſtomers, before the ſaid goods be diſcharged, ſo that they may ſée whether the nature, colour, or length, valure, content, or waight of the ſame, doe agrée with the ſaid certificat, ſo that the King bee not deceiued of his Cuſtomes and Subſidies thereof due. And if any certificat from henceforth bee made by any Cuſtomer of any Port, whereto any ſuch marchandiſes or goods ſhall be firſt brought, and there in their bookes entred, not making mention according as is aforeſaid: that then the ſaid Cuſtomer or Cuſtomers, for their miſbehauing, ſhall loſe their office, & make fine with the King for the ſame at his pleaſure. And furthermore, if any ſuch goods or marchandiſes, or any parcell thereof be diſcharged, vnpacked, or put to ſale within any Port then within the ſame where they ſhall be firſt entred, before the ſaid certificat ſhall be deliuered, and the ſame goods and merchandiſes ſéene, according as aboue is expreſſed: that then all the ſaid goods or merchandiſes be forfeited to the King our ſoueraigne Lord, the one halfe thereof to remaine to his Highneſſe, and the other half to him or them which ſhall proue any ſuch goods or marchandiſes ſo forfeited. And that the Cuſtomer, or Cuſtomers, nor no deputy to any ſuch common officer, to whom ſuch certificat ſhall come, take nothing for the ſight of the ſame goods ſo certified. Alſo it is ordained and eſtabliſhed by authoritie aforeſaid, That no manner of Marchant denizen, ne ſtranger, do take vpon him to enter, or cauſe to be entred in the bookes of any Cuſtomer of any Port within this Realme, any manner marchandiſes comming into this ſaid Realme, or going out of the ſame, in any other Marchants name, ſauing only the name of the true Marchant owner of the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch goods and marchandiſes ſo entred. And euery of the ſaid Marchants, which ſo ſhall take vpon him to cauſe ſuch vntrue entry to be made, to haue impriſonment, and make fine therefore at the Kings pleaſure: And that no perſon take vpon him to be Cuſtomer, Comptroller, or Searcher in any Port in any Citie, Borough, or Towne, where he is common officer, nor no deputie to any ſuch common officer, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery halfe yeare, that he occupieth the ſaid common office, ⁊ office of Cuſtomerſhip, Comptroller or Searcher, the ſumme of xl. pound, the one halfe thereof to the King, and the other halfe to him that will ſue for it by Writ, Bill, or Information.

CAP. VIII.

Marchants aliens &c. and Victuallers ſhall imploy their money vpon the marchandize of this Realme.

ITem, That where in the Parliament of King Edward the fourth, holden at Weſtminſter the xvii. yeare of his raigne: It was ordained among other, That euery Marchant alien, and euery other Victualler and other ſtranger, not being denizen, that reſort to any place or Port within this Realme or Wales, after the feaſt of Eaſter then next following, ſhould duely imploy all the money by him to be receiued within any Port within this Realme, or Wales, vpon the marchandiſes or other commodities of this Realme, or elſe without fraud put the ſame money in due payment within this Realme, the ſame employment or payment duely to be proued by the Marchant, Victualler, or other ſtranger before his departing out of the ſame Port, by writing from the Marchant or Marchants, to whō the ſaid Marchant alien, Victualler, or other ſtranger hath employed or payed his money by him receiued for his marchandiſes brought into this land, witneſſing that he hath ſo done, or elſe by ſuch proofes as ſhall be thought reaſonable to the Cuſtomer or Comptroller of the ſame port, or to the Mayor, Baylife, or other chiefe Gouernours of any Citie, Borough or Towne, where any ſuch Port ſhall be, vpon paine of forfeiture of all his goods being within this Realme, and to haue impriſonment of a yeare: ſauing to euery ſuch Marchant, Victualler, and other ſtranger, his reaſonable coſts, with certaine prouiſions in the ſame, as by the ſame Act more at large doth appeare; which Act was made to endure but only from the ſaid Feaſt of Eaſter, to the end of ſeuen yeares then next enſuing, ſo that no Gold and Siluer receiued by Marchants aliens and other Victuallers and ſtrangers, not being denizens, for marchandiſe brought into this Land, is not employed vpon the commodities of this Land, but conueyed and caryed out of this Realme, to the great loſſe of the King in his Cuſtome and ſubſidie, and the impoueriſhing of this Realme: It is enacted, ordained, and eſtabliſhed by the King our Soueraigne Lord that now is, by the aduiſe of the Lords ſpirituall ⁊ temporall, and at the prayer of the Commons in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, That the ſaid Act made the ſaid xvii yeare of the reigne of King Edward the fourth, with all things compriſed in the ſame touching the premiſſes, and euery prouiſion made in the ſame, be good, effectuall, and endure for euer. Alſo it is enacted by the ſaid authoritie, That euery Marchant of Ireland, Ierneſey or Garneſey, that bringeth any marchandiſes into this Realme, ſhall employ the money receiued for the ſame marchandiſe, (his reaſonable expences deduct) upon the commodities of this Land, or elſe without fraud put the ſame money in due payment within this Realme: the ſaid employment or payment to be proued, as is aforeſaid, vpon paine of forfeiture of the value of the marchandiſe ſo brought into this Land. And it is ordained by the ſaid authority, That euery Cuſtomer or Comptroller ſhall take ſufficient ſurety of euery of the ſaid Marchant, Victualler, or other ſtranger, to employ the value of the ſaid marchandiſes, or to put the ſame money for the marchandiſe receiued in due payment, his reaſonable expences alway deducted, vpon paine of forfeiture of the value of the ſaid marchandiſes, the one halfe of the ſaid forfeiture to the King, the other halfe to the party that will ſue for the ſame: This to beginne and take effect at the Feaſt of Chriſtmas next comming.

CAP. IX.

Free-men of London may carie their wares to any Faires or Markets.

Citizens and free-men of London may carry their wares to any fayres or markets.

ITem, It was ſhewed vnto the King our Soueraigne Lord, by a petition put vnto him in his ſaid Parliament, That now of late time the Maior and Aldermen and Citizens of the City of London haue made an Ordinance within the ſame Citie, vpon a great paine, that no man that is a free man or Citizen of the ſaid Citie, ſhall goe or come to any Faire or Market out of the ſame Citie of London with any manner of ware or marchandiſe, to ſell or to bartre, to this intent, that all buyers and marchants ſhould reſort to the ſaid Citie to buy their ware and marchandiſes of the ſaid Citizens and freemen of London aforeſaid, becauſe of their ſingular lucre and auaile: The King our Soueraigne Lord, in conſideration of the hurt likely to grow of and by the premiſſes, hath by the aduice and aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall and the Commons, in the ſaid Parliament aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, ordained, ſtabliſhed, and enacted, That euery freeman and Citizen of the ſaid Citie of London, that now is, or hereafter ſhall be, may lead, carry, and goe with his or their victuall, ware, or marchandiſe, whatſoeuer it be, at his or their liberty, to any Faire or Market that ſhall pleaſe him or them within this Realme of England: any Statute, Act, or Ordinance made or to be made within the ſaid City of London to the contrarie of the premiſſes notwithſtanding. And the ſaid Ordinance and Act made in the ſaid Citie ſhall be void and of none effect. And that no perſon of the ſaid Citie be hurt or preiudiced in loſing of his liberty and fraunchiſe within the ſaid Citie, or otherwiſe, by reaſon or occaſion of adnulling of the ſaid Ordinance and Act, or for not obeying to the effect of the ſame. And if any perſon be preiudiced in any wiſe, by occaſion of the ſame, he that putteth or cauſeth any perſon to ſuch preiudice, ſhall loſe and forfeit vnto the King xl.li. as often as he ſo doth. And he that will ſue for ſuch forfeiture, ſhall haue therefore an action of Debt againſt ſuch offendor, the King to haue execution of the one halfe, and he that ſueth, the other halfe. And in ſuch action the defendant be not admitted to wage his law.
